

DIGEST
OF
THE STATUTES,

A. D. 1224 to 1821.

VOL. II.

A

DIGEST

OF THE

PUBLIC GENERAL STATUTES,

FROM MAGNA CARTA, A.D. 1224-5, TO 1 & 2 GEO. 4. A.D. 1821, INCLUSIVE :

WITH AN

ANALYTICAL INDEX;

CHRONOLOGICAL TABLES OF STATUTES, AND SOVEREIGNS' REIGNS;

AND AN APPENDIX OF SCHEDULES AND FORMS.

BY

ROBERT PHILIP TYRWHITT AND THOMAS WILLIAM TYNDALE,

OF THE MIDDLE TEMPLE.

*" Quod si leges alie super alias accumulatae in tam vasta excreverint volumina, aut tantâ confusione laboraverint, ut eas de integro retractare, et in corpus sanum et habile redigere ex usu sit : id ante omnia agito," * * * * **

BACON DE AUGMENTIS SCIENTIARUM, Aphorism 49.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOL. II.

LONDON :

PRINTED BY A. STRAHAN,

LAW-PRINTER TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY;

FOR JOSEPH BUTTERWORTH AND SON, 43. FLEET-STREET;

J. COOKE, ORMOND-QUAY, DUBLIN; AND

T. CLARK, 8. PARLIAMENT-SQUARE, EDINBURGH.

1822.

PAINTERS.

1. Es. certain abuses and deceits used in painting, —3.
 a plasterer, shall use or set up the art of a painter, or a painter-stainer, in the city of London or suburbs, shall within such limits make any manner of work, or lay out or paintings, unless he be a servant or apprentice of a painter, has served as such apprentice for 7 years to a painter, upon pain to forfeit 5l., to go one moiety to H.M. and the other to the party suing in any of the courts of record, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoins, &c. id. s. 4.
3. The company of plasterers, or their servants or apprentices, may lay and use whiting, blacking, red lead, red oker, yellow oker, and russet mixed with size only, and not oil, id. s. 5.
4. No painter or painter's servant or apprentice shall have above 16d. by the day for laying of any flat colour mingled with size or oil, upon any timber, stone, iron, or lead, id. s. 6.

PALACE.

1. DECLARING THE limits of H.M.'s palace of Westminster, 28 H. 8. c. 12. (See also 33 H. 8. c. 12. ss. 23, 24. post, pl. 4.)
2. All the soil, ground, mansion, and buildings, and the park which H. M. lately bought of the archbishopric of York, and situate near the Abbey at Westminster, and all things therein builded, and also the soil of H. M.'s ancient palace, shall be H. M.'s whole palace at Westminster for ever, and shall extend as well within such soil and places as in the street leading from Charing Cross unto the Sanctuary Gate at Westminster, and in all the houses, lands, &c. on both sides thereof, from such Cross unto Westminster Hall, situate between the Thames on the east, and such park-wall on the west, and so through all the precincts of the old palace, id. s. 1.
3. And such palace shall enjoy within such limits all such like privileges, liberties, jurisdictions, and prerogatives, as to H. M.'s ancient palace belonged; and the old palace shall be deemed part of the new palace, saving to all persons and bodies, their heirs and successors, all right, rents, reversion, &c. as they might have by the premises or any parcel thereof, id. s. 2.
4. FOR MURDER AND MALICIOUS bloodshed within the court, 33 H. 8. c. 12.
5. All treasons, misprisions of treasons, murders, manslaughter, bloodsheds, and malicious killings, whereby blood is shed, which shall be done within any the palaces or houses of H. M., or other houses where H. M. shall happen to be demurrant, shall be tried and determined within any of H. M.'s palaces, or other such houses where he is abiding, as follows, viz. Before the lord great master or lord steward of H. M.'s household, and in his absence before the treasurer and comptroller thereof, and the steward of the Marshalsey, by virtue of their offices, without any commission; which steward of the Marshalsey shall be for ever assigned by writing under the seal of the lord great master or steward; and whether H. M. is removed from the palace or house where the offence was done, or not, before they be determined, yet such offences shall be tried and determined under this act, before H. M. and the officers of his household before named, or two of them, by inquisition and verdict of H. M. and his household servants in their check-roll as hereinafter expressed, and at such palace or house where H. M. shall be demurrant, id. s. 1.
6. And all returns of process, and all executions and judgments concerning the premises, shall be done by the officers, and in the form herein contained, (s. 2.) And all inquisitions on the view of persons slain within such palaces or houses shall be taken by the coroner of H. M.'s household, without adjoining any other coroner of the shire, by oath of 12 or more of the yeomen officers of H. M.'s household, returned by two clerks, comptrollers, the clerks of the checks and clerks-marshal, or one of them of the household to whom such coroner shall direct his precept, which coroner shall be appointed by the lord steward; and such coroner shall without delay certify under his seal, and the seals of those as shall be sworn before him, all such inquisitions, indictments, and offices, on view of all dead bodies slain within such palaces or houses, before the lord great master or steward, and in his absence before the treasurer, comptroller, and steward of the Marshalsey, or two of them, whereof such steward of the Marshalsey to be one; and such inquisitions and offices so certified shall be deemed as good in law as any inquisition taken on view of any dead body before the coroner of the shire, id. s. 3.
7. Such two clerks, comptrollers, clerks of the check, and clerks-marshal of H. M.'s household, or one of them, upon a precept to them to be made by the lord steward, or in his absence by the treasurer and comptroller of the household; and such steward of the Marshalsey, or two of them, whereof the steward of the Marshalsey to be one, shall summon and return the names of 24 persons, being yeomen officers of the household in such check roll, to enquire of such treasons, &c. before such lord steward, or in his absence before such treasurer, &c. who shall cause any number above 12 of such 24 persons so returned to enquire of such treasons, &c. within H. M.'s palaces or houses; and if any person is indicted by such jury so sworn, or by such inquisition of the coroner of such household so certified, that then the lord steward, or in his absence the treasurer, &c. shall arraign every such person according to the course of the common law, and shall forthwith, after issue joined between H. M. and prisoner, at the same day and place, or any other, in the pleasure of such lord steward, &c. make another precept to such clerks, comptrollers, &c. to summon and return one other jury of 24 persons, to appear before the lord steward, or in his absence the treasurer, &c. at a day and place, and under the pain therein to be limited, of the servants and gentlemen officers of H. M.'s chamber and household, which shall take wages by H. M.'s chequer roll; and such lord steward if present, or in his absence such treasurer, &c. before whom such jury is so returned, shall cause 12 of the same jury to be sworn, without any challenge to be had for the same, except for malice, truly to be tried between H. M. and the person so indicted of treasons, &c.; and if such person is found guilty, he shall have judgment of life and member, and suffer death, and forfeit all his manors, lands, goods, &c. as if found guilty of such offences by the order of the common law, without clergy or sanctuary; and if any person so arraigned is found guilty of malicious striking, whereby blood is shed, within such palaces or houses, he shall have judgment by the person before whom he is found guilty, to have his right hand stricken off, at such time and place as he shall appoint, the execution to be done by such person as the person trying the offender shall appoint, and shall also have judgment of perpetual imprisonment, and pay fine to H. M. at his pleasure, 33 H. 8. c. 12. ss. 4—7.

8. For the solemn execution of such sentence for such malicious striking, the following persons shall be present, viz.: The serjeant surgeon or his deputy shall be ready at the execution to sear the stump when the hand is stricken off, (s. 8.) The serjeant of the pantry to give bread to the party, (s. 9.) The serjeant of the cellar with a pot of red wine, to give him drink, (s. 10.) The serjeant of the ewry with cloths for the surgeon to occupy, (s. 11.) The yeoman of the chandry shall have scared cloths for the surgeon, (s. 12.) The master cook shall bring a dressing-knife and deliver it to the serjeant of the larder, who shall hold it upright till the execution be done, (s. 13.) The serjeant of the poultry shall be ready with a cock for the surgeon to wrap about the stump, (s. 14.) The yeoman of the scullery to make a fire of coals, and make ready searing irons, (s. 15.) The serjeant serror shall bring the searing-irons, (s. 16.) The groom of the salcery shall be ready with vinegar and cold water, (s. 17.) The serjeant of the wood-yard shall bring a block with a betil, a staple, and cords to bind the hand, id. s. 18.

9. If any person so indicted of treason, &c. or malicious striking, shall be arraigned thereof, and refuse to answer to such offences, or if he shall stand mute, he shall be deemed guilty of the thing whereof indicted and arraigned, and have judgment of like pains and forfeitures, as if found guilty by verdict; and the clerks comptrollers, clerks of the check, and clerks marshal may assign a crier to make proclamation and call juries, &c. id. s. 19.

10. This act shall not extend to noblemen or other persons who shall happen to strike their servants within such palaces and houses, or within the limits of the same, with their fists, or any small staff; nor to any of H. M.'s officers who shall strike any person within the same palace or house, although thereby blood be shed, unless the party shall happen to die thereof within one year afterwards; provided that the trial of peers for offences herein mentioned shall be had as in times past, id. s. 20. [See s. 26.]

11. The liberty and jurisdiction of the Marshalsey court, and circuit of the verge, shall be in all points used by the officers of the same, as hath been heretofore lawfully used for murders, felonies, offences, and all trespasses, contracts, and suits, (s. 21.); and the lord steward shall nominate the coroner of the household, id. s. 21, 22.

12. The limits and bounds of any such houses within which any of such offences shall be punished as aforesaid, shall extend as follows, and no more, viz. within any edifices, courts, places, gardens, orchards, or houses within the porter's ward of any of such houses, or within any priory, walks, orchards, tilt-yards, wood-yards, fencing-plays, cock-fights, bowling-alleys, near adjoining to such houses, and being part of the same, or within 200 feet of the standard of any outward gate of such houses, used as a passage out of such house, id. ss. 23, 24. [See ante, pl. 2, 5.]

13. Nothing in this act concerning malicious striking shall extend to any noblemen or other person who shall strike his servant within such houses, as in s. 20. pl. 10., nor to any of H. M.'s officers, who, in ing his office, shall strike any person within such houses with their fists or a tipstaff, nor to any other person doing service at any triumph, or at any other service, who shall strike any person within such houses, although blood be thereby shed, except the person stricken do die of the same within one year, 35 H. 8. c. 12. s. 26.

14. If any person who shall steal, or feloniously take away, any plate, jewels, or other goods of H. M., of the value of 12d. or above, or who shall break or enter into H. M.'s house to the intent to steal, though H. M. be absent, or any other house, such offence shall be felony, and the offenders and their aiders, &c. shall suffer like forfeiture and death as felons without clergy; and such offenders, being apprehended within the verge of H. M.'s house, shall be arraigned and tried by men of the country as other offenders, for offences done within the verge, before the steward of the Marshalsey, and his associates are to be tried within the same precinct, id. s. 27. [QU. REP. see 1 E. G. c. 12. s. 4., & 1 M. st. 1. c. 1. FELON, &c.]

PAPER MANUFACTORY.

1. To PREVENT unlawful combinations of workmen employed in the paper manufactory, 36 G. 3. c. 111. PUBLIC clause, s. 12.

2. All contracts, covenants, and agreements whatever, whether in writing or not, heretofore made or entered into by or between any journeymen paper-makers within this kingdom, for obtaining an advance of wages of them or of any other journeymen, or for lessening their usual hours or quantity of work, or for hindering any person from employing whomsoever he shall think proper in his business of a paper-maker, or in any way to affect any person carrying on such trade, shall be declared illegal and void, id. s. 1.

3. Every journeyman paper-maker or other person who shall hereafter enter or agree to enter into, or be concerned in making any contract, whether in writing or not, in support of or relative to any such combination, as in s. 1., shall, on conviction by oath of one witness, before one justice for the county, riding, city, town, or place where such offence was committed, on any information to be exhibited in writing within one month after the offence committed, by order of such justice, at his discretion, be committed to the house of correction within his jurisdiction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding two calendar months, id. s. 2.

4. The time of working by journeymen at the vat upon all fine wove and plate papers, if the master so requires, shall be half an hour about each post, 20 of which posts shall make a day's work, and the dry worker upon all such fine papers, if the master so requires, shall work 12 hours per day, allowing an interval of an hour for refreshment, id. s. 3.

5. Every journeyman paper-maker who shall enter into any combination to raise such wages, or alter the hours or duration of work, or for any other purpose contrary to this act, or who shall, by giving money or other means, directly or indirectly, solicit, intimidate, or endeavour to prevent any unhired journeyman or other person wanting employment in the manufactory of paper from hiring himself to any paper manufacturer, or shall by any means solicit, intimidate, influence, prevail, or attempt to prevail on any journeyman paper-maker, hired or employed, or to be hired, &c. in such manufacture, to quit his service, or shall proscribe or prevent, or attempt so to do, any master or mistress in such act, from employing whomsoever he or she shall think proper in such manufacture, or being employed, shall refuse to work with any person so employed by such master, &c. and shall be thereof convicted on the oath of one witness, before one justice of peace for the district or jurisdiction where such offence is committed, shall be committed to the house of correction in the county or place, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding two calendar months, id. s. 4.

6. Every person, whether employed in such trade or not, who shall attend any meeting or combination by this act declared illegal, or shall summons, give notice to, or call on any journeyman paper-maker, or other person employed in such trade, to attend any such unlawful meeting, &c. or who shall collect, demand, or receive any sum from any journeyman paper-maker, or other person employed in such trade, for any such purposes, or who shall persuade, entice, or intimidate any such journeyman or person to enter into or be concerned in any such meeting, &c. or to turn out against or quit the service of his master or mistress, and every person who shall pay any sum, or make or enter into any subscription for or towards the support or encouragement of any such illegal meeting, &c. and is thereof convicted before one justice of peace of the county, &c. wherein such offence was committed, on oath of one witness shall be committed to the house of correction or common goal for such county, &c. at the discretion of such justice, without bail, for not exceeding two calendar months, id. s. 5.

7. All persons who offend against this act, shall equally with all other persons be called on and compelled to give evidence as witnesses on any information exhibited under this act on behalf of the prosecutor; and in all such cases he or she, having given such evidence, shall be indemnified any information to be laid, or prosecution to be commenced, against him or her, for having offended in the matter wherein such prosecution or information relative to which he gave evidence was brought, 36 G. 3. c. 111. s. 6.

8. On complaint made on oath to any justice of peace of any offence against this act, such justice shall issue his summons to summon the party charged, and also any witnesses for either party, at a certain time and place therein to be specified; and if any one summoned shall not appear or offer some reasonable excuse for default, then such justice shall issue his warrant to apprehend such party so making default within such justice's jurisdiction, and on such party appearing or being brought before such justice on his warrant, or in case the party charged shall not appear to such summons being served on him, or left at his usual abode, and proof is made thereof by oath before such justice, then such justice shall proceed to enquire of the matters complained of, and to examine into the same by oath of any person, and to determine the matter, and on confession or proof by one witness on oath, to acquit or convict the party charged; and if any person so summoned to appear as a witness shall not appear at the time and place in the summons appointed, and give his evidence, such justice may issue his warrant under his hand and seal for the commitment of such person to some prison of the county, &c. where such witness shall so make default, there to remain till he shall submit to be examined as a witness, id. s. 7.

9. The justice convicting any party as herein prescribed, shall draw up the conviction in the form or to the effect following; viz.

'Be it remembered that on this — day of — in the — year of H. M.'s reign, A B is convicted before — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county of — [or for the riding or division, city, liberty, town, or place, as the case is] for — and — the said — do hereby order and adjudge him [or her] to be committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for the space of — or until he or she shall submit to be examined (as the case may be), without bail or mainprize. Given under the day and year aforesaid.' and then to be written on parchment, and transmitted to the next quarter sessions held for the county, &c. wherein such conviction was held to be filed of record; and in case any person so convicted shall appeal, as in s. 10. from the judgment of such justice to such sessions, the justices there shall, on receiving such conviction, hear and determine the matter of such appeal according to this act, and no certiorari shall be granted to remove any conviction or proceeding had thereon under this act, id. s. 8.

10. In all cases where any information authorized by this act to be made before one justice, is made on oath of the informer, to be taken by such justice, such justice may issue his warrant under hand and seal, grounded on such information, for the apprehension and bringing of the person alleged to have so offended before him, or any justice of the same county, without any previous summons being issued, instead of issuing such summons for his appearance to answer to such information, id. s. 9.

11. Every person convicted of any offence under this act may appeal from the judgment of such justice at the time of his conviction to the then next quarter sessions, which shall be held for the county, &c. where such judgment was given, and the execution of such judgment shall in such case be suspended, the person so convicted entering into recognizances at the time of his conviction, with two sureties in 20l. each, upon condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment and determination of such sessions, and to pay such costs as shall be there awarded, which recognizance such convicting justice shall take, and the justices at such sessions shall hear and determine such appeal, and award reasonable costs to either party, which decision shall be final; and if, on hearing such appeal, the judgment of such justice shall be confirmed, such appellant shall immediately pay the costs awarded by the sessions for defraying the expences of the defendant in such appeal, and shall be committed by such sessions to the house of correction to be kept to hard labour, or to the common gaol, as shall be mentioned in the conviction, for two calendar months, or any less time in the conviction mentioned, without bail, and until such costs are paid, id. s. 10.

12. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within six calendar months after the thing done, and shall be laid in the proper county, and the defendant therein may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinued, or has judgment given against him on demurrer or otherwise, the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 11.

PAPIST.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR EXTINGUISHING the authority of the bishop of Rome, 28 H. 8. c. 10. [REP. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. and 1 El. c. 1. s. 13.]

2. FOR REPEALING all statutes, articles, and provisions made against the see apostolic of Rome, since 20 H. 8., and for the establishment of all spiritual and ecclesiastical possessions and hereditaments conveyed to the laity, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. [REP. (all but s. 40.) by 1 El. c. 1. ss. 2, 32. See s. 40. PRÆMUNIRE.]

3. To OBLIGE PAPISTS to register their names and real estates, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 55. [Exp. the time for such registering ENLARGED, and purchases made by protestants increased, 3 G. 1. c. 18. which is EXPL. 21 G. 3. c. 51. and all REV. 31 G. 3. c. 22. s. 21.]

4. For assisting AN aid to H. M. by laying a tax upon papists, and for making such persons as upon due summons shall refuse or neglect to take the oaths therein mentioned, to contribute towards the said tax for contributing to the public part of the great expences occasioned by the late conspiracies, and for discharging the estates of papists from the two last parts of the rents and profits thereof for one year, and all arrears of the same, and from such forfeitures as are therein more particularly described, 9 G. 1. c. 18. EXP.

5. To OBLIGE ALL persons being papists in Scot., and all persons in G. B. refusing or neglecting to take the oaths appointed for the security of H. M.'s government, to register their names and real estates, 9 G. 1. c. 24. EXP.

6. To explain and amend 9 G. 1. c. 24., and for enlarging the time for taking the said oaths and making such registers, and for allowing further time for the enrolment of deeds or wills made by Papists which have been omitted to be enrolled pursuant to the 3 G. 1. c. 18. and also for giving relief to protestant lessees, 10 G. 1. c. 4. EXP.

7. FOR ALLOWING FURTHER time for enrolment of deeds and wills made by papists, and for relief of protestant purchasers, devisees, and lessees, 3 G. 2. c. 20. ss. 6, 7., 6 G. 2. c. 5., 9 G. 2. c. 26. ss. 8, 9., 11 G. 2. c. 11., 12 G. 2. c. 14., 16 G. 2. c. 32., 19 G. 2. c. 16., 26 G. 2. c. 24., 28 G. 2. c. 10., 31 G. 2. c. 21., 33 G. 2. c. 13., 2 G. 3. c. 26., 4 G. 3. c. 58., 7 G. 3. c. 34., 12 G. 3. c. 10., 14 G. 3. c. 37., 17 G. 3. c. 45., 18 G. 3. c. 46., 22 G. 3. c. 23., 23 G. 3. c. 22., 24 G. 3. S. 1. c. 16., 27 G. 3. c. 42., 28 G. 3. c. 47., 29 G. 3. c. 36., 30 G. 3. c. 19., 35 G. 3. c. 99., all EXP.

8. To INDEMNIFY protestant purchasers of estates of papists against the penalties or forfeitures papists are liable to, for not having enrolled their estates in pursuance of 3 G. 1. c. 18. for that purpose, 8 G. 2. c. 25. 14 G. 2. c. 21., both EXP.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO PERSON of this realm, or any of H. M.'s dominions, shall pay any pensions, leases, portions, peters-pence, or other impositions, to the use of the bishop or see of Rome, but all such portions, &c. shall cease, 25 H. 8. c. 21. s. 2. [REV. 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. but REV. 1 EL. c. 1.]

2. FOR THE ASSURANCE of H. M.'s royal power over all estates and subjects within her dominions, [viz. by making it a præmunire to maintain the power of the pope in this country] 5 EL. c. 1. and s. 1. [ss. 2—4. 10 EL. 19. 23.] and 23 EL. c. 1. s. 8. [See the rest of this act, viz. ss. 5—17., OATHS, ss. 21, 22., PRÆMUNIRE.]

3. If any person dwelling within H. M. dominions, shall, by writing, cyphering, printing, preaching, teaching, or act, advisedly and wittingly hold, maintain, or defend the power of the bishop of Rome heretofore used within this realm, or attribute the same to him, such persons, and their abettors, counsellors, and comforters, upon purpose to further such usurped power, shall, on being indicted thereof within one year after such offences committed, and being convicted within any time, incur the penalties of the 16 R. 2. c. 5. for provision and præmunire, id. s. 2.

4. As well all justices of assize as of the peace, or two of such justices of peace, whereof one is of the quorum, shall in their sessions enquire of all offences contrary to the premises, in like form as they may of any other offences against H. M.'s peace, and shall certify every presentment before them had concerning the same, before the justices of K. B., within 40 days next after such presentment had, if the term be then open, and if not, at the first day of full term next following such 40 days, on pain that every justice of assize or of the peace, before whom such presentment is made, making default of such certificate, shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M., id. s. 5.

5. The justices of K. B., as well in every such certificate as by enquiry before themselves, shall hear and determine every such offence contrary hereto according to law, in such form as if the persons against whom any presentment is had on this statute, had been presented on any offence in 16 R. 2. c. 5. contained, id. s. 4.

6. If any such offenders, as in s. 2., after such conviction, do afterwards commit such offences, and be thereof convicted (s. 10.) they shall for such second offences, suffer as in cases of high treason, id. s. 10, 11.

7. But no such attainder shall work corruption of blood or disherison of heir. And this act shall be publicly read in the quarter sessions, and in the halls of Inns of court, id. ss. 19, 15. 15. [See the sections at length, OATHS.]

8. Charitable giving of alms to such offenders without fraud, shall not be such an abatement, aiding, or comforting, as thereby the giver shall incur any penalty, id. s. 18.

9. If any peer offend contrary to this act, he shall be tried by his peers as in cases of treasons, id. s. 19.

10. No person shall be indicted for assisting, comforting, or abetting any person for any of such offences, in defending &c. the usurped power of the bishops of Rome, unless he is lawfully accused by such good proof as by the jury which shall indict him, is deemed sufficient to prove him guilty of such offences, 5 EL. c. 1. s. 26.

11. Offences against 5 EL. c. 1. touching the acknowledging of H. M.'s government in causes ecclesiastical and the service of God, may be inquired of as well before justices of peace as other justices therein named, within a year and a day after the offence committed, 23 EL. c. 1. s. 8.

12. AGAINST THE BRINGING in and putting in execution of bulls and other instruments from the see of Rome, 13 EL. c. 2. and recital in s. 1. [AMD. 23 EL. c. 1. s. 8.]

13. If any person shall use within H. M.'s dominions any bull, writing, or instrument of absolution or reconciliation obtained from the bishop of Rome, or from any person claiming authority from him, or if any person shall take upon him by colour of any such bull, &c. to absolve or reconcile any person, or to grant or promise to any person within H. M.'s dominions, any such absolution, &c. by any speech, preaching, teaching, or writing, or other open deed, or if any person within this realm shall unlawfully receive such absolution, &c. (s. 2.) or else if any person shall obtain from the see of Rome any manner of bull, &c., or shall publish or put in use the same, then all such acts and offences shall be deemed high treason, and the offenders and their procurers, abettors, and counsellors, shall be adjudged high traitors, and being thereof indicted and attained, shall suffer death, and forfeit their lands, tenements, and goods, as in cases of high treason, id. ss. 2, 3.

14. All aiders, comforters, or maintainers of such offenders after the fact, to the intent to uphold the doing of such usurped authority, shall incur the pains in the statute of præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5. mentioned, id. s. 4.

15. If any person to whom any such absolution, reconciliation, bull, &c. is offered, shall conceal such offer, and not disclose the same within six weeks after to the privy council, he shall incur the penalty of misprision of high treason, id. s. 5.

16. No person shall be molested for misprision of treason for any offence declared treason by this act, other than those declared in s. 5. to be in case of misprision of high treason, id. s. 6.

17. If any person shall bring into Eng., or any of the dominions of the same, any token called an Agnus Dei, or any crosses, pictures, beads, or such like vain things from the see of Rome, or from any claiming authority from such see, to consecrate or hallow the same [which have been usually consecrated by such bishop, and such crosses, &c. by persons authorized by him; and divers pardons, immunities, and exemptions granted by such see to those who receive the same,] and if any person so bringing such Agnus Dei, &c., shall offer the same to any subject of this realm, to be worn or used, then as well the person so doing as the person who shall receive the same, shall, on conviction, incur the pains by the stat. of præmunire, 16 R. 2. c. 5. provided, id. s. 7.

18. If any person to whom any such Agnus Dei, &c. is tendered, shall apprehend the party so tendering, and bring him before a justice of peace for that shire where the tender was made, if he has power so to do, or for lack of such ability shall, within 3 days after such offer made, disclose the name of such person as shall make such offer, and the dwelling-place, or place of resort of the same person (which he shall endeavour to know by all the means he can), to the ordinary of that diocese, or to any justice of peace where such person to whom such offer was made shall be resident; and also if such person shall receive any such Agnus Dei, &c., and shall within 1 day after such receipt, deliver the same to any justice of peace, such person shall not incur any penalty, id. s. 8.

19. If any justice of peace to whom any matter before mentioned is showed, do not within 14 days after declare the same to some of the privy council, such justice shall incur the pain by 16 R. 2. c. 5. provided, id. s. 10.

20. If any peer shall be indicted for any such offences, he shall have his trial by his peers, as in cases of high treason and misprision of treason, id. s. 11.

21. General saving to all persons (other than the offenders and their heirs, and such as claim to their uses) all rights, &c. leases, rents, offices, fees, &c. as any of them had at the time of the committing of such offences, id. s. 12.

22. Every offence against 13 EL. c. 2. touching the acknowledging H. M.'s government in causes ecclesiastical and the service of God, may be inquired of as well before justices of peace as other justices, within one year and a day after the offence committed (s. 8.), and conveyances of any property that may defeat H. M. of any interest that may grow by this act shall be void, 23 EL. c. 1. s. 13.

23. To RETAIN H. M.'s subjects in their due obedience, [by declaring it high treason to attempt to withdraw any person from his allegiance, or to reconcile him to the see of Rome, and imposing penalties for non-attendance at church, or for inducing others to abstain therefrom.] 23 El. c. 1. and s. 1., Ann. 29 El. c. 6.; 25 El. c. 1. (which is Con. 5 C. 1. c. 4., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4., and Rep. as to s. 8. 9. by 5 J. 1. c. 4. s. 21., 29 30. 31.)

24. All persons which have or pretend to have power, or shall by any means practise, to absolve, persuade, or withdraw any of H. M.'s subjects from their natural obedience, or to withdraw them for that intent from the established to the Romish religion, or to move them to promise any obedience to any pretended authority of the see of Rome, or of any other prince, state, or potentate, to be used within her dominions, or shall do any overt act to that intent, shall be deemed traitors, and on conviction shall have judgment, suffer and forfeit as in cases of high treason; and if any persons shall by any means be willingly absolved, or so withdrawn or willingly reconciled, or shall promise any obedience to any such pretended authority as aforesaid, then they and their procurers and counsellors, on conviction, shall be tried and judged, and suffer and forfeit as in cases of high treason, 23 El. c. 1. s. 2., [see further, 3 J. 1. c. 4. s. 22. pl. 112.]

25. All persons that shall wittingly be aiders or maintainers of such persons, or offending knowing the same, or which shall conceal any such offence, and shall not within 20 days at furthest after such their knowledge, disclose the same to some justice of peace or other higher officer, shall be taken, tried, and judged, and suffer and forfeit as offenders in misprision of treason, id. s. 5.

26. Every person which shall say or sing mass, being thereof convicted, shall forfeit 200 marks, and be committed to the next gaol for one year, and till he has paid such sum; and every person which shall willingly hear mass, shall forfeit 100 marks, and suffer imprisonment for a year, id. s. 4. [but see now 31 G. 3. c. 52. s. 4.]

27. Every person above the age of 16, which shall not repair to some church, chapel, or usual place of common prayer, but forbears the same, contrary to the statute, 1 El. c. 2. s. 14. For uniformity, being thereof convicted, shall forfeit to H. M. for every month, 20*l.*; and every person so forbearing for 12 months, shall for his obstinacy, after certificate made into the K. B. by the ordinary of the diocese, a justice of assize and gaol delivery, or a justice of peace, be bound with two sureties in 200*l.* at least to the good behaviour, and so continue bound until they conform themselves, and come to church, according to such statute, id. s. 5. [see further, 5 J. 1. c. 4. s. 11. post, pl. 112., and 51 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5.]

28. If any person shall keep any schoolmaster which shall not repair to church, or be allowed by the ordinary, he shall forfeit for every month 10*l.*, id. s. 6.

29. Provided that no ordinary, or their ministers, shall take any thing for such allowance. And such school-master presuming to teach contrary to this act, and being thereof convict, shall be disabled to be a teacher of youth, and shall suffer imprisonment one year, id. s. 7.

30. All offences against this act, or against 1 El. c. 2. 5 El. c. 2. or 15 El. c. 2. touching acknowledging of H. M.'s supreme government in causes ecclesiastical, or the service of God, or coming to church, or establishment of true religion, shall be inquirable, as well before justices of peace as other justices in such statutes named, within one year and a day after such offence committed, id. s. 8.

31. Justices of oyer and terminer, of assize, and gaol delivery, shall inquire, or hear and determine, all offences against this statute; and justices of peace in their quarter sessions shall inquire, or hear, and determine, all offences against this act, except treason and misprision of treason, id. s. 9.

32. Every person guilty of any offence against this statute, other than treason and misprision of treason, which shall before he be indicted, or at his arraignment or trial before judgment, submit and conform himself before the bishop of the diocese where he resides, or before the justices where he is arraigned (having not before made like submission, being indicted for his first like offence) shall, upon his recognition of such submission in open assizes or sessions, be discharged of all offences against this act, except treason and misprision of treason, and of all pains and forfeitures for the same, id. s. 10.

33. All forfeitures of money limited by this act shall be divided in three parts, whereof one shall be to H. M. to her own use, one other to H. M. for relief of the poor in the parish where the offence was done, to be delivered by warrant of the principal officers in the receipt of the exchequer, and the other third to such person as will sue for the same in any court of record, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no espoins, &c.; and every person which shall forfeit any money by this act, and shall not pay the same within three months after judgment given, shall be committed to prison until he have paid such sums, or conform himself or go to church, id. s. 11. [See 29 El. c. 6. s. 7. post, pl. 43.]

34. Every person which usually on the Sunday shall have in his house divine service established by law, and be thereat usually present, and shall not obstinately refuse to come to church, and shall also four times in the year be present at divine service in the church of the parish, or in some other church or chapel of ease, shall not incur any penalty by this act for not repairing to church, id. s. 12.

35. Every grant, conveyance, bond, judgment, and execution, had or to be made for any ruinous purpose to defraud any interest that might grow to H. M., or another person, by means of any contention under this statute, or the 15 El. c. 2. shall be utterly void against H. M., and such as sue for such penalties, 23 El. c. 1. s. 13.

36. If any peer of this realm shall happen to be indicted of any offence made treason or misprision of treason by this act, he shall have his trial by his peers, as in other like cases, id. s. 14.

37. Nothing herein shall take away or abridge the authority or jurisdiction of ecclesiastical censures for any cause, but that the ecclesiastical judges may proceed as heretofore, id. s. 15.

38. Every conveyance of lands made by any person who shall not repair to church contrary to the statute 23 El. c. 1., and which shall be revocable at the pleasure of such offender, or intended for the behoof or disposition of such offender, or whereby such offender or his family shall be maintained, shall be void, as against H. M. for levying of such sums as such person ought to forfeit for not going to church, or for saying, or hearing, or being at mass, and shall also be seised for H. M.'s use, 29 El. c. 6. s. 1.

39. Every conviction for any offence before mentioned shall be in the K. B., or at the assizes or general gaol delivery, and shall be estreated into the court of exchequer before the end of the term next ensuing, in such time that execution may issue, id. s. 2.

40. Every such offender, in not repairing to divine service, as shall be once convicted thereof, shall, in such of the terms of Easter or Michaelmas as shall be next after such conviction, pay into the receipt of the exchequer 20*l.* for every month contained in the indictment whereon the conviction was had; and shall also for every month after such conviction, without any other indictment or conviction, pay into such exchequer in every Easter and Michaelmas term, as much as shall remain unpaid after the rate of 20*l.* for each month after conviction; and if default be made in any such payment, H. M. may by process out of the exchequer seize all the goods, and two parts, as well of the land, &c., leases and farms of such offender as of all other lands, &c. liable to such seizure or penalties, leaving the third part of the lands, leases, and farms, for the maintenance of the offender and his family, id. s. 4. [see 1 J. 1. c. 4. s. 5. pl. 88., 3 J. 1. c. 4. s. 11. pl. 112.]

41. The indictment mentioning the not coming of such offender to the church of the parish where such person at any time before such indictment did reside, nor to any other church, or usual place, of common prayer, shall be sufficient; and it shall not be needful to mention therein that the offender was inhabiting within H. M.'s dominions; but if such offender was not within H. M.'s dominions, he shall be relieved by plea, and not otherwise. And upon the indictment a proclamation shall be made at the same assizes or gaol delivery, in which the indictment is taken, (if the same be taken at any assize, &c.) by which it shall be commanded, that the body of such offender be rendered to the sheriff before the next assizes, &c.; and if at such next assizes, &c. such offender shall not make appearance, upon such default recorded, the same shall be as sufficient conviction, id. s. 5.

42. Provided that whensoever any such offender shall make submission, and become conformable, according to 23 El. c. 1. s. 10. pl. 32. or shall die, no forfeiture or seizure of the lands after such submission, conformity, or death, and satisfaction of all arrearages of 20*l.* monthly, shall ensue, so long as he so conforms, id. s. 6.

43. The lord-treasurer, chancellor, and chief baron, or two of them, may dispose of the third part of the 20*l.* for every month, for not going to divine service, given by 23 El. c. 1. s. 11. pl. 33., for the maintenance as well of the poor, and of the houses of correction, as of impotent and maimed soldiers, id. s. 7.

44. This act shall not make void any grant or lease to be made without coven, whereupon the accustomed yearly rent is reserved, or any other conveyance whatsoever made bona fide on good consideration, and which is not revocable at the pleasure of the offender, otherwise than to give title to H. M. to have such rents, during such lease and grant, id. s. 8.

45. This act shall not continue any seizure of any lands of such offender in H. M.'s hands after the offender's death, which lands he shall be seized of only for his life, or in right of his wife, id. s. 9.

46. If any persons above 16 years of age shall refuse to repair to some church, chapel, or usual place of common prayer to hear divine service, according to law, and shall forbear to do the same for the space of a month, without any lawful cause, [or,] shall, by printing, writing, or express words, advisedly practise, or go about to persuade any other, to deny and impugn H. M.'s authority in cases ecclesiastical annexed to the imperial crown of this realm, or to that end shall advisedly and maliciously move any other person to forbear coming to church to hear divine service, or receive the communion according to law, or to be present at any unlawful conventicles or meetings under colour of any exercise of religion contrary to law; or if any person which shall obstinately refuse to repair to some church or usual place of common prayer, and shall forbear for a month to hear divine service, shall willingly be present at such conventicles or meetings under colour of such exercise of religion contrary to laws, every person so offending, and being thereof convicted, shall be committed to prison until they conform and yield themselves to some church, or usual place of common prayer, and hear divine service according to law, and make such open submission and declaration of their conformity as in s. 4. appointed, 35 El. c. 1. s. 1.

47. If any such persons so offending, shall not, within three months after conviction, conform themselves to the laws in coming to church to hear divine service, and in making such public confession and submission as in s. 4. being required by the bishop of the diocese, or any justice of peace where such person is, or by the minister or curate of the parish, such offender being thereunto required by any such justice, shall, upon oath before the quarter sessions of such county, or at the assizes and gaol delivery, abjure this realm and all H. M.'s dominions for ever, unless H. M. shall license the party to return; and thereupon depart out of this realm at such port and within such time as shall be assigned by such justices, unless he be staid by such lawful means as by common law is allowed in cases of abjuration for felony; and in such cases, then within such time after as the common law requireth in case of abjuration for felony; and the justices of peace before whom such abjuration is made, shall cause the same to be entered of record, and certify the same to the justices of assize, at the next assizes or gaol delivery for the county, id. s. 2.

48. If any such offender refuse to make such abjuration, or shall not, after such abjuration made, go to such haven, and within such time as is appointed, and from thence depart out of this realm, or shall return into H. M.'s dominions, without her licence, he shall be adjudged a felon, and suffer as in cases of felony, without clergy, id. s. 3. [See punishment of abjuration of the realm for a papist wandering from his place of his residence, 35 El. c. 2. s. 8. post. pl. 74.]

49. If any person that shall offend against this act shall, before he is required to make abjuration, repair to some parish church on some Sunday or other festival, and hear divine service and at service time before the sermon or reading of the gospel, make public submission and declaration of his conformity to the laws as in s. 5. appointed, the same offender shall be discharged of all such penalties by this act inflicted, id. s. 4.

50. Such submission shall be as follows: viz.

I A. B. do humbly confess and acknowledge that I have grievously offended God in contemning H. M.'s godly and lawful government and authority, by absenting myself from church and from hearing divine service, contrary to the godly law and statutes of this realm, and in using and frequenting disordered and unlawful conventicles and assemblies, under pretence and colour of exercise of religion, and I am heartily sorry for the same, and do acknowledge and testify in my conscience, that no other person hath or ought to have any power or authority over H. M. And I do promise and protest without dissimulation or any colour or means of any dispensation, that from henceforth I will from time to time obey and perform H. M.'s laws and statutes in repairing to church, and hearing divine service, and do my uttermost endeavour to defend the same, id. s. 5.

51. Every minister or curate of every parish where such submission is made shall enter the same in a book, and within ten days next following certify the same to the bishop of that diocese, id. s. 6.

52. If any such offender, after such submission made, fall into relapse, or obstinately refuse to repair to church, and shall forbear the same as aforesaid, or shall be present at any such conventicles or meetings, under pretence of exercise of religion contrary to law, shall lose all benefit of such submission, and be in like condition as if it had not been made, id. s. 7.

53. All the pains and forfeitures and payments by this act imposed, may be recovered and levied to the use of H. M. by action of debt, &c., or information or otherwise in the courts of K. B., C. P., and exchequer, as any other debt due by any person in other case may be, wherein no essoin, &c. (s. 10.); and the third part thereof shall be employed in such charitable uses and in such manner as by 29 El. c. 6. s. 19. is limited, id. s. 10. 11.

54. Provided no popish recusant or feme-covert be compelled to abjure by this act, id. s. 12.

55. Every person that shall abjure by force of this act or refuse to abjure on being required, shall forfeit to H. M. all his goods for ever, and shall lose all his lands, tenements, &c. during the life of such offender; and the wife of any offender under this act shall not lose her dower, nor shall any corruption of blood grow by reason of any offence mentioned in this act; but the heir of such offender may employ such lands, &c., as if this act had not been made, id. s. 13.

56. AGAINST JESUITS, SEMINARY PRIESTS, and such other like disobedient persons, 27 El. c. 2. and s. 1. [see 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 4.]

57. No Jesuit, seminary priest, or other priest, deacon, or religious, or ecclesiastical person, being born within H. M.'s dominions, and ordained or professed by any authority from the see of Rome, shall come into or remain in H. M.'s dominions, other than in cases expressed in this act; and if he do, such offence shall be high treason, and such offenders shall be deemed traitors, and suffer, &c. as in cases of high treason, 27 El. c. 2. s. 2.

58. Every person who shall wittingly and willingly receive, comfort, aid, or maintain any such Jesuit, &c. being at liberty, knowing him to be such, shall be adjudged a felon without clergy, and suffer death and forfeiture as in cases of felony, id. s. 4.

59. If any of H. M.'s subjects (not being a Jesuit, &c.), which shall be of or brought up in any college of Jesuits or seminary beyond the seas, shall not within 6 months after proclamation made in London, under the great seal, return into this realm, and within 9 days after such return, before the bishop of the diocese, or two justices of peace of the county where he shall arrive, submit himself to H. M., and take the oath (of supremacy) set forth in 1 El. c. 1., every such person which shall otherwise return shall suffer as in case of high treason, id. s. 5.

60. If any person under H. M.'s obedience shall by any means willingly convey out of H. M.'s dominions into any foreign parts, or willingly give or contribute any money or other relief for any Jesuit, &c., or for the maintenance or relief of any college of Jesuits or seminary beyond the seas, or of any person in the same, and not returned with submission, every person so offending shall incur the penalty of præmunire in the 16 R. 2. c. 5. mentioned, id. s. 6. [See 3 C. 1. c. 2. s. 1.]

61. Every offence against this act may be inquired of, heard, and determined, as well in the K. B. as in the county, or any other H. M.'s dominions where the offence is committed, or the offender taken, id. s. 8.

62. This act shall not extend to any such Jesuit, &c. as shall within 3 days after he shall come into this realm, submit himself to some bishop, or justice of peace within the county where he shall arrive, and before such bishop, &c. take the oath (of supremacy) set forth in 1 El. c. 1., and under his hand acknowledge and continue his due obedience to H. M.'s laws in causes of religion, id. s. 10.

63. If any peer be indicted of any offence made treason, felony, or præmunire by this act, he shall have his trial by his peers, id. s. 11.

64. Every subject of this realm, which shall know that any such Jesuit or other priest abovesaid shall be within this realm contrary to this act, and shall not discover the same to some justice of peace, or other higher officer, within 12 days, but willingly conceal his knowledge therein, shall make fine, and be imprisoned at H. M.'s pleasure. And if such justice of peace, or other officer, to whom such matter is discovered, do not, within 28 days, give information thereof to some of the privy council, he shall forfeit 200 marks, id. s. 13.

65. Such of the privy council to whom such information is made, shall thereupon deliver a note in writing, signed with his own hand, to the party by whom he shall receive such information, testifying that such information was made to him, id. s. 14.

66. All oaths and submissions made by force of this act shall be certified into the chancery, by such parties before whom the same is made, within 3 months after such submission, upon pain to forfeit 100*l.* to the queen, id. s. 15.

67. If any person so submitting do within 10 years after such submission, come within 10 miles of such place where H. M. shall be, without special licence from H. M., under her hand, such person shall take no benefit of his submission, but the same shall be void, id. s. 16. [See further as to recusants convert coming into H. M.'s presence, 5 J. 1. c. 5. s. 2. pl. 138.]

68. FOR RESTRAINING POPISH REOUSANTS to some certain place of abode, 35 El. c. 2. [CONF. and REP. as to licence to travel above 5 miles in s. 12., 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 6., and other provisions, post.] [See further on this point 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 4. pl. 134.]

69. Every person above the age of 16, born within H. M.'s dominions, or made denizen, and having any certain place of abode within this realm, which being a popish recusant shall be convicted for not repairing to church, &c. and being within this realm, shall within 40 days after conviction (if they be not restrained by imprisonment, or by H. M. command, or by order of six of the privy council, or by sickness, and in such cases 20 days after they shall be enlarged, and shall be able to travel) repair to their place of abode, and shall not at any time after remove above five miles from thence, upon pain to forfeit all their goods, and also forfeit to H. M. all the lands of every such person during the life of such offender, id. s. 5. 35 El. c. 2. s. 3.

70. Like provision for such offenders not having any certain place of abode, to repair to their places of birth, or where their parents reside, within 40 days after the end of this session of parliament, id. s. 4. Exp.

71. Every such offender which shall have any lands by copy of court roll, or other customary tenure at the will of the lord, according to the custom of any manor, shall forfeit all his lands holden by copy of court roll, &c. during the life of such offender (if his estate so long continue) to the lords of whom the same be holden, if the lord be not a popish recusant convict, nor seized upon trust to the use of any such recusant, and in such case the forfeiture to be to H. M., id. s. 3.

72. Such persons, as by this act are to repair to their place of abode, or where they were born, shall within 30 days after their coming to such places, notify their coming thither, and present themselves, and deliver their names, in writing, to the minister or curate of the parish, and to the constable, headborough, or tythingman of the town, and thereupon such minister shall enter the same in a book, 35 El. c. 2. s. 6.

73. Such minister and constable, &c. shall certify the same to the justices of peace at the next quarter sessions, and the justices there shall cause the same to be entered by the clerk of the peace on the rolls of the sessions, id. s. 7.

74. If any such popish recusant (not being a feme covert, and not having lands or annuities, of an absolute estate of freehold, of the yearly value of twenty marks, or goods above the value of 40*l.*) shall not within the time in this act limited, repair to their place of abode, &c. and so notify their coming to the minister and constable, or shall pass above 5 miles from the same, and shall not, within 5 months after such person shall be apprehended for so offending, conform to the laws in coming to church and making public submission, being required by the bishop, or any justice of peace, or by the minister of the parish; such offender, being required by two justices of peace or coroner of the county, shall upon oath before them, abjure this realm and all H. M.'s dominions for ever, and shall depart out of this realm at such port, and within such time, as shall be assigned by such justices or coroner; unless they be stayed by such causes as are allowed in cases of abjuration for felony; and in such cases within such time after, as the law requireth in case of abjuration for felony, id. s. 8.

75. Every justice of peace and coroner, before whom such abjuration is made, shall cause the same to be entered of record, and certify the same at the next assizes or gaol delivery, id. s. 9.

76. If such offender shall refuse to make such abjuration, or shall not go to such haven, and depart out of this realm, or shall return into any H. M.'s dominions without her licence, he shall be adjudged and suffer as a felon without clergy, id. s. 10.

77. If any person suspected to be a Jesuit, seminary, or massing priest, being examined by any person having lawful authority so to do, shall refuse to answer whether he be a Jesuit, or a seminary, or massing priest, he shall be committed to prison until he answer such questions, id. s. 11.

78. If any person so restrained shall be urged by process, or be bound without fraud, to make appearance in any of H. M.'s courts, or shall be required by 3 of the privy council, or by any 4 commissioners to be assigned by H. M., to make appearance before H. M.'s council or commissioners, such person shall not incur any forfeiture for travelling to make appearance accordingly, or for his abode and return, id. s. 13.

79. If any person so restrained shall be bound to yield his body to the sheriff upon proclamation, he shall not incur any forfeiture for travelling for that purpose, and back again, id. s. 14.

80. If any person that shall offend against this act, shall, before he be convicted, come to some parish church on some Sunday or other festival, and hear divine service, and at service time, before the sermon or reading of the gospel, make public submission and declaration of his conformity to H. M.'s laws, he shall be discharged of all such forfeitures; such submission to be made in the words here set down, id. ss. 15, 16. [see the form 35 El. c. 1. s. 5. ante, pl. 50.]

81. Every minister of every parish where such submission is so made, shall enter the same in a book, and within 10 days certify the same to the bishop, id. s. 17.

82. If any such offender, after such submission made, shall fall into relapse, or become a recusant in not going to church, he shall lose all benefit of submission, id. s. 18.

83. Every woman married shall be bound by every article in this statute, other than the article of abjuration; and no woman married shall be compelled to abjure, id. s. 19.

84. FOR THE DUE EXECUTION OF THE STATUTES against Jesuits, seminaries, priests, recusants, &c. 1 J. 1. c. 4. [CONF. 3 C. 1. c. 2. s. 1.] The statutes made in the reign of Elizabeth, as well against jesuits, seminary and other priests, deacons, and ecclesiastical persons, ordained or professed by any authority from the see of Rome, as those which concern the withdrawing the king's subjects from their due obedience, and the religion now professed, and the taking of the oath of obedience to the king, together with those made in the late queen's time against recusants, shall be put in execution, id. s. 1.

85. If any recusant shall submit or reform himself, and become obedient to the laws of the church of Eng. and repair to church, such person shall be freed from the penalties of recusancy, id. s. 2. [See 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3.]

86. If any recusant die, his heir being no recusant, such heir shall be discharged of all penalties in respect of his ancestor's recusancy; and if the heir be a recusant, and after shall become conformable and repair to church, and shall take the oath of supremacy, as in 1 El. c. 1. expressed, before the archbishop or bishop of the diocese, such heir shall be discharged of all penalties in respect of his ancestor's recusancy, id. s. 3.

87. If the heir of any recusant shall be within the age of 16 at the decease of his ancestor, and shall after his age of 16 be a recusant, such heir shall not be discharged of such penalties in respect of his ancestor's recusancy, until he submit or reform himself, and repair to church and take the oath of supremacy, as in s. 3., but after such submission and oath, he shall be discharged thereof, 1 J. 1. c. 4. s. 4.

88. Where any seizure shall be had of the two parts of any lands, leases, or farms, for the non-payment of the 20*l.* per month, according to 29 El. c. 6. s. 4. pl. 40., such two parts shall, according to the extent, go towards satisfaction of the 20*l.* per month; and the third part shall not be extended or seized for the non-payment thereof; and where such seizure is had of the two parts, and such recusant shall die, and the debt is due by such recusancy, the two parts shall continue in H. M.'s possession until the debt be paid; and H. M. shall not seize or extend any third part descending to heirs, either by reason of the recusancy of his ancestors, or of such heir, id. s. 5.

89. All persons under the king's obedience, which shall go or send any child or other person under their government beyond the seas, out of such obedience, to the intent to be resident in any college, seminary, or house of Jesuits, priests, or other popish order, to be instructed in the popish religion; every such person shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M., and every person so passing or being sent beyond the seas, shall, as in respect of himself only, and not in respect of his heirs or posterity, be disabled to inherit, purchase, or enjoy, any lands, annuities, goods, debts, legacies, or money, within H. M.'s dominions; and all estates made upon any trust for the benefit of any such person shall be void, id. s. 6. [see 3 C. 1. c. 2. s. 1., 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 16. pl. 106.]

90. Provided that if any person or child, so passing or sent beyond the seas, shall after become conformable and repair to church, such person and child, for such time as he shall continue in conformity, shall be discharged of such disability as in s. 6., id. s. 7.

91. No woman, nor any child under the age of 21, (except sailors or ship-boys, or the apprentice or factor of some merchant,) shall be permitted to pass the seas, (except the same be by licence of H. M., or of six of the privy council,) upon pain that the officer of the port that shall suffer any such to pass, or shall not enter the names of such passengers licenced, shall forfeit his office and all his goods, and on pain that the owner of the vessel carrying over any such, shall forfeit his vessel with all her tackle, and every master or mariner in such vessel so offending, shall forfeit all their goods and be imprisoned for 12 months, id. s. 8.

92. No person shall keep any school, or be a schoolmaster, out of any of the universities or colleges of this realm, except it be in some public or free grammar-school, or in some such nobleman's or gentleman's house as are not recusants, or where the same schoolmaster is specially licensed thereunto by the archbishop or bishop of the diocese, on pain that as well the schoolmaster as also the party retaining him, shall forfeit for each day so wittingly offending 40*s.*, the one half to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt and on information, in which no essoin, &c. id. s. 9. [see now 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 13.]

93. FOR THE BETTER DISCOVERING AND REPRESSING of popish recusants, (viz. by requiring them to go to church and receive the sacrament, and take certain oaths, and by preventing them from enlisting in foreign armies, and by making it high treason to reconcile persons to, or to be reconciled with, the see of Rome.) 3 J. 1. c. 4.

94. Every popish recusant convict, which shall conform and repair to church, shall, within the first year after he shall so conform himself, and once in every year following, receive the sacrament of the Lord's supper in the church of that parish where he shall most usually abide, id. s. 2.

95. And if there be no such parish church, then in the church next adjoining to the place of his abode. And if any recusant so conformed shall not receive the sacrament, he shall forfeit for the first year 20*l.* and for the second year 40*l.*, and for every year after 60*l.*, until he has received the sacrament; and if, after he has received the sacrament, he shall afterwards offend in not receiving the sacrament by one whole year, he shall forfeit 60*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other to him that will sue in any of the courts at Westminster, or before justices of assize or gaol delivery, or before justices of peace at their quarter sessions, by action of debt, &c. or information wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 3.

96. The churchwardens and constables of every town, parish, or chapel, &c. or if there be none, then the chief constables of the hundred, shall once every year present the monthly absence from church of all popish recusants, and the names of the children of such recusants, being of the age of nine years and upwards, abiding with their parents, and the age of the children, and the names of the servants, of such recusants, at the quarter sessions, id. s. 4.

97. Such presentments shall be recorded in such sessions by the clerk of the peace, or town clerk, without fee. And in default of such presentment, the churchwardens, constables, or high constables, shall forfeit 20*s.*, and in default of recording, the clerk of the peace or town clerk shall forfeit 40*s.* id. s. 5.

98. Upon every presentment of such monthly absence, whereupon such party shall be indicted and convicted, not being for the same absence before presented; then such churchwardens, &c. making such presentments shall have a reward of 40s., to be levied out of the recusant's goods and estate, as such justices shall by warrant under their hands and seals appoint, 5 J. 1. c. 4. s. 6.

99. The justices of assize and gaol delivery, and justices of peace at their sessions, shall hear and determine of all recusants and offences, as well for not receiving the sacrament according to this law, as for not repairing to church according to former laws, in such manner as they may do for not repairing to church; and shall at their assizes and sessions (in which any indictment for not repairing to church, or not receiving the sacrament is taken) make proclamation, by which it shall be commanded that the body of every such offender shall be rendered to the sheriff of the county, or bailiff, or other keeper of the gaol of the liberty, before the next assizes or the next quarter sessions holden for the shire, &c.; and if at the next assizes or sessions such offender shall not make appearance, then such default recorded shall be a conviction in law of the offence for which indicted, as if a regular trial had been had, id. s. 7.

100. Every offender in not repairing to divine service, that shall be once convicted thereof, shall in such of the terms of Easter and Michaelmas as shall be next after such conviction, pay into the receipt of the exchequer 20l. for every month contained in the indictment on which conviction was had, and for every month after such conviction, without any other indictment or conviction, forfeit 20l., and pay into such exchequer, at such terms, so much as is then unpaid, at the rate of 20l. for each month after such conviction, except where H. M. may refuse the same by s. 11. and take two parts of the lands and leases of such offender, till he conform himself and come to church, id. s. 8.

101. Every conviction recorded for any offence before-mentioned, shall be certified from the justices before whom the record remains into the court of exchequer, before the end of the term following, in such time that process may issue to seize the lands and goods; and if default be made in any such payment, H. M. may, by process of such exchequer, seize the goods, and two parts, as well of the lands and leases of such offender, as of all other lands liable to seizure or penalties by this act, leaving the third part for the maintenance of the offender and his family, id. s. 9.

102. H. M. may refuse the penalty of 20l. a month, and take to his own use two parts in three, as well of all lands, &c. leases and farms, that at the time of such seizure shall be or may afterwards come to such offender, as of all other lands, &c. at any time liable to such seizure or penalties, till every such offender conform himself, in lieu of the 20l. monthly; saving to H. M., and all persons and bodies, (other than the offender and his heirs, and all claiming in trust for him or at his will) all rights had before seizure, id. ss. 10, 11.

103. H. M. shall leave to such offender his chief mansion-house as part of his third part, and shall not lease such two parts to or for the use of any recusant; and whosoever shall take the same of H. M. shall give security not to commit nor suffer waste, as by the court of exchequer shall be allowed, id. s. 12.

104. Any bishop in his diocese, or any two justices of peace, whereof one is of the quorum, may require any person of the age of 18 or above, being convict or indicted of recusancy, (other than noblemen or noblewomen) or not going to church, or which shall not have received the sacrament twice within the year, noblemen, &c. excepted, or any person passing through the country and unknown, that being examined upon oath shall not deny himself to be a recusant, or that he had not received the sacrament twice within the year, to take the oath hereafter following, s. 15. [which is Rep. 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 18. s. 2.] which bishop or justices shall certify at the next quarter sessions the name and place of abode of every person who shall take the oath, which certificate shall be recorded by the clerk of the peace or town clerk, id. s. 13.

105. If any such person refuse to answer upon oath to such bishop or justices, or to take such oath, such bishop or justices may commit him to the common gaol till the next assize or quarter sessions, where such oath shall be again required of such person, in open assizes or sessions; and if he or any other person (other than noblemen or noblewomen) of the age of 18, shall refuse to take such oath, being tendered by the justices of assize, or the justices of peace in their quarter sessions, every person so refusing shall incur the penalty of præmunire under 16 R. 2. c. 5. except women covert, who, on such refusal, shall be by such justices committed to the common gaol till they take the oath, id. s. 14. [see 31 G. 3. c. 39. s. 18.]

106. No indictment for not repairing to church, but absenting himself one month, or for not receiving the sacrament, nor any proclamation of outlawry, or other proceeding thereupon, shall be avoided or reversed by any default in form or other defect, other than by traverse to the point of not coming to church, or not receiving the sacrament; but such indictment shall be in force notwithstanding such defect, id. s. 16.

107. Provided that if any person so indicted shall submit and conform himself, and repair to his parish church, and if there be none such, then to the church next adjoining to his dwelling, and there hear divine service, and receive the sacrament according to the laws of Eng. such person shall be admitted to avoid and reverse the said indictment, and all proceedings thereupon, as if this act had not been made, 5 J. 1. c. 4. s. 17.

108. Every subject of this realm, that shall go out of this realm to serve any foreign prince or state, or shall pass over the seas and serve any foreign prince, &c. not having taken such oath aforesaid, shall be a felon, id. s. 18.

109. If any gentleman or person of higher degree, or any person which hath born any office of captain, lieutenant, or any other office in camp, army, or company of soldiers, shall pass out of this realm, to serve any foreign prince, &c. or shall voluntarily serve any such prince, &c. before he shall become bound by obligation with two sureties unto H. M., in 20l. at least, with condition to the effect following, he shall be a felon, id. s. 19. [see now 59 G. 3. c. 69. (FOREIGN ENLISTMENT.)]

110. Such condition is, That if the within bounden, &c. shall not at any time then after be reconciled to the pope or see of Rome, nor shall enter into, or consent unto, any practice, plot, or conspiracy whatsoever, against H. M., his heirs and successors, or any his and their estate and estates, realms or dominions; but shall within convenient time after knowledge thereof had, reveal and disclose to H. M., his heirs and successors, or some of the lords of his or their honourable privy council, all such practices, plots, and conspiracies; that then the said obligation to be void, id. s. 20.

111. The customer and controller of every port, and none other, may receive such bond, and give such oath, taking for such bond 6d. and for such oath no fee; which customer and controller shall register and certify every such bond and oath into the court of exchequer once every year, upon pain of 5l. for every bond not so certified, and 20s. for every oath, id. s. 21. [see s. 42. pl. 130.]

112. If any person shall, either upon these as or beyond the seas, or in any other place within the dominions of H. M., put in practice to absolve, persuade, or withdraw, any of H. M.'s subjects from their natural obedience to him, or to reconcile them to the pope or see of Rome, or to move them to promise obedience to such see, or to any other prince or state, every such person, their procurers, counsellors, aiders, and maintainers, shall be adjudged traitors, and on conviction shall suffer as in cases of high treason, id. s. 22. [see 23 El. c. 1. s. 2. pl. 24.]

113. If any such person shall, either upon the seas, or beyond the seas, or in any other place within the dominions of H. M., be willingly absolved, or withdrawn, or reconciled, or shall promise obedience to any such see, prince, or state, such persons, their procurers and counsellors, and maintainers, shall be adjudged traitors, and suffer as [in s. 22.] aforesaid, id. s. 23.

114. This branch shall not extend to any person which shall be reconciled to the pope or see of Rome (for so being reconciled only) that shall return into this realm, and within six days after such return, before the bishop of the diocese, or two justices of peace, jointly or severally, of the county where he arrives, submit himself to H. M., and take the oath of supremacy, [set forth in the 1 El. c. 1.] as also the oath in this act; and such oaths, so taken, such bishop and justices shall certify at the next general sessions, upon pain of 40l. id. s. 24.

115. Every person that shall offend contrary to this branch, shall be indicted, tried, and proceeded against, before the justices of assize and gaol delivery, or before the court of K. B., as in cases of high treason, as if the offence had been committed in the county where such persons were taken, id. s. 25.

116. Every peer indicted of any offence made treason by this act, shall have his trial by his peers, id. s. 26.

117. If any subject of this realm shall not resort every Sunday to some church, or other place appointed for common prayer, and there hear divine service, according to 1 El. c. 2. any one justice of peace, upon proof of such default by confession or oath of witness, may call the party before him, and if he shall not make a sufficient excuse, such justice may give warrant, under his hand and seal, to the churchwarden of the parish wherein the party shall dwell, to levy 12d. for every default, by distress and sale of his goods; and in default of distress such justice may commit such offender to prison until payment, which forfeiture shall be for the use of the poor where the offender resided, id. s. 27.

118. Provided that no man be impeached upon this clause, except he be called in question within one month after the default made, id. s. 28.

119. No man being punished according to this branch, shall, for the same offence, be punished by the forfeiture of 12d. upon 1 El. c. 2. s. 29.

120. Every person who shall willingly relieve, keep, or harbour in his house, any servant, sojourner, or stranger, who shall not repair to some church or usual place of common prayer, but shall forbear the same one month, not having a reasonable excuse, shall forfeit 10l. for every month he shall harbour such servant, id. s. 32.

121. Every person which shall keep in his service or livery any person which shall not repair to some church, or usual place of common prayer, but shall forbear the same one month, shall forfeit 10l. for every month he shall retain such servant in his service, id. s. 33. [see 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3.]

122. This act shall not extend to any person maintaining, relieving, or harbouring his father or mother, wanting sufficient maintenance, or the ward of such person, or any person that shall be committed by authority to the custody of any by whom they shall be relieved or kept, 3 J. 1. c. 4. s. 34.

123. Upon any lawful writ or process for the apprehending of any popish recusant, standing excommunicated for recusancy, the officer, if need be, may break open any house wherein such person shall be, or raise the power of the county for the apprehending of such person, and execution of such writ, id. s. 35.

124. Every offence against this act shall be inquired of, heard, and determined before the justices of the K. B., justices of assise and gaol delivery; and all offences, other than treason, shall be inquired, heard, and determined before the justices of peace in their quarter sessions, id. s. 36.

125. Any attainder of felony made by this act shall not take away the dower of the wife, nor work corruption of blood, or disherison of the heir, id. s. 37.

126. If any action be brought against any person doing any thing concerning the execution of this statute, the defendant may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, id. s. 38.

127. Provided that this act shall not abridge the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical censures, but bishops and ecclesiastical judges may proceed as before this act, id. s. 39.

128. No person shall be charged with any forfeiture by this act for his wife's offence in not receiving the sacrament during her marriage, nor shall any woman be charged with any penalty by this act for such offence which shall happen during her marriage, id. s. 40.

129. Where any bishop or justices of peace may, by this act, require of any subject the oath above mentioned, the lords of the privy council, or any six of them, whereof the lord chancellor, lord treasurer, or the principal secretary to be one, may require and take the same oaths of any nobleman or noblewoman above 18; and if such nobleman, &c. (other than woman married) shall refuse to take such oaths, they shall incur the penalty of a præmunire, id. s. 41. [see 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 18.]

130. Where any person shall pass out of the cinque ports, or any member thereof, to any parts beyond the seas, to serve any foreign state, the lord warden, or any person by him appointed, may take the bond, and minister the oath to such passenger [as in ss. 18—21.] required, id. s. 42.

131. TO AVOID THE DANGERS WHICH MAY ARISE by popish recusancy, (viz. by preventing the saying of mass, compelling papists to depart out of London, disabling them from certain offices, or to be executors, &c., or guardians, compelling them to be named, buried, and baptized, according to the rites of the church of Eng., and prohibiting the sending of children abroad, to be educated in the popish religion, depriving them of the right of presentation, &c. to benefices, and by disarming them,) 3 Jac. 1. c. 5. (see as to the advowsons belonging to papists, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 26., 12 A. s. 2. c. 14. post.)

132. Such person as shall first discover to any justice of peace any recusant, or other person, which shall entertain or relieve any Jesuit, seminary, or popish priest, or shall discover any mass to have been said, and the persons that were present, and the priest that said the same, within three days after the offence committed, and by such discovery any of such offenders be taken and convicted, the person which hath made such discovery shall not only be freed from the penalty of such offence, but also shall have the third part of the forfeiture (so as the total forfeiture exceed not 150*l.*, and if it exceed, the said person shall have 50*l.*); and such person, after conviction of the offender, shall have a certificate from the convicting judges, or justices of peace, directed to the sheriff or other officer that shall seize the goods or levy such forfeiture, commanding the sheriff, &c. to pay the same to him, which warrant and payment shall be his sufficient discharge, 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 1. [see 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 4.]

133. No popish recusant, convicted, shall come into the house where H. M. or his heir apparent shall be, unless he be commanded by H. M. or by warrant, from the privy council, upon pain to forfeit 100*l.*, the one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same in any of H. M.'s courts of record, by action of debt &c. or information, wherein no essoin, &c., id. s. 2. [see 27 El. c. 2. s. 18. ante, pl. 67.]

134. All popish recusants which shall dwell within London, or within 10 miles of such city, which shall be indicted or convicted of recusancy, or which shall not repair to some church or chapel and hear divine service, but shall forbear the same for three months, shall, within 10 days after such indictment or conviction, depart from London, and 10 miles compass of the same, and deliver their names to the lord mayor, in case such recusant shall dwell in London; and in case he shall dwell in any other country within 10 miles of such city, then to the next justice of peace within 10 days after such indictment or conviction, upon pain to forfeit 100*l.*, the one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same as (in s. 2.) id. s. 4. [see 1 W. & M. c. 9. 31 G. 3. s. 32. s. 19.]

135. H. M. or three of his privy council, may give licence to a recusant to go out of the compass of five miles from his abode, for such time as in such licence is contained, for their travelling and returning without any cause to be expressed therein. And if any of the persons confined by this statute 35 El. c. 2. shall have necessary occasion to go out of the compass of such five miles, then upon licence under hand and seal of four justices of peace, with the assent of the bishop, or of the lieutenant or any deputy lieutenant of the county, residing within the county (in which licence shall be specified the cause of the licence, and the time how long the party shall be absent), such person may go about such his business, he first taking his oath before any of such four justices, that he had truly informed them of the cause of his journey, and that he shall not make any causeless stays; and every licence in this behalf, contrary to this statute shall be void. And every person so confined, which shall go above five miles from the place whereunto he shall be confined, not having such licence, and having taken such oath, shall forfeit as a recusant convicted and passing above five miles from the place where he is confined, by 35 El. c. 2. pl. 69. 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 7.

136. No recusant convict shall practise the common law as a counsellor, clerk, attorney, or solicitor, nor the civil law as advocate or proctor, nor practise physic, nor use the trade of an apothecary, nor be minister, clerk, or steward, of any court, or keep any court, nor shall be register or town clerk, or other officer in any court, nor shall bear any office, as captain, lieutenant, corporal, serjeant, ancient-bearer, or other office, in camp, troop, or company of soldiers, nor shall be captain, master, governor, or bear any office, of any ship, castle, or fortress, of H. M.; and every person offending herein shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same as in s. 2. aforesaid, id. s. 8.

137. No popish recusant convict, nor any having a wife being a popish recusant convict, shall exercise any public office in the commonwealth, but shall be disabled therefrom by himself or his deputy, except such husband and his children, above the age of nine years, abiding with him, and his servants in household, shall once every month, not having reasonable excuse, repair to some church or chapel for divine service; and such husband, and such his children and servants as are of meet age, receive the sacrament at such times as are limited by law, and bring up his children in true religion, id. s. 9.

138. Every married woman, being a popish recusant convict, (her husband not standing convicted of popish recusancy) which shall not conform herself, but shall forbear to repair to some church or usual place of common prayer, and within the year receive the sacrament by the space of one year next after the death of her husband, shall forfeit to H. M. the profits of two parts of her jointure, and two parts of her dower, and be disabled to be executrix or administratrix of her husband, and to have any part of her husband's goods, id. s. 10.

139. Every popish recusant convict shall be disabled as a person excommunicated, until he shall conform himself, and come to church and receive the sacrament, and take the oath, appointed by 3 Jac. 1. c. 4.; and every person sued by such person disabled, may plead the same in disabling of such plaintiff, if they were excommunicated by sentence, id. s. 11.

140. Provided that any such person disabled, may sue any action concerning such of his lands, leases, rents, &c., which are not to be seized into H. M.'s hands for his recusancy, id. s. 12.

141. Every man being a popish recusant convict, and who shall be married otherwise than in some open church or chapel, and according to the orders of the church of England, by a minister lawfully authorized, shall be disabled to have any estate of freehold in the lands, &c. of his wife as tenant by the curtesy; and every woman, being a popish recusant convict, and who shall be married in other form than as aforesaid, shall be disabled, not only to claim any dower, or any jointure of the lands of her husband, but also her widow's estate and frank-bank in any customary lands, and likewise to have any part of the goods of her husband, by virtue of any custom. And if any man shall be married with any woman contrary to this act, which woman shall have no lands whereof he may be tenant by the curtesy, such man shall forfeit 100*l.*, the one half to H. M., and the other to such as shall sue for the same as (in s. 2.) aforesaid, id. s. 13.

142. Every popish recusant which shall have any child born, shall, within one month after the birth, cause the child to be baptized by a lawful minister, according to the laws of this realm, in the open church of the parish where the child was born, or in some other church near adjoining, or chapel where baptism is usually administered; or if by infirmity of the child it cannot be brought to such place, the same shall within such time be baptized by the minister of any of such places, upon pain that the father, if he be living one month after the birth of such child, or if he be dead within such month, then the mother of such child shall forfeit 100*l.*; one third part to H. M., one other third to the informer, and the other third to the poor of the parish, to be recovered as (in s. 2.) aforesaid, id. s. 14.

143. If any popish recusant, not being excommunicate, be buried in any place other than in the church or church-yard, or not according to the ecclesiastical laws of this realm, the executors or administrators of such person, knowing the same, or the party that causeth him to be so buried, shall forfeit 20*l*.; one third part to H. M., one third to the informer, and the other third to the poor of the parish where such person died, to be recovered (as in s. 2., pl. 133.) 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 15.

144. If the children of any subject, not being soldiers, mariners, merchants, or their apprentices, or factors, shall be sent or go beyond seas without licence of H. M., or six of his privy council, (whereof the principal secretary to be one,) under their hands and seals, they shall take no benefit by any gift, descent, devise, or otherwise, of any lands, leases, or goods, until they, being of the age of 18 years, take the oath mentioned in 3 J. 1. c. 4., [RE*P.*, see pl. 104.] before some justice of peace, where such parent of such children so sent did inhabit; and in the mean time, the next of kin, which shall be no popish recusant, shall have the lands, &c., and goods so given, descended or devised, until the person so sent or gone beyond the seas shall conform, and take the oath, and receive the sacrament; and after such oath taken, and so conforming, they which have received the profits of such lands, &c., and goods, shall make account and payment thereof to such person as shall so conform; and all such person as shall send children over seas without such licence, shall forfeit 100*l*.; to go one third to H. M., one third to such as shall sue for the same, and the other third to the poor of such parish where such offender doth inhabit, to be recovered (as in s. 2., pl. 133.) id. s. 16. [see 1 J. 1. c. 4. s. 6 pl. 89., 3 C. 1. c. 2., pl. 161.]

145. The whole of the penalty in 3 J. 1. c. 5. (s. 16.) mentioned, shall be to the sole use of him who discovers and convicts such offenders, to be recovered as in that act mentioned, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 4. s. 6.

146. Every popish recusant convict, during the time that he shall remain a recusant, shall be disabled to present to any benefice or ecclesiastical living, or to nominate to any free-school, hospital, or donative, and shall likewise be disabled to grant any avoidance to any benefice, &c. 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 18.

147. The chancellor and scholars of the university of Oxford, shall have the presentation, &c. to every such benefice, prebend, or ecclesiastical living, school, hospital, and donative, in the counties of Oxford, Kent, Middlesex, Sussex, Surrey, Hampshire, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire, Gloucestershire, Worcestershire, Staffordshire, Warwickshire, Wiltshire, Somersetshire, Devonshire, Cornwall, Dorsetshire, Herefordshire, Northamptonshire, Pembrokeshire, Carmarthenshire, Brecknockshire, Monmouthshire, Cardiganshire, Montgomeryshire, the city of London, and in every city and town being a county of itself, within the limits of such counties, during such time as the patron remains a recusant convict, id. s. 19.

148. The chancellor and scholars of the university of Cambridge, shall have the presentation, &c. to every such benefice, &c., in the counties of Essex, Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire, Cambridgeshire, Huntingdonshire, Suffolk, Norfolk, Lincolnshire, Rutlandshire, Leicestershire, Derbyshire, Nottinghamshire, Shropshire, Cheshire, Lancashire, Yorkshire, Durham, Northumberland, Cumberland, Westmoreland, Radnorshire, Derbyshire, Flintshire, Carnarvonshire, Anglesey, Merioneth, Glamorganshire, and in every city and town being a county of itself, within the limits of such counties, during the like time, id. s. 20. [see further on this point, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 26. pl. 196.]

149. Provided that neither of the universities shall present to any benefice any such person as shall then have any other benefice with cure, and such presentation shall be void, id. s. 21.

150. Recusant convicts shall be disabled to be executors or administrators, and shall not have the charge of any child as guardian in socage or in nurture of any lands, &c., freehold or copyhold, but shall be disabled therefrom, id. s. 22.

151. The next of kin to such children to whom such lands, &c. cannot descend, who shall usually resort to church, and receive the sacrament thrice in the year next before, shall have the custody of such child, and of his lands, until his ward is 21, as a guardian in socage, and of the lands holden by copy, so long as the custom of the manor shall permit, id. s. 23.

152. If the king's wards are granted or sold to a popish recusant convict, the same shall be void, id. s. 24. [Exp.]

153. No person shall bring from beyond the seas, nor shall print, sell, or buy, any popish primers, ladies psalters, manuals, rosaries, popish catechisms, missals, breviaries, portals, legends, and lives of saints, containing superstitious matter, nor other superstitious books, upon pain of 40*s*. for every book; one third part to H. M., one third to him that will sue for the same, and the other to the poor of the parish where such books shall be found, to be recovered as (in s. 2.) aforesaid, id. s. 25. [see further 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 10. Books.]

154. Any two justices of the peace, and all mayors, bailiffs, and chief officers, of cities and towns corporate, may search the houses of every popish recusant convict, or of every person whose wife shall be a popish recusant convict, for popish books and relics; and if any altar, pix, beads, pictures, or such like popish relics, or any popish books, be found in their custody, as in the opinion of such justices, &c., shall be unmeet for such recusant to have, the same shall be burnt; and if it be a crucifix, or other relic of any price, the same to be defaced at the quarter sessions, and restored to the owner, 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 26. [see 1 W. & M. c. 15. pl. 186.]

155. All such armour, gunpowder, and munition, as any popish recusant convict shall have, shall be taken from such recusants, by warrant of four justices, at their quarter sessions (other than such necessary weapons as shall be thought fit by such justices for the defence of the person of such recusant, or of his house); and such armour and munition shall be kept at the costs of such recusants, as such four justices shall appoint, id. s. 27.

156. If any such recusant, or any other person, which shall have any armour, gunpowder, and munition, to the use of any recusant, shall refuse to declare to such justices what armour they have, or shall hinder the delivery thereof to such justices, such person shall forfeit to H. M. their said armour, gunpowder, and munition, and shall also be imprisoned by warrant of any justices of peace three months, id. s. 28.

157. Notwithstanding the taking away of such armour and munition, such recusant shall be charged with the maintaining of the same, and with the providing of horse, and other armour and munition, in such sort as other H. M.'s subjects are; and such armour and munition, at the charge of such popish recusant, shall be showed at every muster within the county, id. s. 29.

158. This act shall not abridge the authority of the ecclesiastical censure, but archbishops and ecclesiastical judges, &c., may proceed as before this act, id. s. 30.

159. FOR THE REFORMATION OF MARRIED WOMEN RECUSANTS, 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 28. [for rest of this act, see OATHS.]

160. If any married woman (being convicted as a popish recusant for not coming to church, shall not, within three months next after such conviction, conform and repair to church, and receive the sacrament, she shall be committed to prison by one of the privy council, or by the bishop of the diocese if a baroness; or if under that degree, by two justices of peace, until she conform and come to church and receive the sacrament, unless her husband will pay to H. M. 10*l*. per month, or else a third part of all his lands, at the choice of the husband, for so long as she shall remain a recusant convict out of prison, id. ibid.

161. TO RESTRAIN THE PASSING OR SENDING OF ANY TO BE POPISHLY BRED beyond the seas, 3 C. 1. c. 2. [see ante, 1 J. 1. c. 4. s. 6. pl. 153. 5 J. 1. c. 5. s. 16. pl. 144.]

162. In case any person under the obedience of H. M. shall go or send any child, or other person, out of H. M.'s dominions to parts beyond the seas, out of H. M.'s obedience, to the intent to be trained up in any abbey, popish university or school, or house of jesuits, or in any private popish family, and shall be there by any popish person instructed in the popish religion, to profess the same, or shall send any money or other thing towards the maintenance of any child or person to be sent and so trained, or under the name of alms, towards the relief of any abbey, &c., or religious house; every person so sending any such child or money, and every person sent, being convicted upon any information or indictment, shall be disabled to sue any action in law or suit in equity, or to be committee of any ward, or executor or administrator to any person, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to bear any office, and shall forfeit all his goods and chattels, and all his lands, &c., rents, offices, annuities, and estates of freehold, during his natural life, 3 C. 1. c. 2. s. 1. [see as to sending money to any religious house, 27 El. c. 2. s. 6. ante, pl. 60.]

163. No person so sent that shall within six months after his return conform to the church of Eng., and receive the sacrament, shall incur any such penalties, id. s. 2.

164. Offences against this statute may be enquired, heard, and determined, before the justices of K. B., or of assize, or grand delivery, or of oyer and terminer, of such counties where the offenders did last dwell, or whence they departed out of this kingdom, or where they were taken, id. s. 3.

165. If any person so sent shall, after his return, conform to the church of Eng., and receive the sacrament, he shall have his lands restored, id. s. 4. [See 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 4. pl. 234.]

166. FOR PREVENTING DANGERS WHICH MAY HAPPEN FROM POPISH recusants (by compelling certain officers to take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy) 25 C. 2. c. 2. [AMD. as to the time of receiving sacrament, 16 G. 2. c. 30. and as to making the declaration against transubstantiation, 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3.] See further on this point, 5 El. c. 1. ss. 5—17. OFFICES. [Single judge of K. B. sitting under 57 G. 3. c. 11. may administer these oaths, 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 44. see their forms, OATHS.]

167. All persons who shall be admitted into any office, civil or military, or shall receive any pay, salary, fee, or wages, by reason of any patent or grant of H. M., or shall have command or place of trust, under or by authority derived from him, within Eng., Wa., or Ber., or in the navy, or in Jersey or Guernsey, or who shall be admitted into H. M.'s or Royal Highness the then Duke of York's household, and shall inhabit within London or Westminster, or within 30 miles thereof, shall take the oaths of supremacy and of allegiance in 3 Ja. 1. c. 4. [RE*P.*, see pl. 104.] in

Chancery or K. B., in open court, between 9 and 12, and all proceedings there shall cease in the next term after their admittance, and all persons so admitted not having taken such oaths before such courts, shall take them at the quarter sessions of the county where they reside, and shall receive the sacrament within three months after admittance in some public church, on Sunday, after the service and sermon, 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2.

168. All such persons as in 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 2. mentioned, shall receive the sacrament according to the usage of the church of Eng. within six months after their admittance into employment, in some public church on some Sunday, 16 G. 2. c. 30. s. 3.

169. All persons who neglect to receive the sacrament according to this act, shall be liable to all the disabilities and forfeitures of 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 4. and this act shall not restore any person to any office, benefice, &c. already avoided by judgment, or filled up by another person, id. s. 4. s. 5.

170. Every person in the court where he takes such oaths shall first deliver a certificate of his having taken the sacrament under the hands of the minister and churchwarden, and shall prove the same by two witnesses on oath, all which shall be enquired of and recorded in such courts, 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 3.

171. Persons neglecting to take such oaths and sacrament as aforesaid, shall be adjudged incapable to enjoy their offices, or any profit appertaining thereto, and the same shall be void, id. s. 4.

172. All persons who shall neglect to take such oaths and sacrament within the times and places aforesaid, and yet shall execute such offices after such times expired, shall, on conviction by information or indictment, in the courts at Westminster or at the assizes, be disabled to sue in any court of law or equity, or to be guardian to any child, or executors or administrators to any person, or capable of any legacy or deed of gift, or to bear any office within Eng., Wa., or Ber., and shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered by him that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 5.

173. The names of all officers and persons that shall take such oaths, shall be in such courts of Chancery, K. B., or quarter sessions inrolled, with the day and time of taking the same, which rolls for the court of Chancery shall be hung up in the petty-bag office, and that in the K. B. in the crown office, and in some public place in every quarter session, and there remain during the whole term, every term, and such sessions, for every one to resort to without fee, and only 1*s.* shall be paid by such persons for such entry of his having taken such oaths, id. s. 6.

174. Such courts may administer such oaths to such persons, and on tender thereof by the latter shall administer the same, id. s. 7.

175. If any person not bred up by his parents from infancy in the religion, and professing themselves to be popish recusants, shall breed up, instruct, or educate his children in the popish religion, such person on conviction, and his children, shall be disabled of bearing any office, or place of trust or profit in church or state, until he and they are reconciled to the church of Eng., and shall take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy before the justices at quarter sessions where they inhabit, and thereupon receive the sacrament, and obtain a certificate thereof under the hands of two justices, id. s. 8.

176. At the time when the persons concerned in this act shall take such oaths, they shall likewise make and subscribe this declaration under the same penalties as hereby appointed; viz.

'I, A. B., do declare, that I do believe, that there is not any transubstantiation in the sacrament of the Lord's supper, or in the elements of bread and wine, at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever,' id. s. 9.

[This declaration may be made at the time of taking the oaths, 9 G. 2. c. 26. s. 3. See OFFICES. No person shall be summoned to make this declaration, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 18. pl. 246.] of which subscription there shall be the like register kept, as of the taking the oaths, id. s. 10.

177. This act shall not prejudice the peerage of any peer, or take away any privilege or profit which he ought to enjoy by reason of his peerage, or take away creation-money, or bills of impost, nor make void any pension granted by H. M. to any person for valuable consideration for life or years, other than such as relate to any office or place of trust under H. M., and other than pensions of bounty; nor make void any estate of inheritance granted by H. M., or his predecessors, in any lands or hereditaments, not being offices; nor take away any pension granted by H. M. to any person who was instrumental in the preservation of H. M. after the battle of Worcester, until his arrival beyond the seas: nor make void the grant of any office of inheritance, or any fee thereto belonging, enjoyed by any person who shall neglect to take the oaths, &c. as herein prescribed, so as such person appoint his deputy, until such time as the person having such office shall, in the court of Chancery, before the Lord Chancellor, or in the K. B., take such oaths and receive the sacrament according to law, and subscribe such declaration; and so as such deputy take the oaths, receive the sacrament, and subscribe the declaration as by this act directed, and be approved of by H. M. under his privy signet, id. s. 11.

178. Peers may take the oaths, make the subscription, and deliver the certificates, before the peers sitting in parliament, if sitting within the time limited, and in the intervals of parliament in chancery, in which courts such proceedings are to be recorded, 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 12.

179. Any person, who by neglect shall forfeit any office according to this act, may be capable by a new grant of such office, or of any other, on his taking such oaths, and doing all other things required by this act, so as such office be not enjoyed by some other person at the time of the regranting thereof, id. s. 14.

180. Nothing in this act shall make any forfeiture or incapacity in any non-commission officer in the navy, if such officer shall only subscribe such declaration, as in s. 10., id. s. 15., [and see OATHS.]

181. This act shall not extend to the office of any high constable, petty-constable, tythingman, headborough, overseer of the poor, churchwarden, surveyor of the highways, or any like inferior civil office, or to any office of forester, or keeper of any park, chase, warren, or game, or of bailiff of any manor or lands, or to any like private offices, id. s. 17. [see 31 G. 3. c. 52. s. 7., pl. 237.]

182. FOR THE REMOVING PAPISTS AND REPUTED PAPISTS FROM THE CITIES of London and Westminster, and 10 miles' distance of the same, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 9. and s. 1. [powers hereof extended to justices for Essex, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 17. and s. 1., not to extend to persons having taken the oath of allegiance, and hereby appointed, 31 G. 3. c. 52. s. 19. pl. 247., but see also 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 4. pl. 154.]

183. The lord mayor of London, and every justice of peace of London, Westminster, Southwark, Middlesex, Surry, Kent, and Sussex, [Essex, 1 W. & M. c. 17. s. 2.] shall cause to be arrested and brought before him every person (not being a merchant foreigner within such cities or 10 miles of the same) reputed to be a papist, and tender him the declaration in 30 C. 2. S. 2. s. 2. (PARLIAMENT) mentioned; and in case he refuse to make and subscribe such declaration, and after such refusal continues within such cities, or 10 miles' distance from the same, he shall suffer as a popish recusant convict, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 9. s. 2.

184. Every justice of peace shall certify every subscription before him under this act taken, and the names of every person refusing so to do, into the K. B. the next term, or at the next quarter sessions; and if the person so refusing and certified, shall not, within the next term or sessions after, appear in the K. B. or sessions, where such certificate is returned, and make, &c. such declaration, and incurse his so doing upon the certificate, he shall be adjudged a popish recusant convict, and shall as such forfeit and be proceeded against, id. s. 3.

185. Nothing in this act shall relate to any foreigner that shall be menial servant to any ambassador or public agent, id. s. 5.

186. FOR THE BETTER SECURING THE GOVERNMENT BY DISARMING PAPISTS and reputed papists, (and preventing them from having horses above the value of 5*l.*) 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 15. s. 1. [Ext. to Scot., 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 20. s. 16.]

187. Two justices of peace may tender to any person known or suspected to be a papist, the declaration in 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 2. (PARLIAMENT); and if such person shall not make such declaration, or shall forbear to appear before such justices, upon notice to him given or left at his place of abode, by any person authorised by warrant under the hands and seals of such two justices, he shall be subject to the penalties in this act, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 15. s. 2.

188. Such justices shall certify the name and place of abode of every person who shall refuse to make such declaration, or to appear before them for such purpose, as also of every person who shall make such declaration, at the next quarter sessions to be recorded by the clerk of the peace or town-clerk, id. s. 3.

189. No papist or reputed papist so refusing or making default, shall have in his house or elsewhere, or in the house of another, to his use, any arms, gunpowder, or ammunition, other than such necessary weapons as shall be allowed him by order of the quarter sessions for the defence of his house or person. And any two justices by like warrant may authorise any persons in the day-time, with the constable, tythingman, or headborough, to search for arms or ammunition which shall be in the custody of any such papist or reputed papist, and seize the same for the use of H. M., which justices shall, at the next quarter sessions, deliver such arms and ammunition in open court, id. s. 4. [see 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 26. pl. 154.]

190. Every papist or reputed papist, who shall not, within ten days after such refusal or default, deliver to some of the justices of peace all arms or ammunition which he shall so have, or shall hinder any person so authorized by two justices, to search for and seize the same, shall be committed to gaol, by like warrant of two justices, for three months; and shall also forfeit such arms, and treble the value of them to H. M., to be appraised by the justices at the next quarter sessions, id. s. 5.

191. Every person who shall conceal or be privy to the concealing, or who knowing thereof shall not discover to some justices, the arms or ammunition of any person so refusing or making default, or shall hinder any person so authorised in searching for and seizing the same, shall be committed to gaol by like warrant of two justices for three months, and forfeit treble the value of the arms to H. M., id. s. 6.

192. If any person shall discover any concealed arms, &c. belonging to any so refusing or making default, so as the same may be seized, the justices upon delivery of the same at the quarter sessions, shall, by order of sessions, allow him a sum of money amounting to the value of such arms, &c. to be assessed by the sessions, and levied by distress and sale of the goods of the person offending, rendering overplus, after costs deducted, to the owner, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 15. s. 7.

193. If any person, who shall have so refused or made default, shall desire to submit and shall present himself before the quarter sessions, where his refusal is certified, and shall in open court make the declaration, contained in the 30 C. 2. st. 2. (PARLIAMENT), and take the oaths in 1 W. & M. st. 1. c. 1. viz. of allegiance and abjuration, he shall be discharged of all such disabilities and forfeitures, id. s. 8.

194. No papist, or reputed papist, refusing or making default, shall have any horse above the value of *5*l. to be sold; and any two justices of peace by like warrant may authorize any person, with the assistance of the constable, thythingman, or headborough, to search for and seize for the use of H. M. all such horses, which are declared to be forfeited, id. s. 9.

195. If any person shall conceal or be assisting in the concealing any such horse belonging to any papist, or reputed papist, so refusing or making default, such person shall be committed to prison as in s. 6., by three months, and shall forfeit to H. M. treble the value of such horses, to be settled as in s. 6. aforesaid, id. s. 10.

196. To VEST IN THE TWO UNIVERSITIES THE PRESENTATION OF BENEFICES belonging to papists, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 26. and s. 1. [AMP. 12 A. st. 2. c. 14. (NOT to extend to Scol., 12 A. S. 2. c. 14. s. 11.) 11 G. 2. c. 17. s. 5., see pl. 147—149.]

197. Every person who shall refuse to make and subscribe the declaration mentioned in 1 W. & M. st. 1. c. 15. pl. 187., or shall refuse to appear for the making thereof, and shall thereupon have his name certified and recorded at quarter sessions, as in such act mentioned, shall be disabled to make presentation, &c., donation, or grant of avoidance, of any benefice, prebend, or ecclesiastical living, as fully as if he were a popish recusant convict; and the chancellor and scholars of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge shall have the presentation, collation, &c. of such benefice, &c., school, hospital, and donative, lying in the counties, &c., in 3 J. 1. c. 5. ss. 19, 20. pl. 147—8. appointed as often as they become void, according to the limitations in that behalf, id. s. 2.

198. Where any persons shall be possessed of any advowson, or right of presentation, &c. to any such ecclesiastical living, free-school, or hospital, in trust for any papist or popish recusant, who shall be convicted or disabled by the 3 J. 1. c. 5., or this act, such trustees shall be disabled to present, collate, &c. to any such living, &c. or to grant any avoidance thereof; and their presentations, &c. and grants shall be void; and such universities, on every avoidance, shall have the presentations, &c. thereto, as they would have done in case such recusant were seised thereof, id. s. 3.

199. In case any trustee, mortgagee, or grantee of any avoidance, shall present, collate, &c. any person to any such living, &c. whereof the trust is for any recusant, convict or disabled, without giving notice of the avoidance in writing to the vice-chancellor of the university, to which the presentation belongs, according to this act, within 3 months after such avoidance, he shall forfeit 500*l.* to the university which has the presentation, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in the courts of record, wherein no essoin, &c. id. s. 4.

200. Such universities shall not present to any benefice with cure, prebend, or ecclesiastical living, any person as shall then have any other benefice with cure; and if any such presentation shall be, the same shall be void, id. s. 5.

201. If any person so presented to any benefice with cure shall be absent above 60 days in one year, such benefice shall become void, id. s. 6.

202. If any such person shall present himself before the justices at the quarter-sessions where his name was recorded, and make such declaration, and take the oaths contained in 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8. OATHS, he shall be discharged of the disability, and be enabled to make such presentation, &c. and grant any avoidance to any benefice, &c. as if this act had not been made, id. s. 7.

203. Every papist, or person making profession of the popish religion, and every child, not being a protestant, under the age of 21 years, of every such papist, &c. and every mortgagee or trustee, or person any ways intrusted, directly or indirectly, for any such papist, &c. or such child, whether such trust is in writing or not, shall be disabled to present, collate, or nominate to any benefice, prebend, or ecclesiastical living, school, hospital, or donative, or to grant any avoidance thereof; and every such presentation, &c. and grant, and every admission, institution, and induction thereupon, shall be void; and the universities of Oxford and of Cambridge shall respectively have the presentation, &c. of every such benefice, &c. lying in the counties, cities, and limits, in 3 J. 1. c. 5. ss. 19, 20. pl. 147—8. mentioned, as by such act appointed, in the case of a popish recusant convict, 12 A. st. 2. c. 14. s. 1.

204. When any presentation to any benefice or living is brought to any archbishop, bishop, or other ordinary, from any person who is reputed to be, or whom such ordinary suspects to be, a papist, or trustee of any person making profession of the popish religion, or suspected so to be, such ordinary may tender to such person, if present, the declaration against transubstantiation, set down in 25 C. 2. c. 2. s. 8. pl. 175. and in case such person be absent, such ordinary shall, by notice in writing, to be left at the place of habitation of such person, appoint when and where such person shall appear before such ordinary, or persons authorised by such ordinary by commission under his seal of office; and upon appearance, such ordinary or commissioners shall tender such declaration to the person making such presentation; and in case he refuse to make and subscribe such declaration, or so to appear, such presentation shall be void; and such ordinary shall within 10 days after send a certificate under his seal of office, of such refusal, to the vice-chancellor of that university to whom such presentation would belong, if the person presenting had been a popish recusant convict; and such university may present a qualified person, according to 3 J. 1. c. 5. and 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 26., and such presentation for that time only is hereby vested in them for that purpose, 12 A. S. 2. c. 14. s. 2.

205. When the presentation of any person presented to any benefice is brought to any such ordinary, before such ordinary gives institution he shall examine the person presented, upon oath, whether to the best of his knowledge and belief the person who made such presentation be the true person, or made such presentation in his own right, or whether he be not trustee for some papist, or the children of such, or for any other person, or what he knows, has heard, or believes, touching the same; and if such person so presented shall not answer directly, such presentation shall be void, id. s. 3.

206. The respective universities to whom the presentation to such benefice should belong, in case the rightful patrons had been popish recusants convict, and their presentees or clerks, for the discovery of any such secret and fraudulent trusts, made by or for such papists and their children, may exhibit their bill in equity against such persons presenting, and such as they believe to be the cestuique trust, or any other who may be able to make any discovery of such secret trusts, to which bill the defendants shall answer at the discretion of the court, and if they neglect to make such answer within the time allowed by the court, such bill shall be taken pro confesso, and be allowed as evidence against such person and his trustees or clerk, provided that every person having fully answered, and not knowing of any such trust for a papist, or other person so disabled, shall be entitled to his costs to be taxed, id. s. 4.

207. The court where any quare impedit shall be depending, at the instance of either of such universities or their clerks being plaintiffs or defendants by motion, may make any rule requiring satisfaction upon the oath of such patron and his clerk, who shall in such suit contest the right of such university to present, by examination in court, or by commission under the seal of such court, or by affidavit, as such court shall find proper; and in case it appears on such examination that such patron and clerk is but a trustee for other persons, then such patron and his clerk shall discover who such persons are, and where they live; and on their refusal so to do, shall be punished as persons guilty of a contempt of court; and in case such patron or his clerk shall discover the person for whom the patron is a trustee, such court, upon motion, shall make a rule, that the person for whom such patron is a trustee shall in such court, or before commissioners appointed for that purpose, under the seal of such court, make and subscribe the declaration against transubstantiation, and likewise give such further satisfaction upon oath, touching such trust, as the court shall think fit; and such person so required to make, &c. such declaration, and neglecting so to do, shall be esteemed a popish recusant convict in respect of such presentation, id. s. 5.

208. The answer of such patrons, and the person for whom they are entrusted, and their clerk, and their examinations and affidavits taken by order of court, or by any archbishop, bishop, or other ordinary, or such commissioners, (which examinations shall be reduced into writing, and signed by the party examined,) shall be evidence against such patron and his clerk, id. s. 6.

209. Provided that no such bill, nor any discovery to be made by any answer thereto, or to any such examination, shall be made use of to subject any person making such discovery, or not answering such bill, to any penalty other than the loss of the presentation, id. s. 7.

210. In case of any such bill of discovery exhibited by either of such universities, or their presentees, no lapse shall incur, nor penalty be a bar, till after three months from the time that the answer shall be put in, or the bill taken pro confesso, or the prosecution deserted, provided such bill be exhibited before any lapse incurred, id. s. 8.

211. Such universities were and are entitled to sue any writ of quare impedit, by the name of chancellor and scholars of the university of Oxford and of Cambridge respectively, or by their proper names of incorporation, at their election, id. s. 9.

212. In case of any trust for a papist discovered by answer to such bill, or such examination, the court where such discovery is made, may inforce the producing of the deeds relating to such trusts, 12 A. S. 2. c. 14. s. 10.

213. Nothing herein before shall extend to Scot. s. 11.

214. The lords of H. M. justiciary court in Scot. may inflict the same punishment against jesuits, priests, and other trafficking papists, which the privy council of Scot. might, by the Scotch act of the 8th session of the 1st parliament of king William, id. s. 12.

215. Every grant of any advowson or right of presentation, collation, nomination, or donation of and to any benefice, prebend, or ecclesiastical living, school, hospital, or donative, and every grant, or any avoidance thereof by any papist, or person professing the popish religion, or any mortgagee or trustee, or person any ways intrusted, directly or indirectly, by or for any such papist, &c., whether such trust is by writing or not, shall be void, unless such grant is made bonâ fide, and for a full and valuable consideration to and for a protestant purchaser, and merely and only for a protestant, and such grantee, or person claiming under such grant, shall be deemed a trustee for such papist, &c. within the meaning of 12 A. st. 2. c. 14., and such grantees, and persons claiming under such grants, and their presentees, shall be compelled to make discoveries relating to such grants and presentations made thereupon, and by such methods as by 12 A. st. 2. c. 14. directed, in case of trustees for papists, &c.; and every devise made by any papist, &c. of any such advowson, right of presentation, &c., or any such avoidance, with intent to secure the benefit thereof to the heirs or family of such papist, &c. shall be void, and such devises, and persons claiming under them and their presentees, shall, in like manner, be compelled to discover whether such devises were not made with such intent, 11 G. 2. c. 17. s. 5.

216. NOTHING HEREIN SHALL EXTEND TO ANY POPIISH PRIEST FOR SAYING MASS, or officiating as a priest within the house of any foreign minister, so as he be not one of H. M.'s natural born subjects, nor naturalized, and so as his house and place of birth, and the minister to whom he belongs shall be registered in the office of the principal secretary of state, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 4. s. 5. [see now 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3. pl. 255.] [QU. REF. 18 G. 3. c. 60. s. 1. post, pl. 224.]

217. If any popish parent, in order to compel his child to change his religion, shall refuse to allow such child a fitting maintenance, &c. then on complaint to the chancellor, he may make such order therein as is agreeable to the intent of this act, id. s. 7.

218. FOR SECURING THE ESTATES OF PAPISTS CONFORMING TO THE protestant religion against the disabilities created by several statutes relating to papists, 11 G. 2. c. 17. ss. 1—4. See the rest of this act ante, pl. 215.

219. Every person being reputed owner, or in possession, or receipt of the rents and profits of any manor, messuages, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, or any interest therein, who has been or reputed to be a papist, or educated in the popish religion, who shall conform to the protestant religion, and shall take the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration; and also subscribe the declaration set down in 30 C. 2. st. 2., to be by him repeated and subscribed in the courts of chancery, K. B., or quarter sessions of the county where he resides; all which shall be recorded in some courts of record at Westminster or such quarter sessions; and all persons being protestants claiming under such persons conforming for their own or for another protestant's benefit, and not for the benefit of any papist, shall hold, enjoy, and possess such manors, lands, &c. freed from all disabilities in any act relating to papists contained incurred by such reputed owner, or by any person by, from, or through whom the title to such manors, lands, &c. or any interest therein, is derived for such estate, as he would have had if no such disability, &c. had been incurred, unless the person entitled to take advantage thereof have recovered or shall recover such manors, lands, &c. by judgment or decree in some suit, commenced within six calendar months before the making of such record, and to be prosecuted with due diligence, id. s. 1.

220. This act shall not prejudice the right of any person entitled to take advantage of such disability, who now is or was precedent to the making of such record, in possession of such manors, lands, &c. for two calendar months, id. s. 2.

221. If any such person so conforming shall afterwards return to the popish religion, such person shall for ever afterwards be disabled from having any benefit of this act, and be liable to the same disabilities as if he had not taken such oaths and subscribed such declaration, id. s. 3.

222. Nothing in this act shall prejudice the right of any person entitled to any remainder or reversion, in any such manors, lands, &c., in case such person shall pursue his right by suit to be commenced within 12 calendar months after the precedent estate on which such remainder or reversion depends, is determined, or within 12 calendar months after 29 Sept. 1738, if such precedent estate be already determined by the death of any persons whose deaths have been concealed from the person so entitled, by reason of their having been buried beyond the seas, or in a private manner at home, and shall prosecute such suit with diligence, id. s. 4.

223. FOR RELIEVING H. M.'S SUBJECTS PROFESSING THE ROMAN CATHOLIC religion from certain penalties and disabilities imposed on them, 18 G. 3. c. 60.

224. So much of 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 4. (viz. ss. 1—4.) relating to the apprehending of popish bishops, priests, or jesuits, and such bishops, &c. and papists keeping schools, and disabling persons professing the Roman catholic religion, under certain circumstances, to inherit, take by descent, devise or limitation, in possession, reversion, or remainder, and also to purchase any land, within Eng., Wales, and Ber., shall be REP. id. s. 1.

225. Every person having or claiming any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, under titles not hitherto litigated, though derived from any descent, devise, limitation, or purchase, shall hold and enjoy the same, as if the 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 4. had not been made, (s. 2.); and nothing herein shall effect any action now depending, id. s. 3.

226. Nothing herein shall extend to any person, but such who shall, within six calendar months after this act, or of accruing of his title, being 21 years of age, or who being under that age, shall within six months after he has attained 21, or being of unsound mind in prison, or beyond the seas, then within six months after the disability removed, take and subscribe the oath here set down, which oath the court of chancery, or any court of record at Westminster, or the courts of great sessions in W., or the county palatine of Chester, or the courts of chancery or C. P., in the counties palatine of Lancaster and Durham, or the court of general or quarter sessions of any county, city, or place, &c. in Eng. or Wa., shall administer, of the taking and subscribing of which a register shall be kept as prescribed by the laws in force, requiring oaths from persons taking offices or employments, id. s. 4. [The form of this oath is omitted, as being superseded by that given in 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1., by the express enactment of 43 G. 3. c. 30. both which see post, pl. 229. 231.]

227. Nothing herein shall extend to any popish bishop, priest, jesuit, or school-master, who has not taken and subscribed the above oath in the above words before he is apprehended, or any prosecution commenced against him, id. s. 5.

228. TO RELIEVE ON CONDITIONS AND UNDER RESTRICTIONS THE PERSONS therein mentioned, from certain penalties and disabilities, to which papists and others professing the popish religion, are by law subject, 31 G. 3. c. 32. [AMD. 43. G. 3. c. 30.] (NOTE. Papists are also considerably relieved from the severe enactments of the foregoing acts by the effect of the toleration act, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 18. title NONCONFORMIST. See also 53 G. 3. c. 44. as to Scot.)

229. Persons professing the Roman catholic religion, may personally appear in the courts of chancery, K. B., C. P., or exchequer, or at the quarter sessions for the county, city, or place, where they shall reside, and there in open court between nine and two in the afternoon, take, make, and subscribe the declaration and oath following:

'I A. B. do hereby declare, that I do profess the Roman catholic religion.'
'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to H. M. king George the third, and him will defend to the utmost of my power against all conspiracies and attempts whatever that shall be made against his person, crown or dignity; and I will do my utmost endeavour to disclose and make known to H. M., his heirs and successors, all treasons and traitorous conspiracies which may be formed against him or them: and I do faithfully promise to maintain, support and defend to the utmost of my power, the succession of the crown; which succession, by an act intitled, An act for the further limitation of the crown, and better securing the rights and liberties of the subject, is and stands limited to the princess Sophia electress and duchess dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body being protestants; thereby utterly renouncing and abjuring any obedience or allegiance unto any other person claiming or pretending a right to the crown of these realms: and I do swear, that I do reject and detest, as an unchristian and impious position, that it is lawful to murder or destroy any person or persons whatsoever, for or under the pretence of their being hereticks or infidels; and also that unchristian and impious principle, that faith is not to be kept with hereticks or infidels: and I further declare, that it is not an article of my faith, and that I do renounce, reject and abjure the opinion that princes excommunicated by the pope and council, or any authority of the see of Rome, or by any authority whatsoever, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any person whatsoever: and I do promise, that I will not hold, maintain or abet any such opinion, or any other opinions contrary to what is expressed in this declaration: and I do declare, that I do not believe that the pope of Rome or any other foreign prince, prelate, state or potentate, hath, or ought to have any temporal or civil jurisdiction, power, superiority or pre-eminence, directly or indirectly, within this realm: and I do solemnly, in the presence of God, profess, testify and declare, that I do make this declaration, and every part thereof, in the plain and ordinary sense of the words of this oath, without any evasion, equivocation or mental reservation whatever; and without any dispensation already granted by the pope, or any authority of the see of Rome, or any person whatever: and without thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or man, or absolved of this declaration, or any part thereof, although the pope or any other person or authority whatsoever shall dispense with or annul the same, or declare that it was null or void. So help me God.'

230. The same to be subscribed by the person taking it with his name at length, if he can write, or with his mark, the name being written by the officer if he cannot, such person or officer adding the title, addition, and place of abode of such person, and to remain in such court of record, and the officer of such court with whom such record remains shall make, subscribe, and deliver a certificate of such declaration and oath having been duly taken, &c. to the person who so made, took, &c., the same if demanded immediately, for which 2s. shall be paid; and such certificate, on proof of the certifier's hand, and that he acted as such officer shall be competent evidence of such person's having made &c. such declaration and oath, unless the same is falsified, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1.

331. The declaration and oath expressed in the 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1. shall, as to all who have taken, &c., or hereafter shall make, take, and subscribe the same in the manner there mentioned, give the same benefits and advantages, and operate to the same intents as by the 18 G. 3. c. 60. is enacted of the oath thereby subscribed, 45 G. 3. c. 30.

332. Such officer with whom such records are kept, shall yearly, on 25th Dec., transmit to the clerk of the privy council, lists of the persons with their titles, additions, and places of abode, who have made and subscribed such declaration and oath in the preceding year, 51 G. 3. c. 32. s. 2.

333. Whereas by the 1 El. c. 2. s. 14., 23 El. c. 1. s. 5., 29 El. c. 6. s. 3., 35 El. c. 2. s. 16., 1 J. 1. c. 4., 3 J. 1. c. 4. s. 4., 3 J. 1. c. 5. s. 10., and 7 J. 1. c. 6. s. 28., all persons are required to resort to the parish church, and penalties are imposed for not doing so. It is enacted, that no person professing the Roman catholic religion, who shall take and subscribe such oath as aforesaid, shall be liable to be prosecuted on such statutes, or any other law, by indictment, action, or otherwise, or to be prosecuted in any ecclesiastical court, for not resorting or repairing to the parish church, or some usual place of common prayer, according to the rites of the church of Eng., or for keeping or having any servant or other person, being a papist or a reputed papist, or person professing the popish religion, who shall not resort or repair to such church or place of common prayer, 51 G. 3. c. 32. s. 3.

334. No person who shall take and subscribe the oath in s. 1. appointed in manner thereby required, shall be presented, indicted, prosecuted, or convicted in any civil or ecclesiastical court, for being a papist or reputed papist, or for professing or being educated in the popish religion, or for hearing or saying mass, or for being a priest or deacon, or for entering or belonging to any ecclesiastical order or community of the church of Rome, or for being present at, performing and observing any rite or observance of the popish religion, or maintaining and assisting others therein, the 23 El. c. 1.; 27 El. c. 2.; 35 El. c. 2.; 1 J. 1. c. 4.; 3 J. 1. c. 5.; 3 C. 1. c. 2. and 25 C. 2. c. 2. notwithstanding, id. s. 4.

335. No place of congregation or assembly for religious worship shall be allowed under this act, until the place of meeting is certified to the quarter sessions of the county, city, or place where held, and until the same is there recorded by the clerk of the peace, who shall give a certificate thereof to such person as demands one, on payment of 6d., and no person in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, whether as priest or minister of any higher order or rank, shall officiate in any way in such place, until his name and description as a priest or minister is likewise so recorded, on demand by him made, and on payment of 6d., and such clerk shall grant a certificate thereof to any person demanding it, on payment of 2s.; and no such priest or minister who shall officiate in any such place of meeting not so recorded, shall be deemed to be within the benefit of this act for any purpose, id. s. 5.

336. If any assembly of persons professing the Roman catholic religion, shall be had with doors locked, &c. during the time of such meeting, all persons who shall be at such meeting shall not have the benefit of this law, but notwithstanding having taken such oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration, shall, from conviction, be liable to the same pains as if this act had not been made, id. s. 6.

337. If any person professing the Roman catholic religion shall be chosen or otherwise appointed to bear the office of high or petty constable, churchwarden, or overseer of the poor, or other parochial or ward offices, and scruples to take upon himself such offices in regard of the oaths or other matters required to be done in such office, such person may execute the same by a deputy who will comply, but such deputy shall be approved by such person in such manner as such officer should by law have been approved, id. s. 7.

338. Every priest or other person in holy orders, or pretended holy orders, being a minister, teacher, or preacher of any congregation of persons professing the Roman catholic religion, who shall take and subscribe the said oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration, as is in s. 1. prescribed, shall be exempted from serving on any jury, or from being chosen churchwarden, overseer, or to bear any parochial or ward office, or other office in any hundred of any shire, city, town, parish, division, or wapentake, id. s. 8.

339. All laws made for frequenting divine service on Sunday shall be still in force, and executed on offenders, unless such persons shall come to some congregation or assembly of religious worship, by 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 18. [title NON-CONFORMIST.] permitted, id. s. 9.

240. If any person shall willingly, maliciously, or contemptuously come into any place for religious worship by this act permitted, and disturb the same, or misuse any priest, minister, preacher, or teacher therein, he shall, on proof before two justices, by two witnesses, find two sureties of the peace, and be bound by recognizance in the penal sum of 80l., and in default thereof, shall be committed to prison till the next general or quarter sessions, and, on conviction there, shall suffer the pain of 20l. to H. M.'s use, 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 10.

241. No benefit in this act shall extend to any Roman catholic ecclesiastic, who shall officiate in any place for religious worship hereby permitted, with a steeple and bell, or at any funeral in a church or churchyard, or who shall exercise any of the rites of his religion, or wear the habit of his order, save within some place for religious worship by this act permitted, or in a private house, where not more than five persons besides the household are assembled, or who shall not, previous to his so officiating, have taken and subscribed the oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration in s. 1. appointed, id. s. 11.

242. Nothing herein shall exempt any such person professing the Roman catholic religion, from paying tythes or other parochial duties, or any duties to the church or minister, or from any prosecution in any ecclesiastical court or elsewhere for the same, or to repeal 26 G. 2. c. 33., (the marriage act) or any part of any statutes concerning marriages, or give any ease or advantage to any person who shall, by preaching, teaching, or writing, deny or gainsay the oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration hereby appointed, or the declarations or doctrines therein contained, or to repeal or affect any law concerning the right or succession to or limitation of the crown, id. s. 12.

243. No ecclesiastic, or person professing the Roman catholic religion, who shall take and subscribe such oath of allegiance, abjuration, or declaration, shall be prosecuted for teaching or instructing youth as a tutor or schoolmaster, (s. 13.); but such person shall not hold the mastership of any college or school of royal foundation, or of any other endowed college or school for the education of youth, or shall keep a school in Oxford or Cambridge, (s. 14.), or receive into his school the child of any protestant father, id. ss. 13, 14, 15.

244. No person professing such religion shall keep a school for the education of youth, until his name and description as a Roman catholic schoolmaster or mistress, has been recorded at the quarter or general sessions for the county or place where such school is, by the clerk of the peace, who shall record the same upon demand, or give a certificate thereof to any person who shall demand the same, and no person offending in the premises shall receive any benefit of this act, id. s. 16.

245. Nothing herein shall make it lawful to found, endow, or establish any religious order, or society of persons bound by monastic or religious vows, or any school, academy, or college, by persons professing the Roman catholic religion, within these realms, or the dominions thereunto belonging; and all uses, trusts, and dispositions of real or personal property, which before 24 June 1791, were deemed superstitious or unlawful, shall continue to be so deemed, id. s. 17.

246. No person shall be summoned to take the oath mentioned in 1 El. c. 1.; 3 J. 1. c. 4.; 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8.; 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 15., or make the declaration against transubstantiation, in 25 C. 2. c. 2. mentioned, or be prosecuted for not obeying such summons, id. s. 18.

247. The 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 9., shall not extend to any person professing the Roman catholic religion, who shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, abjuration, and the declaration in s. 1. appointed, id. s. 19.

248. No peer of G. B. or Ire., or member of the house of peers professing the Roman catholic religion, who shall take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration in s. 1. appointed, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the offence in the 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 5. (viz. coming into H. M.'s presence), or to any penalties or disabilities in such clause contained, id. s. 20.

249. The 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 55., and 3 G. 1. c. 18., and also such parts of other acts as require the registry of the names and estates of papists or reputed papists, shall be REPEALED, and no person shall be molested for not having complied with such acts, and all deeds and wills made after 24th June 1791, shall be as good as if such acts had never been made, id. s. 21.

250. The oaths and declarations in the 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 24., and 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 15. ss. 1—3., mentioned and appointed to be taken and subscribed by any person acting as a counsellor at law, barrister, attorney, solicitor, clerk, or notary, shall be no longer administered to persons professing the Roman catholic religion, as a qualification to enable them to act in such capacities, but the oath of allegiance, abjuration, and declaration in s. 1. appointed, shall be administered instead thereof, and in order thereto such oath of allegiance, &c. may be administered, taken, and subscribed in the same courts, and shall be registered in the same manner as the oaths, &c., for which they are substituted are to be; and when so taken, subscribed, and registered, shall, for the purpose of enabling such persons professing such religion to act in such capacities, have the like effect as the oaths, &c. for which they are substituted, id. s. 22.

PARDONS.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. PARDON GRANTED to certain offenders, 34 E.1. st. 1. c. 5. Exp.
2. PARDON OF ALL fines of writs in chancery, 2 E. 3. c. 10. Exp.
3. HE THAT HATH a pardon of felony shall find sureties for his good abearing, 10 E. 3. st. 1. c. 5. REP. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 13. s. 2.
4. THE KING'S PARDON of chattels of felons, and of certain fines, amerciaments and trespasses, 14 C. 3. st. 1. c. 2. CONF. 14 E. 3. st. 2. c. 3. all Exp.
5. CONFIRMATION of the pardon granted, 36 E. 3. (see 1 vol. 8vo. ed. 675.) 42 E. 3. c. 2. Exp.
6. H.M.'s MOST GRACIOUS general and free pardon, 50 or 51 E. 3. c. 3. CONF. by 1 R. 2. c. 10., 4 R. 2. c. 2., 5 R. 2. st. 1. c. 6., 6 R. 2. st. 1. c. 13., 21 R. 2. c. 15. REP. by 1 H. 4. c. 3. but CONF. by 2 H. 4. c. 13., 7 H. 4. c. 20., 5 H. 4. c. 15., 9 H. 4. c. 10., 4 H. 5. c. 8., 27 H. 6. c. 6., 5 H. 8. c. 8., 21 H. 8. c. 1., 22 H. 8. c. 16., to spiritual subjects of Canterbury for præmunire, 22 H. 8. c. 16., for præmunire, 23 H. 8. c. 19., to spiritual subjects of York for præmunire, 26 H. 8. c. 18. general pardons, 32 H. 8. c. 49., 35 H. 8. c. 18., 1 E. 6. c. 15., 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 39., 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 24., 7 E. 6. c. 14., 5 EL. c. 31., 8 EL. c. 18., 15 EL. c. 28., 18 EL. c. 24., 23 EL. c. 16., 27 EL. c. 30., 29 EL. c. 9., 31 EL. c. 16., 35 EL. c. 14., 39 EL. c. 28., 43 EL. c. 19., 5 J. 1. c. 27., 7 J. 1. c. 24., 21 J. 1. c. 35., 12 C. 2. c. 11., 25 C. 2. c. 5., 2 W. & M. st. 1. c. 10., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 20., 7 A. c. 22., 3 G. 1. c. 19., 7 G. 1. st. 1. c. 29., 20 G. 2. c. 25. all Exp.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. OF PARDONS for felony, 2 E. 3. (stat. of Northampton), c. 2. [For rest of this act, see JUSTICES OF ASSIZE. CONF. 4 E. 3. c. 13., 10 E. 3. st. 1. c. 2., 14 E. 3. st. 1. c. 15.]
2. Charters of pardon shall not be granted, but only in cases where H. M. may do it by his oath; viz. in the case where a man slayeth another in his own defence by misfortune, 2 E. 3. c. 2. s. 1.
3. No charter of pardon shall be granted for the death of a man, or for other felony, but where the king may do, saving his oath; and if any be, same shall be holden for none, 14 E. 3. st. 1. c. 15.
4. In every charter of pardon of felony granted at any man's suggestion, the suggestion, and the name of him that maketh it, shall be comprised in the charter; and if the suggestion be found untrue, the charter shall be disallowed; and the justices before whom such charters shall be alleged, shall enquire of the suggestion; and if they find them untrue, shall disallow the same, and do therein as the law requires, 27 E. 3. st. 1. c. 2.
5. RESPECTING PARDONS, 13 R. 2. st. 2. c. 1. and s. 1. [CONF. as to s. 1., but REP. as 2 by 16 R. 2. c. 6.]
6. No pardon shall be allowed for murder, or for the death of a man slain by await, assault, or malice prepensed, treason, or rape, unless the same murder, &c. be specified in the charter; and if a charter of the death of a man be alleged before any justices, in which it is not specified, that he of whose death any such is arraigned, was murdered or slain by await, &c. the justices shall enquire by inquest, if he were murdered or slain by await, &c., and if they find that he was, the charter shall be disallowed; and further, it shall be done as the law requires, 13 R. 2. st. 2. c. 1. s. 1.
7. FOR REGULATING THE PARDONS of approvers, 5 H. 4. c. 2.
8. Because divers felons be indicted of felonies, and become provers to the intent by brocage to have their charters, IT IS ORDAINED, that if any person pursue for any such felon so attainted by confession to have a pardon, the name of him who pursueth such charter of pardon be put therein, mentioning that it is granted at his instance; and if the person so pardoned, after deliverance, become felon again, the person who pursues such charter shall forfeit 100l. to the use of H. M., id. ibid.
9. IF ANY CHARTER OF PARDON BE PLEADED BY ANY PERSON FOR any felony, the justices before whom same is pleaded may remand the party to prison, until he shall enter into a recognizance with two sureties for his good behaviour, for any term not exceeding seven years; but if such be pleaded by a feme-covert or infant, he or she may find two sureties, who shall enter into a recognizance for their good behaviour as aforesaid, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 13. s. 2.
10. TO ENABLE H. M. MORE EASILY AND EFFECTUALLY conditional pardons to persons under sentence by naval courts-martial, and to regulate imprisonment under such sentences, 37 G. 3. c. 140. [AMD. and EXT. 56 G. 3. c. 5.]
11. If H. M. shall be pleased to extend his mercy to any offender liable to the punishment of death, by the sentence of a naval court-martial, on condition of transportation, or of imprisonment in any gaol of G. B., or of being kept to hard labour in any gaol, or house of correction, or penitentiary, or on any river, under any superintendant, any justice of K. B., C. P., or baron of exchequer, on such intention being notified in writing by a principal secretary of state, may allow such offender the benefit of such pardon, as is expressed in the notification, in the same manner as if a conditional pardon had passed the great seal; and thereupon, when such pardon is granted on condition of transportation, shall order the transportation of such offender, on the terms and for the time specified in the notification, and shall make all other orders consequent on the same, as by 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 56. (which is REP. by 55 G. 3. c. 156.) authorised with respect to offenders in such act mentioned, tried at any court of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery in Eng.; and such orders shall be obeyed, and all such necessary acts done by such person in whose custody the offender is, and all others whom it concerns, and shall be good; and when such pardon is on condition of imprisonment, or of hard labour during any specified term, and the same has been allowed as aforesaid, such justice or baron shall order the offender to be imprisoned, and kept to hard labour for the time specified in the notification, and shall make such order, and do all other acts consequent thereon as any justice of oyer and terminer is by 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 2. (now Exp.) authorised to do with respect to offenders therein mentioned, and who are conditionally pardoned, and all such orders and acts shall be good; and every sheriff, gaoler, keeper, governor, or superintendant, and all constables and persons shall obey such orders, assist in their execution, and be liable to the same punishment for disobedience or interrupting the execution thereof, as they would if the same had been done under the said acts; and all persons so conditionally pardoned shall be subject to all laws in force concerning persons convicted, and afterwards conditionally pardoned, 57 G. 3. c. 140. s. 1.

12. Whenever H. M. will extend his mercy to any offender, liable to the punishment of death, by sentence of a naval court-martial, on condition of transportation or imprisonment, or of being kept to hard labour for life, or for term of years, on communication of H. M.'s intention from the Admiralty, one of the principal secretaries of state may notify to any justice of K. B., C. P. or baron of exchequer, such intention of mercy; whereupon such justice or baron shall allow such offender the benefit of such conditional pardon, as if a pardon had passed the great seal; and shall, together with all other officers and persons, make such orders, and do such acts for carrying such the punishment in the pardon mentioned into effect, as may be by 37 G. 3. c. 140. s. 2—4., and 55 G. 3. c. 156., and all other acts required for the execution of any sentence of transportation, &c. passed at any court of oyer and terminer or gaol-delivery in the U. K.; and every sheriff, gaoler, keeper, governor or superintendant, and all constables and others, shall obey such orders, and assist in their execution, as if such offender had been convicted by a court of oyer, &c., 56 G. 3. c. 5. s. 1.

13. When any such offender shall receive and be allowed H. M.'s pardon, the justice or baron who shall allow the same, and make such order under such notification, shall direct such notification and his own order thereon, to be filed in the office of the clerk of the crown of K. B., to be kept of record, and for which such clerk shall have 2s. 6d., 57 G. 3. c. 140. s. 2.

14. When any offender is ordered under this act to be imprisoned or kept to hard labour, the clerk of the crown shall deliver to the person in whose custody such offender is, a certificate under his hand, for which he shall have 2s. 6d., containing the christian and surname of such offender, his offence, the place where convicted, and of the time for which, the place where, and the manner how he is to be imprisoned, &c.; and such person shall, after receiving such certificate, convey such offender to the appointed place, and deliver him together with such certificate to the gaoler, &c., who shall give a receipt under his hand to such person for his discharge, and such certificate shall be kept by such gaoler, &c. as his warrant for detaining such offender, id. s. 3.

15. Such clerk of the crown of K. B., on the application of any such offender who accepts H. M.'s pardon, or of another person in his behalf, on the behalf of H. M. shall deliver a certificate under his hand, not taking more than 2s. 6d. for the same, containing the christian and surname of the such offender, his offence, and the place where convicted, and the conditions on which he was pardoned; which certificate shall be sufficient proof of the conviction and sentence, and terms of the pardon of such offender in any court and in any proceeding, id. s. 4.

16. H. M. may remove any offender under sentence of death by any naval court-martial, but reprieved during pleasure, or under order of transportation under this act, or in confinement under any sentence of any court-martial, to such place, and in such manner, and with such restrictions, as he may do with respect to offenders so sentenced, &c. by 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 56., id. s. 5.

17. If any offender so under sentence of death is allowed any conditional pardon, all the laws in force touching the escape of felons under sentence of death shall apply to him, and to all persons aiding any escape or intended escape, from the time when such order is made, and during all proceedings had for such purposes, id. s. 6.

18. H. M. may cause any offender in prison or confinement, after or under any sentence of a naval court-martial, or after or under any conditional pardon, to be removed to any other prison, gaol, hulk, penitentiary, or house of correction, within the U. K. he deems fit; and a principal secretary of state shall issue his warrant for such removal, and for executing such part of the sentence as remains unsatisfied; and every sheriff, gaoler, &c., and all constables and others, shall obey such warrant and assist in its execution, and be liable to the same punishment for neglect or interruption, as if such person was sentenced by a court of oyer and terminer or gaol-delivery, 56 G. 3. c. 5. s. 2.

19. During the imprisonment of any officer, petty officer, or seaman, or officer, non-commissioned officer, or private of the marines, in any gaol or place of imprisonment, under any sentence of any naval court-martial, or any conditional pardon, or order or warrant of removal, all pay wages shall be stopped, and the gaoler, &c. in whose custody they are, may receive and apply in the support of such prisoner, such sum per diem, as is allowed by any act for regulating the marine forces whilst on shore, and the admiralty may cause the same to be paid accordingly, id. s. 3.

20. If any person so in confinement becomes insane, and is certified as such by two physicians or surgeons, a principal secretary of state may direct a warrant for his removal to any lunatic asylum or receptacle, as he shall think proper, for the unexpired term of his confinement; and if any such person is so certified of sound mind, such secretary may issue his warrant to remove him to such prison as he deems proper, id. s. 4.

21. FOR REGULATING THE PAYMENT OF FEES OF PARDONS UNDER THE GREAT SEAL, 58 G. 3. c. 29.

22. No fee, gratuity, or other dues payable in respect of any grant of any pardon by H. M., or in respect of any letters patent, charter, warrant, bill, docket, or other instrument appertaining thereto, or the transcript of any such instrument, shall be payable by or on the behalf of any person in whose favour such pardon is granted, but all such fees shall be paid by the treasury, as other law expenses are paid: no such letters patent, &c. or transcript, shall be liable to any stamp-duties, id. s. 12.

PARLIAMENT.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR CHOOSING knights of the shire, burgesses, and citizens who shall be resident, as well as the electors in the counties, cities, and boroughs, 1 H. 5. c. 1. [ENF. 8 H. 6. c. 7., 10 H. 6. c. 2., 23 H. 6. c. 7. s. 2., but so much of all these statutes as relates to such residence & REP. 14 G. 3. c. 59.]

2. That this session of parliament shall not determine by the royal assent to this and some other acts, 1 C. 1. c. 7. [EXP.]

3. FOR PREVENTING inconveniences happening by the long intermission of parliaments, 16 C. 1. c. 1. [REP. 16 C. 2. c. 1., and see id. s. 3., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 2., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 38.]

4. To prevent inconveniences which may happen by the untimely adjourning, proroguing, or dissolving the present parliament, 16 C. 1. c. 7. [EXP.]

5. FOR REMOVING and preventing all questions and disputes concerning the assembling and sitting of this present parliament, 12 C. 2. c. 1.

6. TO AMEND 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 3. as far as it relates to holding county courts, 6 G. 2. c. 23. [Virtually REP. 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 11.]

7. TO ENABLE the speaker of the H. of C. to issue his warrants to make out new writs for the choice of M. P.s, in room of those who die in any recess of parliament, 10 G. 3. c. 41. [EXPL. 15 G. 3. c. 36. ss. 1—3., but both REP. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 26. s. 1.]

8. FOR HOLDING the ensuing election of a knight of the shire for the county of Southampton, at New Alresford, in that county, 20 G. 3. c. 1. [EXP.]

9. FOR EXEMPTING Winchester and Shrewsbury, and the counties of Salop and Southampton from 8 G. 2. c. 50. as far as relates to removal of troops during elections, 20 G. 3. c. 50. [CON. 21 G. 3. c. 43., 22 G. 3. c. 39. EXP.]

10. FOR BETTER SECURING the rights of persons qualified to vote at county elections, 28 G. 3. c. 36. SUSP. 29 G. 3. c. 13. REP. 29 G. 3. c. 18. s. 1. [PUBLIC act, id. s. 3.]

11. FOR ESTABLISHING CERTAIN regulations in the offices of the H. of C., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 92. [REP. 52 G. 3. c. 11. s. 1.]

12. TO CONTINUE proceedings in Dom. Proc. against Judge Fox, notwithstanding prorogation or dissolution of parliament, 45 G. 3. c. 117. [EXP.]

13. TO RENDER VALID certain oaths taken by certain members of the house before deputies of the lord steward in the vacancy of that office, 52 G. 3. c. 21. [EXP.]

14. TO INDEMNIFY persons who shall give evidence before the lords on the bill for preventing bribery and corruption at the election of M. P.s for Barnstaple, in the county of Devon, 59 G. 3. c. 47. (semble EXP.) [See a like act on the bill for disfranchising Grampound, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 47.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ALL ELECTIONS [ecclesiastical or temporal, & Inst. 128.] shall be free, and no man shall disturb them by force of arms or menace, 3 E. 1. c. 5.

2. PARLIAMENTS SHALL BE HOLDEN ONCE every year, or oftener if need be, 4 E. 3. c. 14., 36 E. 3. c. 10. [See the reason for the frequent meeting of parliament as a court of justice, printed Rot. Parl. 1. p. 285. No. 29., and these statutes are recited and confirmed by 16 C. 2. c. 1. s. 3., and 6 W. & M. c. 2. s. 1. which follow.]

3. [Recital of 4 E. 3. c. 14. and 36 E. 3. c. 10. as in last pl.] the sitting and holding of parliaments shall not be intermitted above 3 years at most, but within 3 years after determination of any parliament, or more often if there is occasion, H. M. shall issue legal writs under the great seal for calling and holding another parliament, 16 C. 2. c. 1. s. 3. as CONF. and ENF. by 6 & 7 W. & M. c. 2. ss. 1, 2.

4. NO PEER OF THE LAND, WHETHER OFFICER OR OTHER, because of his office or of things relating thereto, nor by other cause, shall be adjudged to lose his temporalities, lands, goods, or chattels, or be imprisoned, exiled, &c. but by award of his peers in parliament, saving H. M.'s rights by due process against any peer, his accountant, or debtor, and the suit of parties, 15 E. 3. st. 1. c. 2.

5. NO MAN OF THE LAW, PURSUING BUSINESS IN H. M.'s courts, nor any sheriff, while he is sheriff, shall be returned as knight of the shire, and no such man of the law or sheriff then returned shall have wages, but knights and sergeants of the most worthy in the county shall be returned knights in parliament, and elected in full county, 46 E. 3. printed Rot. Parl. II. p. 318. No. 13. 8vo. St. 720.

6. ALL PERSONS AND COMMONALTIES HAVING SUMMONS of parliament shall come to the parliaments, on pain that every person summoned, be he archbishop, bishop, duke, earl, baron, banneret, knight of shire, citizen, burgess, or other person soever, and absenting himself (except on reasonable excuse to H. M.) shall be amerced: and every sheriff who is negligent in making return of writs of the parliament, or who leaves out cities or boroughs which of old were wont to come to parliament, shall be punished as accustomed, 5 R. 2. (S. 2.) c. 4.

7. FOR LEVYING THE EXPENCES OF THE KNIGHTS of parliament, 12 R. 2. c. 12. [see pl. 25. 30.]

8. Levy thereof shall be made, and all lands purchased shall be liable to contribute to the same, as has been used in times past, id. ibid.

9. THE OATH AND FEALTY OF THE LORDS SPIRITUAL AND TEMPORAL shall be inrolled in parliament, and also in chancery, and taken by successors and heirs in future, 21 R. 2. c. 5.

10. A REPEAL of all proceedings in the parliament (21 R. 2.) 1 H. 4. c. 3.

11. A confirmation of the parliament holden, 11 R. 2., 1 H. 4. c. 4.

12. FOR PROTECTION OF THE SERVANTS OF members of parliament, 5 H. 4. c. 6. [QU. if in force?]

13. Proclamation shall be made in the place where any assault is committed on a member's servant within time of the session of parliament, that the offender appear in K. B. in a quarter of a year after the proclamation, or he shall be attainted and pay to the party grieved his double damages, to be taxed at discretion of the judges, or by inquest, if need be, with fine and ransom at H. M.'s will, id. ibid.

14. CONCERNING DISSOLUTION OF PARLIAMENT (elected during H. 5.'s absence in France), 8 H. 5. c. 1.

15. Parliament summoned by writ under test of H. M.'s lieut. (H. M. being beyond sea) shall not be dissolved by his arrival in this kingdom, 8 H. 5. c. 1.

16. FOR PROTECTION OF LORDS AND MEMBERS OF parliament, 11 H. 6. c. 11. [QU. if in force?]

17. If any assault be made on any lord spiritual or temporal, knight of the shire, citizen, or burgess, coming to parliament or council, proclamation shall be made for three several days in the most open place of the town where the assault is made, that the offenders do yield themselves in K. B. within a quarter of a year; and, in default thereof, they shall be attainted thereof, and shall forfeit double damages to the party, and be punished by fine and ransom, id. ibid.

18. THE MANNER OF THE ELECTION OF KNIGHTS OF SHIRES FOR PARLIAMENT, 7 H. 4. c. 15., 11 H. 4. c. 1., [AMD. 6 H. 6. c. 4., 8 H. 6. c. 7., 23 H. 6. c. 14.] and see 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. ss. 5—5. 9, 10., 10 A. c. 23. ss. 5—7., 18 G. 2. c. 18. ss. 1. & 7. &c., 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 4. & s. 16. post.

19. The election shall be in full county, and after the knights are chosen, their names shall be written in an indenture under the seals of those who did choose them, and tacked to the writ of summons; which indenture, so sealed and tacked, shall be holden for the return of the said writ as to such knights, and a clause for the return thereof is added in the writ, 7 H. 4. c. 15.

20. The judges of assize may enquire of the returns of such knights made, and if be there found by inquest and examination that any sheriff hath made any return contrary to 7 H. 4. c. 15., or 8 H. 6. c. 7., he shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M. and [be imprisoned for one year, 8 H. 6. c. 7., and knights so chosen shall lose their wages, 11 H. 4. c. 1. and 8 H. 6. c. 7.]

21. The knights of the shires so chosen, and the sheriffs of counties, may have their traverse of office found against them under (7 H. 4. c. 15. or 11 H. 4. c. 1.) 6 H. 6. c. 4. [See other remedies against returning officers for false returns, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 12. pl. 140. &c. and 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7. s. 3. pl. 123.]

22. EVERY SHERIFF, AFTER DELIVERY TO HIM OF THE WRIT OF ELECTION, shall deliver a sufficient precept under his seal to the mayors and bailiffs of the cities and boroughs in his county, reciting the writ, and commanding them to choose their members; and such mayors, &c. shall return such precept to the sheriff, by indentures between them to be made, of the said elections, and the names of the members chosen, and he shall return them to parliament under penalty of 8 H. 6. c. 7. [100*l.* to H. M. and a year's imprisonment] against the sheriff for transgressing this or any former statute: and he shall moreover forfeit to any person chosen knight, citizen, or burgess in his county, and not duly returned, or to any person suing in his default, 100*l.*, recoverable, with costs, by action of debt against the sheriff, his executors, &c. [without wager of law or essoin, 23 H. 6. c. 14. s. 2. [and see further 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7. s. 3. pl. 123.] to be commenced by such knight, &c. within 3 months after that same parliament commenced 23 H. 6. c. 14. s. 2.] and so where such mayor or bailiffs return other persons than those elected, they shall forfeit 40*l.* to H. M. and 40*l.* to the citizen or burgess elected but not returned, or to any party suing for the same on his default, recoverable by every of the citizens and burgesses so grieved severally, or by any other person suing in their default, in action of debt against every of the said mayor and bailiffs for 40*l.* and costs, without wager of law or essoin by defendant, 23 H. 6. c. 14. ss. 1, 2.

23. If any person shall act as a M. P. in lieu of the member returned, but who has been put out, he shall forfeit 100*l.* to H. M., and 100*l.* to the member grieved, recoverable by the latter within 3 months, by action of debt; and on his failure to sue, by any party suing in like manner, without wager of law or essoin; and the process in the above action shall be as in writs of trespass at common law, id. s. 3.

24. The knights of the shires shall be notable knights or esquires, or gentlemen of birth who shall be able to be knights, and no man of the degree of a yeoman and under shall be such knight, id. ibid.

25. FOR LEVYING THE WAGES OF KNIGHTS OF THE PARLIAMENT, 23 H. 6. c. 10.

26. The sheriff in the next county court, after delivery of the writs for levying the knights' wages, shall make proclamation, that the coroners, and every chief constable, and the bailiffs of every hundred, and all other which will be at the assessing of the wages, shall be at the next county; and the sheriff, under-sheriff, coroners or bailiffs, shall be there at the same time, on pain of forfeiture to H. M. of 40*s.*, at which time the sheriff, in full county, shall assess every county to pay a certain sum for the wages of the knights, so that the whole sum of all the hundreds do not exceed the sum due to the knights; and after that in the same county shall assess every village to a certain sum, so that the whole sum of all the towns within any hundred, do not exceed the sum assessed upon the hundred. And if the sheriff, &c. shall levy more on any village than that whereunto they were assessed, or shall assess any hundred or village otherwise than aforesaid, they shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.*, and to any man which will sue 10*l.*, 23 H. 6. c. 10. s. 1.

27. The sheriff shall levy the money assessed upon the villages, and the same shall deliver to the knights, on the said pains: and he that will sue, shall have a scire facias; and if defendant, duly warned, make default, or appear or be convict, the plaintiffs shall recover 10*l.* to their own use, over the said 20*l.*, with treble costs, id. s. 2.

28. The justices of K. B. and C. P., justices of assizes, gaol-delivery, and of the peace, may enquire, hear, and determine, of all the said defaults, as well by enquiry at H. M.'s suit, as by action at suit of the parties. And such expences shall not be levied of any other places, but where so levied before, id. s. 3.

29. In every writ to levy the wages of the knights, this act shall be comprehended, id. s. 4.

30. FOR DUE PAYMENT OF THE FEES AND WAGES OF KNIGHTS AND BURGESSES for the parliament in Wa., 35 H. 8. c. 11.

31. The sheriffs of every shire in Wa., and of Monmouthshire, shall have power to levy the knights' fees and wages, and the same shall pay to such knights, within two months after the latter shall deliver the writ de solutione feodi militis parliamenti, and every sheriff making default, shall forfeit 20*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party suing for the same; and if for longer than 2 months, for every month 20*l.*, 35 H. 8. c. 11. s. 1.

32. Every mayor, bailiff, and other head officers of cities and towns in the said 12 shires, and county of M., within like 2 months after receipt of the said writ, shall levy and pay the wages to their burgesses, on like pain, as in s. 1., id. s. 2.

33. The burgesses of the said cities and towns, which be contributory to the burgesses' wages of the shire towns, shall be admonished by proclamation, by the mayors, &c. to come and give their elections for the said burgesses, at such time and place as shall be assigned by the mayors, &c. of the shire town, in which elections the burgesses shall have like voice to elect the burgesses of the shire towns, as the burgesses of the shire towns have, id. s. 3.

34. Two justices of the peace in every shire in Wa., and in the county of M., may tax every city and town within the shire in Wa., and in the county of M. for their rates, towards the burgesses in the shire towns in Wa. and the county of M., which rates shall be again rated on the inhabitants, by four or six burgesses named by the mayor, bailiffs, or other head officers; and thereupon the mayor, &c. of every such city or borough shall collect the same, and make payment as aforesaid, to the burgesses of the parliament, 35 H. 8. c. 11. s. 4.

35. MEMBERS SHALL NOT DEPART FROM THE PARLIAMENT TILL THE SESSION be ended, without licence of the speaker recorded in the clerk's book, on forfeiture of their wages, 6 H. 8. c. 16.

36. FOR KNIGHTS AND BURGESSES TO HAVE PLACES IN PARLIAMENT FOR THE county palatine and city of Chester, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 13.

37. The county palatine of Chester shall have two knights for the county, and two citizens burgesses for Chester city shall be elected by process awarded by the lord chancellor to the chamberlain of Chester, or his deputy, who shall make like process to the sheriff; and such election shall be made as in the county palatine of Lancaster, or any other county and city in Eng., id. s. 1.

38. TO ENABLE THE COUNTY PALATINE OF DURHAM TO SEND KNIGHTS and burgesses to serve in parliament, 25 C. 2. c. 9.

39. The county palatine of Durham may have 2 knights for the county and the city of Durham, 2 citizens to be burgesses for that city to serve in parliament, to be elected by writ awarded to the bishop of Durham, or his chancellor of the county, and precept thereupon by the bishop or his temporal chancellor to the sheriff; the elections of the knights to be made by the greater number of freeholders, as in other counties, and the election of the burgesses by the major part of the mayor, aldermen, and freemen, which knights and burgesses shall be returned by the sheriff into chancery, on like pains as the sheriffs of any other county, id. ibid.

40. FOR NEW EXECUTIONS TO BE SUED AGAINST ANY which shall hereafter be delivered out of execution by privilege of parliament, and for discharge of the sheriffs, &c. out of whose custody such persons shall be delivered, 1 J. 1. c. 13. and s. 1.

41. TO PREVENT INCONVENIENCES WHICH MAY HAPPEN BY privilege of parliament, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. [AMD. 11 G. 2. c. 24. 10 G. 3. c. 50. 45 G. 3. c. 124. ss. 3—6. and s. 8. 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 40.]

42. If any person arrested in execution is set at liberty by privilege of either house of parliament, the party at whose suit such execution was pursued, his executors, or administrators, after the privilege of that session in which it shall be granted shall cease, may sue out a new writ of execution, as if no such former execution had been served, and no sheriff or officer from whose custody such person arrested is delivered by privilege, shall be charged for so delivering him out of execution, 1 J. 1. c. 13. s. 2.

43. This act shall not diminish any punishment to be by censure in parliament inflicted on any person who shall make or procure such arrest, id. s. 3. and see 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 2., &c. infra, pl. 50, 51.

44. Any person may prosecute any suit in [any court of record, of equity, and of admiralty, and in all causes, matrimonial or testamentary, in any court having cognizance thereof in G. B. or Ire., 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.] against any peer or lord of parliament, or against any member of the house of commons, or their menial or other servants, or person entitled to privilege of parliament, at any time from its dissolution or prorogation, till a new one shall meet, or the same be re-assembled, and from any adjournment of both houses for more than 14 days till they re-assemble; and the said courts may, after such dissolution, prorogation, or adjournment, give judgment, and make final orders, decrees, and sentences, and award execution thereon, any privilege of parliament notwithstanding, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 1. 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.

45. FOR FURTHER EXPLANATION AND REGULATION OF PRIVILEGE OF parliament, in relation to persons in public offices, 2 & 3 A. c. 18. [QU. if not superseded since 10 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1. ?] infra, pl. 49.

46. An action may be commenced in any of the courts at Westminster against any officer or person employed in the revenue of the crown, or any branch thereof, or in any other office of public trust, for any breach of trust relating thereto, or for any penalty imposed by law, to enforce due execution thereof; and no such action or process, judgment or execution thereon shall be delayed, under pretence of privilege of parliament, though defendant be a peer or lord of parliament, or a M. P., 2 & 3 A. c. 18. s. 1.

47. But nothing herein shall subject the person of either such peer or M. P. to arrest or imprisonment during the time of privilege; but such officer being a M. P., may be proceeded against by original bill, summons, and distress infinite, &c., id. s. 2.

48. FOR FURTHER PREVENTING DELAYS OF JUSTICE BY REASON OF PRIVILEGE of parliament, 10 G. 3. c. 50.

49. Any person may commence an action or suit in any court soever, against any peer or lord of parliament, or against any member of the H. of C., or their servants, or any other person entitled to privilege of parliament, without impeachment or delay thereof on that account,

10 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1. [seems to supersede 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 1. and 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

50. Nothing in these acts shall subject any member of the H. of C. or other person, having privilege of parliament, to be arrested during the time of privilege, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 2. 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2. (twice enacted) 10 G. 3. c. 50. s. 2. 45 G. 3. c. 124. s. 8.

51. Any such process against peers or lords of parliament may be had after such dissolution, prorogation, or adjournment, or before any session of parliament, or meeting of both houses as aforesaid, out of K. B., C. P., and exchequer, [for other courts, see next pl.] as might be had against them out of the time of privilege; and any member of the H. of C., or other person entitled to privilege of parliament, may be prosecuted during the like times in such courts, by summons and distress infinite, or by original bill and summons, attachment, and distress infinite, until common appearance is entered, or common bail filed, to the action according to the course of each court, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 2.

52. The great sessions in Wa., and courts of sessions in Cheshire, Lancashire, and Durham, and of K. B., C. P.; and Exchequer in Ire., may issue the like process against any such peers or lords of parliament, members of H. of C., or other persons entitled to privilege of parliament at the like times, 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2.

53. Any bill against any such peer, lord of parliament, member, or person so privileged, may be exhibited in the courts of chancery, exchequer, or of the duchy court of Lancaster, [or in the chancery or equity side of the exchequer in Ire., 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2.] and plaintiff may proceed thereon by letter or subpoena as usual, and on leaving a copy of the bill with defendant, or at his house, &c. or last place of abode, may proceed thereon; and for want of appearance or answer, or for non-performance, or breach of any order or decree, may sequester the real and personal estate, as is used where a peer of the realm is defendant, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 2. 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2.

54. TO ALTER THE PRACTICE OF COURTS OF EQUITY IN SUITS IN WHICH M. P.s are defendants, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 40.

55. When any bill of complaint or information is exhibited in a court of equity against a M. P., it shall not be necessary to leave a copy thereof with the defendant before sequestration for non-appearance, but the relator, for want of appearance or answer, may proceed to sequestration of his real and personal estate, id. ibid.

56. TO PREVENT DELAY IN ENTERING APPEARANCES in actions brought against persons having privilege of parliament, 45 G. 3. c. 124. ss. 3—6. [see ss. 1. and 7. 8. AMDG. 4 G. 3. c. 33. tit. BANKRUPT, ppl. 138—140.]

57. When any summons, or original bill and summons, is sued out against any person having privilege of parliament, and no such affidavit is made and filed, as in 4 G. 5. c. 33. s. 1. BANKRUPT, pl. 135. and s. 1. of this act, id. pl. 138. mentioned, if defendant shall not appear at return of the summons, or within 8 days after, the plaintiff, on affidavit being made and filed in the proper court of the personal service of such summons, (filing gratis), may enter an appearance for defendant, and proceed thereon, as if he had entered his appearance, id. s. 3.

58. If any defendant having privilege of parliament, shall on return of process of sequestration issued against him, for not putting in appearance to any original or other bill in equity, for enforcing discovery and relief, or discovery alone, [seemle "not appear;" but a chasm in the act], then such court, on producing the return of such sequestration in court, may on motion or other application of the plaintiff in such cause, appoint a clerk in court to enter an appearance for such defendant; and such proceedings may be had thereupon in the cause as if the party had actually appeared, 45 G. 3. c. 124. s. 4.

59. When any defendant having privilege of parliament, shall have appeared to any bill filed against him seeking a discovery on oath, or when an appearance shall have been entered for such defendant, according to s. 4., and he shall not put in his answer within the time allowed by the rules of the court, the plaintiff may apply to the court for an order that such bill be taken pro confesso, unless good cause to the contrary be shown by defendant, within eight days after being served with such order, id. s. 5.

60. When any such order has been pronounced by any such court of equity for taking such bill pro confesso, the same shall be taken and read in any court of law or equity, as evidence of the facts, matters, and things therein contained, as if they had been admitted to be true by the answer of the defendant put into such bill; and such bill so taken pro confesso, shall be received in evidence of such facts, and on behalf of such and so many persons, as defendant's answer to such bill could have been received in evidence of, in case it had been put in by defendant, and had admitted the same facts, &c. stated in the bill, id. s. 6.

61. The court issuing a distringas, may order the issues raised thereby to be sold, and applied to pay such costs to plaintiff as they think fit: and the surplus shall be retained till the defendant appear, or other purpose of the writ is answered, 10 G. 3. c. 50. s. 3.

62. When such purpose is answered, the issues shall be returned, or if sold, the residue shall be repaid to the party distrained upon, id. s. 4.

63. Obedience may be enforced to any rule of K. B., C. P., or exchequer, against any person having privilege of parliament by distress infinite, at discretion of party, 10 G. 3. c. 50. s. 5.

64. No action, judgment, or process soever, in law or equity, or the execution thereof against H. M.'s immediate debtor, for recovery of any debt originally due to H. M., or against any accountant to H. M. for any revenue or other original debt or duty, shall be delayed by privilege of parliament; but no such process shall extend to arresting the person of any peer; or M. P. during the time of privilege, 12 & 13 W. 3. c. 3. s. 4., 11 G. 2. c. 24. s. 4., and see ante, pl. 47.

65. Neither of these acts shall give additional jurisdiction to any court to hold plea in any real or mixt action, in any other manner than as before they passed, s. 15. of both acts.

66. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PRESERVING H. M.'s PERSON AND government by disabling papists from sitting in either house of parliament, 30 C. 2. st. 2. and s. 1. [Exp. as to the oaths of allegiance and supremacy in s. 2. by 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 3. AMN. and CONF., id. ss 4—7. New forms of oaths being substituted, id. ss. 6, 7.]

67. No peer shall vote or make proxy, or sit in the house of peers during any debate, nor shall any member of the house of commons vote or sit in that house during any debate after the speaker chosen, till such peer or member shall respectively first take (30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 1.) the oath of allegiance following:

'I A. B. do sincerely promise and swear, that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to H. M. So help me GOD.'

Which oath is provided by 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 6.; and of supremacy, viz.

'I do swear that I do from my heart abhor, detest, and abjure as impious and heretical, that damnable doctrine and position, "That princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the see of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects or any other whatsoever." And I do declare that no foreign prince, person, prelate, state, or potentate, hath or ought to have any power, jurisdiction, superiority, pre-eminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this realm.—So help me GOD.' id. s. 7.

And make, subscribe, and audibly repeat the declaration against popery, viz.

'I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely in the presence of God profess, testify, and declare, that I do believe that in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper there is not any transubstantiation of the elements of bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ at or after the consecration thereof by any person whatsoever: and that the invocation or adoration of the virgin Mary or any other saint, and the sacrifice of the mass, as they are now used in the church of Rome, are superstitious and idolatrous. And I do solemnly in the presence of God profess, testify, and declare, that I do make this declaration, and every part thereof, in the plain and ordinary sense of the words read unto me, as they are commonly understood by English protestants, without any evasion, equivocation, or mental reservation whatsoever, and without any dispensation already granted me for this purpose by the pope, or any other authority or person whatsoever, or without any hope of any such dispensation from any person or authority whatsoever, or without thinking that I am or can be acquitted before God or man, or absolved of this declaration or any part thereof, although the pope, or any other person or persons, or power whatsoever, should dispense with or annul the same, or declare that it was null or void from the beginning.' 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 2.

Within such time and in manner as in 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 2. and 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 1. ss. 4, 5. directed; which oaths and declaration shall be made by such peers and members, between nine a. m. and four p. m., at the tables in the middle of the respective houses, whilst full houses are sitting, with the respective speakers in their chairs; and the same shall be done in either house in like order as it is called over, 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 4.; and the said houses of peers and commons are hereby required, in the first place, all other business laid aside, from time to time, to administer the said oaths, declaration, and subscription respectively, to every person aforesaid, duly demanding the same according to this act, id. s. 11. [But no Roman catholic peer of G. B. or Ire. or member of the house of peers is now liable to these penalties if they have taken the oaths, &c., in 31 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1. See PAPIST, ante, pl. 230. 254.]

68. Every peer of the realm, and of Scot. or Ire., being 21 years old, not having taken the said oaths, and made and subscribed the said declaration; and every member of the house of commons not having so taken, &c. such oaths or made such declaration; and every person convicted of popish recusancy, and advisedly coming into or remaining in the presence of H. M. shall be disabled as (in s. 6.) hereof, unless the person convicted do in the next term take the said oaths and make the said declaration in chancery between nine and twelve a. m., 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 5.

69. If any such peer or member of the house of commons shall offend in any of the above cases against this act, he shall be deemed and suffer as a popish recusant convict, and shall be disabled to hold any office or place of profit or trust, civil or military, in any of H. M.'s islands or plantations; and to sit or vote in parliament, or make proxy in the house of peers, or to sue at law or equity, or act as guardian or executor, or to take a legacy or deed of gift; and shall forfeit for every wilful offence 500*l.*, recoverable by him who will sue by action of debt,

&c., or information, in any of the courts at Westminster, without essoin, &c. allowed, 30 C. 2. st. 2. s. 6.

70. Both houses may respectively order their members to take the oaths and make the declaration; and if any peer shall, contrary to such order, presume to sit without taking them, &c., he shall be disabled to sit and vote by proxy or otherwise during that parliament, and a member of the house of commons is disabled in like manner, id. s. 7.

71. Where any member of the house of commons is by this act disabled to sit or vote, a new writ shall issue by a speaker's warrant for electing a member to come in his place, as if he were actually dead, id. s. 8.

72. During the time of taking the said oaths, &c., all other proceedings in the said houses shall cease; and the said oaths, declaration, and subscription, with a schedule of the names of the persons who shall by this act take the same, shall be filed in parchment rolls by the respective clerks of the houses of lords and commons, and of the petty bag, who shall not receive above 12*d.* from each member on such entry, and shall show the same without fee to every person desiring it, id. s. 11.

73. This act shall not prejudice any person for coming into the presence of H. M., who shall have license so to do by warrant of six privy counsellors, by order of council, on urgent occasion therein to be expressed, so that such licenses do not exceed ten days at a time, or thirty days in one year for any one person, and be first filed in the petty bag for public view without fee, id. s. 12.

74. If any offender against this act shall take the oaths, &c. in chancery, (as in s. 3. pl. 67.) he shall be discharged of the penalties hereof, except that of 500*l.* penalty, pl. 69., but shall not be restored to, or capable of office till one year expired, id. s. 13., but see note to s. 11.

75. THE CONVENTION OF LORDS AND COMMONS AT Westminster, the 22*d* Jan. 1688, and sitting there on 13*th* Feb. 1688, is declared a parliament; and all acts receiving the royal assent before their next prorogation shall be taken, to commence on the latter day, on which their majesties accepted the crown, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 2.

76. King William and Queen Mary recognized as king and queen, 2 W. & M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 1.

77. All the acts of parliament in 1 W. & M., are declared to be laws of the realm, id. s. 2.

78. TO DECLARE THE RIGHT AND FREEDOM OF ELECTION OF members to serve in parliament for the cinque ports, 2 W. & M. S. 1. c. 7.

79. All recommendations by the lord warden of the cinque ports of one member to serve in parliament for each cinque port, are null and void, id. s. 1, 2.

80. FOR PREVENTING CHARGE AND EXPENCE IN ELECTIONS OF members to serve in parliament, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 4. [AMD. and ENF. 2 G. 2. c. 24., (which is AMD. as to s. 4., 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 51., as to s. 11. 9 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.), 43 G. 3. c. 74., 49 G. 3. c. 118.]

81. No person to be elected to serve in parliament for any place in Eng., Wa., or Ber., after the teste of the writ of summons, or after the ordering the writs of election, on summoning any parliament, or after such place becomes vacant in time of parliament, shall directly or indirectly give or allow to any voter or voters therein, any money, meat, drink, entertainment, or provision, or make any present, gift, reward, [see 49 G. 3. c. 118. s. 1. pl. 98.] or entertainment, or make any promise or engagement to give or allow any money, &c. to any such voter, &c. in particular, or to such place in general, in order to be elected, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 4. s. 1.

82. Every person offending as in s. 1. shall be disabled to serve in parliament for such place upon such election, id. s. 2.

83. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING BRIBERY AND corruption in the election of members to serve in parliament, 2 G. 2. c. 24. [EXR. to electors of commissioners, or delegates for choosing burgesses in Scot. 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 33. AMD. 9 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1., 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 51., 45 G. 3. c. 74. s. 1., 49 G. 3. c. 118. pl. 96.]

84. On every election for a member of parliament, every person having right to vote, shall, before he is admitted to poll, take the following oath, (or if a quaker, make affirmation), the same being demanded by either of the candidates, or by any two electors, (viz.)

'I A. B. do swear (or being quaker, I A. B. do solemnly affirm) I have not received, or had by myself, or any person soever in trust for me, or for my use and benefit, directly or indirectly, any sum or sums of money, office, place, or employment, gift or reward, or any promise or security for any money, &c. in order to give my vote at this election, and that I have not been before polled at this election.'

which oath, &c. the officer taking the poll shall administer gratis, on pain to forfeit 50*l.* and costs to any person suing for same, by action of debt, or information in any court at Westminster, without essoin, or more than one imparlance allowed; and if the offence be committed in Scot., to be recovered by summary action or complaint before the court of session, or by prosecution before the court of judicatory there; and no person shall be admitted to poll till he has taken such oath, if demanded, before the returning officer, or others legally deputed by him, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1.

85. Every voter, if required, as in last pl., shall take the oath in manner above prescribed, at the poll, and immediately before he is admitted to poll, 43 G. 3. c. 74. s. 1. [confirming 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 1., and repealing 42 G. 3. c. 62. as to so much of it as respects the oath by 2 G. 2. c. 24. required.]

86. Every sheriff or other returning officer who shall admit any person to be polled without taking such oath, &c. if demanded, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 1. with costs, and if any person shall vote without having first taken such oath, &c. if demanded, he shall incur a like penalty, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 2.

87. Every sheriff or other returning officer, [but not in Scot. 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 38.] shall immediately after reading the writ or precept for election, take and subscribe the following oath, viz.

'I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I have not directly or indirectly received any sum or sums of money, office, place, or employment, gratuity or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any premium or gratuity whatsoever, either by myself, or for any other person to my use or benefit or advantage, for making any return at the general election of members to serve in parliament, and that I will return such person (or persons) as shall to the best of my judgment appear to me to have the majority of legal votes.'

which oath any justice of the county, city, corporation, or borough where such election is made, or in his absence, any 3 of the electors shall administer, and the oath shall be entered among the records of sessions, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 3. [This oath not to be administered, 28 G. 3. c. 36. s. 30., but that act wholly RER. 29 G. 3. c. 19. s. 1.]

88. Such votes shall be deemed legal which have been so declared by the last determination in the house of commons, to that county, &c. or other place, which, if preceding 28 G. 3. c. 52. shall be final, but not so if subsequent to that act, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 4., [see pl. 362.] 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 51.

89. Every returning officer, elector, or person, convicted of wilful perjury, or false affirmation herein, shall suffer the pains of wilful perjury, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 5.

90. No person convicted of wilful perjury or subornation thereof, shall be capable of voting in any election of an M. P., id. s. 6.

91. If any person claiming a right to vote in any such election, shall receive any money or other reward, or agree for any money, gift, office, employment, or other reward, to give his vote, or forbear to give his vote in any such election, or if any person shall, by any gift or reward, or by any promise or security for the same, corrupt or procure any person to give or forbear to give his vote, the offender shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered as in s. 1., with costs; and any person offending in the said cases, after judgment obtained against him in any action of debt, &c. or summary action, &c., or being otherwise lawfully convicted, shall be for ever disabled to vote in any election of M. P.s, and to hold any office or franchise as a member of any city, borough, or cinque port, 2 G. 2. c. 24.

92. If any such offender shall, within 12 months after such election, discover any other such offender so that he be convicted, the discoverer, not having been before convicted, shall be indemnified from all penalties and disabilities incurred by any offence against this act, id. s. 8.

93. Every sheriff or other officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing any member belongs, shall, at the time of such election, immediately after the writ or precept, cause to be read before the electors this act, which shall also be read annually at the Easter quarter sessions for any county or city, and at the election of the chief magistrate in any borough, town corporate, or cinque ports, and of magistrates and town counsellors for every borough in Scot., id. s. 9.

94. Every sheriff, under-sheriff, and other officer to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing members doth belong, shall, for every wilful offence against this act, forfeit 50*l.*, recoverable with costs, as in s. 1., id. s. 10.

95. No one shall be liable to any incapacity or penalty under this act, unless prosecution is commenced, and the defendant be actually arrested, [or served with process, so as the service of such process be not prevented by the absconding or withdrawing of defendant from the kingdom, 9 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.] within 2 years after such incapacity incurred, and unless such suit is carried on without delay, 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 11., as AMD. 9 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.

96. FOR BETTER SECURING THE INDEPENDENCE AND PURITY OF PARLIAMENT, by preventing the procuring or obtaining of seats by corrupt practices, 49 G. 3. c. 118.

97. Every person who shall directly or indirectly give or promise, or agree to give any sum of money, gift, or reward, to any person on any agreement that the latter shall, by himself, or by any other at his solicitation, procure, or endeavour to procure, the election of a M. P. for any county, stewartry, or place, shall forfeit 1000*l.*, recoverable as below, and every person so elected, and so having given or promised to give, or knowing of such gifts or promises on any such agreement, shall be disabled to serve for such place; and any person accepting any gift or reward, or any promise on any such contract, shall forfeit to H. M. the amount thereof, and 500*l.*, with full costs, to any person suing for same, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record at Westminster, for offences in Eng. and Wa., and in like courts in Dublin, for offences in Ire., without allowing an essoins or wager of law, or more than one imparlance; if committed in Scot., then by summary action before the court of session, or prosecution before court of justiciary there, 49 G. 3. c. 118. s. 1.

98. Nothing herein shall extend to any money paid to or by any person for any legal expence bonâ fide incurred at or concerning any election, id. s. 2.

99. The penalties on persons giving or procuring, or promising to give or procure to be given, any office or employment to any person, on express agreement that the latter shall, by himself, or by any other at his solicitation, procure or endeavour to procure any such return to parliament, are as relates to the member returned, loss of his seat; as to the receiver of the office, forfeiture thereof, incapacity to hold any other, and 500*l.*, and as to the party giving such place, on the express agreement of procuring or endeavouring to procure such return 1000*l.*, both which penalties are recoverable as in s. 1. id. s. 3.

100. All actions for penalties under this act must be commenced in 2 years from the offence, and the party must be actually arrested or served with process within that time, unless prevented by his absconding from the jurisdiction of the court in which the action is brought; and all statutes of jeofails and amendments extend to such prosecutions, id. s. 4.

101. TO PREVENT FALSE AND DOUBLE RETURNS OF MEMBERS TO SERVE IN PARLIAMENT, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 7. [MADE PERP. 12 A. c. 15.]

102. All false returns, wilfully made, of any member to serve in parliament, are illegal; and if any person shall return any member contrary to the last determination of the house of commons of the right of election in such place, it shall be deemed a false return, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

103. The party grieved, viz. every person duly elected to serve in parliament for any place on such false return, may sue the officers and persons making or procuring the same, or any of them, and shall recover double damages, with full costs, id. s. 2.

104. If any officer shall wilfully, falsely, and maliciously return more persons than are required to be chosen by the writ or precept, the like remedy may be had by the party grieved, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 7. s. 3.

105. All contracts and securities given to procure any return of any M. P. are void; and whoever makes such contract or security, or any gift or reward, to procure such false or double return, shall forfeit 500*l.*: 1-3*d* to H. M., 1-3*d* to the poor of the county or place concerned, and 1-3*d* to the informer, with costs, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, without essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance, id. s. 4.

106. The clerk of the crown shall enter in a book every single and double return which shall come to his hands, and every alteration and amendment by him or his deputy in such return; to which book all persons shall have free access to search and take copies, paying a reasonable fee; and the plaintiff may, at the trial of the above suits, give in evidence such book, or a true copy thereof, relating to any such false or double return, and shall have like advantage of such proof as if they had produced the record itself; and if the clerk of the crown shall not within 6 days after any return shall come to his hand duly enter the same, or make alteration therein, except by order of the house of commons, or give any certificate of any person not returned, or wilfully neglect his duty in the premises, he shall forfeit 500*l.* to the party grieved, recoverable as above, and lose his office, and be for ever incapable of holding it, id. s. 5.

107. Every information or action on this statute shall be brought within 2 years after the cause of action arises, id. s. 6.

108. TO PROVIDE FOR THE MEETING OF PARLIAMENT IN CASE OF A DEMISE OF THE CROWN, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 15. [ENF. 4 & 5 A. c. 8. ss. 4—7., 6 A. c. 7. ss. 4—6., 37 G. 3. c. 127.]

109. No parliament shall be dissolved by the demise of H. M., but shall continue, if sitting, for 6 months, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved by the successor to the crown; and if prorogued, it shall meet and sit on the day unto which it is prorogued, and continue for the rest of the 6 months, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 15. s. 1., 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 4., 6 A. c. 7. s. 4.

110. If there be a parliament in being at the death of H. M., but separated by adjournment or prorogation, at the time of such demise, it shall immediately meet and sit for 6 months, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 5., 6 A. c. 17. s. 5.

111. Nothing in these acts shall abridge H. M.'s power to prorogue or dissolve parliaments, nor shall repeal 6 W. & M. c. 2., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 15. s. 3., 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 7., 6 A. c. 17. s. 7.

112. Members of both houses [on H. M.'s demise] shall take the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration, in such time and manner, and under such penalties, as they ought to do if newly put into such offices, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 17. [rest of this section is clearly R. R. 1 G. 2. S. 1. c. 5. s. 2. and 1 G. 2. S. 1. c. 23. s. 7. but appears in force as to members of parliament as above, sed quare.]

113. In case of H. M.'s demise after a dissolution and before the day appointed in the writs of summons for a new parliament, the last preceding parliament shall convene and sit at Westminster, and be a parliament for 6 months from such demise, if not sooner prorogued or dissolved, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 5.

114. In case of the demise of the new king within the 6 months so limited for the duration of the last parliament, and before its dissolution, or after its dissolution, and before a new parliament has met, as in s. 5., such last parliament shall again convene, and be a parliament for 6 months longer from such second demise, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved, id. s. 4.

115. In case of H. M.'s demise on or after the day appointed for assembling a new parliament, or at any time after such day is so appointed, and after such new parliament have met and sat, the latter shall immediately after such demise, convene and sit at Westminster, and be a parliament for 6 months, unless sooner prorogued or dissolved, id. s. 5.

116. FOR FURTHER REGULATING ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT, AND FOR PREVENTING IRREGULAR PROCEEDINGS OF SHERIFFS AND OTHER OFFICERS IN ELECTING AND RETURNING SUCH MEMBERS, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. ss. 1, 2, 6—8. [AMD. 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7., 33 G. 3. c. 64.]

117. There shall be 40 days between the teste and return of the writs of summons of a new parliament, and the lord chancellor, keeper or commissioners of great seal, shall issue such writs as expeditiously as possible, which, as well in such case as in that of a vacancy during parliament, shall be delivered to the proper officer [messenger of the great seal, 53 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.] and to no other person, who shall indorse on the writ the day of receiving the same, and forthwith make out the precept to each borough or place, and within 3 days after receipt of the writ, [or in 6 days to the cinque ports, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7. s. 2.], deliver such precepts to the proper returning officer of every such place, and to no other person; and such officer shall indorse on the back of the precept the day of its receipt, in presence of the party from whom he received it, and shall forthwith [between the hours of 8 & 4 in the day, from 25th Oct. to 25th March, and of 8 & 6 from 25th March to 25th Oct. 33 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1.] cause public notice to be given of the time and place of election, and proceed to election thereupon within 8 days after receipt of precept, and give 4 days' notice, at least, of the day appointed for the election, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 1. as AMD. by 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7. s. 2., and 33 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1.

118. No sheriff, under-sheriff, mayor, or other officer of any county or place soever to whom the execution of any writ or precept for electing members of parliament belongs, shall give or take any fee for making out the receipt, delivery, return, or execution of any such writ or precept, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 2.

119. Every returning officer shall forthwith deliver to any person on demand, a copy of the poll at the election, at a reasonable charge for writing the same, on penalty of 500*l.* to party grieved, recoverable, with costs, by him or his executors or administrators, by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, without allowing any essoins, &c. or imparlance, id. s. 6.

120. No trustee or mortgagee shall vote at an election in right of his trust estate or mortgage, unless he is in actual possession of its rents and profits, and the mortgagor or cestuique trust may vote for the same, notwithstanding the trust, id. s. 7. [rest of sect. post, pl. 179.]

121. No person under 21 years old shall vote or be elected a member of parliament; his return is void; and if he sit or vote in parliament, he is liable to all penalties of so doing without being returned, id. s. 8.

122. The sheriff or other officer, having execution and return of any writ for choice of a member, shall, on or before the day that any future parliament shall be called to meet, and with all convenient speed, not exceeding 14 days after election, make return of the same to the clerk of the crown in chancery, to be by him filed, and shall pay him the ancient fees of 4*s.* for a knight of the shire, and 2*s.* for every citizen, burgess, or baron of cinque ports; and shall charge the same to H. M., and have allowance thereof in his accounts, 10 & 11 W. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

123. Every sheriff or other returning officer who shall not make the returns according to this act, shall forfeit 500*l.*: one moiety to H. M. and the other to him who shall sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record at Westminster, without essoins, &c. and but one imparlance, id. s. 3.

124. FOR REGULATING ELECTIONS OF KNIGHTS OF THE SHIRE. [This title is framed to show the general object of the following provisions:] 7 & 8 *W. 3. c. 25. ss. 3—5, 9, 10., 10 A. c. 23. ss. 2, 3, 5—8., 12 A. c. 5., 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., 18 G. 2. c. 18. ss. 1—9, 11—16., 19 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 1, 2., 31 G. 2. c. 14., 20 G. 3. c. 17., 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 4. & s. 16., 30 G. 3. c. 35., 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 200., 51 G. 3. c. 99.; and see ante, pl. 18. &c., 7 *H. 4. c. 15. &c.

125. At an election of a knight or knights of the shire, the sheriff shall hold his county court for that purpose at the most public and usual place of election in the county, and where it has most usually been for 40 years, and shall there proceed to election at the next county court: [but see 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 4. next pl.] unless the same fall out to be holden 6 days after receipt of the writ, or on the same day; and shall then adjourn the court to some convenient day [for not exceeding 16 days, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 10.] giving 10 days' notice of the time and place of such election, 7 H. 4. c. 15., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 3., 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1. and s. 10. [but semble these enactments are virtually repealed by the following.]

126. In 2 days after receipt of the writ for election of a knight of the shire, and indorsing thereon the day of its receipt, as by law required, the sheriff shall cause proclamation to be made at the proper place of election, of a special county court to be there holden for such election only on any day, except Sunday, not later from the day of making such proclamation than the 16th, or sooner than the 10th; and shall proceed in such election at such court as if the same was to be held at a county court, or adjourned county court, provided that the usual county court for all other purposes, or any adjournment thereof, shall be held and proceeded in by the sheriff as if the writ for such election had not been received, 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 4.

127. The 6 G. 2. c. 23., which prohibits the adjourning a county court to a Monday, Friday, or Saturday, is REP. 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 11.

128. If the election is not determined on the view, but a poll is demanded, the sheriff or under-sheriff, &c. with such others as are deputed by him, shall forthwith proceed to take the poll in some open place or places by him appointed, and such sheriff, under-sheriff, or deputies, shall appoint as many poll-clerks to take the same as shall seem meet: who shall first be sworn by such sheriff, &c. truly and indifferently to take the same, and to set down the names of each freeholder, and the place and situation of his freehold, and for whom he shall poll [see further directions, 10 A. c. 23. s. 5. pl. 135. and 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 7. post, pl. 132.] and to poll no freeholder who is not sworn, if so required by any candidate, as hereinafter mentioned; and they shall all take the poll in presence of the sheriff, under-sheriff, or deputies, who shall appoint one person for each candidate nominated by him, to be inspectors of every poll clerk, and every freeholder shall, before polling, if so required by any candidate, take the following oath or affirmation [18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1.] inter alia, that he has freehold land or tenement to 40s. value per ann. clear of all charges, as in 8 H. 6. c. 7. administered by the sheriff, [8 H. 6. c. 7.] under-sheriff, or sworn poll-clerks, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 3. as AMD. by 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1.; and see 8 H. 6. c. 7. ante, pl. 18. [N. B. The form of oath given by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 3. is (REP. by 10 A. c. 23. s. 3. which is) REP., and the present oath is provided by 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1.]

'You shall swear, (or, being one of the people called quakers, you shall solemnly affirm,) that you are a freeholder in the county of — and have a freehold estate consisting of — [specifying the nature of such freehold estate, whether messuage, land, rent, tithe, or what else; and if messuage land or tythe, specifying in whose occupation the same are; and if in rent, specifying the names of the owners or possessors of the lands or tenements out of which such rent is issuing, or of some or one of them] lying or being at — in the county of — of the clear yearly value of 40s. over and above all rents and charges payable out of or in respect of the same; and that you have been in the actual possession or receipt of the rents and profits thereof for your own use, above 12 calendar months; or that the same came to you within the time aforesaid, by descent, marriage, marriage-settlement, devise, or promotion to a benefice in a church, or promotion to an office; and that such freehold estate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, on purpose to qualify you to give your vote; and that the place of your abode is at — in — and that you are 21 years of age, as you believe; and that you have not been polled before at this election.' [For oath of electors in counties of cities or towns, see 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.]

129. Every freeholder or other person guilty of perjury, or subornation thereof, in taking or pressing any person to take such oath, in order to be polled, shall, on conviction, incur the penalties of 5 £l. c. 9. and 2 G. 2. c. 25. PERJURY, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1., 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 4.

130. Every such sheriff, or, in his absence, his under-sheriff, or such as he shall depute, as in s. 1., shall, at the same place of election, proceed to polling all the freeholders present, and shall not adjourn the county court then and there held to any other place in the county, nor, by unnecessary adjournment in the same place of election, protract the same, without the candidates' consent, till all the freeholders present are polled, and no longer, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 5.

131. All county courts, as well in Yorkshire as elsewhere, heretofore held on a Monday, shall be called on a Wednesday, and not otherwise, id. s. 9.

132. The sheriff of the county of Souhampton, or his deputy, at request of any candidate for election of a knight of that county, shall adjourn the poll from Winchester (after every freeholder present is polled, or after 15 days' poll at farthest) to Neuport, in the Isle of Wight, for ease of the inhabitants of that island, [so that such adjourned poll commence within 4 days from the close of the poll at Winchester, and does not continue longer than 3 days, at most, 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 16.] 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 10. as AMD. by 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 16.

133. In taking the poll, the sheriff, or under-sheriff, and poll-clerks shall enter not only the place of the elector's freehold, but also that of his abode, as declared by him when he gives his vote, and shall enter jurat against the name of every such voter who shall take the oath required, [see 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1. supra, pl. 125.] and the returning officer shall, within 20 days after such election, deliver over on oath (administered by the 2 next justices of the peace, one being of the quorum) unto the clerk of the peace, all the poll-books of such election without alteration; and in counties where there are more than one clerk of the peace, then the originals to one, and attested copies thereof to the rest, for preservation among the records of the sessions of the county, 10 A. c. 23. s. 5.

134. If any quaker shall be required by any candidate to declare the effect of the oath required of electors, upon his solemn affirmation, he shall be admitted to vote, and the sheriff shall enter affirmat against his name; and in case he is convicted wilfully, falsely, and corruptly, to have affirmed any thing which, if it had been in the usual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, he shall incur the penalties thereof, id. s. 8.

135. The sheriff of the county of York shall appoint 7 places for polling the county, on any new election for that county, at the proper costs of the candidates, to continue till the poll is concluded, id. s. 6.

136. The sheriff of Cheshire, at an election for that county, shall make 7 tables or places at the candidates' expence in the shire-hall, for taking a poll; 2 at the upper end, 2 at each side, and one at the lower end thereof, id. s. 7.

137. At any election for a shire in Eng. and Wa., the sheriff, or in his absence the under-sheriff, or such as he shall depute, shall appoint and erect, at the candidate's expence, such number of booths or places for taking the poll as any of the candidates shall, 3 days at least before its commencement, desire, so as they do not exceed the number of rapes, lathes, wapentakes, wards, or hundreds in the county, or 15 in all; and shall affix on the most public part of each the name of the rape, &c. for which it is designed; and the sheriff, &c. shall appoint a poll-clerk at each booth to take the poll, (who shall, at the candidate's expence, be paid not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.* per day each clerk) and shall also make out a list for each booth, &c. of all the towns, villages, parishes, and hamlets lying wholly or partly in the rape, &c. for which such booth is allotted, and shall on request deliver copies thereof, at 2*s.* each, to any of the candidates or their agents, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7.

138. No sheriff, under-sheriff, or clerk, appointed to take the poll at any such booths or polling places, shall admit any person to vote for any freehold estate, sworn by his oath to be at some parish or place which, or any part whereof, is not mentioned in the list so made out for such booth, unless such freehold estate be in some place not mentioned in any of the lists, id. s. 8.

139. Every sheriff, under-sheriff, or poll-clerk shall, at every such election, allow a check-book for every poll-book for each candidate, to be kept by their respective inspectors at every polling place, id. s. 9.

140. In case any sheriff or under-sheriff presiding at any election of any such knight of the shire in Eng. and Wa., shall wilfully offend against the true intent and meaning hereof, he shall be liable to be prosecuted by information or indictment in K. B., or in the great sessions of W'a., or in the sessions for the counties palatine, or at the assizes for the county or place where the offence is committed, in which no noli prosequi or cesset processus shall be granted, id. s. 12.

141. In any action of debt given by this act, the plaintiff may set forth in the declaration or bill that defendant is indebted to him in the sum of — £, and may allege the particular offence against the act for which the action is brought, without mentioning the writ of summons or its return; and in any indictment or information for offences against this act may allege the particular offence charged on defendant, and that defendant is guilty thereof without mentioning such summons or its return; nor need the latter, or any warrant to the sheriff grounded thereon, be proved on the trial of either such action or indictment, id. s. 13.

142. Every action, indictment, or information given by this act shall be commenced in 9 calendar months after the fact committed, id. s. 14.

143. All the statutes of jeofails and amendments shall extend to any action, indictment, &c. brought under this act, id. s. 15.

144. If the plaintiff or informer in any such proceeding discontinues, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 16.

145. No person shall vote for electing any knight of a shire [or member for a county of a city or town, 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., and 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.] in Eng., in right of any freehold lands or tenements of the clear yearly value of 40s. above all charges payable thereout, or for which he has not received or been entitled to receive, the rents or profits for his own use for one year [above 12 calendar months, 18 G. 3. c. 18. s. 5.] before such election, unless such lands, &c. came to the voter by descent, marriage, marriage-settlement, devise, or by presentation to some benefice in the church, or promotion to an office to which such freeholder is affixed, under penalty of 40*l.* in moieties to the poor of the parish where the lands, &c. lie, and to the party suing by action of debt or information in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance allowed, 10 A. c. 23. s. 2. [as ENF. 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.]

146. Nothing in 10 A. c. 23. s. 2. shall restrain any person from voting in any election of the knight of a shire in Eng. in respect of any rents, tithes, or incorporeal inheritances, or any messuages or land in extra parochial places, or any chambers in the inns of court or chancery, or any messuages belonging to any offices [because not assessed to the taxes, church rates, and parish duties, as mentioned in s. 2. thereof, REP. 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 2.] or in right of other lands, &c. not herein specified, because not usually so assessed, 12 A. c. 5. [The proviso at the end of this section, that such lands have been assessed to some one or more such taxes, proportionable to that assessed on other lands, &c. of 40s. per ann. in the same parish, &c., which is similar to that in 10 A. c. 23. s. 2., is also REP. 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 2., 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2. See as to land-tax assessment in general, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3., and as to its non-assessment on such rents, chambers, &c. as affecting right to vote at county elections, id. s. 4., and 20 G. 3. c. 17. infra, pl. 158. 162—178.]

147. No person shall vote in any such election without having a freehold estate in the county for which he votes of 40s. yearly value, over and above all rents and charges payable thereout, or without having been in actual possession or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for his own use, above 12 calendar months, unless the same came to him within the time aforesaid, by descent, marriage, marriage-settlement, devise, or promotion to any benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office; or shall vote in right of any freehold estate which was fraudulently made to him on purpose to qualify him to give his vote, or shall vote more than once in the same election; and every person voting in any such election contrary to the meaning hereof, shall forfeit to any candidate for whom such vote has not been given, and who shall sue for same, 40l. to be recovered by him, his executors, or administrators, with costs, by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or imparlance shall be allowed; and in every such action the proof shall lie on debt., unless the fact on which it is grounded be the having polled more than once at the same election, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.

148. No public or parliamentary tax, county, church, or parish rate, nor any other tax to be assessed on any county or division shall be deemed a charge payable out of any freehold estate within the meaning of this act, or of the oath or affirmation in s. 2. directed, id. s. 6.

149. FOR FURTHER EXPLAINING THE LAWS OF ELECTORS OF KNIGHTS OF THE SHIRE IN Eng. AND Wa., 31 G. 2. c. 14.

150. No person who holds his estate by copy of court roll, shall be entitled thereby to vote at the election of any knight of the shire in Eng. or Wa.; and his vote, if given contrary to the intent hereof, shall be void; and every such voter shall forfeit to the candidate for whom such vote shall not have been given, and who shall first sue for the same, 50l., recoverable with costs by him, his executors, and administrators, by action of debt in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or imparlance allowed, and the proof shall lie on the defendant, id. s. 1.

151. Plaintiff may declare that defendant is indebted to him in 50l., and allege the offence for which the action is brought, and that defendant had acted contrary to this act, without mentioning the writ of summons to parliament, or its return; and neither such writ or return, or the warrant to the sheriff grounded thereon, need be proved on the trial, id. s. 2.

152. Such action must be commenced in 9 calendar months next after the fact committed, id. s. 3.

153. All statutes of jeofails and amendments extend to proceedings thereon, id. s. 4.

154. If plaintiff discontinues, is nonsuit, or has judgment against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 5.

155. No person shall vote in an election for a knight of the shire in Eng. or Wa., in right of any messuages, lands, or tenements which have not been assessed towards some aid granted to H. M. by a land tax [12 altered by 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1. to] 6 calendar months next before such election, [in the name of the person so claiming to vote in respect of such lands, &c. or in that of the tenant actually occupying the same as tenant of the owner thereof, 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1.] 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3., 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1. [18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 3. is REP. by 28 G. 3. c. 56. s. 33., but that act is wholly repealed, 29 G. 3. c. 18. s. 1.]

156. NOTHING IN this act shall restrain any person from voting at any election of a knight of a shire in Eng. or Wa., in respect of any rents or chambers in the inns of court or chancery, or of any messuages or seats belonging to any offices because not usually assessed to the land-tax, 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 4.

157. TO REMOVE CERTAIN DIFFICULTIES RELATIVE TO VOTERS AT ELECTIONS OF KNIGHTS OF THE SHIRE, (s. 1.) 20 G. 3. c. 17.

158. This act, as relates to the assessing and rating of the land-tax, [as in s. 1. ante, pl. 145.] shall not extend to annuities, or feefarm rents, duly registered, issuing out of any messuages, lands, or tenements so assessed, nor to any person entitled to the lands, &c. for which he shall vote, by descent, marriage, marriage settlement, devise, or promotion to any benefice, or to any office in 12 calendar months next before such election, but he may vote in respect thereof, if the lands, &c. have been within 2 years next before such election, assessed to the land-tax in the name of the person through whom such voter shall derive title, or in that of some predecessor, within a like time of such person claiming to vote in respect of any promotion to a benefice or an office, or in the name of the tenant actually occupying such lands, &c. 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 2.

159. Nothing in 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 1. pl. 145. shall affect the right of voting for a knight of the said parliaments, or for Cricklade after a 6 months' assessment of the freehold to the land-tax, or where the voter has become entitled by descent, marriage, &c. within 12 calendar months before the election, and his freehold has been assessed to the land-tax for two years next preceding, though the name of the occupier be not inserted in the assessment, 30 G. 3. c. 35. s. 2.

160. EVERY person who shall tender his vote at the election of any knight of the shire, or other member in Eng. or Wa. for lands or tenements, the land-tax on which has been redeemed or purchased, shall be entitled to vote, on proving to satisfaction of returning officer, on oath or otherwise, that they have been exonerated therefrom under the land-tax redemption acts, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 200.

161. IN ORDER to entitle any person to vote at an election for an M. P. in respect of land-tax purchased by them, (as in 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 154.) it shall not be necessary to have the same, or any memorial of the contract or certificate of purchase thereof registered, as other feefarm rents and annuities, or a memorial of the grant thereof are by law required to be registered before any person can vote for electing an M. P. in respect thereof, 51 G. 3. c. 99.

162. The commissioners of land-tax for Eng. and Wa. shall deliver to each assessor of land-tax in their division a printed form of assessment as set forth in the schedule, according to which he shall make assessments, and shall make three duplicates thereof, and shall at least 14 days before delivery of such assessment to the land-tax commissioners of the county, riding, or division, cause one such duplicate, or a fair copy thereof, to be stuck up on the door of the church or chapel of the parish, &c. where the assessment is made, or if made for an extra parochial place, then on the door of the church, &c. of the next parish; and if any occupier of messuages, lands, or tenements in any such parish or place shall rent, hold, or occupy messuages, &c. belonging to different owners, the same shall be distinctly assessed, that the proportion of land-tax paid by each separate owner may be known; and such duplicates shall be delivered to the land-tax commissioners at their meeting for receipt of assessments; and if the name of any owner entitled to vote is not included therein he may appeal to the commissioners of land-tax, to whom such assessments are returned, on giving notice in writing to the parish assessor; and the commissioners on good cause shewn shall amend the duplicate of such assessment by inserting the name of the actual occupier and owner, or the persons entitled to the rents, &c. thereof, or by erasing any name improperly inserted therein, and shall cause one duplicate so amended, after the same are duly signed and sealed by the said commissioners or three of them, to be returned to the assessor, who shall deliver it within 10 days of the receipt to a chief constable of the hundred, lath, or wapentake where the parish lies for which the assessment was made, for which the latter shall give a receipt, and shall deliver it without alteration, on oath, at the first day of the next general quarter sessions for the county, &c. for which the assessment is made, in open court, to the clerk of the peace for filing among the sessions records, 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 3. and 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 4.

SCHEDULE. (Form of Assessment.)

County of N. to wit, } An assessment made in pursuance of an act of parliament, passed in the — year of H. M.'s reign, for granting an aid to H. M., by a land-tax, to be raised in the said county. } in the said county. } in C. B. for the service of the year —.

Names of Proprietors.	Names of Occupiers.	Sums assessed.
A. B.	Himself.	—
C. D.	E. F.	—

Signed this — day of — 18— by us { G. H. } Assessors.
I. K.

163. If any assessor shall neglect to deliver such amended duplicate to such chief constable, or if the latter neglect to deliver it to the clerk of the peace as in last place, or shall wilfully alter or deface the same, he shall forfeit 5l. recoverable as in ss. 5, 6., 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 4.

164. At the annual Michaelmas sessions the clerk of the peace or his deputy attending the same, in every county, riding, or division, &c. shall before their conclusion examine whether the duplicates of all the assessments in such county, &c. have been delivered for that year, and shall report to the court if the chief constables have not delivered them to him, which court shall impose the fine of 5l. on the chief constables for the hundred in which the parish for which such duplicates are not returned shall lie, and the clerk of the peace shall give them immediate notice thereof, and if not immediately paid, the quarter-sessions shall by order of court issue a warrant of distress for the same, directed to the constable of the parish where such chief constable lives, to be transmitted to him by the clerk of the peace, to levy such fine and costs of distress, by distress and sale of the offender's goods, 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 5.

165. If such chief constables shall voluntarily make oath at such sessions that such duplicates were not delivered to them by such assessor, the fine shall be imposed on the assessor of the place for which such duplicate is not returned, and the sessions shall by order of court issue a distress for its recovery, directed to the constable of such place, or any other person, and shall require the chief constable to give notice to such assessor, that such fines have been imposed, which shall be served in 14 days next after such sessions; and if the assessor shall not deliver the duplicate, or the chief constable's receipt for it to the clerk of the peace or his deputy, for such county, &c., in 10 days after service thereof, then the latter shall transmit the warrant of distress to levy such fine with costs, by distress and sale of assessor's goods, id. s. 6.

166. If such assessors, or either of them shall in 10 days after such notice produce to the clerk of the peace the chief constable's receipt for such duplicate, the clerk of the peace shall transmit the distress warrants against such chief constable to the proper constable, &c. to be executed, and the warrants levying the fine upon such assessors shall not be executed, id. s. 7.

167. The fines to be imposed and levied on such chief constables and assessors shall be paid to the treasurer of the county, to be applied as part of the county stock, under direction of the sessions, id. s. 8.

168. When any assessment has not been so made and transmitted by neglect of any person concerned, the quarter sessions or any two justices of the county, &c. out of sessions may direct the assessment to be made and returned in manner aforesaid; and it shall have the same effect as if made and returned as herein before directed, id. s. 9.

169. Every person aggrieved by any determination of the land-tax commissioners may appeal against it to the next general quarter sessions for the county, &c. in which they act, giving 10 days' notice of appeal to one of the commissioners signing the duplicate of assessment, and also to one of the assessors of the parish or place where the estate belonging to the party grieved shall be, and such sessions shall hear the matter of such appeal on oath, and shall amend assessments, if necessary, with reasonable costs, and may levy the latter with charges of distress, by distress and sale of the defaulter's goods, id. s. 10.

170. If the commissioners or justices in sessions shall on any appeals before them respectively insert in such assessments or duplicates the names of any persons which shall appear to them improperly omitted, such person shall be deemed rated to such assessment as if his name had been originally inserted by the assessors, id. s. 11.

171. Where any woman the widow of any tenant in fee or in tail shall be entitled to dower or thirds out of her husband's freehold estate, and intermarries with a second husband, the latter shall be entitled to vote in respect of the same, if of the clear yearly value of 40s. or more, though not set out by metes or bounds, if he be in actual receipt of the profits thereof, and the estate from which it issues is rated to the land-tax in the name of the actual owner thereof, id. s. 12.

172. Such duplicate may be inspected at 1s. for each inspection, and the clerk of the peace shall furnish copies of the whole, or any part thereof, signed by him and purporting to be a true copy, at 6d. for 300 words, and in proportion for a greater or less number; which duplicates and such copies so signed, and the duplicate of any assessment in the possession of the commissioners of the land-tax, or of the county receiver-general, and copies thereof shall be legal evidence thereof, id. s. 13.

173. The clerk of the peace of every county, riding, or division in whose office such duplicates are filed shall on reasonable notice attend at every election of a knight of the shire, with the original duplicates, at the request of any candidate or his agent; the latter paying him 2l. 2s. a day for his attendance, and 1s. 6d. a mile travelling expences to and from his abode to the place of election, id. s. 14.

174. After issuing any writ for election of a knight of the shire in Eng. or Wa., the clerk of the peace or his deputy shall attend gratis daily, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the place where the records of the county, riding, or division are usually kept, from the time of delivery of such notice to the day immediately preceding the day of election, for the purpose of receiving applications to inspect such duplicates, and for making copies thereof, id. s. 15.

175. Every clerk of the peace, or his deputy, who shall neglect, or refuse to permit the inspection of such duplicates, or to deliver copies thereof in the time above mentioned, or shall neglect to attend, as in (s. 15.), shall forfeit for every offence 500l. to the party grieved, if the action be brought in 2 months after the offence committed; and if not brought within that time, then to the party suing for the same, as in (ss. 18, 19.), and shall forfeit his office, and be incapable of being re-elected, or acting as clerk or deputy clerk of the peace in any county, riding, or division soever, id. s. 16.

176. Final judgment on any verdict against such clerk or deputy clerk of the peace, for recovery of such forfeiture, shall be deemed a sufficient conviction, without any other conviction soever; after which the offices shall be absolutely void, 20 G. 3. c. 17. s. 17.

177. The penalties imposed on such clerk or deputy clerk of the peace, by s. 16., shall be recovered, with full costs of suit, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any court of record at Westminster, and no essoin, &c., and but one imparlance shall be allowed therein, id. s. 18.

178. No person shall be liable to any penalty by this act imposed, unless prosecution commenced in 12 months after incurred, id. s. 19.

179. AGAINST CONVEYANCES MADE FOR SPLITTING VOTES, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. latter part of s. 7. [AMD. 10 A. c. 23. s. 1. 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. 53 G. 3. c. 49.]

180. All conveyances of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments, in order to multiply voices, or split the interest in any houses or lands among several persons, to enable them to vote at elections of M. P.s are void, and only one voice shall be admitted for one house or tenement, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 7. [See rest of this section, ante, pl. 120.]

181. Devises by will in such cases, and for these purposes, as in s. 1. described, are conveyances, within 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 25. s. 7., and void, but no other part of such will is thereby defeated, 53 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.

182. S. 1. hereof shall not affect any devise made by a testator dying 20 years before this act passed, id. s. 2.

183. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PREVENTING FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES, in order to multiply votes for electing knights of shires to serve in parliament, 10 A. c. 23. [AMD. as to s. 1. by 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.]

184. All conveyances of estates made to any person in any fraudulent manner, on purpose to qualify him to give his vote at elections of knights of the shire [or members for cities, counties of cities, or of towns, 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.] but subject to conditions, to defeat or re-convey the same, shall be absolute against the grantor, and enjoyed by the grantee, discharged of every trust, revocation, defeazance, or condition soever between the parties; and all collateral securities or contracts, or trusts for redeeming, defeating, or re-conveying such estates are void, and every person making such conveyance, and every person privy to such purposes, who by colour thereof shall give any vote at any such election, shall forfeit 40l. with costs, to any person suing for same by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance allowed, 10 A. c. 23. s. 1. 15 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. [The 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2. recites that 10 A. c. 23. s. 2. and 12 A. st. 1. c. 5. s. 1. are recited in 13 G. 2. c. 20., and are repealed by 18 G. 2. c. 18. s. 2., as to the assessment of freeholds to the public taxes, church-rates, or parish duties, in order to their conferring a vote; and declares so much of 13 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1. as extends the said provisions above recited, to counties of cities, and of towns to be REPEALED: the rest of the section, therefore, as given above, appears in force.]

185. TO PREVENT CERTAIN OFFICERS FROM SITTING IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, and from voting or interfering with elections of M. P.s, [Framed to show the general object of these enactments,] 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7. s. 57., c. 20. s. 48., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2. ss. 150, 151., 4 & 5 A. c. 8. ss. 26—30., 6 A. c. 7. ss. 25—30., 9 A. c. 11. s. 49., 10 A. c. 19. s. 182., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 56., 15 G. 2. c. 22., 22 G. 3. cc. 41. 45., 41 G. 3. U.K. c. 52., 51 G. 3. c. 84., 54 G. 3. c. 16.

186. NO MEMBER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS, or any other in trust for him, shall be concerned in collecting or managing any duties granted by this act, [viz. duties on salt, and additional excise] or by any other statute; except the commissioners of treasury, and officers and commissioners of customs and excise [but see now 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2. ss. 150, 151.] not exceeding the present number, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 7. s. 57.

187. No member of the house of commons shall be a commissioner or farmer of the duty of excise on beer, ale, and other liquors, or of determining appeals concerning the same, or controlling or auditing the accounts thereof, or of holding in his own name, or that of another in trust for him, or of executing by himself or deputy, any office soever of excise, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 2. s. 150.

188. Any member, by himself or deputy, or any other in trust for him, or for his benefit, taking any of the above offices, shall be incapable of sitting, voting, or acting as a member of the house of commons, id. s. 151.

189. No person who shall have in his own name, or in that of any person in trust for him, or for his benefit, any new office or place of profit soever, under the crown, created since 25 Oct. 1705, or who shall be commissioner, sub-commissioner, secretary, or receiver of the prizes, or comptroller of army accounts, or commissioner of transports, sick and wounded, wine licenses, or of the navy in the outports, or any agent for a regiment, or governor or deputy governor of plantations, or any person having pension of the crown during pleasure [as to pensioners for years, see 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 56. pl. 197.] shall be capable of being elected or sitting as a M. P., 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 26. and 6 A. c. 7. s. 25.

190. A M. P. accepting any office of profit vacates his seat, and a new writ shall issue, but he may be re-elected, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 27., 6 A. c. 7. s. 26.

191. If any person disabled by this act shall nevertheless be returned, his election is void, and if he presume to sit or vote as a M. P. he shall forfeit 500*l.*, recoverable by the party suing for the same in Eng. by action of debt, or information, without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 30., 6 A. c. 7. s. 29., and see 41 G. 3. c. 53. s. 6. Every person disabled to sit as a M. P. in any parliament of Eng. shall be disabled to sit in any parliament of G. B., 6 A. c. 7. s. 30. [and see the same provision as to the parliament of U. K., 41 G. 3. c. 52. s. 3.]

192. No greater number of commissioners shall be constituted for the execution of any office than have been employed in its execution before the 1st day of this session, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 28., 6 A. c. 7. s. 27. Sp.

193. This shall not extend to new commissions received by officers in the army or navy, being M. Ps, 4 & 5 A. c. 8. s. 29., 6 A. c. 7. s. 28. Sp.

194. No collector, supervisor, gauger, or other officer or person concerned in the charging, levying, or collecting the duties of excise, or any branch thereof, shall by any means endeavour to persuade or dissuade any elector to give, or from giving his vote for the choice of any member of parliament, on pain to forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the poor of the parish where such offence is committed, to be recovered by any person who shall sue in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt or information, wherein no essoin, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and every officer so convicted shall be disabled ever to bear any office of trust under H. M., 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20. s. 48.

195. No commissioner, officer, or other person employed in charging, collecting, receiving, or managing any duties, [hereby granted, semb. now Exp. and Rep.] shall, by word, message, or writing, or in any other manner, endeavour to persuade any elector to give, or dissuade him from giving, his vote for the choice of any person to be a knight of the shire, commissioner, citizen, Burgess, or baron, for any county, city, borough, or cinque port, on penalty of 100*l.*, one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, or place where the offence is committed, to be recovered by any person suing for the same by action of debt, &c., or information in any court of record at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot., without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance allowed; and every such convict shall be disabled to hold office under the crown, 9 A. c. 11. s. 49.

196. No commissioner, officer, or other person concerned in collecting or managing any of the duties granted by this act, [viz. duties on soap and paper, printed silk, &c., certain stamp duties, and additional hackney-coaches, semb. these duties Exp.] shall endeavour to persuade any elector to give, or dissuade him from giving, his vote for choice of any M. P., on penalty of 100*l.*; one moiety to the informer, the other to the poor of the parish, to be recovered by any person suing for the same in the courts at Westminster, or exchequer in Scot.; and every such convict shall be disabled of ever bearing office of trust under H. M., 10 A. c. 19. s. 182.

197. No person having any pension from the crown for any term of years, either in his own name, or in trust for him, shall be capable of being elected a member of the house of commons, 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 56. s. 1.

198. If any person who has such pension at his election, or at any time after it, while he is a M. P., shall presume to sit or vote in that house, he shall forfeit 20*l.* for every day in which he shall sit or vote there, to be recovered with costs in any of the courts at Westminster, by action of debt, or information, without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance, id. s. 2.

199. No commissioner of the revenue in Ire., or commissioners of the navy or victualling offices, nor any deputies or clerks in those offices, or in those of the treasury, or of the auditor of the receipt of tellers, or of chancellor of exchequer, of admiralty, of paymasters of army or navy, of the principal secretaries of state, or of commissioners of salt, stamps, wine licences, hackney-coaches, or of hawkers and pedlars; nor any person having office, civil or military, in Minorca or Gibraltar, except only commissioned officers in any regiment there, shall be capable to be elected to, or sit or vote in, the house of commons, 15 G. 2. c. 22. s. 1.

200. The return of any person by this act disabled is void, and if he presumes to sit or vote as a M. P., he shall forfeit 20*l.* for every day of such sitting, &c., to be recovered with costs by any person suing for the same in any court at Westminster, by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c., and but one imparlance, and shall be disabled from holding office of honour or profit under H. M., id. s. 2.

201. Nothing herein shall exclude the treasurer or comptroller of the navy, the secretaries of the treasury, the secretary to chancellor of the exchequer, or secretaries of the admiralty, the under-secretary to any principal secretary of state, or deputy paymaster of the army, or any person holding office for life, dum bene se gesserit, id. s. 3.

202. FOR BETTER SECURING THE FREEDOM OF ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS TO serve in parliament, by disabling certain revenue officers from voting at such elections, 22 G. 3. c. 41. [And. as to Scot., 37 G. 3. c. 138. which see SCOTLAND; (Parliament) and by 51 G. 3. c. 84.]

203. No commissioner or other officer, or person soever, concerned or employed in the excise, customs, or stamp duties, or any person concerned in charging, collecting, levying, or managing any of the duties thereon, nor any distributor of stamps, nor any person employed in managing, collecting, &c. the salt, window, or house duties; nor any post masters-general or their deputies, or persons employed under them in the revenue of the post office or any part thereof, nor any captain, master, or mate, of any post-office packet, or other vessel employed by the post master-general, to convey the mail to and from foreign ports shall vote at any election soever for M. P. in Eng., or for choosing any delegate in whom the right to elect members for Scot. is vested; and any vote given by such person during his holding such office, or in twelve calendar months after shall be void, and he shall forfeit 100*l.*; one moiety to the informer, and the other to be paid immediately to the treasurer of the county, riding, or division, where the offence was committed if in Eng.; and to the clerk of the justices of the county or stewarty in Scot., to be applied as the next quarter sessions think fit, to be recovered by the party suing for same, by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, without allowance of essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance, or by summary complaint before court of session in Scot., and the person convicted shall be thereby disabled ever to hold office or place of trust under H. M., 23 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1.

204. The 15 coal and 10 corn meters of the city of London are excepted from the operation of 22 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1., provided they receive no fee or reward from the commissioners of customs, though they have a commission from them, 51 G. 3. c. 84.

205. Nothing in this act extends to commissioners of the land tax or persons acting under their appointment for assessing, levying, collecting, receiving, or managing the same, 22 G. 3. c. 41. s. 2.

206. Nor to any office now held or usually granted to be held by letters patent for estate of inheritance, as freehold, id. s. 3.

207. Actions for penalties under this act, shall be commenced in 12 months after the penalty incurred, id. s. 5.

208. FOR RESTRAINING ANY PERSON CONCERNED IN ANY CONTRACT, COMMISSION, or agreement made for the public service, from being elected or sitting and voting as a M. P., 22 G. 3. c. 45.

209. No person who shall directly or indirectly himself, or by any person in trust for him, or for his use or benefit or on his account undertake, execute, hold, or enjoy in the whole or in part, any contract, agreement, or commission, made or entered into with any one or more commissioners of the treasury, navy, or victualling office, or with the master-general or board of ordnance, or with any such commissioners or other person soever, on account of the public service; or shall knowingly furnish in pursuance of such agreement, &c. any money to be remitted abroad, or any wares to be used in the public service, shall be capable of being elected, or sitting and voting as a M. P., during the time he shall enjoy such contract, or any share or benefit thereof, id. s. 1.

210. If any member shall enter into any such contract, &c., in any mode described in s. 1., or having already entered into such contract, &c. shall, after commencement of the next session, continue to hold the same, his seat shall be void, 22 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2. [See 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 52. s. 4. infra, pl. 220.]

211. Nothing herein extends to any contract, &c., made by incorporated trading companies in their corporate capacities, nor to any company now established, consisting of more than ten persons where such contract is made, for the company's general benefit, id. s. 3.

212. Where any such contract is made with a provision for its continuance, till a year's notice is given of its intended dissolution, it shall not disable any person from sitting and voting in parliament, till one year after such notice given, id. s. 4.

213. If any person, disabled by this act, shall nevertheless be returned a M. P., his election is void, and if presuming to sit or vote as a M. P., shall forfeit 500*l.* for every day he so shall sit or vote, to be recovered with full costs, by any person suing for the same in any court at Westminster, by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance, or by summary complaint in the court of session in Scot., and shall be disabled from holding any such contract, &c. in future, id. s. 9.

214. In every such contract, &c., (as in s. 1.) an express condition shall be inserted, that no M. P. be admitted to a share thereof, or of any benefit to arise therefrom; and if any such contractor shall admit an M. P. to any such share, every such person and persons shall forfeit 500*l.* recoverable as in (s. 9.) id. s. 10.

215. Prosecutions under this act shall be commenced within 12 calendar months, id. s. 11.

216. FOR DECLARING WHAT PERSONS SHALL BE DISABLED FROM SITTING and voting in the house of commons of the U. K., and for carrying into effect part of the 4th article of the Union of G. B. and Ire., [39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67.] by providing, in what cases persons holding offices or places of profit under the crown of Ire., shall be incapable of being members of that house, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 52. [Exp. 54 G. 3. c. 16.]

217. All persons disabled from, or incapable of being elected or sitting, or voting, in the house of commons of any parliament of G. B., shall be disabled from being elected to, or sitting or voting in that of the U. K. for any county, &c. or place in G. B., 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 52. s. 1.

218. All persons disabled from or incapable of being elected, &c. in the Irish house of commons, shall be disabled from sitting in that of the U. K. as members for any county, &c., or place in Ire., id. s. 2.

219. No persons disabled by any British statutes from sitting, &c. or voting in the house of commons of G. B., shall by this act be enabled to sit or vote in that of the U. K. for any place in Ire.: and the converse, id. s. 3.

220. No person holding the offices hereinafter mentioned in Ire., shall be capable of being elected or sitting in the house of commons of the U. K. id. s. 4.

221. No person being a commissioner of customs, excise, or stamps, or directly or indirectly concerned in the collection or management of any sums granted to H. M. by parliament, (except the commissioners of the treasury and their secretary) or being a commissioner of appeals, concerning customs, excise, or stamp duties, or for auditing the account thereof, (except the auditor-general of exchequer); and no commissioner of imprest accounts [Qu. exp. since the appointment of commissioners of public accounts for Ire. by 44 G. 3. c. 58.] nor agent for a regiment, nor any person directly or indirectly undertaking, executing, holding, or engaging in the whole or in part, any contract, agreement, or commission under the Irish treasury, or with any other person soever, on account of the public service in Ire.; nor any person furnishing money in pursuance of such agreement, for remittance abroad, or merchandize to be used in the public service during his execution or share thereof, or any benefit or employment arising from it, except members of incorporated trading companies, now existing in Ire., consisting of more than 10 persons, in respect of any contracts entered into in corporate capacity and for general benefit; nor any deputies or clerks in the Irish treasury office, or in those of auditor, tellers, or chancellor of exchequer, except secretary to latter, or in those of commissioners of stamps or appeals, id. ibid.

222. No person, who shall have in his own name or in that of any person in trust for him or his benefit, any office or place of profit by appointment, or subject to approbation of the lord-lieutenant or chief governor of Ire., created after passing 33 G. 3. c. 41. Ire., shall be capable of being elected a member of the house of commons, id. s. 5.

223. If any member, who has accepted any such office of profit as in last pl. shall remain in or re-accept the same by appointment of, or subject to the approbation of any successor to such lord lieutenant or chief governor of Ire., by whom he was previously appointed or approved, his seat shall not be vacant nor a fresh writ issue, 54 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1.

224. But that provision does not extend to any person remaining in office, at the time of the decease, removal, or absence, of the lord lieutenant or other chief governor of Ire., id. s. 2.

225. If any person declared by this act disabled, but nevertheless returned for any place, shall presume to sit in parliament, he shall incur the penalties imposed by former British [6 A. c. 7. s. 29., pl. 191.] or Irish acts, for disabling such persons from sitting in the respective parliaments; and if disabled by holding any office in this act enumerated, shall forfeit 500*l.* for each day of such sitting or voting, recoverable by any person suing for same, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, without essoin, &c., and but one imparlance, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 52. s. 6.

226. Nothing in this act extends to persons holding offices for life or during good behaviour, except commissioners of imprest accounts, [Exp. since commissioners of public accounts were appointed; see ante, pl. 221.] or persons concerned in managing, collecting, or farming duties granted to H. M., id. s. 8.

227. Members of the House of Commons accepting any office of profit whatever from H. M., or by appointment, or subject to the approbation of the lord lieutenant or chief governor of Ire., shall vacate their seats, but may be re-elected for the same or any other place, id. s. 9.

228. FOR SECURING THE FREEDOM OF PARLIAMENTS BY FURTHER QUALIFYING the members to sit in the H. of C., 9 A. c. 5. [Eny. 33 G. 2. c. 20.]

229. FOR REGULATING THE QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS TO SERVE in the united parliament for Ire., 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 101. [s. 23. only is in force and applicable.]

230. FOR FURTHER REGULATING THE QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS to serve in the united parliament of G. B. and Ire., 59 G. 3. c. 37.

231. No person shall be capable to sit or vote as a member of the H. of C. of the united parliament for any county, city, borough, or cinque port, town or place in Eng., Wa., Ber. [or Ire., 59 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.] who shall not have an estate, freehold or copyhold, for his own life, or some greater estate in law or equity for his own benefit, in lands or hereditaments, over and above what will clear all incumbrances thereon, in Eng., Wa., Ber., [Scot., or Ire., 59 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.] of the annual value of 600*l.* above reprises, for every knight of a shire, and of 300*l.* above reprises for every citizen, Burgess, or baron of cinque ports, and if any person elected or returned to serve in parliament shall not at the time of such election and return be seised of or entitled to such estate, such election and return shall be void, 9 A. c. 5. s. 1., 59 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.

232. Every person (except as hereinafter excepted in pl. 235.) who shall be elected a member of the house of commons, before voting or sitting therein during any debate after their speaker is chosen, shall deliver in to the clerk, at the table of the house, during its sitting with the speaker in the chair, an account signed by such member, containing the name or names of the parish, township, or precinct, or of the parishes, &c. and of the county or counties in which the lands, &c. whereby he makes out his qualification, do lie, declaring them to be of the value required by 9 A. c. 5. s. 1., and shall take and subscribe this oath, viz.

'I, A. B., do swear, that I truly and bonâ fide have such an estate in law or equity, and of such value, to and for my own use and benefit, of or in lands, tenements, or hereditaments, over and above what will satisfy and clear all incumbrances that may affect the same, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to serve as a member for the place I am returned for, according to the tenor and true meaning of the acts of parliament in that behalf, and that such lands, &c. do lie as described in the paper or account signed by me, and now delivered to the clerk of the house of commons. So help me God.'

And the house shall administer such oath and subscription to every person duly demanding the same, immediately after he has taken the oaths of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration at the table; and such oath and subscription shall be entered on a parchment roll, provided by the clerk, and the above accounts shall be filed and carefully kept by him, 33 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1.

233. AFTER RECITING 59 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. art. 4., 9 A. c. 5. s. 1., and 33 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., viz. the 2 last placita. The provision of the latter act is extended to every person (except as therein excepted) elected a member of parliament in Eng., Ire., Wa., or Ber.; and the qualification required may be situate either in Eng., Wa., Ber., [or Ire., or Scot., see 59 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1., ante, pl. 231.] 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 101. s. 23.

234. Any member presuming to sit and vote as above, before delivering the account, and taking and subscribing the oath in s. 1., shall not be qualified under 9 A. c. 5., or this act; and his election shall be void, and a new writ issued, 33 G. 2. c. 20. s. 2.

235. Nothing in these acts shall make the eldest son or heir apparent of any peer; [or lord of parliament, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 101. s. 23.] or of any person qualified to serve as knight of a shire incapable of being elected a M. P., 9 A. c. 5. s. 2., and 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 101. s. 23.; or shall extend to the members for either university in Eng., [or for Trinity College in Dublin, 41 G. 3. (U. K.) c. 101. s. 23.] or the members for Scot., 9 A. c. 5. s. 3., 33 G. 2. c. 20. s. 3.

236. No person shall be qualified within the meaning of this act, by virtue of any mortgage whereof the equity of redemption is in any other, unless the mortgagee have been in possession 7 years before his election, 9 A. c. 5. s. 4.

237. Every person (except as above) who appears as a candidate, or is proposed to be elected, shall, on reasonable request (at the time of such election, or before the day prefixed in the writ of summons for the meeting of parliament,) by any other candidate, or by any two persons having right to vote at such election, take an oath to the effect following:—

'I, A. B. do swear that I truly and bonâ fide have such an estate in law or equity, to and for my own use and benefit, of or in lands, tenements, hereditaments, (over and above what will satisfy and clear all incumbrances that may affect the same) of the annual value of 600*l.* above reprises, as doth qualify me to be elected and returned to serve as a member for the county of —, according to the tenor and true meaning of the act of parliament in that behalf; and that my said lands, &c. are lying or being within the parish, township or precinct, or in the several parishes, &c. of —, in the county of —, or in the several counties of —, [as the case is.]'

9 A. c. 5. s. 5. [Qu. if not superseded by 33 G. 2. c. 20. s. 1., supra, pl. 233.]

238. Where such candidate is to serve for any city, borough, or cinque port, the oath shall relate only to the value of 300*l.* per annum, id. s. 6. [but see note to last pl.]

239. The oaths may be administered by the sheriff or under-sheriff of a county, or by the mayor, bailiff, or other officer for any city, borough, or port to whom it appertains to take the poll, or make return at the election, or by any 2 justices in Eng., Wa., and Ber.; and the respective persons administering such oaths shall certify the taking thereof into chancery or K. B., in 3 months after, on penalty of 100*l.*, in moieties to H. M. and the party suing by action of debt, bill, or information, in any court at Westminster; and if a candidate, on such request, at the time of his election, or before the day of the meeting of parliament, refuse to take such oath, his election and return are void, id. s. 7.

240. Only 1*s.* fee shall be taken for administering the oath, 2*s.* for making, and 2*s.* for filing the certificate, on penalty of 20*l.*, to be recovered and divided as in s. 7., id. s. 8.

241. PARLIAMENTS SHALL RESPECTIVELY CONTINUE FOR 7 YEARS AND NO LONGER, to be accounted from the day on which, by the writ of summons, they are appointed to meet, unless sooner dissolved by H. M., 1 G. 1. S. 2. c. 39. [Septennial act, repealing 6 & 7 W. & M. c. 2. s. 3., the triennial provision.]

242. FOR REGULATING THE QUARTERING OF SOLDIERS DURING THE TIME OF election of members of parliament, 8 G. 2. c. 30.

243. On any election of a peer or peers to represent the peers of Scot. in parliament, or of any member to serve in parliament, the secretary at war shall issue orders for removal of all soldiers quartered in the place where such election is appointed to be made, at least one day before the day of election, to the distance of 2 or more miles therefrom, and not to make nearer approach to the same till one day at least after the poll is ended and poll-books closed, id. s. 1.

244. If the secretary at war, or the person officiating in that office, omits to issue such orders, and is thereof convicted, on indictment preferred at the next assizes or sessions of oyer and terminer, for the county where such offence is committed, or on information exhibited in K. B., within 6 months, he shall forfeit his office, and be disabled to hold office, civil or military, in H. M.'s service, id. s. 2.

245. But he shall not be liable to such penalties, unless notice of a new writ of election be given to him by the clerk of the crown in chancery, or other officer making out the same, which notice he is required to give, id. s. 5.

246. Nothing in this act shall extend to Westminster or Southwark, in respect of H. M.'s guards, nor to any place where H. M., or any of the royal family happen to be, or are resident, at the time of such election, in respect of such troops only as are attendant on them as guards; nor to any castle, fort, or fortified place where any garrison is usually kept, in respect of the troops composing the same only, id. s. 3.

247. Any officer or soldier, having a right to vote at such election, may freely, and without interruption, attend and vote, notwithstanding this act, id. s. 4.

248. FOR BETTER REGULATING ELECTION OF M. P.s FOR ALL COUNTIES, cities, and towns in Eng., 19 G. 2. c. 28.

249. Every person demanding to vote for the election of any M. P. for any city or town, being a county of itself, in Eng., in respect of a freehold estate of 40s. a year, shall, before he is admitted to poll (if required by any candidate or other person having a right to vote) take the oath (or if a quaker, the affirmation) following, viz. : —

'You shall swear [or, being a quaker, you shall solemnly affirm] that you have a freehold estate, consisting of [specifying the nature of such freehold estate; and if it consists in messuages, lands, or tithes, then specifying in whose occupation the same are; and if rent, then the names of the owners or possessors of the tenements out of which it issues, or of some of them] lying or being in the city and county [as the case may be] of — of the clear yearly value of 40s. over and above all rents and charges payable out of, or in respect of the same; and that you have been in the actual possession or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for your own use, above 12 calendar months, or that the same came to you within the time aforesaid, by descent, marriage, marriage settlement, devise, or promotion to a benefice in a church, or by promotion to an office; and that such freehold estate has not been granted or made to you fraudulently, on purpose to qualify you to give your vote; and that the place of your abode is at — in — and that you are 21 years of age, as you believe, and that you have not been polled before at this election.'

Which oath the sheriff, under-sheriff, or sworn clerk appointed for taking the poll, shall administer; and in case any person taking such oath or affirmation shall thereby commit wilful perjury, and be convicted, and if any person corruptly suborn another to take the same in order to be polled, whereby he shall commit wilful perjury, and shall be convicted, they shall incur the penalties of 5 El. c. 9. and 2 G. 2. c. 25., 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.

250. No person shall vote for electing a member to serve in parliament for such a city or town, being a county of itself, in Eng., in respect of any freehold messuages, lands, or tenements, of the yearly value of 40s., which have not been assessed to the land-tax in G. B. 12 calendar months next before such election; but nothing herein shall restrain any person from voting in any such election for cities and towns, counties of themselves, in respect of any rents, or any messuages or seats belonging to any offices, by reason that they have not been usually assessed to the land-tax; and the acting commissioners of land-tax, or any 3 of them, at their meetings, shall sign and seal one other duplicate of the copies of the assessment delivered to them by the assessors, after all appeals determined; and shall deliver the same to the persons officiating as clerks of the peace within the districts of the said cities and towns, being counties of themselves, to be by them kept among the records of the sessions, to which all persons may resort and inspect the same, paying 6d.; and the said persons officiating as clerks of the peace, or their deputies, shall give copies of the said duplicates, or any part thereof, to any person requiring the same, paying after the rate of 6d. for every 300 words, 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 3. [as to voting where land-tax is redeemed, 42 G. 3. c. 116. s. 200. supra, pl. 160.]

251. No person shall vote in such election of a M. P. for any city or town being a county of itself, in respect of lands or hereditaments, of the yearly value of 40s., unless he has a freehold estate in the city and county, or town and county, for which he votes, of the clear yearly value of 40s. above all rents and charges payable out of the same; and has been in possession or receipt of the rents and profits thereof, for his own use, above 12 calendar months, except they came to him within the time aforesaid by descent, marriage, marriage settlement, devise, or promotion to any benefice in the church, or by promotion to an office; and no person shall vote in respect of any freehold estate which was made to him fraudulently, on purpose to qualify him to give his vote, or shall vote more than once at the same election: and if any person vote in any such election, contrary to the intent hereof, he shall forfeit to any candidate for whom such vote shall not have been given, and who shall first sue for the same, 40*l.*, to be recovered by him, or his executors or administrators, with costs, by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or imparlance; and in such action the proof shall lie on defendant, unless the fact on which such action is grounded be the having polled more than once at the same election, 19 G. 2. c. 28. s. 4.

252. No public or parliamentary tax, church or parish rate, or any other tax, rate, or assessment to be levied within such cities or towns, being counties of themselves, shall be deemed any charge payable out of any freehold estate within this act, or of the oath or affirmation in s. 1., id. s. 5.

253. The sheriff or sheriffs of any county or town being a county of itself, in Eng., or in his absence, the under-sheriff or under-sheriffs, or his deputy, shall at every election of a M. P., allow a cheque-book for every poll-book for each candidate, to be kept by their respective inspectors at the place where the poll shall be taken, id. s. 6.

254. The sheriff of every city or town being a county of itself, and having a right to elect a M. P., by virtue of writ issuing out of chancery, without precept thereupon, in Eng., shall forthwith, on receipt of the writ, cause public notice to be given of the time and place of election; and shall proceed to election within 8 days next after that of his receipt of the writ, and give 3 days' notice thereof at least exclusive of the day of the receipt of the writ and of the day of election, id. s. 7.

255. Any sheriff or under sheriff, presiding at any election of a M. P. for any such city or town, being a county of itself, in Eng., who shall wilfully offend against the meaning of this act, shall be liable to be prosecuted by information or indictment in K. B. in Westminster, or at the assizes for the city or town where such offence is committed, in which no noli prosequi, or cessat processus shall be granted, id. s. 8.

256. It shall be sufficient for plaintiff in any action of debt given by this act, to set forth in the declaration, that the defendant is indebted to him in the sum of —, and to alledge the particular offence for which the action is brought, and that defendant had acted contrary to this act; without mentioning the writ of summonses to parliament, or the return thereof: and in any indictment or information for any offence contrary to this act, to alledge the particular offence, and that defendant is guilty thereof, without mentioning the writ of summons to parliament, or return thereof; and on trial of any issue in any such action, &c., the plaintiff, &c. shall not be obliged to prove such writ of summons, or its return, or any warrant to the sheriff grounded upon such writ of summons, id. s. 9.

257. Every action, indictment, &c. given by this act, shall be commenced within 9 calendar months from the offence, id. s. 10.

258. All the statutes of jeofails shall extend to all the proceedings in any action, indictment, &c. given by this act, id. s. 11.

259. In case the plaintiff or informer, in any action, indictment, or information given by this act, shall discontinue or be nonsuited, or judgment is given against him, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 12.

260. This act, or any thing therein contained, (except the clauses for allowing cheque-books, or for notice of the time and place of election, and proceeding to election thereon,) shall not extend to any city or town, being a county of itself, or to any person, where the right of voting for any member of such city or town is in respect of burgage tenure; or where the right of voting in respect of a freehold does not require the same to be of the yearly value of 40s., id. s. 13.

261. TO PREVENT OCCASIONAL FREEMEN FROM VOTING AT elections of members of parliament for cities and boroughs, 3 G. 3. c. 15.

262. TO REGULATE VOTES FOR SHIRES AND COUNTIES OF cities and towns in right of annuities or rent charges, id. c. 24.

263. TO PREVENT OCCASIONAL SCOT AND LOT MEN from voting at elections for cities and boroughs, 26 G. 3. c. 100. [Framed to shew the general object of these acts which do not in totidem verbis refer to one another.]

264. No person claiming only as a freeman to vote at any election of M. P.s in Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall be admitted to vote as such, unless admitted to such freedom 12 calendar months before such election, on penalty of 100*l.* for every vote given contrary to the true intent and meaning of this act, 3 G. 3. c. 15. s. 1.; not to extend to London or Norwich, id. s. 8.; nor to any person entitled to his freedom by birth, marriage, or servitude, according to the custom of such city, town, port, or borough, 3 G. 3. c. 15. s. 2.

265. Any mayor, &c., or officer of any corporation, or any other juror, wilfully antedating any admission to such freedom, shall forfeit 500*l.* to the informer suing for the same, id. s. 3.

266. The mayor, &c. or other officer of any corporation, having custody of the records thereof, shall, on demand of any candidate, or his agent, or any two freemen, on payment of 1*s.*, permit such candidate, &c. between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. at any time before, and within a month after such election, to inspect the books and papers of entries of such admissions, and to have copies thereof, on paying him a reasonable charge for writing the same; and such books, &c. shall, on demand by such candidate, &c., be produced at every election, and referred to in case of a disputed vote, under penalty of 100*l.* to the informer suing for same, for every refusal to permit such inspection, or to produce such books, &c. on demand thereof and payment as above, id. s. 4.

267. The penalties in s. 1. & 2. shall be recovered, with full costs, by action of debt, &c., or information in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin or more than one imparlance, (s. 5.) and the prosecution must be commenced within one year, id. s. 6.

268. The returning officer shall cause this act to be read openly, immediately after reading 2 G. 2. c. 24., at the election for every such city, &c. (as in s. 2.) where the right of election is wholly or in part in such freemen as in s. 1., id. s. 7.

269. TO PREVENT FRAUDULENT AND OCCASIONAL VOTES IN ELECTIONS of knights of the shire, and of members for cities and towns which are counties of themselves, so far as relates to the right of voting by virtue of an annuity or rent-charge, 3 G. 3. c. 24.

270. No person shall vote at any such election in Eng. in respect of any annuity or rent-charge issuing out of freehold lands or tenements, and granted before 1 June 1763, unless a certificate on oath has been entered 12 calendar months at least before the first day of such election, with the clerk of the peace for the county, riding, or division, or with the clerk of the peace, town clerk, or other public officer, having the custody of the records within such city or town where such lands, &c. lie; viz.

‘ I A. B. of — am really and bonâ fide seised of an annuity or rent-charge for my own use and benefit, of 40*s.* clear yearly value above all rents and charges payable out of the same, wholly issuing out of freehold lands, tenements, or hereditaments belonging to C. D. of — situate, lying, and being in the parish, township, or place, or in the parishes, &c. of E. in the county of —, without any trust, agreement, matter, or thing to the contrary notwithstanding, and 1, or the person or persons under whom I claim, was or were seised of the said annuity or rent-charge before 1 June 1763.’ id. s. 1.

271. No person shall vote at any such election, as in s. 1., in Eng. in respect of any annuity or rent-charge arising out of freehold lands, tenements, or hereditaments, which shall come to him by descent, marriage, marriage settlement, devise, or presentation to a benefice in a church, or promotion to an office, within 12 calendar months next before such election respectively, unless a certificate on oath, or affirmation of a quaker, has been entered (as in s. 1.) before the 1st day of such election, viz.

‘ I A. B. of — am really and bonâ fide seised of an annuity or rent-charge to my own use and benefit, of the clear yearly value of 40*s.*, a year above all rents and charges payable out of the same, wholly issuing out of freehold lands, tenements, and hereditaments belonging to C. D. of — situate in the parish, township, or place, or in the parishes, &c. of — in the county of — without any trust, agreement, matter, or thing to the contrary notwithstanding, and I became seised of the said annuity or rent-charge on the — day of — last past, by descent or otherwise [as the case may happen], id. s. 2.

272. No person shall vote at any such election in Eng. (as in s. 1.) in respect of any such annuity or rent-charge, unless a memorial of the grant thereof has been registered with the proper officer (as in s. 1.) 12 calendar months at least before the first day of such election, which memorial shall be wrote on parchment, and directed to such officer, and shall be under the hand and seal of the grantor, and attested by two witnesses, one of whom shall be one of the witnesses to the execution of such grant, and shall, on oath before such officer, or his deputy, prove the sealing and delivery of such grant, and the signing and sealing of such memorial, which memorial shall contain the day and year of the date, the names, additions, and abodes of the parties and witnesses, and all the lands and tenements out of which such annuity &c. issues, and the parish, &c. where they lie, and every such grant shall, at the time of registering such memorial, be produced to such officer, or his deputy, who shall thereon indorse a certificate, in which the day and year of entering the memorial shall be mentioned, id. s. 3.

273. No person shall vote in any such election in Eng. (as in s. 1.) in right of an assignment of any such annuity or rent-charge made before 1 June 1763, unless a certificate thereof is entered with the proper officer 12 calendar months at least before such election; or in right of any assignment made after that day unless a memorial of such assignment, and of the original grant be attested and registered at least 12 calendar months before the first day of such election, in same manner as in s. 3., id. s. 4.

274. Such officers shall keep books for the entry of every such certificate and memorial, and shall take 1*s.* for entry of the former, and 2*s.* for that of the latter and no more; and for every search for either 1*s.* and no more; and such certificates, memorials, and books of entries thereof may be inspected at all seasonable hours, and the said officers shall furnish copies of any certificate or memorial, at 6*d.* for not more than 200 words, and so in proportion for a greater number, and they may administer an oath where required by this act, and true copies attested by the respective officers, or their deputies, shall, in all cases, be admitted as legal evidence, 3 G. 3. c. 24. s. 5.

275. Memorials of grants or assignments, executed above 40 miles from the office of any such officer, shall be entered and registered by the latter, in case an affidavit sworn, or affirmation of a quaker, before a judge at Westminster, or any master in chancery, ordinary or extraordinary, be brought by him with such memorial, wherein one of the witnesses to the execution of such grant, &c. shall swear he saw the same executed; and the same shall be sufficient authority to such officers to give to the party bringing such memorial a certificate of the registering such memorial, which shall be evidence of the registry thereof in all courts of record soever, id. s. 6.

276. Such officers, or their deputies, shall, on reasonable notice, attend at any such election with the books of entries of every such certificate and memorial at the request of any candidate, making them reasonable satisfaction for attendance, id. s. 7.

277. Any such officer who shall be guilty of neglect or fraudulent practices contrary to the meaning of this act, shall forfeit 100*l.* to the party suing, by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, id. s. 8.; but prosecutions for such penalties must be commenced within 12 months, id. s. 9.

278. TO PREVENT OCCASIONAL INHABITANTS FROM VOTING AT election of M. P.s for cities and boroughs in Eng. and Wa., 26 G. 3. c. 100.

279. No person shall vote at any election of a M. P. for any city or borough in Eng. or Wa. as an inhabitant paying scot and lot, or as an inhabitant householder and keeper, and pot waller legally settled, or otherwise, or as an inhabitant householder resident, or inhabitant of such city or borough, unless he have been actually and bonâ fide such inhabitant, &c. 6 calendar months previous to the election at which he shall vote, and the vote of any person contrary hereto shall be void, and he shall forfeit 20*l.* to any party suing for same, recoverable by action of debt, commenced within 6 calendar months, in any court at Westminster, without essoin, &c. or imparlance; and the proof of inhabitancy shall lie on defendant, but nothing herein shall extend to any person acquiring an house in any such city or borough by descent, devise, marriage, or marriage settlement, or promotion to any office or benefice, 26 G. 3. c. 100. s. 1.

280. This act shall relate only to those persons who claim to exercise the franchise of voting as inhabitants, &c. (as in s. 1.) and not to any other description of persons, who may claim to vote at any such elections, by any other title or superadded qualification, id. s. 2.

281. TO REGULATE THE TRIALS OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS, 10 G. 3. c. 16. [Mr. George Grenville's act; royal assent given 12 April 1770, see 1 Adolph. Hist. Eng. 386-7.] [MADE PERP. 14 G. 3. c. 15. AMD. 11 G. 3. c. 42., 25 G. 3. c. 84. ss. 10-15., 28 G. 3. c. 52., 32 G. 3. c. 1., 36 G. 3. c. 59., 42 G. 3. c. 84., 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 1. s. 2., 53 G. 3. c. 71., and as to Ireland, by 42 G. 3. c. 106., 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 14., 60 G. 3. § 1 G. 4. c. 7. IRELAND (Parliament.)]

282. Whenever a petition complaining of an undue election or return of a member to serve in parliament shall be presented to the house of commons, a day and hour shall by that house be appointed for taking the same into consideration, and notice thereof, in writing, shall be forthwith given by the speaker to the petitioners and sitting members, or their respective agents, accompanied with an order to them to attend the house at the time appointed, by themselves, their counsel, or agents, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1.; [in case of petition for no return made, see 25 G. 3. c. 84. ss. 10-12., &c. infra, pl. 525-327., or for undue election or return, &c. see 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 1. infra, pl. 332.]

283. The house may alter the day and hour so appointed, to some subsequent day and hour, giving to the parties the like notice of such alteration, and order to attend as aforesaid, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 3.

284. At the time appointed for taking such petition into consideration, and previous to reading the order of the day for that purpose, the serjeant at arms shall be directed to go with the mace to the places adjacent, and require the immediate attendance of the members, and after his return the house shall be counted, and if less than 100 members are present, the order shall be immediately adjourned to a particular hour on the following day (Sunday and Christmas day, [and Good Friday, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10.] always excepted); and the house shall then adjourn to the said day, and the proceedings of all committees, subsequent to such notice from the serjeant, shall be void: and on such following day the house shall proceed in the same manner, and so from day to day till there is an attendance of 100 members at the reading the order of the day, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 4.

285. On the day appointed for taking any petition complaining of an undue election or return into consideration, the house shall proceed to no other business except swearing in members, previous to reading the order of the day for that purpose, 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 4.

286. But the house, previous to reading such order, may receive reports from select committees appointed to try election petitions, under 11 G. 3. c. 42., or this act, and may enter the same on their journals, and give the necessary directions thereupon; and previous to reading such order, the clerk of the crown may alter any return of an order made on that or on a preceding day, and the house may postpone the reading such order, for the purpose of attending H. M. or his commissioners in the house of lords, in consequence of a message from H. M., &c. signified to them in the usual manner, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 12.

287. The house, previous to reading such order of the day, may also receive any message from the lords, or proceed on any business necessary to the purpose of carrying on any impeachment by them before the lords, the trial of which is fixed for that day, 32 G. 3. c. 1. s. 1.

288. If after summoning the members, and counting the house, 100 members are present, the petitioners by themselves, their counsel, or agents, and the counsel or agents of the sitting members, shall be ordered to attend at the bar; the door of the house shall then be locked, and no member suffered to enter or depart, till the petitioners, their counsel, or agents, and the counsel or agents for the sitting members are directed to withdraw as after mentioned; and when the door is locked as aforesaid, the order of the day shall be read, and the names of all the members of the house, written or printed on distinct pieces of parchment or paper, of an equal size, and rolled up in the same manner, shall be put in equal numbers into six boxes or glasses, to be placed on the table, and shall there be shaken together; and then the clerk or clerk's assistant shall publicly draw out of the said six boxes or glasses alternately, the said pieces of parchment or paper, and deliver them to the speaker, to be by him read to the house; and so shall continue to do, till 49 names of the members then present be drawn, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 5.

289. If, at time of such drawing by lot the names of the members, the number of 49 members not set aside or excused, as in 10 G. 3. c. 16. ss. 6—10. pl. 293—297. cannot be completed, the house shall proceed, as in s. 4. of that act, pl. 284., and 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 11. pl. 290., where less than 100 members are present at the time prescribed for counting the house, and so from day to day, as often as it shall so happen, 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 5.

290. If on the day immediately preceding Christmas day, Whitsunday, or Good Friday, after reading such order of the day, 100 members are not present, or 49 members not set aside or excused cannot be completed, the house may direct the order to be adjourned for any number of days, and the house shall be immediately adjourned to the hour and day to which such order is adjourned, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 11.

291. If 100 members are not present, or if 49 members not excused or set aside, cannot be completed, the house (after adjourning such order, as in 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 4. supra, pl. 284.), may proceed (as if there had been no order for taking any such petition into consideration on that day) on any order of the day for a call of the house, if previously fixed for that day, and may direct the house to be called over in pursuance of such order, or adjourn the same, and may make any such orders as are usual therein, or as to them seems meet; or if no such call of the house has been previously fixed for that day, the house may order that the house be called over on such future day as they shall appoint, and may make such orders relative thereto as they shall think necessary, and in any case may make such other orders as to them may seem expedient, for enforcing attendance of the members on the business of the house; and shall then adjourn to the adjournment day of the order for considering the petition, and so from time to time, as occasion requires, and if no such proceedings as to any call of the house, or other matters above mentioned shall take place, or if in the course thereof the house be adjourned for want of members, its adjournment shall be taken to be to the adjournment day of such order; but if such 49 members cannot be completed, the house shall not proceed on any of the above matters till the door is unlocked, and the parties, their counsel, or agents withdrawn from the bar, 36 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1.

292. The house shall not proceed to any other business on a day when any such petition stands ordered for consideration, until 100 members attend, or such 49 members not set aside or excused are completed, except to the business allowed by statute to be done previous to reading the order of the day; see pl. 285., id. s. 2.

293. If the name of any member who shall have given his vote at any election, or who shall be a petitioner complaining, or against whose return a petition shall be then depending, or whose return shall not have been brought in 14 days, shall be drawn, his name shall be set aside, with those who are absent, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 6.

294. If the name of any member of 60 years or upwards be drawn, he shall be excused from serving on the select committee, if he require it, and verify the cause of such requisition upon oath, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 7.

295. If the name of any member who has served in such select committee during the same session be drawn, he shall, if he require it, be excused from serving again, unless the house shall before have resolved, that the number who have not served on such select committee in the same session, is insufficient, id. s. 8.

296. No member, who after having been appointed, shall, on account of inability or accident, have been excused from attending throughout, shall be deemed to have served, id. s. 9.

297. If any other member shall offer and verify upon oath any other excuse, the substance thereof shall be taken down by the clerk, for entry on the journals, and the opinion of the house shall be taken thereon; and if they shall resolve that he is unable to serve, or cannot without great detriment, he shall be excused, id. s. 10.

298. Instead of the members set aside and excused, the names of others shall be drawn, till the whole number of 49 not liable to be set aside or excused is complete; and the petitioners or their agents shall then name one, and the sitting members or their agents another, from the members then present, whose names shall not have been drawn, to be added to those so chosen by lot, id. s. 11. [As to the striking off members, and other proceedings, in forming a committee where there are more than two on a distinct interest, 11 G. 3. c. 42. ss. 6, 7. pl. 321.]

299. Either of the members so nominated may be set aside, for the same causes as those chosen by lot; or shall, if he requires it, be excused from serving on the said select committee; and the party who nominated the member so set aside or excused, shall nominate another, until his nominee is admitted, id. s. 12.

300. As soon as the 49 members are chosen, and the two members nominated, the door shall be opened, and the house may proceed on other business; and lists of the 49 members shall then be given to the petitioners, their counsel or agents, and the counsel or agents for the sitting members, who shall immediately withdraw, with the clerk appointed to attend the select committee; and the said petitioners and sitting members, their counsel, or agents, beginning on the part of the petitioners, shall alternately strike off one of the said 49 members till the number is reduced to 15; and the said clerk, in one hour at farthest from the time of the parties withdrawing from the house, shall deliver in to the house the names of the 15 members then remaining; which 15 members, together with the two members nominated, shall be sworn at the table, well and truly to try the matter of the petition referred to them, and a true judgment to give according to the evidence; and shall be a select committee to try and determine the merits of the return or election appointed by the house to be that day taken into consideration; and the house shall order them to meet at a certain time fixed by the house, within 24 hours of the appointment, unless a Sunday or Christmas day [or Good Friday, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10.] intervene; and the place of their meeting and sitting shall be some convenient room adjacent to the H. of C. or court of requests, id. s. 13. [as to returning officer not appearing, 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 12. pl. 327., where no opposing party, 28 G. 3. c. 52. ss. 14, 15. pl. 343—344.]

301. On the parties withdrawing, the house shall continue sitting; and the said 51 members, so chosen and nominated, shall not depart the house till the time for the meeting of the said select committee is fixed. id. s. 14.

302. If on drawing out the name of any member, the petitioners or sitting members, or their agents, shall declare that he is intended to be one of the two nominees, and if he shall consent to such nomination, the name of such member so drawn shall be set aside, and unless objected to as in s. 6. pl. 293., s. 12. pl. 297., he shall serve as such nominee, and the name of another shall be drawn to supply his place, to complete the 49; and if the petitioners or sitting members, or their agents, shall not nominate a member then present, who shall be admitted according to the directions of this act, then the want of such nomination shall be supplied, by drawing out instead thereof the name of one or two members as the case shall require, who shall be drawn in like manner, and subject to the like objections and excuses, as the other 49 members drawn by lot, and shall be added to the lists of the said 49 members, being liable to be struck off in the same manner; leaving always 15 members and no more, as a select committee, id. s. 15.

303. The names of all the members so written and rolled up, as in s. 5. pl. 288., shall, previous to the day appointed for taking any such petition into consideration, be prepared by the said clerk or clerk assistant, and by him put into a box or parcel in presence of the speaker, together with an attestation, signed by the said clerk or clerk assistant, purporting that the names of all the members were by him put therein the — day of — in the year —, which said box or parcel the speaker shall seal with his own seal; and to the outside thereof shall annex an attestation signed by himself, purporting that the said box or parcel was on the — day of — in the year —, made up in his presence, in the manner directed by this act; and as soon as the parties shall be withdrawn as aforesaid, and before the house enters on other business, any member may require that the names of all the members which remain undrawn, shall be drawn and read aloud by the clerk, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 16.

304. The select committee shall, on their meeting, elect a chairman from among the members chosen; and if, in the election, there is an equal number of voices, the member whose name was first drawn shall have a casting voice; so in case there shall be occasion for electing a new chairman, on death or necessary absence, id. s. 17.

305. The select committee shall have power to send for persons, papers, and records, and shall examine all the witnesses who come before them upon oath; and shall try the merits of the return, or election, or both; and shall determine by a majority of voices, whether the petitioners or the sitting members, or either of them, be duly returned or elected, or whether the election is void; which determination shall be final; and the house, on being informed thereof by the chairman of the said select committee, shall order entry thereof to be made in their journals, and give the necessary directions for confirming or altering the return, or for issuing a new writ, or for carrying the said determination into execution, id. s. 18.

306. The said select committee shall sit every day (Sunday, Christmas-day, [and Good Friday, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10.,] excepted), and shall never adjourn for longer than 24 hours, unless those days intervene, without leave first obtained from the house, on motion, and special cause assigned for a longer adjournment; and in case the house is sitting at the time to which the said select committee is adjourned, the business of the house shall be stayed, and a motion shall be made for a further adjournment, for any time to be fixed by the house, not exceeding 24 hours, id. s. 19.

307. Where the time prescribed by this act for the meeting, sitting, or adjournment of the select committee, shall, by intervention of a Sunday, Christmas-day, [or Good Friday, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 10.,] exceed 24 hours, such meeting, sitting, or adjournment shall be within 24 hours from the time of appointing or fixing the same, exclusive of any such days, id. s. 20.

308. No member of the select committee shall absent himself, without leave from, or excuse allowed by the house at the next sitting, on special cause shown and verified upon oath; and the said committee shall never sit, until all the members to whom such leave has not been granted, nor excuse allowed, are met; and if they shall not all meet in 1 hour after the time to which they have been adjourned, a farther adjournment shall be made as above and reported, with the cause thereof, to the house, id. s. 21.

309. The chairman of the select committee shall, at the next meeting of the house, always report the name of every member who has been absent without leave or excuse, who shall be directed to attend the house at the next sitting, and shall then be ordered into the custody of the serjeant at arms for such neglect, and otherwise punished or censured at discretion of the house; unless it appears to the house by facts specially stated and verified on oath, that he was, by a sudden accident, or necessity, prevented from attending the said select committee, id. s. 22., [and see infra, 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 5. pl. 320.]

310. If more than two members of the select committee shall on any account be absent therefrom, the said committee shall adjourn as above; and so, from time to time, till 13 members are assembled, id. s. 23.

311. In case the members able to attend shall, by death or otherwise, be reduced to less than 13, and shall so continue for three sitting days, the committee shall be dissolved, and another chosen to try the petition; all proceedings of the former committee being void, id. s. 24.

312. If the select committee shall come to any resolution, other than the determination above-mentioned, they may report the same to the house for their opinion, at the time that the chairman shall inform the house of such determination; and the house may confirm or disagree with such resolution, and make such orders as to them seems proper, id. s. 25.

313. If any person summoned by the select committee, shall disobey such summons; or if any witness shall prevaricate, or misbehave in giving, or refuse to give evidence; the chairman of the committee, by their direction, may, in course of their proceedings, report the same to the house, for their interposition, as the case shall require, id. s. 26.

314. Whenever the committee think it necessary to deliberate amongst themselves, on any question arising in the trial, or on the determination thereof, or on any resolution concerning the matter of the petition; as soon as they have heard the evidence and counsel on both sides relative thereunto, the room wherein they sit shall be cleared, if they think proper, while they consider thereof; and all such questions, and determination, and other resolutions, shall be by a majority of voices; and if they are equal, the chairman shall have a casting voice, id. s. 27.

315. Provided, no such determination shall be made, nor any question proposed, unless 13 members are present; and no member shall have a vote who has not attended during every sitting, id. s. 28.

316. When a committee have sat for business 14 days, not including days of adjournment on account of any member's absence, nor Sunday,

Christmas-day, or Good Friday, they may proceed to business if 12 members are present; nor shall they then be dissolved for absence of members, unless the number, by death or otherwise, be unavoidably reduced to less than 12, and continue so for 3 sitting days; and when such committee have sat for business 25 days, 11 may proceed to business, and shall not be dissolved, except in case of a like reduction to less than 11, and continuing so for 3 sitting days, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 17.

317. The oaths by this act directed to be taken in the house, shall be administered by the clerk; and the oaths before the committee, by the clerk attending the same; and all persons guilty of perjury in evidence before the house, or committee, in consequence of the oath so taken, shall, on conviction, incur the penalties of perjury, 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 29.

318. IF SEVERAL PARTIES, ON DISTINCT INTERESTS OR GROUNDS OF complaint, present separate petitions, complaining of an undue election, or return, the same notice and orders shall be given to all such parties, or their agents, as are directed by 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1. pl. 282. to be given to the sitting members, or the petitioners therein mentioned, or their respective agents, 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 1.

319. No petition, complaining of an undue election, or return, shall be taken into consideration within 14 days after the commencement of the session in which it is presented, nor in 14 days after the return to which it relates is brought into the crown office, id. s. 2. [And repealing 10 G. 3. c. 16. s. 2, providing that no such petition be taken into consideration within 14 days after appointment of the committee of privileges.]

320. If the committee have occasion to apply or report to the house, in relation to adjournments, or to the absence of the members, or the non-attendance or misbehaviour of witnesses summoned to appear, or appearing before them, and the house is then adjourned for more than 3 days, the committee may also adjourn to the day appointed for the meeting of the house, id. s. 5.

321. If on complaint by petition of an undue election or return, there shall be more than two parties before the house, on distinct interests, or on different grounds, whose right to be elected or returned may be affected by the determination of the committee, each of them shall successively strike off a member from the 49 to be chosen by lot, until reduced to 13; and the lists of the 49 members chosen by lot shall, for this purpose, be given to all the parties, and the order in which the said parties shall so strike off the said members shall be determined by lot after they are withdrawn from the bar, and in such case neither of the said parties (there being more than two) shall be permitted to name a member to be added to the members so drawn by lot; but as soon as the 13 members shall be returned by the parties to the house, such 13 members shall immediately withdraw, and shall by themselves choose 2 members then present in the house, whose names shall not have been drawn, to be added to the said 13 members; and shall, within 1 hour from withdrawing, report the names of such 2 members to the house; which 2 members shall be liable to be set aside on the like objections for which nominees may, (pl. 299, &c.), and in case such 2 members, or either of them are set aside, the 13 members shall choose 1 or 2 other members, till 2 are chosen; and their names shall be then added to the 13; and all the 15 shall be sworn at the table, and shall be the select committee appointed for the purposes in this act & 10 G. 3. c. 16., id. s. 6. Where the said nominees are by this act directed to be named by the 13 members, no member present at the time of the ballot shall depart from the house until the meeting of the said select committee shall be fixed, id. s. 7.

322. Either nominee so chosen by the members may be set aside, for the same reasons as if chosen by lot, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 20.

323. Such choice shall not be proceeded in till all the other committees to be balloted for that day, and their nominees in addition to those chosen by lot, have been sworn, if they or any of them can be completed; but such choice shall have precedence of any second committee entitled to choose such nominee, as in 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 6. pl. 321., on that day, 47 G. 3. s. 1. c. 1. s. 2.

324. TO REMOVE DIFFICULTIES ARISING FOR WANT OF RETURNS OF MEMBERS, 25 G. 3. c. 84. ss. 10—15. [See s. 4. and s. 16. ante, pl. 126. & 132., and rest of title, and ss. 1—9. infra, pl. 403—412.]

325. If on any writ for election of members no return is made to the same, on or before the return day thereof, or if such a writ is issued during any session, or prorogation, and no return is made to the same within 52 days after the test thereof, or if the return made in either such case shall not be a return of members, but contain special matters only concerning such election, any person having had a right to vote, or claiming to be returned as duly elected thereat, may petition the H. of C. concerning the same; and on its being presented, a day and hour for its consideration shall be fixed, and notice thereof in writing given by the speaker to the petitioners and returning officer, with an order to them to attend the house at the time appointed, according to 10 G. 3. c. 16., and 11 G. 3. c. 42., which committee shall try whether the persons named in such petition, ought to have been returned, or whether a new writ ought to issue, which determination shall be final, and the house being informed thereof by the chairman of the committee, shall order entry thereof on their journals, and give the necessary directions for ordering a return to be made, for altering it if made, or for issuing a new writ for a new election, or for carrying such determination into execution as the case requires, 25 G. 3. c. 84. s. 10.

326. The rules prescribed by 10 G. 3. c. 16. and 11 G. 3. c. 42. shall be in full force as to committees appointed for the objects of and under this act, id. s. 11.

327. If the returning officer cannot be found to be served with such notice or order (as in s. 10.), or being served, shall not appear by himself, counsel, or agents, at the day appointed for considering the petition, the house may authorise any person to appear in his stead; and if more petitions than one are presented, complaining of such return, or omission of return, on distinct interests, or different grounds, the house shall determine whether the returning officer, or such person appearing in his stead, shall, with such petitioners, be entitled to strike off from the list of members drawn by lot, (as in 11 G. 3. c. 42. s. 6. ante, pl. 321.), or whether such list shall be reduced by the parties severally presenting such petitions only, id. s. 12.

328. Every sheriff, or other returning officer, presiding at any election, who shall wilfully act contrary hereto, may be prosecuted by information or indictment in K. B., or at any local great sessions, or courts of oyer and terminer, &c., in which no nolle prosequi or cessat processus shall be granted, id. s. 13.

329. Or if he shall wilfully delay, neglect, or refuse duly to return any person entitled thereto, such person may, if the committee appointed (as in s. 10. pl. 325.) decide in his favour, recover against him double the damages sustained, with costs, id. s. 14.

330. Every indictment, information, or action, for any offence against this act shall be found, filed, or commenced in one year after the fact, or one month after conclusion of the proceedings in the H. of C., id. s. 15.

331. FOR FURTHER REGULATION OF THE TRIALS OF CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS or returns of members to parliament, 28 G. 3. c. 52.

332. No petition complaining of an undue election or return, or of the omission or insufficiency of a return, shall be proceeded on unless subscribed by some person claiming therein to have a right to vote at the election or to be returned, or alledging himself to have been a candidate thereat; provided that where a writ has been issued for election of a member for any district of burghs in Scot. such petition may be proceeded on if subscribed by any person claiming therein to have had a right to vote at the election of any delegate or commissioner for choosing a burghess for such district, id. s. 1.

333. If at any time before the day appointed for taking such petition into consideration, the speaker is informed, by a certificate in writing, subscribed by 2 members, of the death of the sitting member, or of any member returned on a double return, whose elections or returns are complained of in such petition, or that a writ of summons has been issued, under the great seal, to summon such member as a peer; or if the H. of C. have resolved, that the seat of such member is by law become vacant; or if the house shall be informed, by a declaration in writing, subscribed by such member, delivered in at the table, that it is not his intention to defend his election or return; in every such case notice thereof shall immediately be sent by the speaker to the sheriff, or returning officer, who shall cause a copy of the same to be affixed on the doors of the county or town hall, or of the parish church nearest to the place where such election is usually held, and such notice shall also be inserted by order of the speaker, in the next London Gazette; and the order for taking such petition into consideration shall, if necessary, be adjourned, so that 30 days may intervene between the day on which such notice shall be inserted in the Gazette, and the day on which such petition shall be taken into consideration, id. s. 2.

334. At any time within 39 days after the day on which such notice has been inserted in the Gazette, any person claiming to have had a right to vote, may petition the house, praying to be admitted a party in room of such member, and he shall be admitted a party, and considered as such, id. s. 3.

335. Whenever the member whose election or return is complained of in such petition, shall have given notice of his intention not to defend the same, he shall not appear as a party against such petition, in any subsequent proceedings thereon, and shall not be restrained from sitting in the house, or voting in any question, till such petition is decided upon as under 10 G. 3. c. 16., 11 G. 3. c. 42., and 25 G. 3. c. 84., id. s. 4.

336. No proceeding shall be had on any petition unless the persons subscribing the same, or one of them, shall, within 14 days [28 days for recognizances from Ire., 47 G. 3. s. 1. c. 14. s. 8.] after the same are presented to the house, personally enter into a recognizance to H. M. according to the form annexed, [see pl. 384.] in 200*l.* with 2 sureties in 100*l.* each, to appear before the house at the times fixed for considering such petition, and also to appear before any committee appointed for its trial, and to renew it in every subsequent session till a select committee shall have been appointed by the house for trial of the same, or until the same shall have been withdrawn by the permission of the house; and if, at the expiration of the 14 days, such recognizance shall not have been entered into, or shall not have been received by the speaker, the speaker shall report the same to the house, and the order for taking such petition into consideration shall thereupon be discharged, unless, on matter specially stated, and verified to the satisfaction of the house, the house shall see cause to enlarge the time for entering into such recognizance; and whenever such time shall be enlarged, the order for taking such petition into consideration shall be postponed, so that no petition shall be considered, till after such recognizance entered into and received by the speaker: provided that the time for entering into such recognizance shall not be enlarged more than once, nor for any days exceeding 30, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5.

337. The said recognizances shall be entered into before the speaker, who is to take the same; and the sufficiency of the sureties shall be allowed by the speaker, on the report of 2 persons appointed by him to examine the same, of which 2 persons the clerk or clerk assistant of the house shall always be one; and one of the following officers, not being a member, shall be the other; viz. masters of chancery, clerks in the court of K. B., prothonotaries in C. P., and clerks in exchequer: which persons are to examine the same, and report their judgment thereupon; and are also to receive such fees as shall be fixed by any resolution of the H. of C., id. s. 6.

338. Where the parties, or their sureties, shall reside more than 40 miles from London, such parties or sureties may enter into such recognizance before any justice, which being certified under his hand, and transmitted to the speaker, shall have the same effect as if entered into before the speaker; and the persons to whom it is referred by the speaker to examine the sufficiency of such sureties, may receive as evidence, in their examination, any affidavits relating thereto, which shall be sworn before any master in chancery or justice; and such master or justice is to administer such oath, and certify such affidavit under his hand, id. s. 7.

339. The house shall not permit such petition to be withdrawn, except so far as it may relate to the election or return of any member who, since the same has been presented, has vacated his seat by death, or otherwise, id. s. 8.; but see 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 8. infra, pl. 384.

340. If the petitioners, who have entered into such recognizance, shall not appear before the house, by themselves, their counsel, or agents, in one hour after the time fixed for calling in the parties, for proceeding to appoint a select committee, or if the committee appointed for the trial of such petition, shall inform the house that they did not appear before them to prosecute their petition; or if they shall not renew their petition within 4 sitting days after the commencement of every session, subsequent to that in which the petition was first presented, and until a select committee appointed, or until the same has been withdrawn by permission of the house; they shall be held to have made default in their recognizance; and the speaker shall certify such recognizance into the court of exchequer, and shall also certify that they have made default therein, and such certificate shall be conclusive evidence of such default, which recognizance so certified shall have the same effect as if estreated from a court of law: provided that such recognizance and certificate shall be delivered by the clerk or clerk assistant of the house, into the hands of the lord chief baron, or of one of the barons, or of such officer of the court of exchequer as shall be appointed to receive the same, id. s. 9.

341. Sunday and Christmas Day being excepted from the regulations of the acts, Good Friday shall also be excepted therefrom, id. s. 10.

342. If, within one hour after the time fixed in pursuance of the acts for calling in the parties, their counsel, or agents, for the appointment of a select committee, the petitioners shall not appear by themselves, their counsel, or agents, the order for taking such petition into consideration shall be discharged, and it shall not be any further proceeded upon, id. s. 13.

343. If, in one hour after the time appointed, the sitting member or other parties opposing the petition, shall not appear by themselves, their counsel, or agents, or if, at the time appointed, there is no party before the house opposing the petition, the house shall proceed to appoint a select committee, to try the merits of such petition in the following manner, viz. the names of 49 members shall be drawn as prescribed in the acts, but in reducing the list to 13, the place of a party opposing the petition shall be supplied by the clerk appointed to attend the committee, who, as often as it shall come to his turn, as supplying the place of the party opposing the petition, to strike out a name, shall strike out that name which then shall be first in the list; and where the party opposing would be empowered, by the acts, to nominate one member to be added to the 13, the said 13 shall, from among the persons present in the house at the time of drawing the names of the members, choose one person to supply the place of the member to have been nominated, in the same manner as is directed by the 11 G. 3. c. 42. ss. 6, 7. pl. 321., where there are more than 2 parties on distinct interests, id. s. 14.

344. The same method of reducing the list drawn to 13, and of nominating a member to be added to the 13 remaining on the list, shall be followed, whenever any party shall waive his right of striking off names or nominating a member to be added to the 13, 28 G. 2. c. 52. s. 15.

345. If any person summoned to attend the committee, by warrant of the speaker, or order of the committee, shall disobey such summons, or give false evidence, or shall prevaricate, or otherwise misbehave in giving, or in refusing to give evidence before the committee, they shall have power, by warrant, signed by the chairman, and directed to the serjeant at arms, or his deputy, to commit such person (not being a peer or lord of parliament) to the custody of the serjeant, without bail, for not exceeding 24 hours if the house shall then be sitting, or if not, then for not exceeding 24 hours after the hour to which the house shall be adjourned, id. s. 16.

346. Such committee, at the time they report to the house their final determination on the petition, shall also report to the house, whether such petitions did or did not appear to them to be frivolous or vexatious; and shall in like manner report, with respect to every party who shall have appeared before them in opposition to such petition, whether the opposition did or did not appear to be frivolous and vexatious; and if no party has appeared before them in opposition to such petition, they shall then report to the house whether such election or return, or such alleged omission, or insufficiency of a return, did or did not appear to be vexatious or corrupt, id. s. 18.

347. Whenever such committee shall report to the house, that a petition appeared to be frivolous or vexatious, the parties who shall have appeared before the committee in opposition to it, shall be entitled to recover, from the persons who have signed the same, the costs and expenses which such parties shall have incurred in opposing it, to be ascertained (as in s. 22.), id. s. 19.

348. Whenever such committee shall report to the house, with respect to the opposition to such petition, that such opposition appeared frivolous or vexatious, the persons who shall have signed such petition shall be entitled to recover from such parties, with respect to whom such report shall be made, the costs and expenses which such petitioners shall have incurred, to be ascertained (as in s. 22.), id. s. 20.

349. Whenever, in any case where no party shall have appeared in opposition to such petition, such committee shall report to the house, with respect to the election or return, or to the alleged omission, or insufficiency of a return, that the petition appeared vexatious or corrupt, the person who shall have signed the same shall be entitled to recover from the sitting member (if any) whose election or return is complained of, such member not having given notice of his intention not to defend the same, or from any other person whom the house shall have admitted, to be a party to oppose such petition, the costs incurred by the petitioners in prosecuting their petition, to be ascertained (as in s. 22.), id. s. 21.

350. In the cases before-mentioned, the costs of prosecuting or opposing such petition shall be ascertained thus: On application to the speaker, by such petitioner, for ascertaining such costs, he shall direct the same to be taxed by two such persons, (as in s. 6. ante, pl. 337.) who shall examine the same, and report the amount to the speaker, who shall, on application made to him, deliver to the party a certificate, signed by himself, expressing the amount of costs allowed in such report; and such two persons shall receive, for such taxation and report, such fees as shall be fixed by any resolution of the house, id. s. 22.

351. The party entitled to such costs, may demand the whole amount certified, from any one of the persons liable to payment thereof; and in case of non-payment thereof, may recover the same by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster; in which action plaintiff may declare, that the defendant is indebted to him (in the sum to which the costs ascertained shall amount) under this act; and the certificate of the speaker, under his signature, of the amount of such costs, together with an examined copy of the entries in the journals of the house, of the resolution of the committee, shall be sufficient evidence in support of such action, and no wager of law, or more than one imparlance, shall be allowed; and the party in whose favour judgment is given, shall recover costs, id. s. 23.

352. Where the amount of such costs has been recovered from any person, the latter may recover from such other persons liable to pay the said costs a proportionable share thereof, id. s. 24.

353. Whenever such committee is of opinion, that the merits of such petition do wholly or in part depend on any question which is before them, respecting the right of election, or the right of appointing the returning officer, they shall require the counsel or agents for the parties, or if none such are before them, then the parties themselves, to deliver to the clerk of the committee, statements in writing of the right of election, or of appointing returning officers, for which they contend; and the committee shall come to distinct resolutions on such statements, and shall, at the time they report to the house their final determination on the merits of such petition, also report such statement, with their judgment in respect thereof; which report shall be entered in the journals, and notice thereof sent by the speaker to the sheriff, or returning officer; and a true copy of such notice shall, by such sheriff or returning officer, be affixed to the doors of the county or town hall, or of the parish church nearest to the place where such election has usually been held; and shall also be inserted, by order of the speaker, in one of the next two London Gazettes, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 25., and 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 17.

354. If on the appointment of such last-mentioned committee, the name of any member is drawn who served on the former committee, and was present at the time of the determination, his name shall be set aside, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 16.

355. Any petition opposing any right of election or of appointing returning officers, may be presented, within [12, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 26.] 6 calendar months from the day on which the report has been made to the house; or if such 6 months expire between the time when the parliament shall be dissolved or shall expire, and that on which the next shall meet, [and see 54 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1. infra, pl. 358.] or if such 6 months expire during any recess, either by prorogation or adjournment of the H. of C. for 14 days intervening between the day of adjournment, and that to which the house is so adjourned, then within 14 days next after the 1st day of the next parliament or of the next session of the same parliament, or of the next meeting of the H. of C., as the case may be, to petition the house to admit the petitioner as a party to oppose any of those rights which have been deemed valid in the judgment of the committee; and such petition, when presented, shall be ordered by the house to lie on the table, till such 6 months or 14 days are expired; and within 21 sitting days after expiration of such 6 months or 14 days, a day and hour shall be appointed by the house for taking the same into consideration, and may be altered as it shall think fit, so that the space of [40, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 28.] 14 days at least shall always intervene between the day on which such order shall be made, and that appointed by the house for considering the petition: and notices of such day and hour and of alteration thereof shall be sent to the several petitioners as in other cases, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 15., [altering 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 26. and s. 28. in part as above, and semble superseding 54 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1., which however follows, pl. 358, 359.]

356. Notice of such day and hour shall be inserted by the speaker's order in the next London Gazette, [one of the two next, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 17.] and sent by him to the sheriff or returning officer; and a true copy shall by the latter be affixed to the doors of the county or town-hall, or of the nearest parish, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 28., as AMD. 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 17.

357. If no such petition is presented within the time above limited, the judgment of such committee on such question shall be conclusive in all subsequent elections for that place to which it relates, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 27.

358. EVERY PETITION RENEWED IN A SESSION subsequent to that of its original presentment, shall be presented to the house in 14 days after the commencement of such subsequent session; and when so presented, a day and hour at not less than 14 days distance, shall be appointed by the house for taking it into consideration, 54 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1., altering 28 G. 3. c. 52. ss. 26—28. [This appears to have been enacted for the dispatch of the particular petitions here alluded to: and Qu. if not superseded by the more general enactment of 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 15. supra, pl. 355.]

359. If any such petition shall not, from time to time, and in every session, till it is taken into consideration, be so renewed within such limited time, the determination of the committee shall be final in all subsequent elections of members for the place to which it relates, id. s. 2.

360. Any person, before the day appointed for taking such petition into consideration, may petition the house to be admitted as a party, to defend such right of election, or of appointing the returning officer, and shall thereupon be admitted and considered as such, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 29.

361. At the hour appointed for considering such petition, the house shall proceed to appoint a select committee to try the merits thereof, according to the directions of the statutes, which committee shall be sworn to try and determine such merits, so far as they relate to the rights of election, or of appointing the returning officer; and their determination on such question shall be entered on the journals, and shall be conclusive in all subsequent elections for that place to which the same shall relate, id. s. 30.

362. 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 4. pl. 88. is repealed, as to any determination to be made in the H. of C. subsequent to this act, id. s. 31.

363. The regulations prescribed by the recited acts, or this act, to select committees, for trial of controverted elections or returns, shall be in full force with respect to committees appointed by this act for trial of such question of right; provided that the rules before enacted, by which persons are required to enter into recognizances, and by which they are liable to payment of costs, in the cases before specified, shall not apply to the case of any petition relating solely to any question respecting the right of election, or of appointing returning officers, id. s. 32.

364. Whenever parliament shall be prorogued, while any select committee is sitting for trial of such petition as aforesaid, and before they have reported to the house their final determination thereon, such committee shall not be dissolved by such prorogation; but shall be thereby adjourned to 12 o'clock on the day immediately following that on which parliament shall meet again for the dispatch of business, (Sunday, Good Friday, and Christmas Day excepted,) and all their former proceedings shall remain of the same effect as if parliament had not been prorogued; and such committee shall meet on the day and hour to which it shall be so adjourned, and shall thenceforward continue to sit from day to day, until they have reported to the house their determination on the merits of such petition, 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 53.

Form of RECOGNIZANCE referred to in 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5.

'Be it remembered that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — before me, A. B. [speaker of the house of commons, or, one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of —] came C. D., E. F., and J. G., and severally acknowledged themselves to owe to our sovereign lord the king, the following sums; that is to say, the said C. D. the sum of 200*l.*, and the said E. F. and the said J. G. the sum of 100*l.* each, to be levied on their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to the use of our said sovereign lord the king, his heirs and successors, in case the said C. D. shall fail in performing the condition hereunto annexed. The condition of this recognizance is, that if the said C. D. shall duly appear before the house of commons at such time or times as shall be fixed by the said house for taking into consideration the petition signed by the said C. D. complaining of an undue election or return for the — of — [here specify the county, city, borough, or district of burghs,] [or complaining that no return has been made for the said — of — within the time limited by act of parliament, or, that the return made for the said — of — is not a return of a member or members according to the requisition of the writ,] and shall appear before any select committee which shall be appointed by the house of commons for the trial of the same, and shall renew his said petition in every subsequent session of this present parliament, until a select committee shall have been appointed by the said house for the trial of the same, or until the same shall have been withdrawn by the permission of the said house, then this recognizance to be void; otherwise to be of full force and effect.'

365. FOR FURTHER REGULATION OF TRIALS OF CONTROVERTED elections or returns of members to serve in parliament, and for expediting proceedings relating thereto, 42 G. 3. c. 84. [MADE PERP. 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 1. s. 1.]

366. Where 2 or more petitions under 10 G. 3. c. 16., 11 G. 3. c. 42., 14 G. 3. c. 15., 25 G. 3. c. 84., and 28 G. 3. c. 52. or any of them, are to be taken into consideration by the house on the same day, the petitioners, after summoning the members, and counting the house, as directed in those acts, may be ordered to attend, and after the list of 49 members hath been [ballotted, s. 6.] drawn by lot and completed in order to form the first committee, according to those acts, the house may forthwith, and before the door shall be opened, except for the purposes in s. 6., proceed to draw by lot and complete in like manner, out of the same boxes or glasses, a 2d, 3d, 4th, or such other number of committees as may be requisite; and the select committees and nominees shall then be severally appointed, according to the above acts, 42 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1.

367. But the house shall not proceed to form successive lists in order to form more than one of such committees unless 120 members are present in the house at counting the same, nor more than 2 unless 200 members are then present; nor more than 3 unless 270; nor more than 4 unless 360; nor more than 5 committees unless 460 members are then present, id. s. 2.

368. The name of any member drawn, who is excused for some reason which applies specially to one petition, may be put into the box, so that it may be drawn again, by lot, on any of the other petitions, id. s. 3.

369. If the name of any member be drawn who shall be declared one of the two nominees [see ante, pl. 321.] named by the petitioners or sitting members, or their agents appointed to attend the house on any other petition, it shall be set aside, and another drawn, if the member consents to the nomination, id. s. 4.

370. Lists may be formed and select committees appointed on one or more petitions which stand ordered for one day as far as under s. 2. pl. 367., the house is enabled so to do by the number of members present; and other business may then be proceeded in and the remaining orders shall be adjourned, as in pl. 290, 291. directed in case of no sufficient attendance, id. s. 5.

371. Petitioners and other parties, their counsel or agents, may withdraw from the house as soon as the 49 names are drawn for the committee for trial of the petition; and the clerk of the committee may return the reduced list in the time intervening between two ballots, and the members remaining on every such reduced lists, with their 2 nominees, being sworn at the table, may forthwith leave the house, id. s. 6.

372. When on any such petition there shall be more than 3 parties before the house, on distinct interests, or complaining or complained of on different grounds, the 13 members returned to the house under 11 G. 3. c. 42. shall not choose their nominees till all the other select committees to be ballotted for on that day have been sworn; and if 2 or more committees on such first-named petitions are appointed in one day, that first ballotted for shall have the choice of nominees, id. s. 7.

373. Every such committee shall or may be attended by a good shorthand writer specially appointed by the clerk of the house of commons, and sworn by the chairman faithfully to take down in short hand the evidence adduced before them, and, as occasion requires, to transcribe the same in words at length for the use of the committee, 42 G. 3. c. 84. s. 8.

374. FOR AMENDING AND RENDERING MORE EFFECTUAL THE LAWS for trials of controverted elections and returns of M. P.s, 53 G. 3. c. 71.

375. In all controverted elections or returns of M. P.s for G. B. all the parties complaining of or defending the same shall deliver in to the clerk of the H. of C. lists of the voters intended to be objected to, stating therein the several heads of objections distinguished against their respective names, to be kept in his office open to the inspection of all parties concerned; which lists shall be delivered in on all controverted elections and returns for Scot. or for any county in Eng. or Wa. 10 days at least before the day appointed for considering the petition; and within 5 days for all other places in Eng. or Wa.; or if postponed by order of the house to another session, then within the same periods before the respective committees are actually appointed, id. s. 1.

376. No evidence shall be adduced before the select committee appointed for trial of the petition on which such list shall have been delivered in against the validity of any vote on any head of objection not stated therein; and if any ground of objection so stated is unsubstantiated by evidence, and shall, in the opinion of the committee, be frivolous or vexatious, they shall report the same to the house, with their opinion on the other matters relating to such petition, in which case the opposite parties may recover the full costs incurred by reason of such frivolous, &c. objections, to be ascertained and recovered according to the law in such cases, id. s. 2.

377. No proceeding shall be had on any such petition unless some one or more persons subscribing the same shall, within 14 days after presenting it to the house, or within any further time limited by the house, personally enter into recognizance to H. M. in 1000*l.* and 2 sureties in 500*l.* each [see the end of this pl.], for paying all costs, expences, and fees becoming due to any witness summoned in behalf of the persons subscribing such petition, or to any officer of the house on trial of such petition, or to the party who shall appear in opposition to the same before the house or committee, in case such person shall not appear at the appointed times fixed by the house for considering the same; or in case the petition is withdrawn by leave of the house, or in case the committee report it to be frivolous or vexatious; and if not entered into or received by the speaker within that time, the latter shall report the same to the house, and the order for considering the petition shall be discharged, unless upon matter specially stated, and verified on oath to their satisfaction, the house see cause to enlarge the time for entering into such recognizance; in which latter case, the order for considering the petition shall, if necessary, be postponed, so that no such petition is considered till such recognizance has been entered into and received by the speaker; but such time shall not be enlarged more than once, or for more than 30 days, id. s. 3.

The form of recognizance is the same as that in pl. 364., substituting "1000*l.*" for "200*l.*," and "500*l.*" for "100*l.*" The condition is as follows: — "The condition of this recognizance is, that if the said C. D. shall well and truly pay all costs and expences, and fees due and payable from the petitioner to any witness who shall be summoned to give evidence in his behalf, or to any clerk or officer of the H. of C. on the trial of the petition, signed by the said C. D., complaining of an undue election or return for the [here state the county, city, borough, or district of burghs,] [or complaining that no return has been made for the said — within the time limited by act of parliament, or that the return made for the said — is not a return of a member or members according to the requisition of this writ,] and if the said petitioner shall also well and truly pay the costs and expences of the party who shall appear before the house in opposition to the said petition, in case the said petitioner shall fail to appear before the house at such time or times as shall be fixed by the house for taking such petition into consideration; or in case the said C. D. shall withdraw his said petition, by permission of the house; [or in case the select committee appointed by the house to try the matter of the said petition shall report to the house that the said petition appeared to them to be frivolous or vexatious,] then this recognizance to be void, otherwise to be of full force and effect."

378. Eight days at least before the petitioners shall enter into such recognizance, they shall, by themselves or agents, deliver in writing to the clerk of the house, the names of the sureties proposed to enter into such recognizance, which shall be entered in a book kept by the latter in his office, open to inspection of all parties concerned, id. s. 4.

379. The recognizance shall be entered into, and the sufficiency of the sureties thereon allowed and judged, under the regulations enacted by 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 6., id. s. 5.

380. The same persons, if sufficient, may become sureties in the recognizance in s. 3. directed, and in that mentioned in 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 5. pl. 336. and their names shall be in like manner delivered to the clerk of the house for entry, as in s. 4., id. s. 6.

381. Where any question shall arise as to the amount of reasonable costs or fees, payable to any witness or clerk, or officer of the house, on trial of any such petition, the speaker shall, on application, direct the same to be taxed as in 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 22., pl. 350.; and shall deliver to those concerned a certificate, signed by himself, of the amount of the fees, costs, and expences allowed, which shall be conclusive evidence of the amount; and a receipt shall be given at the foot of such certificate, by the party claiming under it; and the fees for such taxation and report may be demanded and received as from time to time may be fixed by any resolution of the house, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 7.

382. Such costs shall be taxed as between attorney and client, id. s. 10.

383. The taxers, and any master of chancery or justice of peace, may take any affidavit relative to such costs, or the taxation or nonpayment thereof, and administer the oath for taking the same; and each of the persons authorized to examine the sufficiency of sureties to be named in the recognizances mentioned in either act, may take affidavit relative to such sureties, or entering into any recognizances, and administer the oath for taking such affidavit, and perjury therein shall be punished as such, id. s. 11.

384. The house may permit any petition presented in pursuance of 28 G. 3. c. 52., or this act to be withdrawn, on matter arising since the same was presented, and specially stated and verified on oath to the satisfaction of the house, 53 G. 3. c. 71. s. 9. [Ext. 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 8. pl. 339.]

385. Where the petitioner fails to appear before the house by himself, or counsel, or agents, at the time affixed for appointing the select committee, the house not having permitted such petition to be withdrawn, and the order for its consideration shall be thereupon discharged, as in 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 13. pl. 342., the party opposing the petition may recover from such petitioner their full costs thereby incurred, id. s. 9.

386. If the petitioner who entered into such recognizance, as in s. 3. pl. 377., shall neglect, for 7 days after demand, to pay to any witness summoned on his behalf before the house, or committee on trial of his petition, the sum by the speaker certified to be due to him, with the further sum of 40s. per diem, for each day which he shall delay to satisfy the same; or if he shall refuse for 6 months after demand, to pay to any officer of the house, or opposite party, any sum certified by the speaker, under 28 G. 3. c. 52. s. 23. pl. 351., or s. 9. of this act, to be due to them for fees, costs, expences, and such neglect or refusal is proved to the speaker's satisfaction, by affidavit sworn before and certified under the hand of a master in chancery, default is made in the recognizance, and the speaker shall certify the same, and the default thereon into exchequer, which certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the default, and shall have the effect of an estreat of the recognizance from a court of law, provided such recognizance and certificate shall be delivered by a clerk of the house into the hands of the L. C. Baron, or of a baron of exchequer, or any officer appointed by that court to receive the same, id. s. 12.

387. In any action for recovery of any costs or fees, certified by the speaker, as in last pl., the latter's certificate, signed as above, shall have the effect of a warrant of attorney to confess judgment; and the court shall accordingly, on motion and production thereof, enter up judgment for the sum specified therein to be due from defendant in such action, id. s. 13.

388. The above regulations of this act, by which persons are directed to enter into recognizances, and are made liable to payment of costs to the opposite parties, shall not apply to petitions presented under 28 G. 3. c. 52., and relating solely to any question respecting the right of election, or of choosing or appointing a returning officer, id. s. 14.

389. Committees appointed under either act, shall be taken to be legally appointed, from the time of their being sworn at the table, id. s. 18.

390. And may examine any person subscribing such petition, except it otherwise appears to them that he is an interested witness, id. s. 19.

391. TO INCAPACITATE CERTAIN PERSONS FROM VOTING AT ELECTIONS OF M. P.s, AND FOR PREVENTING BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION in the election of M. P.s for borough of New Shoreham, Sussex, 11 G. 3. c. 55. [See Index, NEW SHOREHAM ELECTION.]

392. FOR BETTER REGULATING ELECTIONS OF CITIZENS TO SERVE in parliament for the city of Coventry, 21 G. 3. c. 54. [See Index, tit. COVENTRY ELECTION.]

393. FOR PREVENTING BRIBERY AND CORRUPTION in the election of M. P. for Cricklade in Wills, 22 G. 3. c. 31. [See Index, tit. CRICKLADE ELECTION.]

394. FOR REPEALING 10 G. 3. c. 41., AND 15 G. 3. c. 36. ss. 1—3. (s. 1.) AND FOR AUTHORIZING THE SPEAKER to issue a warrant to the clerk of the crown, for making out writs for election of members, in room of those dying in any recess, [framed from s. 2.] 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 26.

395. The speaker, during any recess of the house, whether by prorogation or adjournment, shall issue his warrant to the clerk of the crown, to make out a new writ for electing a member of the H. of C., in the room of any member dying, or becoming a peer of G. B., either during or previous to such recess, as soon as he shall receive notice by certificate, under the hands of two M. P.s, of the death of such M. P. in the first case, and in the second, that a writ of summons under the great seal has been issued to summon such peer to parliament, id. s. 2.

'We whose names are under-written, being two members of the H. of C. do hereby certify, that M. P. late a member of the said house, serving as one of the knights of the shire for the county of — [or, as the case may be] died upon the — day of — [or is become a peer of G. B., and that writ of summons has been issued under the great seal of G. B. to summon him to parliament, as the case may be] and we give you this notice, to the intent that you may issue your warrant to the clerk of the crown, to make out a new writ for the election of a knight to serve in parliament, for the said county of — [or as the case may be] in the room of the said M. P. Given under our hands this — day of — To the speaker of the house of commons.'

'Note, that in case there is no speaker, or of his absence out of the realm, such certificate may be addressed to any one of the persons appointed according to the directions of this act.'

396. The speaker shall forthwith cause notice of his receipt of such certificate [QU. warrant issued, see s. 9.] to be inserted in the London Gazette, and shall not issue his warrant till 14 days after such insertion, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 26. s. 3.

397. The speaker shall not issue his warrant, unless the return of the writ, by virtue whereof such member deceased, or become a peer of G. B., was elected, shall have been brought into the office of the clerk of the crown, 15 days at least before the end of the last sitting of the H. of C., immediately preceding the time when such application is made to the speaker to issue such warrant, nor unless such application is made so long before the then next meeting of the H. of C. for dispatch of business as that such writ may be issued before such meeting; nor if the application is made with respect to any seat vacated in either of the above methods by any member, against whose return any petition was depending at the time of the last prorogation of parliament, or adjournment of the house, id. s. 4.

398. Every speaker shall, at the beginning of any parliament, by instrument under his hand and seal, appoint from 3 to 7 M. P.s, authorizing them, or any one of them, to execute all his powers of issuing warrants under this act, subject to the regulations in ss. 6—8. hereof, which instrument of appointment of appointment and authority shall be valid for that parliament, notwithstanding the speaker's death, absence, or vacating his seat in parliament, id. s. 5.

399. When the number is reduced to less than 3, the existing speaker may make a new appointment (as in s. 5.) id. s. 6.

400. Every such appointment shall be entered in the journals of the H. of C., and published once in the London Gazette; and the instrument thereof shall be preserved by the clerk of the H. of C., and a duplicate filed in the office of the clerk of the crown in chancery, id. s. 7.

401. No person so appointed shall have power to act, except in case of there being no speaker, or in his absence, nor for longer than such person so appointed continues an M. P., id. s. 8.

402. The existing publisher of the gazette, on receiving notice of the issuing any such warrant, signed by any person so appointed, shall give a receipt for the same, specifying the day and hour of its receipt; and if more than one such notice is brought to him, shall insert only the one first received, id. s. 9.

403. TO LIMIT THE DURATION OF POLLS AND SCRUTINIES, AND TO regulate elections in Eng., Wa., and Ber., 25 G. 3. c. 84. ss. 1—9. [See rest of title, and ss. 10—15., pl. 324—330.; s. 4., pl. 126., and s. 16. pl. 132.]

404. Every poll demanded at any election within Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall commence on the day on which it is demanded, or on the next day at farthest (unless it be a Sunday, and then on the day after); and shall be proceeded in from day to day (Sundays excepted) till finished, so as no poll continue more than 15 days; and if it continue till the 15th day, then it shall be finally closed at or before 3 p. m. of that day; and the returning officer shall immediately, or on the day next after the final close of the poll, declare the names, and shall forthwith make a return of the persons having a majority of votes, unless the returning officer, on a scrutiny being demanded by any candidate, or 2 electors, shall deem it necessary to grant the same; in which case he may do so, and proceed thereupon, but so that in all cases of a general election he shall cause a return of members to be filed in the crown office on or before the return of the writ; and every other returning officer, acting under a precept, shall make a return at least 6 days before the return of the writ; and so that on a writ issued during a session or prorogation, and a scrutiny being granted, a return shall be made within 30 days after the close of the poll, or sooner if convenient, id. s. 1.

405. Whenever a scrutiny shall be granted, and more parties than one object to votes on such scrutiny, the returning officer shall decide alternately on the votes given for the different candidates, id. s. 2.

406. Every returning officer, unless prevented by accident, shall, during the poll, on every day cause the said poll to be kept open for 7 hours at the least, between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m., id. s. 3.

407. On every election within Eng., Wa., or Ber., in all cases where no oath or affirmation of qualification, other than against bribery, or of allegiance, supremacy, and abjuration, can now be required, every voter shall (if required by any candidate or voter) before admitted to poll, take the oath (or affirmation) following; viz.

'I do swear [or being a quaker, do affirm] that my name is A. B. and that I am — [specifying the addition, profession, or trade of such person], and that the place of my abode is at — in the county of — [and if it is a town, consisting of more streets than one, specifying what street], and that I have not before polled at this election; and that I verily believe myself to be of the full age of 21 years.'

Which the returning officer, and his deputies, and poll clerks shall administer, 35 G. 3. c. 84. s. 5.

408. At every such election, as in s. 5., the returning officer, if they see cause during any scrutiny, may administer an oath to any person consenting to take the same, touching the right of any person having voted at such election, or touching any other matters material to such scrutiny, id. s. 6.

409. At every such election, as in s. 5., every poll-clerk shall, before beginning to take the poll, be sworn by the returning officer, truly and indifferently to take the same, and to set down the name, addition, and abode of each voter, and for whom he shall poll, and to poll no person not sworn, or put to his affirmation, where such oath, &c. is by statute required, id. s. 7. [and see 10 A. c. 23. s. 5. pl. 135., and 7 G. 4. c. 25. s. 3. pl. 128.]

410. Every person taking such oath or affirmation before any returning officer, and who shall commit wilful perjury, or suborn any other person to take the same, whereby he shall commit perjury, shall incur the pains inflicted by 5 Ed. c. 9. and 2 G. 2. c. 25., id. s. 8. [seem not subject to the limitation of 12 months in s. 15. ante. pl. 330.]

411. Nothing herein shall affect elections for places, where particular regulations as to polls and scrutinies are specially enacted by statute, id. s. 9.

412. FOR BETTER SUPPORT OF THE DIGNITY OF THE SPEAKER of the H. of C., and for disabling him from holding office during pleasure under the crown, 30 G. 3. c. 10.

413. The secretary of the speaker of the H. of C. for the time being, or such other person as the speaker shall appoint, shall, as soon as may be after the quarter ending 5 Ap. 1790, deliver to the commissioners of the treasury an account, signed by the speaker, of the fees received on his account, between 25 Dec. 1789, and 25 Mar. 1790; also an account of such sum as shall have been received, or be due at the exchequer, out of H. M.'s civil list, on the allowance of 5*l.* per day usually made to the speaker, for the same period; and the secretary of the speaker, or person the speaker shall appoint, shall also, seven days before the expiration of the quarters ending 5 July, 10 Oct. 1790, and 5 Jan. 1791, deliver a like account of the fees received on account of the speaker, and of the sum received, or due, on the allowance of 5*l.* per day, between 25 Mar. and 24 June, between 24 June and 29 Sep., and between 29 Sep. and 25 Dec. 1790, and so in like manner in every succeeding quarter, id. s. 1.

414. If at any time the amount of the sums received under the head of fees, and of the sum received, or due at the exchequer, on the allowance of 5*l.* per day, within any of the said periods for which the accounts hereby directed to be delivered in are required to be computed, shall exceed clear 1500*l.*, such excess shall be carried to the account to be delivered in, previous to the next ensuing quarter, as so much money received by the speaker, to be added to the receipts under the head of fees, or sums received or due at the exchequer, within the period of the next ensuing account; and if the amount of the sums received under the head of fees, and which shall have been received, or due, at the exchequer, on the allowance of 5*l.* per day, within any of the said periods, for which the accounts are to be computed, together with such excess as shall be brought forward in manner herein directed from any preceding account, shall exceed clear 1500*l.*, such last excess shall also be carried forward to the account to be delivered in previous to the next ensuing quarter, id. s. 2.

415. If at any future time the whole amount of the sums received by the speaker, or which shall have been brought to his account, in manner before directed, within any of the periods for which the accounts hereby directed to be delivered in are required to be computed, shall be less than clear 1500*l.* the treasury shall, by warrant under their hands, direct the auditor to make forth and pass debentures for paying to the speaker, or to his order, out of the consolidated fund, such money as shall, together with the sums received by the speaker, or which shall be due to him, or brought to his account within any of the said periods, make up clear 1500*l.*, id. s. 4.

416. Such payments shall be made out of the said consolidated fund, after paying, or reserving sufficient to pay, all money directed by any former act to be paid out of the same, but with preference to all other payments hereafter charged upon such fund; and such warrant and debenture shall be authority to the officers of the exchequer for the payment of such money to the speaker; and the receipt of the speaker shall be a discharge, id. s. 5.

417. Payments out of the consolidated fund to be free from all taxes, id. s. 6.

418. The speaker shall not hold in his own name, or in the name of any person in trust for him, or for his benefit, any office or place under the crown during pleasure, 30 G. 3. c. 10. s. 7.

419. FOR DIRECTING THE APPOINTMENT OF COMMISSIONERS to administer certain oaths and declarations required by law to be taken and made by persons offering to vote at the election of a M. P., 34 G. 3. c. 73. [Ext. in all its powers and penalties to the provisions of 42 G. 3. c. 63. id. s. 2., and AMD. by that act.]

420. When a poll shall be demanded at any election of a M. P. for any county or other place in Eng., Wa., or Ber., the returning officer shall, at and immediately after the request in writing of any candidate under his hand, before proceeding further in the poll, appoint two or more persons to administer [all the oaths, and take all the declarations and affirmations now required by law, to be taken and made by voters at elections of M. P.s, 42 G. 3. c. 62. s. 1.] and to certify the names of such voters as shall take, &c. the same as prescribed in 34 G. 3. c. 73. s. 2. next pl., which persons shall have power to administer the same, and immediately after and before taking on them to act under such appointment, shall take the following oath; viz.

'I do swear that I will faithfully and impartially administer the oaths, and take the declarations and affirmations now required by law, to be taken or made by voters at elections for M. P.s, to and from such persons as shall lawfully apply to me in that behalf, in order to qualify themselves to vote at this election; and that I will, on being thereunto requested, fairly and truly give to every such person, or any of them who shall take such oaths, or make such declarations or affirmations respectively, or any of them before me, a certificate thereof; and that I will not give such certificate to any person before he shall have taken such oath or oaths, or made such declaration or declarations, affirmation or affirmations respectively, as shall be mentioned in such certificate, before me and in my presence.'

34 G. 3. c. 73. s. 1., as AMD. by 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 1. [the above oath is provided by 42 G. 3. c. 63. s. 1. and seems to supersede the more particular oath in 34 G. 3. c. 73. s. 1.]

421. After the persons so appointed have respectively taken such oath, any voter may, before voting, apply to any one of them to take, make, or subscribe such oaths or declarations, or any of them, who shall accordingly administer the same, and immediately sign and deliver a certificate thereof to such voter, containing his name, addition, and place of abode; viz. if he has taken the oaths in these terms; "A. B. [naming the person taking the oath] of [naming his place of abode, addition, or occupation] has taken the oath (or oaths) of [naming the oath or oaths administered] before me this — day of —." Or if to a quaker, having subscribed the declaration of fidelity, or made affirmation of the effect of the oath of abjuration in these terms; viz. "A. B. [naming the person subscribing or affirming] of [naming his abode, addition, or occupation] has made and subscribed the declaration of fidelity, and affirmed the effect of the oath of abjuration [or if only one of these acts has been done, then naming such one act only] before me this — day of —." On production of which certificate to the returning officer, or other person taking the poll, such person shall be entitled to vote, 34 G. 3. c. 73. s. 2.

422. Persons offering to vote without producing such certificate, shall not be sworn, &c. by the returning officer or poll-takers, but shall withdraw and take such oaths, and make such declarations or affirmations respectively, before one of the persons appointed and sworn, as in pl. 420., id. s. 3.

423. If the number of persons so appointed is found insufficient, the returning officer shall, on like request by any candidate, appoint more such persons, who shall respectively take the oath in pl. 420. prescribed, id. s. 4.

424. The returning officer shall provide a proper place for every such person so appointed, to execute his duty separately, and to which the electors may have free access without interrupting the poll; which places shall be open, and such persons shall attend for 8 hours per day, between 8 a. m. and 8 p. m., till the final close of the poll: any number not exceeding twelve voters may be sworn, &c. at a time; and the returning officer shall provide each person so appointed with a sufficient number of printed forms of the declaration of fidelity to be made by quakers before voting, with blanks for their names, to be filled up as required; and also with sufficient printed certificates, with blanks to be filled up as required, and delivered, not in the act, to each elector so taking such oaths, or subscribing or affirming, as in pl. 420., id. s. 5.

425. The returning officer, on 3 days' notice in writing from the candidates previous to the election, shall provide proper places, to be ready by the day of election; and if no convenient places can be had, he shall erect temporary booths for administering the said oaths, declarations, &c. to the voters, the expenses of which, and of the printed forms, and the allowance to the persons so appointed for their attendance, not exceeding 1*l.* 1*s.* per day, shall be defrayed and repaid by the candidates, in equal proportions, to such returning officer, and may be recovered by him in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, or on the case, bill, suit, or information, without essoin, &c., or more than one impurance, id. s. 6.

426. To shorten the time for giving notice of the royal intention for the meeting of parliament for dispatch of business, 37 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1. [see rest of this statute and title, ante, pl. 108., and 113—115., by mistake printed as 4 & 5 A. c. 8. ss. 3—5.]

427. To empower H. M. to shorten the time for such meeting in cases of adjournment, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 14.

428. A proclamation by H. M. in council, giving notice of his royal intention, that parliament shall meet for dispatch of business on any day, not less than 14 days from the date thereof, shall be full notice to all persons of such intention, and parliament shall thereby stand prorogued to that day, notwithstanding previous prorogation to any longer day, 37 G. 3. c. 127. s. 1.

429. Where both houses stand adjourned for more than 14 days from the date of the proclamation, H. M. in council may issue a proclamation declaring that parliament shall meet on a day not less than 14 days from the date of such proclamation, to which day (notwithstanding any previous longer adjournment) both houses shall stand adjourned, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 14. s. 1.

430. All orders made by either house, and appointed for the day to which it has been adjourned, or to a day subsequent thereto, except any order specially fixed for particular days by either house, notwithstanding any meeting of parliament under this act, and all orders made under provisions of a statute, shall be taken to be appointed for the day of the meeting of parliament, id. s. 2.

431. THE U.K. SHALL BE REPRESENTED BY ONE PARLIAMENT, styled "The parliament of the united kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 67. article 3. [see the rest of this act, IRELAND, Parliament.]

432. FOR MORE REGULAR CONVEYANCE OF WRITS FOR ELECTION OF members to serve in parliament, 55 G. 3. c. 89.

433. When any new parliament is summoned, and in all cases of the vacancy of seats, the messenger of the great seal shall carry the writs directed to the sheriffs of London, or sheriff of Middlesex, to their respective offices, and all other such writs to the post-masters general, or their deputy, who shall give a receipt for them, expressing the time of their delivery, and shall keep a duplicate thereof, signed by himself and the messenger, and shall dispatch them, free of postage, by the first mail, under covers, directed to the officers to whom the writs are directed, with proper directions to the country post-master, to deliver them to such officers, [or their deputies,] at their office, who shall give the postmaster a memorandum in writing, acknowledging the receipt of the writ, and expressing the day and hour of its delivery by him, signed by them and the postmaster, who shall transmit the same by the 1st or 2d post to the general post office, where it shall be entered in the proper book, and filed with the duplicate of the acknowledgment signed by the messenger, for the inspection of parties interested, 55 G. 3. c. 89. s. 1.

434. The chancellor of the county palatine of Lancaster, the bishop or temporal chancellor of that of Durham, and the chamberlain of that of Chester, the warden of the cinque ports, the sheriffs and stewards of cities, counties, and stewartries, and all other returning officers, shall send up to the post-masters general an account of the particular place where they hold their offices, for the purposes in s. 1., and so when they change the same, or of the post town or place nearest to such offices, (if not held in any post town); and a list thereof shall be hung up in some public place in the general post-office, id. s. 2.

435. Where any such returning officer holds his office in London, Westminster, Southwark, or within 5 miles of them, he shall send the account thereof to the messenger of the great seal, who shall carry the writs thither, id. s. 3.

436. The allowance of mileage to the messenger shall cease after the present messenger's death, except an allowance of 2l. 2s. on every writ to fill up a vacancy, and 50l. on a new parliament, to be payable from the hanaper office, id. s. 4.

437. All other fees on conveyance and delivery of writs for elections shall cease, and 500l. per ann. shall be paid to the messenger of the great seal, from the consolidated fund in compensation, id. s. 5.

438. Any person convicted on information or indictment in K. B. of neglect to deliver such writ, or of accosting any fee, or doing any thing in violation hereof, is guilty of a misdemeanor, with fine and imprisonment at discretion of the court, id. s. 6.

439. Every person committing such misdemeanor in Scot. shall be punished by fine and imprisonment as the judges before whom he shall be tried and convicted may direct, id. s. 7.

440. To EXCLUDE PERSONS HOLDING CERTAIN JUDICIAL OFFICES in Ire. from being members of the H. of C., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 44.

441. No lord chancellor, master of the rolls, or judge in K. B., C. P., or exchequer, or master in chancery in Ire., shall be capable of being elected, or sitting or voting as a member of the H. of C., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 44. s. 1.

442. If any person disqualified as in s. 1., is nevertheless returned as a member, his election and return are void, and if he presumes to sit or vote as such, he shall forfeit 500l. for every day in which he shall so sit, &c. to the person who shall sue for the same in any court at Westminster, to be recovered with full costs by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, in which but one imparlance, and no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, and shall be thenceforth incapable of holding any office of honour or profit under H. M., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 44. s. 2.

443. Nothing herein shall make void any election had before 28 May 1821, or disable from sitting and voting in the house, or subject to any penalty soever any person elected to serve therein before that time, id. s. 3.

444. To EXCLUDE THE borough of Grampound, co. Cornwall, from sending burgesses to serve in parliament, and to enable the county of York to send two additional knights to serve in parliament in lieu thereof, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 47.

445. The borough of Grampound shall cease to return burgesses to parliament, id. s. 1. and if during the present parliament, the election of either of the burgesses now sitting therein for Grampound becomes void, an additional knight shall be returned to serve in parliament for the co. York, which co., after the end of this parliament, shall return 4 instead of 2 knights of the shire, who shall be elected by H. M.'s writ to the sheriff, and in like manner to all intents as knights have been heretofore returned for that county, id. s. 2.

446. All statutes now in force touching the qualification, election, and return of knights of the shire, shall extend to the qualification, &c. of the knights to be returned under this act, as they have heretofore been held to extend to the knights returned for co. York, id. s. 3.

PARTITION.

1. CONCERNING JOINT tenants, and tenants in common, 31 H. 8. c. 1. and s. 1. [EXT. to such tenants holding for life or years, and for different estates, 32 H. 8. c. 32. See 33 H. 8. st. 1. c. 10., Ir.]

2. All joint-tenants or tenants in common of any estate of inheritance, in their own or their wives' right, of any manors, lands, &c. within Eng. or Wa., may be compelled by this act to make partition between them, of all such houses, lands, &c. as they shall hold as joint-tenants, or tenants in common, by writ de participatione faciendâ, to be devised in chancery, in like manner as coparceners may be compelled by the common law, and the same writ to be pursued as at common law 31 H. 8. c. 1. s. 2.

3. Each of such joint-tenants and tenants in common, and their heirs, after partition made, shall have aid of the other, or their heirs, to intent to dereign the warranty paramount, and to recover for the rate as is used between coparceners, after partition made, by the common law, id. s. 3.

4. All joint-tenants and tenants in common, which shall hold jointly or in common for a term of life or years, or such tenants, where one or some of them has an estate for life or years, with the other that has an estate of inheritance, or freehold in any manors, lands, &c. may be compelled by writ of partition out of chancery, to make partition of all such manors, lands, &c. which they hold jointly or in common for life or years, where one or some of them hold jointly or in common for life or years, with other that has an estate of inheritance or freehold, 32 H. 8. c. 32. s. 1.

5. No such partition made under this act shall be prejudicial to any lessee, or their heirs or successors, other than such which be parties thereto, their executors or assignees, id. s. 2.

6. FOR THE EASIER OBTAINING PARTITIONS OF LANDS in coparcenary, joint-tenancy, and tenancy in common, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 31. [MADE PERF. 3 & 4 A. c. 18. s. 2.]

7. After process of pone, or attachment returned upon a writ of partition, affidavit being made of due notice of such writ given to the tenants to the action, and a copy thereof left with the occupier or tenant, or if they cannot be found, to the wife, son, or daughter, being 21 years old, of the tenant, or to the tenants in actual possession by virtue of any estate of freehold, or for term of years, or uncertain interest, or at will of the manors, lands, &c. whereof the partition is demanded, (unless such tenant in possession be the defendant in such action,) 40 days before the return of such pone or attachment, if the tenant to such writ, or the true tenant to such messuages, lands, &c. shall not, within 15 days after the return of such pone or attachment, cause an appearance to be entered in the court where such pone, &c. is redeemable, the demandant having entered his declaration, the court may examine the demandant's title, and quantity of his part and purport, and accordingly, as they find it, give judgment by default, and award a writ of partition, whereby such part, &c. may be set out, which writ being executed after 8 days' notice given to the occupier or tenant of the premises, and returned, and final judgment entered, the same shall be good, and conclude all persons after notice as aforesaid, whatever right, &c. they have or may have to such manors, lands, &c. although all persons concerned are not named in such proceedings, nor the title of the tenants truly set forth, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 31. s. 1.

8. If such tenant or person concerned, against whom, or whose right or title such judgment by default is given, shall, within one year after such first judgment entered, or in case of infancy, coverture, non esse memoria, or absence out of the kingdom, within one year after his return, or the determination of such disability, apply by motion to the court, and shew a probable bar of such partition, or that the demandant has no title to so much as he hath recovered, then the court may suspend, or set aside such judgment, and admit the tenants to appear and plead, and the cause shall proceed as if no judgment had been given; and if the court, on hearing thereof, adjudges for the first demandant, then the first judgment shall be confirmed, and be good against all, except persons, &c. absent or disabled, and the appellant shall pay the costs; or if within such times the tenants or persons concerned, admitting the demandant's title, parts, and purparts, shall shew to the court any inequality in the partition, the court may award a new partition to be made in the presence of all parties if they will appear, notwithstanding the return and filing on record the former; which second partition returned and filed, shall be good against all persons, except as before excepted, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 51. s. 2.

9. No plea in abatement shall be admitted in any suit for partition, nor shall the same abate by reason of the death of any tenant, id. s. 3.

10. Where the high-sheriff, by reason of distance or other hindrance, cannot be present at the execution of any judgment in partition, then the under-sheriff, in the presence of 2 justices for the county where the lands, &c. to be divided lie, may execute such writ by inquisition, as if the high-sheriff were present, and the high-sheriff shall make the same return as if he were personally present; and in case such partition be made, returned, and filed, the tenants of any of such messuages, lands, &c. or any part or purpart thereof before they were divided, shall be tenants for such part, set out severally to the respective owners thereof, under the same conditions, rents, covenants, and reservations when so divided, and such owners shall covenant unto such tenants the said several parts severally after such partition, as they were bound to do by any copy, leases, or grants, before partition made, and if any demandant is tenant in actual possession to the tenant to the action for his part, or any part thereof in the messuages, lands, &c. to be divided by a writ of partition for any term of life or years, on uncertain interest, such tenant shall stand and be possessed of such purparts for the like term, and under the like conditions and covenants, where it is set out severally under this or any other act, id. s. 4.

11. The sheriffs and their under-sheriffs and deputies, and in case of sickness or disability in the high-sheriff, all justices within their respective divisions, shall give due attendance to the execution of such writ of partition, unless cause is shewn to the court, on oath, and there allowed, or otherwise shall be liable, each of them, to pay to the demandant such costs and damages as shall be awarded by the court, not exceeding 5*l.*, for which the demandant may bring his action in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, and in case the demandant shall not agree to pay unto the sheriffs or under-sheriffs, justices, and persons such fees as they demand, then the court shall award what each person shall receive, having respect to the distance of the place from their habitations, and the time spent, for which they may severally bring their actions as aforesaid, id. s. 5. [see as to partition of an advowson, 7 A. c. 18. ADVOWSON, pl. 8—9.]

PAWNBROKER.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO PREVENT THE UNLAWFUL PAWNING OF GOODS, 30 G. 2. c. 25. ss. 3—13. [see the rest of this statute CHEAT. GAMING.] AMD. 24 G. 5. S. 2. c. 42., which is CON. 26 G. 5. c. 92., both EXP. [The 30 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 3—13., seems to be virtually REV. by the effect of the 39 & 40 G. 5. c. 99.]

2. FOR FURTHER REGULATING the trade and business of a pawnbroker, 27 G. 5. c. 57. [which is CON. and AMD. 28 G. 5. c. 80.] 29 G. 5. c. 37., [which is CON. 31 G. 5. c. 52., 33 G. 5. c. 53.] 36 G. 5. c. 87. [which is CON. 39 & 40 G. 5. c. 99. s. 1.] all EXP.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ACT AGAINST BROKERS, 1 J. 1. c. 31. and s. 1—4.

2. No sale, exchange, pawn, or mortgage of any jewel, plate, apparel, household stuff, or other goods, wrongfully taken or stolen from any person, and sold, exchanged, or pawned within the city of London and liberties thereof, or within Westminster and Southwark, or two miles of London, to any broker or pawn-taker, shall work any change or alteration in the property of and from any person or body corporate from whom the same were stolen, &c., id. s. 3.

3. If any such persons or bodies shall require of such broker or pawn-taker, whether any such goods be come to him, and to show the same, and how he got them, and to whom he hath delivered same, and such broker or pawn-taker shall refuse so to do, he shall forfeit to the true owners of such stolen, &c. jewels, &c., double the value thereof, to be recovered by action of debt in the courts of record at Westminster, or within the city of London, in which no essoin, &c., 1 J. 1. c. 31. ss. 6—7.

4. This act shall not be hurtful to the brokers in London, using the ancient trade of brokers between merchant and merchant, or other occupiers therein, and the liberties thereof, id. s. 9.

5. FOR REGULATING THE BUSINESS OF PAWNBROKERS, 39 & 40 G. 5. c. 99. PUNISHING clause, s. 26.

6. All pawnbrokers may demand and take of all persons applying or offering to redeem any goods or chattels pledged with such pawnbroker, a profit after the following rates, above the principal sum which has been lent upon the respective pledges, before any such pawnbrokers shall be obliged to re-deliver the same; viz.

s. d.		d.
2 6	For any time during which	+
5 0	such pledge remains in	1
7 6	pawn, not exceeding one	1½
10 0	calendar month, and the	2
12 6	same for every month	2½
15 0	afterwards, including the	3
17 6	current month wherein	3½
20 0	redeemed, though unex-	4
40 0	pired.
40	and sums ex-	42s.
42	ceeding	10 l. , after the rate of 5 d. per 1 l. per cal month including the current month, and so in proportion for fractions.

which several sums shall be taken in full satisfaction for all interest due, and charges for warehouse room, id. s. 2.

7. In all cases where any intermediate sum lent upon any pledge, shall exceed 2*s.* 6*d.* and not exceed 10*s.*, the person lending the same may take, by way of profit, after the rate of 4*d.* and no more, for the loan of 20*s.* by the calendar month, including the current month as aforesaid, id. s. 3.

8. In all cases where the sum to be demanded by any pawnbroker, or his servant or agent, from any persons offering to redeem any goods pledged with him, either as profit upon any sum lent, or as part principal and part profit, amounts to a total sum of which the piece of money of the lowest denomination is one farthing; and where the persons so offering to redeem, has paid down the sum due for such principal and profit, or for such profit only (as the case may be) except the last farthing, and cannot pay a current farthing, and which is to the satisfaction of such person to receive the same, but shall in lieu thereof tender to such person one halfpenny, in order to discharge such farthing, such pawnbroker, to whom such tender is made, shall, in exchange thereof, deliver unto such person so redeeming, one good and lawful farthing of the current coin of this kingdom, or in default thereof, shall wholly abate the same from the total sum to be received by him of such person so redeeming them, id. s. 4.

9. In all cases where the party entitled to and applying for the redemption of goods pawned within 7 days after the expiration of the first calendar month after the same have been pledged, [QU., some words wanting here in the act.] he may redeem the same, without paying any thing by way of profit for such 7 days; and in all cases where the party so entitled, after the expiration of such first 7 days, and before the expiration of the first 14 days of the second calendar month, [same QU.] he may redeem such goods upon paying the profit payable for one calendar month and the half of another, but in all cases where the party so entitled, after the expiration of such first 14 days, and before the expiration of such second calendar month, [same QU.] the pawnbroker may demand the profit of the whole 2*d.* month; and the like regulation shall take place in every subsequent calendar month, wherein application is made for redeeming goods pawned, id. s. 5.

10. All persons who shall take by way of pawn or pledge, any goods, and whereon shall be lent any sum exceeding 5*s.*, shall, before they advance any money upon such pledge, enter in a book a description of the goods so received in pawn, pledge, or exchange, and also the sum advanced thereon, with the day of the month and year on which, and the name of the person by whom such goods were so pawned, &c. and the name of the street and number of the house where such person shall abide, and whether such person is a lodger in, or the keeper of such house, by using the letter "L" if a lodger, and "H" if a housekeeper, and also the name and place of abode of the owner of such goods, according to the information of the person pawning, &c. the same, into all which circumstances the pawnbroker shall enquire of the party pawning, before the money is advanced, and in all cases where the money lent on any such goods shall not exceed 5*s.*, such entry shall be made in such book within 4 hours next after such goods have been so pawned, &c., and every pledge upon which is lent any sum above 10*s.*, shall be entered in like manner, in a book kept separate from the other pledges whatever; and every such entry of such pledge shall lent any sum exceeding 10s., shall be numbered in such book progressively as received in pawn, as follows; viz. the first pledge that is received in each calendar month shall be numbered No. 1, and the second No. 2, and so on progressively until the end of the month, and so on throughout the year; and on every note or memorandum respecting any such pledge wherein is lent any sum exceeding 10s., shall be legibly written or printed the number of the entry of such pledge so entered in such book; and such person shall, at the time of the taking of every pawn, &c., give to the persons so pawning, &c. the same, a note or memorandum, containing therein in like manner a description of the goods so received in pawn, &c., and also the sum advanced thereon, with the day of the month and year on which, and the name and place of abode, and number of the house, of the person by whom such goods were so pawned, &c. and whether such person is a lodger or housekeeper, by using the letter "L" if a lodger, and "H" if a housekeeper, and also the name and place of abode of the owner thereof, according to the information aforesaid, and upon which note, or on the back whereof, shall be written the name and place of abode of the pawnbroker giving the same, which note the party pawning, &c. such goods shall accept, and the pawnbroker shall not retain such pledge unless the party pledging shall take such note; and every such note, where the sum lent is less than 5s., shall be delivered gratis; and where it is 5s., or upwards, and less than 10s., such pawnbroker may take one halfpenny for the same; and where 10s., and less than 20s., one penny; and where 20s., and less than 5l., two-pence; and where 5l. four-pence and no more; and which note shall be produced to the pawnbroker before he shall be obliged to re-deliver the goods, except as in s. 16. is excepted, 39 & 40 G.3. c. 99. s. 6.

11. In all cases where any goods pawned, &c. are redeemed, the pawnbroker shall, at the time of such redemption, indorse upon every duplicate respecting such pledge, the amount of the profit taken by him, or on his account, on the money lent upon such goods so redeemed, and shall keep such duplicate for one year, id. s. 7.

12. If any person shall knowingly and designedly pawn, pledge, or exchange, or unlawfully dispose of the goods of any other person, not being authorized by the owner thereof so to do, any justice may grant his warrant to apprehend any person so offending, and if he shall be thereof convicted, by the oath of any witness, or by confession before any justice or justices of the peace for the county, riding, division, city, liberty, town, or place where the offence was committed, every such offender shall forfeit not exceeding 5l. nor less than 20s., and also the full value of the goods so pawned, &c., such value to be ascertained by such justice; and in case such forfeitures are not forthwith paid, such convicting justice shall commit the party to the house of correction, or some other public prison of the county, &c. wherein the offender resides or is convicted, there to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 3 calendar months, unless such forfeitures are sooner paid; and if within three days before the expiration of such term of commitment, such forfeitures are not paid, such justice, at his discretion, may order the person so convicted to be publicly whipped in the prison to which the offender has been committed, or some other public place of the county, &c., and forfeitures, when recovered, shall be applied towards making satisfaction to the party injured, and defraying costs of the prosecution, as shall be adjudged reasonable by the convicting justice, but if the party injured shall decline to accept of such satisfaction and costs, or if there is any overplus, after making such satisfaction and paying such costs, the same shall be applied to the use of the poor of the parish or place where such offence was committed, and be paid to the overseers thereof for that purpose, id. s. 8.

13. If any person shall counterfeit, forge, or alter, or cause or procure to be counterfeited, &c. any such note or memorandum, (as in s. 6.) or shall utter, vend, or sell any such note, knowing the same to be counterfeited, &c. with intent to defraud any person, he shall be punished as herein mentioned; and any person, or his servants or agents, to whom any note is uttered or offered, which he suspects to have been counterfeited, &c. may seize and detain such person uttering, &c. the same, and deliver him to a constable or other peace officer, who shall convey him before some justice for the county, city, or place wherein the offence is supposed to have been committed; and if upon examination it appears to the satisfaction of such justice that the person so charged is guilty, then he shall commit the party offending to the common goal or house of correction of the county, city, or place, for not exceeding 3 calendar months, at the discretion of such justice, id. s. 9.

14. In case any person who shall offer by way of pawn, pledge, exchange, or sale, any goods, shall not be able or shall refuse to give a satisfactory account of himself, or of the means by which he became possessed thereof, or shall wilfully give any false information to the pawnbroker, or to his servant, as to whether such goods are his own property or not, or of his name and place of abode, or of the name and place of owner of such goods, or if there shall be any other reason to suspect that such goods are stolen, or otherwise illegally or clandestinely obtained, or if any person not entitled, nor having any colour of title by law to redeem goods in pawn, shall attempt to redeem the same, any person, or his servants or agents, to whom such goods shall be so offered, or with whom such goods are in pledge, may seize and detain such person and such goods, and deliver such person immediately into the custody of a peace officer, who shall convey him and such goods before some justice for the county, city, or place; and if such justice shall, upon examination, suspect that such goods were stolen, or illegally or clandestinely obtained, or that the person offering to redeem the same has not any pretence or right so to do, such justice may commit such person into safe custody, for such time as shall be necessary for the obtaining proper information on the subject, in order to be further examined; and if upon either of such examinations it appears to the satisfaction of such justice that such goods were stolen, &c. or that the person offering to redeem the same hath not any pretence or right so to do, such justice shall commit the party offending to the common goal or house of correction for the county, city, or place, there to be dealt with according to law, where the nature of the offence shall authorize such commitment by any other law, and where not, such commitment shall be for not exceeding 3 calendar months, at the discretion of such justice, 39 & 40 G.3. c. 99. s. 10.

15. If any persons shall knowingly buy or take in as a pledge or pawn, or in exchange, any goods of any manufacture, or of any part or branch of any manufacture, either mixed or separate, or any materials whatsoever, plainly intended for the composing or manufacturing of any goods, after such goods or materials respectively are put into a state or course of manufacture, or into a state for any process or operation to be thereupon or therewith performed, and before such goods or materials are completed or finished for the purposes of wear or consumption; or any linen or apparel, which goods, materials, linen, or apparel are entrusted to any person to wash, scour, iron, mend, manufacture, work up, finish, or make up, and shall be convicted of the same on the oath of one witness, or on confession, before one justice, every such person shall forfeit double the sum given for or lent on the same, to be paid to the poor of the parish where the offence is committed, to be recovered in the same manner as any other forfeitures are by this act directed to be recovered, (see s. 8.) and shall likewise be obliged to restore such goods and materials to the owners thereof, in the presence of such justice, id. s. 11.

16. If the owner of any goods of any manufacture, or any materials (as in s. 11. described), and before such goods or materials are completed or finished for the purposes of wear or consumption, or any linen or apparel, which goods, materials, linen, or apparel so intrusted as aforesaid, are unlawfully pawned, pledged, or exchanged, shall make out, either on his oath, or by the oath of any witness, or by affirmation before any justice within his jurisdiction, that there is cause to suspect that any person hath taken to pawn, or by way of pledge or in exchange, any such goods, &c. so intrusted, of such owner, and without his privity, and shall make appear, to the satisfaction of any such justice, probable grounds for such suspicion, then any such justice may issue his warrant for searching, within the hours of business, the house, warehouse, or other such person who is so charged and suspected to have received or taken in pawn, &c. any such goods, &c. without the privity of the owner thereof; and if the occupier of any house, warehouse, or other place wherein any such goods, &c. shall on oath or affirmation be charged or suspected to be, shall, on request made by any peace officer authorized to search there, by warrant from any justice for the county, city, or place in which such house, &c. is situate, refuse to open and permit the same to be searched, any peace officer may break open the same, within the hours of business, and search as he thinks fit therein for the goods, &c. suspected to be there, doing no wilful damage; and no pawnbroker or other person shall oppose any such search; and if upon the search of the house, &c. of any such suspected person, any of the goods, &c. which have been so pawned, &c. are found, and the property of the owner thereof made out to the satisfaction of any such justice, by the oath of one witness, or by affirmation or confession, any such justice shall cause the goods, &c. found on any such search, and so pawned, &c. to be forthwith restored to the owner, id. s. 12.

17. If the owner of any goods unlawfully pledged, &c. shall make out, either on his oath or by the oath of witness, or by affirmation, before any justice within his jurisdiction, that such owner hath had his goods unlawfully obtained or taken from him, and that there is cause to suspect that any person hath taken to pawn, or by way of pledge or in exchange, any goods of such owner, and without his privity, and shall make appear to the satisfaction of any such justice probable grounds for such suspicion, then any such justice may issue his warrant for searching, within the hours of business, the house, warehouse, or other place of any such person who shall be so charged as suspected to have received or taken in pawn, &c. any such goods, without the privity of the owner; and if the occupier of any house, &c. wherein any such goods, on oath or affirmation, are charged or suspected to be, shall, on request made by any peace officer authorized to search there by warrant from a justice for the county, city, or place in which such house, &c. is situate, refuse to open and permit the same to be searched, any peace-officer may break open any such house, &c. within the hours of business, and search therein for the goods suspected to be there, doing no wilful damages; and no pawnbroker or other person shall oppose any such search; and if upon the search of the house, &c. of any such suspected person, any of the goods which have been so pawned, &c. are found, and the property of the owner from whom the same were unlawfully obtained, made out to the satisfaction of any such justice, by the oath of one witness, or by affirmation, or confession, such justice shall cause the goods so found on any such search, and so pawned, to be forthwith restored to the owner thereof, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 99. s. 15.

18. If any goods are pawned for securing any money lent thereon, not exceeding in the whole the principal sum of 10*l.*, and the profit thereof, and if within one year after the pledging thereof, (proof having been made on oath or affirmation by one witness, and by producing the note by s. 6. directed to be given, before any justice, to his satisfaction, of the pawning of any such goods within one year, or one year and 3 months, as the case may be,) any such pawnor, who was the real owner of such goods at the time of the pawning thereof, his executors, administrators, or assigns, shall tender unto the person who lent, on the security of the goods pawned, his executors, &c. the principal money borrowed thereon, and the profit according to the rates by this act established, and if the person who took such goods in pawn, his executors, &c. shall thereupon, without shewing cause for so doing to the satisfaction of such justice, refuse to deliver back the goods so pawned to the person who borrowed the money thereon, his executors, &c. then on oath or affirmation thereof made by such pawnor, his executors, &c. or some other person, any justice for the county, city, or place where the person who took such pawn, his executors, &c. shall dwell, on the application of the borrower, his executors, &c. shall cause such person who took such pawn, his executors, &c. within the jurisdiction of the justice, to come before him, and such justice shall examine on oath or affirmation the parties themselves, and such other person as shall appear before him, touching the premises; and if tender of the principal money due, and all profit thereon, is proved by oath or affirmation to have been so made within such one year, or one year and 3 months, as the case may be, after such pawning of the goods, then on payment by the borrower, his executors, &c. of such principal money, and the profit due thereon, to the lender, his executors, &c. and in case the lender, his executors, &c. shall refuse to accept thereof, on such tender before any such justice, such justice shall thereupon, by order under his hand, direct the goods so pawned forthwith to be delivered up to the pawnor, his executors, &c.; and if the person who lent any principal money, not exceeding in the whole 10*l.* on any goods pawned, his executors, &c. shall refuse to deliver up or make satisfaction for the goods which shall be so proved to have been so pawned, as any such justice shall order, then any such justice shall commit the party so refusing to the house of correction or some other public prison for the county, city, or place wherein the offender shall reside or be convicted, there to remain, without bail, until he shall deliver up such goods, according to the order of such justice, or make such compensation as such justice shall adjudge reasonable, for the value thereof, to the party entitled to the redemption of such goods, id. s. 14.

19. Any person who shall produce any such note (as in s. 6.) to the person with whom the goods therein specified were pawned, as the owner thereof, or as authorized by the owner to redeem the same, and shall require a delivery of such goods to him, shall be deemed, so far as respects the person having such goods in pledge, the real owner of such goods, and the pawnbroker shall, after receiving satisfaction pursuant to the provisions of this act respecting principal and profit, deliver such goods to the person who shall so produce such note to him, and shall be indemnified for so doing, unless he has had previous notice from the real owner thereof not to deliver the same to such person producing such note, or unless notice has been given to him that the goods pawned have been or are suspected to have been fraudulently or feloniously taken or obtained, and unless the real owner thereof proceeds in manner (in s. 16) directed for the redeeming of goods pledged, where such note hath been lost, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the owner, id. s. 15.

20. In case any pawnbroker has had such previous notice (as in s. 15.), or in case any such note shall be lost, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudulently obtained from the owner, and the goods mentioned therein remain unredeemed, then the pawnbroker with whom such goods were so pledged shall, at the request of any person who shall represent himself as the owner of the goods in pledge, deliver to such person a copy of the note so lost, &c. with the form of an affidavit of the particular circumstances attending the case, written on such copy, as the same are stated to him by the party so applying, for which copy and form, in case the money lent shall not exceed the sum of 5*s.*, the pawnbroker shall receive one half-penny; and in case it shall exceed 5*s.* and not 10*l.*, one penny; and in case it shall exceed 10*l.* the pawnbroker shall receive the like sum as on giving the original note, such money to be paid by the party applying at the time of application; and the person having so obtained such copy and form, shall thereupon prove his property in or right to such goods, to the satisfaction of some justice for the county, city, or place where such goods were pledged, &c. and shall also verify on oath or affirmation, before such justice, the truth of the particular circumstances attending the case mentioned in such affidavit or affirmation to be made as aforesaid, the caption of such oath or affirmation to be authenticated by the hand writing thereto of the justice before whom the same is made, and who shall so authenticate the same; whereupon the pawnbroker shall suffer the person so proving such property and making such affidavit, &c. on leaving such copy of such note, and affidavit, &c. with him, to redeem such goods, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 99. s. 16.

21. All goods pawned or pledged, shall be deemed forfeited, and may be sold at the expiration of one whole year, exclusive of the day whereon pawned; and all goods so forfeited on which above 10*s.* and not exceeding 10*l.* has been lent shall be sold by public auction, and not otherwise, by the order of the person having the same in pawn, at the expiration of such year; but the person employed to sell such goods by auction shall cause the same to be exposed to public view, and catalogues thereof to be published, containing the name and place of abode of the pawnbroker, and also the month such goods were received in pawn; and the number of such pledge as entered in the book at the time the same were pawned, and an advertisement giving notice of such sale, and containing the name and place of abode of the pawnbroker with whom such goods were in pledge, and also the month such goods were received in pawn, shall be inserted on two several days in some public newspaper, 2 days at least before the first day of sale; and the goods pledged with every pawnbroker shall be inserted in every catalogue, separate and apart from each other, on pain of forfeiting to the owners of such goods, any sum not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 17.

22. All pictures, prints, books, bronzes, statues, busts, carvings in ivory and marble, cameos, intaglios, musical, mathematical, and philosophical instruments, and china, which shall be so sold by public auction, shall be sold by themselves, and without other goods, four times only in every year, (that is to say), on the first Monday in the months of January, April, July, and October, and on the following days if the sale shall exceed one day; and the person who shall be employed to sell the same by auction, shall cause the same to be exposed to public view, and catalogues thereof to be published, and an advertisement giving notice of such sale, and containing the name of the pawnbroker with whom such goods were in pledge, to be inserted two several days in some public newspaper three days at the least before the first day of sale, upon pain of forfeiting to the owners of such goods, any sum not exceeding 5*l.*; nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 18.

23. In case any person entitled to redeem goods in pledge, shall, before or upon the expiration of one year from the time of pawning the same, give notice in writing, or in the presence of one witness, to the person having the same in pledge, or leave the same at his usual place of abode, not to sell the same at the end of such one year, then such goods shall not be disposed of until after the expiration of three calendar months to be computed from the expiration of such year, during which term of 3 calendar months, the owner of such goods may redeem the same, upon the terms provided by this act, id. s. 19.

24. All persons with whom any goods have been pawned, shall enter in a book a true account of the sale of all goods pawned with them for upwards of 10*s.* which shall be so sold, expressing the day of the month when such goods were pledged, and the name of the person pledging the same, according to the entry made at the time of receiving the same in pawn; and also the day when, and the money for which such goods were sold, together with the name and place of abode of the auctioneer by whom the same were sold; and in case any such goods shall be sold for more than the principal money and profit due thereon at the time of such sale, the overplus shall, by such pawnbroker, be paid on demand, to the person on whose account such goods were pawned, his executors, administrators, or assigns, in case such demand is made within three years after such sale, the necessary costs and charges of such sale being first deducted; and such person who pawned such goods, or for whom such goods were so pawned, his executors, &c. shall for his satisfaction, be permitted to inspect such entry of sale, paying for such inspection one penny and no more; and in case any person shall refuse to permit any such person who pawned such goods, or who is entitled to such overplus money, to inspect such entry, (such person, if an executor, &c., at such time producing his letters testamentary, letters of administration or assignment;) or in case the goods were sold for more than the sum entered in any such book, or if any such person shall not make such entry, or shall not have bona fide, according to the directions of this act, sold the same, or shall refuse to pay such overplus, upon demand, to the pawnor or owner, his executors, &c., every such person so offending shall forfeit 10*l.*, and treble the sum such goods were originally pawned for, to the person on whose account such goods were pawned, his executors, &c., to be levied by distress and sale of the of-finder's goods, by warrant under hands and seals of any two justices for the county, &c. where the offence was committed; 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 99. s. 20.

25. No person having any goods in pledge shall, under any pretence, either by himself or any other person, purchase the same, during the time the same remain in his custody as such pledge, save at such public auction, nor shall suffer the same to be redeemed with a view to purchase; nor shall any such person having any goods in pledge, make any contract with any person offering to pledge the same with the owner of the pledge for the purchase, sale, or disposition thereof, before the expiration of one whole year from the time of pawning the same; nor shall any pawnbroker purchase or take any goods in pledge from any person who shall appear to be under the age of twelve years, or to be intoxicated; or purchase or take in pawn, or exchange, such note as in s. 6. of any other pawnbroker; nor buy any goods in the course of his trade, before 8 in the forenoon or after 7 in the evening throughout the year; nor employ any servant, or any other person under the age of 16 years, to take in any pledge; nor receive or take in any goods by way of pawn, or in exchange, before 8 in the forenoon or after 8 in the evening between Michaelmas Day and Lady Day following, or before 7 in the forenoon or after 9 in the evening during the remainder of the year, excepting only until 11 on the evenings of Saturday throughout the whole year, and the evenings preceding Good Friday and Christmas Day, and every fast or thanksgiving day to be appointed by H. M., nor shall any person exercise the business of a pawnbroker on any Sunday, Good Friday, Christmas Day, or on any fast or thanksgiving day to be so appointed, id. s. 21.

26. All persons who shall follow the business of a pawnbroker, shall cause to be painted in large characters, the rate of profit allowed by this act to be taken by them, and also the various prices of the notes to be given according to such rates, and an account of what notes are to be delivered gratis, and of the expence of obtaining a second note where the former one has been lost, mislaid, destroyed, or fraudently obtained, and place the same in a conspicuous part of the shop wherein they shall carry on such business, so as to be legible by the persons pledging goods standing in the several boxes or places provided for such persons coming to pawn or redeem goods there, id. s. 22.

27. All persons who shall follow the business of a pawnbroker, shall cause to be painted, in large characters, over the door of each shop or other place by them made use of for carrying on that business, their christian and surname, and the word "pawnbroker" or "pawnbrokers," as the case may be, following the same, upon pain of forfeiting 10*l.* for every shop or place which is so made use of for one week, without having such names and word so painted thereon, to be recovered by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and seals of any two justices acting within the county, city, or place, (which warrant such justices shall grant), upon confession, or upon the information of any witness, upon oath or affirmation; and in case sufficient distress is not found, or such penalty is not forthwith paid, such justices may, by like warrant, cause the offender to be committed to the county gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 calendar months nor less than 14 days, unless the penalty and all reasonable charges are sooner paid, id. s. 23.

28. If in the course of any proceedings before any justice or justices in pursuance of this act, it is proved upon oath or affirmation, that any of the goods so pawned have been sold before the time allowed, or otherwise than according to this act, or have been embezzled or lost, or are become of less value than the same were at the time of pawning, by the default, or wilful misbehaviour of the person with whom the same were so pawned, his executors, administrators, or assigns, agents, or servants, then such justices may award a reasonable satisfaction to the owner of such goods in respect thereof, or of such damage; and the sum so allowed, in case the same shall not amount to the principal and profit due to any person with whom the same were so pawned, his executors, &c. shall be deducted out of such principal and profit; and in all cases where the goods so pawned have been so damaged, it shall be sufficient for the pawner, his executors, &c., to pay or tender the money due upon the balance, after deducting out of the principal and profit for the goods pawned, such reasonable satisfaction in respect to such damage as any such justices award; and upon so doing, the justices shall proceed, as if the pawner, his executors, &c. had paid or tendered the whole money due for the principal and profit; and if the satisfaction to be awarded to the owner of such goods is equal to or exceeds such principal and profit, then the person to whom the same were so pawned, his executors, &c. shall deliver the goods so pledged to the owner thereof, without being paid any thing for principal or profit in respect thereof, and shall also pay such excess to the person entitled thereto, under the penalty of 10*l.*, to be recovered and applied as hereinafter mentioned, id. s. 24.

29. Any justice, upon complaint made to him on the oath or affirmation of one witness, wherein any information is laid against any pawnbroker for having offended against this act, or respecting any dispute between any pawnbroker and person having pawned goods, or the owner of goods pawned, or respecting any felony or other matter, or on any other occasion whatsoever, which in the judgment of any justice shall make the production of any book, note, voucher, memorandum, duplicate, or other paper necessary, which ought to be in the custody of any pawnbroker, may summon such pawnbroker before him, with any book, note, &c. which he ought to have in his custody relating to the same, which he shall produce before such justice in the state the same were made at the time the pawn was received, without any alteration or obliteration; and in case such pawnbroker shall refuse to attend, or to produce the same in its true state, he shall, in case he doth not show good cause for such refusal, to the satisfaction of such justice, forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* nor less than 5*l.*, to be levied and applied as herein-after mentioned, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 99. s. 25.

30. In case any pawnbroker shall offend against this act, he shall, for every offence in neglecting to make in such books any such entry as is required by s. 6. to be made, forfeit such sum as to the justice by whom any information thereon is heard and determined seems reasonable, not exceeding 10*l.*; and for every other offence against this act, where no forfeiture or penalty is imposed on any particular or specific offence against any part of this act, not less than 40*s.* nor more than 10*l.*; and all forfeitures incurred by any offence against this act, shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice or justices for the county, city, or place where the offence was committed; and the justices shall award one moiety of such penalties to the party complaining, and the remainder not otherwise disposed of, shall be applied to the use of the poor of the parish or place where the offence was committed, and shall be paid to the overseers thereof for that purpose, id. s. 26.

31. No person exercising the business of a pawnbroker shall be liable to any prosecution or information before any justices by virtue of this act, for any offence against this act, unless information is given thereof within 12 calendar months next after the offence committed; and all such informations shall be given and prosecuted before such justices as shall act near to the place where such offence was committed, unless the same was committed within the city or liberties of London, id. s. 27.

32. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish where any offence is supposed to have been committed by any pawnbroker against this act, or one of such officers, at the direction of any justice, on having notice from such justice of such offence, or one of them nominated by such justice, shall prosecute every offender for every offence so to be suggested by such justice to have been committed against this act, at the expence of the parish whereof they are such officers or officer, id. s. 28.

33. No person who has been convicted of any fraud, or of obtaining money under false pretences, or of any felony, shall be allowed to prosecute or inform for any offence against this act, id. s. 29.

34. This act shall not extend to any person who shall lend money to any person upon pawn or pledge, at the rate of 5 per cent. per ann. interest, without taking any greater profit for the forbearance of such money, id. s. 30.

35. Every provision, regulation, and clause in this act shall extend to and include the executors, administrators, and assigns of deceased pawnbrokers, in the same manner as the same extend to and include the pawnbroker when living, save that no such executor, &c. shall be answerable for any penalty or forfeiture personally, or to be paid out of his own monies or estate, unless the same shall be incurred by his own act or neglect, id. s. 31.

36. If any person is prosecuted for any thing done in pursuance of this act, he may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, then such defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 32.

37. In all actions, informations, and other proceedings in pursuance of this act, or in relation to any matter herein, any inhabitant of the parish, town, or place in which any offence is committed contrary to this act, shall be deemed a competent witness, notwithstanding his being an inhabitant of the parish, &c. wherein any such offence was supposed to have been committed, id. s. 33.

38. The justice before whom any person is convicted under this act, shall cause such conviction to be drawn up in the form, or to the effect following:—

— { Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the — year of to wit. { H. M.'s reign, A. B. is convicted before — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county of — [or, for the — riding or division of the said county of — or, for the city, liberty, or town of — as the case shall happen to be] for — and the said — do adjudge him [or, her] to pay and forfeit for the same the sum of —. Given under — the — day and year aforesaid. And such justice before whom such conviction is had, shall cause the same, so drawn up, to be fairly written upon parchment, and transmitted to the next general or quarter session to be held for the county, city, or place wherein such conviction was had, to be filed amongst the records of such session; and in case any person so convicted shall appeal from the judgment of such justice to such session, such session shall, upon receiving such conviction, proceed to the determination of such appeal at such next session, and not afterwards, according to this act; and no certiorari shall be granted to remove any conviction or other proceedings had thereon in pursuance of this act, 59 & 40 G. 5. c. 90. s. 34.

59. Any person convicted of any offence punishable by this act may appeal to the justices at the next general or quarter session held for the county, city, or place where such judgment was given, and the execution of such former judgment shall in such case be suspended, the person so convicted entering into a recognizance at the time of such conviction, with two sureties, in double the sum which he was adjudged to pay, upon condition to prosecute such appeal with effect, and to be forthcoming to abide the judgment and determination of such session, and to pay such costs as such sessions award; which recognizance such justice before whom such conviction is had shall take; and such session shall hear and finally determine such appeal, and award such costs as appear just to be paid by either party; and if upon the hearing of such appeal, the judgment of the justice before whom the appellant was convicted is affirmed, such appellant shall immediately pay the sum which he was adjudged to forfeit, together with such costs as such session shall award for defraying the expenses sustained by the defendant in such appeal, or in default of making such payment shall suffer the pains by this act inflicted upon persons respectively who neglect to pay the sums or forfeitures by this act imposed on persons convicted under this act, id. s. 35.

PEACE (Surety of).

1. TO PREVENT AND PUNISH THE ABUSES in procuring process and superedeas of the peace and good behaviour, out of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, [viz. Chancery and K. B.] [21 J. 1. c. 8. ss. 1—5. [See ss. 6—7. and rest of this title, CERTIORARI, pl. 1—3.]

2. All process of the peace or good behaviour to be granted out of Chancery or K. B. shall be void, unless granted on motion in open court, and on declaration in writing on their corporal oaths, by the parties desiring such process, of the causes for which it shall be granted, and unless such motion and declaration be mentioned to be made on the back of the writ: the said writings there to be entered and remain of record; and if it afterwards appears to the court that the causes expressed in such writings are untrue, they shall award costs and damages to the party grieved, and the offender may be committed till the same are paid, id. s. 2.

5. All writs of superedeas to be granted by either court shall be void, unless such process is granted on motion, and on such sureties as shall appear on oath to be assessed at 5*l.* lands, or 10*l.* goods, in the subsidy book, which oaths and names of sureties, with their places of abode, and where they stand assessed, shall be entered of record; and unless it also appear to the court that such process of the peace, &c. is prosecuted therein, by some party grieved against the person bona fide desiring such superedeas, id. s. 3.

4. "Whereas common bailers, or knights of the post, being beggarly persons, often procure themselves to be assessed at high rates in the subsidy books, or falsely take on them the names of other men of good ability, in order to be accepted as bail, and are ready for gain to be bound by recognizance, as sureties for persons who procure themselves to be bound to the peace, (s. 5.), as in preamble to s. 4. is recited, viz. on insufficient sureties or colourable prosecution of some person who will at pleasure release them." The courts, in s. 2. pl. 2., on proof of any misdemeanors committed in obtaining writs of superedeas or procuring surety, may likewise punish the false and insufficient sureties, and procurers thereof, so as such punishment extend not to life or member, id. s. 4.

PEERS.

1. DUCHESSSES, COUNTESSSES, AND BARONESSSES, indicted of any treason or felony, whether married or sole, shall be put to answer before such judges and peers as peers should be if indicted of such crimes, 20 H. 6. c. 9.

2. CONCERNING PLACING OF THE LORDS in the parliament chamber, and other assemblies and conferences of council, 31 H. 8. c. 10.

3. No persons except H. M.'s children shall sit at any side of the cloth of estate in the parliament chamber, id. s. 1.

4. H. M.'s vicegerent for the ecclesiastical jurisdiction shall sit in all parliaments on the right side of the parliament chamber, and on the same form with and above the archbishop of Canterbury, and shall have voice in parliament as other lords, id. s. 2.

5. Next to the vicegerent shall sit the archbishop of Canterbury, next to him on the same form the archbishop of York, and next to him the bishop of London, next the bishops of Durham and Winchester, and then all the other bishops according to their antienties, id. s. 3.

6. The lords chancellor, treasurer, president of the council, and privy seal, being of the degree of baron or above, shall sit in all parliaments on the left side of the parliament chamber, on the higher part of the form, above all dukes, except such as shall be the king's son, brother, uncle, or nephew, 31 H. 8. c. 10. s. 4.

7. The great chamberlain, constable marshal, lord admiral, great master or lord steward, and the king's chamberlain, shall sit one after the other, after the lord privy seal, and above all other personages of the same degrees of which they are, id. s. 5.

8. The king's chief secretary, being a baron or bishop, shall sit above all other barons or bishops not having any of the offices aforesaid, id. s. 6.

9. Dukes, marquesses, earls, viscounts, and barons, not having any of the offices aforesaid, shall sit after their antienty, id. s. 7.

10. If the lords chancellor, treasurer, president of the council, privy seal, or chief secretary, be under the degree of a baron, by reason whereof they have no vote, they shall sit at the uppermost part of the sacks in midst of the parliament-chamber, either on one form or the uppermost sack in order, as in s. 4., id. s. 8.

11. In trials of treasons by the peers, if any of the peers called to be witnesses shall have any of the offices aforesaid, they shall sit according to their offices, above all other peers called to such trial, id. s. 9.

12. In all other assemblies and conferences of council, the officers mentioned in ss. 4—5. shall sit in the order there appointed, id. s. 10.

13. IN ALL CASES WHERE ANY OF H. M.'s SUBJECTS may on prayer, have his privilege of clergy, as a clerk convict that may make purgation, in those cases, and also in cases of felony wherein the benefit of clergy is taken away by this act, (wilful murder and poisoning of malice prepensed excepted), a lord of parliament, and peer of the realm having voice in parliament, shall, on his request, alleging that he is a peer of the realm, and claiming the benefit of this act, though he cannot read, without burning in the hand, loss of inheritance or corruption of blood, be adjudged as a clerk convict, and shall be in case of a clerk convicted and admitted to make purgation, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 14.

14. If any lord of parliament or any peer of the realm shall be indicted of any offence herein limited, he may have his trial as in cases of high treason, id. s. 15.

PENITENTIARY HOUSES.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. For the erection of a penitentiary house or houses, 19 G. 3. c. 71. ss. 5—69. [CON. 39 G. 3. c. 52. EXP.]

2. FOR ERECTING A PENITENTIARY HOUSE or houses for confining and employing convicts, 34 G. 3. c. 84. [Now, the purposes of this act were never executed farther than the purchase of the land whereon to build, which appears by the preamble of the 52 G. 3. c. 44., and as its provisions are confined to directions for purchasing the land and building the penitentiary, it seems now EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE ERECTION OF A PENITENTIARY HOUSE for the confinement of offenders convicted within the city of London and county of Middlesex, and for making compensation to Jeremy Bentham, Esq. for the non-performance of an agreement between him and the treasury respecting the custody and maintenance of convicts, 52 G. 3. c. 84. [REP. as to so much (viz. s. 47.) as allows persons convicted of felony without clergy to be confined in penitentiary houses, 53 G. 3. c. 162. and to so much (viz. ss. 6—46.) as relates to the number of convicts who may be confined therein, and to their confinement, employment, and management, and the establishment and duties of the officers, 56 G. 3. c. 65. s. 1.]

2. H. M. may appoint 5 persons to execute the purposes of this act viz., to erect a penitentiary to confine offenders convicted of transportable offences within the city of London and the county of Middlesex, [or capitally convicted, and pardoned on condition of being confined under this act, QU. see last pl.] and to be supervisors of the house and buildings to be so erected, and appoint others in the room of such as shall die, resign, or be removed, and allow them such compensation as he thinks proper, 52 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

3. All lands, houses, &c. purchased by, or now vested in, Jeremy Bentham, Esq., under 34 G. 3. c. 74., at Millbank, near Tothill-fields, shall be vested in H. M. for the purposes of this act, (s. 2.), and such supervisors shall erect such penitentiary, subject to the approbation of the treasury, (s. 3.), arbitrators to be appointed to settle the dispute between Mr. Bentham and the government, id. ss. 2—4.

4. TO REGULATE THE GENERAL PENITENTIARY for convicts at Millbank, in the county of Middlesex, 56 G. 3. c. 65. [REP. as to ss. 7. 22. 29 35—56. 40. 43. by ss. 14—16. of, and AMD. by 59 G. 3. c. 156.]

5. The supervisors appointed under 52 G. 3. c. 44. may make accommodation in the penitentiary for the confinement and employment of 400 male, 56 G. 3. c. 63. [increased by 59 G. 3. c. 136. s. 1. to 600 male] and 400 female convicts, who may, with the approbation of the home secretary, be imprisoned at one time in such penitentiary, and confined, employed, and managed therein under this act, 56 G. 3. c. 63. s. 1.

6. The committee appointed under 52 G. 3. c. 44. by H. M. shall remain the committee, unless any or all of them are altered by H. M., who may appoint others in their places (s. 2.), but shall not consist of less than 10, or more than 20 persons, (s. 3.), and any 3 of such committee may make bye-laws for classing, clothing, &c. the convicts, and add to and alter them, but subject nevertheless to the confirmation of the court of K. B. (s. 4.) and shall also appoint one of their body to be visitor in the intervals of their meetings, id. s. 5.

7. Such committee may elect a governor, a chaplain, a secretary and examiner of accounts, a surgeon or apothecary, a master-manufacturer, a steward, and for the female convicts a matron, together with such task-masters and other servants as they with the approbation of the home secretary, judge necessary; and every person elected to such offices shall be removable by such committee, and any vacancy shall be supplied by like authority; and such salaries shall be annexed to such offices as such committee, with such approbation, think proper, id. s. 6.

8. Such committee may require any persons employed in such penitentiary to give such security to the governor thereof, for the due performance of their duties, in such sums, and sureties, and forms as they direct; and if any person appointed to any office therein, who is removed by such committee, shall neglect to quit such penitentiary, or to give up possession of any house or apartment therein, within the period fixed by an order in writing of such committee, not being less than 48 hours after the delivery of such order, any justice of peace for Middlesex, on application of 3 of such committee, may, by warrant under hand and seal, direct the sheriff to remove such person; and he shall thereupon do so, and clear the possession thereof, as upon an habere facias possessionem, id. s. 8.

9. Such governor shall be a body corporate, and sue and be sued by the name of "the governor of the general penitentiary at Millbank, in the county of Middlesex," id. s. 9.

10. Such governor may contract for clothing, diet, &c. for the convicts, with the approbation of the committee, and carry on trade, &c. in such penitentiary, and sell the goods made there, (s. 10.); the committee may direct how the accounts shall be kept, and appoint a sub-committee for their examination, (s. 11.) and may examine on oath such governor and other the servants of the penitentiary, and persons to whom any thing belonging to the penitentiary was sold, or any of the convicts touching such accounts; and in case of fraud, the offenders shall make satisfaction, and be dismissed, and may be indicted at the sessions, and fined and imprisoned, id. s. 12.

11. H. M., by order in writing notified to the home secretary, may direct any person who may be under sentence of transportation for any offence committed within Eng. or Wa., and who, having been examined by a surgeon or apothecary, appears free from any infectious distemper, and fit to be removed, to be removed to such penitentiary for 5 years, in case such offender was sentenced to be transported for 3 years; and for 7 years if so sentenced for 14 years; and for 10 years if so sentenced for life, id. s. 13.

12. Any number of convicts not exceeding 600 male and 400 female, may, with the approbation of one of the principal secretaries of state, be at one time imprisoned, employed, and managed in such penitentiary, under 56 G. 3. c. 63. and this act, 59 G. 3. c. 136. s. 1.

13. All the provisions of 56 G. 3. c. 63. relating to persons under sentence of transportation for any offence committed in Eng. or Wa., and confined in any gaol, shall extend to any person under like sentence for offences committed in any part of G. B., whether confined in gaol or on board of any ship, under 19 G. 3. c. 74., or 25 G. 3. c. 36., id. s. 2.

14. The powers of 56 G. 3. c. 63. relating to sheriffs or gaolers, shall extend to the superintendant or other commander of any vessel, or other person having the custody of any person who may be confined on board any such vessel, id. s. 3.

15. If any convict is removed to such penitentiary, who, having been under sentence of transportation for 7 years, previous to his removal, has been confined in gaol for part of such term, he shall be confined in such penitentiary under this act for five-seventh parts of the residue of his term of 7 years, excluding the fractional part of a week; and if sentenced to 14 years transportation, and has been so confined before such removal, he shall be confined for one half of the residue of 14 years, excluding the fractional part of a day; and if under sentence of transportation for life, the term of such convict's imprisonment in such penitentiary for 10 years, shall be computed from the time of his reception there, 56 G. 3. c. 63. s. 14.

16. The sheriff or gaoler having the custody of any convict whose removal is so ordered, shall, on the notification of such order, convey him to the penitentiary, and there deliver him to the governor, together with a copy attested by the sheriff or gaoler, of the caption and order of the court where the convict was tried, containing the sentence of transportation, by virtue whereof he was in custody, and also a certificate of his age, and an account of his behaviour in prison before and after trial, and the gaoler's observations of his temper and disposition, and such information on his connections and former course of life as he may know; and such governor shall give a receipt to such sheriff or gaoler for his discharge, 56 G. 3. c. 68. s. 15.

17. All expences which such sheriff or gaoler shall incur in such removal, shall be paid by the county, city, or place for which the court convicting the party was held, and they shall receive the money of the treasurer of the county, &c., the same expences being first allowed by the quarter or other general sessions, who shall make order in that behalf, id. s. 16.

18. After the delivery of any such convict into the custody to which he was ordered, such governor, or other person having the custody of convicts under his direction, shall have the same power over such convict as are incident to the office of sheriff or gaoler; and in case of any abuse of such custody, or other misbehaviour or negligence in his office, shall be liable to the same punishment as a gaoler by law is liable to, id. s. 17.

19. If any convict confined in the penitentiary becomes insane during such confinement, and is so reported by the committee to the home secretary, such secretary may have such convict removed to a proper place of confinement, on recovery to be returned to the penitentiary in like manner, as any prisoner becoming insane after and while under sentence in any other gaol, id. s. 18.

20. Such penitentiary, and all buildings, &c. belonging thereto shall be exempt from all public or parochial taxes, rates, &c., and no person employed therein, or no child born therein shall thereby gain a settlement in the parish where such penitentiary is, id. s. 41.

21. Every convict when first brought, shall be separately lodged and washed, and afterwards examined by the surgeon, and his clothes burnt or sold, and he shall not be dismissed at the expiration of his term of confinement, if then suffering under any dangerous disease. And when finally discharged, decent clothing shall be furnished to him, and likewise a sum not exceeding 3*l.*, and if taken into service and retained for one year, he shall be entitled to a further sum not exceeding 3*l.* (s. 19.), and he shall be kept to hard labour, and if necessary be previously instructed in the nature of his work (s. 20.), and all the convicts shall be kept and lodged separate, both at work and at rest, except where necessity requires them to be together (s. 21.), and shall have certain allowances for diligence (s. 23.), and be divided into two classes according to the terms they have each been confined in the penitentiary, and may be transferred from 1st to 2d class for merit (s. 24.), and the committee shall recommend those who show extraordinary diligence to H. M. as fit objects of mercy (s. 25.), and they shall be fed and clothed with wholesome food and coarse apparel, and shall be allowed none other, id. s. 26.

22. No person, except the officers or servants of the penitentiary, or such person as may be authorized according to the regulations established by such committee, shall be permitted to enter any of the apartments or court-yards allotted to the prisoners, or to hold communication or conversation with any of them, id. s. 27.

23. The governor may, with consent of committee, employ any convicts of the second class as overseers of works, and for care of fellow convicts, id. s. 28.

24. The chaplain shall read prayers and preach a sermon in the morning and the evening (s. 30.), and shall baptise all persons born, and bury such as die within such penitentiary, and keep a register of the same, and transmit a copy thereof to the incumbent of the church of St. John the Evangelist, in Westminster (s. 31.), and the convicts shall walk and air themselves (s. 32.), and when sick be visited by the surgeon, and if necessary, sent to the infirmary (s. 33.), and the committee shall examine the penitentiary, and inspect the accounts, id. s. 34.

25. The committee may administer oaths where inquiry is hereby directed (s. 37.); the governor shall keep a list of persons in his custody, and their offences, and note down all such as are discharged, or such as die in his custody, or escape, and shall report the same in every term to K. B. (s. 38), and the committees shall report the state of the buildings, &c. (s. 38.), and their bye-laws, to H. M. and parliament, id. s. 39.

26. Such penitentiary, and all the buildings thereof, shall be exempt from all public and parochial taxes, but no person belonging to such penitentiary, or employed therein, and no child born therein, shall thereby gain a settlement (s. 41.), and the expences attending the execution of the act shall be laid before the house of commons, id. s. 42.

27. If any person shall rescue any convict ordered to be confined within such penitentiary, either during his conveyance there, or whilst he is in custody of the person under whose charge he is so confined, or if any person shall aid or assist in such rescue, such person shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and may be confined within such penitentiary for any term not less than one year or more than 5; and if any person having the custody of such convict, or being employed by such person having such custody as a keeper, turnkey, &c. shall voluntarily permit such convict to escape, or if any person shall, by supplying arms or tools, or instruments of disguise, or otherwise by aiding, &c. in any such escape, or in any attempt to escape, though no escape be made, or shall attempt to rescue any such offender, or shall aid, &c. therein, though no rescue be made, such person shall be guilty of felony; and if any person having such custody, or being so employed, shall negligently permit any such convict to escape, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction liable to fine or imprisonment, or both in discretion of the court, 56 G. 3. c. 63. s. 44.

28. Any convict escaping, breaking prison, or being rescued as aforesaid, shall be tried before the justices of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery, or at the great sessions, either for the county where he is apprehended, or where the offence was committed; and in case of prosecutions for any such offences, a copy, properly attested, of the order of commitment to such penitentiary, shall, after proof made that the person in question before the court is the same that was delivered with such order, be sufficient evidence to the court and jury that such person was so ordered to such confinement, id. s. 45.

29. Such committee or visitor may direct any person, not being an officer or servant of such penitentiary, or a convict, to quit the same, by order in writing, and in case he neglect to quit within six hours after such order served on him, a justice of peace for Middlesex may have him removed (s. 46.); and such penitentiary shall be regulated by this act, and no other act relating to gaols, &c. shall extend to it, id. s. 47.

30. Any pecuniary penalties created by this act, for the recovery of which no mode is before prescribed, shall be recoverable before two justices for the county, city, or place where the offence was committed, on proof of the offence by the oath of one witness, or a confession; and one moiety thereof shall go to the use of the penitentiary, and the other to the informer, and in case of non-payment, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and seals of such justices, rendering overplus, after penalty and expences deducted, to the owner; and for want of such distress, the offender shall be sent to the gaol of the county, &c. for not less than 1, or more than 6 months, in the discretion of the justices, id. s. 48.

31. The provisions of the 24 G. 3. c. [so in the act, but QU. if not 24 G. 2. c. 44.], and all other acts, for rendering justices safe in the execution of their offices, shall extend to all persons members of such committee, and such governor; so as no action shall be brought against them for any thing done under this act, without notice, to enable them to tender amends; and if any action or suit is prosecuted against any person, for any thing done in pursuance hereof, they may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and if a verdict shall pass for the defendants, or the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinued after issue proved, or has judgment against him, on demurrer, or otherwise, the defendant shall have treble costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, and such plaintiff shall not have costs in such actions if he obtains a verdict, unless the judge will certify his approbation of the verdict, id. s. 49.

32. All actions or prosecutions against any person for any thing done in pursuance hereof, shall be laid and tried in the county or place where the fact was committed, and shall be commenced within 6 months afterwards, id. s. 50.

33. Officers and servants may be increased or diminished by the committee, with consent of the secretary of state (s. 11.), days and hours of work of convicts, proviso for voluntary labour, 59 G. 3. c. 156. ss. 11, 12.

34. No officer or servant of such penitentiary, nor other person, shall supply or bring in to any convict therein, any money, clothing, provisions, or diet, or other article, or any spirituous or other liquors, except such money, &c. as the governor may permit, and except such diet and liquors, as the surgeon shall think proper in case of illness, and shall not bring in, do, or carry out from any convict, otherwise than according to the rules, &c. any letter or paper, on pain that if such person shall be an officer, or servant of such penitentiary, he shall be suspended, and the governor shall report the same to the committee, who shall enquire thereof by oath, and punish him by forfeiture of office, and prosecute him before a justice, who may, on conviction, fine him 10*l.* and if he be not such officer, he shall forfeit from 40*s.* to 5*l.*, at the discretion of convicting justice, id. s. 13.

35. The governor may hear complaints of certain offences arising within such penitentiary, and punish the offenders to a certain extent (s. 14.), and for offences which he cannot punish, he may confine the offenders till the next meeting of the committee, who may examine on oath, and determine the same, and extend the punishment inflicted by the governor (s. 15.), and shall report to H.M. and the parliament all bye-laws, id. s. 16.

36. If any convict so ordered to be confined in such penitentiary, shall break prison, or escape from his place of confinement, or in his conveyance there, or from the person having the custody of him, he shall be punished by an addition of 3 years to the term for which he shall be at such time subject to be confined, and if he shall afterwards be convicted of a second escape or breach of prison, he shall be adjudged guilty of felony, without clergy; and if any convict so ordered into such confinement, shall, during the term thereof, attempt to break prison, or escape from such place of confinement, or shall forcibly break out of his cell, or make any breach therein, he shall be punished by an addition, not exceeding 6 calendar months, to the term for which he is then liable to be confined, 56 G. 3. c. 63. s. 17.

37. Committee empowered to reward meritorious convicts on and after discharge, id. s. 18.

38. Persons taking an oath under this act, and wilfully forswearing themselves in such oath, shall, on conviction, suffer such punishment as by law may be inflicted on persons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury, id. s. 19.

39. All the powers, &c. contained in the 56 G. 3. c. 63. shall be in force where not hereby altered, id. s. 20.

PERJURY.

(STATUTE expired.)

AGAINST PERJURY, unlawful maintenance and corruption in officers, 11 H. 7. c. 25. [CON. 12 H. 7. c. 2. EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF SUCH PERSONS as shall procure or commit any wilful perjury, 5 El. c. 9. and ss. 1—2. [CON. 15 El. c. 25. s. 14., 14 El. c. 11. s. 8. MADE PERP. 29 El. c. 5. s. 1.; but CON. 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 29.; and again MADE PERP. 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 8.]

2. All persons who shall corruptly procure any witness by letters, rewards, promises, or other sinister means, to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, in any matter depending in suit, by writ, action, bill, complaint, or information, concerning lands and hereditaments, goods, debts, or damages, in the court of chancery or any of the courts of record, or in any leet, view of frankpledge, or law day, ancient demesne court, hundred court, court baron, or in the courts of the stannary in Devon and Cornwall, or shall corruptly procure or suborn any witness sworn to testify in perpetuam rei memoriam; shall, being convicted, forfeit 40*l.*, 5 El. c. 9. s. 3.

3. If such offender have not goods or lands to the value of 40*l.* he shall suffer imprisonment one half-year, and stand upon the pillory one hour in some market town adjoining, in open market there, or in the town itself where the offence was committed, id. s. 4.

4. No person so convicted shall be received as a witness in any court of record, until the judgment given against such person be reversed; and upon every such reversal the parties grieved shall recover their damages, against such as did procure such judgment to be first given against them, by action upon the case, id. s. 5.

5. If any person, either by subornation, unlawful procurement, or means of any other, or by their own act, wilfully and corruptly commit wilful perjury, in any of the courts in s. 3. mentioned, or on being examined ad perpetuam rei memoriam, every person so offending, and being convicted, shall forfeit 20*l.* and have imprisonment for 6 months, and the oath of such person shall not be received in any court of record, until the judgment be reversed by attain or otherwise; and upon such reversal the parties grieved may recover their damages, as in s. 5. directed, id. s. 6.

6. If the offender have not goods to the value of 20*l.* he shall be set on the pillory in some market place, by the sheriff, if without any city or town corporate, and if within such city, &c. by the head officer, and there have both his ears nailed, and be disabled for ever to be sworn in any of the courts of record aforesaid, until the judgment be reversed, and thereupon to recover his damages as in s. 5., id. s. 7.

7. The one moiety of which money forfeited shall be to H.M., and the other to such person grieved by reason of the offence, that will sue for the same by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no essoins, &c., id. s. 8.

8. As well the judges of such courts where such perjury shall be committed, as also the justices of assize and gaol delivery, and the justices of peace within Eng. or Wa. at their quarter sessions, shall enquire of all offences contrary to this act, by inquisition, presentment, bill or information, or otherwise lawfully hear and determine the same, and shall give judgment and award process, id. s. 9.

9. The justices of assize shall in every county twice in the year, in their sittings, make proclamation of this statute, id. s. 10.

10. This act shall not extend to any ecclesiastical court, but that such offenders may be punished by such laws as heretofore used in the ecclesiastical courts, id. s. 11.

11. If any person upon whom process out of any court of record is served, to testify concerning any matter depending in the same court, and having tendered according to their calling such costs as are necessary, regarding the distance of the place, do not appear according to the process, having not a reasonable impediment; the party making default shall forfeit 10*l.* and yield such further recompence to the party grieved, as by the discretion of the judge of the court the party which procured the process shall sustain; such sums to be recovered by the party grieved by action of debt, &c. or information in any court of record, wherein no essoin, &c., 5 El. c. 9. s. 12.

12. This act shall not restrain the power given by 11 H. 7. c. 25. to the lord chancellor and others of H. M.'s council to examine and punish riots, routs, and perjuries, and other offences and misdemeanors commonly heard, &c. in the star-chamber [abolished 16 C. 1. c. 10.] nor the power of the lord president of the marches of Wa. [abolished 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 27. s. 2.] nor of any judge having absolute power to punish perjury; but that they may proceed as heretofore, so that they do not set less punishment on the offender than herein contained, id. s. 13.

13. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING and further punishment of perjury and subornation of perjury, 2 G. 2. c. 25. ss. 2. 4, 5. [REV. and MADE PERT. 9 G. 2. c. 18. s. 1. See rest of this act, s. 6. FORGERY, s. 3. FELONY.]

14. Besides the punishment already to be inflicted by law for wilful and corrupt perjury, or subornation of perjury, the court before whom any person is convicted of such crimes may order such person to be sent to the house of correction within the same county for not exceeding 7 years, there to be kept to hard labour; or to be transported for 7 years to H. M.'s plantations, as the court shall think proper; and judgment shall be given, and the offender so punished over and above the ordinary punishment accordingly; but if transportation be directed, the same shall be executed as by law provided for transportation of felons; and if any person so committed or transported shall voluntarily escape or break prison, or return from transportation before his term is expired, he shall, on conviction, suffer death as a felon, without clergy, and be tried for such felony in the county where he so escaped or is apprehended, id. s. 2. [Not to extend to Scot., id. s. 4. No attainer for felony under this act shall work corruption of blood, id. s. 5.]

15. TO RENDER PROSECUTIONS FOR PERJURY and subornation of perjury more easy and effectual, 23 G. 2. s. 11.

16. In every information or indictment for wilful and corrupt perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged, and by what court, or before whom the oath was taken (averring such court or person to have authority to administer the same), together with the proper averment to falsify the matter wherein the perjury is assigned, without setting forth the bill, answer, information, indictment, declaration, or any part of any record or proceeding; and without setting forth the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed, id. s. 1.

17. In every information or indictment for subornation of perjury, or for corrupt bargaining with others to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the offence charged, without setting forth the bill, answer, &c. and without setting forth the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed, or agreed to be committed, id. s. 2.

18. Any justice of assize, or nisi prius, or general gaol delivery, or at any of the great sessions of W. & A., or of the counties palatine (sitting the court or within 24 hours after) shall direct any person examined as a witness before them to be prosecuted for perjury, in case there appear a reasonable cause; and assign the party injured, or other person undertaking such prosecution, counsel, who shall do their duty without fee; and every prosecution so directed shall be carried on without payment of any tax, or fees in court, or to any officer of the court; and the clerk of assize, or his associate or prothonotary, or other officer of the court attending when such prosecution is directed, shall, without fee, give the party injured, or other person undertaking such prosecution, a certificate of the same being directed, with the names of the counsel assigned him; which certificate shall be deemed sufficient proof of such prosecution having been so directed. Provided that no such direction or certificate shall be given in evidence upon any trial against any person upon a prosecution so directed, id. s. 3.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

(STATUTE expired.)

FOR BETTER SEARCHING AND EXAMINING OF ALL DRUGS, medicines, waters, oils, or compositions used or to be used as medicines, in all places where the same are exposed to sale or kept for that purpose within London and its suburbs, or 7 miles circuit of the city, 10 G. 7. c. 20. [CON. for 3 years by 15 G. 1. c. 27. s. 3. but now EXP. See title APOTHECARY.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. CONCERNING PHYSICIANS AND SURGEONS, 3 H. 8. c. 11.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

2. No person within the city of London, or 7 miles thereof, shall exercise as a physician or surgeon except he be examined and approved by the bishop of London or dean of St. Paul's, calling to them 4 doctors of physic, and for surgery other expert persons in that faculty; and after the first examination, 4 of them that have been so approved, on pain of forfeiture for every month that they shall so practise, 5*l.*; one half to H. M. and the other to any that will sue by action of debt, 5 H. 8. c. 11. s. 1.

3. No person out of the said city and precinct of 7 miles, except approved as above, shall exercise as a physician or surgeon in any diocese, unless first examined and approved by the bishop, or his vicar-general in his absence from the diocese, calling to them such proper persons as their discretion shall think convenient, and giving their letters testimonials on like pain, id. s. 2.

4. Nothing herein shall prejudice the universities of Oxford or Cambridge, id. s. 3.

5. THE WARDENS AND FELLOWSHIP OF SURGEONS in London shall be discharged of constableness and of all manner of office bearing armour, and also of inquests and juries in London, [to extend to barbers surgeons admitted according to 3 H. 8. c. 11. now REP. by 18 G. 2. c. 15.] 5 H. 8. c. 6.

6. CONCERNING PHYSICIANS, 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 5. (& s. 1.) [CONF. 1 M. S. 2. c. 9. s. 2.]

7. The corporation of the commonalty and fellowship of the faculty of physic erected by letters patent at Westminster, 22d Sep. 10 H. 8. and every thing contained in such letters patent are confirmed in parliament, [14 & 15 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.] and the 6 persons therein named, choosing to them 2 or more of the commonalty, shall be called elects, who shall yearly choose one of them president; and as often as any of their places shall be void by death or otherwise, the survivors of the elects (within 40 days) shall choose more of the faculty in London to supply the number of 8; so that they be first by the said survivors straightly examined after a form devised by the elects, and approved by the survivors, id. s. 2.

8. No person shall be suffered to practise in physic through Eng. until he be examined at London by the president and 3 of the elects, and have from them letters testimonials of their approving and examination, except he be a graduate of Oxford or Cambridge, having accomplished all things for his form without any grace, id. s. 3.

9. CONCERNING THE PRIVILEGES OF PHYSICIANS, 32 H. 8. c. 40.

10. The president of the commonalty and fellowship of physicians, and the commons and fellows thereof, shall be discharged to keep watch or ward in London or its suburbs, and shall not be chosen constable or any other officer therein, id. s. 1.

11. Such president, commons, and fellows, may yearly elect 4 of the said commons and fellows, who, after oath ministered by the president or his deputy, shall have power to enter the house of every apothecary within the said city to search such apothecary's wares and drugs as they have in their houses, and all such drugs as they shall find defective they, calling to them the wardens of the mystery of the apothecaries, [see 55 G. 3. c. 194. s. 3. as to like power of search by the latter,] shall cause to be burnt or otherwise destroy the same; and if the apothecaries do obstinately or willingly refuse the said 4 persons to enter their houses for the purpose before rehearsed, they shall forfeit 100*s.*; one half to H. M. and the other to him that will sue; and if the 4 persons elected refuse to be sworn, or obstinately refuse to make the search once in the year, having no lawful impediment, every of them shall forfeit 100*s.* for such default, id. s. 2.

12. Any of the fellowship of physicians, being admitted by the said president and fellowship, may practise the science of physic, including surgery, id. s. 3.

13. CONCERNING BARBERS AND SURGEONS TO BE OF ONE company, 32 H. 8. c. 42. [IN FORCE, semble, as to s. 2., but semble REP. as to s. 1. and s. 5. by 18 G. 2. c. 15., and EXP. as to s. 4. and ss. 6, 7.]

14. The masters or governors of the commonality of [barbers and] surgeons of London [semble of the latter only since 18 G. 2. c. 15.] may yearly, at their pleasure, take 4 persons put to death for felonies, and make dissection thereof, for advancing the science of surgery, id. s. 2.

15. THAT PERSONS BEING NO COMMON SURGEONS MAY administer outward medicines, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 8.

16. Every subject having knowledge of the nature of herbs, roots, and waters, may minister to any outward sore, wound, apostemations, outward swelling or disease, any herbs, ointments, baths, poultice, or plasters or drinks, for the stone, strangury, or agues, according to their experience, id. s. 1.

17. TOUCHING THE INCORPORATION OF THE PHYSICIANS IN LONDON, 1 M. S. 2. c. 9., [and recital in s. 1. and s. 3.]

18. Whenever the president of the college of physic of London, or such as they shall yearly authorize to correct offenders in that faculty, shall commit any offenders against that act to any gaol within such city and precinct, (except the Tower) the gaoler shall secure them till discharged by the president and persons authorized by the college, on pain that every such gaoler doing the contrary shall forfeit double such fines as such offender is assessed to pay, so that the same be not at one time above 20*l.*, one moiety to H. M., the other to the president and college, 1 M. 6. 2. c. 6. s. 4.

19. The wardens of the grocers may go with the physicians in their search, and every person resisting the same shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 5.

20. All justices, mayors, sheriffs, constables, and other officers, on request, shall assist the president of the college, and all persons by them authorized for due execution of 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 5., on pain to run in contempt of H. M., id. s. 6.

21. FOR MAKING THE SURGEONS OF LONDON, AND BARBERS OF London 2 separate and distinct corporations, 18 G. 2. c. 15. [only ss. 9—11. are given, the rest of the act being of a personal nature, and s. 21. EXP.]

22. The examiners of the company of surgeons established by this act, shall, on request, examine every candidate to serve as a surgeon or surgeon's mate of any regiment, troop, company, hospital, or garrison of soldiers in H. M. S., in like manner as they examine any surgeon appointed to serve on board any ship in H. M. S., id. s. 9.

23. All freemen of this company, examined and appointed pursuant to its rules, as long as they shall use the science of surgery, shall be exempted from the office of constable, scavenger, overseer of poor, and all other parish, ward, and leet offices, and from serving on any jury or inquest; and any person chosen into any of the said offices, or returned to serve on any jury, leet, or inquest, or disturbed by reason thereof, shall, on producing a testimonial under the corporation common seal, of his examination, approbation, and freedom, to the person by whom he shall be so appointed, or by or before whom he shall be summoned, shall be discharged therefrom, id. s. 10.

24. This act shall not prejudice any privilege heretofore granted, by any act or letters patent, to the president and college, or commonalty of the faculty of physic, in London, id. s. 11.

PILLORY.

1. TO ABOLISH THE PUNISHMENT OF THE PILLORY EXCEPT IN certain cases, 56 G. 3. c. 138.

2. Judgment shall not be awarded against any person convicted of any offence, that such person do stand in the pillory, except as hereinafter mentioned; but all laws now in force, whereby any person is subject to punishment for taking any false oath, or committing wilful and corrupt perjury, or for the procuring or suborning any other person so to do, or for wilfully, falsely, and corruptly affirming or declaring, or procuring or suborning any person so to affirm or declare any thing, which, if the same had been deposed in the usual form, would have amounted to wilful and corrupt perjury, shall continue in force, and persons guilty of such offences shall incur the same punishment and penalties as before this act, id. s. 1.

3. In all cases where the punishment of the pillory has hitherto formed the whole or part of the judgment to be pronounced, the court may pass such sentence of fine or imprisonment, or both, in lieu of the sentence of pillory, as seems most fit; but nothing herein shall change or affect any punishment which may by law be inflicted, except the pillory, as by law enacted, id. s. 2.

PILOTAGE.

(STATUTES expired and repealed.)

1. FOR THE BETTER REGULATING OF PILOTS FOR CONDUCTING OF ships and vessels from Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet up the rivers Thames and Medway, 3 G. 1. c. 13. [further regulated 7 G. 1. st. 1. c. 21. s. 14., both acts CON. 10 G. 1. c. 17. s. 2., 8 G. 2. c. 21. s. 2., 25 G. 2. c. 26. s. 1., 4 G. 3. c. 12. s. 1., 18 G. 3. c. 45. s. 7., 52 G. 3. c. 26. s. 1., 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. lxx. s. 1.; AMD. 43 G. 3. c. 152., and all REP. 48 G. 3. c. 104., which is CON. 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1., and now EXP.; but all these acts continue REP. by 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1.]

2. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION AND GOVERNMENT OF PILOTS licensed by the corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, in Kent, 5 G. 2. c. 20. ss. 1. 8, 9, 12. [REP. 48 G. 3. c. 104., and 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1. (see the rest of this act, GUNPOWDER, LONDON, (Ships).]

3. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF PILOTS FOR THE CONDUCTING OF ships and vessels into and out of the port of Liverpool, 6 G. 3. c. 61. [REP. 37 G. 3. c. 78.]

4. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF PILOTS, AND OF THE PILOTAGE OF ships and vessels navigating the British seas, 48 G. 3. c. 104. [CON., and also REP. by 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1., and now EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL REGULATION OF PILOTS AND THE pilotage of ships and vessels on the coast of Eng., 52 G. 3. c. 39. PUBLIC clause, s. 8. [AMD., and the boatmen employed in supplying vessels with pilots REGULATED, so far as relates to the coast of Kent, within the limits of the cinque ports, 53 G. 3. c. 140. PUBLIC clause, s. 18.]

2. All and every the clauses, provisions, powers, penalties, forfeitures, matters, and things relating as well to pilots appointed by the corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond, as to pilots of the fellowship of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, and to the pilotage by, and regulation of all such pilots, and also as to the conduct of all persons in matters of pilotage within the jurisdiction of such corporation of the Trinity House, and the liberty of the cinque ports, which are contained in any act of parliament heretofore made, shall be REP., 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 1. [see ss. 32, 34. and 66. 68.]

3. The corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strond may appoint and license, under their common seal, competent persons, duly skilled as pilots, for the purpose of conducting all vessels passing up and down the rivers of Thames and Medway, and all the several channels, creeks, and docks thereof, leading or adjoining thereto, as well between Orfordness and London Bridge as from London Bridge to the Downs; and from the Downs westward as far as the Isle of Wight, and in the English channel from the Isle of Wight up to London Bridge; and the lord warden of the cinque ports, and constable of Dover Castle, or his lieutenant, may appoint and license competent persons, duly skilled as pilots, for conducting all vessels passing from the westward up the Thames and Medway, i. e. from Dungeness up to London Bridge and Rochester Bridge, and from the buoy of the brake to the westward, i. e. from such buoy to the west end of the Owers; all which vessels shall be conducted and piloted by such pilots so appointed, &c. and by no other; and also except all colliers, ships, and vessels trading to Norway, and to the Cuttegat and Baltic, and likewise round the North Cape and into the White Sea; and all constant traders inwards from the ports between Boulogne inclusive and the Baltic, such ships and vessels having British registers, and coming up the north channel by Orfordness, but not otherwise; and likewise except all coasting vessels, and all Irish traders using the navigation of the river Thames as coasters: provided any pilot heretofore appointed by such corporation, or by such lord warden and constable, or his lieutenant, may pilot any vessel within such limits as he might have piloted the same before this act, under the licences or authorities granted to such pilots respectively; which respective licences shall continue in force notwithstanding this act, so that such pilots respectively do conform themselves to this act, and the rules established under it, id. s. 2.

4. Rates in schedule (A), to act annexed, may be demanded by pilots appointed by such corporation, and no other rates or other reward for piloting vessels from place to place, as herein expressed, shall be paid, id. s. 3.

5. Every pilot already appointed, or to be appointed by such corporation, under this act (except only such pilots as shall be appointed by such corporation upon their receiving certificates of examination by any sub-commissioners of pilotage as hereby directed) shall pay to such corporation, or to such person as they shall appoint, 3 guineas in Jan. yearly, which payment shall be accepted in satisfaction of all the ancient and accustomed duties payable by such pilots to such corporation, under 5 G. 2. c. 20., or any other statute or charter, and shall be applied for the use of the poor of such corporation, (after defraying thereof the expenses incurred in carrying this act into execution;) and in case such annual payment is not duly made, such corporation may suspend the defaulters from acting as pilots, until payment is made, id. s. 4.

6. No person shall be licensed by such corporation as a pilot for the Thames or Medway, or the channels leading thereto or therefrom, under this act, who has not served as mate for 3 years on board of, or been in the actual command of for one year, a square-rigged vessel, or who has not been employed in the pilot service of such corporation for 7 years, or who has not served an apprenticeship of 5 years to some pilot vessel licensed under this act; and no person shall be allowed, until after 3 years licence and service, to take charge as a pilot of any vessel drawing more than 14 feet water, in the Thames or Medway, or any of the channels thereof, until such person has been licensed and acted as a pilot for 3 years under lawful authority, on pain of forfeiting 10*l.*, as well by the person acting as such pilot, as also by the master or other person having charge of such vessel, who shall permit any such person to take charge as a pilot of the same, contrary to this provision, id. s. 5.

7. No person shall take charge of any vessel, as a pilot belonging to the society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, commonly called cinque port pilots, before he is examined by the master and 2 wardens, or by 4 wardens of such society, touching his abilities, and is approved and admitted into the society or fellowship of the Trinity House of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, by the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover Castle, or his lieutenant; and if any person shall act as a pilot belonging to such society, without having been so examined, approved, and admitted, he shall for the 1st offence forfeit 10*l.*, for the 2nd 20*l.*, and for every other 40*l.* id. s. 6.

8. No person belonging as a pilot to such society, as in s. 6., shall be allowed to take charge as a pilot of any vessel drawing more than 11 feet 6 inches water, until he has been licensed and acted as a pilot for 3 years, or of any vessel drawing more than 14 feet water, until he has been licensed and acted as a pilot for 2 years more, or of any vessel drawing more than 17 feet water, until he has been licensed and acted as a pilot 2 years more, making 7 years in the whole; and at the expiration of such 7 years, such pilot shall be again examined as to his fitness and competency, and if approved of and licensed, shall be allowed to take charge of any vessels of any draft of water: provided, that in case of the absence of pilots who have been licensed, and have acted as such for such terms respectively, the pilots in the lower classes may take charge of ships drawing more water than here specified for their years of service, and shall not be liable to any penalties for so doing; nor shall the masters of the ships who may in such case take such pilot on board, nor the owners be answerable for any loss or damage, nor shall any owner of any vessel, or consignee of goods, be prevented from recovering any loss or damage upon any contract of insurance, or upon any other contract relating to any such vessel, or any cargo on board, by reason of such pilots being so employed: provided, that in any such case the proper flag is kept flying, within the limits and distances in s. 11. mentioned, and for the period of one hour after the vessel has been at anchor, as is in this act provided for cinque port pilots coming on board of any vessel within such limits; and the master or person commanding any such vessel shall be subject to the penalties and forfeitures by this act imposed for neglecting to keep a pilot signal flying accordingly, although he shall have agreed to take any such pilot of a lower class, in case of no other pilot coming on board; and any pilot having such license as shall qualify him to take charge of any such vessel, on board of which any such pilot of a lower class shall so be, shall be entitled within such time, limits, and distance, to supersede such pilot of a lower class, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 7.

9. The master and such wardens of the society in s. 6., as are appointed to examine into the skill and ability of any person on his being first admitted as a pilot into such society, or after he has been licensed and served for 7 years, shall take the oath marked (C) in the schedule hereto annexed, to be administered by the register of the court of loadmanage, id. s. 8.

10. The rates enumerated in the table marked (B) in the schedule, may be demanded and received by any pilot licensed by the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover castle, or his lieutenant, for the conducting of any vessel from place to place, as expressed in such table, and no greater rates or other reward, id. s. 9.

11. A sufficient number of pilots of the cinque ports, not less than 18 at any one time, and in succession, without intermission, shall, at all seasonable times, by day and night, constantly ply at sea, or be afloat, between the South Foreland and Dungeness, to take charge of vessels coming from the westward; and proper signals shall be established, to be made at and from signal houses near to Dover, to give notice of fleets of vessels coming from the westward; and upon the making of any signals, giving notice of the approach of any fleet, all cinque port pilots not on duty at the time, shall, according to such rules, &c. as to number, rotation, or otherwise, as have been made, forthwith prepare to go afloat, and shall go off in sufficient time to fall in with such vessels, on pain of forfeiting, in case of neglect herein, for the first offence 20*l.*, and for the second, the offender shall be suspended from acting as a pilot for 12 months, and for the third shall forfeit his licence, and be rendered thereby incapable of acting as a pilot, id. s. 10.

12. H. M. in council may, by order published by proclamation in the Gazette, suspend so much of 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 10. as directs cinque port pilots constantly to ply at sea, for any period to be specified therein, or until further order issued; and all the provisions, penalties, &c. in relation thereto, and all clauses, &c. for enforcing the same shall thereupon be suspended, 53 G. 3. c. 140. s. 17.

13. The master, &c. of any vessel coming from the westward, and bound to any place in the Thames or Medway, not having a duly qualified cinque port pilot on board, shall, on the arrival of such vessel off Dungeness, and until she has passed the buoy of the brake, or a line to be drawn from Sandown Castle to such buoy, (unless in the mean time she has received a proper cinque port pilot on board) display and keep flying the usual signal for a pilot to come on board; and if any duly qualified cinque port pilot shall be within hail, or approaching, and within half a mile, with the proper distinguishing flag or vane flying in his vessel, such master, &c. shall, by all practicable means consistently with the safety of the vessel, facilitate such pilot getting on board, and give the charge of piloting his vessel to him; and every person commanding any such vessel, who shall not display and keep flying such signal during such time, or who shall decline to take any such pilot on board, or to give such charge of his vessel to him, or who shall not facilitate such pilot coming on board, shall forfeit double the amount which would have been demanded for the pilotage, and the further sum of 5*l.* for every 50 tons burthen of such vessel: provided such additional penalty of 5*l.* per 50 tons shall not in any case be sued for, unless the corporation of the Trinity House, as to all cases in which pilots licensed by or under such corporation shall be concerned, or unless such lord warden, or his lieutenant, shall license and authorize, by written certificate, the proceeding for such additional penalty as to all cases in which pilots by or under such lord warden are concerned: provided that if any vessel bound to the Thames or Medway shall anchor anywhere in the Downs between the South Foreland and a line drawn from Sandown Castle and the south buoy of the brake, having any licensed pilot other than a cinque port pilot on board, a cinque port pilot may repair on board the same, at any time before such vessel has been at anchor one hour with the signal for a pilot flying, and take charge of her up such rivers, but not otherwise, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 11.

14. If any cinque port pilot, taking charge of any vessel into the Thames or Medway, shall quit her at Gravesend, or in any other part of the Thames or Medway, before she has arrived at the place to which she is bound in such rivers respectively, without the consent of the person having the command thereof, unless some other duly qualified pilot shall with such consent come on board, and take the charge of such vessel for the residue of the pilotage to be performed, such pilot shall forfeit all pay to which he might be entitled for having piloted such vessel, and be subjected to such other penalty or punishment as; by virtue of this act, or of the rules, &c. to be established in pursuance hereof, any pilot shall be liable to for quitting a vessel before she shall arrive at her place of destination, (see s. 43. pl. 45.) id. s. 12.

15. The court of loadmanage shall settle the compensation to be paid to the upper book cinque port pilots, by the lower book cinque port pilots, for being allowed to take charge of ships of greater draft than they could heretofore take by law, provided such compensation so to be fixed shall be diminished, as the present 64 upper book pilots shall die, be superannuated, or discontinue to act, and such deductions shall be taken in lieu of all other allowances or contributions whatsoever from such lower book pilots, except trinity money, clerks' fees, and for widows, id. s. 13.

16. All persons licensed to act as cinque port pilots shall be subject to the regulation and government of the lord warden of the cinque ports and constable of Dover Castle; and the master and wardens of such society of pilots of Dover Castle and the Isle of Thanet, and the lord warden of the cinque ports, constable of Dover Castle, his lieutenant, and the deputy lieutenant, or either of them, with the assent of the commissioners of loadmanage or the major part of them present at an assembly called a court of loadmanage, to be held by such lord warden or his deputy, shall, within 4 calendar months after the passing of this act, make sufficient rules and orders for enforcing the observance of this act by all cinque port pilots, and for providing for the good government, constant attendance, and regulation of all such pilots, as well relating to the services of such pilots in going off to and taking charge of and conducting and navigating H. M.'s vessels, and the vessels in H. M.'s employ, as also all vessels whatever and wheresoever within the proper and usual limits of such pilots, or wherein they shall act or be, and for effectually securing the performance of all the duties and services of such pilots at all times; and may annul, alter, or amend all such rules, &c. and make such other rules, &c. as they shall deem fit; and all such rules, &c. shall, before they become binding, be forthwith printed and transmitted to the custom house in London, and there hung up in the long room; and notices shall be published in the Gazette, and also put up at the custom houses within the cinque ports, of such rules, &c. or any alterations thereof, for inspection, for one calendar month, in order that any persons interested therein may transmit to the lord warden of the cinque ports, or his lieutenant, any objections they may have thereto; and if no objection to the rules, &c. so made or altered is proposed within 30 days after the notices so given, they shall have the same force as all other rules, &c. for the governance of pilots within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports have; but if an objection is so made, &c. to any rule, or to any alteration thereof, of which notice is so given within 30 days after the publication thereof, then the operation thereof shall be suspended until reference is had to the privy council, who may hear, as well any person who shall be deputed by the court of loadmanage, as by the person objecting, and decide as to the confirming, altering, or rejecting such rules or regulations, which decision shall be final and binding on all parties; and copies thereof shall be delivered to every member of such society, and also to every new member of such society on his election, and a copy or extract thereof shall be in the possession of every pilot belonging to the cinque ports; and such rules, &c. may establish rates of payment out of such surplus earnings of the lower book pilots, as may arise from their being allowed to take the higher classes of ships in the absence of pilots of the upper book, under this act, for the better maintenance of the upper book pilots, and also penalties and forfeitures for the enforcing such rules, &c. and better ordering of such pilots, and for suspending or depriving any of them of their licences for breaking such rules or orders, or omitting to do any thing required by the same, or for acting in anywise contrary to such rules or orders, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 14.

17. If such rules, &c. as in s. 14., when made and transmitted, appear to be in any material point defective, any owner of ships, or other persons interested, may apply to the privy council, who shall amend, correct, or enlarge the same, &c.; which rules, &c. so made or amended, &c. shall be distributed, published, and made use of, in such manner as such privy council shall appoint; and shall take effect from such time as in such rules, &c. expressed, id. s. 15.

18. Whereas by 5 G. 1. c. 15. and 48 G. 3. c. 104. the number of cinque port pilots was to be 140, it is enacted, that 20 cinque port pilots more shall be added whenever such addition shall be directed by an order of the privy council, upon application made for that purpose by the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strand; and that a further addition of 20 cinque port pilots shall be made to the number above-mentioned, increasing the whole number to 180, by the like authority, whenever the same is so applied for, id. s. 16.

19. Whenever the increased numbers of pilots shall take place, the same shall be kept up by the appointment of pilots in succession as vacancies happen; provided, that after the conclusion of a definitive treaty of peace with France, no vacancy shall be so filled up without a special permission from the privy council, upon the recommendation of such corporation of Trinity-house, unless the number of pilots shall at any time be reduced below 140, in which case the vacancies shall be filled up from thenceforth, so as not to exceed 140 in the whole, id. s. 17.

20. All pilots whose licences or warrants shall authorize them to pilot vessels from any place to the westward, up to London Bridge, shall qualify themselves, and shall be examined as to their qualification and ability to conduct any vessel into and out of Ramsgate harbour, and the harbours of Dover, Sandwich, and Margate, and shall be obliged to pilot any vessels into and out of such harbours; and if any such pilot shall refuse to take charge of or conduct any vessel into or out of any of such harbours, he shall forfeit all pay to which he might otherwise be entitled for the pilotage, and be subject to such fine or other punishment as shall be established in that behalf by the rules, &c. of the corporation or society to which he belongs, id. s. 18.

21. Every licensed pilot who shall take charge of and conduct any vessel into or out of any such harbours, shall receive for such pilotage after the rate of 5s. for every foot of the draught of water of the vessel piloted, if such vessel has been so piloted into or out of the same in moderate weather, but if under any circumstances of distress, then such pilot shall be entitled to such further sum, to be calculated according to the extent and circumstances of such distress, as the commissioners of salvage, established under the lord warden of the cinque ports, shall, upon application either of the pilot, or owner or master of any such vessel, direct; and such commissioners shall, upon any such application made, enquire into all such circumstances, and determine the amount so to be paid: provided that on the arrival of any vessel, and as soon as she shall be moored in any of such harbours, the pilot may demand the pilotage due to him, and quit the ship forthwith, id. s. 19.

22. The Trinity-house may appoint (as often as they shall think fit) competent persons at such ports or places in Eng. as they may think requisite (except within the liberty of the cinque ports, and all such other ports and places within or for which provision has been made by any statute, or by any charter for the appointment of pilots) not to exceed 5 nor less than 3 persons at each port or place for which any such appointment is made, who shall be called sub-commissioners of pilotage, and shall take the oath in schedule (D) for the faithful discharge of their duty; and shall (so long as their respective appointments are not revoked or superseded) examine into the qualification of persons to act as pilots for such ports and places, and the adjoining coasts, specified in their respective appointments; and such corporation, upon receiving a satisfactory certificate, under the hands of any 3 of such persons, where the whole number of any port or place shall consist of 4 or 5, and by any 2 where of 3, that the person examined is duly qualified to act for such ports and the adjoining coasts, may give a licence to such person to act as a pilot within the particular limits (describing the same) for which he has passed such examination; which licence shall be granted in the first instance for one year, and shall afterwards, from year to year, be subject to renewal and confirmation, or otherwise, at the discretion of the said corporation: provided that the sub-commissioners already appointed under the 48 G. 3. c. 104. shall continue to act in the same manner as if they were appointed under this act, id. s. 20.

23. The corporation of the Trinity-house of the ports of Hull and Newcastle respectively, may appoint sub-commissioners of pilotage to examine pilots and give licences for pilots for piloting vessels into or out of any ports, harbours, or places, within the limits of their jurisdictions, id. s. 21.

24. Nothing in this act shall prevent any vessel which shall be brought into any port in Eng. by any pilot duly licensed, from being afterwards removed in such port by the master or mate, or other person belonging to any such vessel, and having the command thereof, or if in ballast, by any other person appointed by any owner, or the master, or any agent of the owner, for the purpose of entering into or going out of any dock, or for changing her moorings, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 24.

25. When the Trinity-house has licensed pilots for any particular port, and the coasts near the same, they shall cause notice of such appointment to be published, by fixing up such notice in writing at the Trinity-house, and at the custom house in London, and also at the custom houses of the ports for which, and the coasts near the same, such appointment is made; and shall also, afterwards, cause such notice to be published in the London Gazette, and in one or more newspapers circulated in that part of the country where the ports are respectively situated, which publication in the London Gazette shall be good evidence of the notice having been given; and from a time limited in such notices, which shall not in any case, of in relation to any vessels whatever, be less than 6 weeks from the publication thereof, and shall be proportionably more, at the discretion of such corporation, in relation to vessels engaged in foreign voyages at the time of such publication; all vessels sailing, navigating, or passing into or out of such ports, or upon the coasts thereof, shall be conducted and piloted by such pilots only as shall be so licensed, and by no other, id. s. 25.

26. If any person suspended, or adjudged to have forfeited his licence as a pilot, shall take upon himself to conduct any vessel, except in cases of distress, and where no licensed pilots can be found, he shall be liable to all such penalties, to be recovered and applied in like manner as is provided by this act against any person who shall pilot any vessel without ever having been licensed as a pilot, id. s. 24.

27. Every pilot who is suspended, or adjudged to have forfeited his licence, and every person, who, having complained of any such pilot, is dissatisfied with the adjudication made upon the matter by the corporation, society, or persons who have cognizance of such complaint, may appeal to the privy council, who shall thereupon hear the appeal, and confirm or annul any former adjudication in the premises, or make any particular and special order relating thereto, and to the matter of such appeal, as the case requires, id. s. 25.

28. No owner or master of any vessel shall be answerable for any loss or damage, nor shall any owner of any vessel, or consignee of goods, be prevented from recovering any loss or damage upon any contract of insurance of the same, or upon any other contract relating to any vessel, or any cargo on board the same, by reason of no pilot being on board of any such vessel, unless it is proved that the want of a pilot arose from any refusal to take a pilot on board, or from the wilful neglect of the master in not using all practicable means consistently with the safety of the vessel for the purpose of taking on board any pilot who is ready and offers to take charge of such vessel, id. s. 26.

29. No owner of any such vessel shall be liable, in any such case, for any loss or damage beyond the value of such vessel and her appurtenances, and the freight due for such voyage wherein such loss or damage happens, id. s. 27.

30. Nothing in this act shall extend to any vessels belonging to H. M., as to their being compelled to take pilots on board, id. s. 28.

31. None of the clauses, penalties, or regulations of this act shall extend to any vessel not exceeding the burthen of 60 tons, having British registers, nor to any master or owner of any such vessel in respect thereof, or of the navigation of the same in any channel, river, port or place whatever, id. s. 29.

32. No owner or master of any vessel shall be answerable for any loss or damage, nor shall any owner of any vessel, or consignee of goods, be prevented from recovering any loss or damage upon any contract of insurance of the same, or upon any other contract relating to any vessel, or any cargo on board the same, by reason of any neglect, default, incompetency, or incapacity of any pilot taken on board of any such vessel under this act, id. s. 30.

33. Nothing herein shall extend to deprive any persons of any remedy by civil action against pilots or other persons, which they might have had if this act had not been passed, id. s. 31.

34. Nothing herein shall extend to the taking away, abridging, &c. of any grants, liberties, franchises, or privileges heretofore granted by any charters or acts of parliament to the pilots of the Trinity-house of Kingston-upon-Hull, or of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, or to give any authority to the corporation of the Trinity-house of Deptford Strand, within any ports or districts having separate jurisdictions in matters of pilotage under any act or charter; or to alter or repeal any provisions contained in any act of parliament relating to the pilots of any ports or districts in relation to which provisions have been made in any act of parliament, as to pilots or pilotage, or the pilotage within the limits prescribed by any statute relating to pilotage for such ports, or to the burthen of vessels navigating to or from such ports, id. s. 32. [see s. 1. pl. 2. s. 66. pl. 68.]

35. Nothing in this act shall prevent the master or mate of any vessel, or owner or part-owner, residing at Dover, Deal, or the Ile of Thanet, from conducting or piloting his own vessel up or down the Thames or

Medway, or into or out of any port or place within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 36.

36. Any licensed pilot may supersede any person not licensed as a pilot in the charge of any vessel within the limits of his licence; and every master of any vessel who shall continue to act himself as a pilot, or who shall continue any unlicensed person, or any licensed person acting out of the limits for which he is qualified as a pilot, after any pilot licensed to act within the limits in which such vessel shall then actually be, has offered to take charge of the vessel; and every person assuming or continuing in the charge or conduct of any vessel, without being duly licensed to act within the limits in which she actually is, after any pilot duly licensed and qualified to act in the premises has offered to take charge of her, shall forfeit not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 20*l.*, id. s. 34.

37. The Trinity-house may establish and alter, as circumstances render necessary, regular rates of pilotage in relation to all pilotage performed in any river, port, or place, or upon any coast whatever, by any pilot licensed by them, upon their receiving certificates of examination from any sub-commissioners of pilotage hereby directed to be appointed; which rates shall be regulated by and proportioned as well to the size and draught of water of the vessels, as to the distance piloted, the detention and responsibility of the pilot, and such other circumstances as they may think fit to take into consideration in fixing such rates; of which establishment or alterations of rates of pilotage, notice shall be given by hanging up printed tables thereof, corrected as variations therein are made, at the several custom-houses at the ports to which such rates apply, id. s. 35.

38. If the major part in number of the pilots licensed by the Trinity-house for any particular port or place, in consequence of their receiving certificates of examinations, or in case any owners of vessels, interested in any such rates are dissatisfied therewith, such parties respectively may appeal to the privy council; and any committee of such privy council, calling to their assistance any such persons as they may think fit, may hear and determine such appeal, and settle, alter, and regulate such rates as to them appear expedient, in case the matter of appeal appears to require the making any orders therein, id. s. 36.

39. All persons licensed to act as pilots, or in pilot vessels, by such corporation of Trinity-house, by virtue of this act, shall be subject to the regulation and government of the master, wardens, and assistants of such corporation, who may as well for insuring the good conduct and constant attendance of such pilots upon their duty, as for enforcing the purposes of this act, make all such rules, &c. as they think fit, therein specifying also what annual or other sums shall be paid by any such pilots to the sub-commissioners of pilotage, for the examination of such pilots, and for granting and renewing or confirming their licences from time to time; and such master, wardens, &c. may annex such penalties for the breach of such rules &c. as to them shall seem expedient, and annul, alter, and amend any of the existing bye-laws, and make such others as they think proper, so as such rules, &c. be conformable to this act, and not repugnant to the laws; provided no bye-law hereafter shall have force before they have been examined and approved by the C. J. of K. B. or C. P., the approbation of either of which C. J.s shall be verified under his hand and seal; and all such rules, &c. so made and confirmed, shall be observed, put in execution, and have the same effect, as if enacted by this act, id. s. 37.

40. Copies of all such proposed bye-laws, rules, &c., shall be transmitted to the privy-council, and to the commissioners of customs in London, 3 calendar months before the same are submitted to such C. J. and the commissioners of the customs shall, upon the receipt thereof, cause the same to be printed, and hung up in the several custom-houses of the principal ports in G. B., to be open to public inspection, and notice shall be given in the Gazette, of such bye-laws being so hung, id. s. 38.

41. All copies of such bye-laws, rules, &c., so made and confirmed, shall be printed, and hung up in some public place in the several custom-houses of the ports in Eng. within the limits for which the pilots respectively are licensed, and also at the Trinity-house in London, id. s. 39.

42. Every person who shall apply for a licence to act as a pilot by virtue of this act, shall, before any licence is granted to him, execute a bond in a penal sum, at the discretion of such corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or the society or fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, not exceeding 100*l.*, to be paid to such corporation or society, their successors and assigns, with a condition subjoined for better securing the due obedience of such pilot to the bye-laws, rules, &c. made or to be made under this act, which bond may be given in evidence in any court of law or equity, without being stamped; provided, that all bonds before given by pilots under any former act, shall continue in force, and be deemed to be given under this act, unless new bonds shall be required by such corporation or society respectively, id. s. 40.

43. All bye-laws, rules, &c. made under the 48 G. 3. c. 104., and in force under the same at the time of passing this act, shall continue in force until annulled or allowed under this act, or other bye-laws, rules, &c. are made under this act in lieu thereof; and shall be good and valid bye-laws, rules, &c. under this act, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 41.

44. The master or person commanding any vessel bound to the Thames, and which shall repair to Standgate Creek for the performance of quarantine, shall pay the full pilotage up to Gravesend or Standgate Creek, or other place appointed for the performance of quarantine; and every pilot conducting any such vessel to Standgate Creek, shall be entitled to 8*s.* per diem, for the days he shall be obliged to remain on quarantine, id. s. 42.

45. If any pilot taking charge of any vessel into the Thames or Medway, shall quit such vessel at Standgate Creek before she has arrived at the place to which she is bound, without the consent of the captain, or other person having the command thereof, unless some other duly qualified pilot shall come on board, and shall take the charge and conduct of such vessel for the residue of the pilotage to be performed, he shall forfeit all pay to which he might be entitled for having piloted such vessel to Standgate Creek, and be subject to such other penalty or punishment as by virtue of this act, or of the rules, &c. to be established in pursuance hereof, any pilot shall be liable to for quitting a vessel before she arrives at her place of destination, id. s. 43: (see s. 12. pl. 14.)

46. A particular description of the person of every pilot shall be indorsed on his licence; and every person having the command of a vessel, on receiving a pilot on board, shall inspect his licence; and if he shall think that such pilot is not the person to whom the licence was granted, he shall forthwith transmit a copy of such licence to the corporation, or persons by whom the same was granted, stating the date thereof, together with such account and description of the person producing such licence or warrant, as may lead to the discovery of the offender, id. s. 44.

47. If any pilot licensed by virtue of this act, or otherwise duly licensed, shall keep or be concerned in keeping, either by himself, agent, or servant, or shall in any way be interested in the keeping of any public house or tavern, or place of public entertainment, or in the selling of any wine or spirituous liquors, or tobacco or tea (unless such pilot was concerned in the same before March 1808, and is duly authorized, by the corporation or authority under which such pilot shall act, to continue in such business or employment); or if any pilot so licensed, is convicted of any offence against any law relating to the customs or excise, or is concerned in, or wilfully connives at any indirect practices or frauds against such revenues, or shall procure, abet, connive at, or participate in any destruction, spoil, concealment, fraud, exaction, or corrupt practice, relating to vessels, or persons in distress at sea, or by shipwreck, or to the tackle, apparel, or furniture, or the cargoes of such vessels, or to the crew or passengers belonging thereto, or the monies, goods, or chattels of any of them, then he shall (over all other punishment and penalties for such offences) be dismissed from being a pilot, or suspended from acting as such, at discretion of the corporation, or other authority from which his licence was derived, id. s. 45.

48. No person shall take charge of any vessel, or act as a pilot, or receive any compensation for acting as a pilot, unless he is authorized thereto by some lawful licence, nor until such licence has been registered by the principal officers of the custom-house of the place at or nearest to which such pilot resides, (which officers shall register the same without fee,) nor without having his licence at the time of his so acting in his custody, ready to be produced, and which he shall actually produce to the master of any vessel, or other person desirous of employing him as a pilot; nor shall any person, although duly licensed to act as a pilot, act in that capacity out of or beyond the limits expressed in his licence, or beyond the extent of his qualification therein expressed, unless in the cases in this act so specified, of pilots of a lower class acting in the absence of pilots of higher classes; on pain of forfeiting not exceeding 30*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, for the first offence, and for any 2d or subsequent offence, not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 30*l.*, id. s. 46.

49. On the death of any pilot, his executors and administrators, or the persons to whose hands his licence shall come, shall, without delay, transmit the same to the corporation, company, or persons by whom it was granted, on pain of forfeiting for any neglect therein, or for refusal to deliver the same when demanded, not exceeding 30*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 47.

50. Such corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, and also such society of fellowship of pilots of Dover, Deal, and the Isle of Thanet, and also all other corporate bodies, or other persons having authority to appoint pilots within their respective jurisdictions, may license vessels of such size and description as appear to them proper for having pilots constantly in attendance in such vessels at sea; and for the better support of such pilot vessels, any number of pilots licensed by virtue of this act, or otherwise lawfully licensed, with the consent of such corporate bodies or persons, may constitute a joint stock company or companies, for the providing and maintaining of such pilot vessels; which companies, and such vessels, shall be subject to such regulations as shall be sanctioned and approved in that behalf by such corporate bodies or persons, 52 G. 5. c. 39. s. 48.

51. Every pilot boat or vessel, or other boat or vessel in the pilot service of any corporation or society established by law in relation to pilotage, or of any person authorized to act as a pilot by such corporation or society, shall at all times, and on every station, be fitted with black sides, and have the upper strake next the gunwale painted white, and shall, while afloat, carry a vane at the mast-head, or else a flag on a sprit or staff, which vane or flag shall be of large dimensions, proportioned to the size of the boat or vessel carrying the same, and shall be half red and half white, in horizontal stripes, of which the uppermost shall be white; and the same shall be kept in a clean and distinct condition, so as to be easily discerned at a proper distance; and shall also have the name of the principal pilot thereof for the time being, painted in broad white letters, of 5 inches in length, on a black ground on her stern, and on each bow such number as is expressed in the licence of such principal pilot; which name and numbers shall not be hid or concealed by any person, on pain of forfeiting 20*l.*, to be paid by such principal pilot, who shall be answerable for the due observance of such matters, by every person on board thereof, and every other boat not in the service of any corporation or society, carrying off a pilot, shall exhibit a similar flag on a sprit or mast, to distinguish that she has a pilot on board, id. s. 49.

52. If any boat or vessel, not having a licensed pilot on board, shall, without lawful authority, carry such distinguishing vane or flag, the owner, or the other person having charge thereof, shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 50.

53. Every pilot licensed by virtue of this act, or otherwise duly licensed, who shall, when disengaged, decline to take charge of any vessel, unless just cause is shewn, or who shall decline, on being required by any captain of any H. M.'s ships, or by any officer of the society or fellowship to which he belongs, or the master or other person having the charge of any vessel, to come on board; or who shall decline, when required by any commissioned officer in the navy, or by any principal officer of the customs, or by any person interested as principal or agent for any vessel wanting a pilot, to go off to and take charge of such vessel, when it is safe so to do; or who shall exact, or bargain for any greater hire for pilotage, than such as are allowed by the rates or rules established in that behalf; or who shall in anywise delay going on board any such vessel, or taking charge thereof when on board or alongside thereof; or who shall quit any such vessel, or decline the piloting thereof after he has been engaged, or after going alongside thereof, without leave of the captain of any of H. M.'s ships, or of the owner, master, captain, or person having the chief command of any vessel, or before the service has been performed for which he was hired; or shall, by drunkenness, render himself incapable of conducting any vessel, or negligently or wilfully run any vessel on shore, or lose the same, or do any injury to the same, or to the tackle or furniture thereof; or who shall lend his licence to any unlicensed person, to enable or assist him towards acting, or claiming to act as a licensed pilot, shall forfeit not exceeding 100*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, and be liable to be dismissed from being, or suspended from acting as a pilot, at the discretion of such corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or at the discretion of such other corporate body, or person by whom he was licensed, id. s. 51.

54. In case any pilot, licensed by virtue of this act, shall employ, or require any person having the command of any vessel, to employ or make use of any boat, anchor, cable, hawser, or any thing, in or for the service of such vessel, beyond what shall actually and bonâ fide be necessary and proper for the use thereof, with intent thereby to increase the charge of pilotage or pilot assistance of such vessel, whether for the gain and emolument of such pilot, or for other person, he shall forfeit not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, and shall also be liable to be deprived of his licence, or to be suspended from acting as a pilot for a limited time, at the discretion of such corporation of Trinity-house, or other authority by which he is licensed, id. s. 52.

55. In case any person licensed to act as a pilot by virtue of this act, or otherwise duly licensed, or any person not being a pilot, but acting under colour of pilotage, shall wilfully conduct, lead, decoy, or betray any vessel into danger, in any manner not already provided against by any statute; or shall improperly cut any cable belonging to any vessel, or procure the same to be cut improperly; or shall, by wilful misrepresentation of any circumstances upon which the safety of any vessel appears to depend, obtain, or endeavour to obtain, the conduct of any such vessel; then the person so offending, or who shall aid in, procure or connive at any such offence, shall forfeit not exceeding 100*l.*, nor less than 20*l.*; and in case he is a pilot, shall be either dismissed, or suspended from acting as a pilot for a limited period, at the discretion of the corporation or authority by whom he was licensed, id. s. 53.

56. If any such licensed pilot vessel or boat shall run before any vessel not having a licensed pilot on board, for the purpose of directing her course, until a pilot can be put on board, the pilot on board such pilot vessel, or the person having charge of her, shall be entitled to the full pilotage, for the distance run, until a duly licensed pilot is put on board, as if such person had been actually on board such ship, and had the charge of her as a pilot, 52 G. 5. c. 39. s. 54.

57. No pilot shall be taken to sea by the commanding officer of any of H. M.'s ships, or any master of any vessel in the merchant service, without his free consent, except in case of absolute necessity; and in such case he shall have 10*s.* 6*d.* per diem, until he is returned to the port or place where he was taken on board, or until he shall have been discharged from the ship for a sufficient time to have enabled him to return there, id. s. 55.

58. The surplus rates of pilotage, imposed by this act on ships not having British registers, which shall pertain to the Trinity-house, shall be paid to a receiver, to be appointed in that behalf by that corporation, at some place, within the port of London, and applied by the latter as hereinafter directed; and if such extra rates of pilotage pertain to the establishment of the cinque ports, then the same shall be paid to a receiver, to be appointed by the lord warden and the court of loadmanage at some place within the port of London, and be applied by such court as hereinafter directed; viz., in both cases to create a fund for the maintenance of such pilots as become incapable of discharging their duty, from age, or any accident or permanent infirmity; to be applied and distributed in such manner, and under such rules, &c. as the corporation of the Trinity-house, and the lord warden and court of loadmanage of the cinque ports shall respectively order; of which receipts and appropriations such corporations and courts shall annually lay an account before parliament, within 20 days after the commencement of each session, id. s. 56.

59. All sums due to any licensed pilot, for pilotage, shall be recovered from the owners or masters of vessels, or from the consignees or agents thereof, not being foreign vessels, who shall have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other charge for the vessel in the port of her delivery, and shall be levied in such manner, according to the amount, as any penalty may be under this act, demand thereof being made in writing at least 14 days before such levy, id. s. 57.

60. The consignees or agents of all foreign vessels, who have paid or engaged to pay any charge whatever in relation to such vessel, shall be liable to, and shall pay all sums for pilotage due to the pilot who piloted such vessels, on proof made within 14 days after such pilotage was performed, on the oath of such pilot before any justice of peace, that the same has not been paid by the captain of such vessel, if payment thereof is demanded from any such consignee within 21 days thereafter; and if any such sum so due and so demanded shall not thereupon be paid, then the sums so due for pilotage shall be recoverable in like manner as any penalty under 20*l.*, may be by virtue of this act; and such consignees or agents of foreign vessels may retain in their hands, out of any monies which they have received or shall thereafter receive on account of such foreign vessel, or the owner thereof, so much as is sufficient to pay such pilotage, and any expences attending the same, id. s. 58.

61. The master of every vessel piloted by any other than a licensed pilot, within any limits for which pilots are appointed, shall forfeit double the amount demandable for such pilotage, and likewise an additional penalty of 5*l.* for every 50 tons burthen of such vessel, if the Trinity-house, as to cases in which pilots licensed by or under such corporation are concerned, or the said lord warden or his lieutenant, as to all cases in which the cinque port pilots are concerned, shall think it proper that the person prosecuting should proceed for the recovery of such additional penalty, and certify the same in writing: provided, that nothing in this act shall subject to penalties any master of any vessel (not anchoring within the limits of any place for which pilots are appointed) who shall act himself as pilot in passing up and down the English Channel or elsewhere, in passing by any part of the coast of Eng. in the course of any voyage, or within the limits of the place to which his ship belongs, not being a place in relation to which provision hath heretofore been made by any statute or charter for the appointment of pilots, or who shall employ any person as a pilot, or who shall act himself as such for the conduct of his vessel, in any case where a qualified pilot shall not offer assistance or make a signal for that purpose: provided, that this act shall not hinder any persons from assisting any vessel in distress at any time or place, nor shall subject such persons, or any master employing such persons, to the penalties of this act, in respect of such assistance given during this distress, or in consequence thereof, or under any circumstances which have rendered it necessary for such master to avail himself of the best assistance which at the time could be procured, id. s. 59.

62. Every person having the command of any vessel, who shall report or be privy or consenting to any other person's reporting to any pilot taking the charge of such vessel, a false account of the draught of water of such vessel, shall forfeit, in addition to the payment of the full rate of pilotage to the pilot entitled thereto, double the amount of such pilotage; and any person having the command of any vessel, or having any interest, share, or property therein, who shall fraudulently alter any marks on the stem or sternpost thereof, denoting the draught of water, or be consenting thereto, shall forfeit 500*l.*, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 60.

63. In order to prevent or settle controversies concerning the draught of water of vessels on the Thames (not having British registers), whenever any difference about the draught of water of any vessel shall arise between the master or other person having the command, and any person who piloted the same into the river, or who is required to pilot the same therefrom pursuant to this act, such corporation of Trinity-house, or some proper officer appointed by them, shall admeasure the draught of water of such vessel, and settle the same between the parties, upon application made by either of them within 12 hours after such vessel shall arrive at her moorings in the Thames, or before the cargo is begun to be unladen, or such vessel shall quit her moorings on any outward voyage; for which admeasurement the person making the same shall be paid one guinea if the vessel shall be below or in the pool, and half a guinea if above the pool, by the person requiring such admeasurement, or making application for the same, id. s. 61.

64. Every master or other person having the command of any vessel required to be piloted according to this act, shall, on coming into the port of London, and in making his entry or report inwards, insert in such entry or report, the name of the pilot employed by him or the owner to pilot the same into such port; and which insertion shall be made (without fee) by the proper officer of the customs, who shall also report the same to the corporation of the Trinity-house monthly; and also that the principal searcher or clearing officer of the customs at Gravesend shall demand and take the names of the pilots of all vessels clearing outwards from the port of London, and transmit monthly lists of such names to such corporation, on pain of forfeiting not exceeding 10*l.*, nor less than 5*l.*, to be paid by every person who shall neglect to comply with the foregoing regulations, id. s. 62.

65. The master of every vessel, not having a British register, who shall not give the name of the pilot employed to pilot his vessel into the port of London, shall be deemed to have sailed and been navigated into such port without a pilot, and be liable to pay the same or the like pilotage for such his vessel, for the distance which he navigated and sailed up the river Thames, or the channels leading thereto without a pilot, as he would have been liable to pay if a pilot had been employed by him; and the same shall be paid to the collector appointed by the corporation of Trinity-house, and go toward the fund in s. 56.: provided that where due proof is made to the corporation of the Trinity-house, within three months after any such payment, that a pilot was regularly employed and paid, then the sum which shall have been so paid, shall be returned to any person duly authorized to receive the same, id. s. 63.

66. Lists of the christian and surnames, ages, and places of residence, of all pilots in Eng., shall, with the dates of their appointments, on or before the 31st of Dec., 1812, be transmitted to the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, distinguishing the limits within which such pilots are appointed to act, and thenceforward as each appointment of a pilot shall take place, and also duplicates of such lists to the commissioners of the customs in Eng., annexing to the lists to be transmitted to the Trinity-house, the rates of pilotage, and also stating the rules, &c. established in relation to such pilots, in case such rules, &c. have been made by any other authority than by act of parliament, or by such corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond; and the same, when so completed, shall be transmitted by the respective bodies politic and corporate, and other persons authorized to appoint pilots in any of the ports, harbours, or rivers, or on any of the coasts of Eng., by whom such pilots shall have been appointed respectively; and such bodies and other persons authorized to appoint pilots, shall transmit to such corporation of Trinity-house, at their court house in London, annually, on the 31 Dec. or within one calendar month afterwards, a list corrected up to such 31 Dec. annually, of the names and residences of the pilots within their several jurisdictions, and stating such alterations as may have been made in the rules, &c., for governing pilots within the respective districts, id. s. 64.

67. The commissioners of customs shall transmit to their principal officers at the several ports in Eng. the names and residences of pilots residing within the limits of each port, within the month from 31st Dec. 1812, and so from thenceforward the name of each pilot, of whose nomination they shall receive notice, in order that such principal officers may communicate to every pilot within the limits of their ports respectively, all proclamations or orders in council respecting the performance of quarantine by ships arriving from infected places, which such officers are hereby required to do, in pursuance of 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 16., and 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2., id. s. 65.

68. All statutes and all powers, regulations, and forfeitures contained in any act, which relate to the regulation of pilots or pilotage within any river, port, or harbour, or within any local limits specified in any such act and in which any reference is made to the 48 G. 3. c. 104., or applying thereto, or altering any of the provisions thereof as to pilots or pilotage within any such limits, shall continue in full force, notwithstanding the repeal, [48 G. 3. c. 104.], and be deemed to refer to this act, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 66. [see s. 1. pl. 2., and s. 32. pl. 34.]

69. All the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures, contained in 8 El. c. 13., or any other act in force for the preservation of beacons and sea marks, shall extend to all vessels duly appointed to exhibit lights therein for the preservation of vessels at sea, and to all persons removing, injuring, or destroying such vessels or lights; which offences may be laid and tried in any county in Eng., id. s. 67.

70. Every person who shall ride by, make fast to, or remove, or wilfully, or negligently run down or run foul of any vessel appointed or placed to exhibit lights, or any buoy or beacon belonging to the Trinity-house, or belonging to or placed by any other corporation having lawful authority so to place the same, shall forfeit not exceeding 50*l.*, nor less than 10*l.*, together with the expense of making good any damage occasioned by such misconduct, id. s. 68.

71. If any pilot having the charge of navigating any vessel within 200 yards from the respective entrances into the West India docks from the Thames, and either intended to go into, or having recently come out of the docks, basons, or other works of the West India dock company, shall refuse to obey such orders as may be given to such pilot, by the dock master of such company, under powers vested in him by 39 G. 3. c. 69. s. 80., touching the mooring, unmooring, or moving of such vessels so being under the charge of such pilot, he shall forfeit not exceeding 50*l.* nor less than 20*l.*, and shall be liable to be dismissed from being a pilot, or suspended from acting as such, at discretion of the corporation or authority by whom he was licensed, id. s. 69.

72. The corporation of the Trinity-house, and the court of loadmanage of the cinque ports, and all other corporations for managing or directing pilots in any part of Eng., under any act or charter, shall annually, within one month after the 1st Jan., transmit to the office of the receiver of the sixpenny duty in the port of London, a list of all the vessels employed by them or by persons under their authority for the purposes of pilotage, with the number of men and boys belonging to or serving in any such vessel, id. s. 70.

73. All fines, penalties, and forfeitures, by this act imposed, or by any bye-law made under the authority thereof, the manner of levying whereof is not herein otherwise expressly directed, which shall not exceed 20*l.*, or in respect of which the party prosecuting shall proceed for not exceeding 20*l.*, which he may do with the consent of the Trinity-house, or of such lord warden, or his lieutenant, in the cases in this act before mentioned, notwithstanding a greater penalty is recoverable, may be levied and recovered within 6 calendar months after the offence committed, or within such other time as is (s. 72.) directed, before any justice of peace for the county, city, division, or place, where the offence was committed; or if committed by any pilot, before any justice or magistrate of the city, town, or port, to which he shall belong; or if committed by any owner or master of any vessel, by any justice or magistrate of the county, city, town, or port, at which such owner or master resides, or to which his ship belongs; or if committed by any pilot of the Trinity-house, or of the cinque ports, or by any other person, on any part of the sea from Orfordness to the mouth of the Thames, or from Dungeness to the mouth of the Thames, or upon the Thames or Medway, then by any justice of the counties of Kent, Surrey, Essex, or Middlesex, or by any magistrate of the city of London; and such justices shall, upon complaint to them made, grant a warrant to bring before them such offenders, at the time or place in such warrant specified; and if, on conviction by confession, or the evidence of one credible witness on oath, such fine, &c. is not forthwith paid, such justices may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, &c. where such offender is convicted, for not exceeding 6 calendar months, nor less than 21 days, unless such fine, &c., and all charges attending the recovery thereof, are sooner paid, id. s. 71.

74. All fines, &c. exceeding 20*l.*, by this act imposed for any offence committed against this act, or in which the lowest penalty being less than 20*l.*, a greater sum may be awarded than 20*l.*, and in which the party prosecuting such offence shall, with the consent of the corporation of Trinity-house of Deptford Strond, or of such lord warden, or his lieutenant, in the cases in this act before mentioned, proceed for any greater sum than 20*l.* shall be recovered, with full costs of suit, by action of debt, &c. or information in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoins, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, within 12 calendar months next after the offence committed, or within such other time as in s. 72. directed; and in any such case, it shall be lawful to sue for the full penalty, and for the jury to award any sum, not less than the sum specified as the lowest, nor greater than the sum specified as the highest penalty, for the offence for which the action, &c. is brought: provided, that in such case periods of 6 calendar months, and 12 calendar months, or either of them, within which fines, &c. are to be sued for, shall in any case elapse before any prosecution hereby directed has been commenced for the recovery of such fines, &c.; and if it shall be made to appear, as soon after as the circumstances of the case admit, that the prosecution has been delayed by the absence of any party, whether offending or complaining, or of any necessary witness, then, upon such circumstances being stated by affidavit in writing, made before any judge of any of the courts of record at Westminster, such judge may order the commencement of such prosecution within such further time as he shall think fit to limit; and such prosecution may be commenced and prosecuted within the time so limited, in like manner and with like effect, as if such prosecutions had been commenced and prosecuted within such respective periods of 6 months, and 12 months, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 72.

75. Nothing herein shall affect the jurisdiction of the court of load-manage, as far as respects the pilots appointed under the authority of such court; or impair the jurisdiction of the high court of admiralty, id. s. 73.

76. In case any person against whom a warrant is issued by any justice, before or after any conviction for any offence against this act, shall escape, go into, or reside, or be in any other county, city, or place, &c., not within the jurisdiction of the justice granting such warrant, any justice of the county, &c. into which he shall so escape, may, upon proof on oath of the hand writing of any justice granting such warrant, indorse his name on such warrant; and it shall then be sufficient authority to all peace officers to execute the same in such other county, &c.; and any justice, on the offender being brought before him within his jurisdiction, may hear and determine the complaint, in the same manner as if it had originally arisen within his jurisdiction, and direct the offender to be carried to the justice who granted the original warrant, to be dealt with according to law, id. s. 74.

77. One third of all fines or penalties to be levied in pursuance of this act, or under any bye law made in pursuance thereof, shall go to the person who shall sue for the same, and the remainder to the fund of the Trinity-house, and shall be applied, after defraying thereout the expenses of carrying this act into execution, in such manner, and for the like purposes as the other funds of such corporation are applicable, in case such fines or penalties are incurred by pilots licensed by such corporation, or by any other person in relation to any matters wherein such last-mentioned pilots are in anywise concerned; and in case such fines or penalties are incurred by pilots of the cinque ports, or by pilots under any other jurisdiction or authority, or by any other person, in relation to any matters wherein pilots are in anywise concerned, then the remaining two-thirds shall go to such fund as hath been or shall be established by the persons having the direction of the cinque port or other pilots, and be applied to the use of such funds, after defraying the expenses incurred in carrying this act into execution, id. s. 75.

78. If any person summoned as a witness before any justice of peace, shall neglect to appear at the time by such summons appointed, having no just cause for such neglect, such justice, on proof of such summons having been served, and of a tender of reasonable expenses having been made, shall issue his warrant, under his hand and seal, to bring such person before him; and if on appearance he shall refuse to be examined on oath concerning the premises, without having some just cause for such refusal, such justice by like warrant may commit him to the house of correction of the county, city, or place, where he shall be apprehended, for not exceeding 6 months, nor less than 14 days, as such justice shall direct, id. s. 76.

79. Every person who, in any examination upon oath under this act, shall wilfully give false testimony, shall be liable to be prosecuted for the same by indictment, and if convicted of false swearing, shall be subject to such punishments, disqualifications, and disabilities, as any person would be for wilful and corrupt perjury in any other case, id. s. 77.

80. All justices of peace, before whom any person is convicted of any offence against this act, shall cause the conviction to be drawn up according to the following form, viz.

Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. D. is convicted before me [or, us] — one [or, two, as the case may be] of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — [here specify the offence, and the time and place when and where committed, as the case may be] contrary to an act passed in the fifty-second year of the reign of king George the third, intituled [here insert the title of this act] and I [or, we] do adjudge, that he hath therefore forfeited the sum of [here insert the penalty.] Given under my hand and seal [or, our hands and seals] the day and year first above written.

And no certiorari, or other process for the removal of any such conviction, or any proceedings thereon, into the courts of record at Westminster, shall be allowed, id. s. 78.

81. Any person so convicted by any justice before mentioned, of any offence against this act, or any rule, &c. made in pursuance thereof, within 3 calendar months next after such conviction, may appeal to the justices at the quarter sessions for the county, city, or place where the appeal shall arise, first giving 10 days' notice of such appeal to the appellee, and of the matter thereof, and within 14 days next after such notice entering into a recognizance before some justice for such county &c., with sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; and the justices there shall, upon due proof of such notice having been given and recognizance entered into, hear and determine such appeal, and may either confirm or quash such conviction, and award such costs to either party, as to them seems just, and their decision shall be final; and no proceeding had in pursuance of this act shall be quashed for want of form only, or removed by certiorari or other process into any courts of record at Westminster or elsewhere, 52 G. 3. c. 39. s. 79.

82. Actions for any thing to be done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 calendar months next after the fact committed, and laid in the county, city, or place, where the cause arises; and the defendant may plead the general issue, not guilty, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance of this act; and if it appears so to be done, or if such action is brought after the time limited, then the jury shall find for the defendant; or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or suffers a discontinuance, or if a verdict, or judgment upon demurrer is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 80.

83. Nothing in this act shall prejudice any right, property, authority, or jurisdiction of the mayor of the city of London, or of the mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, to, in, and upon the river Thames, id. s. 81.

84. One hundred and forty boatmen shall be licensed by the lord warden of the cinque ports, or his lieutenant, or the deputy lieutenant governor of Dover Castle, or such other person as the lord warden shall authorize for that purpose within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports, in order to assist ships in distress, and conducting them into the harbours of Dover, Ramsgate, Margate, and Folkstone, and putting licensed cinque port pilots on board of vessels coming from the westward, and bound up the Thames or Medway; and 50 of such boatmen shall constantly reside at Dover, 50 at Deal, 20 at Ramsgate, and 20 at Margate, and they shall be required by their licenses to reside at the place therein specified; and shall on quitting their residence, or neglecting to use such licence for 2 months, unless prevented by illness, forfeit it; and shall, before such licence is given, be examined as to their knowledge of the coast, and their ability to conduct vessels into the Downs and harbours aforesaid, by the commissioners of the lord warden of the cinque ports for salvage, and the other commissioners by this act appointed, at the places where the boatmen shall apply to be licensed, at a meeting held for the purpose of this act, upon whose certificate the lord warden, &c. shall grant such licence; and if the number of persons so qualified shall exceed the number hereby prescribed, their names shall be entered in a book, together with their times of approval and examination, and they shall succeed by rotation as vacancies occur, and licences shall be granted to them accordingly, 53 G. 3. c. 140. s. 1.

85. The mayors of Dover, Sandwich, and Deal, and also the two senior justices for such places, not being commissioners of salvage, shall be, jointly with the commissioners of salvage, commissioners to execute this act, and examine boatmen, and grant such certificates for such licences, id. s. 2.

86. The commissioners of salvage, under 48 G. 3. c. 130., may make rules for the government of such boatmen at their respective places, and the same shall be printed and hung up in the custom-houses, piers, harbours, and places to which they apply for public inspection, id. s. 3.

87. Such licences shall be free of stamp duty, (id. s. 4.) and shall be written or printed in large characters, and contain a description of the owner of it, his residence, the date of granting, and the person who granted it; and any boatman so licensed shall have, when afloat, his proper licence, and when demanded by any officer of customs or excise, or the master of any merchant ship, shall produce the same for inspection; and any boatman who shall alter or obliterate such licence, or permit it to be done, or who shall transfer or lend the same, or refuse to produce it for inspection, shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, in the discretion of such commissioners, id. s. 5.

88. No such licence, nor this act, or any rules, &c. made under s. 3. thereof, shall have any effect to alter any provision, claim, penalty, &c. in this act, or any act in force in relation to smuggling, or to exempt any such licensed boatman from the provisions of any act relating to the customs or excise, id. s. 6.

89. If any boatman licensed under this act is convicted of any offence against the customs, excise, or revenue laws, or shall be concerned in, or connive at, any indirect practice or fraud against such revenues, or procure or participate in any dishonest spoil, concealment, fraud, or corrupt practice, relating to any vessels or persons in distress at sea, or by shipwreck, or to the tackle, furniture, or cargo of such vessel, or to the crew or passengers thereof, or to the money or goods of any of them, he shall, beside all other punishments, forfeit his licence, or be suspended from acting under it, at the discretion of such commissioners, id. s. 7.

90. All such boatmen shall be paid the rates now allowed for putting cinque port pilots on board of vessels, but shall not be entitled to the same unless the pilot is actually shipped; and they may demand and receive 6s. per foot of the draft of water of any vessel piloted by them in any of such harbours as in s. 1., and 3s. per foot of such draft for piloting out of any such harbours, and such payments shall, in both cases, include the hire of the boat and crew, in moderate weather, but if such pilotage or assistance shall take place under circumstances of distress, such boatmen shall have such sum as the commissioners of salvage of the lord warden shall award, 53 G. 3. c. 140. s. 8.

91. The commissioners of salvage, at any port where they are appointed, on application of any boatman, or passenger landed by any boatman, may hear, and summarily settle, any dispute between them, and fix the sum to be paid for landing such passenger and his goods, and make such order therein as to them appears proper, and may, for that purpose, use the powers given them by 48 G. 3. c. 130. id. s. 9.

92. Only 2 licensed boatmen shall go in each boat; and where any such boatmen are cruising without licensed cinque port pilots, and shall fall in with any vessel requiring such pilot, one of such boatmen shall be left in such vessel as a guarantee for a pilot being brought off to them, and the boatman left shall not be entitled to any money for being left, id. s. 10.

93. Each such licensed boatman shall cause the number of his licence to be painted on each bow and quarter of his boat, and on both sides of all his sails, with the addition for Dover boats of D. R., for Deal boats D., for Ramsgate boats R., and for Margate boats M., in black roman letters, which figures and letters shall be 18 inches long and 12 broad; and any boatman making default herein, or having the same improperly done, shall forfeit his licence, and not exceeding *10*l., id. s. 11.

94. If any boat or vessel not having a licensed boatman on board, shall, without lawful authority, carry such distinguishing marks, the owner or person having the charge thereof shall forfeit *10*l., id. s. 12.

95. Every such licensed boatman who shall refuse to take off any cinque port pilot to any vessel, unless prevented by illness, shall, on due proof thereof to the commissioners for executing this act, forfeit his licence and not exceeding *20*l., id. s. 13.

96. If any pilot shall refuse, in his turn, to go off on duty, on application of such boatmen, he shall lose his turn, and the vessel shall be piloted by any licensed pilot who shall first get on board, but who shall not thereby lose his turn, id. s. 14.

97. All licences granted under this act shall be in force during the time the holders shall discharge their duty, and no such licence shall be annulled or suspended but upon such grounds of complaint or incapacity, negligence or misbehaviour, and an order made thereon by the commissioners for executing this act, at a meeting held for purposes of this act, id. s. 15.

98. All penalties, &c. hereby imposed shall be recovered, levied, and applied as any penalty may be under 52 G. 3. c. 39., and all the clauses, &c. therein contained for the recovery of penalties shall be applied for recovering, &c. penalties under this act, id. s. 16.

99. To RELIEVE CERTAIN FOREIGN VESSELS RESORTING TO the port of London, in respect of pilotage, and to regulate the mode of payment of pilotage on foreign vessels in such port, 55 G. 3. c. 87.

100. The corporation of the Trinity-house may make such regulations for piloting ships not having a British register, bringing fish, corn, or other provisions into the port of London, for the ease of such ships and vessels, or for their exemption from any rates of pilotage now payable by them, or from any rules, &c. as to pilotage under 52 G. 3. c. 39., or any other act for pilotage, or any rules, &c. made in pursuance of any act to be piloted by pilots licensed by such corporation, as they deem just, id. s. 1.

101. The master or person having the command of any vessel not having a British register required by law, to be piloted by a pilot licensed by such corporation, which shall enter into or sail from the port of London, or the consignees or agents of such vessels, shall pay at the Trinity-house in London, to the person appointed by such corporation, all sums due for pilotage; and such person (on production of a certificate in writing under the hand of such master, &c. or of such consignees or agents, or, in case of refusal to grant the same, on proof that such pilotage service was duly performed) shall pay over to the pilot who had the charge of such vessel the money due to him for such pilotage service, id. s. 2.

102. The rate of pilotage outward, to be paid in respect of all foreign vessels in the port of London, shall be calculated upon the scale of the tonnage of such vessel, according to what they are rated in that port to the payment of light and port dues, or according to the draft of water thereof, as such corporation shall think proper, id. s. 3.

103. The person receiving the pilotage, in respect of foreign vessels, under this act, shall, on receiving the same, give a certificate thereof under his hand; and no foreign vessel shall be cleared at the custom house in such port outward, without production of such certificate, id. s. 4.

PINS.

(STATUTE repealed.)

FOR THE TRUE MAKING OF PINS, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 6. [REP. 37 H. 8. c. 13.]

PIRACY.

(STATUTE expired.)

TO RELIEVE CAPTIVES TAKEN BY TURKISH, MOORISH, AND OTHER pirates, and to prevent the taking of others in time to come, (a duty imposed to equip a fleet to cruise against pirates for 3 years, but the same not to be drawn into example,) 16 C. 1. c. 24. [EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. CONCERNING PIRATES AND ROBBERS OF THE SEA, 27 H. 8. c. 4., 28 H. 8. c. 15. [EXT. to all offences committed at sea, 39 G. 3. c. 37.; and AMD. by permitting offences committed at sea to be tried at sea or on land abroad, 46 G. 3. c. 54. EXT. to Ire. 21 J. 1. c. 3. Ir., See, as to accessories to such offences, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 10. pl. 23.]

2. All [offences of piracy, robbery, murder, and manslaughter, 27 H. 8. c. 4., treasons, felonies, robberies, murders, and confederacies, 28 H. 8. c. 15.] done in or upon the sea, or in any other haven, river, or creek where the admiral has jurisdiction, shall be enquired, tried, and determined in such shires and places in this realm as shall be limited by H. M.'s commission, to be directed for the same in like form as if the offences had been done on land; and such commission shall be under H. M.'s great seal, and directed to the admiral or admirals, or his or their lieutenant or deputy, and to 3 or 4 such other persons as shall be named by the chancellor, and determine such offences after the course of the laws of the land used for [treasons, &c., 28 H. 8. c. 15.] felonies done in the realm, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 1., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 1.

3. [Three, 27 H. 8. c. 4. Four, 28 H. 8. c. 15.] of such persons to whom such commissions are directed, may enquire of such offences by the oaths of 12 men inhabiting the shire limited in such commission, in such manner as if the offences were committed therein, and every indictment found and presented before such commissioners of any [treasons, 28 H. 8. c. 15.] felonies, robberies, murders, or manslaughters done on the seas, or in any other haven, &c. shall be good; and if any person is indicted for any such offence there done, such process, judgment, and execution shall go against him as against [traitors, 28 H. 8. c. 15.] felons, &c. for [treasons, 28 H. 8. c. 15.] felonies, &c. done on land as by law accustomed; and his trial shall be had by 12 men so inhabiting in such shire, and no challenge to be had for the hundred; and if convicted of any such offence by verdict, confession, or process, he shall suffer death, and forfeit goods as in cases of offences done on land, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 2., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 2.

4. For robberies, felonies, and murders [treasons and confederacies, &c., 28 H. 8. c. 15.] done upon the seas or in any such places, the offenders shall not have their benefit of clergy, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 3., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 3.

5. This act shall not prejudice any person for taking any victuals, cables, ropes, anchors, or sails which are taken of necessity of any other ship that can conveniently spare them, so that such person pay out of hand for the same, or deliver a bill for the same in this form (viz.) that if such taking be on this side the straits of Marrock, then to be paid within 4 months; and if beyond, then within 12 months; and that the same be paid, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 4., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 5.

6. When any commission is directed to any place within the jurisdiction of the 5 ports, it shall be directed to the lord warden or his deputy, and unto 3 or 4 such others as the chancellor shall appoint, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 5., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 5.

7. When any commission is directed into the 5 ports for the inquisition and trial of such offences, the same shall be had by the inhabitants of such 5 ports, or the members of the same, 27 H. 8. c. 4. s. 6., 28 H. 8. c. 15. s. 6.

8. All offences committed upon the high seas, out of the body of any county, shall be offences of the same nature, and liable to the same punishments, as if they had been done on shore; and shall be enquired of, heard, tried and determined, and adjudged, as treasons, felonies, &c. are by 28 H. 8. c. 15. directed to be, 39 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.

9. When any person is tried for murder or manslaughter done on the sea, under any commission directed under such act, and shall be found guilty of manslaughter only, he shall be entitled to the benefit of clergy, and be subject to like punishment as if he had committed such manslaughter on land, id. s. 2.

10. All treasons, piracies, felonies, robberies, murders, conspiracies, and other offences, of what nature soever, committed upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place, where the admiral has jurisdiction, may be enquired of, heard, and determined according to the course of law used for offences committed on land within this realm, in any of H. M.'s islands, plantations, colonies, dominions, forts, or factories, under H. M.'s commission under the great seal of G. B. to be directed to such 4 persons as the lord chancellor shall think fit; and such commissioners, or 5 of them, shall have like powers, &c. for the trial of all such treasons, piracies, &c. within any such island, &c. as commissioners appointed according to 28 H. 8. c. 15. by any law now in force would have to try such offences within this realm; and persons convicted of any such offences so to be tried under this act shall suffer the same pains, penalties, &c. as by any law now in force they would if the same were tried, heard, &c. under the 28 H. 8. c. 15., 46 G. 3. c. 54.

11. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL SUPPRESSION OF PIRACY viz. by enabling certain persons to try offences committed at sea on the sea or land, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. ss. 1—16. [See the rest of this act, SEAMEN. CON. 5 & 6 A. c. 34. s. 3., 1 G. 1. st. 2. c. 25. s. 17. MADE PERP. 6 G. 1. c. 19. s. 3. AMD. by allowing offences declared piracy by 11 & 12 W. 3. to be tried as by 28 H. 8. c. 15., directed, 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 7., which is not to extend to Scot. (s. 8.) but to extend to H. M.'s dominions in America, and to be deemed a PUBLIC act, id. s. 9. Further AMD. 18 G. 2. c. 30., 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. See further on this point, 46 G. 3. c. 54. pl. 10. and note to pl. 18.]

12. All piracies, felonies, and robberies committed in or upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place where the admiral has jurisdiction, may be examined, tried, and adjudged, according to this act, in any place at sea, or upon the land in any of H. M.'s dominions, forts, or factories, to be appointed by H. M.'s commission under the great seal, or the seal of the admiralty, directed to all or any of the admirals, vice-admirals, rear-admirals, judges of vice-admiralties, or commanders of any of H. M.'s ships of war, and also to any such persons by name as H. M. shall appoint; which commissioners shall have power, by warrant under the hand and seal of them or any one of them, to commit to custody any person against whom information of piracy, robbery, or felony upon the sea, shall be given upon oath, which one of them may administer, and to call a court of admiralty on shipboard, or upon land, as occasion shall require; which court shall consist of 7 persons at least, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 1.

13. If so many of such persons cannot conveniently be assembled, any 3 of them (whereof the president or chief of some English factory, or the governor, lieutenant-governor, or member of H. M.'s councils, in any of the plantations, or commander of one of H. M.'s ships, to be one), shall have power to call any other persons on shipboard, or on the land, to make up the number of 7, id. s. 2.

14. Provided that no persons but known merchants, factors, or planters, or captains, lieutenants, or warrant officers, in any of H. M.'s ships of war, or captains, masters, or mates, of some English ship, shall be capable of sitting or voting in such court, id. s. 3.

15. Such persons so called, shall, according to the course of the admiralty, issue warrants for bringing any persons accused of piracy or robbery before them to be tried; and summon witnesses and take informations and examinations of witnesses, and do all things necessary for the final determination of any case of piracy, robbery, and felony, and give sentence of death, and award execution of the offenders convicted, according to the civil law and the rules of the admiralty. And every person so convicted and attainted of piracy or robbery, shall suffer such losses of lands and goods, as if they had been attainted and convicted according to the statute 28 H. 8. c. 15., id. s. 4.

16. So soon as any court shall be so assembled, H. M.'s commission shall be read, and the court shall be proclaimed, and then the president of the court shall take the following oath, viz.

'I A. B. do swear, in the presence of Almighty God, that I will truly and impartially try and adjudge the prisoner or prisoners which shall be brought upon his or their trials before this court, and honestly and duly on my part put H. M.'s commission for trying them in execution, according to the best of my skill and knowledge; and that I have no interest directly or indirectly, in any ship or goods, for the piratically taking of which any person stands accused, and is now to be tried. So help me God,' id. s. 5.

17. And he having taken the oath, shall administer the same to every person who shall sit and have a voice in such court; and thereupon the prisoner shall be brought before them: and then the register of such court shall read the articles against such prisoner, wherein shall be set forth the particular facts of piracy, robbery, and felony, with the time and place, and in what manner it was committed: and each prisoner shall be asked whether he be guilty or not guilty; and whereupon such prisoner shall immediately plead guilty or not guilty, or else it shall be taken as confessed, and he shall suffer death, and forfeit his goods as if regularly convicted; and if any prisoner shall plead not guilty, witnesses shall be produced by the register, and sworn and examined viva voce in the prisoner's presence; and after witness hath answered all the questions proposed by the president, and given his evidence, the prisoner may have the witness cross-examined, declaring to the court what questions he would have asked, and the president or the court shall interrogate the witness accordingly; and every prisoner shall bring witnesses for his defence, who shall be sworn and examined on oath, and afterwards the prisoner shall be heard for himself; which being done, the prisoner shall be taken away, and all other persons, except the register, shall withdraw; and then the court shall consider of the evidence; and the president shall collect their votes, beginning at the junior, and ending with himself; and according to plurality of voices sentence shall be given, and pronounced publicly in the presence of the prisoner, being called in again: and according to such sentence, the persons attainted shall be put to death in such manner, and in such place, upon the sea, or within the ebbing or flowing thereof, as the president or majority of the court, by warrant directed to a provost-marshal, which they shall have power to constitute, shall appoint, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 7.

18. Some public notary shall be register of the court; and in case of his absence, death, or incapacity, or for want of a person so qualified, the president shall appoint a register, giving him an oath, duly, faithfully, and impartially, to execute his office; which register shall prepare all warrants and articles, and provide all things requisite for any trial, according to the substantial and essential parts of proceedings in a court of admiralty in the most summary way; and shall take minutes of the proceedings, and enter them in a book, and shall transmit the same, with the copies of all articles and judgments, unto the high court of admiralty in Eng., id. s. 7. [QU. This act from ss. 1—7. seems virtually R.E.P. by the effect of the 4 G. 3. c. 11., 46 G. 3. c. 54., which confines all proceedings for offences done at sea to be determined under the 28 H. 8. c. 15.]

19. If any of H. M.'s natural subjects or denizens, shall commit piracy or robbery, or any act of hostility, against other H. M.'s subjects upon the sea, under colour of any commission from any foreign state, or authority from any person whatsoever, such offenders, and every of them, shall be adjudged pirates, felons, and robbers; and being convicted according to this act, or 28 H. 8. c. 15. shall suffer pains of death, and loss of lands and goods, id. s. 8.

20. All persons being the natural born subjects, or denizens of H. M. who during any future war shall commit any hostilities upon the sea, or in any haven, river, creek, or place where the admiral has jurisdiction, against H. M.'s subjects, under colour of any commission from H. M.'s enemies, or shall be otherwise adherent, or giving aid or comfort to them on the sea, or in any such haven, &c. may be tried as pirates, felons, or robbers, in the high court of admiralty on ship-board or land in the same way as persons guilty of piracy, &c. are by the said act, [QU. 28 H. 8. c. 15., or 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7.] directed to be tried, and on conviction, shall suffer death, and loss of lands and goods as pirates, &c. under 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7., 18 G. 2. c. 30. s. 1., provided persons tried and acquitted, or convicted according to this act for any such crimes, shall not be liable to be indicted again in G. B., or elsewhere, for the same crime as high treason, id. s. 2.

21. Nothing in this act shall prevent persons guilty of any such crimes, who shall not be tried according to this act, from being tried for high treason within this realm, under the 28 H. 8. c. 15., id. s. 3.

22. If any commander of any ship, or any mariner, shall in any place where the admiral hath jurisdiction, betray his trust, and turn pirate, enemy, or rebel, and piratically and feloniously run away with the ship, or any barge, boat, ordnance, ammunition, or goods, or yield them up voluntarily to any pirate, or shall bring any seducing messages from any pirate, enemy, or rebel, or consult or confederate with, or attempt to corrupt, any commander, officer, or mariner, to yield up or run away with any ship or goods, or turn pirate, or go over to pirates, or if any person shall lay violent hands on his commander, to hinder him from fighting in defence of his ship and goods, or confine his master, or endeavour to make a revolt in the ship, he shall be adjudged a pirate, felon, and robber, and being convicted according to this act shall suffer death, and loss of lands and goods, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 11. s. 9.

23. All persons who shall either on land or upon the seas, knowingly set forth any pirate, or assist or maintain, procure, command, counsel, or advise, any person to commit any piracies or robberies upon the seas, and such person shall thereupon commit any such piracy or robbery, all such persons shall be adjudged accessory to such piracy and robbery; and after any piracy or robbery committed, every person who, knowing that such pirate or robber has committed such robbery, &c., shall, on the land or on the sea, receive, entertain, or conceal, any such pirate or robber, or receive any ship or goods by such pirate or robber, piratically and feloniously taken, shall be adjudged accessory to such piracy and robbery; and all such accessories may be enquired of, heard, and determined, after the common course of the law, according to the stat. 28 H. 8. c. 15., as the principals of such piracies and robberies ought to be; and being attainted, shall suffer death, and loss of lands and goods, id. s. 10., [accessaries deemed principals, 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 3.]

24. When any English ship shall have been defended against pirates, enemies, or sea rovers, by fight, and brought to her port, in which fight any of the officers or seamen shall have been killed or wounded, the judge of the high court of admiralty, or his surrogate in the port of London, or the mayor, bailiff, or chief officer in the several out-ports of this kingdom, upon petition of the master or seamen of such ship, may call unto him four or more substantial merchants, and such as are no adventurers or owners of such ship or goods, and have no interest therein, and by advice with them, may raise upon the adventurers and owners of such ship and goods, by process out of such court, such sums of money as himself and such merchants, by plurality of voices, shall judge reasonable, not exceeding two per cent. of the freight, and of the ship and goods, according to the first costs of the goods; which money shall be distributed among the captain, masters, officers, and seamen of such ship, or widows and children of the slain, according to the direction of the judge of such court, &c., with the approbation of such merchants, who shall proportion the same to the ship's company, having special regard to the widows and children of such as have been slain, and such as have been wounded, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 11. s. 11. [see 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 5. pl. 36.]

25. A reward of 10*l.* for every vessel of 100 tons or under, and 15*l.* for every ship of a greater burden, shall be paid by the commander of every ship, wherein any combination shall be set on foot for the running away with or destroying such ship or the goods therein, to such person as shall first make a discovery thereof, on proof made thereof, the same to be paid at the port where the wages of the seamen are to be paid, id. s. 12.

26. The commissioners appointed by 28 H. 8. c. 15.; or by this act, shall have the sole power of hearing and determining the said crimes, within all the plantations in America, governed by proprietors, or under charters from the crown; and shall issue their warrants for apprehending of any pirates, felons, or robbers upon the sea, or their confederates or accessaries, without any of such plantations, in order to their being brought to trial within the same, or any other plantation in America, or sent to Eng.; and all governors and persons in authority in the plantations, governed by the proprietors, or under charters, shall assist the commissioners and their officers, and deliver up any pirates, felons, and robbers upon the sea, and their confederates and accessaries, in order to their being tried or sent into Eng., id. s. 14.

27. If any of the governors in such plantations, or persons in authority there, shall refuse to yield obedience to this act, such refusal shall be a forfeiture of all charters granted for the government or propriety of such plantation, id. s. 15.

28. When any commission for the trial and punishment of such offences, shall be directed to any place within the jurisdiction of the cinque ports, such commission shall be directed to the lord warden, or his lieutenant, and such other persons as the lord high chancellor shall name; and every inquisition and trial to be had by virtue of such commission shall be by the inhabitants of the cinque ports, or the members of the same, id. s. 16.

29. All persons who shall commit any offences for which they ought to be adjudged pirates, felons, or robbers, by the 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7., may be tried as by 28 H. 8. c. 15. directed, and shall be debarred from the benefit of clergy, 4 G. 1. s. 11. c. 7.

30. "Whereas it is by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 11. [which see, SEAMEN,] enacted, that if any person should wilfully leave any man behind him abroad, he should suffer 3 months imprisonment, but no mode of prosecution is provided in cases of offences against the said act;" Therefore all offences against such act may be prosecuted by indictment or information, at suit of H. M.'s attorney-general, in K. B. at Westminster in the county of Middlesex, and such court may issue commissions for the examination of witnesses abroad, and depositions taken under the same shall be received in evidence on the trial of such indictment, &c. 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. [Qu. does this apply to the whole of 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7., or only to s. 18.]

31. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL SUPPRESSING OF PIRACY, (viz. by preventing any trading or corresponding with, or fitting out ships to trade with pirates, and by giving rewards to persons opposing pirates,) 8 G. 1. c. 24. ss. 1—10. [PUBLIC act, and not to extend to H. M.'s dominions in Asia, Africa, or America, s. 10.] [See the rest of this act, SEAMEN.] [MADE PERP. 2 G. 2. c. 28. s. 7., AMD. 8 G. 2. c. 29. s. 10.]

32. If any commander of any ship, or other person, shall trade with any pirate, by trust, barter, exchange, or otherwise, or shall furnish any pirate, felon, or robber on the seas, with ammunition, provision, or stores, or shall fit out any ship knowingly and with design to trade or correspond with any pirate, &c., or if any person shall consult, combine, or correspond with any pirate, &c. knowing him to be guilty of any piracy, felony, or robbery, such offender shall be adjudged guilty of piracy, felony, and robbery, and shall be tried according to the statutes 28 H. 8. c. 15. and 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7., and being convicted, shall suffer death, and loss of lands and goods; and if any person belonging to any ship, upon meeting any merchant ship on the high seas, or in any port, haven, or creek, shall forcibly board and enter such ship, and though they do not seize and carry her off, shall throw overboard or destroy any of the goods, they shall be deemed and punished as pirates, 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 1.

33. Every ship fitted out with a design to trade or correspond with any pirate, and all the merchandises put on board the same with an intention to trade with any pirate, &c. shall be forfeited; one moiety to H. M., the other to the first discoverer of such design, who may sue for the ship and goods on board, in the high court of admiralty, 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 2.

34. All persons who by 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. are declared accessaries to any piracy or robbery, are hereby declared principal pirates, felons, and robbers, and shall be tried and suffer as such, id. s. 3.

35. Every offender convicted of any piracy, felony, or robbery, by virtue of this act, shall not have benefit of clergy, id. s. 4.

36. If any seaman on board of any merchant ship shall be maimed in fight against any pirate, he shall not only receive the rewards appointed by 22 & 23 Car. 2. c. 11.; but shall be provided for in Greenwich Hospital, preferable to any other seaman who is disabled from service by age, id. s. 5. [see 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 11. pl. 24.]

37. Because the 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 5. extends only to seamen maimed in fight against pirates, it is ENACTED, that if any seaman or mariner on board any merchant ship belonging to H. M.'s subjects, is maimed in fight against any of H. M.'s enemies, he shall be provided for in Greenwich hospital, as any other seaman disabled in the service of the king, 8 G. 2. c. 29. s. 10.

38. If any commander or other officer, or seaman, of a merchant ship, which carries guns and arms, shall not, when attacked by any pirate, fight and endeavour to defend themselves, or shall utter any words to discourage the other mariners, and by reason thereof the ship shall fall into the hands of the pirate, every such commander, &c. shall forfeit all the wages due to him to the owners of the ship, and shall not be permitted to sue for the same, and shall suffer six months imprisonment, 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 6.

39. TO REMOVE DOUBTS, AND TO REMEDY DEFECTS IN THE LAW with respect to certain offences committed upon the sea, or within the jurisdiction of the admiralty, 1 G. 4. c. 90.

40. Every person who shall be tried for any capital offence committed upon the sea, out of the body of any county of this realm, and within the jurisdiction of the admiralty, by virtue of any commission directed under 28 H. 8. c. 15., and shall be found guilty of any crime, which, if committed on land, would be clergyable, shall be entitled to his clergy in respect thereof, in like manner, and be subject to like punishment as if he had committed such offence on the land, id. s. 1.

41. All offences mentioned in 43 G. 3. c. 58., against cutting and maiming, which shall be committed on the high seas, out of the body of any county of this realm, shall be offences of the same nature respectively, and be liable to the same punishments as if committed on land in Eng. or Ire., and shall be enquired of as treasons, felonies, &c. under 28 H. 8. c. 15. are to be, id. s. 2.

PLEADING.

(STATUTE expired.)

FOR PREVENTING VEXATIOUS PLEAS, 23 H. 6. c. 11. EXP.

STATUTES, (in force.)

1. NO SHERIFF, CONSTABLE, OR OTHER OUR BAILIFFS SHALL HOLD pleas of the crown, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 17.

2. NO FINES SHALL BE TAKEN FOR DEAU PLEADER, 52 or 54 H. 3. c. 11. stat. Marl. 3 E. 1. c. 8., 1 E. 3. st. 2. c. 8.

3. IF ANY SERJEANT, PLEADER, OR OTHER DO ANY DECEIT OR collusion in H. M.'s court, in deceit of the court, he shall be imprisoned for a year and a day, and never after be heard to plead, and if he be no pleader, he shall be imprisoned in like manner, and if the trespass require greater punishment it shall be at H. M.'s pleasure, 3 E. 1. c. 29.

4. PLEAS SHALL BE DECIDED BY THE JUSTICES IN DUE ORDER, 3 Ed. 1. c. 46.

5. The justices of K. B. and C. P. shall decide pleas at one day before any matter be entered on of pleas on the following days, saving that essoins shall be entered and judged, yet by reason hereof, let no one man absent himself at the day to him limited, 3 E. 1. c. 46.

6. A WRIT OF DECEIT SHALL BE MAINTAINABLE AS WELL IN case of garnishment in plea of land, as in case of summons in plea of land, 2 E. 3. c. 17.

7. THE EXCEPTION OF NON-TENURE OF PARCEL SHALL ABATE NO writ, except as to the quantity, concerning which non-tenure is alleged, 25 E. 3. st. 5. c. 16.

8. ALL PLEAS PLEADED IN ANY COURT, SHALL BE PLEADED AND shewed, and judged in English, and inrolled in Latin, and that by the ancient terms and forms in pleading no man be prejudiced, so that the matter of the action be fully shewed in the declaration and writ, 36 E. 3. c. 15. [but Latin abolished, 4 G. 2. c. 26., 6 G. 2. c. 14. JUDICIAL PROCEDURE.]

9. IF IN SUITS OR WRITS of debt, accompt, and other such actions, it is declared that the contract thereof was made in another county than that contained in the original writ, the same writ shall abate, 6 R. 2. st. 1. c. 2.

10. FOR PROHIBITING INDICTMENTS with the words insidiatores irarum, et depopulatores agrorum, 4 H. 4. c. 2.

11. Such words shall not henceforth be put on any indictments, arraignments, appeals, or other impeachments; but the justices may take before them indictments, &c. containing the effect of such words and terms, if any person is indicted, &c. of such felonies; and if any clerks secular or religious be indicted, &c., and their indictments, &c. do comprehend the effect of such words, or other words of the like effects, they shall nevertheless enjoy the privilege of holy church, and be delivered to the ordinary, id. ibid.

12. TAKING FEES OF DAMAGE CLEER (originally a gratuity to prothonotary and clerks for drawing special writs and pleadings) abolished, on penalty of forfeiture of treble sum so taken, 17 C. 2. c. 6. [See FEES.]

13. TO GIVE LEAVE TO PLEAD SEVERAL MATTERS to prevent the too frequent use of dilatory pleas, and to enable persons having paid money on a bond or judgment to plead the same in bar, or to bring it into court, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. ss. 4, 5. 11—13. [This title is framed from these sections.]

14. Defendants or tenants in any suit, and plaintiffs in replevin in any court of record, may plead several matters by leave of court, id. s. 4.

15. If such matters on demurrer be judged insufficient, or if verdict is found on any issue for the plaintiff or defendant, costs shall be given at the discretion of the court, unless the judge who tried the issue certify that there was probable cause to plead such matter, id. s. 5.

16. No dilatory plea shall be received in any court of record, unless the party offering the same do by affidavit prove the truth thereof, or show some probable matter to the court to induce them to believe that such plea is true, id. s. 11.

17. Where any action or [QU. of] debt is brought on any single bill, or where any action of debt or scire facias is brought on any judgment, if the defendant hath paid the money due on such bill or judgment, such payment may be pleaded in bar; and where an action of debt is brought on any bond which hath a condition or defeasance to make void the same, on payment of a lesser sum, at a day or place certain; if the obligor, his heirs, executors, or administrators have before action brought paid to the obligee, his executors, or administrators, the principal and interest due by the defeasance, &c. though such payment is not strictly according to the defeasance, it may nevertheless be pleaded in bar of such action, and shall be effectual, id. s. 12.

18. If at any time pending an action on such bond with a penalty, the defendant shall bring into court all the principal and interest due on such bond, and also all costs expended in law or equity on such bond, the same shall be deemed satisfaction, and judgment of discharge shall be given, id. s. 13.

POLICE. (See THAMES POLICE.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL ADMINISTRATION of the office of justice of peace, in such parts of the counties of Middlesex and Surrey as lie in or near the metropolis, and for the more effectual prevention of felonies, 32 G. 3. c. 53. [CON. 36 G. 3. c. 75. REP. 42 G. 3. c. 76. s. 1.]

2. TO REPEAL 32 G. 3. c. 53. and 36 G. 3. c. 75., and for making other provisions in lieu thereof, and for increasing the salaries of the justices at the Thames police office for a limited time, 42 G. 3. c. 76. [CON. as to the salaries aforesaid, 47 G. 3. s. 1. c. 37. s. 1., and CON. and AMD. 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. 42.; both acts REP. 51 G. 3. c. 119. s. 1.]

3. FOR REPEALING 42 G. 3. c. 76. and 47 G. 3. s. 2. c. 42., and for making other provisions in lieu thereof for a limited time, 51 G. 3. c. 119. [REP. 54 G. 3. c. 37. s. 1.]

4. TO REPEAL 51 G. 3. c. 119., and for making other provisions in lieu thereof for a limited time, 54 G. 3. c. 37. [CON. 1 G. 4. c. 66., and until 5th July 1821, and then REP. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 1., when that act begins to operate.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO FACILITATE THE EXECUTION OF JUSTICE within the cinque ports, 51 G. 3. c. 36. [This act is in force, but being local in its operation is not given at length.]

2. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL ADMINISTRATION of the office of a justice of peace, within the townships of Manchester and Salford, in the hundred of Salford, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and to provide by means of a rate on the said townships and otherwise, a competent salary to a justice of peace acting within such townships, and to enable constables of Manchester and Salford to take recognizances in certain cases, 53 G. 3. c. 72. [PUBLIC clause, s. 11.]

3. H. M., in right of his duchy and county palatine of Lancaster, may, with the advice of his chancellor and council, appoint one fit person, who shall be a barrister of four years standing, being a justice of peace for such county, to execute the office of a justice within such division, either by himself or with such other justices for such county as may attend, and be therefore entitled to salary in pl. 6., 53 G. 3. c. 72. s. 1.

4. Such justice shall reside within one mile of the Exchange in Manchester, or of the New Bailey Court-house in Salford, and shall daily (Sunday excepted) attend at such court-house; but the attendance of such justice may be supplied by any other justice for such county, id. s. 2.

5. Any person so appointed may execute the office of a justice of peace for such county during his residence within such limits, although not possessed of or entitled to an estate or interest in lands, &c. of the clear yearly value of 100*l.*, provided he is not otherwise disqualified so to act as such justice, id. s. 3.

6. The justices at quarter sessions, held by adjournment within the hundred of Salford, may, by writing under the hands of two of them, (whereof such justice shall not be one) direct the commissioners acting under the 52 G. 3. c. 69. (local) to pay such justice 1000*l.* per ann. by quarterly payments to be appointed by such sessions; and such payments shall be assessed, raised, and levied, as any rate, by such act directed to be raised, and with the like powers, &c. of collection, id. s. 4.

7. And 9 of such commissioners may assess and levy, in like manner as any rate by such act directed, sums equal to the payment of such salary, provided that such sums shall not, in any one year, exceed 3*d.* in the pound upon the rateable property specified in such act; and sums so raised shall be applied to the purposes of such acts, and separate accounts shall be kept of the money assessed under the same, id. s. 5.

8. Manchester shall contribute seven-eighths, and Salford one-eighth part of such salary, id. s. 6.

9. The chancellor and council of the duchy of Lancaster may order the receiver-general of the duchy to pay over the amount of monies (not exceeding 1000*l.* per ann.) which shall be levied by reason of recognizances taken and estreated into such county, to such commissioners, to be applied in aid of the rate on such townships, under this act, towards the payment of such salary, the 1 A. st. 1. c. 7. notwithstanding; but nothing herein shall abridge the power of such chancellor, &c. to mitigate such recognizances and levies as heretofore, id. s. 7.

10. Any justice appointed under this act shall not, during his continuance in such appointment, sit as a member in the H. of C., id. s. 8.

11. The constables appointed for such townships, or one of them, or their deputies, on having an appointment in writing from their principals, may take recognizances without fee from all persons brought before them in the night time, on any charge not felony, for the appearance of such person before a justice for such county within 2 days after, for further examination; and such recognizances shall be of equal obligation to the parties entering into the same, and liable to the same proceedings for estreating thereof as if taken before a justice of peace, id. s. 9.

12. The expences of soliciting this act to be paid as the salary of such justice, id. s. 10. [EXP.]

13. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL ADMINISTRATION OF THE OFFICE of a justice of peace in and near the metropolis; and for the more effectual prevention of depredations on the river Thames and its vicinity, for one year, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. [PUBLIC clause, s. 49.]

14. The 54 G. 3. cc. 37. & 187. shall be continued in force until the 5th July 1821, and be then repealed; and the provisions of this act shall thenceforth commence and continue in force for one year, id. s. 1.

15. The police office now established in the parish of St. John of Wapping, commonly called 'The Thames Police Office,' and the several police offices now established in the parishes of St. Margaret Westminster, St. James Westminster, St. Andrew Holborn, St. Leonard Shoreditch, and St. Mary Whitechapel, in Middlesex, and in the parish of St. Saviour, in Surrey, shall be continued; and instead of the police office now established in the parish of St. Paul Shadwell, a new police office shall be established in the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, in Middlesex; and the several persons appointed to execute the duties of a justice of peace at the police offices now established under the said acts, shall continue to execute the same at the said 7 first-mentioned offices, and at the said police office so to be established as last aforesaid, together with such other justices of peace for the said counties as may think proper to attend thereat; and H. M., upon every vacancy by death or otherwise, may appoint another fit person, being a justice of peace of the counties of Middlesex and Surrey respectively, to execute the duties of a justice of peace at such police offices, in lieu of the person making such vacancy, id. s. 2.

16. One of such justices shall diligently attend at each of such police offices every day, from 10 until 8 in the evening, and at such other times and places as shall be found necessary, and directed by the principal secretary of state for the home department; and 2 of such justices shall in like manner attend together from 12 at noon until 3, but no such attendance shall be given on Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving, unless in cases of urgent necessity, or when it is directed by such principal secretary of state, id. s. 3.

17. The present receiver for the 7 police offices established under the 54 G. 5. c. 37., shall become the receiver for the said 8 police offices; and H. M. upon any vacancy in such office of receiver, by death or otherwise, may appoint another person, not being one of the justices appointed to act at either of the said police offices, to be such receiver; and such receiver shall receive all fees and forfeitures, and other sums applicable to the purposes of this act, and keep an exact account of all monies received by him, and apply the same quarterly in discharge of the salaries, expences, and charges attending such offices, and in the execution of this act, and shall make all contracts and disbursements necessary for purchasing, hiring, fitting up, and furnishing sufficient houses and buildings, wherein such 8 offices shall be held, in such manner as H. M., by and with the consent of his privy council, shall direct; of which houses and buildings, and the fixtures and furniture thereof, and of all other necessaries to be held or purchased for the purposes of this act, the property acquired therein shall be vested in the receiver, who may sell, assign, and dispose of the same, or any part thereof, under the like directions, as occasion requires; and shall prepare proper plans and estimates of all such contracts and disbursements, and deliver the same to H. M.'s principal home secretary; and further execute all such other lawful matters towards the establishment of the said 8 police offices, and towards the carrying this act into execution, as H. M., by and with the advice of his privy council, shall direct, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 4.

18. The justices so appointed, or any 2 of them, in their respective offices, shall appoint and retain a sufficient number of fit and able men for the whole 8 offices, subject to the approbation of the home secretary, whom they shall swear in to act as constables, for preserving the peace and preventing robberies and felonies, and apprehending offenders against the peace; which constables so sworn shall, within the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Essex, and Kent, have all such powers and advantages as any constable duly appointed now has, or hereafter may have, by any law or statute, and shall obey all such lawful commands as they shall receive from the said justices respectively for the apprehending offenders, or otherwise conducting themselves in the execution of their offices; and such justices may suspend or dismiss from employment any such constable attached to their respective offices, whom they think remiss, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such constable is so dismissed, or ceases to belong to any of such offices, all powers and authorities vested in him as a constable under this act shall cease, id. s. 5.

19. The justices appointed to the Thames police office, or any 2 of them, shall (subject to such approbation as in s. 5. pl. 18.) retain and employ not exceeding 50 men, who, under the name of Thames police surveyors, shall (being first duly sworn as aforesaid) have, within the said counties, the powers and advantages of a constable, and shall direct and inspect the conduct of the constables attached to the Thames police office, and of all persons to be employed in and about ships and vessels in the Thames, or in or on the several creeks, wharfs, quays, and landing places thereto adjacent, and (subject to the orders of the last-mentioned justices) shall, by virtue of their offices, enter at all times, as well by night as by day, into every ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel, (not being then actually in H. M.'s service), lying in the said river or creeks, and into every part of such vessel, for the purpose of inspecting and directing the conduct of any constable stationed on board of any vessel, and of inspecting the conduct of all other persons employed on board of any vessel in or about the lading or unlading thereof, and for the purpose of taking all measures necessary for providing against fire and other accidents, and preserving peace and good order, and for the effectual prevention of any felonies or misdemeanors, and the detection of such as have been committed, or which such surveyor suspects to have been committed on board any such vessel; and the justices appointed to the Thames police office may suspend or dismiss any such Thames police surveyor whom they shall find remiss, or otherwise unfit for the same; and when any such surveyor is so dismissed, or ceases to belong to the said offices, all powers vested in him as such surveyor under this act shall cease, id. s. 6.

20. H. M. may direct a sum to be issued quarterly out of the consolidated fund of the U. K. to the said receiver, sufficient to pay the yearly salary of 600*l.*, clear of all deductions, to each of the justices so appointed to attend at such police offices, and such further sum as may be necessary for the expences of the offices, and for the payment of clerks, constables, surveyors, and others therein employed; provided that the whole charges attending the said police offices (the said salaries being included) shall not exceed the annual sum of 35,000*l.* over the necessary disbursements for purchasing, hiring, repairing, fitting up, and furnishing the houses and buildings wherein the said offices are held; and the said receiver, out of the monies so issued, shall pay to the constables and surveyors so appointed as aforesaid, such sum as appears reasonable to the home secretary, and any extraordinary expences they appear to have been necessarily put to in apprehending offenders, and executing the orders of the justices acting under this act; such extraordinary expences being first examined and approved of by the justices attending the police office to which such constables are attached, and such further sum for rewarding their extraordinary diligence or exertion, as shall be directed by such secretary, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 7.

21. No justice of peace for the counties of Middlesex or Surrey, city and liberty of Westminster, or liberty of the tower of London, or his clerk, or any person on their behalf, other than at the said police offices, shall, upon any pretence, take any fee or recompence, for any act by him or them done in the execution of their office as justice of peace or clerk, within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or the parish of St. Mary-le-bone, Paddington, St. Pancras, Kensington, and St. Luke at Chelsea, in Middlesex, upon pain of forfeiting 100*l.*, one moiety to the said receiver, to be applied to the purposes of this act, and the other, with full costs, to the person who shall sue for the same in any courts of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c., or information, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance, allowed: but nothing herein shall extend to any fees taken at any general or quarter sessions of the peace, or at any meeting of justices, for the purpose of licensing alehouses, or to any fees taken at the public office in Bow-street, or to any fees taken by any vestry clerk, for the purpose of enforcing the payment of any taxes or assessments arising within the same parish, or for hearing and determining any offence cognizable before justices of peace, by virtue of any statute made for the special regulation of such parish, id. s. 8.

22. In some conspicuous part of each of the said police offices, and also of the said public office in Bow-street, there shall be affixed a table of the fees which may legally be taken at such offices, under 26 G. 2. c. 14. and 27 G. 2. c. 16. s. 4. [See JUSTICE OF PEACE], and any justice at such offices may refuse to do any act for which any fee is demandable, unless such fee is first paid; and if any such act is done, and the fee due thereon is not paid, any justice may summon the person from whom such fee is due, and make order for payment of the same, with the costs of the proceedings, and in default of payment levy the same, with the costs of the distress, by warrant under his hand and seal, id. s. 9.

23. The justices so appointed to attend at the said police offices, and their clerks, shall, in books, keep a full account of all fees received at each of such offices, together with all penalties which have been recovered, levied, or received, in pursuance of any adjudication, conviction, or order, made at any of such offices, or any process or warrant issuing from the same; to which books the said receiver shall at all times have free access; and such justices shall, once in every quarter, deliver unto such receiver such account, verified on oath by such justice or justices, clerk or clerks, or such other person as shall be employed in keeping such accounts respectively, or any part thereof, before some justice of peace for the counties of Middlesex or Surrey, and pay the amount unto such receiver, to be applied as in s. 4. pl. 17., id. s. 10.

24. All such penalties, and shares of penalties, as are by any act now in force, or by any future act (unless it contains express words to the contrary) shall be limited to H. M., or to any persons, other than the informer who shall sue for the same, or any party aggrieved, and which shall be recoverable in a summary way before a justice or justices of peace, and which shall be recovered or adjudged before any justice or justices at either of the said police offices; shall be accounted for and paid into the hands of the said receiver, by the justice, clerk, constable, officer, or other person, who shall levy or receive the same; to be applied as in s. 4. pl. 17., id. s. 11.

25. If the said justices so appointed, as in s. 2. pl. 15., or any other person, having received any such fees at any of the said police offices, shall neglect to account for and pay the same, as in s. 10. pl. 23., or if any justice, justice's clerk, constable, officer, or other person, who shall levy or receive such penalties, or shares of penalties, shall neglect to pay the same into the hands of such receiver as aforesaid, or if any person having resigned the office of receiver, or having been removed from the same, shall not, within 21 days after notice for that purpose, account for and pay into the hands of his successor, all such sums as remain in his hands applicable to the purposes of this act, such receiver, for the time being, in his own name only, or by his name and description of office, may sue for and recover the same, with double costs of suit, in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, in which action it shall be sufficient to declare as for money had and received to the use of such receiver for the purposes of this act; and the defendant in such action may, at the discretion of any judge of such court, be held to special bail, in such competent sum as such judge shall order; and in any such action the court may, at the instance of either party, refer the account in dispute, in a summary manner, to be audited by any officer of the court, or other fit person, at their discretion, who may examine both plaintiff and defendant upon oath, (which oath the said referee shall administer,) and upon the report of such referee, unless either party show good cause to the contrary, such court may make a rule, either for the payment of such sum as on such report appears due, or for staying the proceedings in such cause, and on such conditions as to the same court appears reasonable and just; or may order judgment to be entered up by confession, for such sum so appearing due, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 12.

26. In case of the death of any such receiver, or of any person having resigned or been removed from such office, or of any of the other persons whom the said receiver for the time being is so authorized to sue, the receiver for the time being may, in his own name only, or by his name and description of office, sue for and recover such sum as has been remaining in the hands of such deceased receiver or other person, applicable to the purposes of this act, or the executors or administrators of such person deceased; in which action the plaintiff may declare that the deceased was indebted to the plaintiff for money had and received for the purposes of this act, or that the deceased died possessed of money had and received for the purposes of this act, whereby an action accrued to the plaintiff to demand and have the same of such executors or administrators; and the like action may be brought against any executors or administrators of executors or administrators; in all which actions the defendant may plead in like manner, and avail himself of the like defence, as in any action founded upon simple contracts of the original testator or intestate; and in all actions so to be brought by such receiver, proof of the plaintiff's acting in the execution of such office shall be evidence of his holding the same, unless the contrary is shown in evidence by the defendant, id. s. 13.

26. Such receiver shall every 3 months, and oftener if required, deliver to the treasury a full account of all monies by him received and paid as aforesaid, with vouchers for the same; which account shall be verified upon oath before some justice or baron of one of the courts of record at Westminster; and such receiver, for the execution of such office, may retain to his own use, out of the monies so received by him, such sum not exceeding 400*l.* as H. M. in council shall direct; but if at the end of any year there is any surplus in his hands, he shall pay the amount into exchequer, to be carried to consolidated fund, id. s. 14.

27. No justice so appointed shall be capable of being elected, or of sitting as a member of the H. of C.; and no justice, receiver, surveyor, or constable so appointed, shall, till six months after he has quitted the same, be capable of giving his vote for the election of a member to serve in parliament for the counties of Middlesex or Surrey, or for Westminster or Southwark; nor shall, in any manner, endeavour to persuade any elector to give, or dissuade any elector from giving his vote for the choice of any person to be a member to serve in parliament for the said counties, city, or borough; and every such justice, &c. offending therein, shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of the parish or place where such offence was committed; to be recovered by any person that shall sue for the same, by action of debt, &c., or information, in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance allowed; such action to be brought within one year after such offence committed; but nothing in this act shall subject any such justice, &c. to a penalty for any act done by him at or concerning any of the said elections, in the discharge of his duty in the said respective capacities, id. s. 15.

28. Where by any law now in being, or hereafter to be made, any act is directed to be done by any justice or justices of peace residing in, near, or next the parish or place where any offence, or other matter cognizable before them, is committed or arises, the same jurisdiction shall be exercised by a justice or justices acting in such of the said police offices as may be next or near such parish or place, id. s. 17.

29. H. M. in privy council may make such alterations in the places where any of the said police offices shall be situated, or in the hours of attendance therein, and make all such other regulations to be observed in conducting the same, as he shall think proper, id. s. 18.

30. No shop or room for the sale, or under the pretence of selling ready-made coffee, tea, and other liquors, within the city of London or the liberties thereof, within the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, or within any of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned, shall be kept open after 11 at night, nor opened before 4 in the morning, between Lady Day and Michaelmas, or before 6 in the morning between Michaelmas and Lady Day; and if any such shop, &c. is open within the hours prohibited, or being shut up, if any person is found therein, except the persons actually dwelling there, or having lawful excuse for being there, then the master, or other person having the care or management of such shop, &c., whether the real owner or keeper thereof or not, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding 10*l.*, upon conviction of any such offence before any justice of peace, by confession or on the oath of one witness; and if the party so convicted shall not immediately pay the penalty, the justice shall commit him or her to hard labour in the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; which, when paid, shall be distributed, one moiety to the informer, the other to the chamberlain of the city of London, if the offence be committed in the said city or the liberties thereof; and if out of the said city, then the other moiety to the said receiver for the purposes of this act; but nothing herein shall affect any house duly licensed for the sale of wines and spirituous liquors; and no such conviction shall exempt the owner, keeper, or manager of any such shop, &c. from any penalty or penal consequence whereto he or she may be liable for keeping a disorderly house, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 18.

31. If any person shall, within the city of London and liberties thereof, or within the limits and parishes aforesaid, blow any horn or use any other noisy instrument for the purpose of hawking, selling, or distributing any article whatsoever, any constable, headborough, patrol, watchman, or other person, may apprehend and convey him before any justice of peace, who shall proceed to examine upon oath any witnesses appearing to give evidence touching such offence; and if the party accused is convicted, he shall forfeit not exceeding 40*s.*, and not less than 10*s.*, to be applied in such manner as such justice shall direct; and in case he shall not upon conviction forthwith pay the penalty, such justice shall commit him to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 10 days, unless the penalty is sooner paid, id. s. 19.

32. Every conviction for the offences aforesaid, shall be in the following form to the like effect: viz.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord A. B. is brought before me [or, having been duly summoned has neglected to appear before me,] C. D. esq., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the county of — [or, city, or liberty, or place, as the case may be,] and is charged before me the said justice with having [here describe the offence], and it appearing to me the said justice, upon the confession of him the said A. B. [or, upon the oath of a credible witness, as the case may be,] that the said A. B. is guilty of the said offence; I do therefore adjudge the said A. B. to forfeit and pay the sum of —; and in default of payment, to be imprisoned in the house of correction at — and there kept to hard labour for the term of —, unless the said penalty shall be sooner paid; and I do hereby direct, that the said penalty shall, when paid, be applied to [here direct the mode,] Given under my hand and seal the day and year first above written,' id. s. 20.

33. "Whereas ill-disposed and suspected persons and reputed thieves frequent the parks, fields, streets, highways, and places adjacent, and divers places of public resort, and the avenues leading thereto, within the city of London and the liberties thereof, the limits of the weekly bills of mortality, and the said parishes of St. Mary-le-bone, Paddington, St. Pancras, Kensington, and St. Luke, at Chelsea, and also the river Thames, and the docks and creeks, quays and warehouses adjacent thereto, and the streets, highways and avenues leading to the said river, &c. with intent to commit felony;" be it enacted, that any constable, headborough, patrol, watchman, or other person may apprehend every such suspected person or reputed thief, and convey him or her before any justice of peace; and if it appear before such justice, on the oath of one witness, that such person is a person of evil fame and a reputed thief, and is not able to give a satisfactory account of himself or herself, and of his or her way of living, and it also appears to the satisfaction of such justice, that there is just ground to believe that such person was in or on such park, &c. river, dock, &c. or other place as aforesaid, with such intent, he shall be deemed a rogue and vagabond within the 17 G. 2. c. 5., id. s. 21.

34. Every such conviction shall be in the following form, or to the like effect; viz.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is brought before me, C. D. esq., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace in and for the county of — [or, city, liberty, or place, as the case may be,] and charged before me the said justice with being a rogue and vagabond, he the said A. B. having been apprehended on the — day of — in a certain — called — in the parish of — in the said county [or, city, &c. as the case may be]; and it appearing to me the said justice, on the oath of — a credible witness, that the said A. B. is a person of evil fame and a reputed thief, and the said A. B. on his examination before me, not being able to give a satisfactory account of himself, or of his way of living, and it is also appearing to the satisfaction of me the said justice, that there is just ground to believe that the said A. B. was in such — as aforesaid, with intent to commit felony on the person or property of H. M.'s subjects there being; I do therefore, in pursuance of an act passed in the first and second year of the reign of king George the fourth, intitled [here insert the title of this act] convict him the said A. B. of the said offence, and adjudge him to be a rogue and vagabond, within the intent and meaning of the statute made in the seventeenth year of the reign of his late majesty king George the second, intitled, An act to amend and make more effectual the laws relating to rogues, vagabonds, and other idle and disorderly persons, and to houses of correction; and that he for his said offence be committed to the house of correction for the said county, until the next general [or quarter, as the case may be] sessions of the peace to be holden for the said county [city or place, as the case may be], then and there to be further dealt with according to law. [If the party be committed for a less time than until the sessions, then say, there to remain for the space of —.] Given under my hand and seal, the day and year first above written,' id. s. 22.

35. No conviction under this act, for any such offences, shall be quashed, or adjudged void or insufficient, for want of any other form of words; nor shall the same be removed by certiorari into the court of K. B.; but any person aggrieved thereby, may appeal to the justices of the peace at the next general or quarter sessions of the peace to be held for the county or city wherein the cause of complaint shall arise, such person at the time of conviction entering into a recognizance with 2 sureties conditioned personally to appear at the said sessions to try such appeal, and abide the further judgment of the sessions; and in case any such conviction of a reputed thief is affirmed at such sessions, the justices may adjudge the offender to be a rogue and vagabond, and proceed as they might have done if such rogue and vagabond had been committed to the house of correction until such sessions; and in case such offender shall not appear pursuant to the said recognizance, the person so convicted by such justice shall be deemed an incorrigible rogue, within the meaning of the 17 G. 2. c. 5.; and the justices at such sessions, or any 2 of them, shall issue their warrant to apprehend and commit such person to some house of correction or common gaol within their jurisdiction, there to remain until the next general or quarter sessions for the said county, &c. then and there to be further dealt with according to law, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 23.

36. The chief magistrate of the Bow-street police office, may administer to the officers of such office, and to the horse and foot patrol acting under his orders, an oath duly to execute the office of constable within the counties of Middlesex, Surry, Essex, and Kent; and each of such persons, being sworn, shall act as a constable for the preservation of the peace, and the security of property against felonies and other unlawful modes of obtaining the same, within any of such counties, and for apprehending offenders against the peace, as well by night as by day; and shall have all such powers and advantages, as any constable duly appointed now has or hereafter may have within his constableness: provided when any such constable is dismissed from his employment, or ceases to belong to the said public office in Bow-street, all powers and advantages vested in him shall cease, id. s. 24.

37. When any case of incompetency, negligence, misconduct, or delinquency, shall appear to any two justices of peace acting within the said city or limits, and parishes, against any such watchman or patrol, in the city of London, the weekly bills of mortality and the parishes in s. 8., pl. 21. mentioned, they, by writing under their hands and seals, may declare the same, and pronounce the man so found incompetent or guilty of such negligence, &c. to be either suspended or absolutely dismissed as they think proper; and give notice of such suspension or dismissal to the aldermen and common council of the ward, if in the city of London, or to the vestry or other authority by whom such watchmen or patrol was appointed; and every such watchman or patrol shall be incapable of being re-appointed either for the same or any other ward, parish, or place, while such suspension or dismissal remains in force; and if no watchman or patrol is appointed by the aldermen and common council of the ward, or by the vestry or other proper authority, at their next meeting after such notice is delivered to the deputy of the ward, or to the clerk or secretary of such vestry, or other proper authority, or left at the house or office where their business is usually transacted, the said justices shall appoint a successor, who shall exercise and enjoy the said duties and powers, and receive the same pay and allowances, as if regularly appointed, id. s. 25.

38. No man shall hereafter be appointed within the limits and parishes aforesaid, to be a watchman or patrol, who is above the age of 40 years, unless he has been previously and up to the time of such appointment employed in the said horse or foot patrol, id. s. 26.

39. The alderman and common council of each ward in the city of London and liberties thereof, may make such allowance to superannuated watchmen, hedges, or patrols, as they think proper, to be paid out of the watch rate to be raised in such wards respectively, id. s. 27.

40. For the better administration of the police within such limits and parishes, the constable or headborough attending at any watch-house within those limits and parishes, between 8 in the afternoon and 6 in the forenoon, may take bail by recognizance, without any fee, from any person who is brought into his custody within the said hours, without the warrant of a justice, charged with any petty misdemeanor, if such constable shall deem it prudent for the appearance of such person before the justices at the public office in Bow-street, or at one of the said police offices to be specified in the recognizance for examination, at the hour of 10 in the forenoon next after such recognizance is taken, unless that hour falls on a Sunday, or on one of the days of absence allowed by this act, and in that case at the like hour on the succeeding day; and every recognizance so to be taken, shall be of equal obligation on the parties entering into the same, and liable to the same proceedings for the estreating thereof, as if taken before a justice of peace; and the constable, &c. shall enter in a book to be kept for that purpose, in every watch-house, the names, residence, and occupation of the party, and his sureties entering into such recognizance, together with the condition thereof, and the sums acknowledged, and shall lay the same before such justice as is present at the time and place when and where the party is required to appear; and if he does not appear at the time and place required, or within one hour after, the justice shall cause a record of the recognizance to be drawn up, to be signed by the constable or headborough, and return the same to the next general or quarter sessions, with a certificate at the back, signed by such justice, that the party has not complied with the obligation therein contained, and the clerk of the peace shall make the like estreats and schedules of every such recognizance as of recognizances forfeited in the sessions; and if the party not appearing shall apply, by any person on his behalf, to postpone the hearing of the charge against him, and the justice thinks fit to consent thereto, he may enlarge the recognizance to such further time as he shall appoint; and when the matter is determined, either by dismissal of the complaint, or by binding the party over to the sessions or otherwise, the recognizance shall be discharged without fee, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 28.

41. Every person who shall wilfully destroy or damage, or endeavour to destroy or damage, or be wilfully concerned in destroying or damaging, or endeavouring to destroy or damage, any boat belonging to or hired or employed by or by authority of the justices appointed to attend at the Thames police office, or any part of the sails, oars, or other tackle, stores, goods, or furniture contained in or belonging to any such boat, shall forfeit for every boat so destroyed or damaged, &c. or of which any of the tackle or other contents have been so destroyed or damaged, &c. not exceeding 50*l.*, or shall suffer imprisonment for not exceeding 3 months over and above any such damages as may be recoverable by action at law against him, id. s. 29.

42. Every such Thames police surveyor (subject to the orders of the said justices appointed to attend the Thames police office), having just cause to suspect that any felony has been or is about to be committed in or on board of any ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel, lying or being in the said river, docks, or creeks, may enter at all times, as well by night as by day, into and upon every such ship, &c. or other vessel, and therein take all necessary measures for the effectual prevention or detection of all felonies which he suspects to have been or to be about to be committed upon the said river, &c., and apprehend and detain all persons suspected of being concerned therein, and also all property so suspected to be stolen, and the same produce before some justice, to be dealt with according to law, id. s. 30.

43. Every such Thames police surveyor, at any time between sun-rising and sun-setting, may enter any ship or vessel (except H. M.'s ships) in the said river, docks, and creeks, and search the same for unlawful quantities of gunpowder, and also exercise the same powers of seizing, removing to proper places, and detaining all such unlawful quantities of gunpowder found on board any such vessel, and the barrels or other packages in which such gunpowder is, as are given to persons searching for unlawful quantities of gunpowder under a warrant of a justice, by the 12 G. 3. c. 61. [See GUNPOWDER.] id. s. 31.

44. Any Thames police constable or surveyor, or other peace officer within his jurisdiction, may stop, search, and detain in some place of safety, any boat in which there is reason to suspect of having any ropes, cordage, tackle, apparel, furniture, stores, materials, or any part of any cargo or lading, stolen or unlawfully procured out of any ship, boat, barge, lighter, or craft, in the said river, docks, or creeks, or from any wharf, quay, or landing place, adjacent thereto; and also apprehend and detain any person who may be reasonably suspected of having or conveying any such articles in such boat; who shall be conveyed before some justice of peace; and if he shall not produce the party from whom he bought or received such articles, or some credible person, to depose on oath the sale or delivery thereof, or shall not give an account to the satisfaction of such justice how he came by the same, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52., and such boat, with her tackle, apparel, furniture, and loading, shall, upon conviction, be forfeited and disposed of as in s. 43. pl. 55. directed, id. s. 32.

45. Every Thames police constable and surveyor, and every other peace officer within his jurisdiction, shall apprehend and detain every person who may reasonably be suspected of having or carrying any such ropes, &c. as in last pl., stolen or unlawfully procured from or out of any ship, &c. in the said river, docks or creeks, or from any wharf, quay, or landing place adjacent thereto, and also shall seize all such articles and detain them in some place of safety, and shall, as soon as conveniently may be, convey every person so apprehended before some justice of peace; and if he shall not produce the party from whom he or she bought or received such articles, or some credible person to depose on oath the sale or delivery thereof, or shall not give an account, to the satisfaction of such justice, how he or she came by the same, then the person so apprehended shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52., directed, id. s. 33.

46. If, on information given on oath, it appears to any justice that there is cause to suspect that any materials, furniture, stores, or any part of the cargo of any vessel lying in the said river, docks, or creeks, or any stores belonging to H. M., or consigned to any person for

H. M.'s service, have been stolen or unlawfully obtained from or out of any such ship, boat, or craft lying in the said river, &c., or from any wharf, quay, or other landing place adjacent to the same, or from or in the way to or from any warehouse into or from which such articles had been removing or removed to or from any such wharf, quay, or landing place, and that such articles, after having been so stolen or unlawfully obtained, are concealed or lodged in any dwelling house, warehouse, yard, garden, or any other place, such justice, by special warrant under his hand and seal, directed to any Thames police constable or surveyor, or other constable within his jurisdiction, may cause such place to be searched by day or night, if power for that purpose be especially given in such warrant; and such justice, if it appears necessary, may moreover empower such constable or surveyor, with any assistance such justice or constable or surveyor may find necessary (such constable or surveyor having previously made known such his authority), to use force for the effecting of such entry, whether by breaking open doors or otherwise; and if upon search made any such suspected article is found, to convey the same forthwith to a justice, or to guard the same on the spot while the offenders are taken before a justice, or otherwise disposed thereof in some place of safety, subject to the orders of a justice, as above-mentioned; and moreover apprehend and convey before the said justice the person in whose house, lodging, or other place, the same were found, as also every other person found in such house, &c. who appears to have been privy to the depositing of such article in such place, knowing or having cause to suspect the same to have been stolen or unlawfully obtained; and if such person respectively shall not immediately or within some reasonable time assigned by the justice, make it appear, to his satisfaction, by what lawful means such articles came to be situated in such place without any default on the part of such persons respectively, or that they did not know that the same were, or by what means they were situated in such place, then the person in whose house, &c. any such suspected article was found, and every other person so appearing to have been privy to the depositing thereof, shall be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 34.

47. If any person, on being so produced before any justice to give an account of any articles seized and detained, in any such cases, shall declare himself to have bought, received, or otherwise obtained such articles of some other person, such justice shall examine such other person, and also every other prior pretended purchaser; and if upon the whole of the evidence, it appears to his satisfaction, that the party so suspected at the time of receiving such articles into possession, did believe or had cause to believe that the same were at any time and by any person unlawfully come by or obtained, such justice shall adjudge such party guilty of misdemeanor, who shall thereupon suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52, id. s. 35.

48. If any master or commander or other officer of any vessel (except H. M.'s ships) shall, while such vessel lies in the said river between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, keep any gun on board such vessel shotted or loaded with ball, or cause or permit to be fired or discharged any gun on board such vessel, before sun-rising, or after sun-setting, he shall for every such gun so kept shotted or loaded, forfeit 5s.; and for every gun so fired or discharged, 10s.; and every master, &c. of any such vessel, or any other person on board of the same, or any person on board of any barge, lighter, boat, or other craft or vessel, who shall, while such ship, &c. lie in the said river between Westminster Bridge and Blackwall, heat or melt, or cause or permit to be heated or melted by fire, logger-heat shot, or any other means, on board any ship, barge, &c. or vessel whatever, any pitch, tar, rosin, grease, tallow, oil, or other combustible matter, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*; and any one of the justices appointed to attend at the Thames police office, or any other justice within his jurisdiction, shall upon any information exhibited or complaint made in that behalf, within ten days next after such offence was committed, summon the party accused, and also the witnesses on either side, or after oath made of the commission of any such facts by one witness, issue a warrant to apprehend the party accused, and upon the party's appearance or contempt in not appearing (upon the proof of notice given) such justice shall proceed to the examination of the witnesses on oath, and upon due proof thereof, either by confession or oath of one witness shall give judgment; and in case the party accused is convicted, may commit such offender to prison, for not exceeding 2 months, unless the penalty is sooner paid; and any person aggrieved by the judgment of any such justice, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions for the county or city where such offence was committed, on giving immediate notice of such appeal, and finding security to the satisfaction of such justice, for prosecuting the same with effect, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; and such court shall summon and examine witnesses upon oath, and finally determine the matter, and in case the judgment is affirmed, award the appellant to pay such costs occasioned by such appeal as seem meet; and one moiety of all money recovered on account of every such penalty, shall be distributed at the discretion of the convicting justice, to such person as he shall judge to have been instrumental in detecting and prosecuting the offender, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 36.

49. Every person who for the purpose of protecting or preventing any goods or other articles from being seized, on suspicion of being stolen or unlawfully obtained, or of preventing the same from being produced as evidence of or concerning any felony or misdemeanor, shall frame or cause to be framed, or be anywise concerned in framing, &c., any bill of parcels containing any false statement in regard to the name or abode of any alleged vendor, the quantity or quality of any goods, the place from whence, or the conveyance by which the same were furnished, the price agreed upon for the same, or any other particular, knowing such statement to be false, or who shall fraudulently produce such bill of parcels, knowing the same to have been fraudulently framed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52; and may moreover, at the discretion of any justice in whose jurisdiction such offence is committed, be advertised as a fabricator of false bills of parcels, or as a convicted or reputed receiver of goods stolen or unlawfully obtained, as the case may be, id. s. 37.

50. If any person employed in the loading and landing or warehousing of any goods, or any other person, shall wilfully or through culpable negligence, cause or be concerned in causing or suffering to be broken, bruised, pierced, started, cut, torn, or otherwise injured, any cask, box, chest, bag, or other package, containing or being designed and prepared for containing any goods while on board of any barge, lighter, or other craft lying or being in the said river, or any dock, creek, quay, wharf, or landing place adjacent to the same, or in or in the way to or from any warehouse to or from which such package has been removed, is removing or about to be removed, with intent that the contents may be spilled, every person so offending shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52, id. s. 38.

51. If for the purposes of preventing the seizure or discovery of any materials, furniture, stores, or merchandize belonging to or having been part of the cargo of any vessel lying in the said river, or the docks or creeks adjacent thereto, or of any other articles unlawfully obtained from any such vessel, any such or any other article is wilfully let fall or thrown into the river, or otherwise purposely conveyed, or endeavoured to be conveyed away from any ship, boat, barge, lighter, craft, wharf, quay, or other landing place, every person being party, privy, or accessory to such letting fall, &c., or to any previous instructions or premeditated design, so to let fall, &c. any such article with any such purpose, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and if any article of apparent value is wilfully let fall, thrown, conveyed, or endeavoured to be conveyed away from any ship, boat, &c. into any other boat, barge, lighter, or craft, or from any wharf, quay, or other landing place, without the assent of the owner, or person having the charge of such article, any such Thames police constable or surveyor, or any constable of the city of London, within the jurisdiction of the city, may seize, and secure any such boat, &c., in which such article is so let fall, &c.; and every person therein, or who by reason of his nearness to the place where such offence is committed, is reasonably suspected of being party or accessory thereto, and forthwith convey such person before one of the justices appointed to attend at the Thames police office, or some other justice in whose jurisdiction such offence is committed; and if on examination it is not made appear that such letting fall, &c. or endeavour to convey away, proceeded either from accident or some lawful cause, and not from any such fraudulent design, every person so appearing to be a party or accessory, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and suffer as in s. 40. pl. 52, id. s. 39.

52. For every offence hereinbefore [ss. 32—39. pl. 44—51.] declared to be a misdemeanor, or for which no special penalty is hereinbefore appointed, the offender shall, at the discretion of the convicting justice, either forfeit not exceeding 5*l.*, or suffer imprisonment for not exceeding two months in any gaol or house of correction within the jurisdiction of such justice; and in case of the adjudication of a pecuniary penalty, and non-payment thereof, such justice may commit the offender to any gaol or house of correction for the like term, unless such penalty is sooner paid; and one moiety shall be paid to such receiver as in s. 4. pl. 17, for the purposes of this act, and the other, under the direction of the justice by whom adjudged, shall either be applied to the informer alone, or be distributed between such persons as contributed to the conviction, in such shares as such justice shall think fit, id. s. 40.

53. In every case in which complaint is made, or information given of any offence by this act declared a misdemeanor, or for which any pecuniary penalty is hereby appointed, with or without imprisonment in addition thereto or in lieu thereof, such complaint or information, if the offence was committed or the offender apprehended within the jurisdiction of the city of London, may be determined by the lord mayor, recorder, or one of the aldermen of the said city, and not elsewhere; but if the offence was committed or the offender apprehended out of such jurisdiction, then either by one of the justices appointed to the Thames police office, or by any other justice within whose jurisdiction the offence was committed or the offender apprehended; and every conviction thereupon had, shall be certified, filed, and entered as directed by 2 G. 3. c. 28., to prevent thefts by persons navigating bum-boats on the Thames, [See THAMES POLICE.] with respect to convictions under that act, and may also be drawn up in such form, mutatis mutandis, as appointed by the said act; and neither such conviction, nor any proceeding previous thereto, shall be removed by certiorari or otherwise into any court of record, but shall be final, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 118. s. 41.

54. Every person guilty of any of the offences declared misdemeanors in and by 2 G. 3. c. 28. may be punished at the discretion of the justice or justices before whom the offender is convicted, with the punishment appointed by the said act, or that appointed for misdemeanors under this act (pl. 40.), id. s. 42.

55. In all cases in which it is directed by the 2 G. 3. c. 28. that any boat with her tackle and appurts., which shall be forfeited, shall be burnt and destroyed, any justice before whom any person has been convicted of any offence whereby any boat is or should be adjudged forfeited under that act, and any justice by whom any boat is adjudged forfeited under this act, may either direct such boat, with her tackle and appurts., to be burnt and destroyed, or to be restored to the owners, or to be publicly sold, and the produce of such sale shall be applied as in all other cases of forfeitures under this act, id. s. 45.

56. All differences and disputes which shall happen between any bargemen, lightermen, watermen, ballastmen (except Trinity ballastmen), coal whippers, coal porters, sailors, lumpers, riggers, shipwrights, caulkers, or other labourers who work for hire in or upon the river Thames, or the docks, creeks, wharfs, quays, or places adjacent, and the owners, masters, or commanders of vessels or their agents on the said river, or the docks or creeks thereunto adjoining, or the owners, wharfingers, or occupiers of such wharfs or quays, or their agents or other employers, respecting the wages or money due to such labourers for work, whether the same persons be employed for any certain time or in any other manner, shall be determined by the justices appointed to the Thames police office, or one of them, or any other justice within his jurisdiction; who shall summon before him any such master or commander, or owner of any vessel, or his agent, or the owner, wharfinger, or occupier of any wharf or quay, or their agents, or any other employer; and if any such master, &c. neglects to attend such summons, then such justice shall issue his warrant to bring such person summoned before him, to answer such complaint, and examine upon oath any such bargeman, &c. or other labourer, or any other witnesses, touching any such complaint or dispute, and make such order for payment of so much wages to such bargeman, &c. or other labourer, as to such justice seems just; provided the sum ordered do not exceed 5*l.*, besides all costs of prosecution, which costs the justice shall order; and in case of refusal to pay or non-payment of any sum so ordered for 24 hours, such justice may issue his warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of goods, together with the charges of such distress and sale; and if no distress found, shall commit the person ordered to make such payment to prison, for not exceeding one month, unless the sum so ordered is sooner paid; and such order shall be final, and not removable by certiorari or otherwise, id. s. 44.

57. Nothing herein shall empower any justice, except the lord mayor, aldermen, and recorder of the city of London, or some or one of them, to determine any such differences or disputes as arise in respect of any employment or work done within the city of London, or the suburbs and liberties thereof, or on board of any ship, hoy, barge, lighter, boat, or other vessel, lying or being on the north side of the river, between the Tower of London and the western extremity of the Temple adjoining Essex-street, in Middlesex, id. s. 45.

58. Nothing in this act shall deprive the lord mayor and commonalty and citizens of the city of London, of any right, privilege or jurisdiction heretofore lawfully claimed or enjoyed within the borough of Southwark or the liberties thereof, or prevent the said lord mayor, or such of the aldermen of the said city as have borne the office of mayoralty, or the recorder of the city, from acting as justices of peace within the borough of Southwark, and the liberties thereof, in such manner as they could have done in case this act had not been made; nor to deprive the lord mayor and commonalty and citizens of the said city, of any right, immunity, or jurisdiction, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed or enjoyed upon the said river, or the lord mayor of the said city as conservator of the said river; nor prevent the said lord mayor and the said aldermen and recorder from acting as justices of peace upon the said river, or taking cognizance of offenders committed upon or within the limits of the same, in such manner as they might have done in case this act had not been made, id. s. 46.

59. Nothing in this act shall deprive the dean and chapter of the collegiate church of St. Peter Westminster, or the high steward or high bailiff of the city and liberty of Westminster, or their respective lawful deputy, of any rights, privileges, or jurisdictions, which they have heretofore lawfully claimed or enjoyed within the said city and liberty, in such manner as if this act had not been made, id. s. 47.

60. Nothing in this act shall prejudice or derogate from any of the rights, privileges, or authorities of the master, warden, and assistants of the guild of the most glorious and undivided Trinity, and of St. Clement, in the parish of Deptford Strand, in the county of Kent, id. s. 48.

POLYGAMY. (See BIGAMY.)

1. TO RESTRAIN ALL PERSONS FROM MARRIAGE until their former wives and former husbands be dead, 1 J. 1. c. 11. [AMD. 35 G. 3. c. 67.]

2. If any person within Eng. and Wa. do marry another, the former husband or wife being alive, such offence shall be felony, and the offender shall suffer death, and be tried in the county where apprehended, 1 J. 1. c. 11. s. 1.

3. If any person within Eng. or Wa. do marry any person, the former husband or wife being alive, and shall be convicted thereof under 1 J. 1. c. 11., he shall be liable to the same punishment as persons convicted of grand or petit larceny, 35 G. 3. c. 67. s. 1.

4. Persons ordered to be transported under this act who shall be at large within G. B., without lawful causes, before the expiration of the term of transportation, shall, on conviction, be guilty of felony, and suffer death, id. s. 2.

5. Such offenders so found at large, may be tried for such offence in the county where originally convicted, or in the county where apprehended (the same being in Eng. or Wa.), and in such latter case the clerk of the court where they were originally convicted, shall certify a transcript, briefly containing the tenor and effect of the record of indictment, verdict, and judgment against them, which certificate, on production to the court, shall be good evidence of the indictment, &c. in such record, id. s. 5.

6. This act shall not extend to any person whose husband or wife shall stay beyond seas, or shall be absent the one from the other for 7 years, the one not knowing the other to be living, 1 J. 1. c. 11. s. 2.

7. This act shall not extend to any person who shall be at the time of such marriage divorced by sentence in the ecclesiastical court, or to any person whose former marriage has been by such court declared void, or to any person by reason of a former marriage within age of consent, id. s. 3.

8. No attainder for such offence shall work corruption of blood, loss of dower, or disinherison of heirs, id. s. 4.

POOR.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. DIRECTING HOW AGED POOR AND IMPOTENT PERSONS compelled to live by alms shall be ordered, and how vagabonds and beggars shall be punished, 22 H. 8. c. 12. [CON. 28 H. 8. c. 6., 31 H. 8. c. 7., 33 H. 8. c. 17. REV. 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 16. REP. 14 El. c. 5. s. 1. REV. 35 El. c. 7. s. 25., and again REP. 21 Ja. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

2. FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 2., 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 5. [both EXP.] 5 El. c. 3., [which is REP. 14 El. c. 5. s. 1.] 39 El. c. 3., 43 El. c. 2. s. 17. [EXP.]

3. TO ENABLE SUCH OFFICERS, MARINERS, AND SOLDIERS as have been in the land and sea service, or in the marines, since 29 G. 2., to exercise trades, 3 G. 3. c. 8. [since 2 G. 3., 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 6. both EXP.; see now 58 G. 3. c. 67. post, pl. 18, &c.]

4. FOR OBLIGING THE OVERSEERS OF THE POOR, within the several parishes and places within Eng., to make returns upon oath to certain questions specified in the act, relative to the state of the poor, and to authorize and require the justices of peace within their respective divisions and jurisdictions, in the several counties and cities in Eng. and Wa., to take such returns upon oath, and to cause them to be transmitted to the clerk of the parliaments, 16 G. 3. c. 40. [EXP.]

5. FOR OBLIGING THE OVERSEERS OF THE POOR to make returns upon oath, to certain questions specified therein, relative to the state of the poor, 26 G. 3. c. 56. [EXP.]

6. TO ENLARGE THE POWERS OF THE DIRECTORS AND GUARDIANS of the poor within the several hundreds, towns, and districts in Eng., incorporated by divers acts of parliament [especially see 22 G. 3. c. 83.] for the purpose of the better maintenance and employment of the poor, as to assessments to be made on the several parishes, hamlets, and places therein mentioned, until 1 Jan. 1802, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 40. [EXP.]

7. FOR MAKING BETTER PROVISION for the maintenance of the poor, and for diminishing the consumption of bread corn, by directing the manner of applying parish relief until 6 Nov. 1801, and from thence until the end of six weeks after the meeting of the then next session of parliament, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 12. [EXP.]

8. FOR PROCURING RETURNS relative to the expense and maintenance of the poor in Eng., 43 G. 3. c. 144. [EXP.]

9. FOR PROCURING RETURNS relative to the expense and maintenance of the poor in Eng., 55 G.3. c.47. [Exp. For rest of this title see HIGHWAYS.]

(STATUTES in force.)

[NOTE.— In order to render the statutes on this complicated subject as easy of access as possible, the subject has been divided into seven heads. The first contains 43 El. c.2., (on which the whole law relating to Poor has been grounded,) together with such other provisions as were found to affect the subject generally. In a few instances, however, some clauses of a general nature, contained in acts otherwise specially devoted to one branch of the poor laws, are introduced; but have notwithstanding been also placed with the rest of those acts.]

STATUTES relating to

- I. Poor in general.
- II. Incorporated Parishes.
- III. Select Vestries.
- IV. Rates.
- V. Relief and Contracts.
- VI. Settlement and Removal.
- VII. Workhouses.

I. Poor in general.

1. FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR, (viz. by appointing overseers, making a rate for their relief, by building poor-houses, and putting out poor children apprentices, and rendering it imperative on relations to support one another,) 43 El. c.2. ss.1—11. 18, 19. [CON. 1 J.1. c.25. s.23., 21 J.1. c.28. s.1., 3 C.1. c.4. AMP. 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. ss.21, 22., 59 G.3. c.12. s.26. See the rest of this last act accounted for, pl. 245. And as to the appointment of overseers, 54 G.3. c.91.]

2. The churchwardens of every parish, and 4, 3, or 2 householders there, to be nominated yearly in Easter week, [on the 25th March, or within 14 days after, notwithstanding 43 El. c.2., 54 G.3. c.91.; and see further 59 G.5. c.12. ss.6, 7.] or within 1 month after Easter, under the hand and seal of 2 justices of peace, whereof one of the quorum, dwelling in or near the parish, shall be called overseers of the poor of the same parish; and they, or the greater part of them, shall take order, with consent of 2 justices, for setting to work the children of all such whose parents are not able to keep their children; and also for setting to work all such persons, married or unmarried, having no means to maintain them, and using no trade to get their living by; and also to raise weekly, or otherwise (by taxation of every inhabitant, parson, and other, and every occupier of lands, houses, tithes impropriate, appropriations of tithes, coal mines, or saleable underwoods in such parish, in such sums as they think fit) a convenient stock of flax, hemp, wool, thread, iron, and other stuff, to set the poor on work; and also money for the relief of the lame, old, blind, and other, being poor, and not able to work; and also for the putting out of children apprentices to be gathered out of the parish, and to do all other things concerning the premises, 43 El. c.2. s.1. [See further as to making rates, post, Div. IV., and as to the appointing overseers where an overseer dies, &c., and their powers where no churchwarden, 17 G.2. c.38. ss.3.—15.]

3. Which churchwardens and overseers, or such of them as shall not be let by sickness, or other just excuse to be allowed by two justices, shall meet once every month in the church, upon the Sunday afternoon, to consider of the premises; and shall within 4 days after the end of their year, and after other overseers nominated, yield to such 2 justices a true account of all money by them received, or rated and not received, and of such stock as shall be in their hands, or in the hands of the poor to work, and all other things concerning their office; and such money as shall be in their hands shall pay over to the churchwardens and overseers newly appointed; upon pain that every one of them absenting themselves, or being negligent in their office, to forfeit 20s., id. s.2. [See as to the accounts, 17 G.2. c.38. ss.1, 2., pl. 137, 138., 50 G.3. c.49. pl. 139—145.]

4. All the poor, needy, impotent, or lame persons, within every township or village in Lancashire, Cheshire, Derbyshire, Yorkshire, Northumberland, the bishopric of Durham, Cumberland, and Westmorland, shall be maintained, provided for, and set in work, in the township or village where they inhabit, and wherein they were last legally settled according to this act [see post, Div. VI.]; and there shall be yearly chosen, according to 43 El. c.2. s.1., two or more overseers of the poor within such townships and villages, who shall execute all acts and powers necessary for the relief of the poor there, and who in case of default shall forfeit as in 43 El. c.2. is limited, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.21. The justices within such counties shall have like power, and do all acts within such townships or villages where they are justices, as is limited for them to do within any parish by 43 El. c.2., under the like pains as in such act expressed, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.22. [QU. EXP., see the note post. pl. 245.]

5. If such 2 justices perceive that the inhabitants of any parish are not able to levy among themselves sufficient money for such purposes, they may tax any other of other parishes, or out of any parish within the hundred where such parish is, to pay such sums to the churchwardens of the poor parish, as the justices shall think fit; and if the hundred shall not be able to relieve the several parishes not able to provide for themselves, the justices at their quarter-sessions shall rate any other of other parishes, or out of any parish within such county, as they shall see fit, 43 El. c.2. s.3.

6. The churchwardens and overseers, by warrant from 2 such justices, may levy as well such sums, and all arrears, of every one that shall refuse to contribute as they shall be assessed, by distress and sale of their goods, as also the money and stock behind on such account, as in s.2. pl. 3. directed; and in defect of distress, any 2 justices may commit them to the common gaol of the county until payment: and they or one of them may send to the house of correction or common gaol such as shall not employ themselves to work, being appointed as in s.1.; and may commit to prison the churchwardens and overseers which shall refuse to account, until such account is made and what is due paid, id. s.4. [See further as to distraining for rates, 17 G.3. c.38. s.7. pl. 152.]

7. The churchwardens and overseers, by the assent of two justices, may bind such children, as in s.1., apprentices, till man-children come to the age of 24 years, [21 years, 18 G.5. c.47., see APPRENTICE,] and woman-children to the age of 21 years, or to the time of marriage. And the churchwardens and overseers, by leave of the lord of the manor whereof any waste or common within their parish is parcel, upon agreement in writing under the hands and seals of such lords, or otherwise, according to an order of sessions by like leave and agreement, may build in such waste at the charges of the parish, or of the hundred or county, as in s.5., houses of dwelling for the poor, and also place inmates in cottages; which cottages shall not be used for any other habitation, but only for impotent and poor of the parish, under the penalties by 31 El. c.7. [REP., 15 G.3. c.32.] imposed, id. s.5. [See further as to workhouses, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. ss.4—15. post. pl. 245.; 9 G.1. c.7. s.4. pl. 221—225.]

8. All persons to whom the overseers of the poor shall, under this act, [QU. 43 El. c.2.] bind any children apprentices, may receive and keep them as such. [And the churchwardens and overseers of the poor mentioned in 43 El. c.2. with the consent of two justices, one whereof shall be of the quorum, and where only one justice with the assent of that one, may set up, use, and occupy any trade or occupation only for setting the poor on work, and better relief of the poor of such their parish, town, or place, 3 C.1. c.4. s.22. only.] 1 J.1. c.25. s.23., 21 J.1. c.28. s.1., 3 C.1. c.4. s.22. [See further on this head, APPRENTICE.]

9. If any persons find themselves grieved with any tax, or other act done by such churchwardens, &c., or by such justices, the justices at quarter sessions may take such order as shall be thought convenient, and the same shall bind all parties, 43 El. c.2. s.6.

10. The father and grandfather, and mother and grandmother, and the children, of every poor, old, blind, lame, and impotent person, or other poor person not able to work, being of a sufficient ability, shall at their own charges, maintain such poor person at such rate, as by the justices at their quarter sessions shall be assessed; upon pain to forfeit 20s. for every month, id. s.7.

11. Two justices for the county or other jurisdiction, may on any petty sessions make such assessment and order for the relief of every poor, old, blind, lame, impotent, or other person not able to work, upon the father, grandfather, mother, grandmother, or child, (being of sufficient ability,) of such old, &c. person, as by 43 El. c.2. s.7. may be made at the quarter sessions; and such assessment and order shall have the like effect as if made at the quarter sessions, and disobedience thereof, shall be punishable in like manner, 59 G.5. c.12. s.26.

12. The mayors, bailiffs, or other head officers, of every town corporate and city, being justices of peace, shall have the same authority under this act within their limits, as well out of as in sessions, as justices of peace of the county; and no other justices shall meddle there. And every alderman of London within his ward may do so much as is appointed to be done by one or two justices, 43 El. c.2. s.8.

13. If any parish extend into more counties than one, or part lie within the liberties of any city or place corporate, and part without, then as well the justices of every county as the head officers of such city or place corporate, shall deal only in so much of the parish as lieth within their liberties; and every of them within their limits shall execute the ordinances in ss.1—4. And yet the churchwardens and overseers of the parishes that extend into such several limits, shall, without dividing themselves, execute their office; and shall make one account before the head officer of the town corporate, and one other before the justices of peace, id. s.9.

14. If in any place there happen to be no nomination of overseers yearly, every justice of peace dwelling within the division, and every mayor, alderman, and head officer, of any city or place corporate, where such default shall happen, shall forfeit 5l. towards the relief of the poor of such parish or place corporate, to be levied by warrant from the sessions of the county or place corporate, on their goods, 43 El. c. 2. s. 10.

15. All penalties by this act imposed, shall be employed to the use of the poor of the parish, and towards a stock and habitation for them, and other necessary uses; and shall be levied by the churchwardens and overseers; or one of them, by warrant from any two justices, or mayor, alderman, or head officer, of city or place corporate, by distress and sale; or in defect thereof, any two such justices, &c. may commit the offender to prison till the forfeitures be paid, id. s. 11.

16. The justices of Essex shall appoint inhabitants within the island of Foulness to be overseers for the poor in the island, as if the same island were a parish. In consideration whereof, neither such inhabitants shall be compelled to contribute towards the relief of the poor of those parishes wherein their houses or lands within such island are situated, other than for the relief of the poor within the island; neither shall the other inhabitants of the parishes wherein such houses or lands are situated be compelled to contribute to the relief of the poor within such island, id. s. 18.

17. If any action be brought for making any distress or sale, or for any thing doing by authority of this act, the defendant may either plead not guilty, or make avowry, cognizance, or justification, for the taking of the distresses, making of sale, or other thing so done, alleging that the thing whereof the plaintiff complained was done by authority of this act, without rehearsal or any other matter; to which the plaintiff shall be admitted to reply, that the defendant did take the distress, &c. without any such cause; and upon trial of such issue, the whole matter shall be given in evidence by both parties. And after such issue tried for the defendant, or nonsuit of the plaintiff after appearance, the defendant shall recover treble damages with costs, to be assessed by the same jury, or writ to inquire of the damages, id. s. 19.

18. TO ENABLE SUCH OFFICERS, MARINERS, AND SOLDIERS, AS HAVE been in the land or sea service, or in the marines, or in the militia, or any corp of fencible men since [16th July, 1784., 42 G. 3. c. 69.] 22d June, 1802., to exercise trades, 56 G. 3. c. 67. [42 G. 3. c. 69. is in substance the same as the following act.]

19. All such officers, mariners, soldiers, and marines, as have been employed in the service of H. M. since 22d June, 1802., and have not since deserted such service, and also their wives and children may set up such trades as they are apt for, in any city or place in the kingdom, without let of any person therefore; nor shall such officers, &c. during the time they exercise such trade, be removable from such place to their last legal settlement, until they become actually chargeable to such parish; and if they are sued or indicted in any court for using such trades, they may, on making it appear to the court where sued or indicted, that they have served H. M., or that he, she, or they is or are the wife, wives, child, or children of any such officer, &c. on the general issue pleaded, be found not guilty; and the person who shall prosecute such bill, &c., and who has a verdict against him, or who is nonsuited therein or discontinues, shall pay to such defendant double costs, to be recovered as common costs at law may be; and all judges and persons before whom such suit or indictment shall come shall take notice of this act, and conform thereto, id. s. 1.

20. Two justices for the county, city, town, or place, where any such officer, &c. shall exercise his trade, may cause such mariner, soldier, or marine, to be summoned before them, in order to make oath of the place of his last legal settlement, which oath such justices shall administer; and such officer, &c. shall obey such summons, and such justices shall give an attested copy of such affidavit to the party making it, in order that he may produce it when required, which attested copy shall be admitted as evidence, as to such legal settlement before the general or quarter sessions: provided, that in case any such officer, &c. shall again be summoned to make such oath, then on such attested copy being produced by him or any other person in his behalf, he shall not be obliged to take any further oath, but shall leave a copy of such attested copy of his examination if required, id. s. 2.

21. This act shall extend to all officers and soldiers who have personally served in the militia or any fencible regiments from 2d June, 1802, for 5 years, and also have been honourably discharged, id. s. 3.

22. This act shall not be in any wise prejudicial to the privileges of universities of Cambridge and Oxford, and shall not give liberty to any person to set up the trade of a vintner, or to sell any wine or other liquors within such universities, without licence from the vice-chancellor of the same, id. s. 4.

23. TO REPEAL CERTAIN PROVISIONS [viz. THOSE COMPELLING poor persons receiving relief to go into the poor house] in local acts for the maintenance and management of the poor, 56 G. 3. c. 129. s. 1. [see s. 2. as to manacling persons in workhouse, 56 G. 3. c. 129. s. 2. pl. 267.

24. All enactments and provisions contained in any acts of parliament since 1 G. 1., whereby any poor person, other than such as shall actually apply for, and receive parochial relief, are made compellable to go or remain in any house of industry, or workhouse; or whereby any poor person may be detained or kept in any such house, at the discretion of the governors or directors, or of the churchwardens or overseers, after such persons are capable of maintaining themselves; or whereby any poor person may be compelled to remain in any such house, until the charges and expenses to which any district, parish, township, or hamlet, may have been put or become liable for the maintenance or support of such poor person, or any of his family, shall be repaid or satisfied by the earnings of such poor person; or whereby any poor child whomsoever is rendered liable to be apprenticed to any governor, director, or master of any such house of industry, or workhouse, or whereby any parish, &c. at a greater distance than ten miles, shall be empowered to become contributors to, or to take the benefit of such house of industry or workhouse; or whereby any directors, governors, guardians, or masters, are authorized to hire out any poor person of full age, or to contract or agree with any person to have the profit of the labour of such poor person, shall be wholly repealed, id. ibid.

25. FOR CONFIRMING ANCIENT SEPARATIONS OF TOWNS CORPORATE from parishes in regard to the maintenance of the poor, 59 G. 3. c. 95.

26. All ancient separations of towns corporate or franchises, from the parish or parishes, in which they are situate, together with the separate appointment of overseers of the poor, shall be deemed to be lawful, to all intents and purposes, in the same manner as if such separation had taken place under the 43 El. c. 2. But nothing in this act shall confirm any such separation in respect to the maintenance of the poor, or the appointment of overseers of the poor, in any case where such separation has commenced within 60 years before the passing of this act, id. ibid.

27. FOR ALLOWING APPEALS FROM TOWNS CORPORATE and franchises, in certain cases, to the general or quarter sessions of the peace of the counties in which they are situated, 1 G. 4. c. 36.

28. In all corporations or franchises, not having more than 6 justices of peace, nor having jurisdiction over 2 or more whole parishes or wards contained therein, any person in the cases referred to in 43 El. c. 2. (s. 6. pl. 9.) or 17 G. 2. s. 38. (s. 5. pl. 148.) or either of them, where an appeal is by such acts given, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, or division wherein such corporation or franchise is situate, as fully as if there had been only 4 justices; provided nothing herein shall extend to any city or town corporate being a county of itself, id. ibid. [QU. does this act extend to 50 G. 3. c. 49. s. 4. pl. 142. f?]

29. FOR DECLARING VALID CERTAIN INDENTURES of apprenticeship, and certificates of settlements of poor persons in Eng., 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 52.

30. From 28th May 1821, all indentures for binding parish apprentices, and certificates of the settlements of poor persons which previous to that day have been executed or signed by one church or chapel warden, acting or purporting to act in that capacity for any parish, township, hamlet, chapelry, or place in Eng. for which 2 church or chapel wardens had formerly been appointed, shall be deemed as good to all purposes as if the same indentures and certificates had been executed by one or more church or chapel wardens legally appointed, id. s. 1.

31. Nothing herein shall affect any decision in any court of judicature respecting any such indentures, or affect the settlement of any person for whose removal any order of justices has been duly made before 28th May 1821, or shall legalize or make void any indentures or certificates to be signed or executed as in s. 1., id. s. 2.

II. Incorporated Parishes.

32. FOR THE BETTER RELIEF AND EMPLOYMENT OF THE POOR [viz. by erecting poor-houses, and appointing visitors and guardians to them] 22 G. 3. c. 83. (PUBLIC clause, s. 47.) [AMD. 33 G. 3. c. 35., 36 G. 3. c. 23. s. 4. pl. 88., 41 G. 3. G. B. c. 9., 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 27. pl. 77. (PUBLIC clause, s. 5.) and as to payment of debts incurred in building poor-houses, 42 G. 3. c. 74., 43 G. 3. c. 110. EXT. to all parishes, 49 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5. (see the rest of this act, pl. 229. 232—234.) and which is AMD. 50 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1. 3—5. (see s. 2. pl. 187.) and as to selling poor-houses and lands, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 56. pl. 95. pl. 9.]

33. So much of 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 4. as relates to the maintaining or hiring out the labour of the poor by contract within any parish, township, or place, which shall adopt the provisions of this act, shall be REP. and every such contract made in pursuance thereof for either of those purposes shall be void, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 1.

34. The visitor and guardian, or visitors and guardians appointed as in s. 7. of any parish or place which has adopted and complied with this act, and shall have a visitor appointed from time to time, may make agreements for the diet or clothing of such poor persons who shall be sent to the house provided under this act, and for the work and labour of such persons, so that no such agreement shall be for a longer time than 12 months, and so that the same is under the inspection and controul of the visitor, guardian, and governor of such poor-house, and the justices for the limits where such house is, 2 of whom, upon proof of any abuse, shall dissolve such contract, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 2.

35. Whenever two third parts in number and value, according to the poor-rate of the owners or occupiers of lands, tenements, or hereditaments, within any parish or place qualified as in s. 6. pl. 40. mentioned, shall, at a public meeting held in pursuance of this act, signify their approbation of this act, and their desire to adopt them in the form contained in the schedule No. 1., and shall then recommend and nominate for the consideration of the justices of the county, riding, city, or place, where such meeting is held, 3 persons qualified for guardians of the poor for such parish, &c. and 3 others to be governors of the poor-house thereof, and fix the salaries to be paid to them, and shall procure the consent of 2 justices acting for that limit to such agreement and salaries, by writing under their hands in the forms contained in the schedule No. 2., and shall cause such agreement to be registered pursuant to this act, such parish, &c. shall have the benefits of this act, id. s. 3.

36. Whenever two-thirds in number and value, as in 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 3. of persons qualified as in s. 6. of that act, pl. 40. only, actually attend the public meeting in that act mentioned, and there signify their approbation of the 22 G. 3. c. 83. and their desire to adopt the same according to the form prescribed by such act, such approbation and desire so signified, shall be a sufficient compliance with s. 3. of that act, 33 G. 3. c. 35. s. 1.

37. Whenever two-thirds in number and value, according to the poor rate, of the persons so qualified and actually attending such public meeting as in s. 1. shall nominate to the justices 3 persons qualified for guardians of the poor, fixing their salaries as in 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 3., and shall also there, by writing under their hands, signify their opinion to the justices that, on account of the extent and population of such parish or place, more than one guardian of the poor is necessary, and shall desire that 2 of the 3 persons so nominated may be appointed guardians, the justices may appoint 2 guardians accordingly, id. s. 2.

38. Where two-thirds in number and value, as in s. 3. pl. 40., of the owners and occupiers of lands, &c. within 2 or more parishes, &c. so qualified as in s. 6. pl. 40. shall think fit, with like approbation, and signified as in s. 3. pl. 55., and subscribed at the foot of such agreement in the form expressed in sched. No. 2., to unite for the purposes of this act, and shall signify their desire so to do at a public meeting in each of such parishes in the manner directed for a single parish in the form in the sched. No. 3., an agreement shall, as soon as may be, be entered into by the guardians of every such parish in the form in sched. No. 4., which agreement shall bind the several parties, and shall specify the place where such house shall be situate, and the terms on which it is made, and shall be entered with the clerk of the peace, or town clerk of the county, city, or place, in which such parishes, &c. shall be, and a copy left with him within 3 calendar months after the same is made in form in sched. No. 5.; for which entry such clerk shall have 1s.; and from that time every such parish so united shall have the benefits of this act, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 4.

39. No parish, township, hamlet, or place, more than 10 miles from any poor-house provided under this act shall be united for such purposes with the parishes, &c. establishing such poor-house, id. s. 5.

40. The notice of every public meeting directed by this act shall be given in the church or chapel of every such parish, &c. on 3 successive Sundays, after divine service, or on such of such Sundays as service is performed there, and fixed on the door of such church, &c.; and if there is no church, &c., then at some public place within such parishes, &c., where notices are usually given, 15 days, at least, before the day appointed for meeting in form in sched. No. 6., and no person shall vote at any meeting under this act unless he is owner or occupier of lands, &c. assessed to the poor's rates of such parish, &c. at the rate of 5*l.* per ann., nor shall he vote as occupier unless he be assessed or pay to such rates; but in all parishes, &c. where there are not 10 persons so qualified, every person assessed or paying to such rates shall vote, id. s. 6.

41. Two justices for the limit where such poor-house may be, &c. may after such agreement is made, on application by 2 of the persons who signed the same, and on producing the same to them, appoint one of the persons recommended as in s. 3. to be guardian of the poor for each of such parishes, &c. in form in sched. No. 7., and such guardian shall attend the monthly meetings in s. 24. pl. 64. directed, and execute the powers given to guardians hereby, and shall have all the powers given by any statute to overseers, and shall to all intents, except as to making and collecting of rates, be an overseer for the parish, &c. for which he is guardian, and liable to such forfeitures for neglect of duty as overseers are; and all notices or applications directed by this or any other act to be given to the overseers, as to the care or removal of the poor, shall be given to the guardian, where one is appointed under this act; but in case any orders of removal or notices shall happen by mistake to be given to the churchwarden or overseer, this shall be as valid as if given to the guardian; and such churchwarden or overseer shall deliver the same to the guardian, or forfeit 40*s.*: and where such guardian is appointed, neither the churchwardens nor overseers shall interfere in the care of the poor, but shall have the same powers of making and collecting poor's rates as they now have, and be subject to the like penalties for neglect or misbehaviour therein, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 7.

42. If in any parish which has adopted the 22 G. 3. c. 83. it is the opinion of two-thirds in number and value of the owners and occupiers of lands, &c. qualified, as in 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 6. pl. 40. mentioned, and present at a public meeting called for that purpose, pursuant to notice thereof given in the church or chapel of such parish on the Sunday preceding, that one guardian is insufficient for carrying that act into execution, and the same is certified in writing, under the hands of 2 or more of the persons there present, to 2 or more justices acting for the division, together with the names of 4 or more persons qualified for such office, such justices may, by writing under their hands, in the form prescribed in the schedule (No. 7.) of that act, appoint so many of such persons to be guardians as they think necessary, 41 G. 3. G. B. c. 9. s. 1.

43. After appointment of such guardian, one or more of the churchwardens or overseers of every parish adopting this act, who is approved at some public meeting holden as in s. 3., shall receive such poor's rates, and apply the same as follows: viz. if such parish is not united with any other, he shall pay to the guardian the sums necessary for discharging the bills, and expences attending such poor-house, and the poor belonging to such parish, taking receipts from such guardian for the money so paid, expressing the purposes for which it is wanted; and if the parish is united with any other parish, such churchwarden or overseer shall pay to the treasurer of such united parishes their quota of the expences attending the poor and poor-house therein, under this act, taking his receipts for such money; or, if more convenient, he shall permit such treasurer to draw drafts upon him for such money, in the form No. 8., and pay the same when due, specifying in every receipt and draft the purposes for which such money is to be applied; all which payments shall be allowed to the churchwarden, &c. in his accounts with the parish; and the accounts, as well of the churchwarden, &c. as of the guardian, shall be examined at every monthly meeting, and shall be examined and passed quarterly by the visitor of such poor-house, after being verified on oath before a justice, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 8.

44. The guardians of the poor present at a monthly meeting, held according to 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 24., may, with the approbation of the visitor, who shall sign the same, make an order on the churchwardens, overseers, or collectors of the poor's rates for the money necessary for execution of that act; and if not paid to such treasurer or guardian within 7 days after demanded, any justice in the division may, on proof on oath of such default, issue his warrant for levying such sums by distress and sale of goods of the churchwardens, &c., as in s. 24. of that act, provided 41 G. 3. G. B. c. 9. s. 2.

45. Any person aggrieved by the act of any justice out of sessions, in execution of this act, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions for the county, &c. or division, giving 8 days' notice to the party complained of, and security by recognizance acknowledged before a justice, with sufficient surety to pay the costs of such appeal, if determined against the appellant; and the quarter sessions shall determine such appeal, and award costs for or against the appellant as they see cause, the same to be final and not removed by certiorari, id. s. 4.

46. Two justices for the limit wherein such poor-house is, after agreement has been made for adopting this act, either by a single parish, or by 2 parishes, on application to them by 2 of the persons who signed the same, and on producing the same to them, shall appoint 1 of the persons recommended for governor of such poor-house, (in the form No. 7.) who shall have the care and employment of the poor therein, with salary as is specified in such agreement; and the visitor of such poor-house, with the consent of the guardians, or the majority of them, or 2 justices where a guardian is visitor, may remove the governor on complaint, and proof of misbehaviour or incapacity, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 9.

47. The guardians for the parishes united shall meet as soon as convenient after such agreement is made, to consider of 3 persons, respectable in character and fortune, fit to be put in nomination for the office of visitor of such poor-house; and two of such guardians shall, as soon as may be after such meeting, apply to 2 justices for the limit, and produce to them the agreement, and the names of the persons recommended, which justices shall then, or within 3 days after, appoint 1 of such persons recommended to be visitor, in the form in No. 7.; but if he refuse to accept that office, they shall then appoint one other of the persons named; and if he decline it, they shall appoint the third person named in such list; and if he decline it, the guardians shall serve that office monthly by rotation, subject to the controul of such justices; and such visitor, if not a guardian, shall nominate some person to be his deputy, if he think fit, in the form in No. 9., which deputy shall, in absence of the visitor, and under his direction, act as inspector of the matters committed to the care of the visitor, and report to him, for his better information, and render him all the assistance in his power: and every visitor appointed shall superintend every such house, and settle the accounts between the guardians and treasurer, if any question arise, and all doubts which may arise concerning those who ought to be sent to such house, according to this act, and by all prudent means enforce the rules by this act established for the better relief of the poor, and preventing unnecessary expenses and burthens on such parishes; and such governor, guardian, and treasurer shall observe the directions from the visitor; and where any act is required to be done by a justice, such visitor, if not a justice, or his deputy, shall apply to some neighbouring magistrate to do the same; and every visitor or deputy, as an inducement to executing that office, shall be freed from serving as constable, and all parochial offices, and also from serving upon juries at the assizes or sessions, so long as he continues in that office; and a certificate under the hand of a justice, in the form No. 10., shall be admitted as evidence of his serving the office, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 10.

48. If two-thirds in number and value of the owners or occupiers of lands, &c. within any single parish, which shall adopt this act, shall desire to have a visitor, and recommend to the justices 3 persons, such justices, upon application to them as in s. 10., shall appoint one of the persons recommended, as in s. 10. directed concerning parishes united, id. s. 11.

49. Two justices for the division may on application by two-thirds in number and value of persons qualified, as by 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 6. pl. 40., appoint a treasurer for the poor-house of any single parish adopting this act, with a salary not exceeding 10*l.* according to the form in such act, No. 7., prescribed, 41 G. 3. G. B. c. 9. s. 3.

50. The guardians of the parishes united shall recommend to the justices one of their own body to be treasurer of the poor-house; and 2 justices shall appoint the guardian recommended, or any other whom they think better qualified, to that office, in the form in No. 7., such treasurer giving security to satisfaction of the justices, to the other guardians and their successors, for accounting for the money which shall come to his hands; and shall keep the accounts, receive the money to be contributed by each parish, and pay the bills and expenses allowed and ordered to be paid by the guardians at their monthly meeting; and shall lay his accounts before the guardians, at every such meeting, for their perusal; and shall once a year, within 14 days before Michaelmas quarter sessions, make out a fair account of the expenses attending the same, distinguishing them under the heads herein specified; and also an account of the number of poor, distinguishing age and sex, contained in such house at the time of making such account; and how employed, and how much money earned by the labour of the poor in the year preceding; which shall be laid before the visitor, and signified under his hand, if he approves the same, and afterwards be transmitted to the clerk of the peace, or town clerk, before or at the quarter sessions, and be by him laid before the court for inspection: such treasurer shall be allowed, for his trouble in executing that office, such annual sum not exceeding 10*l.* as the visitor, if not a guardian, thinks fit; and if no such visitor, as 2 justices appoint, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 12.

51. When any vacancy happens in any of such offices by death, resignation, or removal, meetings shall be called, and recommendations offered to the justices, as in s. 9—12., and they shall proceed so soon as convenient, as before directed, to appoint a successor to the person dying, &c. id. s. 13.

52. The offices of guardian, governor, visitor, or treasurer, to which any person is appointed under this act, shall determine in Easter week after the persons shall be appointed, on the day upon which the public meeting for such parish is held there; when the persons, who under this act are qualified to recommend another person to the justices, to be appointed to such office, shall either agree with those who held the same to continue in such office, or shall recommend others, as before directed, id. s. 14.

53. If within any limit, wherein any poor-house is situate, there shall be no acting justice, or only 1, or if the justice in that limit shall be absent or incapacitated to act, any justice of any other limit may act, id. s. 15.

54. The justices within their limits may appoint special or privy sessions for executing this act, causing notices of the time and place of holding the same to be given to the justices, peace officers, and guardians within such limits, and may also adjourn such privy sessions, so as to occasion the least trouble to themselves, and afford the greatest convenience to the public, causing like notices to be given of such adjournment, id. s. 16.

55. The guardians of the poor of the parishes which adopt this act, shall provide a house with proper buildings and accommodations thereto, when wanted, either by erecting new ones on land to be purchased or rented by them, altering old ones, or hiring buildings for the purpose; and shall fit up and dispose of the same, with the advice of the visitor, if any, in the manner most conducive to the purposes of this act, at the expence of such parish, in the proportions herein mentioned; and shall provide such utensils and materials as they think necessary for their employment, according to the intent of this act, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 17.

56. The poorhouses or workhouses to be built or provided under this act, shall be situate within the parish for which used, if single parishes; and if several parishes shall be united, within 1 of them, and not in any other parish, without the consent of three-fourths in number and value, of such owners or occupiers first had, qualified as in s. 6. mentioned, who shall assemble at a public meeting holden in the manner and upon the notice before in s. 6. directed, id. s. 18.

57. All houses, buildings, and lands hired under this act, shall be hired for such term, and on the conditions, specified in the agreement, No. 4.; and shall be free from all parochial and parliamentary taxes, except such taxes, and to such amount, as they were assessed at the time they were first taken for the purposes of this act, id. s. 19.

58. When such buildings shall be agreed to be erected or repaired, at the expense of the parish, the expenses thereof, and of the purchase of the land to be used for that purpose, shall be paid by the guardians of the poor, in the proportions and manner directed by the agreement; and the visitor and guardian, when such expenses or their proportion, amounts to 100*l.*, may borrow the same at interest, and secure it by a charge upon the poor's rates, in sums not exceeding 50*l.* each, for the greater ease in discharging the same, in the form in No. 11.; and shall continue on the rates until the money borrowed, and all interest be paid: and such guardians shall pay and keep down the interest of such money borrowed, as it becomes due; and when the principal is called for, they may borrow it from some other person; and it shall be secured to the person advancing the same, by an assignment of such security indorsed on the back thereof, in the form No. 14.; [and the poor's assessments shall continue at the same rate they were when such poorhouse was first established under this act, until the debt contracted and the interest is discharged. REP. 43 G. 3. c. 110. s. 1.] and the visitor and guardian shall, as soon as the savings in the poor's accounts shall amount to sufficient to pay off one of the sums borrowed, pay off such sum, and in like manner as to succeeding savings, until the whole debt is discharged, id. s. 20.

59. The guardians of the poor of any parish, who have erected any poorhouse or workhouse, under the powers of 22 G. 3. c. 83. may with the consent of the several persons to whom the same is due yearly, pay off any part of the money borrowed under such act, not being less than one-twentieth part thereof, besides the interest on the sum remaining undischarged; and in case such sum so to be paid off shall not in one year be sufficient to discharge any one of the rates for 50*l.*, issued pursuant to such act, for securing the money borrowed under the authority thereof, the same shall remain in the hands of the overseers until it amounts to the sum required, 42 G. 3. c. 74.

60. Assessments for the relief of the poor may be diminished, provided that the guardians of the poor for any such parish shall yearly pay off a twentieth part of any money borrowed for the purpose aforesaid, under 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 20.; and shall duly keep down the interest of all money borrowed under such act; that act and the 42 G. 3. c. 74. notwithstanding, 45 G. 3. c. 110. s. 2.

61. The visitor and guardian shall be one body politic and corporate, and be called "Visitor and guardian, or visitors and guardians, of the poor for the parish, township, or place of—in the county, &c. of—or of the united parishes, townships, or places of—and—in the county, &c. of—" as the case shall be; and may sue and be sued, and take by purchase or lease, any lands, &c. of inheritance, or for lives or years, &c. not exceeding in any city or town 1 acre, and in the open country 20 acres statute measure, for the site of a house to be built, and for lands to be occupied, for the purposes of this act; and such corporation may take all voluntary grants and donations of lands, &c. of inheritance, or for lives or years, &c. or of personal property, made to them for the use of the poor within such parishes, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 21.

62. All bodies politic, corporate, or collegiate, corporations aggregate or sole, husbands, guardians, trustees, feoffees in trust, committees, executors, administrators, and other trustees, may not only for themselves, but for their cestui que trusts, and all femes-covert possessed of, or interested in their own right, and every other person seised, &c. of any lands, &c. necessary to be purchased or rented for the purposes of this act, may contract for, sell, convey, or lease the same, in manner aforesaid, not exceeding the quantity as in s. 21., unto such visitor and guardians, their successors and assigns, or to such person as they appoint, for the use of such poorhouse, and the poor persons within such parishes, and for the purposes of this act, id. s. 22.

63. All money paid to any bodies politic, &c., as in s. 22., or to any person whose lands are limited in strict settlement, for the purchase of any lands or buildings shall, in case it exceed 30*l.* be laid out by such bodies politic, &c., as soon as convenient, in the purchase of lands, &c. in fee simple, and conveyed to the use of such bodies politic, &c. for such estates, and on such uses, as the lands in respect whereof such purchase money is paid were limited, &c. at the time such purchase was made; such purchases and settlements to be made at the expence of the parish or parishes uniting, and charged by the guardians with the purchase money in their accounts; and until such purchase is made, such money shall be placed out by such bodies politic, &c. in some public funds, or on government or real security, in the name of two persons, one to be named by the party interested, and the other by the guardian, if it respects a single parish only, and by the visitor, if several parishes united; and the interest arising from such funds, and also the annual rent, where the premises are rented, shall be paid to such person as would be entitled to the rents of such lands pursuant to this act, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 23.

64. The poor sent to such house shall be maintained therein at the general expence of the parishes adopting this act, according to the terms and proportions here directed; and the treasurer, with the assistance of the governor, shall provide provisions for their maintenance, and keep an account thereof; and there shall be a meeting of the guardians of every parish at such house, on the first Monday in every month, at 10 a. m., or on such other day and hour in the first week of every month, as they shall at their first meeting appoint, to examine, and adjust the accounts for the preceding month; and at which meeting such treasurer shall produce, fairly written, one account of the debt incurred in the preceding month, for utensils and materials for manufacture, and for furniture, alterations, or repairs of the buildings, and also for the salary to the governor or treasurer, and servants, in which account the rent of such house, &c., if the same shall be rented, shall be charged in the month next after such rent becomes due, according to the terms of the agreement for taking the same; which account, when settled, shall be signed by the guardians attending such meeting; and the sums to be paid by each of such parishes, on that account, shall be settled at such meeting, in proportion to the sums paid by each parish, on account of their poor, on a medium of 3 years next preceding the date of such agreement (to be settled at such first monthly meeting, in the manner to be specified by the agreement to be entered into for uniting as in s. 4., and according to the mode in No. 15.), and in like manner and proportions, at every succeeding monthly meeting; and the money shall be then, or in one week after, paid to the treasurer, to be by him applied in discharge of the articles and debts contained in such account; and he shall also at the same time produce, fairly written, one other account of the victuals and other necessities for the use and maintenance of the poor and the governor at such house, and all other incidental expences, to be then accounted for and proportioned by the guardians according to the number of persons sent from each parish, and for the time they have resided in such house, within such month, according to the mode in No. 16.; and the sum due from each parish shall be specified at the foot of such account, which shall, when settled, be signed by such guardians, and be afterwards inspected by the visitor, if not a guardian, and allowed by him if he approve thereof; and in case of default made in payment of the sums so proportioned to be paid in respect of such parish, for 7 days after settled and proportioned, and the money demanded, any justice on complaint on oath of such default may levy such sums by distress and sale of the goods of any guardian for such parish making default; and at the end of every year the account shall be finally closed, and the balances paid and received, according to the mode prescribed by No. 16., id. s. 24.

65. The churchwarden or overseer having the custody of the poor's rates, assessments, or accounts, shall produce them to the persons nominated in the agreement contained in the schedule for uniting parishes, on every request made by them, after 4 days' notice thereof, to enable them to ascertain the expences relative to the poor, on a medium of 3 years, according to this act, or in default, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every refusal or neglect, id. s. 25.

66. If the guardian shall not attend each monthly meeting, or send some substantial inhabitant to attend and answer the payments for him, in case he is prevented by sickness or accident from attending in person, the guardian making default shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 40*s.*, id. s. 26.

67. The guardians, where any poor-house is provided, may enclose from any waste or common near thereto, with consent of the lord of the manor, and the major part in value of the freeholders, or commoners, under their hands and seals, any part thereof, not exceeding 10 acres, for building on, or occupying, cultivating, and improving the same, for the use of such poor-house, and the poor persons within the parishes where the same is, or within the parishes united thereunto, id. s. 27.

68. Every person sent to any house provided under this act, shall, at entering such house, deliver to the governor thereof, or his assistant, if any, an order, signed by one of the guardians, for the admission of such person, in the form in No. 12., which shall be kept by the governor, and entered in a book, id. s. 28.

69. No person shall be sent to such poor-house, except the indigent by old age, sickness, or infirmities, and unable to acquire a maintenance by their labour; and except such orphans as shall be sent thither by order of the guardian, with the approbation of the visitor; and except such children as shall necessarily go with their mothers thither for sustenance, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 29.

70. All children of tender years, and who, from accident or misfortune, become chargeable, may either be sent to such poor-house, or be placed by the guardian, with the approbation of the visitor, with some reputable person in or near their parish, at a weekly allowance as agreed on between the parish officers and such person, with the approbation of the visitor, until such child is of sufficient age to be put into service, or bound apprentice to husbandry, or some trade; and a list of the names of every child placed out, and by whom and where kept, shall be given to the visitor; who shall see them properly treated, or cause them to be removed, and placed under the care of some other person, if he finds cause so to do; and when such child shall attain such age, he shall be placed out at the expence of his parish, according to the laws in being; but if the parents or relations of any poor child sent out to such house, or so placed out, or any other responsible person, shall desire to receive and provide for such poor child, and signify the same to the guardians at their monthly meeting, the guardians shall dismiss such child from the poor-house, or from the care of such person, and deliver him to the parent, &c. provided, nothing herein shall give any power to separate any child under the age of 7 years, from his parent, without the consent of such parent, id. s. 30.

71. All idle or disorderly persons, who are able, but unwilling, to work or maintain themselves and families, shall be prosecuted by the guardians of the parishes wherein they reside, and punished as idle and disorderly persons under 17 G. 2. c. 5.; and any guardian who shall neglect to make complaint thereof to some neighbouring justice, within 10 days after it come to his knowledge, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 20*s.*: one moiety to the informer, and the other to be disposed of as the other forfeitures after directed, id. s. 31.

72. Where there shall be in any parish, any poor person able and willing to work, but who cannot get employment, the guardian of the poor may, on application made to him, agree for the labour of such poor person, at any work or employment suited to his strength and capacity, in any parish near his residence, and may maintain, or cause him to be maintained, lodged, and provided for, until such employment be procured, and during such work, and may receive the money earned by such work or labour, and apply it in such maintenance, as far as it will go, and make up the deficiency, if any; and if it exceed the money expended in such maintenance, shall account for the surplus, to be afterwards, within one month, given to such poor person, if no further expences be incurred on his account. And in case such poor person refuse to work, or run away from such work, complaint shall be made thereof by the guardian to some justice, who shall enquire into the same on oath, and on conviction punish such offender, by committing him to the house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than one, id. s. 32.

73. The guardian of the poor shall provide, at the parish expence, clothing for the persons sent by him to such poor-house; and in case of neglect so to do, the governor, or a guardian, shall make complaint thereof to some justice, who shall summon the guardian making neglect, to appear before him to answer the complaint, and direct him to provide such clothing as shall to the justice appear necessary; and if he make default, within 10 days after such direction, such justice may direct the governor, or the guardian making complaint, to provide the same, and to demand from such guardian the charges thereof; and in default of payment, on demand made, such justice may levy the same, and the costs attending the recovery thereof, by distress and sale of the goods of such guardian making default, id. s. 33.

74. The rules specified in the schedule annexed shall be observed at every poor-house or work-house provided by virtue of this act, with any additions made by the justices at some special session, provided they be not contradictory to the rules of this act, and not repealed by the quarter-sessions; and the governors of every such house shall cause the same to be printed in plain legible characters, and fixed up in some conspicuous part thereof, id. s. 34.

75. Any justice, on complaint on oath, by or on the behalf of any poor person belonging to any parish, that the guardian, on application made to him, hath refused him relief, and after enquiring into the condition of such poor person on oath, may either order him, by writing under the hand of such justice, some weekly or other relief, or direct such guardian to send such poor person to the poor-house, in case he appear a fit object to be kept there, according to this act; which order shall be complied with, or cause shown to the contrary, before such justice, by such guardian, within 2 days after he shall receive the same; and persons relieved shall wear the badge directed by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 2. [which section of that act is R.E.P. by the 50 G. 3. c. 52.]; or if it appear to such justice, that the complainant is able and willing to work, but wants employment, such justice may order the guardian to procure him maintenance and employment as in s. 32. pl. 72. directed; and if any guardian shall, on notice of such order, refuse or neglect to obey it, he shall forfeit 5l.; or if it appear to such justice, that the complainant is an idle or disorderly person, and has not used proper means to get employment, the justice, after examining him, and hearing the case, may commit him to the house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than one; or if it appear to such justice, on enquiry, that the husband or father of such person is an idle or disorderly person, able to work, but by his neglect of work, or want of seeking employment, or by spending the money he earns in alehouses, or places of bad repute, does not maintain his wife or children, and suffers them to be reduced to want, he may commit the husband or father to the house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, nor less than one, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 35.

76. When any complaint or application is made to a justice for the relief of any poor person, within any parish for which a visitor is appointed, such justice shall not summon the guardian to appear before him, unless application has been first made, by the complainant, to the guardian, and, if he refuses redress, to the visitor, who shall order relief if he thinks it necessary, either within or out of the house; but if sufficient relief be not given or ordered, the poor person shall be redressed by such justice as before directed, id. s. 36.

77. If it is made appear to any justice to whom any complaint or application for relief is made (under 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 36.), that the visitor of the parish or united parishes for which relief is sought, is absent from home, or resident more than 6 miles from the abode of the complainant, and that application for relief has been made to the guardian, and refused, such justice may summon such guardian to appear and answer such complaint, and may proceed thereon, and make such order therein as the case requires, in like manner as where application has been made to the visitor under such act, 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 27.

78. Out of the penalty inflicted upon the guardian for disobeying the order of a justice, so much thereof as the convicting justice shall direct to be paid to such poor person shall be paid to him accordingly, and the remainder applied as other penalties, 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 37.

79. If any poor person is retarded on his passage through any parish in which he has no settlement, by reason of any accident, or being afflicted with sickness or bodily infirmity, without the means of subsistence, or of proceeding to the place of settlement, the guardian living near the place where such distressed object shall be, shall, upon notice thereof, provide lodging, and suitable nourishment and assistance (and also clothing if necessary) for such person, until he can be removed with safety; and when fit to be removed, shall take him to some neighbouring justices, who shall examine him upon oath, as to his settlement, and make order for his removal thither, if they think fit: and the parish officer so receiving, &c. such person, shall make a charge of the expences, which being certified by the justices before whom he was taken, or some other neighbouring justices where such person was found, the same shall be paid by the guardian of the parish where such poor person is settled, in case it is discovered, and shall be within that county, on demand made thereof, and on the production of such allowance and certificate, or in default of payment, the same shall be levied upon the goods of such guardian making default, after summons, by warrant from a justice having jurisdiction there; and if any poor and sick person shall die before he can be examined, or if any poor person shall be found dead in any parish to which he did not belong, the guardian of such parish shall cause such person to be buried in the parish where he died, or was found dead, and shall make a charge of the expences, which shall be allowed and certified by a justice, after examining into the place of his settlement, and be paid by the guardian of the parish where such person shall have been settled, if the same shall be within that county; but in case the settlement cannot be discovered, or shall not be within that county, the same shall be paid by the treasurer of such county where such person was relieved, on the production of such allowance and certificate, out of the county or public money, id. s. 38.

80. Nothing herein shall alter or affect the settlement of any person, or give any illegitimate child, born in any poor or workhouse under this act, a settlement in the parish in which such workhouse is (but such child shall be considered as settled in the parish to which the mother belongs) or to alter or affect any of the provisions established by any act for the management of any particular house of industry, or workhouse, in this kingdom, id. s. 39.

81. If any poor person, sent to such house, shall embezzle or wilfully waste any of the goods committed to his care, or shall take, without permission of the governor, any goods provided for the use of such house, or belonging to any person residing there, complaint shall be made upon oath to some neighbouring justice, who shall hear the same, and the party accused; and such justice shall, upon conviction, commit such offender to the house of correction, to hard labour, for not exceeding 6, nor less than 2 calendar months, id. s. 40. [See 55 G. 3. c. 137. post. pl. 180, &c.]

82. When any guardian, or other person shall entice or remove, or cause to be enticed or removed, any poor person from one parish to another, which shall adopt this act, without an order of removal from 2 justices for that purpose, every person so offending shall forfeit not exceeding 20 nor less than 5l., 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 41.

83. If any visitor, guardian, or governor, shall sell or furnish any materials, goods, clothes, victuals, or provisions, or do any work in his trade for the use of any workhouse, poor-house, or poor persons, within any parish for which he is appointed to act, or be concerned in trade or interest with any person who shall sell or furnish the same, he shall forfeit not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 5l. on being convicted by a justice of peace, id. s. 42.

84. The guardians, with approbation of the persons in the parish, qualified as in s. 6. ante. pl. 40., obtained at a public meeting, may sell any house, cottage, or building, erected or purchased for the use of any poor person, at the expence of such parish, and apply the money arising therefrom for the purposes of this act; and may also remove, by order from a justice, the person who shall inhabit the same, or any other house rented or provided at the parish expence, if he refuse to quit, after 14 days' notice, id. s. 43.

85. Nothing in this act shall extend to any parish which shall not agree to adopt the provisions herein, in the manner hereby directed, id. s. 44.

86. All penalties shall be recovered before one justice where the offender dwells, who shall, upon conviction, in default of payment, after summons, and demand made, cause the same to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice where such offender dwells, rendering to the offender the overplus, after charges deducted; and in case sufficient distress is not found, then he may commit such offender to the house of correction, for not exceeding 6 calendar months, nor less than one; and such penalty, if not otherwise disposed of, shall be paid to the treasurer of such house, to be applied by him towards defraying the monthly expences of victuals, beer, firing, and other necessary provisions for the poor within such house, id. s. 45.

87. Any person aggrieved by the act of any justice out of sessions, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions, giving 8 days' notice thereof to the party against whom the complaint was made, and security, by recognizance, acknowledged before a justice, with a sufficient surety, to pay the costs attending such appeal, if the matter be determined against the appellant; and the quarter sessions shall hear and determine such appeal, and award costs for or against the appellant; which determination shall be final, and shall not be removed by certiorari, id. s. 46.

88. The 22 G. 3. c. 83. is not affected by this act (for relieving poor persons at their homes), 36 G. 3. c. 23. s. 4.

89. All such casual poor as may be within, and would be entitled to relief from any one of such parishes or places as shall be so united as in 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 3., shall be relieved by all of such parishes, &c. conjointly, and in the same proportion of contribution as by that act provided for the general purposes thereof, 35 G. 3. c. 35. s. 5.

90. Two justices of peace may, at any petty sessions, direct all or any of the rules, &c. appointed by 22 G. 3. c. 83. to be observed in poor-houses established under that act, to be observed in any parishes within their respective districts, 49 G. 3. c. 124. s. 5.

91. Any two justices may, at any special sessions, direct the rules, &c. in the schedule to the 22 G. 3. c. 83. specified, or any of them, with such additions as shall be made by them to be enforced in the workhouse, or any house set apart for that purpose, although there is no master or mistress to superintend the same, of any parish or place within their respective districts as fully as in parishes adopting that act; and may, at any special sessions, add to and alter such rules, &c. which shall, at any previous special session, have been made and ordered to be observed, provided such addition or alteration is not contradictory to the rules, &c. of the 22 G. 3. c. 83., and the same are not repealed by the quarter sessions, and in order to enforce the observance of such rules, &c. every justice shall have the powers by the 22 G. 3. c. 83. vested in visitors of the poor, and all churchwardens and overseers shall have the powers, and perform the duties by that act vested in governors of the poor, 50 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.

92. The justices in special sessions, on application of the overseers of the poor of any parish or place, or major part of them, may appoint the keeper of the workhouse to be governor thereof, who, so long as he continues governor, until the justices in special sessions revoke such appointment (which they may do), shall have the powers, and perform the duties by 22 G. 3. c. 83. vested in the governors of the poor, id. s. 5.

93. If any person who is sent to any poor-house, shall embezzle, or wilfully waste or damage any of the clothing, goods, or materials committed to his care, or shall take away, without permission of the overseer of the poor, or keeper of the workhouse, any clothing, goods, or materials provided for the use of the poor-house, or of the poor therein, complaint thereof may be made on oath to one justice, acting for the district, who shall hear the same, and on conviction commit the offender to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 calendar months, or less than 7 days, 50 G.3. c. 50. s. 4.

94. Any breach of the rules, &c. to be put in force under this act, shall be punished in manner by this act directed for breach of the rules &c. to be enforced under 22 G.3. c. 83., id. s. 5.

95. The guardians, or the visitor and guardians of the poor of any parish, township, or place, or of several united parishes, &c. which have or shall adopt the 22 G.3. c. 83., or the majority of the acting guardians, jointly with the visitor, if any, (notwithstanding any omission to appoint guardians in each successive year, or any informality in the appointment of such visitor or guardians) may, under the direction of the inhabitants of any such parish, &c. or of each of several such united parishes, &c. in vestry, and with the consent of 2 justices acting for the county, division, city, borough, or place, or several counties, &c. within which such parish, &c. or several parishes, &c. are situate, sell any workhouse, or other houses, tenements, and buildings, outhouses, offices, yards, gardens, orchards, lands, and grounds, with their appurtenances, which have been by them purchased or erected for the purpose of and under 22 G.3. c. 83., and the fee simple thereof, or any other estate or interest therein, and by bargain and sale convey the same unto the purchaser, and his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns, or as he shall direct, and give receipts for the purchase-money, which shall be good discharges to the purchaser, his heirs, &c. without any obligation to see the application of the purchase-money, and after such sale, such workhouse, &c. shall be discharged from the trusts of such act, 1 & 2 G.4. c. 56. s. 1.

96. A competent part of such purchase-money shall be applied in defraying the expences of sale, and in discharging any incumbrances affecting such workhouse, &c. and any debts which may have been contracted by the guardians, &c. of such parish, &c. or united parishes, &c. by way of charge on the poor-rates, or otherwise, and the residue shall be paid by such guardians, &c. to the churchwardens and overseers of such parish, &c. or of such united parishes, &c. in proportion as they contributed to the purchase or erection of the workhouse, &c. so sold, and shall be by them applied as part of the poor-rates, id. s. 2.

III. Select Vestries.

97. TO AMEND THE LAWS FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR, (viz. By appointing select vestries and assistant overseers. By building and enlarging workhouses. By allowing parishes to purchase, &c. land, to employ the poor on, or to let it out to them. By assessing the owners of lodging-houses, instead of the occupiers, to the poor-rates. By regulating the giving relief by way of loan, and the obtaining possession of parish houses or lands, and the removal of paupers born in Scot., Ire., or the isles of Man, Jersey, or Guernsey), 59 G.3. c. 12. [only to extend to Eng., s. 37.]

98. To amend the laws for the relief of the poor, 59 G.3. c. 12.

99. The inhabitants of any parish, in vestry assembled, may establish a select vestry for the concerns of the poor thereof; and to that end may elect, in the same or any subsequent vestry, or adjournment thereof respectively, so many substantial householders or occupiers within such parish, not exceeding 20 nor less than 5, as shall be thought fit to be members of the select vestry; and the rector, vicar, or other minister of the parish, and in his absence the curate, (such curate being resident in and charged to the poor's-rates of such parish,) and the churchwardens and overseers of the poor for the time being, together with the inhabitants so elected, (the latter being first thereto appointed by writing under hand and seal of a justice of peace, which appointment he shall make,) shall constitute a select vestry for the care and management of the concerns of the poor of such parish; and any 3 of them (2 of them being neither churchwardens nor overseers) shall be a quorum; and when any inhabitant appointed to serve in such select vestry shall, before expiration of his office, die or remove from the parish, or be incapable or refuse to serve therein, the vacancy shall, as soon as convenient, be filled up by the like election and appointment; and such select vestry shall act from its appointment, until 14 days after the next annual appointment of overseers, and may be from year to year, and in any future year, renewed as above directed; and shall meet once in every 14 days, and oftener if necessary, in the parish church, or other place within the parish; at every meeting a chairman shall be appointed by the majority of the members present to preside therein, and in an equality of votes on any question shall have the casting vote; and such select vestry shall examine the state of the poor of the parish, and determine the proper objects, nature, and amount of relief to be given; and consider the character and conduct of the poor person to be relieved, and may distinguish in such relief, between the deserving and idle poor; and shall make orders in writing for the requisite relief, and superintend the administration of all poor's-rates, and all other parochial funds; and where such select vestry is established, the overseers shall, in execution of their office, conform to its directions, and shall not, (except in sudden emergency or urgent necessity, and to the extent only of temporary relief, and except by order of justices, as in s. 2.) give any other relief to the poor than that ordered by the select vestry, 59 G.3. c. 12. s. 1.

100. On complaint to any justice of the want of adequate relief, by or on behalf of any poor inhabitant of a parish where a select vestry is established under this act, or in which the relief of the poor is under the management of guardians, governors, or directors appointed by special or local acts, such justice shall not proceed, or take cognizance thereof, unless it be proved on oath before him, that application for relief hath been made to and refused by the select vestry, or by such guardians, &c., in which case he may summon the overseers, or any of them, before any 2 justices, to answer the complaint; and if on the hearing it is proved on oath, to the satisfaction of the justices hearing the same, that the party complaining is in need of relief, and that adequate relief hath been refused by the select vestry, or by such guardians, &c. or that such select vestry shall not have assembled as by this act directed, they may make an order, under hand and seal, for such relief as they, in their discretion, think necessary, (reference being also had by them to the character, &c. of the applicant;) but in every such order, the special cause of granting the relief shall be expressly stated, and no such order shall be given for, or extend to a longer time than one month from its date; but any justice may make an order for relief in case of urgent necessity, to be specified in such order, so as it remains in force only till the assembling of the select vestry, or of such guardians, &c. id. s. 2.

101. Every such select vestry shall cause minutes to be entered in books, of all their meetings, transactions, &c. and of all sums received, &c., and expended by their direction; which minutes shall be signed by the chairman, and shall, together with a report of their accounts and transactions, be laid before the parishioners in general vestry, twice a year; viz. in Mar. and Oct., and at such other times as the select vestry think fit; and the minutes, accounts, and reports of every select vestry shall belong to the parish, and be preserved with the other documents, &c. thereof, id. s. 3.

102. The churchwardens and overseers shall cause ten days notice to be publicly given, in the usual manner, of every vestry to be holden for establishing any select vestry, or for electing the members, &c. or any member thereof, or for receiving the report as in s. 3.; and every such notice shall state the special purpose thereof, id. s. 4.

103. Every order to be made for the relief of any poor person, by the churchwardens and overseers of any parish not having a select vestry under this act, shall be made by two or more justices, who, in making the same, shall consider the character, &c. of the applicant; but, in every such order the special cause of relief shall be expressly stated, and no such order shall extend longer than one month from its date; but in cases of urgent distress, one justice may order such relief as the case requires, stating therein the circumstances of the case; but no such order shall entitle any person to relief more than 14 days from its date, nor shall it have any effect after the next petty session for the hundred or other division or district in which the parish is situated, id. s. 5.

104. The justices of the peace, in their respective special sessions for appointing overseers, may, at the request of the inhabitants of any parish in vestry assembled, appoint any person assessed to the relief of the poor thereof, and being a householder resident within two miles from the church or chapel of such parish, or if no church, &c. within one mile from the boundary of such parish, to be an overseer of the poor thereof, though he be not an householder within the parish of which he is so appointed overseer; and it is sufficient, in such appointment, to describe the person appointed by his name and residence; but no person shall be compellable to serve the office of overseer of any parish or place in which he is not an householder, unless he has consented to such appointment, id. s. 6.

105. The inhabitants of any parish in vestry assembled, may elect any discreet person or persons to be assistant overseer, &c. of the poor, and may specify the duties to be by them performed, and fix such yearly salary for the execution of the office as they think fit; and any two justices may, by warrant under hand and seal, appoint the person so elected, and the salary so fixed shall be paid out of the poor-rates, in the manner agreed on between the inhabitants in vestry and such assistant overseer; and every assistant overseer shall execute all such of the duties of the office of overseer of the poor as in the warrant for his appointment are expressed, as fully as any ordinary overseer; and every person, &c. so appointed shall continue to be assistant overseer until the resignation, or revocation of his appointment by the parishioners in vestry assembled, and no longer; and the parishioners upon election by them of an assistant overseer or overseers, may require and take security for faithful execution of the office, by bond, with or without a surety, and in such penalty as they think fit; which bond shall be made to the churchwardens and overseers, and may on any breach of the condition, be put in suit by and in the names of the churchwardens and overseers of the poor for the time being, by direction of the vestry or select vestry, for benefit of the parish, as in s. 17., 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 7.

106. In any parish not having a workhouse for the poor thereof, or where the workhouse is insufficient or inconvenient, the churchwardens and overseers, by direction of the inhabitants in vestry assembled, may erect in such parish a suitable workhouse, or alter and enlarge any tenement belonging to the parish, and purchase or take on lease any ground in the parish for the purpose of such building, or for enlarging any such other tenement, &c. for that purpose; or may add to and enlarge any such insufficient workhouse, as the inhabitants in vestry shall direct, id. s. 8.

107. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, by direction of the inhabitants in vestry assembled, and with the consent of two justices certified under their hands, may dispose of any workhouse or other tenements belonging to such parish and found to be unfit for the purpose, with the site thereof, and the outhouses, offices, yards, and gardens thereto belonging, for the best price that can be obtained, and may convey the same to the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, as he shall direct, and apply the produce of such sale, after deducting its reasonable expences, towards the purchase or building of a new workhouse, or in the payment of any money to be borrowed under this act, as the vestry shall direct, id. s. 9.

108. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor of every parish, where there is no sufficient poorhouse, by direction of the inhabitants in vestry assembled, may purchase or hire any house or building for that purpose, in any adjoining parish, with the consent of 2 justices, to be written upon or annexed to the agreement for purchasing or hiring the same; but no such house, &c. shall be situate more than 3 miles from the parish for which it is purchased or hired, id. s. 10.

109. Every house and building so purchased or hired, shall in all questions relative to settlement of persons born or lodged therein, be deemed part of the parish on behalf of which it is purchased or hired, and used as a poorhouse or workhouse, id. s. 11.

110. The churchwardens and overseers, with the consent of the inhabitants in vestry assembled, may take into their hands any land belonging to such parish, or to the churchwardens, &c., or poor thereof, or may purchase, or hire and take on lease on account of the parish, any suitable portion of land within or near to such parish, not exceeding 20 acres; and may set to work in the cultivation thereof, any such persons as by 45 El. c. 2. s. 1. are directed to be set to work, and may pay to such of the poor persons so employed as are not supported by the parish, reasonable wages, who shall recover the same and be liable to punishment for misbehaviour as other labourers in husbandry, id. s. 12.

111. The churchwardens with like consent, as in s. 12., may let any portion of such parish land, &c. to any poor and industrious inhabitant of the parish, to be occupied and cultivated on his own account and benefit, at such reasonable rent, and for such term as by the inhabitants in vestry is fixed, id. s. 13.

112. No sum exceeding the rate at 1s. in the pound on the annual value of the property in any parish assessable to poor-rates, shall be raised or applied, in any one year, in purchasing, building, and repairing any buildings or land by this act to be purchased, &c.; and in fitting up, &c. such buildings, and stocking such land, or for one or more of such purposes, unless the majority of the inhabitants and occupiers assessed to the poor-rates in vestry assembled consent, nor until two thirds of them in value, whether present in vestry or not, have also signed their consent thereto in the vestry or parish book, id. s. 14.

113. Where the inhabitants of any parish shall, as in s. 14., consent that a greater sum than what a rate of 1s. in the pound will raise, shall be expended in one year for all or any of such purposes, &c., the churchwardens, &c. with like consent, as in s. 14., after the rate of 1s. in the pound has been actually levied and applied for such purposes, may raise any additional sum, by loan or sale of annuities, on any lives not being under 50 years of age, or for any certain term not exceeding 15 years, so as the whole sum so to be raised is not more than 5s. in the pound of the true annual value of the property in such parish assessed to the poor-rates (every proposal for such annuity being first approved by the inhabitants and occupiers of such parish in vestry); and the churchwardens, &c. may, in the names and on the behalf of the inhabitants of the parish, execute securities for the money so borrowed, and annuities so granted; and by every such security shall charge the produce of the future poor-rates with repayment of the principal borrowed, and its interest or with the annuity thereby granted on the days and times, and in the manner and proportions by the security appointed; and the money raised by such future rates shall be liable to the payment of every such loan, with interest, and of such annuity, id. s. 15.

114. No greater sum in all than the amount of a rate at 1s. in the pound, shall in any parish be charged on the future rates thereof, unless two-thirds in value of the proprietors of lands and tenements within such parish (whether for freehold or copyhold, or by leases for terms of not less than 15 years absolute or determinable on life or lives) have consented to raise the money for which the security shall purport to be made; such consent to be given by writing under the hands of all persons and corporations sole, and that of every corporation aggregate under the hand of the chief member thereof for the time being, and those of femes-covert, minors, insane persons, and persons out of the kingdom, under the hands of their respective husbands, guardians, &c. committees, trustees, or agents, who may give their consents; and the consent of the majority of the trustees for any charitable or other purpose, shall be sufficient in respect of trust estates, 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 16.

115. All buildings, lands, and hereditaments, purchased, hired, or taken on lease by churchwardens and overseers under this act, shall be conveyed and assured to them and their successors, in trust for the parish; and they shall and may take, and hold, as a body corporate, on behalf of the parish, all such and all other buildings, lands, and hereditaments belonging to such parish; and in all actions, indictments, and other proceedings relating to the same or the rent thereof, and in all proceedings on any bond given for the faithful execution of the office of assistant overseer, it shall be sufficient to name the churchwardens and overseers for the time being, describing them as such of the parish for which they act, and naming such parish; and no such proceedings shall abate, &c., by the death of the churchwardens, &c. named therein, or of any of them, or by their removal from office, id. s. 17.

116. The powers and directions of 22 G. 3. c. 83. s. 22. pl. 62., as to sales and conveyances by incapacitated persons shall apply to this act, together with its directions for applying the purchase-money, id. s. 18.

117. The inhabitants of any parish, in vestry assembled, may resolve and direct, that the owners of all houses, apartments, or dwellings, being the immediate lessors of the actual occupiers, which shall respectively be let to the occupiers at a rent not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 6*l.* per annum, for less than one year, or on any agreement by which the rent is reserved or made payable at any shorter period than 3 months, shall be assessed to the poor rates in respect of such houses, &c., and the outhouses, &c. thereof, instead of the actual occupiers; and the inhabitants in vestry may vary and renew every such resolution as they shall see occasion, so as it does not extend to charge the owner of any house, &c., let at a greater rent than 20*l.*, or less than 6*l.*; and the churchwardens and overseers shall carry into effect all such resolutions of the vestry, and in execution thereof shall, in all poor-rates assess by a fair pound rate the owner, being the immediate lessor of the actual occupier of every house, &c. to which such resolution, &c. shall extend, in respect of the same, according to the actual rent at which it is let, after making reasonable deduction from such rent, not exceeding one-half; and on nonpayment of the sums so to be assessed, the same may be levied on, and the payment thereof be enforced against such owners and lessors so to be assessed, and their goods and chattels, in like manner as poor rates may by law be recovered, and their payment enforced, against any actual occupier on whom they are charged, id. s. 19.

118. The goods and chattels of every occupier of any such house, &c. in the same, may be distrained and sold for raising so much of any such assessment in arrear, as shall have become due during the occupancy of the persons whose goods are so distrained, (to be ascertained in a summary way by the justices granting the warrant of distress,) so that no greater sum be raised by distress of the occupier's goods and chattels, than is actually due from him for rent: provided, that every occupier paying any such rates, or on whose goods the same is levied, may deduct the sum so paid or levied, out of the rent by him payable; which payment shall discharge him of so much of his rent as he has paid, or which has been levied on his goods, of such rate and costs, id. s. 20.

119. Every person receiving or claiming the rent of any such house, &c. for his own use, or receiving it for the use of any corporation aggregate, or of any minor, feme-covert, or insane person, or of any person not usually resident within 20 miles from the parish in which any such house, &c. is situated, shall for this purpose be deemed rateable as the owner thereof, id. s. 21.

120. Every person rated as the owner of any such house, &c. aggrieved by any such rate, shall have the like remedy by appeal against it, as any other person thereby rated; and shall be entitled, as an inhabitant of the parish for which assessed, to be present and vote in every vestry of the inhabitants thereof, for the execution of the poor laws, or the consideration of any question in relation thereto, in like manner as the inhabitants of the parish, id. s. 22.

121. Nothing in this act shall extend to give any power to assess the owner (not being the occupier) of any house, &c. in any city, borough, or town corporate, in which the right of voting for the election of M. P.s depends on the assessment of the voter to the poor's rate, or to vary the manner of assessing any of the inhabitants, occupiers of houses, &c., within any such city, &c., id. s. 23.

122. If any person who has been permitted to occupy any parish or town house, or any other tenement belonging to or provided by any parish, for the habitation of the poor thereof, or who has unlawfully intruded himself into any such house, &c., or into any house, &c. belonging to such parish, shall neglect to quit the same, and deliver up possession to the churchwardens or overseers, within one month after notice and demand in writing for that purpose, signed by the majority of them, has been delivered to the person in possession, or in his absence affixed on some notorious part of the premises, any two justices, on complaint by one of the churchwardens, &c. of the parish in which any such house, &c. is situated, may issue their summons to the person complained of, to appear before such justices at a time and place appointed by them, and cause such summons to be delivered to him, or in his absence to be affixed on the premises, 7 days at least before the time of hearing such complaint; and such justices, on appearance of the defendant, or on proof on oath that such summons hath been delivered, &c. as hereby directed, may hear and determine the complaint, and if they find it true, then by warrant under hand and seal, may cause possession of the premises in question to be delivered to the churchwardens, &c., 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 24.

123. If any person to whom any land appropriated, &c. under this act, for the employment of the parish poor, or to whom any other parish lands, as in s. 12., have been let for his own occupation, shall refuse to quit possession thereof to the churchwardens, &c. at the expiration of the term for which they were demised to him or her; or if any person shall unlawfully enter on, or take possession of such or any other land or hereditaments belonging to such parish, or to the churchwardens, &c., such churchwardens, &c., after such notice and demand, as in s. 24. directed, may exhibit a complaint against the person so in possession, before two justices, who may proceed thereon, and hear and determine the matter thereof; and if they find the same to be true, may cause possession to be delivered to them in such manner as by s. 24. directed, id. s. 25. [See s. 26. ante, pl. 11., s. 27; Poor, Div. II. pl. 77.]

124. Any justice may take in writing the examination on oath of any person having a wife or child, being a prisoner in any gaol or house of correction, or in the custody of the keeper thereof, or of any constable or other peace officer, under any warrant of commitment, touching his last legal settlement; which examination shall be signed by such justice taking the same, and admitted in evidence as to such settlement before justices, for any order of removal, so long as the person so examined shall continue a prisoner, id. s. 28.

125. When it appears to the justices, or the general or select vestry, or to such guardians, &c., or to the overseers of the poor, to whom application is made for relief for any poor person, that he might, but for his wilful misconduct, have been able to maintain himself, or support his family, the overseers (by direction of the justices, vestry, or guardians, &c., where application has been made to them respectively) may advance money weekly or otherwise, as requisite, to the applicant, by way of loan only, and may take his receipt for, and engagement to repay every sum so advanced (without stamp duty); and any two justices, on application (within one year after any such loan) of one overseer of the parish, may summon the person to whom any money has been so advanced; and if on examination into his circumstances, it appears to them that such person, by weekly instalments or otherwise, can repay the money so advanced to him, in the whole or in part, they may make an order under their hands and seals for repayment of all or part of such money, at such times and in such proportions as they see fit; and on every default of payment, may by warrant commit him to the common gaol or house of correction, for not exceeding 3 calendar months, unless the sums payable by virtue of such order be sooner paid, id. s. 29.

126. The churchwardens, &c. may require any person entitled to any pension, &c., or other allowance, for his service in the navy, army, marines, or ordnance, and applying to them for relief for himself or family, to assign to them the next payment due to him, that they may receive the same, and retain for the use of the parish so much as has been advanced for the relief of such pensioner, &c.; and the churchwardens, at the request of any person entitled to such pension, &c., may advance for his support, or that of his family, any weekly sum not exceeding his pension or allowance, to be repaid out of the next quarterly or other payment of such pension, &c., and may take an assignment thereof as security for the money advanced, and such assignment shall be exempt from stamp-duty, and to the effect following; viz.

‘I [naming the applicant, and stating requisite particulars] do hereby assign to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the parish of — the next payment of the pension, at the rate of — per diem [or, as the case may be] granted to me as — and payable from — in order to secure to the said parish of — the repayment of the sum of — advanced to me, [or, of the weekly sum of — ordered or agreed to be advanced to me, as the case may be], by such churchwardens and overseers. Signed by the above-named — before me, one of H. M.’s justices of the peace for — this — day of —.

And such assignment of any quarterly or other payment payable by commissioners of Chelsea or Greenwich hospitals, or by the paymaster of the royal marines, or the treasurer of the board of ordnance respectively, attested by a justice, and made as in s. 17. pl. 115., to the churchwardens, &c., shall be transmitted by such churchwardens, &c. at least one month before such payment becomes due, under cover, addressed to the paymaster general of H. M.’s forces, with “Chelsea pensioner,” or to the paymaster of pensions at Greenwich hospital, with “Greenwich pensioner,” or to the paymaster of the royal marines, with “royal marines pensioner,” or to the secretary to the board of ordnance, with “ordnance pensioner” written thereon; who shall thereon respectively cause such payment to be made to the churchwardens or overseers as would have been made to the person assigning the same, if no assignment had been made, and such churchwardens, &c., or any one of them, may receive the same, and retain thereout for the use of the parish so much as has been paid on security thereof, and forthwith pay any residue to the person by whom such assignment was made; and if any question shall arise between such assignor and the churchwardens, &c., touching the amount payable to them by virtue of such assignment, the same shall be determined in a summary way by one justice, and his order therein shall be final; but no such assignment shall entitle the churchwardens, &c. to receive the pension, if the assignor shall die before the time when such pension would have become payable to him if no such assignment was made, 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 30.

127. When any person entitled to or in receipt of any such pension, &c. shall leave his wife or family chargeable, or suffer them to become chargeable to any parish, two or more justices, on complaint thereof to them made by any one of the churchwardens and overseers, and verified on oath, may by order under their hands and seals, direct that the next payment becoming due of such pension or other allowance, shall be made to the churchwardens, &c. of the parish to which such wife or family shall become chargeable; and they shall transmit such order to the commissioners for the hospitals at Chelsea or Greenwich, and other officers, as in s. 30. mentioned, who thereupon, and on sufficient proof given that the person whose pension, &c. is directed to be paid is living when the same becomes payable, and would be entitled to receive the same if no such order was made, shall cause payment to be made to the churchwardens, &c. for whose security such order was made; and who shall apply the same, or so much as hath been actually expended for the above purposes, for the indemnity of the parish, and shall pay any overplus to the person entitled thereto; and upon the receipt of any such order as aforesaid, by which the pension, &c. mentioned therein is directed to be paid to such churchwardens, &c., payment thereof shall be suspended, until sufficient proof is given to entitle them to receive the money thereby directed to be paid to them, id. s. 31.

128. Where the wife or family of any seaman employed in any voyage or trip, (not being in H. M.’s service), shall, during his absence on such employment, become chargeable to any parish, two justices, on complaint to them made by any one of the parish officers, and verified on oath, by order under their hands and seals, may direct the acting owner, ship’s husband, or agent of the vessel in which such seaman is employed, to pay out of his wages to the churchwardens, &c. of the parish to which his wife or family shall become chargeable, so much as hath been by such parish necessarily expended for their maintenance (the amount, in case of dispute, being ascertained by two justices, whose determination shall be final); and on the production of such order, the owner by whom the wages of the seaman therein named are payable, shall pay to such one or more of the parish officers for whose indemnity such order was made, as shall demand the same, the sum therein directed to be paid, or so much as the wages then due shall amount to; and the payment to and receipt of any such churchwarden, &c., shall be a good discharge for so much of such wages as are paid to him by virtue of such order; and if any such owner shall not pay to the churchwarden, &c. producing such order, the money thereby directed to be paid, or so much thereof as is actually due for the wages of the seaman therein named, the same may be recovered, and payment enforced against such owner, &c., in like manner as poor-rates in arrear may be recovered, and payment thereof enforced, against the parties charged therewith: but nothing herein shall authorize the payment of any sum by such acting owner, &c., until the voyage in which the vessel is so engaged is completed, nor beyond the sum then actually due to such seaman by such acting owner, &c. id. s. 32.

129. Two justices shall, on complaint of the churchwardens and overseers, that any person born in Scot. or Ire., or in the isles of Man, Jersey, or Guernsey, hath become chargeable to such parish, by himself or family, may cause such person to be brought before them, and examine him and any other witnesses on oath, touching his place of birth or last legal settlement, and may inquire whether he, she, or any of his or her children have gained any settlement in Eng.; and if it be found that the person so brought before them was born in Scot., Ire., Man, Jersey, or Guernsey, and hath not gained any settlement in Eng., and that he hath actually become chargeable to the complaining parish, by himself or family, then such justices may, by a pass under their hands and seals, in the form or to the effect prescribed by 17 G. 2. c. 5., VAGRANT, cause such poor person, his wife, and such of his children so chargeable as have not gained a settlement in Eng., to be removed to the place of his birth or last legal settlement, as by that act directed for removal of rogues and vagabonds to Scot., &c., and all constables and officers, and all masters of vessels, shall convey every person so to be passed as by that act directed for rogues and vagabonds, 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 33.

130. Any justice of the peace, who shall adjudge any person born in Scot., Ire., Man, Jersey, or Guernsey, (and not having gained a settlement in Eng.) to be a rogue and vagabond, may, in his discretion, either order him to be whipped or imprisoned in the house of correction, as by the laws in being directed, before removal, or cause him to be removed without having been so whipped or imprisoned, id. s. 34.

131. All powers by this act vested in justices, shall be exercised by them within the limits of their respective commissions and jurisdictions; and all clauses and authorities in this act, in relation to parishes, shall extend to all townships, vills, and places having separate overseers, and maintaining their poor separately; and all acts required by this act to be done by churchwardens and overseers, may in every parish be performed by the majority of them; and in townships, &c. which have no churchwarden, the same may be performed by the overseers, or the majority of them; and all the powers in this act relating to vestries, or to the parish concerns in vestry assembled, shall extend to all meetings of the inhabitants of any township, &c., having separate overseers, and maintaining its poor separately, to be held after legal notice for executing the poor laws, as fully as if severally repeated, id. s. 35.

132. Nothing herein shall alter or affect any of the powers or regulations in 22 G. 3. c. 83. contained, in respect of such parishes, &c. as have adopted that act, nor any of the powers, &c. of any special or local acts for the maintenance of the poor, in any city, town, hundred, parish, or place, so as so much of this act as is not repugnant to 22 G. 3. c. 83., or to such special or local acts, is adopted in all parishes; and nothing herein contained shall affect any select vestry established by ancient custom, id. s. 36.

IV. Rates.

133. To OBLIGE OVERSEERS OF THE POOR to give public notice of rates made for the relief of the poor, and to produce the same, 17 G. 2. c. 5. [The law with regard to poor-rates, and appeals from the same, and overseers accounts, AMD. 17 G. 2. c. 38., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 23., 50 G. 3. c. 49., 1 G. 4. c. 36. pl. 148., (a), and as to discharging poor persons rated to the poor's rate, 54 G. 3. c. 170. ss. 11, 12. See as to the kind of property liable to be rated to the poor, 43 El. c. 2. s. 1., and when owners instead of occupiers of houses may be assessed, 59 G. 3. c. 12. ss. 19—23. Poor, pl. 117—121.]

134. The churchwardens and overseers, or other person authorized to take care of the poor in every parish or place, shall give public notice in the church of every rate for the relief of the poor, allowed by the justices of peace, the next Sunday after the same is allowed; and no rate shall be valid, so as to collect the same, unless such notice be given, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 1.

135. The churchwardens and overseers, or other persons so authorized in every parish, &c. shall permit the inhabitants to inspect such rate, paying 1s. for the same, and shall upon demand give copies of the same, or any part thereof, to any inhabitant of such parish or place, paying 6d. for every 24 names, id. s. 2.

136. If any churchwarden or overseer, or other person so authorized, shall not permit any inhabitant or parishioner to inspect such rates, or shall neglect to give copies thereof, they shall forfeit to the party grieved 20*l.*, to be sued for and recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, &c., in any court of record, wherein no essoin and only one appearance shall be allowed, id. s. 3.

137. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor shall yearly, within 14 days after other overseers are nominated, deliver in to their successors a true account in writing, fairly entered in a book, and signed by them, so accounting under their hands all sums received, or rated and not received, and also of all goods, stocks, and materials then in their hands, or those of the poor to be wrought, and of all monies paid by them, and of all other things concerning their office, and shall also deliver over all monies, goods, and things to such successors, which account shall be verified on oath or affirmation before a justice, who shall sign and attest the caption of the same at the foot, without fee, which book shall be preserved by the churchwardens in some public place of the parish, &c., and they shall permit any person there assessed to inspect the same on payment of 6d., and on demand shall deliver copies thereof on payment of 6d. for each 500 words, and so in proportion, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.

138. In case such churchwardens and overseer, or any of them, neglect to make up such account within the time herein limited, or neglect to deliver over such money, goods, &c. in their hands, any 2 justices of peace may commit him or them to the common gaol, until he shall give such account, or yield up such money and goods, id. s. 2.

139. In all cases where any account is required to be made, signed, and attested, by 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1., pl. 137., the same shall be submitted by the churchwardens and overseers to two or more justices of the county, dwelling near the place to which such account relates, at a special session for that purpose to be holden, within the 14 days appointed by such act for delivering in such account, and such justices may examine into such accounts, and administer an oath or affirmation to such churchwardens and overseers as to the truth thereof; and may disallow any charges and payments they deem unfounded, and reduce such as appear exorbitant, specifying at the foot every such charge or payment, and its amount, so far as such justices shall disallow or reduce the same, and the cause wherefore; and such justices shall signify their allowance of such account, under their hands, and sign and attest the caption thereof at the foot, as by 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1. pl. 137. directed, and in case such churchwardens and overseers shall neglect to yield such account, and verify the same on oath, or to deliver over to their successors, within 10 days after the signing and attesting thereof, any goods or things, which on the examination and allowance of such account appear to be in their hands, any 2 justices may commit them to the county gaol until they yield such account, and verify the same, and deliver over such goods, &c.; and in case such churchwardens and overseers neglect to pay to their successors, within 14 days from the signing and attesting of such account, any sum or arrearages which may be due, their successors, by warrant from any 2 justices, may levy the same by distress and sale of the offender's goods, restoring the overplus; and in default of such distress, may commit the offenders to the common gaol until payment is made, 50 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1.

140. If such churchwardens and overseers are aggrieved by the disallowance and reduction of such charges, they may enter an appeal at the quarter sessions holden next after the tenth day from the making of any order in respect of such disallowance, &c., they having first delivered over to their successors the money, goods, and things they admit to be due on the account submitted by them, and having also entered into a recognizance before one justice, with 2 sureties to be approved by him, in double the sum in dispute, to enter such appeal at such next sessions, and abide the order of that, or any subsequent sessions thereon; and such sessions, on proof of such matters, and on production of such recognizance, and proof that it was duly entered into, may adjourn such appeal, or hear the same, and examine into and confirm or reverse such disallowance or reduction, in the whole or part; and may order that such churchwardens and overseers shall have the costs incurred by them in such appeal defrayed out of the poor's rates of the parish, and the order of such sessions shall be binding on all parties, id. s. 2.

141. This act shall not take away any power of appeal, against any such account by any other person entitled to appeal against the same, under the 43 El. c. 2. s. 6. pl. 9., or 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 4. pl. 147., id. s. 3.

142. Every mayor, bailiff, or other head officer of every place corporate or city in G. B., or any 2 magistrates thereof, shall have like authority under this act as any justices of the county, or 2 of them have by this act, but subject to an appeal to the quarter sessions of such town, &c., provided that in any town where there are not 4 justices, [see 1 G. 4. c. 36. post, pl. 148. (a), which gives like power of appeal, in cases of towns, &c. having only 6 justices; but QU. does it extend to this act?] any person may, if he pleases, where an appeal is given by this act, appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, &c. wherein such town, &c. is situated, id. s. 4.

143. No certiorari shall be granted to remove any order or proceeding of any general or quarter sessions, or of any justices, had under this act, into any superior court of record, but all such orders, &c. subject to such appeal, shall be final, id. s. 5.

144. This act shall not apply to the accounts of any churchwarden or overseer of the poor in any place where, by any act relating to the poor thereof, such churchwardens, &c. are exempted from rendering the accounts required by the 43 El. c. 2. s. 2. and 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.; and nothing in this act shall extend to the city of London, id. s. 6.

145. This act shall not repeal or alter 43 El. c. 2., or 17 G. 2. c. 38., except only so much of them and so far as they are herein expressly mentioned, id. s. 7.

146. If any such overseer shall die, or remove from the place for which he was appointed, or become insolvent, before the expiration of his office, on oath thereof made, 2 justices may appoint another overseer, who shall continue in office until new overseers are appointed; and if any overseer remove, he shall before removal deliver over to some churchwarden, or other overseer of the same place, his accounts verified as in s. 1. pl. 137., with all rates, books, papers, money, and other things concerning his office, under the like penalties as are hereby inflicted on an overseer refusing to do the same after the expiration of his office; and if any overseer die, his executors or administrators shall, within 40 days after his decease, deliver all things concerning his office to some churchwarden or other overseer of the same place, and shall pay out of his assets all money remaining due, which he received by virtue of his office, before any other debts, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 3.

147. Any person aggrieved by any rate for the relief of the poor, or who has any objection to any person being put on, or left out of such rate, or the sum to charged on any person therein, or to such account as aforesaid, or aggrieved by any neglect or act done or omitted by the churchwardens and overseers, or by any justice of peace, may, giving notice to the churchwardens or overseers, appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the same county, riding, division, corporation, or franchise; and the justices there shall receive such appeal, and finally determine the same; but if it appear that reasonable notice was not given, they shall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter sessions; and may award to the party for whom such appeal shall be determined reasonable costs, as in appeals by 8 W. 3. c. 30., concerning the settlement of poor persons, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 4.

148. In all corporations or franchises which have not 4 justices of peace, any person, where an appeal is given by this act, may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county or division wherein such corporation or franchise is situate, id. s. 5.

148. (a) In all corporations and franchises not having more than 6 justices, nor having jurisdiction or authority over 2 or more whole parishes contained within such corporation, &c., any person may in any of the cases mentioned or referred to by 43 El. c. 2., or 17 G. 2. c. 38., where an appeal is given by them, appeal to the next general or quarter sessions for the county, riding, or division, wherein such corporation, &c. is situate, as amply as if such corporation, &c. had not 4 justices; but nothing herein extends to any city or town corporate, being a county of itself, 1 G. 4. c. 36.

149. Upon all appeals for relief, the justices, where they see cause for giving such relief, shall amend the same, in such manner only as shall be necessary for giving such relief, without altering such rates with respect to other persons; but if upon an appeal from the whole rate it be necessary to set aside the same, then such justices shall direct the churchwardens and overseers to make a new equal rate, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 6.

150. On all appeals from any rate or assessment made for the relief of the poor of any parish, township, vill, or place, the court of quarter sessions shall (where they see just cause to give relief) amend such rate, either by inserting therein or striking out the name of any person, or by altering the sum therein charged on any person, or in any other way they think fit, without quashing the whole rate; provided that if such court is of opinion that, in order to give relief to the appellant, such rate should be quashed, they may quash it accordingly; but all sums charged by such rate on any person shall be levied and recovered as if no appeal had been made against such rate, and sums so paid, levied, or recovered shall be deemed as payment on account of the next effective rate which shall be made for the relief of the poor of the same parish, &c. 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 23. s. 1.

151. All money at which any person is rated for the relief of the poor of any parish, &c. shall be levied and recovered by distress and other lawful means, notwithstanding the person so rated has given notice of appeal from the rate; provided that if any person so rated shall give such notice of appeal as in s. 4. to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, &c. or 2 of them, then after such notice, and until the appeal is determined, no proceeding shall be commenced to recover any greater sum than the sum at which he or any occupier of the same premises have been rated in the last effective rate collected on such person, id. s. 2.

152. The goods of any person assessed and refusing to pay may be levied by warrant of distress, not only in the place for which such assessment was made, but in any other place within the same county or precinct; and if sufficient distress cannot there be found, on oath thereof before some justice of any other county, &c. (which oath shall be certified under the hand of such justice on the warrant) such goods may be levied in such other county, &c.; and if any person find himself aggrieved by such distress, he may appeal to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, &c. where such assessment was made, and the justices there shall finally determine the same, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 7. [See further, as to distraining for poor's rates 43 El. c. 2. s. 4., ante, pl. 6., 54 G. 3. c. 170. s. 12., post, pl. 169.]

153. Where any distress is made for any money due for the relief of the poor, the distress itself shall not be deemed unlawful, nor the party making it a trespasser, on account of any defect in the warrant for the appointment of such overseers, or in the rate or in the warrant of distress; nor shall the party distraining be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity afterwards done by him; but the party aggrieved by such irregularity shall recover satisfaction for the special damage sustained and no more, in an action of trespass or on the case, id. s. 8.

154. Provided that where the plaintiff recovers in such action he shall be paid his costs, and have the usual remedy for the same, id. s. 9.

155. No plaintiff shall recover for any such irregularity, if tender of amends hath been made by the party distraining, before such action brought, id. s. 10.

156. In case any person neglect to pay such overseers any sum that he shall be legally rated to, the succeeding overseers shall levy such arrears, and reimburse their predecessors all sums expended for the use of the poor, and allowed to be due to them in their accounts, 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 11. [see also 13 & 14 G. 2. c. 12. s. 18. VAGRANT, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 23. s. 9. post, pl. 167.]

157. Where any person shall come into or occupy any house, land, or hereditament, out of which any person assessed shall be removed, or which at the making such rate was empty, every person so removing from, and every person so coming into the same, shall be liable to pay to such rate in proportion to the time that such person occupied the same, in like manner and under like penalties of distress as if such person so removing had not removed, or such person so coming in had been originally rated, which proportion, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained by any 2 justices, id. s. 12.

158. Copies of all rates made for the relief of the poor shall be entered in a book to be provided by the churchwardens and overseers, who shall take care that such copies shall be entered within 14 days after all appeals from such rates are determined, and shall attest the same by putting their names thereto; and all such books shall be preserved by the churchwardens and overseers, or one of them, whereto all persons assessed, or liable to be assessed, may resort, and shall be delivered over from time to time to the succeeding churchwardens and overseers, as soon as they enter into their offices, and shall be produced by them at the general or quarter sessions when any appeal is to be heard, id. s. 13.

159. If any churchwarden, overseer of the poor, or other officer of any parish, &c. shall neglect to obey this statute, where no penalty is before provided thereby, or shall act contrary thereto, he shall for every such offence, on oath thereof made within 2 calendar months after the offence, before any 2 justices, forfeit for the use of his poor not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 20*s.*, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant from such justices; which sum shall be paid to some churchwarden or overseer of such parish or place, id. s. 14.

160. Overseers of the poor, within every township or place where there are no churchwardens, shall execute all the acts and powers concerning the relief of and relating to the poor, as churchwardens and overseers may by this or any former statute, and shall suffer all such penalties for neglect to which churchwardens and overseers are liable by this or any former statute, id. s. 15.

161. If such sessions shall, upon appeal, order any rate for the relief of poor to be quashed, such sessions may order the whole or part of any sum thereby charged on any person not to be paid, and then no proceedings shall be had after such order made, or if any have been commenced they shall be stayed; provided no justice, peace officer, or other person, shall be deemed a trespasser, or liable to any action for any warrant, order, act, or thing which such justice, &c. shall have granted or done to enforce such payment, before they had notice in writing of the order for its non-payment which the sessions shall make, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 23. s. 3.

162. All notices of appeal from any rate for the relief of the poor, or from the account of the churchwardens and overseers, shall be in writing, and signed by the person giving it, or his attorney; and such notices shall be delivered to or left at the usual abode of the churchwardens and overseers of the parish, &c. or any 2 of them, and the causes and grounds of appeal shall be stated therein; and on the hearing of such appeal from such rate, the court shall not enquire into any other causes than those specified in such notice, id. s. 4.

163. With the consent of the overseers, signified by them or their attorney in open court, and with the consent of any party interested therein, the sessions may hear and decide on such appeal, although no notice has been given in writing, and may also, with like consent, hear and decide on grounds of such appeal not stated or mis-stated in any notice given in writing, id. s. 5.

164. If any person shall appeal against any such rate because any other person is rated therein, or is not rated therein, or because any other person is rated at a greater or less sum than he ought to be rated at, or for any other cause that may require any alteration to be made in such rate with respect to any other person, then the person so appealing, shall give such notice of appeal in writing as in s. 5. mentioned, not only to such churchwardens, &c. as in s. 4. but also to every other person interested in the event of such appeal, who shall be heard in such appeal; and the quarter sessions may, on hearing such appeal, order the name of such other person to be inserted in such rate, and him to be rated at any sum, or to be struck out, or the sum at which he is rated to be altered as such court shall think right, id. s. 6.

165. If on hearing of any appeal from or against any rate, such court shall order the name of any person to be inserted, and him to be rated at any sum, or shall order the sum at which any person therein is rated to be increased, then all money at which such person was so ordered to be rated or increased, or so much as is not already paid, shall be recovered in the same manner as if he had been originally named in such rate, and rated thereon at such sum, id. s. 7.

166. If upon the hearing of any appeal from any rate for the relief of the poor, the court of quarter sessions shall order the name of any person to be struck out of such rate, or the sum at which he is rated to be deceased, and if it is made to appear to such court that such person has, previously to the hearing of such appeal, paid any money in consequence of such rate which he ought not to have been charged with, such court shall order all such money to be repaid, by such churchwardens or overseers, to him, with the costs occasioned by his paying or being required to pay the same; and all money so ordered to be repaid, and all such costs and expences may be levied and recovered from such churchwardens, &c. by distress and such other ways as the money rated on any person for the relief of the poor may be, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 23. s. 2.

167. The churchwardens and overseers of any parish, &c., out of any money received by virtue of any rate for the relief of the poor of such parish, &c., may reimburse the preceding churchwardens and overseers, or guardians of the poor of such parish, &c., all money advanced or expended for the relief or maintenance of such poor during the time no rate for their relief has been made, or during the pending of any appeal affecting the whole rate, or on the hearing of which the same might be wholly quashed; and in case such churchwardens and overseers shall not pay the preceding churchwardens, overseers, or guardians, all money so advanced or expended, such preceding churchwardens, &c. may apply to the next quarter sessions for the county, town, corporation, or franchise, &c., giving due notice thereof, in writing, to the then churchwardens and overseers, or 2 of them, and such sessions shall enquire into the matter, and examine the parties and their witnesses on oath, and shall make an order on the then churchwardens and overseers, or any of them, out of the money received by them under any poor rate, to pay such sum to the preceding churchwardens, &c. as such court shall think fit; and the sum so ordered to be repaid, may be levied by distress and such other ways as money charged on any person for relief of the poor may be, id. s. 9. [See 17 G. 2. c. 38. s. 11. pl. 156.]

168. Two justices acting for any county, city, or place, &c. in which any parish, &c. is situated, in petty sessions, on application made by any person rated to any rates or cesses within such parish, &c. to be discharged therefrom, and proof of his inability, through poverty, to pay the same may, with the consent of the churchwardens, overseers, or such other person who is competent to act under any act of parliament for the management of the poor of any such parish, &c., order such person to be excused from the payment thereof, and strike out his name therefrom; and the sum at which such person is rated in such rate shall not afterwards be collected, nor shall any person be charged therewith, or be in any way liable to account for, or for omitting to collect the same, 54 G. 3. c. 170. s. 11.

169. The goods and chattels of any person neglecting to pay any sum legally assessed upon him for any rate for the relief of the poor, church cess, or highway cess of any parish, &c. for 7 days after demand made, may be distrained, not only within such parish, &c. but also within any other within the same county or jurisdiction; and if sufficient distress cannot be found within such county, &c. then, on oath thereof, made before the justice of peace of any other county, &c. where any of such person's goods may be, which oath such justice shall administer, and certify by indorsing his name on the warrant granted to make such distress, such goods, &c. shall be liable to such distress and sale in such other county, &c., and may, under such warrant and certificate, be distrained and sold as if found within the parish, &c. where the rate was due, id. s. 12. [See pl. 152., and 43 El. c. 2. s. 4., pl. 6.]

170. FOR THE BETTER RELIEF OF THE POOR WITHIN THE SEVERAL HUNDREDS, TOWNS, AND DISTRICTS IN Eng. incorporated by divers acts of parliament, for the purpose of the better maintenance and employment of the poor, and for enlarging the powers of the guardians of the poor within the said several hundreds, &c. as to the assessments to be made upon the several parishes, hamlets, and places within their respective hundreds, &c. for the support and maintenance of the poor, 36 G. 3. c. 10. [REPE. in part, as in next pl., 52 G. 3. c. 73.]

171. The directors and acting guardians of the poor within any hundred, town, or district in Eng. incorporated by any act of parliament for the relief or maintenance and employment of the poor, or any other persons, by whatever name called, to whom is given by any such incorporating act the power of appointing the sum to be assessed on the several parishes, hamlets, or places within their respective hundreds, &c. for the maintenance of the poor, and other purposes of such act, at any of their general meetings, whenever the average price of wheat at the corn market in Mark Lane, London, for the quarter immediately preceding such meeting has exceeded the average price of wheat at the same market during those years from which the average amount of poor's rates was taken, upon the passing of such incorporating acts, [shall exceed 3*l.* per quarter, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2., which is Exp.] may assess the several parishes, &c. within their respective hundreds, &c., which now are, or usually have been, charged to the poor rates in such sum as such directors, &c. think necessary for defraying the expences attending the maintenance of the poor for the current quarter, and for paying the interest of money borrowed under such acts, and any debts incurred since 1st Jan. 1795, in the maintenance of the poor, and for the other purposes of such acts, although the sums so to be assessed should exceed the amount limited, in any one year, by such acts: provided that the sums so to be assessed, and the assessments to be made under this act in each incorporated hundred, town, or district, shall be assessed, made, collected, and paid in the same manner, and subject to the like restrictions, powers of appeal, &c., and with the like powers for compelling payment, as the sums to be assessed, and the assessments to be made under such acts are to be assessed, &c.: provided the sums to be assessed under this act upon any parish, &c. shall be in the same proportions as the assessments hitherto made under such incorporating acts, [and the sums to be assessed under this act in any parish, &c. shall never exceed, in one year, the amount of double the sum at present raised under any incorporating act now existing, REPE. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 40. s. 1., but which is Exp.; and now by permanent act, 52 G. 3. c. 73.], 36 G. 3. c. 10.

V. Relief and Contracts.

172. FOR AMENDING THE LAWS RELATING TO THE RELIEF OF THE POOR, 3 W. & M. c. 11. s. 11. [see the rest of this act, pl. 199—210.], 9 G. 1. c. 7. ss. 1, 2, 4. [see s. 3. JUSTICE OF PEACE, ss. 5—9., POOR, pl. 221—225., AMD. as to relieving poor at their homes, 56 G. 3. c. 23. (PUBLIC clause, s. 5.) and as to contracts for maintenance of the poor, 45 G. 3. c. 54., and as to orders of relief to the poor at their own homes, 55 G. 3. c. 137. ss. 3, 4, 6, 7., and as to the jurisdiction of justices over contractors, 50 G. 3. c. 50. s. 2., and when relief may be given by way of loan, and persons receiving pensions from government, 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 29—31. POOR, pl. 125—127.]

173. There shall be kept in every parish a book wherein the names of all such persons as receive collection shall be registered, with the day and year when first admitted to have relief, and the occasion which put them under that necessity; and yearly, in Easter week, or oftener, the parishioners of each parish shall meet in vestry, and such book shall be produced before them, and all persons receiving collection called over, their reasons for taking relief examined, and a new list made of such persons as they think fit to receive collection; and no other person shall have relief without an order under the hand of one justice residing within or near the parish, or by order of sessions, except in cases of pestilential diseases, plague or small pox, in respect of such families only as are infected therewith, 3 W. & M. c. 11. s. 11.

174. No justice of peace shall order relief to any poor person, till oath be made before such justice of some matter, which he shall judge to be a reasonable cause for such relief, and that the person had applied for relief at some public meeting of the parishioners at a vestry, or to 2 of the overseers of such parish, and was by them refused; and till such justice has summoned 2 of the overseers to shew cause why such relief should not be given, and the person so summoned has been heard or made default, 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 1. [see further 59 G. 3. c. 12. s. 5., pl. 103.]

175. The person, whom such justice shall order to be relieved, shall be entered in the parish books, kept under 3 W. & M. c. 11. s. 11. pl. 173., as one of those who is to receive collection, as long as the cause of such relief continues; and no officer of any parish shall (except on sudden occasions) bring to the account of the parish any monies he shall give to any poor person of the same parish, who is not registered in the parish book, on forfeiture of 5*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale, by warrant of 2 justices, who have found him guilty of such offence; to be applied for the use of the poor by direction of such justices, id. s. 2.

176. The churchwardens and overseers of the poor in any parish or place, with the consent of the major part of the inhabitants in vestry or other parish meeting, or of so many as shall be so assembled, on the usual notice given, may purchase or hire any house in such parish, &c. and contract with any person for the lodging, keeping, maintaining, and employing any or all such poor in their respective parishes, &c. as desire relief, and to maintain and employ them, and take the benefit of the work, and service of any poor person maintained in any such house, and in case any poor person shall refuse to be lodged or maintained in such house, he shall be put out of the books of the parish, of the persons who receive relief, and shall not be entitled to have any relief, [but see pl. 177—182.] and where any parish, &c. is too small to purchase or hire such house, two or more parishes, with like consent as aforesaid, and with the approbation of one justice dwelling in or near such parish, signified under his hand and seal, may unite in purchasing or hiring such house for such purposes as aforesaid, with like punishment for any poor person refusing to be maintained or lodged there; and the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, with like consent signified as aforesaid, may contract with the churchwardens, &c. of any other parish, &c. for the lodging, maintaining, or employing of any poor persons of such other parish, with like punishment for any poor person of such other parish refusing to be lodged, &c. there as aforesaid, provided that no poor person, or his apprentice or children, shall acquire a settlement in any parish, &c. to which he is removed under this act, but his settlement shall be in such parish, &c. as it was before such removal, 9 G.1. c.7. s.4. [See a provision as to building such houses on waste lands, with the consent of the lord, 43 El. c.2. s.5. pl. 7.] So much of 9 G.1. c.7. s.4. as relates to the maintaining or hiring out to labour of the poor, by contract within any parish, township, or place which shall adopt the provisions of this act, shall be REP. 22 G.3. c.85. s.1. [and see further as to workhouses, Div. 7.]

177. The overseers of any parish, town, township, or place, with the approbation of the majority of the parishioners in vestry, or other usual place of meeting assembled, or with the approbation in writing of a justice usually acting for the district, may distribute collection and relief to any industrious poor person at his own home, under circumstances of temporary distress or illness, and in certain cases respecting such poor person or his family, or the situation, health, and condition of any poor-house in any parish, &c. wherein an house is hired, built, or purchased, and a contract made for lodging, maintaining, and employing all poor persons who shall desire relief, although such poor person refuses to be lodged or maintained in such house, 9 G.1. c.7. notwithstanding, 36 G.3. c.23. s.1.

178. Any justice of peace usually acting in and for the district wherein the same is situated, may at his discretion order relief to any industrious poor person, and he shall be entitled to receive the same at his own home, notwithstanding any such contract as in s.1. has been entered into, and the churchwardens and overseers for such parish, &c. shall obey such order for relief, id. s.2.

179. The special cause, as before mentioned, of ordering relief to any poor person at his own house, shall be assigned in each order of relief so given by such justice, provided that such order be given for a time not to exceed one month from the date thereof; provided that any 2 justices may make a further order for the like purposes, for any further time not exceeding one month from the date of such order, and so on as occasion requires, such justice or justices first administering an oath as to the need and cause of such relief, and summoning the overseer of the parish, &c. to shew cause why such poor person should not receive such relief in manner by law provided where no such contract as aforesaid is made, id. s.3.

180. Any justice in the cases and in the manner mentioned in 36 G.3. c.23. s.1. pl. 177., may direct and order relief to be paid to any poor person at his own house, during such time as such justice may think proper, not exceeding 3 months from the date of such order; but any 2 justices may make like order for 6 months, and so on as occasion requires, such justice or justices in such cases administering the oath as to the need and cause of such relief, and summoning the overseer to be charged therewith, to shew cause why such poor person should not be relieved as by law provided, where no contract for lodging and maintaining the poor has been made, and if it afterwards appears to the justice or justices making such order, that the payment of such relief ought to be discontinued before the expiration of the time for which such order was made, he or they may order the same to be discontinued, 55 G.3. c.137. s.3.

181. The sum which such justice or justices shall order to be paid to such poor person for any longer time than one month, shall not exceed, for each person, 5s. per week, or three-fourths of the average weekly expence usually borne by the parish on which such order is made, for the maintenance of such poor person in any workhouse belonging to such parish, id. s.4.

182. Nothing in this act shall extend to enable any overseer, or any justice or justices, to direct or distribute any relief to any poor person at his own house in any parish, &c. in and for which any house of industry, or place for the reception of poor persons has been or shall be provided under the 22 G.3. c.85., or under any special act of parliament already passed and now in force, but in such cases, such persons shall be relieved as before passing this act, 36 G.3. c.23. s.4.

183. No contract shall be entered into by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of any parish, with any person, for the lodging, keeping, maintaining, or employing of the poor of such parish or parishes, where 2 or more are united, and for taking the benefit of their work, labour, and service, for their better maintenance and relief by virtue of 9 G.1. c.7. s.4., pl. 176., or any other law, shall be valid, unless the person with whom the same is entered into, shall, during the continuance of such contract, be resident within the parish so contracting, or the parish where the poor shall be lodged and maintained; or who, where two or more parishes are united, shall be resident in one of such parishes; and unless one or more responsible householders, resident within such parish to be approved of by the churchwardens and overseers, at or before the signing of such contract shall, by their joint and several bond, with a penalty of one-half the assessments of the poor for the parish, or united parishes, for the year next but one preceding that in which the contract is made, give security to such churchwardens, &c. for the faithful observance and performance of such contract on the part of the person so to be contracted with, nor unless such contract is signed and approved of by 2 justices for the county, &c. where such parish, or united parishes, or one of them, is situated, 45 G.3. c.54. s.1.

184. All such contracts entered into otherwise than according to this act, shall be absolutely void, and such contract so made conformable to s.1. with any person who shall, before the expiration of the term for which such contract was made, remove from, or cease to reside in any such parishes, shall from that time determine, provided such removal shall not vacate the security entered into by such householder, but the same shall be in force for the indemnification of the churchwardens, &c. against any loss in consequence of such removal, but nothing herein shall extend to any place where the poor are maintained under any special statute, nor to such contracts already made, 45 G.3. c.54. s.2.

185. No churchwarden or overseer of the poor, or other person in whose hands the collection of the rates for the relief of the poor, or the providing for, managing, &c. of the poor of any parish, &c. may be placed jointly with, or independent of such churchwardens, &c. under any statute, shall either in his own or another's name, provide or supply for his own profit, any goods, materials, or provisions for the use of any workhouse, or otherwise for the support of the poor in any parish for which he is appointed, during the time of his appointment, nor shall he be concerned in supplying the same, or in any contract relating thereto, upon pain to forfeit 100l., with costs, to any person who will sue for the same, by action of debt or on the case, in any of the courts of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c., and only one imparlance allowed; provided that if it happen in any parish, &c. that a person competent and willing to undertake the supply of any articles required for such workhouse, or for the use of the poor there, cannot be found within a convenient distance therefrom, other than such churchwardens or overseers, or other person as aforesaid; then any 2 or more neighbouring justices, (proof thereof being made before them on oath) by certificate under their hands and seals, may permit one or more of such churchwardens, &c. to contract for such supply during his appointment, and such certificate shall be entered with the clerk of the peace, or town clerk of the county, &c. where such person resides, and a copy thereof left with him, for which entry he shall pay 1s., and such person shall thenceforth be discharged from such penalty, and if any action is brought against any person having such certificate for such penalty, he may plead generally that he was duly discharged from any liability to such forfeiture, by certificate granted under this act, and on due proof being given of such certificate and entry, the jury shall find for the defendant, and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or if verdict or judgment, or demurrer pass against him, the defendant shall have double costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s.6.

186. When any contract is entered into for purchasing any articles, materials or things for the use of the poor in any workhouse in any parish, &c. or for erecting any buildings, the expence whereof is defrayed out of any rate or other money applicable to the relief of the poor, the churchwardens and overseers, or other persons having the management of the poor, shall cause notice thereof, and of the time and place of assembling for such purpose, and of the security required for the performance of such contracts, to be affixed to the church door of the parish, &c. or to be inserted in a newspaper circulated in the neighbourhood, 7 days before such meeting, in order that proposals may be made to them, id. s.7.

187. The persons contracting for the maintenance of the poor of any parish shall, with respect to all such things as they contract to perform and provide for the poor, be subject to the jurisdiction and orders of the justices, in like manner as overseers of the poor; and all orders of any such justice on such contractors may be enforced and executed by such means as against such overseers, and such contractors neglecting to obey any such order shall be punishable by the like forfeitures and penalties, to be levied in the same manner as in cases of neglect of the orders of justices by such overseers, 50 G.3. c.50. s.2.

188. POOR PERSONS RECEIVING RELIEF OF THEIR PARISHES shall wear badges, 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. s.2. [REP. 50 G.3. c.52.]

189. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL RELIEF OF SUCH WIVES AND children as are left by their husbands and parents upon the charge of the parish, 5 G.1. c.8.

190. The churchwarden and overseers of the poor of any parish or place where any wife or children are left by the husbands, or any children by their mothers, upon application to, and by warrant or order of any 2 justices, may take and seize so much of the goods, and the annual rents and profits of the lands and hereditaments of such husband, father, or mother, as such 2 justices shall order for the discharge of the parish where such wife or children are left, for bringing up and providing for them which warrant or order, on confirmation at the quarter sessions, the justices there may make an order for such churchwardens, &c. to dispose of such goods by sale or otherwise, and to receive such rents, or so much as shall be so ordered for such purposes, id. s.1.

191. Churchwardens and overseers shall account to such sessions for all money received under this act, id. s.2.

192. FOR PREVENTING PARISH POOR BEING PAID IN PAPER OF counterfeit coin, 9 G.3. c.37. s.7.

193. If any churchwarden or overseer of the poor of any parish, township or place, or other person intrusted by them to make payments for the use of the poor, shall wilfully make such payments in base or counterfeit money, or other than the lawful money of G. B., then on complaint thereof to a justice for the county or place, such justice shall summon such churchwarden, &c. and in a summary way, on his non-appearance or confession, or on proof by oath of one witness shall, adjudge the party offending to forfeit not less than 10s. or more than 20s., and levy the same by distress and sale of his goods, rendering the overplus to the owner deducting the costs, and which sum shall go to the uses of the poor of such parish, in such manner as such justice shall direct, id. ibid.

VI. Settlement and Removal.

194. FOR THE BETTER RELIEF OF THE POOR, (viz. by allowing persons likely to become chargeable to be removed, and to compel persons going out of their parishes to work, to carry certificates of residence with them,) 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. ss.1—3. [See rest of this act accounted for, pl. 245. AMD. as to settlements, 1 Ja.2. c.17. s.3., further EXPL., AMD., and CON. as to settlement, 3 W. & M. c.11. ss.3—4., pl. 199—250., and as to certificates of residence, and appeals concerning settlements and removals, 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. (ss.1. 3, 4. 6—8., see s.2., REP., and s.5. APPRENTICE, pl. 35.) which is EXPL. 9 & 10 W.3. c.11., AMD. 12 A. S.1. c.18. s.2., further AMD. as to settlements and appeals from orders of removal, 9 G.1. c.7. ss.5—9., and as to certificates of residence, and the removal of persons coming into parishes under such certificates, 3 G.2. c.29. ss.8—9., and 3 W. & M. c.11. ss.3—10. 12.; and see s.11. ante, pl. 173., AMD. as to the settlement of apprentices 31 G.2. c.11., and also of bastards born in houses of industry within incorporated hundreds, as contained 20 G.3. c.56. s.2., (see the rest of this act, APPRENTICE,) and the whole law AMD. as to the removal of persons to their parishes, 35 G.3. c.101., which is AMD. 49 G.3. c.124. s.1—4., and the whole laws as to gaining settlements by renting tenements AMD. 59 G.3. c.50. See further as to settlement, 54 G.3. c.170., pl. 237.]

195. On complaint made by the churchwardens or overseers of the poor of any parish to any justice of the peace, within 40 days after any person coming to settle in any parish, in any tenement under the yearly value of 10l., any 2 justices, whereof 1 is of the quorum, of the division where any person who is likely to become chargeable to the parish shall come to inhabit, may by their warrant remove him to the place where he was last legally settled, either as a native, householder, sojourner, apprentice, or servant for 40 days, unless he give security for the discharged of such parish, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.1. [Paupers not to be removed till actually chargeable, 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. s.1. post. pl. 211.; and see now 35 G.3. c.101. post. pl. 214.]

196. Provided all persons aggrieved by any such judgment of such 2 justices, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, who shall do them justice according to the merits of their case, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.2. [See 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. s.6. post. pl. 218.]

197. Any person may go into any county, parish, or place, to work in time of harvest, or at any time to work at any other work, so that he carry with him a certificate from the minister of the parish and one from the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, that he has a dwelling house in which he inhabits, and has left his wife and children, or some of them there, (or otherwise as the condition of the person requires,) and is declared an inhabitant there; and in such case, if the person shall not return when his work is done, or shall fall sick whilst he is in such work, it shall not be deemed a settlement in such cases; but 2 justices may convey such person to the place of his habitation, under the pains hereby prescribed; and if such person shall refuse to go, or shall not remain in the parish where he ought to be settled, but shall return to the parish from whence he was removed, any justice of the county, city, or place where the offence was committed, may send the offender to the house of correction, to be punished as a vagabond, or to a public workhouse in this act mentioned, (s.4. pl. 246.) to be employed in work or labour; and if the churchwardens and overseers of the parish to which he is removed refuse to receive such person, and to provide work for him, as other inhabitants of the parish, any justice for that division shall bind such officer, so making such default, to the assizes or sessions, to be indicted for such his contempt 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.3. [See further as to this certificate, 3 W. & M. c.11. s.10. pl. 209., 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. s.1. pl. 211., 3 G.2. c.29. s.9. post. pl. 213.]

198. The 40 days' continuance of any person in a parish, intended by 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. (s.1. pl. 195.) to make a settlement, shall be accounted from the time of his delivery of a notice in writing, (which he shall do,) of the house of his abode, and the number of his family, to any one of the churchwardens or overseers of the parish to which he shall remove, 1 J.2. c.17. s.3.

199. The 40 days' continuance of any person in a parish or town, intended by 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.1. pl. 195., and 1 Ja.2. c.17. s.3. last pl., to make a settlement, shall be accounted from the publication of a notice in writing, which he shall deliver, of his house, and the number of his family, to the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, which notice shall be read publicly after service in church on the next Lord's day, and such churchwardens and overseers shall register such notice in the book of the poor's accounts, 3 W. & M. c.11. s.3.

200. No soldier, seaman, shipwright, or other artificer, or workman, employed in H. M.'s service, shall have any settlement in any parish, port, or town, by delivery and publication of such notice, unless the same be after dismission from H. M.'s service, id. s.4.

201. No person coming into any parish, &c. shall be enabled to gain any settlement therein, by delivery and publication of any notice in writing, 35 G.3. c.101. s.3.

202. If any churchwarden or overseer shall neglect to read such notice in the manner, time, and place in pl. 199., he shall (on proof thereof, by two witnesses on oath, before a justice for the county, riding, division, city, or town corporate, where complaint made) forfeit 40s. to the party grieved, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, by warrant under hand and seal of any such justice, to the constable of the parish or town where such offender dwells; and for want of such distress he may be committed to the common gaol of such county, &c. for one month; and if any churchwarden shall neglect to register such notice, he shall on like conviction forfeit 40s. to the poor of his parish, to be levied as above; and in case of no distress he shall be committed as aforesaid, id. s.5.

203. If any person who shall come to inhabit in any town or parish, shall execute for himself any annual public office therein for one year, or shall be charged with and pay his share towards the public taxes of the town or parish, he shall be adjudged to be legally settled there, though no such notice be so delivered and published, id. s.6.

204. If any unmarried person, not having any child, shall be lawfully hired into any parish or town for one year, such service shall be a good settlement, though no such notice be delivered and published, id. s.7.

205. No such unmarried person so hired shall be adjudged to have a settlement, unless such person continue in the same service one year, 8 & 9 W.3. c.30. s.4.

206. If any person is bound apprentice by indenture, and inhabit in any town or parish, such binding shall be a good settlement, though no such notice be delivered and published, 3 W. & M. c.11. s.8.

207. No person who shall be bound an apprentice by any deed, writing, or contract not indented, being first legally stamped, shall be liable to be removed from the parish, &c. where he was so bound and resident 40 days, by virtue of any order of removal granted by two justices, or by sessions, on account of such deed, &c. not being indented only, 31 G.2. c.11. s.1.

208. Persons aggrieved by the judgment of any justice or justices in any such cases, may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, division, city, or town corporate, who shall finally determine the same, 3 W. & M. c.11. s.9.

209. If any person be removed under this act, from one county, city, town corporate, &c. to another, by warrant under the hands and seals of two justices, the churchwardens and overseers of such parish to which he shall be removed shall receive such person; and if they refuse so to do, they shall (on proof thereof, before any justice of the county, &c. to which such person shall be removed, by two witnesses) forfeit 5l. to the use of the poor of the parish from which removed, to be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the offender, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice for the county, &c. to which such person was removed, to the constable of the parish or town where such offender dwells, which warrant such justice may grant, the overplus to be returned to the owner; and for want of such distress, such justice shall commit the offender to the common gaol for such county, &c. for 40 days, provided that persons aggrieved may appeal as in s.9., id. s.10.

210. In all actions to be brought in the courts of record at Westminster, or at the assizes, for the recovery of any sum mis-spent or taken by churchwardens or overseers of the poor, the evidence of the parishioners, other than such as receive alms, or any pension out of the collections for the poor, or the public money of the parish, whereof the defendant is an inhabitant, shall be admitted, id. s.12.

211. If any person that shall come into any parish to inhabit, shall deliver to the churchwardens or overseers a certificate under the hands and seals of the churchwardens and overseers of any other parish, or of the overseers of the poor of any other place where there are no churchwardens, attested by two witnesses, owning such person to be an inhabitant settled in that parish; such certificate, having been subscribed by two justices of the county, &c. wherein the parish from whence such certificate shall come doth lie, shall oblige such parish to provide for such person together with his family, whenever he shall become chargeable to the parish to which such certificate was given: and then, and not before, such person and his children, though born in that parish, not having otherwise acquired a legal settlement there, may be removed to the parish from whence such certificate was brought, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1.

212. The witnesses or one of them who attests the execution of such certificates by the churchwardens or overseers signing and sealing the same, shall make oath before the justices directed by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1. last pl., to allow the same, that such witness, &c. did see the churchwardens, &c., whose names and seals are thereunto set, severally sign and seal the same; and that the names of such attesting witnesses are of their own hand-writing, which justices, shall certify that such oath was made before them; and such certificate so allowed, and the oath of its execution so certified, shall be deemed and allowed in all courts as duly proved, and be taken as evidence without other proof, 3 G. 2. c. 29. s. 8.

213. No person, who shall come into any parish by any such certificate, as in 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1. pl. 211., shall be adjudged by any act to have procured a legal settlement in such parish, unless he shall take a lease of a tenement of the (yearly) value of 10*l.*, or execute some annual office in such parish being legally placed therein, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 11. [see next pl.]

214. No person coming into any parish, township, or place shall gain a settlement there, by delivery or publication of any notice in writing (s. 3.), or by being charged with and paying his share of the public taxes or levies of such parish, &c. for any tenement under 10*l.* yearly value, 35 G. 3. c. 101. s. 4.

215. No person shall acquire a settlement in any parish or township in Eng., by dwelling for 40 days in any tenement rented by him, unless such tenement consists of a house or building, being a separate and distinct dwelling-house or building, or of land within such parish, or of both, bonâ fide hired by such person at 10*l.* a-year, for the term of one whole year; nor unless such house or building is held, and such land occupied, and the rent for the same actually paid, for the term of one whole year, by the person hiring the same; nor unless the whole of such land is situate within the same parish or township as the house wherein the person hiring such land shall dwell, 59 G. 5. c. 50.

216. If any person who shall be apprentice bound by indenture, or shall be hired as a servant to, or with any person who came into any parish, township, or place in Eng. by certificate, and not afterwards having gained a legal settlement in such parish, &c., such apprentice under his indentures, or such servant by being hired or serving as a servant to such person, shall not gain any settlement in such parish thereby, but shall have their settlements as if they had not been bound or hired, 12 A. S. 1. c. 18. s. 2.

217. The justices in their quarter-sessions, upon any appeal concerning the settlement of any poor person, or upon any proof made before them of notice of such appeal, to have been given by the proper officer to the churchwardens and overseers, (though they did not afterwards prosecute the same) shall order to the party for whom such appeal is determined, or to whom such notice did appear to have been given, such costs as they think just, to be paid by the churchwardens, overseers, or any other person against whom such appeal is determined, or by the person that did give such notice; and if the person ordered to pay such costs shall live out of the jurisdiction of the court, any justice of the county, &c. wherein such person shall inhabit, shall, upon request made, and a copy of the order for costs produced, and proved on oath, by warrant, under hand and seal, cause the money mentioned in that order to be levied by distress and sale of his goods; and if no such distress can be had, may commit such person to the common gaol for 20 days, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 3.

218. The appeal against any order of removal of any poor person shall be determined at the quarter-sessions for the county, division, or riding, wherein the place from whence such person is removed doth lie, id. s. 6. [see 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 2., ante, pl. 196.]

219. This act shall not hinder the justices of peace within the liberty of St. Alban's, from hearing and determining any appeals for the settlement of the poor in their quarter sessions, id. s. 8. [Nor the justices in the hundred of Nassaborough, 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 7., post, pl. 223.]

220. When any overseers or other person shall remove back any persons or their families residing in any parish or place, or sent thither by certificate and becoming chargeable, as in 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1. pl. 211., to the parish or place to which such person belongs, such overseers or persons shall be reimbursed such reasonable charges as they have been put to in maintaining and removing such person, by the churchwardens or overseers of the place to which such person is removed, such charges being first allowed by a justice of peace for the county or place to which such removal is made; and if the same be not paid, they may be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the churchwarden and overseers of the poor of the parish or place to which such certificate person is removed by warrant, under hands and seals of such justice, returning the overplus, which warrant he shall grant, 3 G. 2. c. 29. s. 9. [See further as to removal, 5 W. & M. c. 11. s. 10., pl. 209., and 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1., pl. 211.]

221. No person shall acquire any settlement by virtue of any purchase of an estate within any parish whereof the consideration does not amount to 30*l.* for any longer time than such person shall inhabit in such estate; and shall then be liable to be removed to his last place of legal settlement before such purchase, 9 G. 1. c. 7. s. 5.

222. No person shall be deemed to have a settlement in any city, parish, &c. by reason of his paying to the scavenger's rate, or repairs of the highway, id. s. 6.

223. The justices within the liberty of the borough of St. Peter, and hundred of Nassaborough in the county of Northampton, may hear and determine appeals against any order for removal of any poor person in their quarter sessions, id. s. 7.

224. No appeal from any order of removal shall be proceeded upon, unless notice be given by the churchwardens or overseers of the parish who shall make the appeal, to the churchwardens, &c. of the parish from which such poor person is removed; the reasonableness of which notice shall be determined by the quarter sessions; and if reasonable notice was not given, they shall adjourn the appeal to the next quarter sessions, and then finally determine the same, id. s. 8.

225. If the justices shall, at their quarter sessions, upon an appeal concerning the settlement of any poor person, determine in favour of the appellant, they shall award him so much money as shall have been reasonably paid by the parish on whose behalf such appeal was made, for the relief of such poor person, to be recovered in the same manner as costs on an appeal, by 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 1. pl. 211., id. s. 9.

226. All bastards born in any house of industry within any particular incorporated hundreds or districts within Eng. shall be deemed to belong to the place where their mothers were last legally settled, 20 G. 3. c. 36. s. 2.

227. So much of 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 1. as enables justices to remove any person who is likely to become chargeable to the parish or place in which they inhabit shall be REP., and no poor person shall be removed by any order of removal from any parish where he inhabits to the place of his last legal settlement, until such person is actually chargeable to the parish or place where he inhabits; in which case 2 justices may remove him in the same manner, and subject to the same appeal, with the same powers as before this act with respect to persons likely to become chargeable, 35 G. 3. c. 101. s. 1.

228. If any poor person is brought before any justice to be removed under any order of removal or a vagrant pass, and it appears that he is unable to travel by sickness or other infirmity, or that it would be dangerous for him so to do, the justice making such order or pass may suspend the execution of it until it may be executed without danger to the subject of it; which suspension, and subsequent permission to execute the same, shall be indorsed on such order or pass, and signed by such justice; and no act done by such person so continuing to reside in any parish, &c. under the suspension of such order, shall give him a settlement in the same; and the charges proved on oath to have been incurred by such suspension may, by such justices, be directed to be paid by the churchwardens and overseers of the parish to which such person is to be removed, in case the removal takes place, or in case of the death of such poor person before the execution of such order; and if such churchwardens, &c. shall refuse to pay such charges within 3 days after demand made, and shall not within such time give notice of appeal as after mentioned, one justice, by warrant under hand and seal, may levy the same by distress and sale of goods of the person so neglecting to pay, and also such costs not exceeding 40*s.*, as such justice shall direct; and if the parish, &c. to which such removal is or was to be made before the death of such person be without the jurisdiction of the justice issuing the warrant, such warrant shall be transmitted to any justice having jurisdiction there, who shall indorse the same for execution; provided that if the sum so ordered to be paid for such costs and charges exceed 20*l.* the party aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter sessions against the same as against an order of removal for poor persons (under 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 2. pl. 196., 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 30. s. 6. pl. 218.); and if the quarter sessions think that the sum awarded be more than ought to be paid, such sessions may strike out such sum and insert the sum which ought to be paid, and shall in such case direct the order so amended, to be executed by the justices, or either of them, who first made it; or in case of the death of either of them, by such other as the court may direct: but this act shall not abridge the power of justices to pass or punish vagrants in manner and under the circumstances in 17 G. 2. c. 5. (VAGRANT), set forth, except so far as regards the power of suspending the pass as before mentioned, id. s. 2.

229. In all cases where the execution of any order of removal or of any vagrant pass is suspended under the 35 G. 3. c. 101. s. 2. any other justice for the county or other jurisdiction within which such order of removal or pass is made, may direct the same to be executed, and the charges incurred thereby to be paid, and execute any such order amended by the sessions as fully as the justice who made the order or granted such pass, 49 G. 3. c. 134. s. 1.

230. Every person who has been convicted of larceny or other felony, or who is by law deemed a rogue, vagabond, idle or disorderly person, or who appears to any 2 justices of the division wherein such person resides, upon oath of one witness, to be a person of evil fame, or a reputed thief, such person not being able to give a satisfactory account of his way of living, shall be considered as a person actually chargeable within the meaning of this act to the parish where he resides, and shall be liable to be removed to his last legal settlement by order of such justices, whereof one is of the quorum of the division where such person resides, 35 G. 3. c. 101. s. 5.

231. Every unmarried woman with child shall be deemed a person actually chargeable, within the meaning of this act, to the parish or place where she inhabits, and may be removed to her last legal settlement; and if any order of removal obtained for such purpose is suspended for any of the reasons in s. 2. pl. 228. mentioned, and during such suspension she is delivered of a child, which by the law is a bastard, such child shall be deemed to be settled in the same parish, &c. in which the mother's legal settlement was at the time of her delivery: provided that all acts heretofore made touching bastard children, or the mothers or reputed fathers of such children, shall be in force after the passing of this act, as well in cases where by this act the place of settlement of such children is directed to be the same as that of their mothers, as in cases where the place of settlement of such bastards remains the same as before this act, id. s. 6.

232. When the execution of any order of removal is suspended, the time of appealing against such order shall be computed according to the rules that govern like cases, from the time of serving such order, and not from the time of making the removal under it, 49 G. 3. c. 124. s. 2.

233. Where any order of removal or vagrant pass is so suspended on account of the sickness or other infirmity of any person thereby to be removed or passed, the execution thereof shall also be suspended for the like period with respect to every other person named therein who was actually of the same household or family of such sick or infirm person at the time such order was made or pass granted, id. s. 3.

234. Whenever any pauper, by age, illness, or infirmity, is unable to be brought up to the petty sessions to be examined as to his settlement, one magistrate acting for the district where the pauper is, shall take his examination, and report the same to any other magistrate acting for the district, and such magistrates on such report, shall adjudge the settlement, and make and suspend the order of removal as fully as if the pauper had appeared before 2 magistrates, id. s. 4.

235. TO PREVENT PRISONERS IN THE K. B. PRISON, OR THE rules thereof, or their families or servants, gaining settlements in the parish of St. George the Martyr in the borough of Southwark, and county of Surrey, and for the relief of such parish with respect to the families of prisoners in the K. B. or Marshalsea prison, or in the county gaol or house of correction belonging to such county; and for regulating the manner of choosing overseers of the poor; and for appointing collectors of the poor's rates within such parish, 23 G. 3. c. 23. [PUBLIC clause, s. 11. This act being local, its title only has been given.]

236. TO REPEAL CERTAIN PROVISIONS (viz. relating to settlements) in local acts for the maintenance and regulation of the poor, and to make other provisions in relation thereto, 54 G. 3. c. 170. ss. 1—6. 9, 10. [See s. 7. pl. 265.; s. 8. BASTARD, pl. 18.; ss. 11, 12. pl. 168, 169.]

237. All enactments contained in any act of parliament since the 1 G. 1. whereby any alteration is made in respect of gaining or not gaining a settlement within any particular district, parish, township, or hamlet, shall be R&F., and all persons may acquire a settlement in any parish, &c. in the same way they might have done in case any such acts had not been passed, 54 G. 3. c. 170. s. 1.

238. No person shall gain a settlement in any parish, district, &c. by being born of any mother actually confined as a prisoner within the walls of any prison or any house licensed for the reception of pregnant women pursuant to 13 G. 3. c. 82. wherein such prison or house was situate, id. s. 2.

239. Whenever any person is born of any poor person in any house of industry or house for the reception of the poor of any parish, &c. which is locally situate in any parish contributing to the expences of such house, or in any other parish, &c. not so contributing, the settlement of such person shall be in the parish, &c. by which the mother was sent to, and on whose account she was received into such house, id. s. 3.

240. No person shall gain any settlement by reason of any residence within any parish, &c. while he or she is detained as a prisoner there on any civil process, or for any contempt, id. s. 4.

241. No gate or toll keeper of any turnpike road or navigation, or person renting the tolls and residing in any toll-house, shall thereby gain any settlement in any parish, &c., id. s. 5.

242. No person shall gain any settlement in any parish, &c. by reason of residence in any house or place provided by any charitable institution, while such person is supported by such institution as an object of charity, id. s. 6.

243. No inhabitant, or person liable to be rated to any rates or cesses of any parish, &c., or wholly or in part maintained thereby, or holding any office thereof or therein, shall, before any court or person, be deemed an incompetent witness for or against such parish, &c., in any matter relating to such rates or cesses, or to the boundary between such parish, &c. and another; or to any order of removal to or from such parish, &c., or to the settlement of any pauper there, or touching any bastards chargeable, or likely so to be, to such parish, or the recovery of any sums for the maintenance of such bastards, or the election, or appointment, or allowance of the accounts of any officer of such parish, &c., 54 G. 3. c. 170. s. 9.

244. The churchwardens, overseers, and others having the management of the poor of any parish, &c., may employ any proper persons to remove any pauper ordered to be removed by any justices competent to make such order; and a delivery by such person of any such pauper shall be as valid as if he were delivered by any churchwarden or overseer, id. s. 10.

VII. Workhouses.

245. FOR THE BETTER RELIEF OF THE POOR, (viz. by erecting corporations or workhouses within the weekly bills of mortality), 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. ss. 4—15. 20. 24. [see ss. 1—3. pl. 195—197.; ss. 16—18. 23. VAGRANT; s. 19. BASTARD, pl. 8.; ss. 21, 22. pl. 4. CON. and REG. 1 J. 2. c. 17. ss. 1, 2., 3 W. & M. c. 11. s. 2., 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 11., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. s. 6., 5 & 6 A. c. 34. s. 1., made PERP. 12 A. S. 1. c. 18. s. 1., AMD. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 18. 54 G. 3. c. 170. s. 7., &c. pl. 265., &c. Note, The 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. was only temporary, but was continued by 1 J. 2. c. 12., except as to corporations, and by 3 W. & M. c. 11. only as to settlements, but by 5 & 6 A. c. 34. and 12 A. S. 1. c. 18. it was continued and made perpetual generally, without exception. Qr. how far is it in force? And see as to building workhouses and providing land, 59 G. 3. c. 12. ss. 8—18. 24, 25. pl. 106—116. 122—123.]

246. There shall be one or more corporations or workhouses within the cities of London and Westminster, and within the boroughs, towns and places of Middlesex and Surrey, situate within the parishes mentioned in the weekly bills of mortality, consisting of a president and his deputy, and a treasurer; and the mayor of London shall be president, and the aldermen assistants, with 52 other citizens, to be chosen by the common council of such city, and the majority of such president and assistants shall choose a deputy, president, and treasurer, and other officers hereby constituted to execute this act; and on any vacancy in such assistants, the power to elect in their rooms shall be in such common council, and the election of a deputy president and treasurer in such president; and the major part of such assistants, and a president, a deputy president, a treasurer, and assistants, shall be nominated by the chancellor, out of the most fit inhabitants of Westminster, or the liberties thereof, for workhouses or corporations within the same, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 12. s. 4.

247. And for the places within the weekly bills of mortality, in the counties of Middlesex and Surrey, there shall be elected, by the majority of the justices for such counties, in their quarter sessions assembled, out of the most honest inhabitants and freeholders of such counties respectively, a president, a deputy president, a treasurer, and assistants, for the corporations or workhouses of such places in Middlesex and Surrey; and upon any vacancy of any such officers in Westminster, or Middlesex and Surrey, the power to fill the same shall be in the major part of the justices in quarter sessions, and at such sessions they shall take an account in writing of all receipts, charges, and disbursements of the officers and treasurer of such corporations or workhouses, how, and how many poor people have been employed and set to work in the year past, and what stock there is remaining; which president, deputy president, and treasurer, shall for ever, in name and fact, be bodies politic and corporate in law, and have perpetual succession, and sue and be sued by the name of the president and governors for the poor of the respective places aforesaid, in all courts and places of judicature within Eng., Wa., and Ber., and by that name such corporation may, without licence in mortmain, purchase or receive lands, tenements, or hereditaments not exceeding the yearly value of 3000*l.*, by gift, alienation, or devise of any person who may give the same without further licence, and any goods or money to the use hereafter mentioned; and each corporation, or any 7 of them, shall meet and keep courts for the purposes of this act, at such time and place as shall be appointed by the president, his deputy, or treasurer; who shall, on the desire of 4 of the corporation, warn a court accordingly, and appoint a common seal, id. s. 5.

248. Such president and governors, or any 2 of them, or any person appointed by 2 of them, may apprehend any rogues, vagrants, sturdy beggars, or idle and disorderly persons, within such cities and liberties, places, &c., and cause them to be kept and set to work within their respective workhouses; and the major part of the justices, in their quarter sessions, shall signify unto the privy council the names of such rogues, &c. as they think fit to be transported, [but see now 17 G. 2. c. 5.

s. 9. VAGRANT.], and on the approbation of such council signified to such justices as to which persons shall be transported, any 2 of such justices may transport them, during 3 years next ensuing, for not exceeding 7 years, to the English plantations, there to be disposed in the usual way of servants, 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. s.6. [QU. EXP.]

249. If the president and governors of such corporation shall certify under their common seal their want of stock, and what sum they require for the same, to the common council of the city of London, and to the burgesses and justices of peace, in their quarter sessions of Westminster and the liberties thereof, and to the justices for the counties of Middlesex and Surrey in quarter sessions, thereupon such common council, &c. shall set down such sum for such purposes, not exceeding one year's rate usually set on any person for the relief of the poor, and the same proportion set upon the several wards, counties, hundreds, and parishes as they think fit; and then the aldermen, deputies, and common councilmen of every ward in London, and the burgesses and justices of Westminster, and the justices for Middlesex and Surrey, shall equally, according to such proportions, tax and rate such wards, &c.; and any person aggrieved thereby may complain to the justices at the next sessions, who shall make final order therein, as in like cases already by law provided, id. s.7.

250. Any alderman of London, or his deputy, or the burgesses and justices of Westminster, or two of them, or any two justices for Middlesex and Surrey, by warrants under their hands and seals, may authorize the churchwardens and overseers of the poor of such parishes to receive the sum so taxed on each person, and in default of payment, within 10 days after demand, or notice left at his dwelling house, may levy the same by distress and sale of his goods, restoring the surplusage to the party distrained, id. s.8.

251. Stocks or legacies formerly given to any corporation for the relief of the poor in London, shall be payable to the treasurers of the corporations or workhouses, under this act, id. ss.9, 10.

252. The president and governors, or any 7 of them, shall make orders and by-laws, for the better relieving, regulating, and setting the poor to work, and the apprehending and punishing of rogues, vagabonds, and beggars within such cities, limits, and places (s.11.); such orders and by-laws shall be presented to the quarter sessions for allowance and confirmation, id. ss.11, 12.

253. Such president and governors, or 1st of them assembled together, shall choose all such officers and others as may be needful in the premises, and may remove them, and fill up vacancies as they occur, and may give them allowances out of the stock and revenue belonging to the corporation or workhouse, id. s.13.

254. All sheriffs, bailiffs, constables, and other officers of justice shall aid the officers of such corporation in the execution of such service, id. s.14.

255. In case any constable, headborough, or tithingman shall die, or go out of the parish, any two justices may make and swear a new one, until the lord of the manor holds a court leet, or until the next quarter sessions, who shall approve such officers, or appoint others; and if any person shall continue in office for more than one year, such justices may discharge him, and put another in his place until the lord holds a court, id. s.15.

256. Persons sued for any thing done under this act may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, and if he obtain a verdict, or if the plaintiff is non-suited or discontinues, the defendant shall have treble costs, id. s.20.

257. This act not to prejudice any franchise, right, liberty, or privilege heretofore granted to the dean and chapter of St. Peter, Westminster, id. s.24.

258. The officers of such corporations, as in 13 & 14 C.2. c.12., shall make and give quarterly accounts to the justices who shall call for the same, and not give new certificates to raise more money till such accounts are given and allowed, 22 & 23 C.2. c.18. s.1.

259. The tax shall not exceed one-fourth of the poor's assessment, and no assessment shall be laid after 29th Sept. 1775, id. s.4.

260. This act shall not affect the powers given by 13 & 14 C.2. c.12. to the mayor and governors of a corporation, with the city of London, or the parish of St. Margaret's, Westminster, id. s.6.

261. TO EMPOWER JUSTICES AND OTHER PERSONS TO VISIT WORKHOUSES OR POOR-HOUSES, and examine and certify the state and condition of the poor therein to the quarter sessions, 30 G.3. c.49.

262. Any justice of peace, or any physician, surgeon, or apothecary, authorised by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice, or the officiating clergyman of the parish or place, so authorised, may in the day-time visit any parish workhouse, or house kept for the maintenance of the poor of any parish within the county or division wherein such justice shall reside and have jurisdiction, and may examine into the condition of the poor there, and of their food, clothing, and bedding, and the condition of such house; and if they find cause of complaint, they shall certify the condition of such house, and the state of the poor therein, and of their food, clothing, and bedding, to the next quarter sessions of the county, &c., under their hands and seals; and such justices and other persons, shall cause the overseers of the poor, or the master or governor of such house, to be summoned to appear at such sessions to answer the complaint, and such sessions, on hearing the parties, shall make such orders for removing the cause of complaint as to them seems meet, and the parties shall abide by and perform such order, 30 G.3. c.49. s.1.

263. In case any justice or person so authorized, shall on visitation find any of the poor in any such house afflicted with any infectious disease, or in want of medical or other assistance, or of sufficient food, or requiring separation from the other poor, then, if such visitation is made by a justice, he shall apply to another justice of the same county, &c., and certify to him the condition of the poor in such parish workhouse; and if such visitation is made by such other persons, they shall apply to two justices of the same county, who may order immediate medical or other assistance, or proper food, or such separation of the poor afflicted with infectious diseases, in such manner as they shall under their hands [and seals direct, until the next quarter sessions for the county, &c., at which sessions such two justices are to certify the same, under their hands and seals, to the justices assembled there, who shall make such further order for the relief of the poor in such parish workhouse, as to such sessions seems meet, and the charges of such relief shall be paid out of the poor's rates, in such manner as the sessions shall direct, id. s.2.

264. Nothing herein shall extend to any poor-house in any district now or hereafter to be incorporated, or regulated by special act of parliament, id. s.3.

265. FOR PREVENTING THE TOO SEVERE PUNISHMENT of persons residing within any poor-house, 54 G.3. c.170. s.7. [AMD. 56 G.3. c.129. s.2. See the rest of 54 G.3. c.170. referred to pl. 236.; and of 56 G.3. c.129. pl. 23, 24.] and for preventing the embezzlement by such persons of the goods and materials belonging to any workhouse, 55 G.3. c.137. 1, 2, 5, 8, 9. [See the rest of 55 G.3. c.137. Div. V.]

266. The master, governor, or other person entrusted with the superintendence of any house for the reception of poor persons, or the churchwarden, or overseer, or other person, elected or appointed under any act of parliament for the management of the poor of any parish, &c., shall not punish with corporal punishment any adult person under his charge, or confine him for a longer space than 24 hours, or such further time as may be necessary in order to have him before a justice, 54 G.3. c.170. s.7.

267. No governor, director, guardian, or master of any house of industry or workhouse shall, on any pretence, chain or confine by chains or manacles, any poor person of sane mind, 56 G.3. c.129. s.2.

268. The property of and in all and singular the goods and chattels, furniture, provisions, clothes, linen and wearing apparel, tools, utensils, materials, and things, had, bought, or provided for the use of the poor of any parish, township, hamlet, or place, shall be vested in the overseers of the poor of such places, who may bring any action, or prefer any indictment against any person who shall steal, take, or carry away, or buy or receive any such goods, &c.; in which action or indictment, such goods, &c. shall be laid as the property of such overseers, without stating their names; but nothing herein shall repeal any of the provisions of any act, whereby the property of such goods, &c. are vested in any other persons, jointly with or independent of such overseers, 55 G.3. c.137. s.1.

269. Such overseers or other person appointed for the regulating, managing, &c. for the poor of any parish, &c. jointly with or independent of such overseers, may cause all such goods, &c. to be marked or branded with the word "workhouse," or such other mark as may identify the same; and if any pawnbroker or other person shall knowingly take in pawn, buy, exchange, or receive such goods, &c. provided for the use of any person in any workhouse, or to whom the same has been given by the overseers or such other persons so appointed, or any of the goods or materials carried into any workhouse to be manufactured or used by the poor there, or shall receive or buy any provisions provided by such workhouse, or shall assist therein, or if any person shall obliterate or deface any such mark, they shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor less than 1*l.* on conviction by confession or on oath of one witness before any justice for the county, city, or division where the offence was committed; to go one moiety to the informer and the other to the overseers of the poor of the parish, &c. to which the articles may belong, for the use of the poor there; and if such penalty is not paid, such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 2 calendar months; and if any person shall run away from such workhouse with any such goods, he shall, on conviction as aforesaid, be committed to such gaol, &c. for 3 calendar months; and in all such cases, such mark being duly authenticated, shall be considered sufficient evidence, without further proof of the right of property: provided such mark shall not be placed on any wearing apparel so as to be publicly visible on the exterior, 55 G. 3. s. 157. s. 2.

270. In case any person maintained in any public workhouse shall refuse to work at any employment suited to his age or capacity, or shall be guilty of drunkenness or other misbehaviour, he shall, on conviction before any justice, be committed to prison for not exceeding 21 days, and be kept to hard labour, id. s. 5.

271. All justices before whom any person is convicted of any offence against this act, shall draw the conviction in the form here set down, or to that effect; viz.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is duly convicted before — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of — [or city or liberty of — as the case may be,] of having [here state offence] contrary to the statute in that case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal [or our hands and seals, as the case may be,] the day and year above written.'

and the same shall be good, and not quashed, set aside, or made void, or removed by certiorari or otherwise, into any court at Westminster, id. s. 8.

272. Any person aggrieved by the judgment of such justices; may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, city, or place, such person, at the time of conviction, entering into a recognizance, with 2 sureties conditioned personally to appear at such sessions to try such appeal, and to abide the further judgment of such sessions; and the justices there may determine the same in a summary way, and make such order therein as they think proper; and their determination shall be final, id. s. 9.

POPULATION.

1. FOR TAKING AN ACCOUNT OF THE POPULATION OF G. B., and of the increase and diminution, 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 15., 51 G. 3. c. 6., 1 G. 4. c. 94. [Exp.]

2. The accounts made for preparing the returns hereby required shall be preserved by the churchwardens, &c. in Eng., and by the parties preparing them in Scot., and shall be delivered over to their successors, 1 G. 4. c. 94. s. 9.

PORTS.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. FOR THE PRESERVING OF H. M.'s harbour moorings, 10 A. c. 17. ss. 21, 22. [for the rest of this act, GREENWICH HOSPITAL. REP. 9 G. 3. c. 30. s. 1., 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 1.]

2. TO REPEAL 10 A. c. 17. ss. 21, 22. and for the more effectual preservation of such harbour moorings, 9 G. 3. c. 30. ss. 1—4. [see the rest of this act, SEAMEN. REP. 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 1.]

3. FOR THE BETTER SECURITY OF H. M.'s naval arsenals in the river Medway, and Portsmouth and Hamoaze harbours, and of H. M.'s ships and vessels lying at and resorting to the same, 51 G. 3. c. 73. [REP. 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO PERSON SHALL CAST OUT OF ANY VESSEL, being within any haven, road, channel, or river running to any city, borough, or town, any ballast, rubbish, or other filth, but only on land above the full sea mark, upon pain to forfeit 5*l.* in moieties to H. M. and the party suing by action of debt or information, wherein no essoins, &c., 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 9. s. 6.

2. FOR THE BETTER PRESERVATION OF HAVENS, ROADS, channels, and navigable rivers within Eng., 19 G. 2. c. 22. [extended as meant to be extended, 54 G. 3. c. 159.]

3. If any master or owner, or person acting as master of any ship, pink, crayer, lighter, keil boat, or other vessel whatsoever, shall cast or unlade, or if there shall be cast or unladed out of any ship, &c. riding within any haven, port, road, channel, or navigable river within Eng. any ballast, rubbish, gravel, earth, stone, wreck, or filth, but only on the land where the tide or water never flows, any justice for the county, city, town, liberty, or place where or near which such offence is committed, on information thereof, may summon or issue out his warrant to apprehend and bring before him the master or owner of such ship, &c., or person acting as master, against whom such complaint is made, and on his appearance or default may examine into the matter, and, on due proof made, either by confession, view of justice, or oath of one witness, that any ballast, &c. has been cast or unladed out of any ship, &c. the master or person acting as master is hereby declared an offender against this act, and, on conviction in manner aforesaid, shall forfeit not exceeding 5*l.* nor under 50*s.* in discretion of such justice, to go one moiety to the informer and the other to the overseers of the poor of the parish, &c. where conviction had, for the use of the poor there, 19 G. 2. c. 22. s. 1.

4. The penalties hereby inflicted shall be levied by distress and sale of the goods of the party convicted, or of the ship, &c., or of their tackle, apparel, and furniture, by warrant under hand and seal of such justice, directed to the constables or other proper officer of the parish, &c. where such warrant is to be executed, and who shall execute same accordingly, together with the charges of distress and sale, rendering overplus, on demand in writing, to the owner; and for want of distress, such justice shall commit such master or person so convicted to the common gaol or house of correction of the county or place where the conviction was had, for 2 months, or until payment is made, id. s. 2.

5. As soon as any ship or vessel is sunk, stranded, or run on shore in any harbour, port, channel, or navigable river, or shall be brought or drove in, or is there in a ruinous and shattered condition, and the owner or other person pretending property therein, or the command thereof, or any other person by their privity, order, or assent, shall begin to take down or carry away the rigging or tackle, or if there be not any person to take care of the ship, one justice for the county or place near which the same shall happen, may summon or issue his warrant to apprehend such owner or person, and proceed to examine the matter as in s. 2.; and in case, on examination, such justice shall find such owner or person guilty of such offence, he may issue his warrant for seizing and removing such ship or vessel, and also the rigging or tackle thereof, in such manner as he shall direct; and if such owner or person shall not, within 5 days, give security to the approbation of such justice to clear such harbour, &c. of all wrecks and parts thereof, and pay the charges and expences of seizing, removing, and disposing of the ship, tackle, &c., then he may cause the hulk, rigging, or tackle to be sold, and out of the money raised thereby, pay the charges of clearing the harbour, &c. and of seizing, removing, and selling such ship, &c. rendering the overplus to the owner of the manor, id. s. 5. [see 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 17. infra, pl. 29.]

6. All justices may put this act in execution against any person within their jurisdictions, although such justice is rated to the relief of the poor of any parish in which such convictions may be had (s. 4.); and all convictions pronounced under this act shall be final, and not be appealed from or removed into any court of record at Westminster, id. ss. 4, 5.

7. No distress made under this act shall be sold till 5 days after made, but the parties convicted may, within that period, redeem such distress by payment of the money for which made, together with the costs of making and seizing such distress, id. s. 6.

8. This act shall not alter or abridge any right, benefit, or lawful use that any lord or lady of any manor adjoining any such haven, port, &c., or any other person, hath to such haven, &c. or to the banks, shores, or sides thereof, or any fisheries, manufactories, or royalties therein, nor to the casting out of any ship, &c. any stone, &c. or other materials used in building, amending, and repairing any quay, pier, wharf, wear, or bridge, or the banks or sides of any haven, &c. within this realm; but this act shall be construed to prevent mischiefs that may be done to any havens, &c. which may tend to obstruct, prejudice, or do any annoyance therein, and not otherwise, id. s. 7.

9. This act shall not abridge or limit any other jurisdiction or right or remedy to punish any nuisance done to any haven, port, road, channel, or navigable river, id. s. 8.

10. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE PUBLIC HARBOURS of the U. K., 46 G. 3. c. 153.

11. No person shall make, construct, or erect any pier, quay, wharf, jetty, breast, or embankment in or adjoining to any public harbour in the U. K., or any river immediately communicating therewith, so far as the tide flows up the same, without giving one month's notice of their intention so to do to the secretary of the admiralty, who shall lay it before the admiralty, the receipt of which notice such secretary shall acknowledge, upon pain that persons so offending shall forfeit 200*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoins, &c. and only one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 1.

12. This act shall not prejudice the estates, rights, franchises, &c. or authority of the city of London, or the lord mayor of such city, or to defeat or alter the jurisdiction of such city or mayor, as the conservator of the Thames and Medway, id. s. 2.

13. FOR THE BETTER REGULATION OF PORTS, HARBOURS, roadsteads, sounds, channels, bays, and navigable rivers, in the U. K.; and of H. M.'s docks, dock yards, arsenals, wharfs, moorings, and stores therein; and for repealing several acts passed for that purpose, 54 G. 3. c. 159.

14. The lord high admiral, or 3 of the commissioners for executing the office of lord high admiral of the U. K. may, as occasion shall require, make such rules, orders, and regulations, in writing under their respective hands, or the hand of their secretary, as they think proper for the preservation of H. M.'s moorings, and for the mooring, anchoring, and placing of all private ships of war, transports, and all other private and merchant ships and vessels, lighters, barges, boats, and other craft whatsoever, in all the ports, harbours, havens, roads, roadsteads, sounds, channels, creeks, bays, and navigable rivers of the U. K., so far as the tide flows and re-flows, where or near to which H. M. now hath, or may hereafter have any docks, dock yards, arsenals, wharfs, or moorings; and harbour masters to be appointed as hereinafter mentioned, for superintending the same for the purpose of insuring free and safe ingress, egress, and regress unto, into, to, and from such ports, &c., and to and from H. M.'s docks, &c. and moorings therein; and for that purpose may direct such spaces along the sides of, over, against, or near to such docks, &c. and moorings, as they judge necessary to be kept free and open, and may cause the same to be marked out by piles, buoys, or other marks, and direct what spaces and distances shall be appropriated for the sole use and purpose of moorings for H. M.'s vessels of war and hired armed vessels in H. M.'s service; and also may specify the distances from H. M.'s docks, &c. moorings, ships, and hulks, within which no private ship of war, transport, or any other private or merchant vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft whatever shall be moored, anchored, or placed, and for any other the purposes hereinafter mentioned; and may vary and alter such rules, &c.; and may appoint proper persons, to be called The King's Harbour Masters, to superintend such ports, harbours, &c. for such purposes, and enforce obedience to all such rules, &c.; all which said rules, &c. shall, upon the making thereof, and also whenever the same are in any manner altered, be forthwith published in The London Gazette, and constantly kept hung up in some conspicuous part of the custom-house, or other place of public resort for business in the port, harbour, or haven, for which the same shall be made, or where same are directed to be in force, 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 2.

15. If any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant vessel, lighter, barge, boat, or other craft, for which no licence so to do has been first obtained in writing under the hand of any commissioner of the navy, port admiral, or other person duly authorized by the admiralty to grant such licences, for the time and purpose to be therein particularly specified, shall, unless forced thereto by stress of weather or other unavoidable accident, be moored to any of H. M.'s moorings, chains, anchors, buoys, piles, ships, or hulks, or shall in any manner be moored, anchored or placed within any such distances so to be appropriated as in s. 2. for the use of moorings for H. M.'s vessels of war or vessels in his service, or within any such distance, so to be specified, from H. M.'s docks, &c. as in s. 2., or within any such spaces so to be directed to be kept open, or in the fair way or channel or across the stream in any such port, harbour, haven, or navigable river, so as to obstruct the passage into the same; the master or other person then on board, and having the command of any such vessel, lighter, &c.; and in case the proper master is not then on board the same, then the owners thereof, whether on board or not; shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, for each tide which such vessel, lighter, &c. shall remain so moored, anchored, or placed, id. s. 3.

16. And in case the owner, master, &c. of any vessel, &c. so moored as in s. 3. shall neglect to unmoor, and remove any such vessel, lighter, &c. which is so moored, anchored, or placed beyond such spaces and distances, and also out of such fair way, channel, or stream, for one hour after notice to him given in writing, or left on board such vessel, lighter, &c. for that purpose, by one of H. M.'s naval or dock yard officers; then any harbour master, and also any officer belonging to any of H. M.'s vessels of war, docks, dock yards or arsenals, and any person acting in his aid, may unmoor such vessel, lighter, &c. and remove the same beyond such spaces and distances, and out of such fair way; and every such owner, master, or other person, so neglecting, shall forfeit a further 10*l.*, id. s. 4.

17. Whenever any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant vessel, shall, by accident or otherwise, hook any of H. M.'s moorings, the owner, master, or other person having the command of such vessel, shall not proceed to unhook the same, under the penalty of 10*l.*, to be paid by every such owner, master, or other person; but shall forthwith give notice thereof to H. M.'s harbour master, commissioner of the navy, or other chief officer of H. M.'s dock or naval yard, nearest to the place where the same may happen, in order that aid may be given for the purpose of clearing such vessel from such moorings without damage to the same; for which aid such master, owner, or other person, shall pay such sum, not exceeding 5*l.*, as shall be adjudged in a summary way, by any commissioner of the navy or justice of peace, to be recovered as any penalty may be by this act, and with such power of commitment, on non-payment thereof, as in cases of penalties under this act, id. s. 5.

18. The admiralty may by order or notice in writing under their hands, or the hand of their secretary, prohibit the breaming of any vessels, lighters, barges, boats, or other craft, at any place on shore, where they see fit, and also order at what place within or near all or any of such ports, harbours, &c. as in s. 2. pl. 14., in this kingdom, no private ships of war, transports, or other private or merchant vessel, lighter, &c. shall come, or be laden with or having on board any gunpowder, exceeding 5 lbs. in the whole; and also may appoint fit places, either afloat or on shore, where all gunpowder, exceeding 5 lbs. in the whole, may be deposited, by and from, or received into, any such vessels, lighters, &c.; all which orders, notices, and appointments shall be notified in the London Gazette; and that the master general or principal officers of H. M.'s ordnance, or any 3 of them, shall appoint fit persons there, to receive and deliver out such gunpowder, and upon the taking in thereof to give receipts for the same, and also to grant a certificate to any such owner, master, or other person, of his having deposited such gunpowder, and having made and signed a declaration in writing under his hand, of his having so done, and that neither he nor any other person to his knowledge or belief, had any gunpowder, exceeding 5 lbs. in the whole, then on board such vessel, lighter, &c.; which declaration every such master, &c. shall make, and for which certificate 1*s.* shall be paid; and every such person so to be appointed, shall be accountable to the owners of such gunpowder for the same, and shall deliver the same to them upon demand, on being paid such sum for warehouse room as shall be fixed, either by the admiralty or by the ordnance office, by any rule, &c. made in that behalf; and no vessel having or having had any such quantity of gunpowder on board, shall be allowed to clear at any custom house where there shall be any such place so to be appointed, without producing and leaving such certificate, together with the christian and surname of the pilot who piloted such vessel into such port, at the custom house of such port; and every owner, master, pilot, or other person having the command of any such private ship of war, vessel, lighter, &c. which shall be (except in cases of stress of weather) within any of the distances so to be specified, having on board gunpowder exceeding 5 lbs. in the whole, or which, having come in under stress of weather, shall not unship and deliver all such gunpowder within 24 hours next after the ceasing of such weather (and thereof forthwith give notice at the custom house to excuse the production of such certificate), shall forfeit 5*l.* for every 5 lbs. of gunpowder found or which has been on board any such ship or vessel, lighter, &c. within any such distances, and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity; and every such pilot who shall wilfully and knowingly offend in the premises, shall, on conviction, be rendered incapable of acting as a pilot, 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 6.

19. No private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, &c. whatever, shall be breamed afloat in any of the ports, &c. of this kingdom, for which any such rules, &c. shall be made, nor at any place on shore where such breaming is prohibited as in s. 6., upon pain to forfeit 5*l.*; and no fire shall be kept on board of any such vessel, lighter, &c. in any such port, &c. between 11 in the evening and 5 in the morning, from the 1*st* Oct. to the 31*st* Mar. inclusive; nor between 11 in the evening and 4 in the morning, from the 1*st* April to the 30*th* Sept. inclusive, in every year; upon pain that every owner, master, other person having command of any such vessel, lighter, &c. shall forfeit 5*l.*; and no pitch, tar, rosin, turpentine, grease, tallow, oil, or any other combustible matter whatsoever, shall be boiled or heated on board any such vessel, lighter, &c. within 250 yards from any of H. M.'s vessels of war, or hired armed vessels in his service, in any of the ports, &c. as in s. 2. pl. 14., where the same may happen to be; nor within 250 yards from any of H. M.'s docks, dock yards, arsenals, or wharfs, upon pain that every owner, master, or such other person, commanding any such vessel, lighter, &c. shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 7.

20. If any owner, master, or other person, having the command of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant vessel, shall, while such ship or vessel shall lie in any of such ports, &c., as in s. 2. pl. 14., keep any gun shotted or loaded with ball, or shall discharge or cause or permit to be discharged any gun on board such ship or vessel lying therein, before sun-rising or after sun-setting, he shall, for every such gun so kept shotted or loaded, forfeit 5*s.*, and for every gun so discharged, 10*s.*, id. s. 8.

21. Any such harbour master, and also any officer belonging to any of H. M.'s vessels of war, docks, dock yards, or arsenals, and also any person in their aid, at any hour between sun-rising and sun-setting, may go on board of any such ship or vessel, lighter, &c., in order to search for gunpowder, guns shotted, and the heating and melting such combustible matters, as in s. 7. pl. 19., within the limits wherein the same are by this act prohibited; and if the owner, master, or other person then on board, having the command of any such vessel, lighter, &c. shall, upon demand made, refuse to permit or shall not permit any such person to come on board and make such search, he shall forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 9.

22. No person, not being in H. M.'s service, or employed in H. M.'s dock-yards or arsenals, and in the regular performance of his duty, or not being authorized so to do, by licence under the hand of some commissioner of the navy, (which licence any such commissioner may grant, and also revoke at his will,) shall on any account creep or sweep for anchors, cables, ropes, rope-yarns, or other stores, lost in any of the ports, &c., as in s. 2. pl. 14., within 100 yards from any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or hired ships or vessels in his service, or from any moorings belonging to H. M., or within any such distance so to be marked, upon pain of forfeiting 10*l.*, 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 10.

23. If the owner, master, or other person having the command of any private ship of war, transport, or other private or merchant ship or vessel, lighter, &c., or any person working any quarry, mine, or pit, near to the sea, or to any such harbour, haven, or navigable river, or any other person shall throw, empty, or unlade, or cause to be thrown, &c., either from or out of any such ship, vessel, lighter, &c., or from the shore, any ballast, stone, slate, gravel, earth, rubbish, wreck, or filth, into any of such ports, &c., so as to tend to the obstruction of the navigation thereof, or in any place on shore where the same are liable to be washed into the sea, or into any such ports, roads, &c., either by ordinary or high tides, or by storms or land floods; such person so offending shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.* besides all expences incurred in removing such matters so deposited contrary to this act, such expences to be recoverable in such manner and with such power of commitment on non-payment, as in cases of penalties under this act: provided nothing herein shall extend to the casting out, unlading, or throwing out of any ship or vessel, lighter, &c. any stones, rocks, bricks, lime, or other materials to be used in the building or repairing any quay, &c. or other building, or the banks or sides of any port, harbour, &c., or any materials for repairing any highway, id. s. 11.

24. No vessel, lighter, &c. whatever shall unlade on any part of the shore (except on some wharf properly constructed for the purpose) any ballast, stone, slate, gravel, earth, rubbish, wreck, or filth, except at high water, or within two hours before or after high water; and for such purpose, such vessel, lighter, &c. shall approach the shore, as far as the tide and the draught of water of such vessel, lighter, &c. will admit, and shall not deposit any of such matters below low water mark at neap tides; and vessels drawing above 11 feet of water at the stern, shall unlade all such materials into some lighter, &c. as herein-before directed, in order that the same may be conveyed as near the shore as possible at high water, as herein-before directed, id. s. 12.

25. All such ballast and other matter shall, in all the above-mentioned cases, be cast on shore, from the side of the ship, lighter, &c. nearest to the land, and not otherwise; and every person who shall offend in any of the above particulars shall forfeit not exceeding 10*l.*, besides all expences incurred in removing such matters deposited contrary to this act, such expences to be recoverable in such manner and with such powers of commitment on non-payment as in cases of penalties under this act, id. s. 13.

26. No person shall take any ballast or shingle from the shores or banks, or any portion of the shores or banks of any port, harbour, or haven, from which the admiralty shall, for the protection of such port, &c. or the works thereof, by order under their hands, or the hand of their secretary, and published in the London Gazette, prohibit the taking or removing of such shingle or ballast, upon pain of forfeiting 10*l.*, id. s. 14.

27. In the taking of ballast into any vessel, lighter, &c., and also in the discharging of the same, such vessel, lighter, &c. shall make use of one or more tarpaulins properly stretched and spread, in order to prevent such ballast from falling into the sea, or into any harbour, haven, or navigable river; and in case of neglect herein, every person offending shall forfeit 5*l.*, id. s. 15.

28. The admiralty may grant licences under their hands and seal of office, or under the hand and seal of office of their secretary, for dispensing with the foregoing provisions relative to ballast, in cases that may require such dispensation, id. s. 16.

29. When any vessel, lighter, &c. is sunk or stranded in any port, harbour, haven, &c., as in s. 2. pl. 14., where such harbour master is so appointed, such harbour master, and also any commissioner of the navy residing in or near the place where the same shall happen, in case the owner or person having the command of such vessel, lighter, &c. shall neglect to weigh and raise the same for 28 days, may cause any such vessel, lighter, &c. to be weighed and raised, and the same, and the furniture, tackle, and apparel thereof, and also all or any part of any goods, merchandizes, and effects found on board, to be sold by auction, or otherwise, and therewith pay the expences of weighing and raising the same, and clearing the port, harbour, &c. where the same shall happen, and also the expences of such sale, rendering the overplus to the owner or person entitled to the same, id. s. 17. [see 19 G. 2. c. 22. s. 5. pl. 5.]

30. Every such harbour master, and the commissioners of the navy, and every officer of any of H. M.'s ships of war, docks, dock-yards, and arsenals, and all other persons acting in their aid, shall be indemnified for what they do or cause to be done in pursuance of this act, id. s. 18.

31. In case such harbour master or commissioner of the navy, shall not proceed to call such vessel, lighter, &c. to be weighed and raised within 2 calendar months after the expiration of such 28 days, then such owner, master, or other person, may weigh and raise such sunken or stranded vessel, and the goods and effects therein, in the same manner as if this act had not been made, 54 G. 3. c. 159. s. 19.

32. Every commissioner of the navy, who is residing at any port, dock-yard, or arsenal, near to any place where any offence against this act is committed, shall be deemed to be a justice of peace for all the purposes of this act; and all the laws now in force, for the ease, safety, and protection of justices in the execution of their office, shall extend to him, and to all constables, or other peace officers or persons acting under his warrant or authority, as fully as if the same were herein re-enacted as to and for the protection of such commissioners of the navy, and the constables or peace officers, or persons acting under their warrant, id. s. 20.

33. All penalties imposed by this act shall be sued for within 12 calendar months after the offence committed, before any commissioner of the navy or justice of peace residing at or near to the place where any such offence was committed, and shall go as follows: viz. one moiety to H. M., and the other with full costs to the informer; and such commissioner of the navy and justice shall, upon information exhibited or complaint made, grant his warrant under his hand, to bring before them such offender at the time and place in such warrant specified; and if on conviction, on confession or oath, (which oath such commissioner of the navy and justice may administer,) such penalty together with such costs is not forthwith paid, such commissioner of the navy or justice may commit such offender to the common gaol or house of correction for the county, city, or borough, at or near to the place where the offence was committed, for not exceeding 3 months, unless such penalty and costs are sooner paid, id. s. 21.

34. Any commissioner of the navy, residing at or near to any port, harbour, or haven, or any part thereof, or any justice for any county, city, or borough, acting for any district or place adjoining to any such port, &c., as in s. 2. pl. 14., or any member of any of them, where any such offence is committed, may proceed in the execution of this act, and of all the authorities hereby given to them, in the same manner, and as fully as if such offence had been committed locally within the limits of the jurisdiction of such commissioner or justice, although the same may have been committed out of the limits of their jurisdiction, or out of the body of any county, id. s. 22.

35. The conviction of any person under this act shall be drawn up according to the following form, or to the like effect, mutatis mutandis; and shall be good; viz.

'Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the year of our Lord — A. B. is convicted before me — one of the commissioners of the navy, or one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the — of — [as the case may be] for that the said A. B. on the — day of — at — did [here state the offence against this act] contrary to the statute in such case made and provided. Given under my hand and seal the day and year first above written.'

Which conviction such commissioner or justice shall cause to be written upon parchment or paper, and returned to the next quarter sessions for the county, city, or place, where such conviction was made, to be filed by the clerk of the peace, and there to remain among the records; and the same shall not be removed by certiorari, advocacy, or suspension, or any other process, into any court, id. s. 23.

36. If any person is summoned as a witness to give evidence before any such commissioner or justice, touching any matter relative to this act, either on the part of the prosecutor, or of the party accused, and shall neglect to appear at the time and place to be for that purpose appointed, without a reasonable excuse, to be allowed by such commissioner or justice, then such person shall forfeit 10*l.*, to be recovered, levied, and applied in such manner and by such means as in s. 21. pl. 33., with respect to fines on summary convictions, id. s. 24.

37. If any person, upon examination on oath or affirmation before any commissioner of the navy, or before any justice in any matter relating to this act, shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence, or shall in any information or deposition sworn, or affirmation taken in writing, before any such commissioner or justice, wilfully and corruptly swear or affirm any matter false or untrue, such person shall be subject to the like pains and penalties as any persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, id. s. 25.

38. Any person or persons so convicted by any commissioner of the navy or justice, of any offence against this act, within 3 calendar months after, may appeal to the quarter sessions for the county, &c., first giving 10 days' notice of such appeal to the respondent, and of the matter thereof, and entering into a recognizance before some commissioner of the navy, or justice for the county, city, or place, with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try such appeal, and for abiding the determination of the court therein; and such sessions shall, upon due proof of such notice having been given, and a recognizance entered into, hear and determine such appeal, and may either confirm or quash such conviction, and award such costs to either party as to them seems just, and their decision therein shall be final and binding, id. s. 26.

39. Actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 6 months after the thing done, and the venue laid in the proper county, and not elsewhere; and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if a verdict shall pass for the defendant, or the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinued, after the defendant has appeared, or if judgment is given upon verdict or demurrer against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, 54 G.3. c.159. s. 27.

40. This act shall not prejudice any right, &c., or jurisdiction, or any powers of conservancy, enjoyed by any body corporate or politic, or by any lord or lady of any manor, or any person whatsoever, in, to, upon, or over any of the ports, harbours, havens, roads, roadsteads, sounds, channels, creeks, bays, or navigable rivers of the U. K., or to the banks, shores, or sides thereof; nor repeal any of the provisions in any act of parliament passed for the regulation of any river, port, or harbour, in the U. K., or the shipping frequenting the same, except the acts hereby expressly repealed; but that such respective rights, &c. shall be enjoyed as beneficially as if this act had never been made, id. s. 28.

POSTHUMOUS CHILDREN.

1. TO ENABLE POSTHUMOUS CHILDREN TO TAKE ESTATES as if born in their father's lifetime, 10 & 11 W.3. c.16. [This statute was occasioned by the dissatisfaction of the judges, on the reversal by the lords of their decision against the posthumous son, in Reeve v. Long, 1 Salk. 227.]

2. Where any estate is, by any marriage or other settlement limited in remainder to, or to the use of, the first or other sons of the body of any person lawfully begotten, with remainder over to or to the use of any other person, or in remainder to or for the use of one or more daughters lawfully, &c. with remainder to any other person, any son or daughter of such person, born after the decease of his father, may take such estate in the same manner as if born in the lifetime of the father; though no estate be limited to trustees after the father's decease, to preserve the contingent remainder to such after-born son or sons, daughter or daughters, until he, she, or they come in esse, or are born to take the same, id. s. 1.

PRINTING.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO INDEMNIFY PERSONS WHO HAVE INADVERTENTLY printed, published, or dispersed papers or books, without full description of the abode of the printers, from the penalties of 39 G.3. c.79. s.27., 49 G.3. c.69. [EXP.]

2. TO INDEMNIFY ALL PERSONS WHO HAVE PRINTED, PUBLISHED, or dispersed, or who shall publish or disperse any papers printed under authority of the commissioners or head officers of [state, 41 G.3. U. K. c.80.] or of any public boards, [or other public authorities, 41 G.3. U. K. c.80.] from all penalties incurred by reason of the printer's name and residence not being printed thereon, 39 & 40 G.3. c.95., and 41 G.3. (U. K.) c.80.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO REGULATE THE PRINTING OF BOOKS AND PAPERS, 39 G.3. c.79. ss. 23—38. (see rest of this title, and ss. 1—22. ASSEMBLIES.) [AMD. generally by 39 & 40 G.3. c.95., 41 G.3. U. K. c.80., 51 G.3. c.65. ss.2—5., and as to s. 27. by s. 1. of the last act. Indemnity for publishing law proceedings without printer's name, 42 G.3. c.23. s.9. EXP. See as to printing newspapers, 38 G.3. c.78. NEWSPAPER.]

2. Every person having any printing press or types for printing shall cause a notice thereof, signed in the presence of, and attested by one witness, to be delivered to the clerk of the peace for the county, stewardry, riding, division, city, borough, town, or place where it is intended to be used, who shall grant a certificate in form as in schedule, for 1s. only, and shall file such notice, and transmit an attested copy to a principal secretary of state; and every person keeping any press or types without such notice or certificate, or who, having complied with those requisites, shall use such press or types in any other place than that expressed in the notice, shall forfeit 20l., 39 G.3. c.79. s. 23.

3. Nothing herein shall extend to H. M.'s printers for Eng. and Scot., or to the public university presses of Oxford or Cambridge, id. s. 24.

4. Every person carrying on business as a letter founder, or maker or seller of types for printing, or of printing presses, shall cause notice of his intention to carry on the same to be delivered to the clerk of the peace of the county or place, or his deputy, in form as in schedule, who shall grant a certificate in like form for 1s. only, and shall file such notice, and transmit an attested copy to a principal secretary of state; and every person carrying on such business without such notice and certificate shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 25.

5. Every person who shall sell types or printing presses shall keep a fair account in writing of all persons to whom any shall be sold, producing the same to any justice requiring it; or for neglect to keep, or refusal to produce it, on demand in writing made to inspect it, shall forfeit 20l., 39 G.3. c.79. s. 26.

6. Any person who shall print any paper or book soever, which is meant to be published or dispersed, whether sold or given away, shall print on the front of every such paper, if printed on one side only, and on the first and last leaves of every paper or book which consists of more than one leaf, in legible characters, his name, and that of the city, town, parish or place, and, if any, that of the square, street, lane, court or place in which his abode is; and every person omitting so to print his name on every such paper or book so printed by him, and every person who shall publish or disperse, or assist in publishing, &c. either gratis or for money, any printed paper, &c. on which the printer's name and abode is not printed, shall forfeit 20l. for every copy, id. s. 27.

7. Nothing in the last pl. shall make any offender liable to more than 25 penalties for printing or publishing, or dispersing or assisting in publishing, &c. any number of copies of one paper or book contrary to that section, 51 G.3. c.65. s. 1.

8. Nothing in this act shall extend to any papers printed by authority and for use of either house of parliament, 39 G.3. c.79. s. 28.

9. Every person who shall print any paper for hire or profit, shall carefully preserve one copy at least of every paper so printed by him, for 6 calendar months, on which shall be written or printed, in fair and legible characters, the name and abode of the persons employed to print the same; and if he neglect the above, or to produce it to any justice within that time requiring to see it, he shall forfeit 20l., id. s. 29.

10. Any person to whom, or in whose presence, any printed paper not having the name and abode of any person, or having a fictitious name or abode, printed thereon, shall be sold or offered for sale, or shall be delivered gratis, or offered so to be, or shall be posted or left in any public place, or in any other manner exposed to public view, may seize and detain the person so selling or offering to sell, or delivering or offering to deliver, or posting, &c. in any public place, or any otherwise exposing to public view any such printed paper, and forthwith take him before some justice for the county, &c. or place where he is seized, or deliver him to some constable, &c. or peace officer to be so taken, that such justice may determine on his guilt under this act, id. s. 30.

11. Nothing herein shall extend to the impression of any engraving, or to printing by letter-press the name, address, business or profession of any person, and the articles in which he deals, or to any papers for sale of estates or goods by auction or otherwise, id. s. 31.; or to alter any provision of any statute now in force respecting the printing, &c. or distributing any printed newspaper or other printed paper, id. s. 32.

12. If any justice acting for any county, &c. or place, shall, from information on oath, have reason to suspect that any printing press, or types for printing are used or kept for use, without notice given and certificate obtained under this act, or in any place not included in such notice and certificate, he may, by warrant, direct any constable or other peace officer, in the day time, with any persons called to his assistance, to enter into any such house in the day time, and to secure and carry away the press, types, and printed papers found therein, id. s. 33.

13. The justice or other magistrate before whom any person is convicted of any offence against 39 G.3. c.79., may, if he see cause, mitigate the same to any sum not less than 5l. above all reasonable costs incurred in the prosecution, 51 G.3. c.65. s. 2.

14. Nothing in 39 G.3. c.79., or this act, shall extend to require the printer's name and residence to be printed on any note or post bill of the Bank of Eng., bill of exchange or promissory note, or on any bond or other security for payment of money, or on any bill of lading, policy of insurance, letter of attorney, deed, or agreement, or on any transfer or assignment of any public funds or securities, or of the stocks of any public corporation or company authorized by statute, or on any dividend warrant of or for the same, or on any receipt for money or goods, or on any proceeding in law or equity, or in any inferior court, warrant, order, or other papers printed by authority of any public board, or officer in execution of their respective offices, notwithstanding the whole or any part of such securities, &c. shall be printed, id. s. 3.

15. No person shall be prosecuted for any penalty imposed by this act, unless the prosecution is commenced or action brought within 3 calendar months next after such penalty incurred, 39 G.3. c.79. s. 34.

16. Any persons grieved by any conviction or determination of any justice relating to any thing in 39 G.3. c.79., may appeal to the quarter sessions next after the expiration of 20 days from making thereof, first giving 6 days notice of appeal to the person prosecuting for such penalty; which appeal the sessions shall then determine or adjourn its hearing till the next sessions, and if they see cause may mitigate any penalty, and order any money paid or levied under any conviction to be returned; and may award payment of costs by either party to the other as they think reasonable, 51 G.3. c.65. s. 4.

17. Any pecuniary penalty imposed by this act, exceeding 20l., may be recovered by any person who will sue for the same, by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster, if incurred in Eng., Wa., or Ber., and in exchequer in Scot., if such penalty is incurred there, in which action it shall be sufficient to declare that defendant is indebted to plaintiff in 20*l.* (being the sum demanded by such action), being forfeited by "an act made and passed in the 59th year of the reign of H. M. king George the 3d, intituled, an act [state the title];" and plaintiff, if he recovers thereon, shall have full costs; and any pecuniary penalty imposed by this act, and not exceeding 20*l.*, for recovery of which no provision is above contained, may be recovered before any justice or justices for the county, &c. or place where the same are incurred, or where the defendant happens to be, in a summary way; and if not forthwith paid, such justice, &c. shall, by warrant directed to any constable or peace officer, cause it to be levied by distress and sale of offender's chattels, with all costs attending the same; and in case of no sufficient distress, shall commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not more than 6 nor less than 3 calendar months, 39 G. 3. c. 79. s. 35.

18. All pecuniary penalties imposed by this act shall, when recovered, either by action or in a summary way, go one moiety to the plaintiff or informer, and the other to H. M., id. s. 36.

19. Every action brought against any justice, constable, or other person, for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months after the fact committed, and laid in the proper county: defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial thereon; and if such action is brought after such 3 months, or venue laid in any other place than above, the jury shall find for defendant, in which case, or if they find for him on the merits, or if plaintiff discontinue after appearance, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 37.

20. Convictions for offences against this act, and adjudication of forfeitures of licences and notices, and certificates delivered in pursuance thereof, shall be in the forms in the schedule, id. s. 38.

PRISON AND PRISONER.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. IN WHAT PLACE AND MANNER THE GAOLS OF THIS REALM shall be edified and made, 23 H. 8. c. 2. [CON. 33 H. 8. c. 17., 37 H. 8. c. 23., 1 M. S. 2. c. 14., 5 El. c. 24., and 13 El. c. 25. s. 13. ALL EXP.]

2. FOR BETTER SECURING THE PAYMENTS OF CERTAIN SUMS OF money directed by 43 El. c. 2. s. 14. to be paid by the respective treasurers of every county in Eng. and Wa., for relief of the poor prisoners of K. B. and Marshalsea prisons, 11 G. 2. c. 20. [REP. 53 G. 3. c. 113. s. 1.]

3. FOR ORVIATING DOUBTS THAT MAY ARISE TOUCHING THE keeping of prisoners until the prison of the Marshalsea of K. B. is repaired, 26 G. 2. c. 34. s. 3. [EXP. see rest of title and statute, VAGRANT.]

4. TO PREVENT ANY INCONVENIENCE WHICH MAY ARISE TO sheriffs, gaolers, suitors, prisoners, or others, by the prisoners in several gaols in Middlesex, Surrey and London, having been set at liberty during the late tumults, 20 G. 3. c. 64. [EXT. to persons arrested and bailed since the destruction of the said gaols, and before they shall be repaired, or other prisons substituted for them, 21 G. 3. c. 1. BOTH EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NOTHING SHALL BE TAKEN BY THE SHERIFF OR OTHER for escape of a thief or felon, till it be judged an escape by the justices in eyre, and he that doth otherwise shall restore as much to him that paid it and as much to H. M., 5 E. 1. (St. West. 1.) c. 3.

2. NONE SHALL HAVE JUDGMENT OF LIFE OR MEMBER FOR breaking prison only, except the cause for which he was imprisoned did require such judgment if he had been convicted thereof, 1 E. 2. S. 2. Stat. de Frangentibus Prisonam, [and see now 16 G. 2. c. 31.]

3. THE MARSHAL'S FEE IN K. B. IN IRELAND, 17 E. 1. c. 5.

4. Persons committed by K. B. to prison, shall, on deliverance, pay 4*d.* and no more; and if any do contrary, and be attainted thereof at H. M.'s or party's suit, he shall make satisfaction, and be grievously punished, id. ibid.

5. AS TO SHERIFFS, GAOLERS, AND KEEPERS OF PRISONS, who have paid the prisoners and compel them to become appellors [informers, see 3 Inst. 91. and 4 Bla. Comm. 128.] against innocent persons, in order to have ransom of them for fear of imprisonment, the justices of both benches, and of assise and gaol delivery, shall enquire of such compulsions and procurements, and hear all complaints thereof by bill, and determine the same, as well at suit of the party as of H. M., 1 E. 3. S. 1. c. 7. [Semb. AMD. by 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 10. next pk.]

6. SHERIFFS SHALL HAVE THE CUSTODY OF THE GAOLS AS annexed to their bailiwicks, [see 19 H. 7. c. 10. infra, pl. 17. s. F.] and shall put in keepers for whom they will answer; and if such keeper or underkeeper shall, by too great duress of imprisonment and pain, make any prisoner to become an appellor [or informer, 3 Inst. 91. 4 Bla. Comm. 128.] against his will, and is thereof attainted, he shall have judgment of life and member, [as a felon with clergy, 3 Inst. 91.] to be enquired of by H. M.'s justices before whom such cases shall happen, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 10.

7. SHERIFFS AND GAOLERS SHALL RECEIVE THIEVES AND FELONS by delivery of constables and townships, without taking any thing for the receipt; and the justices assigned to deliver the gaols shall hear complaints in such case, and punish the sheriffs and gaolers, 4 E. 3. c. 10.

8. OF THE CUSTODY OF PRISONERS BY THE MARSHALS OF K. B., 5 E. 3. c. 8.

9. Persons indicted of felonies who have removed the indictment before H. M. and there yielded themselves, and all persons appealed of felony, who, after exigent awarded, have yielded themselves before H. M., shall be safely kept in prison, according to the charge which the marshals shall have of the justices; and if any marshal do otherwise, then, at complaint of every man, the justices shall do him right during the terms, and at the end of the terms, on their rising, the marshals shall choose before the justices, before they depart their courts, in what town they will keep such prisoners at their peril, and in the same town they shall hire them houses to keep such prisoners at their own cost, and there shall keep them in prison, without suffering them to go wandering abroad, neither by or without bail; and if any such prisoner be found wandering out of prison, and that be found at suit of H. M. or party, the marshals shall have half a year's imprisonment, and be ransomed at H. M.'s will, and the justices shall thereof make enquiry when necessary; and as to the marshals within the verge, that which is reasonable shall be done; and if they suffer by assent prisoners to escape, they shall be at law as before, and H. M. shall not by this statute lose the escape where he ought to have the same, id. ibid.

10. NO WARDEN OF THE FLEET SHALL HENCEFORTH SUFFER ANY prisoner there, being by judgment [or, on final process] to go out of prison by bail, nor by baston, [i. e. an officer,] without the assent of those at whose suit they were judged, unless by writ or other command of H. M., on pain to lose his office; and if he be attainted of suffering such prisoner to go at large, the plaintiffs shall recover against him by writ of debt, [in which no protection is allowed, 7 H. 4. c. 4.] 1 R. 2. c. 12. s. 1.

11. If any at the suit of a party adjudged to another prison for debt, trespass, or other quarrel, will confess himself by a feigned cause debtor to H. M., and is by that means judged to the prison of the Fleet, there to have greater liberty of prison than elsewhere, the recognizance shall be received; and if he be not debtor to H. M. of record, he shall be remanded to his former prison till satisfaction made to such party, when he shall be remanded to the Fleet to abide till he make satisfaction to H. M. of his said recognizance, id. s. 2.

12. H. M.'s castles and gaols shall be rejoined to the bodies of counties, 13 R. 2. S. 1. c. 15.

13. Justices of peace shall imprison none but in the common gaols, [saving to the lords their franchises, semb. EXP.] 5 H. 4. c. 10.

14. FOR PREVENTING PRISONERS IN EXECUTION FROM BEING enlarged without due satisfaction made to their creditors, 2 H. 5. S. 1. c. 2.

15. "Whereas men condemned to prison, there to remain till they have made satisfaction to plaintiffs at whose suit they were condemned, have had writs called certiorari corpus cum causa to have their bodies and cause of detention in chancery, at days therein specified," it is ordained that, if such writ is granted, and it is thereupon returned, that the prisoner who is so detained in prison is condemned by judgment against him, that presently he shall be remanded or remain in prison without bail or mainprize, against the will of plaintiffs, till satisfaction be made to them of the sums so adjudged, id. ibid.

16. AGAINST WILFUL AND NEGLIGENT ESCAPES, 19 H. 7. c. 10. s. 1. and s. 6., [ss. 2—4. semb. EXP., see s. 5.]

17. Sheriffs shall have the custody of H. M.'s common gaols in their counties, except gaols whereof any persons spiritual or temporal, or body corporate, have the keeping, of estate, of inheritance, or by succession; all future patents for life or years, of the keeping of such gaols, or constableness of any castle wherein such common gaol is, by H. M. being hereby declared void, id. s. 1.

18. No sheriff of Surrey or other sheriff shall have the custody of the gaols of K. B. or Marshalsea, id. s. 6. [then in custody of Sir Thomas Brandon and Sir John Digby, knights, id. ibid.]

19. FOR RATING AND LEVYING THE CHARGES FOR CONVEYING malefactors and offenders to gaol, 3 J. 1. c. 10. [CON. indefinitely, 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22., 16 C. 1. c. 4., AMD. 27 G. 2. c. 3., 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 78.]

20. All persons committed to the common gaol within any county or liberty, by any justice or justices of peace having ability thereunto, shall bear their own charges for conveying them to gaol, and the charges of those appointed to guard them thither; and if any such person refuse to defray them, such justice, &c. shall give warrant to the constables of the hundred or township to sell such of their goods as by discretion of the justice shall satisfy the charges, the appraisement to be made by 4 inhabitants of the parish where such goods shall be, 3 J. 1. c. 10. s. 1.

21. If any action is brought for taking any distress, or for any other act done by authority of this act, defendant may either plead not guilty, or make avowry, cognizance, or justification for taking the said distress, &c. alleging that such distress, &c. was done by authority of, and according to the effect of this act, without expressing any other matter in this act contained, to which avowry, &c. the plaintiff shall reply, that defendant did take the said distress, made the said sale, or did any other act or trespass supposed in his declaration, of his own wrong, without any such cause, &c., whereupon issue shall be joined; and after such issue tried for the defendant, or nonsuit of plaintiff after appearance, defendant shall recover treble damages, with costs, to be assessed by the same jury, or writ of enquiry of the damages, as the case is, 3 G. 1. c. 10. s. 3.

22. ALL STATUTES IN FORCE MADE FOR BUILDING HOUSES OF CORRECTION shall be put in due execution, 7 J. 1. c. 4. s. 1. [See rest of this section VAGRANT.]

23. FOR PREVENTION OF DELAYS IN SUITS OF LAW, [viz. by debtors remaining prisoners in the Fleet, where they may not be proceeded against, as if they were at large, s. 5. 13 C. 2. §. 2. c. 2. s. 5. See ss. 1—4., and part of title, ARREST, pl. 16. ss. 6—7. WRITS, ss. 8—11. EXECUTION, pl. 8—11.]

24. Every person having cause of personal action against any prisoner in the Fleet, may sue forth an original writ on his or their cause of action, and an habeas corpus, directed to the warden, shall be granted to the plaintiff desiring him to have the body of the prisoner before the justices of C. P. at some day certain in term, to answer the plaintiff therein; and if the plaintiff at that day put into court his declaration according to his writ against the prisoner, being present at the bar, such prisoner shall be bound to appear in person or by attorney; and unless he plead on a rule given, to be out at 8 days at least after such appearance, judgment by nil dicit may be entered against him as appearing in person; and such charge in court by declarations, signified by rule to the said warden, shall be good cause of detention of the prisoner in his custody, and he shall not be discharged by supersedeas or rule of court; and if the warden do otherwise, he shall be responsible to the court and the party grieved for damages by action, on the case brought against him for discharging such prisoner, id. s. 5. [but see pl. 52.]

25. FOR RELIEF OF poor prisoners, and for setting them to work, 19 C. 2. c. 4. [AMD. 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 12.]

26. The justices of peace in general sessions may provide a stock of materials for setting poor prisoners in gaols [committed to gaol for felony or other misdemeanors, see preamble to this section.] on work, [in like manner as other county charges are raised, semb. REP. 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 22. pl. 107., and see next pl.] and pay and provide fit persons to oversee and set such prisoners on work, and make, revoke, and alter the necessary orders for accounts concerning the premises; and for punishing neglects and abuses, and for bestowing the profit arising by the labour of the prisoners for their relief, which shall be duly observed, [but no parish shall be rated above 6d. a week towards the premises. REP. 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 22. pl. 100.] id. s. 1. [as to providing materials for work of prisoners in houses of correction, see 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 31. pl. 106.]

27. They shall have power to execute the above provisions as well in regard to the persons therein described, as in favour of all other prisoners in the common gaols, who are inclined to work; and may at the general or quarter sessions of the county or adjournment thereof, direct the payment of such sums out of the county rates as they shall, from time to time, think fit to be expended in executing the said provisions according to the extension thereof hereby made, 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 12.

28. Any sheriff or persons having custody of the gaol with consent of 3 justices, (one being of the quorum), may, on emergent occasions, [viz. in case of sickness or infectious diseases of the prisoners,] provide other safe places for removal of sick or other persons from the ordinary gaols, which places shall be used, and the prisoners conveyed to and from the places of gaol delivery, as by law they may to and from common gaols; but no such place shall be used for the above purposes against the will of the owners, 19 C. 2. c. 4. s. 2.

29. The mayor, bailiff, and other head officer or person having custody of the gaol within any corporation of Eng. or Wa. shall, with advice of 3 justices within the corporation, (one being of the quorum), in time of infection, have the like power for removing their prisoners to some other place within their jurisdiction, and also to raise a stock as in ss. 1. 11—13., id. s. 5. [ss. 4—5., relate to a house and grounds provided near Exeter, for the county of Devon, and to be used as a common gaol and work-house, as in those sections provided. Saving to H. M. his rights, id. s. 6.]

30. TO PREVENT EXTORTION FROM PRISONERS, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 20. ss. 10—13. [See s. 9. ARREST, pl. 11—13.]

31. Every under-sheriff, gaoler, and person to whose custody any person shall be committed, shall permit him to send for beer, ale, victuals, and other food, where he pleases, as also to have such bedding and other things as he shall think fit, without detaining or paying for the same; nor shall receive of him any other fees, [for their commitment or discharge abolished, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.] or for chamber-rent, than what is allowable by law; until the same be settled by 3 justices of peace, one being of the quorum, of each county, city, and town corporate; and for London, Middlesex, and Surrey, the two chief justices and chief baron, or any two of them, and the justices of the same, in their several jurisdictions, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 20. s. 10.

32. The chief justices, chief baron, and justices of peace, and all commissioners for charitable uses, shall use their best endeavours to find out gifts and bequests given for the benefit of poor prisoners for debt; and send for any deeds, wills, writings, and books of accounts, and any persons concerned therein, and examine them upon oath, to make true discovery thereof, and the same so found out, to order in some way, that the prisoners may not be defrauded, but receive the full benefit thereof, id. s. 11. [See infra, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 9. pl. 161. s. p.]

33. These accounts of gifts and bequests bestowed upon the prisoners for debt, and the rates of fees, and the future government of prisons, shall be signed and confirmed by the chief justices and chief baron, or any 2 of them, and the justices of peace in London, Middlesex, and Surrey, and by the judges for the several circuits, and justices of peace in their precincts, and registered by every clerk of the peace; and no other fees than shall be so established shall be demanded, id. s. 12.

34. No sheriff or gaoler shall lodge prisoners for debt and felons together in one room, but they shall be kept apart; on pain that they that shall offend against this act shall forfeit their office, and treble damages to the party grieved, id. s. 13.

35. FOR DELIVERING DECLARATIONS TO PRISONERS, 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 21. s. 1.

36. If any defendant be taken or charged in custody at suit of any person on any writ out of the respective courts of record at Westminster, and is detained in prison for want of sureties for his appearance thereto, the plaintiff, before the end of the next term after such process is returnable, may declare against such prisoner in the court out of which the writ shall issue, whereupon the prisoner is taken or charged in custody, and shall cause a true copy thereof to be delivered to such prisoner or to the gaoler, in whose custody he is, to which declaration he shall appear and plead, or on default plaintiff shall have judgment, as if he had appeared and refused to plead, id. s. 2. [See more particular regulations, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 13. infra, pl. 52.]

37. Declarations against prisoners detained by virtue of K. B. process, shall allege in custody of what sheriff, bailiff, or steward of any franchise or other person having return and execution of writs, such prisoner shall, at the time of such declaration be, by virtue of the process of such court at suit of the plaintiffs; which allegation shall be as good as if such prisoner were in the custody of the marshal, id. s. 3.

38. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL RELIEF OF CREDITORS IN CASES OF ESCAPES, and for preventing abuses in prisons and pretended privileged places, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. [AMD. as to s. 12., by 59 G. 3. c. 64. See s. 15. PRIVILEGED PLACES, pl. 2.]

39. TO FACILITATE PROCEEDINGS AGAINST THE WARDEN OF THE Fleet in vacation, 59 G. 3. c. 64. [Occasioned by the decisions in 6 Taunt. Rep., 547. 552. See 2 Brod. and Bing. Rep. 52.]

40. All prisoners, either upon contempt or mesne process, or in execution, who shall be committed to the custody of the marshal of K. B., or warden of the Fleet, shall be detained within the said prisons or the rules thereof, until discharged by due course of law; and if the marshal or warden, or any other keeper of any prison, suffers any prisoner to go at large out of the rules (except by habeas corpus, or rule of court, which rule shall not be granted, but by motion made, or petition read in court) every such being out of the rules shall be judged an escape, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 1.

41. Every person obtaining judgment in any action of escape against the marshal or warden, or their deputies, shall have not only the remedies already by law allowed, but the judges of the courts where such judgment shall be obtained (on oath made by the persons obtaining such judgment, that it was obtained without fraud or covin, and that the debt of the prisoner making such escape, was a real debt and unsatisfied) shall, on motion, sequester the profits of the office of marshal and warden, or so much thereof as they think fit, and apply the same towards satisfaction of the debt due from the prisoner who escaped, together with all costs and damages recovered, id. s. 2. [See s. 11. infra, pl. 49.]

42. If the marshal or warden, or their deputies, sue forth any writ of error in any action of escape, they shall put in special bail, id. s. 3.

43. Every marshal, warden, or keeper of any other prison, who shall take any reward or security to commit or permit any escape, and is convicted, shall forfeit 300*l.* and his office, and be for ever disabled from holding any such office, id. s. 4.

44. But this act shall not avoid securities given by any prisoners for their lodging without the prisons within the rules, so as they be not taken for the enlargement beyond the rules, id. s. 5.

45. No retaking on fresh pursuit shall be given in evidence on the trial of any issue in any action of escape against the marshal or warden, or other keeper of any prison, unless specially pleaded; nor shall any special plea be received, unless oath be made in writing by such marshal, &c. and filed, that the prisoner did, without his consent, privy, or knowledge, make such escape; and if such affidavit appears to be false, and the marshal, &c. be convicted thereof, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, 8 § 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 6.

46. If any prisoner committed in execution to any of the prisons, shall escape, the creditors, at whose suit such prisoner was charged in execution, may retake him by any new capias or ca. sa., or sue forth any other kind of execution, as if his body had never been in execution, id. s. 7.

47. If the marshal, &c. or keeper of any prison, shall, after one day's notice in writing, refuse to show any prisoner in execution, to the creditor at whose suit he was charged, or his attorney, such refusal shall be judged an escape, id. s. 8.

48. If any person desiring to charge any person with any action or execution, shall desire to be informed by the marshal or other keeper of any prison, whether such person be a prisoner in his custody or not, the said marshal, &c. shall give a note thereof to the person requesting, or his attorney, on demand at his office, or in default shall forfeit 50*l.*; and if he give a note that such person is an actual prisoner in his custody, the same shall be sufficient evidence that such person was then a prisoner, id. s. 9.

49. The profits and inheritances of the offices of marshal and warden shall be sequestered or extended, to make satisfaction for forfeitures, escapes, and misdemeanors, id. s. 11. [and see s. 2. pl. 41.]

50. Any person having cause of action against the warden of the Fleet, on bill filed in C. P. or exchequer, and a rule being given to plead, to be out 8 days at most after filing such bill, may sign judgment against the warden, unless he plead within 3 days after such rule is out, id. s. 12.

51. Any person having cause of action against such warden for escape of any person in his custody out of the same, may commence his action by filing his bill against him at any time in vacation, in the office of the prothonotaries of C. P., or with the clerk or deputy clerk of the pleas in the exchequer office of pleas, entitling his bill as of the preceding term, a copy of which bill so filed shall, within 24 hours after filing, (unless Sunday or a public holiday intervene, and in that case on the day next after such Sunday, &c.) be delivered to such warden or his deputy, or to the turnkey or porter of the prison; and such warden shall appear and plead within the first 4 days of the following term, or the plaintiff may sign judgment; and the proper officer, or his deputy, of the court in which such bill is filed, shall, at the time of filing the same, indorse thereon a memorandum of such time of filing, and such warden, turnkey, &c. shall, at receipt of the copy thereof, indorse thereon a memorandum of the time of such receipt, 59 G. 3. c. 64.

52. Any person having cause of action against any prisoner in the Fleet, may, after filing or entering a declaration, deliver a copy to such defendant in any personal action, or to the turnkey or porter of the Fleet, and after rule given to plead, to be out at 8 days at most after delivery of such copy of declaration, and affidavit made of such delivery, may sign judgment against such defendant, as if he had been charged at the bar of C. P. or exchequer, 8 § 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 13. [but see pl. 24.]

53. No prisoner shall pay any chamber rent for any chamber within any of the said prisons, for longer than he is in possession thereof, nor above 2*s.* 6*d.* per week for any chamber; and if the marshal or keeper of any other prison demand greater sum, he shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 14.

54. The penalties in this act, not particularly disposed of, shall go, one half to H. M., and the other half to him that will sue for the same, id. s. 16.

55. This act shall be a general law, and construed most beneficially for preventing the mischiefs provided against. And any person sued for putting in execution any power hereby given, may plead the general issue, and give in evidence this act and the special matter; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, or if verdict or judgment, on demurrer, be given for defendant, he shall have double costs, id. s. 17.

56. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF PEACE TO BUILD AND REPAIR GAOLS in their respective counties, 11 § 12 W. 3. c. 19. [CON. 10 A. c. 14. s. 2., which is MADE PERP. 6 G. 1. c. 19. s. 1., AND. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54., PUBLIC clause, id. s. 25. See as to houses of correction, pl. 102, 103, &c.]

57. The justices of peace, on presentment of the grand jury at the assize, great sessions, and gaol delivery, of the insufficiency or inconvenience of their gaol, may agree on such sums of money as on examination of workmen are thought necessary for building or repairing a gaol, and by warrant by equal proportion may charge the money on the several hundreds or other divisions of the county; and at the quarter sessions held for the respective divisions, may direct their warrants to high or petty constables, or other officers, for collecting the same, 11 § 12 W. 3. c. 19. s. 1.

58. If any person neglects to pay his assessment 4 days after demand, or convey away his goods or estate, whereby the money cannot be levied, the collectors may, by warrants from any one justice present at the said quarter sessions, levy the sum assessed by distress and sale of goods, and the distress keep 4 days; and if he do not pay the money, then the distress shall be appraised by 2 persons, and sold by the collector; and the justices may appoint a receiver of the money, giving security to account for all money received or disbursed in pursuance of such order of justices: and if the receiver, constable, or other officers shall, 4 days after demand, refuse to account for all money received by them, the justices may commit them to prison till they have made account or paid such money; and the discharge of the justices of peace at the assize, great sessions, and gaol delivery, to their receivers, shall be sufficient; and they are empowered to contract for the building or repairing of the gaols, 11 § 12 W. 3. c. 19. s. 2.

59. All murderers and felons shall be imprisoned in the common gaol only, and the sheriff shall have the keeping of the gaols, id. s. 3.

60. This act shall not prejudice any person having any common gaol by inheritance, for life, or years, id. s. 4.

61. This act shall not charge any person inhabiting in any liberty, city, or borough corporate, which have common gaols for felons, and commissions of assize, or gaol delivery of such felons, for any assessment to making the gaol of the county, id. s. 5.

62. If any action be commenced against any person for what he shall do in pursuance of this act, he may plead the general issue not guilty, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff become nonsuit, discontinue, or has a verdict against him, the defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 6.

63. Where any prisons belonging to any county of this realm, or Wa., are situate on lands belonging to H. M., the said lands shall not be alienated from the crown, but remain for the public benefit of the county, id. s. 7.

64. No officer shall enter into the mansion-house of a peer or peeress to distrain for the duties aforesaid, id. s. 8.

65. The justices for every county, riding, division, city, town, or liberty within Eng. and Wa., at their general quarter sessions, those there assembled, not being less than 7, or a majority of them, on presentment made by the grand jury, at the assizes, great sessions, or general gaol delivery, held for every such county, &c. of the insufficiency, inconvenience, or want of repair, of any gaol belonging to such county, &c. may contract with any person for the building, rebuilding, finishing, repairing, or enlarging such gaol, and the yards, courts, and outlets thereof, and adding such other buildings, and making such conveniences as shall be adjudged requisite by the justices, at a certain sum; or for erecting any new gaol, upon any site or ground within any distance not exceeding 2 miles from the site of the old gaol, and in that case for selling the old gaol and the site thereof, and land thereto belonging, or any part thereof, and also the materials of the old gaol, for the best price; such contractors giving security for the performance of their contracts, to the clerks of the peace for such county, &c. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 1.

66. The said justices, after such presentment made, shall, at the next general quarter sessions, give notice, 3 times at least, in some public paper circulating in such county, &c. of such presentment made, and of their intention to take it into consideration at the next, or some following general quarter sessions; and after such consideration had, shall give notice in such public paper of their intention of contracting with any person for building, rebuilding, finishing, repairing, or enlarging such gaol, and of every other matter intended to be done in consequence of such presentment; which contract shall be made at the most reasonable rates, and with the most responsible persons; and every contractor shall give security for the performance of his contract to the clerk of the peace; and all contracts when made, and all orders relating thereto, shall be entered in a book to be kept by such clerk, among the records of such county, &c. to be inspected at all seasonable times, by any of the justices or other persons contributing to the rates of such county, &c. without fee, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 2.

67. The justices may build any new gaol, in any part of the county, &c. in case, (in the presentment made of the inconvenience of such old gaol) it is expressly presented, that the place wherein the old gaol is situate is improper, and that it ought to be removed to some other part of the county, &c.; and in case 3-4ths in number of the justices, at 2 successive quarter-sessions (notice having been given 3 times in some public newspaper, of the time of the holding, and of the place to which such gaol is to be removed), shall approve of such removal, but not otherwise, id. s. 5.

68. The justices, as well in the choice of the ground, as in determining on the plans for building, rebuilding, enlarging, or altering such gaols, and the yards thereof, shall, as far as may be, pursue such measures and plans as shall provide separate places of confinement, and dry and airy cells, in which the prisoners may be confined, as well by day as by night: prisoners convicted of felony; those committed on charge or suspicion of felony; those committed for, or adjudged guilty of, misdemeanors only; and debtors, the males of each class to be separated from the females; and a separate place of confinement to be provided for such prisoners as are intended to be examined as witnesses on behalf of any prosecution of any indictment for felony; and separate infirmaries or sick wards, for the men and the women; and a chapel, and convenient warm and cold baths, or bathing tubs, for the use of the prisoners, as directed by 14 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. pl. 180., [and see 31 G. 3. c. 46.]

s. 11. post, pl. 198.] and care shall be taken that the prisoners shall not be kept in any apartments under ground, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 4.

69. The justices (after presentment made) shall have full power to purchase any houses, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, ways, waters, and water-courses, for building, enlarging, and accommodating such gaols; and to direct the houses, &c. so purchased, to be conveyed to what person they think fit, in trust for the purposes aforesaid; and such houses, &c. when inclosed and added thereto, shall be deemed part of such gaols, and county, &c. where such gaol is situated, id. s. 5.

70. Whenever the justices, in their said general quarter-sessions, shall deem it necessary, that the felons, debtors, and other prisoners, shall be removed, either for repairing their old gaol, or using the materials thereof in building a new gaol, on giving notice to the sheriff of such county, he may remove such felons, debtors, and other prisoners, to the house of correction belonging to such county, &c., or such other place or places of confinement as the said justices, with the consent of the sheriff, shall approve of, and confine them there during the time such new gaol shall be building, or old gaol repairing or enlarging; and when such gaol shall be made fit for the reception of such prisoners, then he may remove thither all such prisoners then in his custody; the expence of which removal, and on account of the safe custody of such prisoners, shall be paid by such county, &c.; and such removal shall not be deemed an escape: provided nothing herein shall discharge the sheriff or gaoler from being answerable for the actual escape of any prisoner, id. s. 6.

71. The justices in their general quarter-sessions, shall nominate one or more justices, to visit and superintend the gaols, and from time to time report the state thereof to the general quarter-sessions, which, on such report, may order any sum, not exceeding 200*l.* in one year, to be laid out on the repair of such gaols, as they shall deem requisite (notwithstanding such want of repair be not presented by the grand jury as aforesaid); and if it happen that the said gaols, by any breach made in the same, from attempts of prisoners to escape, or other casualties, shall be rendered unsafe for the custody of prisoners, between the holding the general quarter-sessions, one justice may order the damages to be immediately repaired as far as is necessary for their safe custody; and shall report the same to the next general quarter-sessions, which shall order the payment of the money expended in such reparation, id. s. 7.

72. Where such gaols are repaired at the expence of the county, &c. to which they belong, the justices, at their general quarter-sessions, may cause such money to be raised as directed by 12 G. 2. c. 29., and 15 G. 2. c. 18. s. 7., [see COUNTY RATE.] id. s. 8.

73. When it appears that the amount of any estimate, approved by the justices, for building, rebuilding, enlarging, or removing and fitting up any gaol, under this act, exceeds one half of the ordinary annual assessment for the county rate, taken in a proportion thereof for the last 5 years, then the quarter-sessions may borrow on mortgage of the rates, by instruments in the form contained in the schedule, or to that effect, sums not less than 50*l.* nor exceeding 100*l.* each, at legal or lower interest, as to the major part (being not less than 5) shall appear necessary; and may secure the same on the credit of the county rates; and shall treat with any person for the loan of any money, and by order confirm such agreement; which agreement established by such order, and signed by the chairman, and 2 justices present at the making of it, shall be effectual for securing to the person advancing any money, all such money, with interest for the same, on the terms in such agreement stipulated; and copies of all such agreements or securities shall be kept with the clerk of the peace, or other officer having custody of the records of the quarter-sessions; and every person to whom such security is made, or who shall be entitled to the money thereby secured, may (by indorsing his name on the back of such security) transfer the same to any person, and such assignee may transfer the same again, and so toties quoties; and the persons to whom such securities or such assignment thereof shall be made, shall be creditors on the rates in an equal degree, without any priority, id. s. 9.

FORM of mortgage and charge on the county rates for securing the money borrowed. (See s. 9.)

“ We, A. B. one of H. M.’s justices of the peace and chairman of the court of quarter sessions of the peace for the county, &c. of — [as the case shall be], holden at — the — day of — C. D. and E. F. esquires, 2 other of H. M.’s justices of the peace acting for the said county, &c. and assembled in the said court in pursuance of the powers to us given by an act passed in the 24th year of the reign of H. M. K. G. the 3d, intituled “ An act to explain and amend an act made in the 11th and 12th years of the reign of K. H. the 3d, intituled ‘ An act to enable justices of peace to build and repair gaols in their respective counties,’ and for other purposes therein mentioned;” do hereby, in open court, mortgage and charge all the rates to be raised within the said county, &c. [as the case is] under the description of county rates, by the laws now in being, with the payment of the sum of — which G. H. of — hath proposed and agreed to lend, and hath now actually advanced and paid towards defraying the expences of building, repairing, &c. [as the case shall be] the gaol for the said county, &c.; and we do hereby confirm and establish the same unto the said G. H. his executors, administrators, and assigns, for securing the repayment of the said sum of — and interest for the same, after the rate of — per cent. per ann., and do order the treasurer for such county, &c. or other person [as the case shall be], to pay the interest of the said sum of — l. half-yearly, as the same shall become due, until the principal shall be discharged, pursuant to the directions of the said act.”

74. The said justices shall not only charge the rates to be raised on such county, with the interest of the money so borrowed, but also with payment of a further sum, equal at least to the interest of such securities; which sums shall be assessed on such county, &c. in manner as county rates are assessed and paid, under direction of the said justices, in discharge of the interest, and of so many of the principal sums on the said securities as such money will extend to discharge in each year, till the principal and the interest thereof is fully paid; and the said justices shall fix one or more days in each year, on which such payment shall be made, and shall make orders for assessments, to provide for the regular payment thereof; and shall appoint a proper person to keep an account of all the receipts and payments under this act, in a book separate from all other accounts, and adjust the same so as to show what interest is growing due, what principal money discharged, and what remains due; and such books, so settled, shall deliver into court at every general or quarter-sessions; and the said justices, at such sessions, shall carefully inspect all such accounts, and make orders for carrying this act into execution; and if at any time it appears to them that the person appointed has neglected the order, and has not duly applied the money in hand, he shall forfeit double the money not applied; and they shall direct in what order such securities shall be discharged, by drawing lots, or otherwise, first discharging all securities which bear the highest interest, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 10.

75. The justices in quarter-sessions shall make provision, by means of the rates and by their orders, in such manner, that the whole money borrowed under this act shall be fully paid within a time to be limited, not exceeding 14 years from the time of borrowing the same, id. s. 11.

76. All bodies politic and corporate, and all guardians, committees, husbands, trustees, and attornies, of any person being infants, lunatics, idiots, under coverture, or other disability, and all other persons may contract for, and sell, convey, and assure houses, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, easements, and privileges, unto persons named by the justices, in trust, and for the purpose of erecting new gaols, &c.; all which contracts, &c. shall be valid, id. s. 12.

77. All money agreed to be paid to any corporation, &c. as in s. 12. whose houses, &c. as in s. 12. shall be limited as in strict settlement, for the purchase of such lands, &c. shall, if it exceed 100*l.* be laid out by such corporations, &c. as soon as may be, in the purchase of lands, &c. in fee simple, to be conveyed to or to the use of such corporations, &c. for such estate, and on such uses, &c. as the houses, &c. in respect whereof such purchase-money shall be paid as aforesaid, are limited, &c.; the charges of such conveyances and settlements to be paid like other gaol expences, and till such purchase made, such money, whether it exceed 100*l.* or not, shall be laid out by such corporations, &c. in some government securities, in the names of two persons, one to be nominated by the party interested therein, and the other by the justices; and the interest arising therefrom shall be paid to the person who would have been entitled to the rents and profits of such lands, &c. if the same had not been sold, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 13.

78. If such corporations, &c., as in s. 12. pl. 82., or persons interested in such houses, &c., as in s. 12., deemed necessary for the purposes of this act, on notice in writing to them given, or left at the houses of abode of such persons, or of the principal officer of such corporation, shall, for 21 days after such notice, neglect, or refuse to treat, or to accept the price, offered by the justices or their agent, or shall otherwise not agree for the sale of such houses, &c., or if by absence or incapacity they are prevented from treating for such sale, then the justices at general or quarter sessions, or two of them appointed for that purpose, shall cause the value of such houses, &c. to be ascertained by a jury of indifferent men of the county, &c., and to that end shall summon before them, and examine on oath, administered by one of them, any persons soever; and shall, by ordering a view or otherwise, use all ways for their own and the jury’s information in the premises; and when such jury has ascertained the value of such houses, &c., shall thereupon order that the value of such houses, &c. shall be paid as before directed, touching the money to be paid for such houses, &c., whereof the person interested shall contract in manner aforesaid; which verdict and order shall be filed of record by the clerk of the peace or officer having custody of the records, and shall be conclusive against all parties soever, id. s. 14.

79. Such justices, or 2 of them, may issue warrants to the sheriff or bailiff of any county, or precinct, within which the houses, &c. are situate, requiring him to return a jury of 24 persons, qualified to serve on juries, to appear before them at a certain time, and such sheriff, &c. shall impaunel, summon, and return such persons, and out of those returned, or out of such as appear on such summons, the justices, or 2 of them, shall draw by ballot, and swear, or cause to be sworn, 12 men, who shall be the jury for the purposes aforesaid; and in default of a sufficient number returned, a tales to make up 12; and all persons concerned shall have lawful challenges against any of the jurymen when they come to be sworn: and the justices, or 2 of them, may fine such sheriff, bailiff, or his deputy, defaulting in the premises, and any of the persons summoned and returned on such jury, who shall not appear, or appearing, shall refuse to be sworn on the jury, or being sworn, refuse to give, or shall not give a verdict, or in any other manner wilfully neglect his duty, and also on any person who, being summoned to give evidence before the jury, shall not appear, or appearing, shall refuse to be sworn or give evidence, so that no such fine be more than 10*l.* nor less than 20*s.* on one person, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 15.

80. In case any jury shall give in a verdict for more money, as the value of such houses, &c. than has been offered for the purchase thereof by the justices, or their agent, the costs of summoning and maintaining the jury and witnesses shall be paid out of the same fund as the expences of the buildings; but if for no more, or for less money, than that offered, then the above costs shall be paid by the person with whom such controversy shall arise, id. s. 16.

81. Upon payment of the money ordered to be paid for the purchase of such houses, &c., or (on refusal or inability to receive the same) leaving the same in the hands of such person as the justices in quarter sessions shall appoint, for the use of the party entitled thereto; or in case of the said party not being to be found, then, on notice to be published in some paper circulating in the said county, &c. where such gaol is to be built or enlarged, of the payment of such purchase-money, the houses, &c., as in s. 12. pl. 76., so purchased, shall vest in the person authorised to take the same by this act; and the justices, or two of them, their workmen, or agents, may take possession of such houses, &c.; and thereupon all prior owners or occupiers thereof shall be divested of all right thereto, id. s. 17.

82. "As in several counties in Eng. there are several commissions of justices for several ridings into which they are divided, and several courts of sessions are holden for each riding, and in such counties there are not any courts of general or quarter sessions;" therefore in such counties, the justices for such ridings, at the next general quarter sessions, after such presentment of the gaol, may appoint 3 justices for the riding for which such general quarter sessions shall be holden, which justices, so appointed by each of such ridings, shall, within one month after such appointment (due notice thereof having been previously given to them by the clerk of the peace) meet at the gaol so presented; and such justices, or the majority of them there assembled, (not being less than 5,) shall hold a special sessions at the gaol, for receiving plans, and contracting for building, rebuilding, repairing, enlarging, or altering the same, and the yards, &c. thereto belonging, subject to the regulations before provided for counties not so divided; and shall make their report to the general quarter sessions of such ridings, of the several plans, estimates, and contracts made and entered into as aforesaid, and also a report of the money necessary to be raised on each riding, as their quota of the expence to be incurred on the accounts aforesaid; which money shall be raised on each riding as county rates are now raised, id. s. 18.

83. No justice who shall, under this act, do any matter in execution thereof, shall be capable of having any beneficial interest or concern, either in his own name, or in that of any other in trust for him, in any contract made under this act, or shall, for any design or plan he may deliver or produce, receive any benefit whatsoever, id. s. 19.

84. "As preventing gaolers from selling liquors or deriving any profit from the sale of liquors, may prevent drunkenness in gaols, &c., and it may be proper to give authority to the justices in sessions, to allow salaries to gaolers in lieu of the profits now derived from the sale of liquors," therefore the justices within Eng. or Wa., at the general quarter sessions, may appoint salaries or allowances to gaolers and their assistants, in lieu of the profits derived from the sale of liquors, and vary the same as to them seems meet; and may order the same to be paid out of the county rate, by the treasurer of such county, on certificate, signed by the chairman of such quarter sessions, specifying the salaries directed to be paid, id. s. 20.

85. No chairman of any quarter sessions shall sign such certificate, unless such salaries have been settled at some general quarter sessions, or adjournment thereof, and notice given 14 days at least before such general quarter sessions, or adjournment, by two advertisements inserted in some county newspaper, of an intended application for granting them; such advertisements being signed by the clerk of the peace, or his deputy, id. s. 21.

85. No gaoler, or person employed by such gaoler, shall suffer tippling or gaming in such prison, or shall sell, or permit to be sold, or be capable of being licensed to sell, any wine, beer, ale, or other liquors; or have any beneficial interest or concern in the sale of any liquors of any kind, or in any tap-house, tap-room, or tap, under the penalty of 10*l.* for every offence, to be recovered by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hands and seals of 2 justices, (which they shall grant,) on the party's confession, or on information of any witness on oath; and the said penalty, after charges of recovery deducted, shall be paid, one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the prisoners confined in such gaol; and in case sufficient distress cannot be found, such justices may commit the offenders to the house of correction, for not exceeding 3 months, unless such penalty and charges are sooner paid, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 22.

86. All justices before whom any person shall be convicted of any offence against this act, shall cause the conviction to be drawn up in the following form, id. s. 23.

'County, } Be it remembered, that on the — day of — in the — year of the &c. of — } reign of H. M. — A. B. is convicted before — of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the said county, or riding, division, city, town, liberty, or precinct [as the case shall be], by virtue of an act of parliament made in the 24th year of the reign of H. M. K. G. the 3d, intituled [here set forth the title of the act, specify the offence, and when and where committed] Given under our hands and seals, the day and year aforesaid.'

87. Actions for any thing done in pursuance hereof shall be brought within 6 months, and laid in the county where the cause shall arise, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and if the plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues after appearance, or if he has a verdict or judgment against him on demurrer or otherwise, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 24.

88. FOR BETTER PREVENTING ESCAPES OUT OF THE K. B. and Fleet prisons, 1 A. S. 2. c. 6. [ENF. 5 A. c. 9. GENERAL law, and PUBLIC act, s. 5.]

89. If any person committed to the custody of the marshal of K. B., or to the prison of the Fleet, either in execution, or on mesne process, or on any contempt in not performing any order or decree, by any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, shall, before making payment or satisfaction to the plaintiff or creditors, or having cleared himself of such contempts, escape from the custody of the marshal, or from the prison of the Fleet, or go at large; then on oath made before any judge of that court where such action was entered, or where the party was committed, such judge may grant to any person warrants, (such warrants being in force in all places in Eng., Wa., and Ber.) reciting the actions, executions, or contempts, with which such person escaping stood charged, at the suit of any person on whose behalf such warrants shall be demanded, directed to all sheriffs, mayors, bailiffs, constables, headboroughs, and tithingmen, commanding them in their respective counties and precincts, to seize and retake such person escaped, and him to convey to the common gaol of county where retaken, there to remain till the judgments on which such executions were sued shall be reversed, or till judgment in such actions be given for such person, or till the contempts for which such persons were committed are cleared; except he be charged with treason, felony, or other matter on behalf of H. M.: and if he, for any such cause, is removed to any other gaol, he shall be in custody there, charged with all the causes with which he shall be charged in the gaol from whence he is removed. And every mayor or other officer, after delivery of such prisoner, together with such warrant to the sheriff, shall take a note from such sheriff, testifying the receipt of such prisoner; and the sheriff, after the execution of such warrant, shall make a return thereof to the court where the action shall be depending, or judgment or decree obtained, which shall be filed, 1 A. S. 2. c. 6. s. 1.

90. If any person so retaken shall escape out of the gaol to which he shall be so conveyed, the sheriff shall be liable, as in case of any other escape, id. s. 2.

91. Any persons being bail in the courts at Westminster, for any person retaken by such warrant, may prosecute out of such courts where they shall be bail, a writ to the sheriff where such prisoner is committed, commanding such sheriff to detain him in custody in discharge of his bail; which writ, with an account whether he hath the prisoner in his custody, shall be returned at a day therein mentioned. And the delivery of such writ to the sheriff shall be a render of such prisoner in discharge of the bail. And in case such sheriff, or his officer, suffer the person to escape, he shall be liable to such action as the marshal of K. B. or warden of the Fleet are, id. s. 3.

92. All sheriffs, on request of such bail, who shall deliver such writ for detaining such prisoner, and for the usual fees of return, shall return the receipt of such writ, and the time, and whether the person was in custody, and in default thereof, shall forfeit 50*l.*; and on producing such return, such court shall cause a reddidit se to be entered upon the bail-piece, id. s. 4.

93. This act shall be a general law, and shall be construed most beneficially for preventing the mischiefs provided against; and any person sued for putting in execution any power given by this act, may plead the general issue, giving in evidence the special matter; and if the plaintiff be nonsuit, or discontinue, or if verdict or judgment be given on demurrer for defendant, he shall have treble costs, id. s. 5.

94. All persons taken by virtue of 1 A. S. 2. c. 6. shall, instead of being committed to the common gaol of the county, be committed to the prison where the sheriff keeps the debtors, to remain in custody of the sheriff, subject to the same rules as if they had been committed to the common gaol of the county; and if any person so committed shall escape, the sheriff shall be answerable as in case of any other escape, 5 & 6 A. c. 9. s. 1.

95. The judges may grant like warrants on oath, in writing, made before any commissioner for taking affidavits in the country (the oath being filed), as on like oath made before himself, id. s. 2.

96. It shall be lawful to take upon the Lord's day any person by virtue of any warrant granted in pursuance of this or the former act, id. s. 3.

97. If any person is in custody of any sheriff or other officer for not performing any decree in chancery, or exchequer, whereby money is decreed to be paid, and escapes, the person to whom the money was to be paid shall have the same remedy against the sheriff as if such person had been in custody on execution, and shall recover the money decreed, against such sheriff, or other officer, with costs, in any action of debt or on the case in the courts at Westminster, with but one imparlance allowed, id. s. 4.

98. THERE SHALL BE BUT ONE RATE MADE BY THE JUSTICES OF MIDDLESEX on the county, city, and liberty of Westminster, for the purposes in ss. 1—14. [COUNTY RATE, pl. 1.] and for repair of the New Prison in Middlesex, 12 G. 2. c. 29. s. 15.

99. The justices for Westminster, in general or quarter sessions, may appoint the master of the house of correction within such city, who shall have the sum yearly accustomed for support of the prisoners in his custody who are sick or unable to work (not exceeding the present allowance of 50*l.* per ann.), and shall direct the repairs and management thereof, as heretofore done; and the treasurers of such rates in Middlesex and Westminster shall obey all orders made by the justices of such city, &c. at their sessions, for payment of any money for the allowance allotted to such master, and the repairs of such house of correction, which orders shall be sufficient discharges to such treasurers, id. s. 16.

100. So much of 14 El. c. 5. as relates to the method of taxing parishes for relief of prisoners, and so much of 43 El. c. 2. as relates to the method of raising money for the K. B. and Marshalsea prisons, hospital, and alms houses, and so much of 19 C. 2. c. 4. as relates to the method of rating parishes for providing materials for setting poor prisoners on work, shall be REPEALED, id. s. 22.

101. Materials for setting poor prisoners on work shall be paid out of the monies arising by this act, [viz. ss. 1—14. 17—21. COUNTY RATE, pl. 1., &c.], id. s. 23. [REP. 53 G. 3. c. 113. s. 1. infra, 220.]

102. FOR REPAIRING, ENLARGING, ERECTING, AND PROVIDING HOUSES OF CORRECTION, 14 G. 2. c. 33. s. 2. [See s. 1. tit. BRIDGES, pl. 29., and s. 3. tit. VAGRANT. AMD. 17 G. 2. c. 5. ss. 30, 31., and s. 33. in part. See as to gaols, pl. 56.]

103. FOR AMENDING and rendering more effectual the laws in being relative to houses of correction, 22 G. 3. c. 64. [AMD. 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 55.; (and see 31 G. 3. c. 46. infra, pl. 187, &c., 7 J. 1. c. 4., VAGRANT), and 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 30. are REPEALED and CONFIRMED in 24 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1., which as well as s. 2. are now EXPIRED.]

104. The justices for any county, city, or division, at their general or quarter sessions, or a majority of them, where there are no assizes, great session, or general gaol delivery held upon presentment of the grand jury to them in such sessions, may repair or enlarge any house of correction already built, or purchase others, or land to erect the same upon, and make a convenient outlet or back side thereto, as if such presentment had been made at the assizes, &c., as by 13 G. 2. c. 24. [REP. 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 34.] directed, 14 G. 2. c. 33. s. 2.

105. Upon presentment of the grand jury, at the assizes, great session, or general gaol delivery, held for any county or liberty, that there is no house of correction, and that it will be necessary to provide one or more such houses in any such county, or in any division therein, or that the houses of correction already provided therein, are not sufficient, or convenient, or want to be enlarged, the justices of any county or division, assembled in general quarter sessions, may build or enlarge one or more fit houses of correction, or buy or hire houses for that purpose, with a convenient back side or outlet adjoining, or may purchase land and erect the same on part thereof, laying out the rest for such outlet, according to the true intent of the presentment; and such sessions may agree on raising such sums of money, as on examination of able workmen is necessary for these purposes; and if necessary any house or land shall be purchased and conveyed to such person as the sessions shall think fit, in trust for the above purposes, 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 30.

106. Such sessions shall take care that the houses of correction within their limits, except those erected by a particular founder, shall be duly fitted up, and supplied with sufficient implements, materials, and furniture, for keeping, relieving, setting to work, and correcting all idle and disorderly persons, rogues, vagabonds, and incorrigible rogues, and others who shall be sent there; and two justices within their respective hundreds where any such house shall be, or any two justices appointed by the general or quarter sessions, shall visit the same twice or oftener in each year, and examine into the management thereof, and report the same to such sessions, that if any thing is done amiss, the same may by order of sessions be amended; which sessions shall have like authority over houses built under as before this act; and if the governor or master thereof shall not set or keep such idle and disorderly persons, &c. to hard labour, and correct them according to the warrants of committal, or shall otherwise misbehave themselves, or neglect their duty, the sessions may fine them, as they may fine such governors, &c., under 7 J. 1. c. 4. [VAGRANT], which fines shall be paid to the county, &c. treasurer, and be part of the county stock; and the sessions may appoint and remove such governors, &c., and make orders, if necessary, for the better governing of such houses, and for employing and relieving the persons therein, or for sending them from thence according to this act, which orders shall not be removed by certiorari; and in case any person removed by order of sessions neglects to leave such house of correction within 10 days, after notice in writing given by the clerk of the peace, two justices for the same county, (on producing such order or an attested copy thereof, and on oath of one witness of such notice having been given, and of the neglect to quit possession,) may by warrant direct the sheriff to remove him out of such house, as in the case of a writ of hab. fac. poss., 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 31.

107. The above expences hereby required, as relating to houses of correction, shall be paid by a county rate, made according to 12 G. 2. c. 29., [COUNTY RATE, pl. 1.] id. s. 33. [See the rest of this section, tit. VAGRANT.]

108. As soon as houses of correction are made, or altered and completed according to s. 1. and 2. of this act [now EXPIRED], the justices at their quarter sessions, shall order them to be fitted up in manner as to them seems fit; and shall also provide mills, looms, utensils, and implements proper for employing the persons committed to them for hard labour: and shall, at every quarter sessions, call upon the keeper to produce a list of the persons then in custody, with a description of the offences, and the time for which each person was committed, distinguishing particularly those directed by the warrant to be kept to hard labour, and also the age and sex of every such person, and in what trade, manufacture, or business he hath been employed, and what he is most accustomed to, and best qualified for, and how each person has behaved during his confinement, according to the best of his information; which list he shall make out, and deliver to the chairman of such quarter sessions, as soon as such court is assembled; which court shall, before the end of that session, give such directions for the future employment of the prisoners as to them seems meet; and shall, from time to time, order a sufficient quantity of materials for manufactures to be provided for the use of the persons committed to such houses of correction for hard labour, of what kinds they think proper; and shall appoint some fit person to be the keeper of such house of correction, as well as a temporary assistant to instruct such prisoners in any business which they think proper to set on foot there, 22 G. 3. c. 64. s. 3.

109. The rules in the schedule shall be observed at every house of correction, subject to the additions made by the justices at their quarter sessions, held next after Midsummer or Michaelmas, and which they shall make at discretion; provided such addition be not contradictory to the rules established by this act: and, for the having them more generally known and attended to, the governors of every house of correction shall cause them to be printed in legible characters, and fixed up in some conspicuous part of every prison, id. s. 4.

110. The justices at their quarter sessions, may cause the sums necessary for erecting or repairing houses of correction, and the support of prisoners there, to be raised in the same manner as the county rates, id. s. 5.

111. The want of houses of correction, or their insufficiency, may be presented at the quarter sessions by a justice, on his own view or knowledge, as well as by the grand jury, pursuant to 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 30. pl. 162., which presentment by the justice shall be proceeded on in the same manner as if made by the grand jury, id. s. 6.

112. The governor of every house of correction may employ all prisoners therein, and kept at the expence of the county, in some work which is not severe, although he was not by the warrant of commitment, ordered to be kept to labour; and shall enter a separate account of the work done by every such person, and shall account with and pay to him one-half of the nett profits by him earned at the time of his discharge, and not before, id. s. 7.

113. No governor of any house of correction, or his assistant, shall sell, or be licensed to sell, or have any benefit soever, directly or indirectly, from the sale of any wine, ale, beer, spirituous or other liquors, or other article used in such house of correction, or by any person confined therein during such employment; and every offender therein shall, on complaint upon oath, and conviction for the offence before a magistrate, forfeit 10*l.* and be dismissed from his employment, by order of the justices at the next quarter sessions, on proof on oath before them of such offence; and no wine, ale, spirituous or other liquors, shall be brought into the house of correction to be drank there, unless for a medical purpose, by a written direction, under the hand of the apothecary or surgeon usually attending there, and the directions of 17 G. 2. c. 5. for the inspection and control by the justices over the governor, shall be enforced, and such governor shall be punished for neglect of duty or misbehaviour, according to that act, 22 G. 3. c. 64. s. 8.

114. The justices in quarter sessions, shall fix a salary for the governor, and moreover allow him some proportion of the profits earned by the prisoners, id. s. 9.

115. No woman shall be appointed keeper of any house of correction, id. s. 10. and see 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 16., infra, pl. 201.

116. The governor shall have power to put handcuffs or fetters on any prisoner who shall behave in a refractory manner, or shew a disposition to break out of prison; but shall give notice thereof to one of the visiting justices, within 48 hours after, and shall not continue such fettering longer than 6 days, without an order in writing from one of the visiting justices, 22 G. 3. c. 64. s. 11. [see s. 12. pl. 167.]

117. Penalties shall, in default of payment, after due summons and demand made, be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice, rendering the overplus, after charges of distress deducted; and in case sufficient distress is not found, then such justice may commit the offender to the common gaol or house of correction for not exceeding 6 months, nor less than one; such penalty being paid to the treasurer of the county, in aid of the common stock, out of which the expences of execution of this act are to be paid, id. s. 13.

118. [Rules to be observed and enforced at every house of correction established under authority of 7 J. 1. c. 4., 17 G. 2. c. 5., 22 G. 3. c. 64.]

1. The several persons committed to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour, shall be employed (unless prevented by ill health) every day during their confinement (except Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday) for so many hours as the day-light in the different seasons of the year will admit, not exceeding twelve hours, being allowed thereout to rest half an hour at breakfast, an hour at dinner, and half an hour at supper, the intervals noticed by ringing of a bell.

2. The governor of each house of correction shall adapt the various employments directed by the justices at quarter sessions to each person in manner best suited to his or her strength and ability, regard being had to age and sex.

3. The males and females shall be employed, and shall also eat and be lodged in separate apartments, and shall have no intercourse or communication with each other.

4. Every person so committed shall be sustained with bread, and any coarse but wholesome food, and water; but persons under care of the physician, surgeon, or apothecary shall be sustained with such food and liquor as he shall direct.

5. The governor, and such other persons (if any) as are employed by the justices to assist, shall be very watchful in seeing that the persons so committed are constantly employed during the hours of work, and if any one is found remiss or negligent in performing what is required to be done by him, to the best of his ability, or shall wilfully waste, spoil, or damage the goods committed to his care, the governor shall punish every such person in the manner hereinafter directed.

6. If any person so committed refuses to obey the orders given by the governor, or is guilty of profane cursing or swearing, or of any indecent behaviour or expression, or of any assault, quarrel, or abusive words to or with any other person, he or she shall be punished for the same in the manner hereafter directed.

7. The governor shall have power to punish the several offenders for the offences hereinbefore described, by closer confinement, and shall enter in a book to be kept by him, for inspection of the justices at quarter sessions, and the visiting justice or justices, the name of every person who shall be so punished by him, expressing the offence, and the duration of the punishment inflicted.]

119. The justices who have omitted to examine into the state of the houses of correction within their jurisdictions as by 22 G. 3. c. 64. ss. 1, 2. now Exp. may examine the same, and fully execute that act at any quarter session holden after its passing, as fully as if they had proceeded therein at the time mentioned in that act, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 55. s. 1.

120. Where the amount of any estimate approved by the justices for building, rebuilding, enlarging, and removing and fitting up any house of correction under this act, exceeds one-half of the ordinary annual assessment for the county rate, taken on a proportion of the last 5 years, the quarter sessions may borrow, on mortgage of the rates, by instruments, as in the schedule, id. s. 2. [24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 9., as to borrowing money for building gaols, supra, pl. 73., except the words in brackets at the end, is re-enacted in s. 2.; and 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. ss. 10, 11. pl. 74, 75. as to accounting for interest and final discharge of the money so borrowed, are re-enacted in s. 3. substituting the words "house of correction" for "gaol," throughout. See APPENDIX.]

121. The justices may dispose of old houses of correction, their materials if pulled down, and their sites at the best prices, which shall be applied to the purposes of this act, and in case of any purchase of land which shall exceed what is necessary to be used, the justices may sell the same, and apply the money for the above purposes, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 55. s. 5.

122. Bodies politic, &c. [enumerating as in c. 54. s. 12. pl. 76.] may sell and convey lands, &c. to the persons named by the justices in trust, and for the purpose of erecting new, or enlarging old houses of correction, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 55. s. 6.

123. Such purchase money, exceeding 100*l.*, shall be laid out to purchase lands, subject to the same uses; and till such purchases are made, the money shall be laid out in government securities, id. s. 7. as in c. 54. s. 13. pl. 77. [ss. 8, 10. direct a jury to be summoned to ascertain the consideration to be paid for such purchase in the same manner as in c. 54. ss. 14, 16. supra, pl. 78. and 80.]

124. On payment of the money ordered to be paid for the purchase of such lands, or on refusal or inability to receive it, leaving it in the hands of such persons as the quarter sessions shall appoint, for the use of the party, or in case of their not being found, then, the lands purchased, on notice to be published in some county paper, shall vest in the person authorised to take the same; and the justices, or two of them, their workmen or agents, may enter on and take possession of such lands, id. s. 11.

125. Where any justice is, by any act, authorised to convict any person before him, in a summary way, without intervention of a jury he may, if he thinks fit, commit such person so convicted, to the house of correction within his jurisdiction, in lieu of the common gaol, id. s. 12. [The schedule of this act is the same as that of c. 54. supra, inserting "house of correction," for "gaol." See APPENDIX.]

126. FOR FURTHER PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS WHO SHALL ASSIST prisoners to attempt to escape out of lawful custody, 16 G. 2. c. 31.

127. Every person who shall by any means be assisting any prisoner to attempt to escape from any gaol, though no escape be made, (in case such prisoner was then attainted or convicted of treason, or of any felony except petty larceny; or committed to, or detained in any gaol for treason, or any felony except petty larceny, expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer) shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years; and in case such prisoner was then convicted of, committed to, or detained in, any gaol for petty larceny, or other crime not being treason or felony, expressed in the warrant as above, or then was in gaol on any process soever, for any debt, damages, costs, sum or sums of money amounting to 100*l.* in all, every such offender shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to fine and imprisonment, 16 G. 2. c. 31. s. 1.

128. If any person shall convey, or cause to be conveyed, into any gaol or prison, any disguise, instrument, or arms proper to facilitate the escape of prisoners, and the same shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to any prisoner or other person there for his use, without privity of the keeper or under-keeper, every such person (though no escape, or attempt to escape, be made, shall be deemed to have delivered such disguise, instrument, or arms, with intent to assist such prisoner to escape, or attempt to escape; and in case the latter then was attainted or convicted of treason or any felony, except petty larceny, or lawfully committed to, or detained in such gaol, for treason or other felony, except petty larceny, expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, every such offender shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years; but in case the prisoner to whom, or for whose use such disguise, instrument, or arms were delivered was then convicted, committed, or detained for petty larceny, or other crime not being treason or felony expressed in the warrant of commitment or detainer, or on any process for debt, damages, costs, or sum of money amounting to 100*l.*, every such offender shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to fine and imprisonment, id. s. 2.

129. If any person assist any prisoner to attempt to escape from the custody of any constable, headborough, tythingman, or other officer having charge of him, in order to carry him to gaol, under warrant of commitment for treason, or any felony except petty larceny, expressed therein; or if any person shall assist any felon to attempt to escape from any boat, ship, or vessel carrying felons for transportation, or from the contractor for their transportation, his assigns, or agents, or any other person to whom the felons are lawfully delivered, in order to transportation, such offender shall, on conviction, be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, id. s. 5.

130. No prosecution for any of the said offences shall be commenced, unless within one year after the offence, id. s. 4.

131. If any person ordered for transportation in pursuance of this act, return from transportation, or be at large in G. B. without lawful cause before the expiration of his term, he shall be liable to the same punishment, and like methods of prosecution, trial, and conviction, as other felons transported or ordered for to be transported, id. s. 5.

132. FOR BETTER SECURING TO CONSTABLES AND OTHERS THE EX-pences of conveying offenders to gaol, 27 G. 2. c. 3. ss. 1, 2. 4. [See rest of this act FELONY, pl. 79. AMD. 41 G. 3. c. 78. ss. 1, 2.]

133. The 3 J. 1. c. 10. s. 1. pl. 20. recited. When any person not having goods or money within the county wherein he is taken, sufficient to bear the charges of himself and of those who convey him, is committed to gaol or house of correction by a justice's warrant, then on application by the constable or officer who conveyed him to any justice for the same county or place [the latter not in the act] shall on oath examine into and ascertain the expences to be allowed such officer, and shall, without fee, by warrant, order payment thereof by the treasurer of the county or place, who shall be allowed the same in his accounts, id. s. 1.

134. The 5 J. 1. c. 10. s. 2. [viz. that if the offender is unable to bear his charges, the parish shall do it] is repealed, id. s. 2. [Except in Middlesex, see s. 4. next pl.]

135. Nothing herein shall empower any court or justice of peace to make orders on the treasurer of Middlesex for payment of the expences of the officer in conveying any person to gaol; but the same (after having been examined on oath and allowed, by the committing justice or justices, for which no fee shall be taken) shall be paid by the overseers of the poor of the parish or place where the offender was apprehended, id. s. 4.

136. Two justices of any county or place within Eng., when any person has been appointed a special constable for executing any warrants in a case of felony, may order, by writing under their hands, such allowances to be made to him for his expences, trouble, and loss of time in executing, or endeavouring to execute, such warrant, as shall seem necessary; which orders shall be afterwards submitted, on oath of the special constable, to the consideration of the next general quarter sessions, which may allow or disallow the whole thereof, and shall order the treasurer of such county or place to pay such special constable what sum they think necessary, who shall forthwith pay and be allowed the same in his accounts, 41 G. 3. c. 78. s. 1.

137. Any 2 justices, within their respective jurisdictions, may, by writing under their hands, order such reasonable allowances to be made to any high constable within Eng., for any extraordinary expences by him incurred in execution of his duty, in case of tumult, riot, or felony, which order shall be submitted on the high constable's oath to the quarter sessions, and shall be considered, &c. and allowed as in s. 1., id. s. 2.

138. AGAINST THE INTRODUCTION OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS into prisons, [This title is framed] 24 G. 2. c. 40. ss. 15—17.

139. No licence shall be granted for retailing spirituous liquors within any gaol, prison, house of correction, workhouse, or house of entertainment for any parish poor; and all licences granted contrary to this provision shall be void; and every gaoler or officer of any gaol or house of correction, or master or officer of any workhouse or parish poor-house, who shall sell, use, lend, or give away, or knowingly permit any such liquors to be sold, &c. therein, or brought into the same (except such liquors as are proscribed or given by direction of a regular physician, surgeon, or apothecary, and to be applied in pursuance thereof, from the shop of the latter), shall forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to H. M. and the other, with costs, to the party suing in any court at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot., by action of debt, bill, plaint, or information, wherein no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance are allowed; and every such gaoler or officer, a 2d time convicted of such offence, shall forfeit his office, 24 G. 2. c. 40. s. 15.

140. Any justice, on information on oath that any such spirits are kept and disposed of in any such gaol, &c. as in pl. 154. in G. B., may enter and search, or, by warrant, authorize any constable or other peace officer of the same parish, to enter and search the same; and any spirits found therein (except those medicinally directed, as in s. 13.) shall be seized, staved, and destroyed by such constable, &c., id. s. 14.

141. No person shall bring, or attempt to bring, any spirits (except as medicine, see s. 13.) into any such gaol, &c. as in pl. 139., and the gaoler or chief officer thereof, or his servants, may apprehend offenders herein, and carry them before some justice for the county, city, or place where the gaol, &c. is situate (who shall hear and determine such offence in a summary way, administering an oath to the witness); and if, on oath of one witness, or otherwise, he convict the offender, he shall forthwith commit him to prison or house of correction for not exceeding 3 months, unless he immediately pay down not more than 20*l.*, nor less than 10*l.* fine, at discretion of the justice, to go one moiety to the informer, and the other to the use of the poor of such gaol, &c. or workhouse, &c., id. s. 15.

142. Every gaoler, &c., and chief officer of every gaol, house of correction, or poor house, shall keep a fair and legible written or printed copy of the 5 above clauses, to be hung up in one of the most public places of his gaol, &c., renewing it when necessary, on penalty of 40*s.* for every wilful default, to be levied by warrant of such justice, (as in s. 15. last pl..) to be granted on conviction thereof before him in a summary way, by oath of one or more credible witnesses: and every justice may enter into every gaol, &c. within his jurisdiction, and demand a sight of the copy so hung up, and if it be not forthwith shown him so hung up, and fair and legible, shall immediately convict such gaoler, &c. of such default; to go one moiety to the informer, and the other (or the whole if no informer) to the use of the poor of such gaol, &c., or poor-house, &c., 24 G. 2. c. 40. s. 16.

143. All H. M.'s justices within London, Westminster, and Southwark, or within the limits of the head excise-office in London, shall once in a month transmit to the clerk of peace of the county where they act, a certificate of all persons convicted before them respectively, for any offences against this or any former statute relating to spirits, or for licensing retailers thereof, who shall enter the same among the public records of the quarter sessions of the counties respectively where such conviction is so certified; which certificates shall be evidence on any information directed by this or other act relating to spirits, id. s. 17.

144. FOR REVESTING IN THE CROWN THE POWER OF APPOINTING the marshal of the marshalsea of the court of K. B., and for better regulation of that office, and of the inferior offices thereto belonging, and for rebuilding the K. B. prison, 27 G. 2. c. 17.

145. "After recital of original grant by letters patent, dated 15th May, 14 J. 1., of the office of marshal to Sir W. Smith, his heirs, and assigns, and several mesne conveyances, and a mortgage thereof (24th Feb. 1604) by William Lenthall to Sir John Cutler, for 10,000*l.*, and that on 1st Feb. 1753, there was due for principal and interest thereof, 30,397*l.*, &c.;" it is ENACTED, that out of any supplies granted for 1754, a sum not exceeding 10,500*l.* shall be paid to Thomas Martin and 4 others, their executors, administrators, or assigns, in satisfaction for the debt due to them on the said mortgage of the office of marshal as aforesaid, on their conveying and releasing unto H. M., his heirs, and successors, all their estate and interest in the said office, and debt, id. s. 1.

146. Immediately after payment of the said 10,500*l.* the prison of the marshalsea of the court of K. B., and the scite thereof, and the ground and appurtenances thereunto belonging, and the power of granting the custody of the said prison, and the office of marshal of the marshalsea aforesaid, shall be re-vested in H. M., and shall for ever remain unalienable; subject to redemption, and such regulations with regard to the execution of the said office and government of the prison, as are herein-after provided, id. s. 2. [Power of redemption given, ss. 3, 4.]

147. "J. A. to have the office of marshal after payment of the said 10,500*l.*" and H. M., his heirs, and successors, after J. A.'s death, resignation, or removal from office (subject to the above proviso for redemption), shall have full power to appoint, by letters patent, or sign manual, such person as H. M. shall think fit, to be marshal of the marshalsea aforesaid, and so from time to time may appoint to such office as often as it becomes vacant; and every person so appointed shall hold the same, and all fees and advantages thereto belonging, for so long as he shall behave himself well in his said office, and be resident in the said prison, or within the rules thereof: and all grants of the said office shall be made accordingly, or otherwise shall be void, id. s. 3.

148. The marshal aforesaid, and all officers belonging to that office, and the prisoners committed to the prison aforesaid, shall be governed by the rules made in pursuance of 2 G. 2. c. 22. [now semble EXP., but its substance re-enacted, 32 G. 2. c. 28. infra, pl. 155, 156.] and shall take such fees only as have been or shall be settled in pursuance of that act, id. s. 6.

149. After payment of the said sum, the marshal shall have the nomination of all such inferior officers as have usually belonged to the office, and they shall hold their offices for so long as they shall respectively behave themselves well therein, and all grants of the said inferior offices shall be made accordingly, or otherwise be void, id. s. 7.

150. As well the marshal aforesaid, as the inferior officers, to be nominated in pursuance of this act, shall be liable to be removed by rule of the court of K. B., in case of any such non-residence or other neglect of duty, or any such misbehaviour as K. B. shall think sufficient cause for such removal, on complaint by motion or petition in a summary way, id. s. 8.

151. If any person after payment of the said 10,500*l.* shall bargain or sell the said office of marshal, or any inferior office thereto belonging, or any deputation of such office, or any part of them, or take any money or profit directly or indirectly, or any promise, covenant, or assurance to receive any money or profit, &c. for any such office, &c., or to the intent that any person should have any such office, &c., every such person who shall so bargain, &c. shall forfeit all his right, interest, and estate in any of the said offices, &c., or in the gift or nomination of any of the said offices, &c. for which he shall so bargain, &c.; and every person who shall give any money or reward, or make any promise or assurance to give any money, &c. for any of the said offices, &c., shall immediately upon the same money, &c. being given, or promise, &c. made, be disabled to have the said office, id. s. 9.

152. Out of any supplies granted for 1754, shall be applied not exceeding 7,800*l.* for rebuilding the prison of the marshalsea of the court of K. B. in such manner, and at such place, within the rules of the said prison, as the commissioners of the treasury, or any three of them, shall direct by writing under their hands, id. s. 15.

153. Bodies politic, trustees, mortgagees, and feoffees in trust, guardians of infants, and committees of lunatics and idiots, executors, and administrators, femes covert, and all other persons interested in any lands within the rules of the said prison, may sell the same to such persons as the treasury shall appoint to contract for the purchase thereof, to be conveyed to H. M., his heirs, and successors, by deed inrolled in the K. B. And every sum of money paid to the use of any such body politic, or other person aforesaid, for the purchase aforesaid, shall be laid out in the purchase of other lands to be settled and subject to such titles, uses, trusts, &c. as the lands sold; and until so re-invested in lands, shall be laid out in the purchase of stocks, in some of the public funds, or placed out on government or real securities at interest, such interest being paid to the use of such person as would have been entitled to the rents of the lands sold, 27 G. 2. c. 17. s. 16.

154. When such prison shall be rebuilt, the marshal for the time being, shall, at his own costs, out of the profits of his office, keep in repair the same, and all the appurtenances; and the same shall remain unalienably vested in H. M. for ever, id. s. 17.

155. FOR REGULATION OF PRISONS, (this title is framed), 32 G. 2. c. 28. ss. 5—12. [see ss. 1—4. ARREST, pl. 72, &c.; 13—25. INSOLVENT DEBTOR, pl. 1, &c.]

156. The chief justice of K. B. and C. P., and chief baron of exchequer, or any two of them, with mayor and 2 aldermen, or with 3 aldermen of London without the mayor, for the prisons within London; and such chief justices and chief baron, or any two of them, with 3 justices of peace of Middlesex and Surrey respectively for prisons in those counties; shall with all convenient speed, meet from time to time, at such place as they think fit, and settle a table of fees to be taken by any gaoler in London, Middlesex, and Surrey, where not already established; and where established, they shall meet and vary same from time to time as they see occasion: and the justices of peace of every other county and place, for the prisons in each county, &c. shall at any general or quarter session of peace with all convenient speed, settle a table of fees to be taken by any gaoler within their respective jurisdictions, where same hath not been already settled [but all fees are abolished, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.]; and where the same hath been settled, shall alter same from time to time as there shall be occasion; and tables of such fees so made or altered for the several prisons within London, Middlesex, and Surrey, shall be signed by such chief justices and chief baron, or 2 of them, and the mayor and 2 aldermen of London, or by 3 aldermen without the mayor, and by 3 justices of Middlesex and Surrey respectively; and tables of such fees made or altered for the rest of the prisons shall be signed by 3 or more justices of peace, who make or alter same at any general or quarter session of the peace, and shall afterwards be confirmed or moderated, within Eng. by justices of assize; within Wa. or the county palatine of Chester, by the justices of great sessions respectively, at the next assizes or great sessions held, in the respective counties within their several circuits, next after making or altering such table of fees; and same shall be afterwards signed by the respective judges of assize or justices of great sessions, who confirm or moderate the same, and 3 or more justices of peace of such county, &c. for prisons within their respective circuits, counties, or jurisdictions, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 5.

578. Rules for better government of prisons in Eng. and of the prisoners therein, where such rules have not already been made, shall with all convenient speed be made by the several courts in Westminster-hall, for the several prisons belonging to such courts; and by the chief justices and chief baron, or 2 of them, with the mayor and 2 aldermen of London, or 3 or more aldermen without the mayor, for the prisons within London; and by the chief justices and chief baron, or 2 of them, with 3 or more justices of peace, for the prisons in Middlesex and Surrey; and by 3 or more justices of peace of each county, &c. for prisons within their respective counties, &c. at some general or quarter sessions; and the same shall afterwards be reviewed, and may be altered if necessary, by the judge or judges of assize, or justice or justices of great sessions respectively, at the next assizes or great sessions within their several circuits, after making or altering such rules; and where any rules, &c. for regulating prisons had been or shall be made, the same may at all times hereafter be altered by the respective courts in Westminster-hall, and other persons authorized by this act to make same; and after every making or altering, all such rules so altered shall be signed by judges of respective courts in Westminster-hall, for prisons and prisoners belonging to such court; and in respect to the other prisons or prisoners by the respective persons authorized to make, &c. such rules, &c. And duplicates of every such table of fees made or altered, and of all rules, &c. for regulating any prison in pursuance of this act, belonging to courts in Westminster-hall, shall be inrolled on record in every such court by proper officer without fee: and a like duplicate of every such table of fees or rules, &c. so made or altered, which relate to any other prison or the prisoners therein in Eng., shall, from time to time, with all convenient speed be transmitted to the respective clerks of the peace of the counties, &c. for which the same are made, and shall be by such clerk entered on the rolls of the sessions without fee: and such clerks shall cause another copy to be hung up in court where every assize, great session, or quarter sessions of peace for such county, &c. in his jurisdiction, shall be held, for public inspection; and shall cause another copy to be transmitted to every gaoler within his jurisdiction, who shall forthwith, after receipt of such table of fees or rules, &c. cause same to be hung up in some public room or place, and in a conspicuous manner, in his prison; and shall take care that the same be kept up there, so as prisoners may have free resort thereto, at reasonable times in the day-time, without paying any thing for the same, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 6.

159. The several courts of record in Westminster-hall shall, in every Michaelmas term, appoint some day in such term to inquire whether such table of fees, and such rules are hung up, and remain public, and easy to be resorted to in prisons to such courts belonging, and whether the same be duly observed; and shall cause 8 days' notice to be given in every Michaelmas term, to prisoners in such respective prisons of the time for such inquiry, and shall inform themselves touching the same in best manner they can, and redress whatever they find neglected, id. s. 7.

160. The judges and justices of assize, gaol delivery, and great sessions within their respective jurisdictions, shall at all assizes and sessions of gaol delivery and great sessions make inquiry whether such table of fees and rules are hung up, and remain public to be resorted to in their several prisons, and whether the same be duly observed; and shall inform themselves touching the same in best manner they can, and redress whatever they find neglected, and shall expressly charge every grand jury sworn before them, to make inquiries concerning the same, id. s. 8.

161. The several courts of K. B., C. P., and exchequer, judges of assize, and justices of great sessions, justices of peace within their respective jurisdictions, and all commissioners for charitable uses, shall, from time to time, use their best endeavours to discover the several gifts and legacies given for benefit of poor prisoners in prisons within their respective jurisdictions; and may cause to be brought before them any deeds, wills, writings, books of account, and papers, as they shall receive information of, to be in custody of any person within their respective jurisdictions and concern the premises; and may summon before them any persons who they apprehend may make discovery concerning same; and examine such persons on oath, in order to get a true discovery thereof, and settle the payment, recovery, and receipt of such gifts or legacies, in such way as they deem fit, id. s. 9. [See ante, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 20. s. 11. pl. 32. s. p.]

162. A table of such gifts and legacies for benefit of prisoners in every prison respectively, shall, after every settling thereof, be transmitted by persons authorized to settle the same, unto the clerks of peace of the respective counties, &c., and shall be registered by them in manner tables of fees and orders are to be registered without fee; and a table of such gifts and legacies shall be transmitted, by order of such persons as aforesaid, to the keeper of every prison to which the gifts therein contained relate; and forthwith shall be hung up by him in a conspicuous manner in some public place in his prison, where the prisoners may have free resort thereto without fee: and every gaoler shall take care that every such table of gifts, or a copy thereof, be kept hung up in his prison, id. s. 10.

163. Upon petition in term time of any prisoner complaining of any extortion by any gaoler, bailiff, or other person in or employed in keeping any prison or other place where such prisoner shall have been carried, or in respect of arresting any person, or of any other abuse, done, unto any court of record at Westminster from whence the process issued under which the party was arrested, or under whose jurisdiction such prison or place is; or in vacation time, to any judge of any court at Westminster, from whence such process issued; or to judges of assize, or justices of great sessions, in their respective circuits; or to the judge of any other court of record, where any prisoner was arrested, or in custody, by process of such court within Eng.; and if within Wa. or the county palatine of Chester, then to the justices at some great sessions for the county where such prisoner was arrested, or in custody; every such court, &c. shall hear and determine the same in a summary way, and make order for redressing the abuses complained of, and for punishing such person complained against, and for making reparation to the party injured, with costs of such complaint: and all orders thereupon made shall have the same effect, and obedience thereto be enforced, as other orders of respective courts, judges, justices of assize and great sessions, or judges of inferior courts of record, may be enforced, id. s. 11.

164. No keeper of any prison or other person thereunto belonging, shall take directly or indirectly of any prisoner for debt, damages, costs, or contempt, any greater fees for his commitment, chamber-rent, release or discharge, than what allowed in table of fees inrolled and registered as aforesaid, s. 5. pl. 156. [but see all fees abolished, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.]; and every sheriff and other officer offending against this act, shall, for every such offence (over and above such penalties as he shall be liable to by the laws now in force) forfeit to the party grieved 50*l.*, to be recovered with treble costs by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, 32 G. 2. c. 28. s. 12.

165. FOR PROVIDING CLERGYMEN TO OFFICIATE IN GAOLS AND HOUSES OF CORRECTION within Eng., 13 G. 3. c. 58., 22 G. 3. c. 64. s. 12. [AMD. by 55 G. 3. c. 48., which is AMD. by 58 G. 3. c. 32.]

166. The quarter sessions in every county, riding, division, or place, in Eng. and Wa., may ascertain how many clergymen shall be deemed necessary to be employed in performing religious duties according to the Church of Eng. in the several gaols within their respective jurisdictions, and what salaries, not exceeding 50*l.* yearly, [but see present amount of salary, 55 G. 3. c. 48. s. 1. pl. 170., and 58 G. 3. c. 32. s. 2. pl. 174.] shall be paid to them, 13 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1.

167. The said quarter sessions may appoint a minister of the Church of Eng., residing in or near the place where any house of correction shall be situate, to perform divine service there every Sunday, appointing such salary for his trouble as they shall think fit, not exceeding 20*l.* per ann., [but see pl. 174.], to be paid by the treasurer of the county, riding, division, or place where such house is situate, out of the county rates, but subject to diminution by the justices, 22 G. 3. c. 64. s. 12.

168. The treasurers of such counties, &c. receiving a certificate signed by the chairman of the quarter sessions, of the number of such clergymen, and their respective salaries, shall pay the same out of the county, &c. rates, and be allowed them in their accounts, 13 G. 3. c. 58. s. 2.

169. When the number of clergymen, and their salaries, have been so settled, the quarter sessions may appoint such number of clergymen; and if any of them die, or are considered unworthy to be continued in office, may appoint any other clergymen to officiate in their room, id. s. 3.

170. The quarter sessions in Eng. and Wa., and the annual general session in the county palatine of Lancaster, may increase the salary of 50*l.* a-year given by 13 G. 3. c. 58. to not exceeding 100*l.* per ann., 55 G. 3. c. 48. s. 1.

171. All the provisions of 13 G. 3. c. 58. are applicable to houses of correction, id. s. 2. [See the present salary of clergymen officiating in houses of correction, 58 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1. infra, pl. 174.]

172. Every clergyman so employed, shall, in order to entitle himself to receive the salary, keep a journal in a book provided in the gaol or house of correction where he is employed, in which he shall enter his times of attendance there to perform his duty, with any observations which may occur to him in the execution thereof, which journal shall be regularly produced for the inspection of the quarter sessions, and signed by the chairman in proof of production, id. s. 3.

173. No clergyman so appointed to officiate in any gaol or house of correction shall so officiate till he has obtained a licence for the same from the bishop of the diocese, and only while the same remains in force; and the clerk of the peace shall, in one month after every such appointment, transmit a copy thereof to such bishop, 55 G. 3. c. 48. s. 5.

174. The quarter sessions may respectively assign any larger salary than that given by 55 G. 3. c. 48. s. 1. pl. 140. of 50*l.* per ann., but not exceeding 100*l.*, to clergymen officiating as chaplains in houses of correction, 58 G. 3. c. 32. s. 1.: and, if they think fit, may unite the offices of clergymen to gaols and houses of correction, by appointing one as a chaplain for both, with any salary not exceeding [30*l.*, 55 G. 3. c. 48. s. 4. now] 150*l.* per ann., 58 G. 3. c. 32. s. 2.

175. FOR RELIEF OF PRISONERS CHARGED WITH FELONY OR OTHER CRIMES, BUT ACQUITTED OR DISCHARGED BY PROCLAMATION, RESPECTING THE PAYMENT OF FEES TO GAOLERS, AND GIVING A RECOMPENSE FOR SUCH FEES OUT OF THE COUNTY RATES, 14 G. 3. c. 20.

176. Prisoners charged with felony or other crime, or as accessories thereto, before any court of criminal jurisdiction within Eng. and Wa., against whom no indictment is found by grand jury, or who are acquitted on trial, or discharged by proclamation for want of prosecution, shall be set at large in open court, without payment of any fee or sum to the sheriff, gaoler, or keeper of the prison whence they are discharged, in respect of such discharge, id. s. 1. [and see 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1. pl. 236. abolishing all prison-fees soever.]

177. All fees usually payable to the sheriffs, gaolers, &c. in Eng. and Wa. in the above cases, shall absolutely cease, id. s. 2.

178. The treasurer or other proper officer of each county, or of such hundreds, &c. as are not assessed to the county at large, or of such cities, towns corporate, cinque ports, liberties, franchises, and places, as do not pay rates to the county in which they are situate, shall, on receiving a certificate signed by a judge or justice before whom such prisoner has been discharged (which certificate such judge, &c. shall give) pay out of the county rates, such sum, not exceeding 13*s. 4d.*, as is usual to such sheriff, gaoler, &c., and it shall be allowed in his accounts, id. s. 3.

179. FOR PRESERVING THE HEALTH OF PRISONERS IN GAOL, AND PREVENTING THE GAOL DISTEMPER, 14 G. 3. c. 59.

180. The several justices in Eng. and Wa., within their respective jurisdictions, at quarter sessions, shall order the walls and ceilings of the cells and wards, both of debtors and felons, as well as any other room used by prisoners in their gaols and prisons where felons are confined, to be scraped and white-washed once a-year; to be regularly washed and cleaned, and constantly supplied with fresh air; and shall order 2 rooms in each gaol to be set apart, one for the sick males and the other for sick females, directing them to be removed there when seized with any disorder; and may order warm and cold baths, or commodious bathing-tubs, to be provided in each gaol, and direct the prisoners to be washed therein, according to their condition, before they go out of such gaol on any occasion soever; and shall order this act to be painted, in large characters, on a board, and hung up in some conspicuous part of every gaol; and shall appoint a surgeon or apothecary, at a stated salary, to attend such gaol, and who shall report to each quarter sessions the state of health of the prisoners under his care, 14 G. 3. c. 59. s. 1. [See 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 4. supra, pl. 68.]

181. The quarter sessions may direct the courts of justice in their jurisdictions to be properly ventilated, and may order clothes to be provided for the prisoners, and prevent them from being kept under ground [24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 4. supra, pl. 68. s. 1.], and make such orders for restoring or preserving their health as they see fit, 14 G. 3. c. 59. s. 2.

182. The expences attending the execution of orders made under this act, so far as respect county gaols, and courts of justice belonging to counties, shall be defrayed out of the county rates; and so far as they respect gaols, &c. belonging to cities, towns corporate, cinque ports, and places not contributing to the county rates, out of their respective rates; and if any gaoler, &c., keeper of any prison, neglects any orders made under this act, he may be proceeded against in a summary way, by complaint to the judges of assize, or to the quarter sessions; and, if found guilty thereof, shall pay such fine as they shall impose, and be committed in case of non-payment, id. s. 3.

183. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL EXECUTION OF THE LAWS RESPECTING GAOLS, 29 G. 3. c. 67.

184. At the Michaelmas quarter sessions in every year, the gaoler having the care of any gaol within jurisdiction of the sessions, shall deliver to the chairman, or other magistrate presiding in such court, a certificate (according to the form annexed, subscribed and verified by him, to the best of his belief, on oath to be taken either before such court, or in case of sickness, or inability to attend from other cause, then before some county justice), expressing after each provision therein enumerated, whether the same is observed within such gaol, and shall be read publicly in open court, in presence of the grand jury, and recorded as part of the minutes of the session, id. s. 1.

185. The sessions shall thereupon take such certificate into consideration, and summon any persons named therein to appear before them, and shall give directions and make orders relative to any matters therein, and take security from any person whom it may concern for his compliance therewith, id. s. 2.

186. If the gaoler of any county gaol neglect to deliver such certificate he shall forfeit 50*l.*, and if not of a county gaol, 20*l.*, to be recovered by any person in any court of record at Westminster, or of great session in Wa., or the county palatine of Chester, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein no wager of law, or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, id. s. 3.

Certificate referred to in s. 1.

— } At the general quarter sessions of the peace for the — holden at — to wit. } this — day of — A. D. — the certificate of — in pursuance of the statute in this case made and provided, respecting the gaol of —

22 & 23 C. 2. c. 20. enacts, That felons and debtors shall be kept separate, under penalties upon the sheriff or gaoler (of loss of office), id. s. 13.

24 G. 2. c. 40. enacts, That, 1. No gaoler shall sell, lend, use, give away, or suffer spirituous liquors within any gaol, under a penalty, (100*l.*, id. s. 13.); 2. Copy of the clause last mentioned, as also of 2 other clauses respecting the same, shall be hung up in the gaol, under a penalty, (not exceeding 20*l.* nor less than 10*l.*, id. s. 16.)

32 G. 2. c. 28. enacts, That the clerk of the peace shall cause a list of the fees payable by debtors, and the rules and orders for the government of gaols and prisons, to be hung up in the court where the assizes or sessions shall be held, and send another copy to the gaol, and the gaoler shall cause the same to be hung up in a conspicuous place in the said gaol, (id. ss. 6, 7.)

13 G. 3. c. 58. enacts, That clergymen may be provided to officiate in gaols, [and see other provisions to this effect, supra, pl. 165., &c.]

14 G. 3. c. 20. enacts, That persons acquitted or discharged upon proclamations for want of prosecution, shall be discharged immediately in open court, and without fee.

14 G. 3. c. 59. enacts, That, 1. The walls and ceilings of the cells in gaols shall be scraped and white-washed once in the year at least; 2. That the cells shall be kept clean; and, 3. That they shall be supplied with fresh air by ventilation or otherwise; 4. That there shall be 2 rooms set apart for the sick; 5. That a warm and cold bath, or bathing tubs, shall be provided; 6. That this act shall be hung up in the gaol; 7. That a surgeon or apothecary shall be appointed with a salary.

187. FOR BETTER REGULATING GAOLS AND OTHER PLACES OF CONFINEMENT, 31 G. 3. c. 46.

188. The justices assembled at one or more quarter sessions for any county, riding, or division, or at any special adjournment thereof held for such express purpose, of which public notice has been given in some newspaper circulating in such county, and signed by the clerk of the peace, and at which at least 5 justices are present, shall appoint a governor or task-master, and such other officer, for every house of correction or penitentiary in such county, &c. with such salaries as a majority shall deem necessary, payable out of the county rate, and may remove such governor and officers, and increase or diminish the latter, and alter the salaries of both; and in fixing the salary of the governor or task-master, shall have regard to making the emoluments of office depend on the quantity of work done in such houses, that it may be his interest to see that the prisoners are regularly employed; and such governor and officers shall give such security for performance of their duties as the sessions appoint, and may be proceeded against thereon for neglect or misdemeanor in their offices, or may be fined by the sessions as by 7 J. 1. c. 4. (s. 9.) or 17 G. 2. c. 5. (VAGRANT,) and if any governor removed by order of such sessions shall not quit possession of his house in 48 hours after notice in writing given by the clerk of the peace, any 2 or more such justices, on proof of such order and of notice and refusal to comply therewith, may, by warrant under their hands and seals, direct the sheriff of the county to remove the governor out of such house, and the sheriff shall clear the possession as under an hab. fac. poss., 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1.

189. The quarter sessions (5 justices at least being present) shall make such rules as they think proper for receiving, classing, dieting, clothing, employing, reforming, governing, and watching all offenders during their confinement in penitentiary houses, and for adjusting what aid shall be given them during confinement or on release, having regard to 19 G. 3. c. 74. (PENITENTIARY) [EXP.]; but such rules shall not have force till submitted to the judges of assize or great session, at the county assizes, and they have submitted a certificate that they see nothing illegal in such rules; and additions may at any time be made therein, on like certificate; but nothing herein shall deprive any convict of the benefit of any weekly or other allowance usually granted by any statute, custom, or order for maintenance of convicts, provided that the application thereof shall be subject to the limitations contained in the rules and orders herein directed to be made for the government and police of such penitentiaries, id. s. 2.

190. Every governor of such houses of correction or penitentiaries, and his assistants, shall have the same powers over the offenders confined therein which are incident to the office of sheriff or gaoler, and in like manner shall be answerable for their escape; and moreover may hear complaints, examine persons touching offences, and punish them (except by whipping) in such manner as the governor of each penitentiary, directed by 19 G. 3. c. 75. to be built, may do; and in case of their repetition, or of offences more enormous being committed, shall report the same to the visiting justices, or one of them, who shall inquire on oath, and determine such offences, and punish the same either by moderate or repeated whippings, or by close confinement for not exceeding one month; and if any person ordered to hard labour shall at any time during the term break prison, or escape from confinement, or in conveyance thereto, or from the person having him in lawful custody, or if any person shall rescue the offender at any such times, or be aiding therein, or if any person having such custody, or his assistant, shall negligently permit him to escape, or if any person shall, by supplying arms, tools, or means of disguise, or otherwise assist such offender in escape, or attempt to escape, though no escape be made, such offence shall be punished as in 19 G. 3. c. 74. ss. 65, 66. (PENITENTIARY) [EXP.] id. s. 3.

191. The provision made by 19 G. 3. c. 74. s. 67. (PENITENTIARY,) [EXP.] for carrying on prosecutions for escapes, attempts to escape, breaker of prison, and rescues, from the penitentiaries therein mentioned, are extended to prosecutions for escapes, &c. under this act, id. s. 4.

192. Every quarter sessions shall appoint 2 or more justices visitors of each such gaol and other places of confinement, who shall, either together or singly, personally visit each such prison 3 times in each quarter, and oftener if occasion shall require, and examine into the state of the buildings, the conduct of the officers, treatment and condition of the prisoners, amount of their earnings, and expences of the prison; and in matters of pressing necessity, within their commission as justices, shall take cognizance of, and proceed to regulate and redress the same, and every justice of such county, &c. of his own accord, and without being appointed visitor, may enter and examine such prison, at such times and as often as he shall think fit; and if he discovers any abuses therein, shall report them in writing at the next general or quarter sessions, or adjournment thereof, held for such county, &c., and abuses so reported shall be there taken into immediate consideration, and the most effectual measures for rectifying the same adopted, id. s. 5.

193. A body of rules as bye-laws, for government of the said gaols and of the prisoners therein confined, shall be framed and confirmed by such persons, conformable and in the manner directed by 32 G. 2. c. 28. (INSOLVENT DEBTOR, pl. 1. et seq.) in which proper and particular directions shall be given for effectuating such separation and classing of prisoners as by 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 14. s. 4. directed, with such further separation, &c. as is thought requisite, as well as for enforcing cleanliness and orderly behaviour among the prisoners, as for securing them just and humane treatment by the governor and servants, 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6.

194. The court by whom any offender is sentenced to transportation, or in case of the royal mercy being extended to him on that condition, or any judge of the court before which the offender was convicted, or any judge of K. B. or C. P., or baron of exchequer of the coif, or justice of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery, or justices of peace at quarter sessions, may order that such person be imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol of the county where convicted, till transportation, or till, by expiration of the time of such sentence or otherwise he is entitled to his liberty, provided that the time of such confinement shall be reckoned in whole or part discharge of the term of transportation, id. s. 7.

195. The keeper of the common gaol, and the governors or keepers of the several penitentiaries in such county, &c. on the first day of every assizes, great sessions, or general gaol delivery, shall make a just return in writing to the clerk of assizes, or other clerk or proper officer of such court, specifying the number and size of the cells completed for reception of prisoners ordered to imprisonment and hard labour—the name of every person in custody, with their offences—the court before whom they were convicted, and its sentence, if a court of record; or if committed by one or more justices of peace, on conviction before them, then the name or names and offence, and the age, bodily state, and behaviour of every such convict, id. s. 9.

196. Every such return, before delivery into court, shall be examined by one or more visiting justices, appointed as in s. 5., who shall sign the same, and may add any observations on the particulars, id. s. 9.

197. As long as any person under sentence of transportation remains in the common gaol, the gaoler having him in custody shall separate him as much as convenient from every person in his custody, except convicted felons, id. s. 10.

198. If such common gaol is not in a state to afford the means of separation, according to 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 54. s. 4., the gaoler shall report such insufficiency to the grand jury at every assizes, great sessions, or general gaol delivery, till such means are effected, id. s. 11. [see s. 12., inserted supra, pl. 27.]

199. Justices may in like manner, from time to time, order such sums of money to be paid out of the county rate towards assisting such prisoners of every description as, being confined in the said gaols or places of confinement, are unable to work, or, being able, cannot procure sufficient employment to sustain themselves by their industry, or who may not be provided for by any statute, custom, or order with such food and raiment as they shall think necessary for support of health, and the same shall be applied accordingly, id. s. 13.

200. The visitors shall report any extraordinary diligence or merit in any offender to the justices of oyer, &c. and gaol delivery or great sessions, at the next or any subsequent session holden for the county in which he was convicted, in order to his recommendation to the royal mercy, in such degree and on such terms as they think fit, and if H. M. shall be pleased to shorten his imprisonment, the offender shall, with necessary clothing, receive not more than 20s. nor less than 3s. for his immediate subsistence in case he has been confined for one year, and so in proportion for any shorter term, such sums of money and clothing being paid for out of the county rate, id. s. 14.

201. No salary shall be paid out of the county rate [in lieu of emoluments diminished by fees appointed in the table by this section appointed, but now REP., 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.] to any woman or other person incapable of executing the office of gaoler in person, id. s. 15. [and see 52 G. 3. c. 64. s. 10., supra, pl. 115.]

202. All fines, forfeitures, and penalties inflicted by this act, or by any rule or order made in pursuance thereof, the levying and recovering which are not particularly herein directed, shall be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant of 2 justices, who shall hear and examine witnesses on oath or affirmation, and determine the same; and (where the particular application is not before directed) shall be paid from time to time to the treasurer of the county, &c. and applied to the purposes of this act only, and to no other soever; and the overplus of money raised by such sale, after deducting the penalty and expences of distress and sale, shall be rendered to the owner; and in default of distress the offenders shall be committed by such justice [QU. s. ?] to some prison for the county, &c. for not more than 3 nor less than one calendar month, as they think fit, id. s. 16.

203. The conviction for offences against this act is as follows:—
'He is remembered that on — A. D. — A. B. is convicted before me C. D., one of H. M.'s justices of the peace for the county of —, [specifying the offence, and the time and place when and where it was committed, as the case is.] Given under my hand and seal the day and year first above mentioned.' id. s. 17.

204. Any person grieved by any thing done in pursuance of this act, and for which no particular relief has been appointed, may appeal to the general or quarter sessions of the peace within 4 calendar months after the cause of complaint arisen, on giving 7 clear days' notice in writing of such appeal, and of the matter thereof, to the justice or justices before whom the conviction was had, and to the clerk of the peace for the county, &c. in which such offence shall be tried, and in 2 days after such notice shall enter into recognizance before some justice for the county with 2 sufficient sureties conditioned to try the appeal, abide the order, and pay the costs awarded by such quarter sessions; and the justices thereof, on due proof given of such notice and recognizance, shall hear and finally determine such appeal in a summary way, awarding costs as they think proper, 31 G. 3. c. 46. s. 18.

205. No order made touching any of the matters in this act contained, or proceedings to be had touching the conviction of any offender against it, shall be quashed for want of form, or removed by certiorari, or other process, into the courts at Westminster; and no distress under it shall be deemed unlawful, nor the party making the same a trespasser, on account of any defect or want of form in the summons, conviction, warrant of distress, or other proceedings, nor shall be deemed a trespasser ab initio, on account of any irregularity of the distrainer; but the party grieved may have an action on the case for the special damage, but shall not recover, if sufficient amends are made before action brought, id. s. 19.

206. In actions for any thing done in pursuance of this act, defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done by authority thereof; and if defendant has a verdict, or if plaintiff is nonsuit or discontinues after issue joined, or if on demurrer or otherwise judgment is given against him, defendant shall recover treble costs; and if plaintiff has a verdict he shall have no costs, unless the judge certify his approbation of the action and verdict, id. s. 20.

207. Actions and prosecutions for any thing done in pursuance of this act shall be commenced within 6 calendar months after the fact, and laid and tried in the county where the facts were committed, id. s. 21.

208. TO ENABLE JUSTICES OF PEACE TO ORDER PAROCHIAL relief to prisoners confined under mesne process for debt in such gaols as are not county gaols, 52 G. 3. c. 160.

209. One justice acting for the county, riding, or division, wherein any gaol (not being a county gaol) is situate, shall order the overseers of the poor of the parish, township, or place wherein it is situate, to relieve any poor person confined therein under mesne process for debt, and who is unable to support himself, and has applied to overseers for relief, id. s. 1.

210. But such relief shall not exceed 6d. per diem during the time of such confinement under mesne process, id. s. 2.

211. Overseers who doubt whether such person is legally settled in their parish, &c., shall have him examined on oath before one justice, touching his last legal settlement, which justice may then make an order for his removal to his place of settlement, and may suspend its execution during his confinement under mesne process; which suspension, and subsequent permission to execute such order, shall be indorsed on the order, and signed by such justice, or two others acting for such county, &c., id. s. 3.

212. A copy of the order of removal and of suspension, shall, as soon as may be, after making the same, be served on the overseers of the parish, &c. in which such person is adjudged to be settled id. s. 4.

213. Although such poor person is not actually removed in pursuance of such order, any justice may direct the overseers of the parish, &c. where such person is adjudged to be settled, to repay to those of the parish, &c. wherein such gaol is situate, all the charges proved on oath of such last-mentioned overseers, to have been incurred in granting relief to such pauper not exceeding 6d. per diem; and if same is not paid, or notice of appeal given, within 21 days after demand, one justice, by warrant under his hand and seal, may cause it to be levied by distress and sale of goods of the party neglecting to pay, and also such costs, not exceeding 40s., as such justice shall direct; and if the parish, &c. to which the removal was ordered to be made is without the jurisdiction of the justice issuing the warrant, it shall be indorsed by some justice having jurisdiction there, id. s. 5.

214. But if the sum so ordered to be paid exceeds 5l., the party grieved may appeal to the next general quarter sessions for the county or place wherein the gaol is situate, as may be done against an order of removal, and if the sessions are of opinion that the sum is greater than what ought to have been paid, they may strike it out, and insert the sum which appears to them to be due, and shall direct such justices making the order, or some other justices, to execute it as so amended, id. ibid.

215. But the overseers of the parish wherein such pauper is so adjudged to be settled, may appeal against the order of removal to the next quarter sessions for the county, &c. wherein such gaol is situate, holden after service of the copy of order of removal, if it was served 20 days before such sessions were held, and if not then, to the next succeeding sessions, and usual proceedings shall be observed as on other causes of appeal against orders of removal: provided that, in case such order of removal and suspension is not appealed against as above, or is confirmed, such poor person shall be deemed legally settled in the parish, &c. to which he is so adjudged, 52 G. 3. c. 160. s. 6.

216. In case any person applying for relief under this act, shall, in his examination as to his last legal settlement, be found not legally settled in any parish, &c. within Eng. and Wa., such justice may order the overseers of the parish wherein the gaol is situate in which such person is confined for debt on mesne process, to relieve such person with a sum not exceeding 6d. per diem, out of the funds in their hands for relief of poor, and they shall be reimbursed by the county treasurer, out of the county rates at the expiration of such poor person's confinement under such mesne process, id. s. 7.

217. FOR AUTHORIZING THE COMMISSIONERS OF CUSTOMS and excise to make an allowance for the necessary subsistence of poor persons confined for debts or penalties sued for under their orders, 53 G. 3. c. 21.

218. Poor persons confined under exchequer process for recovery of any duties or penalties under customs or excise acts, or under any body warrant issued by commissioners of excise in Eng., or by any justices of peace for G. B. under such acts, or under any writ of extent for debts due to H. M., sued for by order of the commissioners of customs or excise in Eng. and Scot., or on suit on bonds taken under orders in council, may be allowed not exceeding 7d., nor less than 4d. per diem, by the 4 commissioners of excise in Eng. and 5 in Scot., to be paid out of any money in their hands arising from the above duties, id. ibid.

219. FOR PROVIDING RELIEF FOR POOR PRISONERS CONFINED in the K. B., Fleet, and Marshalsea prisons, 53 G. 3. c. 113. [PUBLIC clause, id. s. 17.]

220. "43 El. c. 2. (s. 12. and s. 14. for rating parishes by the sessions with a weekly sum for relief of the K. B. and Marshalsea), 11 G. 2. c. 20. and 12 G. 2. c. 29. (s. 23.) (which, after repealing by s. 22. the above provisions of 43 El. c. 2., provided for the payment of the monies arising by its own operation in the time and manner prescribed by 11 G. 2. c. 20.) are repealed, s. 1., and after recital, inter alia, that no relief was by these acts provided for the Fleet prisoners," it is enacted, That every treasurer of a county and division mentioned in the schedule shall, on or before 1 Aug. in every year, pay out of the public stock or rates of such county, &c. the several sums therein specified; viz. the sums for relief of the prisoners confined in K. B. and Marshalsea shall be paid to the treasurer for Surrey, and those for relief of the prisoners in the Fleet to the chamberlain of the city of London, id. s. 2.

221. The treasurer of the county of Surrey shall, from time to time, pay the sums of money to be received by him from the said treasurers, and those to be paid out of the Surrey county rates for relief of the prisoners in K. B. and Marshalsea, to such sufficient person residing near the prisons, at such times and manner as the justices of Surrey or the majority at quarter sessions shall direct, id. s. 3.

222. The chamberlain of the city of London shall, from time to time, pay all money received by him from the said treasurers for relief of prisoners in the Fleet, to such sufficient persons resident near the same, at such times and manner as the justices for the city of London or the majority of them at their quarter sessions shall direct, id. s. 4.

223. Receipts signed by the treasurer of the county of Surrey and the chamberlain of London for monies payable under this act, shall be sufficient discharges for the same; and receipts signed by any person appointed by the justices of Surrey and London respectively, at their quarter sessions, to receive such monies, shall be sufficient discharges to such treasurer and chamberlain, id. s. 5.

224. If any treasurer shall not pay over such sums as ought to be paid over by him, as in s. 2. pl. 220., then, on delivery of a certificate on oath of the treasurer or person to whom it ought to be paid, to either of the courts of K. B. and C. P., or of Marshalsea, of such neglect or refusal, such court may make a rule on the defaulting treasurer, requiring him to pay the money so reported to be due; and obedience to such rules may be enforced in the usual manner, id. s. 6.

225. Every treasurer of any county or division thereof named in the schedule shall, in one calendar month after his appointment, transmit his name and place of abode to the clerk of the crown in K. B., for entry to be made by him in a book kept for the purpose, without fee; and if he shall neglect to transmit the same, then, on the report of the clerk of the crown to K. B. of such neglect, he shall be proceeded against as in (s. 6.), id. s. 7.

226. When there is occasion for the courts of K. B., C. P., and Marshalsea respectively, to make any such rule or rules as aforesaid on any of the said treasurers, the whole costs thereof shall be paid by the defaulter, 55 G. 3. c. 113. s. 8.

227. The sums of money provided by this act shall be distributed by the persons to whom the same are directed to be paid, as in ss. 3, 4., by weekly payments, for relief of such prisoners as are ordered to be relieved, id. s. 9.

228. Any justice of the county of Surrey may order such relief as he shall think proper, not exceeding 6d. per diem, to be given to any prisoner in the K. B. or Marshalsea prisons, and any alderman or justice of the city of London may order like relief to any prisoner in the Fleet, but subject to the following regulations, id. s. 10.

229. No prisoner charged in execution for debt shall be relieved under this act after the first day of the term next following the time when he shall be charged in execution, id. s. 11.

230. No prisoner shall be ordered to be relieved by virtue of this act till he have first made oath before a judge of one of the courts of law at Westminster, or of the Marshalsea, or a commissioner appointed by any such judge to take affidavits, that he is not worth 10*l.*, and cannot subsist without such relief; and if convicted of perjury therein, he shall suffer the legal punishment thereof, id. s. 12.

231. No prisoner shall be relieved by virtue of this act who has become supersedeable or entitled to discharge under any insolvent act, id. s. 13.

232. Any surplus which may on the 1st August in every 3d year after this act passed remain in the hands of the treasurer of Surrey, and the chamberlain of London, and the persons to whom the same respectively shall have been paid, as in ss. 3, 4., of any monies payable by this act to such treasurers respectively, on or before the 1st August in the preceding year, after relieving the poor prisoners confined in the aforesaid prisons as above, shall be paid to the treasurer of Bethlem hospital, for the benefit of that hospital, id. s. 14.

233. The treasurer of the county of Surrey, and the persons appointed to receive and distribute the monies provided by this act for relief of the prisoners confined in the K. B. and Marshalsea, at the Easter-quarter sessions for Surrey, and the chamberlain of London, and the person appointed as above for the Fleet prison, at the Easter quarter sessions for London, shall respectively lay before the justices there assembled a full account of receipts and disbursements of the monies by this act provided, verifying the same on oath if required, id. s. 15.

234. A majority of the justices of Surrey in quarter sessions, with respect to the sums above provided for prisoners in the K. B. and Marshalsea, and a majority of the justices of London in quarter sessions as to the sums for the Fleet, may make regulations respecting the payment and application of the monies hereby provided, the prisoners relieved thereby, the securities to be entered into for due application thereof, the accounts respecting the same, and the remuneration to be allowed to persons employed in execution of this act or otherwise, for its better execution, provided they are made as addition, and not contradictory to the above provisions; and may alter such regulations when they think fit, id. s. 16.

The SCHEDULE to which this Act refers.

COUNTIES and DIVISIONS.	The Sums to be paid by them for the Relief of the Prisoners in the Prisons of
	King's Bench.	Fleet.	Marshalsea.
Bedford	5	5	—
Berks	10	10	—
Bucks	10	5	—
Cambridge { County Isle of Ely and Town of Cambridge }	5	5	—
Chester	10	10	—
Cornwall	10	5	—
Cumberland	10	5	—
Derby	10	10	—
Devon	20	15	—
Dorset { East Division West Division }	5	5	—
Durham	15	10	—
York { East Riding North Riding West Riding }	10	10	—
Essex { East Division West Division }	10	5	—
Gloucester	15	10	—
Hampshire	10	5	—
Hertford	10	10	—
Huntingdon	5	5	—
Kent { East Division West Division }	10	5	—
	10	5	25

SCHEDULE — continued.

COUNTIES and DIVISIONS.	The Sums to be paid by them for the Relief of the Prisoners in the Prisons of
	King's Bench.	Fleet.	Marshalsea.
Lancaster	30	25	—
Leicester	10	10	—
Lincoln { Holland Division Kesteven ditto Lindsay ditto }	5	5	—
Middlesex	100	50	200
Norfolk	15	10	—
Northampton { East Division West Division }	5	5	—
Northumberland	15	10	—
Nottingham { North Division South Division }	5	5	—
Oxford	10	5	—
Rutland	5	5	—
Salop	10	10	—
Somerset { West East }	10	5	—
Southampton	15	10	—
Stafford	15	10	—
Suffolk { Beccles Division Woodbridge ditto Bury St. Edmund's ditto Ipswich ditto }	5	5	—
Surry	50	40	50
Sussex { East Division West Division }	10	5	—
Warwick	15	10	—
Westmorland { East Ward Kendal Ward }	5	5	—
Wilts	15	15	—
Worcester	10	10	—
Anglesea	2	2	—
Brecon	2	2	—
Cardigan	2	2	—
Carmarthen	3	3	—
Carnarvon	2	2	—
Denbigh	3	3	—
Flint	2	2	—
Glamorgan	3	3	—
Merioneth	2	2	—
Monmouth	3	3	—
Montgomery	2	2	—
Pembrokeshire	2	2	—
Radnorshire	2	2	—

235. FOR ABOLITION OF GAOL AND OTHER FEES CONNECTED with gaols in Eng., 55 G. 3. c. 50. [AMD. 56 G. 3. c. 116.]

236. All fees and gratuities payable by any prisoner on entrance, commitment, or discharge, to or from prison, are abolished, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 1.; but nothing in this act extends to the K. B. or Fleet prisons, or to the Marshalsea and Palace courts, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 14.

237. The quarter sessions may make fitting allowances to gaolers and their servants, in the way of salary or compensation, for the prisoners' fees abolished by this act, id. s. 2.

238. They may order such allowances to be paid out of any county, city, or town rate now by law authorized to be made, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 3. [and 51 G. 3. c. 46. s. 15. supra pl. 201., in part same provision.]

239. Prisoners charged with felony, or as accessaries thereto, or with any misdemeanor before any court of criminal jurisdiction in Eng., against whom no true bill is found by the grand jury, or who shall be acquitted on trial, or discharged by proclamation for want of prosecution, shall be immediately set at large without payment of any fee for such discharge, except in cases wherein he shall have been, and shall then stand charged with process authorizing his detention: provided that if it happen that a prisoner so charged has been discharged under this act by reason of the sheriffs' or officers' ignorance of such charge against him, the latter may presently retake and detain him in custody, in which custody he shall be deemed to have continued from the time when he first stood charged as above, id. s. 4.

240. All the fees usually paid to the several clerks of assize, of the peace, of the court, or their deputies in Eng., in any of the above cases are abolished, and they shall not demand or receive from the prisoner any fee for his discharge, id. s. 5.

241. In lieu of such fees the treasurers of the counties, or proper officers of the districts, not usually assessed to the county at large, and of such cities, towns, cinque ports, &c. as do not pay to the rates of the counties in which they are situate, shall, on receiving a certificate signed by one or more judge or justice of peace before whom such prisoner was discharged, (which certificate such judge, &c. shall give), pay to such clerks or their deputies out of the rates of such county or district, or out of the public stock of such city, &c. or place, such lawful sum as has been usually paid on that occasion for every prisoner so discharged, which sums shall be allowed to the treasurer and officers by the justices before whom their accounts are passed, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 6.

242. The judges of assize who have gone the circuits since this act was passed, as well as future judges of assize, shall grant the above certificate, and receive from every officer who, previous to 55 G. 3. c. 50. was entitled to any fees by that act abolished, an account in writing of what they claim to be due to them for such abolished fees, to be verified on oath of the claimant, as in ss. 7, 8. of that act provided, 56 G. 3. c. 116. s. 1.

243. The amount of every such account so verified shall be paid, as provided by 55 G. 3. c. 50. (s. 6. pl. 241.) in respect to clerks of assize and of the peace, id. s. 2.

244. Every clerk of the peace or his deputy, and every officer claiming fees, shall deliver at each session of the peace, or at some adjournment thereof, an account of all fees so due to him, or for which he shall claim indemnification; which account shall be verified on oath in court before the chairman of such sessions, id. s. 7.

245. The clerk of assize shall, at every assize, deliver in to the judge who shall sit for the trial of prisoners, an account of the fees due in respect of them, to be verified on oath before him, id. s. 8.

246. Any clerks of assize, of the peace, of the court, or their deputies, or other officer exacting such fees, are disabled to hold their offices, and are guilty of misdemeanor, 55 G. 3. c. 50. s. 2.

247. Liberates shall be granted, without fee, to debtors, on their discharge, and the quarter sessions may (subject to approbation of the judges of assize) make such compensation to the sheriff or undersheriff, out of the county, city, or town rate, as they think fit, id. s. 10.

248. "Whereas there are several cities, towns corporate, and places in this kingdom which do not contribute to county rates, nor have a town rate or public stock;" in all such cases, the salaries, allowances, &c. directed to be raised in lieu of fees as above, shall be raised by a separate assessment to be made by the parish officers of the respective parishes, by means adopted for levying the poor-rates, id. s. 11.

249. "Where the sums so to be assessed are so small that it is not convenient to make an equal separate assessment on the parishes in such cities," the said salaries and allowances may, by order of the said judge or justices in sessions, be paid out of the monies from time to time raised for relief of the poor in such parishes, &c., by the persons having the management of the same; provided that any order for such allowances so made by the sessions shall not be deemed legal till approved by warrant from the judge of assize, on the first circuit after such warrant has been made out by the sessions; and should there be more parishes than one in the district, the payments shall be made and levied in such proportions as each pays to the poor-rate, id. s. 12.

250. Any gaoler who shall exact any fee or gratuity from a prisoner on account of his entrance, commitment, or discharge, or who shall detain him in custody for nonpayment of any such fee, shall be disabled to hold his office, be guilty of misdemeanor, and punished by fine and imprisonment, id. s. 13.

251. The provisions of 55 G. 3. c. 50. shall extend to all prisoners, civil and criminal, whether confined for debt or crime in any prisons in Eng., (except those in s. 14. of that act, supra, pl. 236.), and the gaolers of all such prisons, except as aforesaid, and their servants, within liberties and without, shall have compensation for their fees by this or that act abolished, 56 G. 3. c. 116. s. 3.

252. The allowances made to the keeper of the prison of Dover castle, in lieu of fees and gratuities payable by any prisoner on his entrance to, or discharge from the same, and also to the registrar of the cinque ports, and clerk of Dover castle, for the liberates granted to any debtor on his discharge, shall be paid out of the funds raised by 54 G. 3. c. xcvi. "For relief of poor debtors there confined," in manner therein directed, id. s. 4.

PRISONERS OF WAR.

1. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT of persons aiding prisoners of war to escape from H. M.'s dominions, 52 G. 3. c. 156.

2. Any person who shall willingly aid any alien enemy, being a prisoner of war within H. M.'s dominions, whether such prisoner is confined or suffered to go at large on parole, to escape, shall, on conviction be adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported for life, or for 14 or 7 years as the court shall adjudge, id. s. 1.

3. Every person who shall willingly aid any such prisoner at large on parole, in quitting any part of H. M.'s dominions where he may be on parole, although he shall not aid him in quitting the coast, shall be deemed guilty of aiding the escape of such person under this act, id. s. 2.

4. If any person owing allegiance to H. M. after any such prisoner has quitted the coast, shall knowingly and wilfully upon the high seas aid such prisoner in his escape, he shall be guilty of felony, and be transported, as in s. 1., and such offences committed on the high seas, and not within the body of any county, shall be tried in any county of the realm, as if there committed, 52 G. 3. c. 156. s. 3.

5. This act shall not prevent any person committing such offences from being prosecuted as he might have been before this act; but no person prosecuted, otherwise than under this act, shall be prosecuted under it, and vice versa, id. s. 4.

PRIVILEGED PLACES.

1. FOR EXECUTION OF JUSTICE IN PRETENDED PRIVILEGED PLACES, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. (s. 15.) [See rest of this title and statute, PRISON AND PRISONER, pl. 38. et seq.]

2. Any person who hath any money owing him from any person within Whitefriars, Savoy, Salisbury court, Ram-alley, Mitre-court, Fuller's-rents, Baldwin's-gardens, Montagu-cloze, Minories, Mint, Clink, or Deadman's-place, upon process taken out, may require the sheriff of London and Middlesex, head bailiff of the liberty of the duchy of Lancaster, or high sheriff of Surrey, or bailiff of Southwark, or their officers, to take the posse comitatus, or such power as to them seems requisite; and to enter the above pretended privileged places, and arrest, and in case of resistance or refusal to open any doors, to break open the same, to arrest such person on mesne or other process, or to seize the goods of such person on any execution or extent; and if the sheriff, &c. shall neglect with such force to use their best endeavours for executing such process, they shall forfeit 100*l.* to the plaintiff; and if, in executing the same, any person shall resist any officer, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, and be by some justice committed to the gaol of such county, city, or place, until the next assizes or gaol-delivery, and on conviction shall suffer imprisonment, and be set in the pillory [but see that title]; and if any rescue be made of any prisoner taken by such officers within the above places, the persons making or assisting in the rescue, and convicted, shall forfeit 500*l.* to the plaintiff, recoverable by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, with only one imparlance allowed, and in default of paying the same with costs, in one month after judgment signed on such recovery, and demand made on producing a copy of the judgment and oath made, that the money is not paid, he shall, by order of the court wherein he was convicted of rescous, be transported for 7 years, and if he return again within that time is guilty of felony without clergy; and any inhabitant within the above places concealing any person guilty of such rescous, knowing him to be guilty of such offence, shall, on conviction, be transported for 7 years, unless within one month after conviction he pay plaintiff the debt for which such action was brought, with costs, and if he return within that term is guilty of felony without clergy, 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 15. [The pecuniary penalties go half to H. M. and half to the informer, id. s. 16. supra, PRISON AND PRISONER, pl. 34.]

3. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL EXECUTION OF JUSTICE in a pretended privileged place, in the parish of St. George, in the county of Surrey, called the Mint, and for bringing certain offenders to justice, 9 G. 1. c. 28. ss. 1—10. and s. 16.; but ss. 11—15. 17—24. [Exp.]

4. If any person shall, within the place called Suffolk-place, or the Mint, or the pretended limits thereof, knowingly oppose any person's serving any writ, rule, or order, or other legal process, or any escape-warrant, or any warrants of justices of peace, or shall assault or abuse any person serving such writ, &c. whereby such person shall receive any damage, every person being convicted thereof shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported as felons, id. s. 1.

5. On complaint to any 3 justices for Surrey by a creditor of any person residing in the Mint, &c., he having legal process taken out for recovery of his debt, and making oath before such justices, that a debt exceeding 50*l.* is justly due to him from the person against whom such complaint shall be made, and that he believes such person doth reside in that place, the justices may issue their warrant to the sheriff of Surrey, or bailiffs of Southwark, requiring them to take the posse comitatus, or such other force as they think requisite, and enter the said Mint and arrest; or in case of resistance or refusal, to break open any doors to arrest such person, on mesne or other process, and to seize goods on execution or extent. And the sheriff, &c. refusing on such warrant, with such force, to use his best endeavours for the executing such process, &c., shall forfeit to plaintiff 200*l.* And if any person shall resist any officer of justice, or any person aiding such officer, within the Mint, &c., or shall make rescue of any prisoner taken upon such writ, &c., within the said place, or shall there knowingly conceal any prisoner so taken, or any who rescued such prisoner, or shall be assisting in resisting such officer, or in rescuing such prisoner, or shall exercise any jurisdiction, or join in making any pretended rule or ordinance for supporting any pretended privilege within the said place, or for opposing the execution of legal process, &c. therein, is convicted on indictment or information brought within 6 months after the offence, is guilty of felony, and shall be transported, 9 G. 1. c. 28. s. 2.

6. Every person, who shall apprehend any one guilty of the offences aforesaid, and prosecute him till convicted, shall receive for every such offender 40*l.* to be paid by the sheriff of Surrey without fee, in one month after such conviction, and demand thereof made, by tendering a certificate to the sheriff or the judge before whom such offender was convicted, certifying his conviction, and that he was taken by the person claiming the reward; and in case of dispute touching the reward, the judge shall in the certificate direct the reward among the parties, in such shares as shall seem reasonable; and if such sheriff shall die or be removed, the succeeding sheriff shall pay it in one month; and if the sheriff make default, he shall forfeit to the person to whom such money shall be due, double the sum he ought to have paid, to be recovered with double costs, 9 G. 1. c. 28. s. 4. [This reward appears repealed by 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1., FELONY, pl. 96. and see note, COIN, pl. 65.]

7. If any person is killed by such offender in endeavouring to apprehend him, the executors or administrators of each person so killed (on certificate of the judge of assize, or the 2 next justices of peace) shall receive 40*l.* from the sheriff of the county where the fact was committed; and on failure of payment, such sheriff shall forfeit double the sum, to be recovered with double costs, by action of debt or information, wherein no more than one imprisonment allowed, 9 G. 1. c. 28. s. 5., [and see 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 3. FELONY, pl. 97.]

8. All sheriffs producing such certificates and receipts, may deduct, on accounting with H. M., all monies (other than the forfeited sums and costs of suit) which they shall so disburse, id. s. 6.

9. If on the account of any sheriff there is not sufficient in his hands to reimburse him, he shall be repaid by the treasury, or by record of surplusage on any other sheriff indebted to H. M., on certificate from the clerk of the pipe, id. s. 7. [but he is not obliged to pay it from his own funds, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. tit. SHERIFF.]

10. If any such apprehender or prosecutor is guilty of any the said offences, not being in prison for the same, and convicting two or more, he shall not only have the reward, but also be entitled to a pardon, id. s. 8.

11. The charge of raising the posse comitatús, or other power, for enforcing this act, or 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 15. (pl. 2.) shall be paid by the sheriff, and allowed in his accounts, or repaid by the treasury out of the revenue, or by record of surplusage on any other sheriff, on certificate from the clerk of the pipe, id. s. 9.

12. Nothing herein shall repeal 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 27. s. 15. (pl. 2.) or any other law in force against pretended privileged places, or for suppressing of riots; except where other provision is made by this act, id. s. 10.

13. If any action be brought against any justice, sheriff, bailiff, officer, or other minister, for any thing done in pursuance of this act, he may plead the general issue, &c., and on judgment for the defendant, shall have treble costs, id. s. 16.

14. TO PREVENT VIOLENCES AND OUTRAGES BEING COMMITTED BY any persons under pretence of sheltering themselves from debt or any process of law, in the hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, or elsewhere, in the bills of mortality, 11 G. 1. c. 22.

15. If any number of persons, not less than 3, shall, within the hamlet of Wapping-Stepney, [made a distinct parish, 2 G. 2. c. 30.] or any other place within the bills of mortality, wherein persons shall unlawfully assemble for sheltering themselves from their debts, of which complaint has been made by presentment of the grand jury at a quarter sessions, knowingly obstruct any persons serving any writ, rule, or order of any court, or other legal process, and shall assault or abuse any person serving or executing such writ, &c., whereby such person shall receive bodily hurt, the offender on conviction shall be guilty of felony, and shall be transported for 7 years, id. s. 1.

16. On complaint to a judge of any court out of which the writs issue, of opposition within the said hamlet, or elsewhere within the bills of mortality, wherein persons shall unlawfully assemble, &c., by any persons who have debts due to them from any persons sheltering as aforesaid, the creditor having any legal writ or process, and making oath before such judge, that a debt exceeding 50*l.* is justly due to him from the person against whom complaint shall be made, and that such creditor verily believes that he is sheltered within such place, such judge may issue his order to the sheriff, his deputy, or officers, enjoining him to take the posse comitatús, and enter the said hamlet, or any place elsewhere, &c. mentioned in the said oath, and to arrest such person on any meane process, extent, or execution, and to seize the goods of such person upon any execution or extent. And if such sheriff, &c. shall wilfully neglect to use his best endeavours for the executing of such process, &c., he shall forfeit to plaintiff 200*l.*, recoverable by action of debt, &c. or information, in which no essoin, wager of law, or more than one imparlance is allowed. And if any person shall knowingly resist any officers of justice in the execution of any writ, &c. in the said hamlet, &c., or shall make rescous of any prisoner taken upon such process, &c., or shall knowingly harbour or conceal any prisoner so taken, or any persons who rescued such prisoner, or shall be knowingly abetting in resisting any such officer, or in rescuing such prisoner, he being convicted upon indictment or information, brought within 6 months after the offence, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and transported for 7 years, 11 G. 1. c. 22. s. 2.

PRIVY COUNCIL.

(STATUTES repealed.)

THAT PROCLAMATIONS MADE BY H. M., WITH THE ADVICE OF HIS council, shall be obeyed and kept as though they were made by act of parliament, 31 H. 8. c. 8. [AMD. 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 23. Both acts REP. 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 5.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. EVERY PERSON WHO SHALL UNLAWFULLY ATTEMPT TO KILL OF assault, strike or wound, any person, being one of the privy council of H. M., when in the execution of his office as a privy councillor in council, or in any committee of council, shall, on conviction thereof in due form of law, suffer death without benefit of clergy, 9 A. c. 16. [See further as to the privy council, 16 C. 1. c. 10. STAR CHAMBER.]

2. H. M. SHALL HAVE BUT ONE PRIVY COUNCIL FOR THE kingdom of G. B., which shall have the same powers as that of Eng. had at the time of the union with Scot., and none other, 6 A. c. 6. s. 1. [ss. 2, 3. relate to SCOTLAND (Justice of Peace); s. 4. to id. (Judicial Proceedings), see preface; ss. 5, 6. to id. (Parliament).]

3. TO ALLOW THE PRIVY COUNCIL TO ACT AS SUCH FOR a limited time after the demise of the crown, 6 A. c. 7. s. 8. [framed for this section; and see rest of the statute, tit. PARLIAMENT, &c.]

4. The privy council of H. M., her heirs and successors, shall not be dissolved by the demise of H. M., her heirs, &c., but shall continue to act as such for 6 months, unless sooner determined by the successor to the crown; nor shall the office of lord chancellor of G. B., or keeper of the great seal, treasurer, president of the council, privy seal, high admiral, or any of the great offices of H. M.'s household, nor any office, place, or employment, civil or military, within G. B., Ire., Wa., or Ber., Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, and Sark, [QU. as to Man], or any of H. M.'s plantations, become void by reason of the demise of the crown, but shall respectively retain their places for 6 months, unless sooner determined by the successor to the crown, id. ibid.

PRIZE.

(STATUTES expired and repealed.)

1. MERCHANDISES TAKEN IN ENEMIES' SHIPS MAY BE RETAINED, though belonging to foreigners in amity, 14 H. 6. c. 7. [EXP.]

2. DIRECTING PROSECUTION OF SUCH AS ARE ACCOUNTABLE FOR prize goods, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 14. [EXP. and REP. 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 6.]

3. TO MAKE PRIZE SHIPS FREE FOR TRADE, 19 C. 2. c. 11. [EXP.]

4. DECLARING THE AUTHORITY OF THE COMMISSIONERS appointed by H. M., under the great seal of G. B., for receiving, hearing, and determining appeals in causes of prizes, 22 G. 2. c. 3. [EXP.]

5. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF SEAMEN, AND FOR BETTER AND more effectually manning H. M.'s navy; for regulating the payment of prize money, and for making provision for the salaries of the judges of the vice admiralty courts in the island of Malta, and in the Bermuda and Bahama islands, 43 G. 3. c. 160. [REP. 45 G. 3. c. 72. s. 1., and this act is also EXP.]

6. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF SEAMEN, AND THE BETTER AND more effectual manning H. M.'s navy during the present war, 45 G. 3. c. 72. [EXT. to cases arising in consequence of hostilities commenced since the passing of 45 G. 3. c. 72., 48 G. 3. c. 132., and EXPL. and AMD., and for the better providing for the interest of the royal hospitals for seamen at Greenwich, and for soldiers at Chelsea, and to extend its provisions to cases arising in consequence of hostilities commenced since the passing of such act, 49 G. 3. c. 123. EXT. to American prizes, 53 G. 3. c. 63., all the acts in part EXP., and REP. as to the residue, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 1.]

7. TO PREVENT THE SALE OF THE DANISH PRIZE SHIP Constantia Maria, and her cargo, in the port of Fowey, in the county of Cornwall, 48 G. 3. c. 147. [EXP.]

8. TO AUTHORIZE THE PAYMENT OF PRIZE MONEY ARISING FROM captures made by ships of his Sicilian majesty, in conjunction with British ships to the Sicilian envoy, for the use of the officers and men of such ships, and also for payment of money arising out of proceeds of prizes or captures made by other ships or vessels belonging to foreign states, in conjunction with H. M.'s ships, 47 G. 3. s. 1. c. 47. [EXT. so far as it respects the payment of prize money arising from captures made by foreign in conjunction with British ships, to captures made by the land forces of foreign states in conjunction with the British, 48 G. 3. c. 150., both EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF THE TRADE TO AMERICA, (viz.) by allowing the fitting out of privateers, and giving them as prize all captures made by them in America, 8 A. C. 57. ss. 1—8. [See the rest of this act, tit. SEAMAN, SLAVE, &c. NOTE. The power of fitting out privateers was given by s. 3. for the then war, and is therefore now Exp. QU. are not ss. 4—8. Exp. also?]

2. All prize officers in any place in America shall be suppressed, id. s. 1.

3. The flag officers, commanders, and other officers and seamen of every H. M.'s or private ship or vessel of war, shall have the sole interest and property of all vessels and goods taken in any part of America, the same being adjudged prize in a court of admiralty; and the duties paid on such goods shall be divided in such proportions as H. M. shall direct, id. s. 2.

4. The judge of admiralty, or other person thereto authorized, shall, within 5 days after request, finish the usual preparatory examination of the persons commonly examined, in order to prove the caption lawful prize, and the usual monition shall be issued and executed within 3 days after request; and in case no claim shall be made and attested upon oath, giving 20 days' notice, after the execution of such monition, or if there be such claim, and the claimant shall not within 5 days give security, (to be approved by such court of admiralty,) to pay double costs to the captors in case the same shall be adjudged lawful prize, such judge shall, on producing the said examination, or copies thereof, and upon producing upon oath all papers and writings which were taken with such capture, (or upon oath made that no such papers were found) immediately proceed to sentence, either to discharge such capture, or to condemn the same as lawful prize; and in case such claim is duly entered, and security given, and there appears no occasion to examine any witnesses, other than what are near such court of admiralty, such judge shall forthwith cause them to be examined, and (within 10 days after such claim made, and security given) proceed to sentence: but in case on making such claim, and allegation and oath thereupon, or producing the writings found taken with such capture; or on the said preparatory examinations it appears doubtful to the judge whether such capture be lawful prize or not, and it shall appear necessary to have an examination of witnesses remote from such court of admiralty, and such examination is desired, the judge shall cause such capture to be appraised by persons named on the part of the captor, and sworn, and after such appraisement, and within 14 days after making such claim, shall proceed to take security from the claimants to pay the captors the value thereof, according to such appraisement, in case it is adjudged lawful prize; and after such security given, shall make an interlocutory order for delivering the same to such claimants or their agents, id. s. 4.

5. If any claimant refuse to give such security, the judge shall cause the captors to give security, to be approved of by the claimant, to pay the value according to the appraisement, in case such capture is adjudged not lawful prize; and shall thereupon proceed to make an interlocutory order for delivering the same to the captors or their agents, id. s. 5.

6. All captures brought into any of H. M.'s plantations in America shall, without breaking bulk, be under the joint custody of the naval officer and of the captors, until either the same shall, by final sentence, have been cleared or condemned, or such interlocutory orders as aforesaid made for the delivering of the same; and on the condemnation thereof, shall, in case the same were taken by any privateer, be delivered unto the captors, and in case the same were taken by any of H. M.'s ships of war, unto such persons as H. M. shall direct; and if any judge or other officer delay any proceedings relating to the condemning or discharging of any such capture, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, one moiety thereof to H. M., and the other with costs, to such person as shall inform or sue for the same in any of the courts in H. M.'s plantations, or in G. B., id. s. 6.

7. There shall not be paid to the judges and officers of such court of admiralty, for the condemning of such capture, above 10*l.*, in case such prize be under the burden of 100 tons, nor above 15*l.*, in case the same be of that or greater burden, id. s. 7.

8. Any captors or claimants may appeal from the court of admiralty to H. M.'s council, so as the same be made within 14 days after sentence, and security given by the appellant effectually to prosecute such appeal, and answer the condemnation, as also to pay treble to be awarded by H. M. in case the sentence of such court of admiralty be affirmed, and so as execution be not suspended by such appeal, id. s. 8.

9. No SHIP OF WAR, NOR ANY PRIVATE SHIP OF WAR, taken from the enemy and legally condemned as prize, nor her sails, or any of her tackle, apparel, or furniture, shall be chargeable with any duty whatever, 34 G. 3. c. 70.

10. FOR REGULATING THE PAYMENT OF NAVY PRIZE-MONEY, and for the transmission of accounts and payment of balances to Greenwich Hospital, 54 G. 3. c. 93. [AND the governors of Greenwich Hospital authorized to pay over to the Russian ambassador certain shares of prize-money due to the Russian seamen, 58 G. 3. c. 64.; (as to army prize-money and Chelsea Hospital, see 54 G. 3. c. 86.)]

11. The 45 G. 3. c. 72., 48 G. 3. c. 132., 49 G. 3. c. 123., and 53 G. 3. c. 63., so far as they relate to prize agents, and to Greenwich Hospital, shall be REP., 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 1.

12. No person belonging to any of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, or to any merchant ship employed in H. M.'s service, who shall run away, or withdraw himself from the vessel by which any prize is taken from any of H. M.'s enemies, or shall otherwise desert or withdraw himself from H. M.'s service, before or after notification is given by the persons or agents appointed, as in s. 13. pl. 24. directed, of the day appointed for the payment of the several shares to the captors of such prize, or who are marked on the books of any vessel in the service of H. M., as having run therefrom, shall have any interest in or benefit from such share of such prize, or the bounty-money herein-after mentioned, or any part thereof that shall then remain unpaid; but such shares, and also the shares of all officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others, as well on board hired armed ships as on board H. M.'s ships of war, which shall not be legally demanded within 6 years after the same have been paid to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, by virtue of any law then in force, shall be forfeited to such hospital, unless with respect to such officers and seamen as shall be marked "run," such mark shall be taken off by order of the admiralty, or of the commissioners of the navy: provided, with respect to the shares of such officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, herein-before mentioned, which shall not be claimed within such time, that if reasonable cause is shown and allowed by the directors of Greenwich Hospital, or 5 of them, or by the judge of the high court of admiralty, why such last-mentioned shares were not claimed in due time, such shares shall not be forfeited, id. s. 2.

13. No agent for prizes or bounty money shall be sued, or arrested by any person who is marked "run," from H. M.'s service in the list certified of the names of the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, or others who shall be actually on board any of H. M.'s ship of war at the taking of any prize, or who have subsequently deserted, unless the person so marked "run," or who so deserted, shall before action brought obtain a certificate of his R. being taken off, and the forfeiture of his share of such prizes and bounty monies being discharged by the commissioners of the navy, and shall produce such certificate to such agent, and unless such agent, on producing the same, shall refuse to pay such prize or bounty money in case the same is due and payable according to the directions in H. M.'s proclamation, within 5 months after any such demand made and such certificate produced: provided that if such share of any such person, who shall afterwards obtain such certificate, shall, when such certificate is produced, have been paid to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, such payment shall be a good discharge to the agent paying the same, id. s. 5.

14. No agent shall distribute any proceeds of any prize, except as in this act directed, until after the time of appeal has elapsed, id. s. 4.

15. If the judge of the high court of admiralty, or of the vice-admiralty court, in which any prize is condemned, shall certify that the vessel so condemned sailed under the flag and pass of the enemy, or under any commission of war granted by the enemy, then, on the application by the commander of the vessel making such capture, the proceeds shall be distributed, and an order of the court obtained, at his prayer, on the agent, to distribute such prize before the time of appeal is elapsed, subject nevertheless to the liability of the captor to answer any appeal that may be instituted during the time limited for appeals, id. s. 5.

16. The judge of the high court of admiralty, in all cases, either in the present or in any former war, in which the regular time of appeal has elapsed, or in which the appeal hath been determined, or any judge of any court of vice admiralty abroad, in any such case, to which any certificate from the judge of the high court of admiralty shall be transmitted at the time of appeal being elapsed, without further prosecution, together with an order of distribution thereon, may make an order for production and verification of accounts, and for the distribution of the proceeds, and enforce the same by the process of such court, by monition and attachment upon the agent in whose hands the proceeds may be lodged or any other person to whom such proceeds have been committed, and likewise by further process against the sureties of such agent; and all courts of vice-admiralty may enforce upon all persons within their jurisdiction all such orders, and all other orders of the high court of admiralty, whether relating as prizes, or to any matter relating thereto, within their respective jurisdictions, id. s. 6.

17. All the provisions, rules, and penalties, respecting the distribution of prize money, and the accounting for and paying over the proceeds of prize in this act, shall be extended to all seizures under the revenue laws, all grants of H. M., all bounties granted by act of parliament, and all other monies whatever, coming to and being in the hands of the prize agents of the officers and crews of any of H. M.'s ships of war, for their use, by reason of any capture, recapture, or seizure made by such ships, id. s. 7.

18. The proceeds of all seizures made by revenue cruisers, or other vessels employed in the service of the revenue, but under admiralty orders, shall be subject to the same regulations with respect to forfeited and unclaimed shares, as prize and bounty money are liable to under this act, or any other, 58 G. 5. c. 64. s. 6.

19. In all cases of condemnation in the high court of admiralty, where there is no claimant or appellant before the court, the court, at the prayer of the captors, may compel the agents, by process of motion, &c. to vest the proceeds of the property condemned in such public securities as the captors shall elect, to accumulate, for the benefit of the parties entitled, till the time of appeal is lapsed, subject nevertheless to the further directions of the court, upon the application of the captors; and in such like cases of condemnation in any court of vice-admiralty, such court, at the prayer of the captors, may direct the property captured, or the proceeds thereof, to be forthwith transmitted to G. B., to be vested in such public securities, after being sold, as the captors elect, until the time of appeal is lapsed, subject nevertheless to the directions of the high court of admiralty, upon the application of the captors, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 8.

20. The judge of the high court of admiralty, in all cases wherein any sentence of condemnation pronounced in such court is appealed from at the time of serving the inhibition thereon, or at any time thereafter pending such appeal, and without prejudice to such appeal, may assign the agent in whose hands the proceeds of the prize may be, at the prayer of either party, or of the treasurer of the navy, or of Greenwich hospital or his deputy, to bring into and leave in the registry the nett proceeds of the sales of such prize, deducting therefrom so much as the judge shall think requisite, for the expences of defending such appeal; and the proceeds so brought in shall be deposited, in case the parties agree thereto, in some public securities at interest in the names of the registrar or deputy registrars, and of such trustees as the parties appoint, and the court approve; and in case either party shall not so agree, the party praying shall have such proceeds invested in public securities, as in s. 8., he giving good security to the court to answer to the other party for any loss that may be occasioned thereby, in case such other party is ultimately pronounced to be entitled to the property, id. s. 9.

21. The lords commissioners of appeals may, in any case of appeal before them, order the proceeds of any prize, the subject of such appeal, or any part thereof, to be paid by the agent, at the requisition of the captors or claimants into court, to be disposed of at the discretion of the court on any application, either by the captors or claimants, id. s. 10.

22. On the application of any party interested in the proceeds of any prize, or of the treasurer of the navy or Greenwich hospital, and an affidavit of any such party, or any other person, of his belief that there are proceeds of any prize, or papers, or books, relating thereto, in the possession of any agent or persons, whether such prizes have been taken in the present or in any preceding war, the judge of the high court of admiralty may compel the production of the same, and the bringing in of such proceeds, and the answering to such interrogatories touching the same, as the court shall approve; and if it appear that the party hath been cited without cause, he shall be allowed his costs against the party making such affidavit, or at whose instance he hath been unduly summoned, id. s. 11.

23. Any captor, agent, or other person, who shall acquire or retain the proceeds of any prize contrary to this act, except for cause allowed by the court in which such prize is adjudged, or by the high court of admiralty, shall pay interest thereon at the rate of 12. per cent. per month, besides all other penalties imposed by this act, id. s. 12.

24. All appraisements and sales of any ships, goods, &c. taken by any ships of war, shall be made by agents appointed by the flag officers, captains or officers, or ships' companies, and others entitled thereto; viz., that if the flag officers of any squadron of ships which shall take any such prize, or the majority, if more than one, shall appoint one or more persons agents, then the commanders entitled thereto, or the majority of them, if more than one, may appoint the like number to act for them; and all the officers and others usually designated the commissioned and warrant officers, may appoint a like number to act for them; and all the remainder of the crew, usually designated the petty officers, and the stamen or marines, may appoint a like number, id. s. 15.

25. All persons so appointed agents for any prize taken by any vessels of war, or for receiving the bounty granted by this act, shall exhibit and cause to be registered in the high court of admiralty in G. B., or in the respective courts of vice-admiralty in any of H. M.'s dominions where such prize is proceeded against, their respective letters of attorney, appointing them agents for such purposes; and if persons so appointed shall, without sufficient cause to be approved by the court, delay so to do for 20 days after the motion has been taken out in any of such courts, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, and be disqualified for acting as agent for any such prize, id. s. 14.

26. If any agent is appointed after condemnation in any of the said courts, such agent shall under such penalties, register as in s. 14. his letter of attorney appointing him agent within 20 days after the date of such letter of attorney, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 15.

27. No person, except the person so appointed agent, and who shall actually discharge the duties of agent, shall receive any part, share, or proportion of any commission in respect of such agency, or any emolument, &c. out of any such commission; and all persons so appointed agents, who shall give to, or allow to be taken by any other person, and every person who shall take, either by himself, or by any other on his behalf, or for his use, or the use of any part of his family, any part of any such commission, or any emolument thereout, shall forfeit 100*l.*, and also double the value of what was so given, or allowed to be taken, or was so taken, id. s. 16.

28. The registrars of the high court of admiralty, and of all other courts of admiralty or vice-admiralty, shall duly register in a book, to be by them kept, all letters of attorney exhibited or delivered to them by any agent for any prize taken or to be taken by any of H. M.'s vessels of war, or hired armed ships, or by any agent for the receipt and distribution of any bounty-bill or bills, within 14 days after, which registry shall contain the days of delivery and entry, the dates of the letters of attorney, the names and places of abode of the agents, the names of the prizes taken, or of the ships of war or privateers of the enemy taken, burnt, sunk, or otherwise destroyed, together with the names of the vessels by which such prizes were taken, or by which such ships of war or privateers of the enemy were taken, &c. or otherwise destroyed, together with the date of the condemnation, (if any has passed thereon,) and of the appeal, (if any interposed,) and the registrars shall, on the 26th Mar., the 25th June, the 30th Sept., and the 26th Dec., in every year, or within 14 days after each of such days, so far as relates to the high court of admiralty, and with respect to the courts of vice-admiralty, as soon after each of such days as any ship shall sail for G. B., transmit unto the treasurer of such hospital or his deputy, a true copy, under their hands, of all such entries within the preceding quarter of a year; and if such registrars shall neglect to make such entries, or to transmit such copies within such times, they shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 17.

29. Every agent, when he shall register the first letters of attorney which in pursuance of this act he shall register, shall at the same time give security, with two sureties, by a joint and several bond, in 500*l.*, to the court of admiralty or vice-admiralty in which such letters are registered, for the due execution of his trust in all matters of prize agency committed to his care during the present war; and if he neglect so to do, such letters shall be void, and he shall be for ever disabled from acting as an agent in matters of prize, id. s. 18.

30. The registrars of every court of vice-admiralty shall, on the 26th Mar., the 25th June, the 30th Sept., and the 26th Dec., in every year, make out, and as soon after each of such days as any ship shall sail for G. B., transmit to the treasurer of such hospital at Greenwich, true copies of all letters of attorney so registered in such courts in the three preceding months; and of all bonds given on registering any such letters of attorney pursuant to s. 18. of this act, copies of which shall not already have been transmitted, to which copies the judges of such courts shall previously affix their seals of office; and such copies, when received by such treasurer, shall be there registered and open to inspection, by any person gratis, the charges of which copies, and affixing the seals thereto, and transmitting the same, shall be paid by such agents at the time of making such registry: and in case such registrar neglect to transcribe and transmit such copies, he shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 19.

31. Copies of such letters of attorney, and of transcripts under seal, transmitted by such registrars of all courts of admiralty, and registered by such treasurer of Greenwich hospital, shall be good evidence of the agency of the persons to whom such letter of attorney is made and shall be admitted, without further or other proof thereof, to be legal evidence in all courts of record of law or equity, id. s. 20.

32. Upon every capture, there shall be sent by the commander of the capturing ship, or some person under his authority, to the agents for such capture, a list of the persons entitled to share therein, which list shall be subscribed by the commander, lieutenants, and all the signing officers on board at the time of capture, and at the time when the list is made out and transmitted, and shall contain the names, ages, and descriptions of the persons entitled to share, the names being arranged in the same order in which they stand in the muster books, which names and descriptions shall be taken from the description book belonging to such ship, and an alphabetical list of such names shall be prefixed to such list, and the same shall be examined with and corrected by the muster books of such capturing ships, deposited in the navy office, and certified by 2 of the commissioners of the navy; and in case no such list is sent to such agents, they shall apply to the commissioners of the navy for a list of the persons entitled to share in such capture, and such last-mentioned list shall thereupon be made out from the returns in the office of such commissioners of the navy, who shall cause the same to be made out, and certify the truth thereof under the hands of 2 of them; and any person who shall alter the name or person in any list so certified, or erase or take away any name therefrom, or add any name thereto, after the same has been so certified, with intent to defraud any person, or any corporation whatsoever, shall forfeit 500*l.*: provided, that in case it appears at or before distribution, that any error has been committed in the prize list, or in the muster books transmitted to the navy office, nothing herein shall prevent the correction of such error; nor in case of the omission of any name on the distribution list, through error, shall charge the agent further than with the payment of the sum due, together with all expences of the party in recovering the same: provided, that if any agreement is made with any person not entitled under H. M.'s proclamation, or the prize act, to share in any capture, the agent, or hospital, making distribution according to such agreement, admitted by the persons entitled under such proclamation or act, shall not be liable to any penalty on that account: provided, that where any officer, petty officer, seaman, non-commissioned officer of marines, or marine, or other person actually entitled to share in any capture, shall, after distribution has been made, be proved by returns in the navy office, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the commissioners of the navy, or 3 of them, to have been actually so entitled, but omitted in the distribution list, or included in a class inferior in rank to that in which he really served, such commissioners, or 3 of them, may certify such omission or error to the board of directors of such hospital at Greenwich, who shall thereupon cause the share to which such officer, petty officer, &c. if inserted in the distribution list in his proper class, would have been entitled, to be paid out of the general fund of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize money in the hands of such treasurer of such hospital; and such treasurer, or his deputy, shall thereupon maintain, in the name of such officer, petty officer, &c. at the charge and to the use of such hospital, any suit against the agents for the recovery of the money so paid, that such officer, petty officer, &c. might himself have maintained if he had not received a satisfaction for the hospital; but if such agents are made liable to any such demands in consequence of an omission or mistake in any prize list certified to them, they may stop and retain the amount of the share for which he is so liable, out of any prize or bounty money in their hands, payable to the commander by whom such prize list was signed and certified, or his executors or administrators, or have a remedy over by action against any of them, for any charge or damage thereby sustained, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 21.

33. Where such omissions, misratings, improper descriptions, or errors happen in lists made out or certified at the navy office, the clerk who made out or compared the same with the muster books of the capturing ship shall be liable to make good to the party injured by such omission, &c. the loss sustained thereby, in like manner as any commander of any of H. M.'s ships is liable in cases where prize lists are made out by him, or any person under his authority, unless the commissioners of the navy are satisfied that the party is entitled to relief, and certify the same to the directors of Greenwich hospital; in which case the treasurer of such hospital shall pay to the persons so omitted, &c. or to their representatives, the sum they appear to be entitled to, which payment shall be made out of the general fund of unclaimed and forfeited shares of prize money in the hands of such treasurer, id. s. 22.

34. In all cases of condemnation in any vice admiralty court, where there is no claimant or appellant before the court, the judge may compel the agent, at the requisition of the captor, to give security at the time of condemnation for the faithful distribution of the proceeds, or for the remitting thereof to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or to such persons in Eng. as the captors shall appoint, under the directions of the court, for the purpose of being distributed in Eng., id. s. 23.

35. Every agent resident in the U. K. shall, within 6 weeks after any condemnation in the high court of admiralty, transmit a notice thereof to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or his deputy, and to the treasurer or paymaster of the navy, together with an account of the state of the property condemned at the time of such transmission, according to the schedule A., on pain of forfeiting 500*l.*, unless a reasonable cause be shewn to and approved by the court of admiralty, id. s. 24.

36. Every prize agent shall, after the sale of any prize is completed, and before the time of the first payment of the prize money to be distributed, (or at any time thereafter, at the direction of the court,) exhibit in the respective court of vice-admiralty in which the prize was condemned, or in the high court of admiralty, (and if such prize was condemned in any court of vice admiralty abroad, shall transmit to the high court of admiralty in Eng.) an attested copy of the detailed accounts of the sales of such prize, duly verified upon oath, together with attested copies of all vouchers required by the court, which copies so transmitted shall be deposited in the public registry thereof; and all parties interested therein may object to the charges and articles therein contained, and such court shall confirm or disallow the accounts, upon hearing the objections, and make such further order touching the same, and the distribution of the proceeds, as the case may require; and any agent who shall neglect to bring in a copy of his accounts at the time hereby directed, or who shall proceed to distribute without having exhibited and transmitted a copy of such accounts, duly verified on oath, or who shall neglect to obey any order of any court of admiralty, for the distribution of the proceeds of any such prize, shall forfeit 500*l.*, and be subject to the process of the court of admiralty, by monition and attachment, until he shall obey the order of such court; and such court may pronounce the bond given with the letters of agency to be forfeited, and levy the penalties secured thereby from the sureties, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 25.

37. Every prize agent, at the time he shall exhibit or transmit an attested copy of the detailed accounts of the sale of any prize, together with attested copies of all vouchers, to the courts of admiralty or vice admiralty respectively, as directed by this act, shall transmit another attested copy of such detailed accounts and vouchers to the treasurer of the hospital at Greenwich; and every agent who shall neglect so to do shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 26.

38. Every agent shall, 10 days before he exhibits his account of sales in the registry of the high court of admiralty, cause advertisements to be twice inserted in the London Gazette, notifying the day on which the account of sales of such prizes will be brought into the registry of the court, id. s. 27.

39. The per-centage for agency, which in no case shall exceed 5*l.* per cent., shall be charged upon the net proceeds of any prize, bounty bills, or salvage; such net proceeds to be estimated previous to any deduction for law charges, id. s. 28.

40. After the sales of any prizes taken from the enemy by any of H. M.'s ships of war or hired armed ships, in this or any former war, or after the receipt of any bounty, or other monies in the nature thereof, payable to the navy, by the agent or person authorized to receive the same, public notification, as hereinafter mentioned, shall be given by the persons or agents appointed for the payment of the several shares to the captors; (i.e.,) if the prize is condemned in the high court of admiralty of G. B., then the persons or agents to be appointed in pursuance of this act, for the appraisement and sale of such prizes, shall insert and publish such notification, under their hands respectively, together with a notification of the amount of an individual's share in each class, in the London Gazette; and if in any court of vice-admiralty, then in some gazette or newspaper of public authority, of the island or place where the prize is condemned; and if there be no gazette, or such other newspaper, then in some one of the most public newspapers of such island or place; and if no newspapers are there published, then by affixing notice to the church, or some other public building, directed by the governor; and all persons or agents publishing every such notification respectively, shall deliver to the collector, comptroller, or searcher of customs, residing at or belonging to the port or place where the prizes are condemned, or their lawful deputies, 6 of those gazettes or other newspapers in which such notification is published, together with 6 notifications of the amount of an individual's share in each class; and if no such newspapers, then they shall give 6 such notifications in writing, under their hands, together with 6 such notifications of the amount of an individual's share, and such collector, &c. shall subscribe his name on some conspicuous part of each of such gazettes, newspapers, or written notifications respectively, and forthwith deliver one of such gazettes, &c. together with one such notification of amount to the deputy, to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, resident at the place where such court of vice-admiralty is established, or to which its jurisdiction shall extend, and by the first ship which shall sail (after their receipt of such gazettes, &c.) from such port or place to G. B., shall transmit to the treasurer of the hospital at Greenwich, or his deputy, one of such gazettes, &c. together with one of such notifications of amount, with their names so subscribed to the same respectively, to be there registered, and another to the treasurer of the navy, or paymaster of the navy in London; and shall, by a second vessel, transmit in like manner to each of such officers one other of such gazettes, newspapers, or other notifications, together with one other notification of amount, marked by him, a duplicate of the former, and shall faithfully preserve the other of such 6 gazettes, &c. and the other notification of amount, with their names thereon subscribed; and at all ports and places where vice-admiralty courts with jurisdiction in prize causes are constituted, at which there shall be no officer of the customs, such gazettes, newspapers, or other notifications of distribution, together with such notifications of amount, shall be delivered to and transmitted, and kept in like manner by the registrar or deputy registrar of such vice-admiralty court; and all other places where prize or bounty money is distributed or payable, where there is no court of vice-admiralty, such gazettes, &c. together with such notifications of amount, shall be delivered to the principal civil officer of such place, or his deputy, to be transmitted and kept as aforesaid; and in every such printed or written notification, such persons or agents shall specify the names of the prizes about to be distributed, and of the capturing ships, and also the precise day of the month and year on which such captures were made, and also their places of abode, christian and surnames at full length, and the precise day of the month and year appointed for the payment of the several shares to the captors; and all such notifications with respect to prizes to be condemned in G. B., or of which being condemned abroad the distribution is made in G. B., shall be published in the London Gazette 3 days at least before any part or proportion is paid to any such persons entitled thereto; and all such notifications with respect to prizes to be condemned, in any other part of H. M.'s dominions, where the distribution is also made, there shall be delivered to such collector, comptroller, or searcher, registrar or deputy registrar, or principal civil officer or officers respectively, or such respective deputies, one day at least before any part or share of any such prizes be paid to any person entitled thereto, after which notifications, if any man's share remain in the hands of the persons or agents so appointed, either belonging to such men as shall be run from H. M.'s service, or which shall not be legally demanded and paid within 3 months next after such notification, then such shares shall go to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, 59 G. S. c. 93. s. 29.

41. Every prize agent shall, for 3 months after the distribution has commenced of the proceeds of any prize condemned in Eng.; or of which having been condemned abroad, the distribution shall have commenced in Eng., or bounty hereby granted, or money in the nature of bounty, keep an office open 2 days at least in every week, during the usual hours of attendance, for the payment of shares remaining due, which days, together with the place where such payments are to be made, shall be specified in the notification of payments published in the gazette, on pain of forfeiting 500*l.*, and at the conclusion of such 3 months he shall suspend all further payments to the captors, id. s. 30.

42. If any person or agent to be appointed for appraisement or sale of any prize taken from the enemy by any of H. M.'s vessels of war, or hired armed vessels, or for the distribution of any bounty money, shall neglect to publish, give, or deliver any notification by s. 29. pl. 40. directed to be published, given, or delivered, or shall not give, publish, or deliver, any such notification before the payment of any part of such prize or bounty money, or other money in the nature of bounty money, and within the times limited, or in the manner herein appointed, or shall not set forth in such notification the things herein directed, such person or agent shall forfeit not exceeding 100*l.*, at the discretion of the court in which the same shall be sued for; and if any collector, comptroller, or searcher of customs, registrar of any vice-admiralty court, or principal civil officer, or such deputies neglect to receive or to attest, or shall not transmit any such gazette, newspaper, or written notifications as aforesaid, as is by this act directed, every such collector, &c. shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 31.

43. The notifications in all such gazettes, newspapers, and in writing respectively, which shall be so transmitted and attested by such collector, &c., and registered at such hospital, on proof of the hand-writing of such collector, &c., shall be good evidence in all courts of law, equity, and admiralty, that the person whose name is therein set forth as the agent of the prizes therein mentioned, is such agent, id. s. 32.

44. At the end of 4 months after such notifications of distribution so given, every prize-agent and person authorized to receive any bounty money or other monies in the nature thereof, to which the navy is entitled, shall pay over all shares and balances then remaining unpaid, to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or such person as he shall appoint to receive the same; and shall likewise make out and transmit to such treasurer a true account under his hand, of the produce of all such prize, bounty, or other monies, together with an account of the payments of the several shares to the captors, which have then been by him paid, and shall verify such account on oath, which oath such treasurer or his deputy may administer; and such agent, or other person so authorized, shall, at the same time, deliver to such treasurer an authentic copy of the distribution list, on which the payments have been made, and also the original prize list delivered by the commander of the capturing ship or the commissioners of the navy to the prize agent, or such other person; and every prize agent and person authorized to receive bounty and other monies, who shall neglect, as herein directed, to pay such shares and balances within 30 days after the expiration of such 4 months, shall forfeit 100*l.*, and who have neglected to transmit and verify, within such 4 months, such account of the proceeds of such prize, bounty, or other monies, and of the distribution thereof, shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 33.

45. When any agent appointed by the captors of any prize, for the sale and distribution thereof, shall, after the proceeds of such prize, or any part thereof, or any such bounty money have been received, substitute any other agent or person to distribute and pay over to any of the captors their shares thereof, and shall remit to them any sum for distribution, such substituted agent or person, as also the original agent, shall, from the time of such sum being received by them respectively, be answerable to such hospital for all parts and shares of such sum as shall be unclaimed or forfeited, and such substituted agent or person shall not repay such unclaimed or forfeited shares to the original agent, but shall, after the time for distribution is ceased, and in the time in which prize agents are directed by this act to pay over shares or balances, pay such unclaimed and forfeited shares unto the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or his deputy, in the same manner and under the same restrictions, and subject to the same penalties for non-compliance, as is directed respecting the original agents, 54 G. S. c. 93. s. 34.

46. Every prize agent, or person authorized to receive and distribute any bounty monies, or other monies, shall, within 10 days after he shall render to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital or his deputy, and verify his account of the proceeds and distribution of any prize, bounty, or other monies, transmit to the treasurer or paymaster of the navy a copy of such account, under the like penalty for neglect, as is by s. 55. pl. 44. imposed for neglecting to render such account to such treasurer, id. s. 35.

47. After the balances are so paid over to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital or his deputy, such treasurer or his deputy, and the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, or his chief clerk, shall respectively keep an office open from 9 to 4 in the afternoon, on every day in the week, for the purpose of receiving claims for shares to be refunded according to this act; and shall jointly refund such shares, when demanded, according to the regulations in s. 49. pl. 66. contained, id. s. 36.

48. If any flag officer, or commissioned or warrant officer, shall direct by any order in writing that his share shall not be paid over to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital or his deputy, the same shall for 3 years remain with the agent, subject to such further orders as such officer may give: provided, that if at the end of 3 years such share has not been paid to the officer entitled to it, the agent shall pay the share remaining in his hands to such treasurer or his deputy, id. s. 37.

49. No deduction shall be allowed in the payments of unclaimed or forfeited shares and balances paid over to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or his deputy, for any sums not appearing upon the prize list of distribution to have been thereon paid and acknowledged, unless satisfactory vouchers from the parties entitled thereto, or their lawful attorneys, are produced, id. s. 38.

50. Every agent for any prize in any of H. M.'s settlements, colonies, or plantations abroad, or in any place out of the U. K., shall make up his accounts, and deliver up and verify the same in the vice-admiralty court in which such prize was condemned, in such manner as the court shall require, within 6 months after the commencement of the distribution of the proceeds of such prize, and shall, under the direction of the court, on the application of the deputy of the treasurer of Greenwich hospital there resident, and in such manner as shall be specified in any order, remit all unclaimed balances and shares, and all shares of run men, to such treasurer in Eng., or pay the same over to the deputy treasurer for the purpose of being remitted, at the election of the deputy, so as that the same, as to every place except the East Indies, may be paid to such treasurer within 6 months, and as to any place in the East Indies, within 12 months next after exhibiting his accounts in such court, in such manner as such court shall require, on pain of forfeiting his bond of 5000*l.*, id. s. 39.

51. Lists of all prizes accounted for to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, condemned in the high court of admiralty, or in any court of vice-admiralty, shall be transmitted 6 times in every year from the office of the clerk of the cheque at Greenwich hospital to the several persons appointed by such treasurer to receive applications and claims for prize and bounty monies, which lists shall be open to public inspection every day, between 10 and 4, gratis, id. s. 40.

52. In every case in which any vessel, having made any capture, shall not be in a port of this kingdom, or in the British or Irish or North seas at the regular time of distribution, so as to enable the officers and men to receive the same, the treasurer of such hospital, or his deputy, may cause the proceeds of such capture to be paid to him, within one month after the regular period of distribution, and when so paid to be forthwith lodged in the bank, or invested in exchequer bills or other public securities, in the names of such treasurer, the secretary, and clerk of the cheque of such hospital, till the return of the capturing ship, for the benefit of the captors; and on such return, may cause such proceeds, with all accumulations thereon, under the authority of the directors of such hospital, to be distributed within 3 months thereafter: provided that if any person entitled to share in such prize, bounty, or other money, by reason of any change of ship or other cause, shall apply for his share, such treasurer, secretary, and clerk of the cheque, may pay the same out of any other monies in their hands, and retain for the benefit of Greenwich hospital such proportion as has been so paid, together with all interest thereon, when such securities shall afterwards be sold for distribution, id. s. 41.

53. Upon every order for receiving the prize or bounty money of a petty officer, seaman, non-commissioned officer of marines or marine, these words shall be printed or written, before the same is attested; viz. 'Take notice, that no prize or bounty money can be received under this order, except by an agent duly licensed, in conformity to the act of parliament of the 54th year of king George the 3d, or by the wife, one of the parents, children, brothers or sisters of the grantors, and that every offence against the said provision of the above-recited act, is punishable as a misdemeanor,' 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 42.

54. If any person shall insert in any order for receiving prize or bounty money, after attestation thereof as before directed, the name or description of any prize or bounty money, other than what shall have been originally expressed in such order when attested, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished accordingly, id. s. 43.

55. All powers and remedies given by this act to, or that may by law be used, or actions that may be brought by, any captor to compel agents to exhibit their accounts, and verify the same, and bring in proceeds and enforce distribution, or the performance of any other duty, or for the recovery of any penalty, may be used, exercised, and enforced, on behalf of the captors, generally, or on behalf of any individual captor, by the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, or by the treasurer of the navy, id. s. 44.

56. So much of 54 G. 3. c. 93. [viz. s. 45. and sch. B.] as directs or authorizes the payment by any navy prize agent of any prize or bounty money, grants, or other allowances, upon orders made by non-commissioned officers, seamen, and marines, REP., 58 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1.

57. The payment of prize money upon orders shall be confined to the treasurer and clerk of the cheque of Greenwich hospital, and no agent appointed for the distribution of navy prize or bounty money, grant, or other allowances, whether arising from conjunct expeditions or services by the navy only, shall pay any share of the non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines, or supernumeraries, entitled thereto, upon any order or letter of attorney, or other written authority whatsoever, but shall pay the same to the said non-commissioned officers, seaman, marines, and supernumeraries, upon their respective personal applications only, upon pain of forfeiting, for every payment made otherwise than as above, 50*l.*, to be recovered by and in the name of the treasurer of the hospital, id. s. 2.

58. All orders made by non-commissioned officers, seamen, and marines, and others entitled to prize or bounty money, grants, or other allowances, shall be in the form set forth in the schedule to this act, marked (A), and shall contain in the body an exact account of the money and goods advanced by the person in whose favour such order is made, to the person making the same; and a certificate shall be printed upon every paper containing such order according to the form set forth in the schedule marked (B), and shall be duly filled up and attested as directed at the foot; and the treasurer and clerk of the cheque of the hospital shall pay upon every such order, out of the money belonging to the person making the same, so much as shall appear to be due to the payee, with legal interest, and no more, id. s. 3.

59. If any person shall knowingly insert or cause to be inserted in any such order any other date than the day on which such order shall be executed, or shall knowingly present or utter any order bearing any false date, such person shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished accordingly, id. s. 4.

60. If any person really entitled to prize or bounty money, pension, grant, or other allowance of money, on account of services on board of any vessel, shall, by the production of any false certificate, or by making any false representation, endeavour to obtain from the hospital such money, or other allowance so due, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit all such money, or other allowance, due to him on account of his services, id. s. 5.

61. Every licensed agent shall send a list of all orders he may receive from non-commissioned officers, seamen, or marines, to the agent appointed for the distribution of any prize, bounty, grant, or other allowance of money, which orders, if deposited at Greenwich hospital, shall not be revocable after the distribution of such money has commenced; and such distributing agents shall not, after receiving such list, pay to the non-commissioned officers, &c. named therein the share due to them, but shall pay the same, with the unclaimed and forfeited shares, to Greenwich hospital, to be refunded by the treasurer to them, or to the payees named in such orders, as unclaimed shares are to be; and such distributing agents shall, on request of the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, deliver to him any order deposited in their hands by the licensed agents, to be kept at such hospital, and such clerk shall give a receipt for the same, and an undertaking to produce the same whenever the production thereof is expedient, id. s. 9.

62. Upon every order made under this act, directing the payment of prize or bounty money, a stamp duty of one shilling shall be payable to H. M., and no order authorizing the receipt of shares due to more than one person shall be valid, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 46. [QU. REP., as the clause of this act authorizing such orders to be made is repealed, see pl. 56.]

63. Orders made under 43 G. 3. c. 160. [which was REP. by 45 G. 5. c. 72. s. 1., and which appears to have EXP. with the war] shall be void, except orders or powers of attorney made and executed pursuant to the laws in force at the time of their execution, by petty officers and seamen, non-commissioned officers and privates of marines, to persons standing in the relationship of either a wife or child, or father or mother, or grandfather or grandmother, or brother or sister, or uncle or aunt, or niece or nephew, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 47.

64. The treasurer of such hospital may appoint such persons to be his deputies for receiving applications and claims for prize and bounty monies, and for other the purposes of this act, at such places within the U. K. as he shall think necessary; whose duty it shall be to prepare such petitions and applications, and transmit the same, together with the certificates, to the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, as herein-after mentioned, id. s. 48.

65. Any person claiming any share or balance of any prize or bounty monies paid into Greenwich hospital, may apply to such deputy treasurer residing in any part of the U. K., and upon producing to him such certificates of service in the navy as such claimant may have, shall sign a petition or application to the directors of such hospital, to be prepared by such deputy, praying that such share or balance may be refunded to such claimant; which petition or application, together with such certificates, shall be transmitted to the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, who shall report thereon the sum due to the claimant, with the circumstances under which the same was paid into the hospital; and if he deem it necessary, refer such petition or application to the navy office, that the service of the claimant may be ascertained, and returned to such clerk of the cheque, or his chief clerk, who, if such service shall correspond with the certificates produced and transmitted by such claimant, shall certify the same to such treasurer, or his deputy, who shall thereupon send a remittance bill for the amount, in the manner and form hereinafter mentioned, or shall remit the same in such other manner as such treasurer, or his deputy, and the clerk of the cheque, or his chief clerk, shall judge more expedient, id. s. 49.

66. Every person claiming any share or balance of prize or bounty money paid into Greenwich hospital, and residing in any part of the U. K. where there shall be no such deputy-treasurer of such hospital, may apply for such share or balance by letter or otherwise, to the treasurer or clerk of the cheque at such royal hospital, and who shall thereupon furnish him with blank petitions and forms, to be filled up and attested by the minister, churchwardens, or elders of the parish in which such claimant shall reside; which petitions, when filled up, shall be transmitted to such clerk of the cheque, together with any certificate of the service of such claimant in the navy, which such claimant may have; and when the same has been returned from the navy office upon such attestation and certificate (in case the clerk of the cheque shall refer them to that office), and a certificate obtained from the navy office of the service of such claimant, corresponding with the certificates produced by him, such share or balance shall be forthwith paid to such claimant, on application at Greenwich hospital; or if such claimant shall not be able conveniently to attend at such hospital to demand the same, a remittance bill shall be forwarded for the amount, or the same shall be remitted for the use of such claimant, in such other manner as such treasurer or his deputy, and the clerk of the cheque, or his chief clerk, shall judge more expedient, id. s. 50.

67. The treasurer of such hospital, or his deputy, shall make out 2 bills for every sum which they have occasion to pay to any person of the description in s. 50. mentioned; which bills shall be duplicates, and joined together with oblique lines, &c., in such manner as such treasurer or his deputy shall think proper, and shall be payable to such person by the receiver-general of the land-tax for any county, riding, or city, within the U. K., collector of the customs for any port, or collector of excise for any collection in the U. K. respectively, near which such person shall reside, according to the appointment of such bills; and such bills, being numbered and dated, shall be signed by such treasurer or his deputy, and attested by the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, or his chief clerk, and be according to the following form; viz.

Royal Hospital, Greenwich.

Sir,

Pay to — of — in the county of — upon producing the duplicate hereof, together with a certificate under the hands of the captain and one other signing officer of the ship to which such — belongs, (in case he is in H. M.'s naval service), or of the minister and churchwardens [or, in Scot., under the hands of the minister and two elders] of the parish where he resides, (in case he is not in such naval service), that to the best of their knowledge and belief he is the person named in such bill, the sum of — l. sterling, being on account of monies due to the said — for captures made by H. M.'s ship —, if the same shall be demanded within 6 calendar months from the date hereof, otherwise you are to return this bill to the treasurer of the said royal hospital.

Attested — Treasurer or his deputy.

— Clerk of the cheque of the said hospital, or his chief clerk.

To the receiver-general of the land-tax of the county of —.

To the collector of the customs of the port of —.

To the collector of excise at —.

N. B. The personating or falsely assuming the name and character of any person entitled or supposed to be entitled to prize money, for services performed in H. M.'s navy, in order to receive the same, is felony without benefit of clergy.

And as soon as such bills shall be so made and signed, such treasurer or his deputy, shall cut asunder indentwise, through the oblique lines, &c., and shall cause one of them to be transmitted to the payee, and the other to the receiver-general of the land-tax, collector of the customs, or collector of the excise, on whom such bills shall be so drawn; who, if such bills shall be delivered to either of them within 6 months, if in G. B. and if in Ire., then within 9 months from the date thereof, shall examine such duplicate, together with the certificate to be produced, and enquire into the truth thereof by the oath of the person producing the same, or by his solemn affirmation, (which oath or affirmation they may administer,) and upon being satisfied of the truth of such certificate, shall testify the same on the back of such bill, and immediately pay to such person, without fee, the sum directed, taking his receipt on the back of the bill; but in case the duplicate of such bill shall not be delivered, and the payment thereof be demanded within 6 or 9 calendar months from the date, as the case may be, or if a proper certificate of the claimant be not likewise produced, then such receiver-general, &c. shall return such bill to the treasurer of such royal hospital, who shall cancel such bill, and after the cancelling, such prize and bounty money shall remain payable, as if the said bill had not been made out; all which bills and receipts, and also all other receipts for prize and bounty money, which shall be at any time refunded by such treasurer, shall be free from stamp duty, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 51.

68. All such remittance bills which shall be drawn upon and paid by any receiver-general of the land-tax, collector of customs or of excise, upon being delivered at the office of the treasurer of such hospital, shall be repaid by such treasurer to such receiver-general, &c., or to their respective orders, id. s. 52.

69. If any such receiver-general, or collector of customs or excise, to whom the duplicate of any of such bills shall be tendered for payment, shall not then have public money sufficient to answer the same, and shall therefore delay the immediate payment thereof, they shall indorse on the back of such duplicate the day of its being so tendered, and the cause of delay to pay the same, and shall forthwith transmit such duplicate, with his certificate of non-payment, to the clerk of the cheque of the hospital at Greenwich, who shall take steps for remitting the amount of the duplicate to the person entitled to it; and if, upon complaint made to the respective commissioners of the land-tax, customs, or excise, it appears that such receiver-general, or collector of customs or excise, hath unnecessarily and wilfully delayed the payment of such bill, 3 of such commissioners may convict and fine such offender not exceeding 50*l.*, and such fine shall be levied and recovered in the same manner, as any conviction may be made, and any penalty may be levied and recovered for any offence against any law by which any customs or excise is imposed or laid; and such fine shall go to the informer, id. s. 53.

70. No person paying any share or balance of prize money refunded by Greenwich hospital shall receive any fee on account thereof, or of any thing done relating to the procuring or paying the same, on pain of forfeiting 100*l.*, id. s. 54.

71. In all cases in which any claim of prize or bounty money is made upon any prize agent, accompanied with a requisition in writing from the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, or the officer for prizes in the navy pay office, in the form to this act annexed, marked (C), requiring that such claim may be either satisfied, or a reason assigned for its disallowance, such prize agent shall either pay the same, or state in writing under his hand the reason of refusing to do so, and deliver the same to the claimant presenting such requisition; and if the reason assigned be, that such claim has been satisfied, such agent shall specify the name and place of abode of the person by whom the amount was received, and under what authority, from the claimant, and at what time the same was paid; and if any such agent shall omit, at the time of such claim made, accompanied by such requisition, or within 2 days afterwards, to give and subscribe such information as aforesaid, he shall forfeit to such claimant double the sum claimed, to be recovered with costs in an action of debt, wherein it shall be sufficient for the plaintiff to declare against the defendant for so much money had and received by him to and for the use of such plaintiff; and proof of such claim, and of the service of such requisition upon such agent, shall be and be deemed sufficient evidence in support of any such action, id. s. 55.

72. No person within the U. K. shall receive any wages, pay, prize money, or bounty money, or money in the nature of bounty money, due to any petty officer, seaman, non-commissioned officer of marines, or marine, on account of his services respectively on board any of H. M.'s ships, or in the capture of any fortress upon the land, or any arms, ammunition, stores of war, goods, or treasure, on any conjunct expedition of sea and land forces, under any such orders as in s. 47. pl. 65. mentioned, other than persons who are licensed as hereinafter mentioned for that purpose: provided, that nothing herein shall prevent any such petty officers, &c. from giving such orders to receive their wages, pay, prize money, or bounty money, to their wives or parents, children, brothers, or sisters, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 56.

73. Any person who shall falsely represent himself to be within any of such degrees of relationship, in order to enable himself to receive any such prize money, &c., due on account of the services of any such petty officer, &c. under any such order, or who, not being within any such degree of relationship, and not being licensed, shall receive any wages, pay, prize money, &c., for the use of any such petty officer, &c., or if any agent or person whose licence has been revoked shall offer himself to receive, or shall receive any such wages, pay, prize money, &c., not being within any such degrees of relationship, and be thereof duly convicted, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, id. s. 57.

74. Every person, not being a prize agent, and having given security as such, according to this act, before he shall act as an agent for receiving the wages, pay, prize money, bounty money, or other allowances of money of any such petty officers, &c., shall take out a licence for that purpose from the treasurer of the navy, who shall grant the same, on good security being given by bond to H. M. in 300*l.*, that such person so taking out such licence shall demean himself properly, and duly account to all persons for whom or for whose use any such wages, pay, prize money, or bounty money, shall have come to his hands, and for which licence 20*s.*, besides the stamp duties, shall be paid to the officer of prizes in the office of the treasurer of the navy, who shall pay over the same to the paymaster of incidents, towards the incidental expences therein incurred; which licence shall be in force for 3 years from the date thereof, id. s. 58.

75. If after the taking out of any such licence, it appears to the treasurer of the navy, that any such licensed agent hath abused the trust reposed in him, by not duly accounting to his respective employers for the sums by him received on their behalf, or by practising any fraud on them, then such treasurer, by any writing under his hand to be delivered to such licensed agent, or left at his last or usual place of abode, or place where his business of agency is carried on, may revoke his licence; which revocation, if such agent's place of transacting agency business shall be in London, or within the bills of mortality, shall be published in the London Gazette; and if in the country, also in some public newspaper in circulation at or near to the place where such agent shall transact his business of agency; and thenceforth the power and authority of such agent to demand and receive any wages, pay, prize money, &c. due on account of the services of any such petty officers, &c. shall absolutely cease, id. s. 59.

76. The names and places of abode and of transacting agency business of every such licensed agent, shall be inserted in a list, and hung up in the hall of the navy pay office in Somerset Place, and in each of the navy pay offices at the outposts of the U. K., for public inspection, and which lists shall be renewed as occasion requires, id. s. 60.

77. As often as any such licensed agent shall remove or change his place of conducting the business of agency, he shall, within 14 days after, give notice thereof in writing to the treasurer of the navy, on pain of forfeiting 50*l.*, id. s. 61.

78. All letters or packets addressed to such treasurer or clerk of the cheque of such hospital, upon any business or affairs relative to prize matters, or to such hospital, shall be free from postage; and also that all letters or packets sent by such treasurer, or by the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, upon such business or affairs, or by the officer for prize matters in the navy pay office, upon prize matters as hereinafter directed, shall be free of postage; and all letters and packets relating to such matters, that shall be forwarded by such treasurer or clerk of the cheque, or by such officer for the prize matters in the navy pay office, shall be under cover, with the words "pursuant to act of parliament, 54 George 3." printed upon the same; and such treasurer or clerk of the cheque of such hospital, or officer for prize matters in the navy pay office, shall write his name under the same; and they are hereby strictly prohibited from inclosing or sending under such covers any writing, paper, or parcel whatsoever, excepting such as relate to such business or affairs, id. s. 62.

79. If any such treasurer or clerk of the cheque, or officer for prize matters, shall send under any of such covers, any writing, paper, or parcel, other than those relating to such business or affairs, he shall forfeit 100*l.*, id. s. 63.

80. All commanders of H. M.'s vessels of war, or hired armed ships, shall transmit to the treasurer of the navy, and to the clerk of the cheque of such hospital, accounts in writing of all prizes taken, with the name of the port to which the capture was sent, with the name and place of abode of the agent, stating whether it is a sole or joint capture, and, if joint, the names of the several ships aiding in such capture, with the date of the capture, and the place where the same was made, 54 G. 5. c. 93. s. 64.

81. The prize and bounty money due to the representatives of petty officers, seamen, and marines deceased, shall be paid only to their representatives, or their lawful attorneys, upon production of the cheque to be granted by the inspectors of seamen's wills, id. s. 65.

82. The expences incurred in executing this act, and the sums paid in remunerating the officers of the navy office, navy pay office, or of Greenwich hospital, shall be subject to the discretion of the commissioners of the navy, as far as the same relate to officers of, or persons employed in the navy office, or otherwise under their orders, of the treasurer of the navy, as far as the same relate to officers of, or persons employed in the navy pay office, and of the board of directors of the hospital, as to all officers and persons employed or belonging to Greenwich hospital, and shall be paid by such board out of the interest of unclaimed shares, and shares of run-men, invested in government securities, or if necessary, out of the principal sums in the hands of their treasurer, on account of such shares of run-men, the accounts of such remunerations and expenditures being annually returned to parliament; and the commissioners of the navy, and the treasurer of the navy respectively, shall quarterly cause an account to be sent of the amount of such expences to such board, who shall immediately cause the same to be paid to the order of the said commissioners and treasurer respectively, id. s. 66.

83. All fees heretofore paid by such hospital at the navy office, for tracing the services of persons claiming shares of prize or bounty money, shall cease, id. s. 67.

84. No person employed by Greenwich hospital in executing this act, shall act as an agent for prizes, or be concerned, directly or indirectly, in the business thereof, under the penalty of 500*l.*, id. s. 68.

85. If any person shall falsely make oath to any of the matters required to be verified on oath, or suborn any other person so to do, such person shall suffer the like pains as are incurred by persons committing wilful and corrupt perjury; and that if any person shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any commission for war or letter of marque, or any warrant for making out the same, or any certificate required or directed by this act to be given for obtaining the same, or shall publish or make use thereof, or any such certificate, knowing the same to be counterfeited, erased, altered, or falsified, such person shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 69.

86. All persons hereby directed to transmit any of the accounts, who shall neglect to transmit the same to the treasurer of such hospital, or his deputy, within the time before limited, shall forfeit 100*l.*, and pay the expence of any application to any court to compel the production and delivery of the same, id. s. 70.

87. If any fraud, collusion, or deceit shall be wittingly or willingly made, used, committed, permitted, or done or suffered in making, stating, or balancing such accounts, then every person duly convicted, and his aiders and abettors, shall forfeit 500*l.*, id. s. 71.

88. Process of captures before 1st Jan. 1805, to be distributed according to this act, and agents to account, &c. accordingly, id. s. 72. [Exp.]

89. Registrars shall send to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital within 2 years after the passing of this act, an account of all monies paid to the courts of admiralty up to 1st Jan., 1812; and at the same time shall remit the same to such hospital; and the receipt of such treasurer or his deputy, to the registrar paying such money, shall be a good discharge, and with respect to all monies which have been so paid to such registrars since 1st Jan. 1812, or which shall hereafter be so paid, and which shall remain in their hands for 12 calendar months after the prizes, from which such monies shall have proceeded, have been finally adjudged to the captors, unclaimed by such captors, or by any person on their behalf, the judges of such courts respectively, upon application by the treasurer of such hospital or his deputy, may order payment thereof to such treasurer or his deputy; which several sums, when so paid, shall be distributed among the captors or their legal representatives, by the treasurer and clerk of the cheque of such hospital, in like manner, and subject to the same regulations, as in cases of distribution by the agents of the captors, id. s. 73.

90. The treasurer and clerk of the cheque of such hospital, as they see occasion, may issue precepts under their hands, directed to such person licensed, as in s. 58. pl. 74. before mentioned, and whom they believe have received prize or bounty monies upon orders executed since the passing of this act, requiring them, within 2 calendar months next after the time at which such precept shall have been served, to transmit upon oath to such treasurer and clerk of the cheque, according to the directions contained in the said precept, (which oath any justice of the peace or magistrate, or the treasurer or deputy treasurer of such hospital may administer) an account of all monies received by such persons upon such orders executed, and in case the same or any part thereof has been paid over, then to whom the same was so paid; and shall at the same time remit to the treasurer or deputy treasurer of such royal hospital, as may be required by such precept, such part of such monies as remain in their hands; and in case such monies shall not be so paid over or remitted to such treasurer or deputy treasurer within the time limited, the same shall be recoverable by action for money had and received or otherwise, in the name of the commissioners and governors of such hospital; and the same, when so recovered, shall be for the use of the parties beneficially entitled thereto, and be otherwise applied as forfeited and unclaimed shares of prize and bounty monies are by this act directed; and in case any such person, upon whom any such precept shall be served, shall neglect to transmit such account within such time, he shall forfeit to the use of such hospital 20*l.*, to be recovered by action of debt, to be brought in the name of such commissioners and governors of such hospital, in any courts of record at Westminster, unless sufficient cause shall be shewn to the satisfaction of the board of directors of such royal hospital, why such precepts have not been complied with, 54 G. 5. c. 93. s. 74.

91. In case any such person, upon whom any such precept has been served, shall neglect to pay obedience thereto, and shall, in consequence thereof pay the penalty incurred by such disobedience, the treasurer and clerk of the cheque of such hospital, may nevertheless repeat such precept, until the accounts required shall have been duly rendered; and such person shall be liable to a separate penalty of 20*l.* for every precept to be served upon him or them, to which due obedience is not paid, to be recovered as aforesaid, id. s. 75.

92. The registrars of the high court of appeals and high court of admiralty respectively, shall, on 26th Mar., 25th June, 30th Sept., and 26th Dec., in every year, transmit to the treasurer of such royal hospital or his deputy, and to the treasurer of the navy, a list of all the prizes adjudged in their courts, in the 3 months preceding, together with the names of the capturing ships and their commanders, and of the agents for the captors, and the dates of the captures and sentences, id. s. 76.

93. The registrars of every vice-admiralty court shall, on 26th Mar., 26th June, 30th Sept., and 26th Dec., in every year, or so soon after each of such days as any ship shall sail for Eng., transmit to the registrar of the high court of admiralty, and the treasurer of the hospital at Greenwich, a list of all the prizes adjudged in their courts during the preceding quarter, together with the dates of the captures, the names of the capturing ships and their commanders, the agents of the captors, a copy of the decretal part of the sentences upon the same; and at the same time deliver a duplicate of the same to the deputy of such treasurer, resident where such courts of vice-admiralty shall be established, or to which their jurisdiction shall extend; which lists shall be hung up for public inspection in the registry at Doctors' Commons, together with similar lists of the prizes adjudged in the high court of admiralty, and in the court of appeal; and in case any such registrar of any vice-admiralty court shall neglect to transmit such lists, or to deliver duplicates thereof, at the times and as aforesaid, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, id. s. 77.

94. In all cases where the registrar of any vice-admiralty court shall have neglected to make the returns of prizes proceeded against in the respective courts as required by law, he shall forfeit a like sum of 50*l.*, unless the returns shall be transmitted in manner above required within 18 months, so far as the same relate to the East Indies, and within 9 months from every other vice-admiralty court in H. M.'s foreign dominions, id. s. 78.

95. "Whereas provision should be made for the speedy and effectual examination of all accounts relating to prizes taken by H. M.'s ships:" Be it ENACTED, that the treasurer of the navy may appoint a person to examine all such accounts, and every prize-agent and person who shall be empowered to receive and distribute any bounty-monies or other monies for the use of the officers and crews of any of H. M.'s ships of war, by reason of any capture or seizure made by them, subject to this act, shall, before he exhibit his account of sales in the high court of admiralty, transmit a copy thereof to the treasurer of the navy, in order to be submitted to the examination of the officer so to be appointed by him, id. s. 79.

96. When the person so to be appointed has examined such accounts so transmitted to him, and is satisfied therewith, he shall give to such agent or other person two certificates signed by himself, setting forth the names of the prize and of the capturing ship, and the amount of the nett proceeds for distribution, one of which certificates such agent or other person shall transmit to the treasurer of Greenwich Hospital, together with a copy of his accounts and vouchers exhibited in the high court of admiralty, id. s. 80.

97. When such agent or other person shall deliver his accounts for examination, he shall likewise deliver a scheme for the distribution of the nett proceeds to the captors of the prize in question, according to the following forms:—

For all Captures made subsequent to June 1808.

Ships, &c. entitled to share.	Names of Distributing Agents for each Ship.	Number of Persons in each Class, with the Amount of an Individual Share.								Proportion due to each Ship.
		1st Class, each £51 15 3 $\frac{1}{2}$	2d Class, each £8 15 3 $\frac{1}{2}$	3d Class, each £5 1 10 $\frac{1}{2}$	4th Class, each £1 16 0	5th Class, each £1 4 0	6th Class, each £0 12 0	7th Class, each £0 8 0	8th Class, each £0 4 0
Ship No. 1	A. & B.	1	7	10	41	13	253	83	29	£ s. d. 449 11 14
2	C. & D.	1	3	7	10	6	54	14	12	185 16 3 $\frac{1}{2}$
	E. & F.									57 15 5 $\frac{1}{2}$
										— 1 2 $\frac{1}{2}$
										693 3 11

id. s. 81.

98. An allowance shall be made for such examination by the agent or person delivering such accounts; and the sum so paid shall be charged by such agent or other persons in his account for distribution; such allowance to be regulated after the following proportions: if the nett proceeds for distribution amount to

£200 and are under £500 - 2	£6000 and are under £7000 - 9
500 - 1000 - 3	7000 - 8000 - 10
1000 - 2000 - 4	8000 - 9000 - 11
2000 - 3000 - 5	9000 - 10000 - 12
3000 - 4000 - 6	10000 - 15000 - 13
4000 - 5000 - 7	15000 and upwards - 15
5000 - 6000 - 8

id. s. 82.

99. If, upon the examination of any account so exhibited, it shall appear that the full value of any prize taken, or bounty, has not been stated in the account made up by the agent for distribution, or if upon such examination any sum is disallowed as improperly charged against the captors, then all further sums so appearing to be due to the captors, and recovered by the authority of any competent court, shall be considered as a part of the proceeds to be distributed among the captors; and if by any delay in recovering the same, such sum cannot be included in the first distribution, they shall be paid to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital or his deputy, to be distributed to the captors or their legal representatives, by the treasurer and clerk of the cheque of such hospital, in like manner and subject to the same regulations as in cases of distribution by the agents of the captors, id. s. 83.

100. An attested account shall be annually rendered to the treasurer of the navy and treasurer of the royal hospital at Greenwich, by such examiner of prize accounts, of all sums received as allowances for examination, and out of the same shall be paid all charges incurred in carrying into effect this act, with respect to the examining of prize accounts, together with such remuneration for such examiner as shall by the treasurer of the navy be thought reasonable; and whatever balance shall remain after satisfying such charges shall be paid to the treasurer of Greenwich hospital, id. s. 84.

101. There shall be laid annually before both houses of parliament, within 14 days after their first meeting, by the treasurer of the navy, an account of the charges and remuneration so allowed, id. s. 85.

102. Where the offence of taking a false oath, or suborning any person so to do, or any of the offences by this act made cognizable, in any of H. M.'s courts of record in G. B., shall be committed out of this realm, the same may be laid, tried, and determined in any county in Eng., as if the same had been actually committed within the body of such county, id. s. 86.

103. All penalties imposed by this act, whosoever the same shall arise, may be recovered by action of debt, &c. in any of H. M.'s courts of record in G. B., or monition and attachment thereon, in the high court of admiralty, unless in cases where any other mode is by this act directed; and all penalties imposed by this act, which shall arise in any part of H. M.'s dominions abroad, may be recovered in any court of record of the colony, territory, or place where the same shall arise, or in any vice-admiralty court having jurisdiction there, id. s. 87.

104. In all cases in which any agent or person is by this act made subject to the forfeiture of any sum equal to any money remaining in his hands, or to the amount of any balances or shares, such sum shall, on recovery thereof, go to the use of the person aggrieved by his misconduct, and all pecuniary penalties by this act imposed, other than as aforesaid, and other than such as are by this act to be otherwise applied, shall go to Greenwich hospital, and shall be sued for in the name of the commissioners and governors thereof, id. s. 88. [see s. 89. tit. SEAMEN.]

105. Actions against any person, for any thing done under this act, shall be brought within 3 years next after the committing of such thing, save as to things arising out of captures in any former war: provided that if any such action or suit is commenced, such person may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited, discontinues or forbears further prosecution, or if judgment is given for the defendant, such defendant shall recover treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 90.

SCHEDULE (A.)—Form of Condemnations to be signed by the prize-agent, and transmitted to Greenwich Hospital, agreeably to the 25d sect. pl. 54. of 54 G. 3. c. 93.

State of the property condemned, and in what it consists, whe- ther sold or part sold only, the produce of such part as is sold, and in what the un- sold part consists.	Decretal part of sentence, whether for capture, sal- vage, or head money, &c.	Date of appeal, if any.	Date of sen- tence.	Comman- der's name.	Capturing ship, or ships entitled to share.	Master's name.	Name of prize.	Date of cap- ture.

SCHEDULE (B.) is REP. 58 G. 3. c. 64. s. 1. pl. 56.

SCHEDULE (C.)—Act of parliament, 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 55. [see pl. 71.]

I request that the prize-money noted on the document which will be produced herewith may be paid, or that a reason may be assigned for its disallowance, in the manner pointed out in the above act of parliament.
A. B. Officer for prizes; or, C. D. Clerk of the cheque of Greenwich Hospital, (as the case may be.)

SCHEDULE (A.) of 58 G. 3. c. 64. (see s. 3. pl. 58.)

Take notice, that no prize money can be received under this order, except by an agent duly licensed in conformity to the act of parliament of the 54th year of king George the 3d, or by the wife, one of the parents, or children of the grantor.

[Here insert the place where and time when the order is made.]

— Day of — 18 — .

At 7 days' sight pay to — or his order, the sum of — out of the amount of my share of prize or bounty money for the capture of — [Here insert the names of the prizes and time of capture, or give such other description of them as shall be satisfactory to the agent and the officers of Greenwich hospital,] when serving on board H. M.'s ship or vessel, the — in quality of — being for — advanced to me by the said — in money, and — l. for slops or goods furnished to me by the said — .

To the proper officers of Greenwich hospital.

SCHEDULE (B.) of 58 G. 3. c. 64. (see s. 3. pl. 58.)

These are to certify, that we have examined the said — who signed the above order in our presence, and from — the documents he has shewn us, viz. [here insert the nature of the documents, whether they are invalid tickets, certificates or otherwise, and by what officer they are signed] and his answers to our questions, we have reason to believe that he was serving on board the said ship at the time of making the captures above specified, and has received the money and slops above mentioned; he says he was born at — in the county of —; that he is — years of age, of a — complexion, — eyes, and — hair, [if the party is discharged from the service, state the time and cause of discharge.] Given under our hands — .

Note. — This certificate to be signed by the captain or commanding officer, and one other signing officer, of the ship to which the party belongs. If discharged from the service, and resident at any place where there is a deputy or agent of the hospital, to be signed by that deputy. If within 4 miles of the hospital, by the clerk of the cheque or his first clerk. If at any other place within the bills of mortality, by the officer for prizes in the navy pay office, or his assistant. If by marines at head quarters, where there is no deputy to the hospital, to be signed by the colonel or commanding officer and the adjutant. If by any person at sick quarters, to be signed by the surgeon and one of his assistants; but where there is a deputy, to be signed by such deputy. If at any other place in Eng. to be signed by the minister and one of the churchwardens; and if in Scot. by the minister and one of the elders.'

PRÆMUNIRE.

1. PRÆMUNIRE FOR SUING TO A FOREIGN REALM, OR impeaching of judgment given, 27 E. 3. S. 1. c. 1. [AMD. 38 E. 3. S. 1. c. 4. CONF. 38 E. 3. S. 2. c. 1. See the statutes of provision of benefices, PROVISOR, and for the authority of courts ecclesiastical, 24 H. 8. c. 12. that tit.; but see putting in execution bulls from the court of Rome made high treason, 15 El. c. 2., PAPIST, pl. 13.]

2. All people of the king's liegeance, which shall draw any out of the realm, in plea whereof the cognizance pertaineth to the king's court, or of things whereof judgment be given in the king's court, or which sue in the court of any other to defeat judgments given in the king's court, shall have a day containing 2 months, by warning to be made to them in the place where their possessions be, or where they have lands, by the sheriff or other the king's minister, to appear before H. M. in council or chancery, or before the justices of either bench, or other H. M.'s justices to the same deputed, to answer in their proper persons to H. M. of the contempts so done; and if they come not at such day, they and their aiders, attornies, notaries, &c. shall be out of the king's protection, and their lands and goods shall be forfeited to him, and their bodies shall be imprisoned, and ransomed at the king's will, and a writ shall be made to take them by their bodies, and to seize their lands and goods into the king's hands; and if it be returned that they be not found, they shall be put in the exigent and outlawed, 27 Ed. 3. S. 1. c. 1. s. 1.

3. But when they come before being outlawed, and will yield them to prison to be judged, and to receive what the court will award, they shall be thereto received; the forfeiture of lands and goods abiding in force if they do not yield within such 2 months, id. s. 2.

4. All bonds in the third person, binding people in another court out of the realm shall be void, 38 E. 3. S. 1. c. 4.

5. THE STATUTE OF PROVISION AND PRÆMUNIRE, 16 R. 2. c. 5.

6. If any do purchase or pursue in the court of Rome, or elsewhere, any translations, processes, and sentences of excommunication, bulls, instruments, or any other thing which toucheth the king, against him, his crown, or realm, and they which bring the same within the realm, or receive them, or make thereof notification or execution within the realm or without, they, their notaries, abettors, &c. shall be out of the king's protection, and their lands and goods be forfeit to the king, and their bodies shall be attached and brought before the king and council, to answer to such cases; or process shall be made by præmunire facias, as it is ordained by other statutes, [viz. 27 E. 3. S. 1. c. 1., 38 E. 3. S. 2. ss. 1—4.] concerning provisions, and others suing to foreign courts, id. ib.

7. WHOSOEVER BY ANY PROCESS out of any ecclesiastical court of this realm, or without, or by pretence of any spiritual jurisdiction, shall inquiet or molest any person or body politic, for any manors, lands, tenements, &c. of any bishopric, monastery, priory, &c. or for any other hereditament, shall incur the danger of a præmunire, under the 16 R. 2. c. 5., 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 40.

8. NO PERSON SHALL SLAY OR KILL any person attainted on præmunire, on any pretence whatever, (s. 21.) saving always the due execution of all persons attainted for any offence, whereon judgment of death may lawfully be given under this statute or otherwise, and saving always all such pains of death, or other punishment as might heretofore without danger of law be done, on any person that shall send or bring into the realm, or within the same shall execute any summons, sentence, or process, against any person, from the bishop of Rome, or by or from the authority of the same, 5 El. c. 1. ss. 21, 22. [See the rest of this act, OFFICES, PAPIST.]

PROHIBITION.

1. ARTICLES AGAINST THE KING'S PROHIBITION, Stat. Incert. Temp. xx. 8vo. ed. 415.

2. A WRIT OF PROHIBITION framed in the statute Articuli Cleri, Stat. Incert. Temp. xxi. 8vo. ed. 415. [Both these acts seem superseded by the 9 E. 2. cc. 1—4. See the editor's note at the head of Circumspecte Agatis, 13 E. 1., 8vo. ed. 227.]

3. CIRCUMSPECTE AGATIS, 13 E. 1. S. 4.—The king to his judges: Use yourselves circumspectly in matters concerning the bishop of Norwich and his clergy, not punishing if they hold plea in court christian of such things as be mere spiritual (viz.) of penance enjoined by prelates for deadly sin: as fornication, adultery, and such like, for which sometimes corporal, and sometimes pecuniary penance is enjoined; also if a prelate punish for leaving the churchyard unclosed, or the church uncovered or undocked, for which pecuniary penance must be enjoined; also if a parson demand of his parishioners oblations and tithes due and accustomed, or if any parson sue another parson for tithes greater or smaller so that the fourth of the value of the benefice be not demanded; also if a parson demand a mortuary in places where they have used to be given; also if a prelate of the church, or a patron, demand of a parson a pension due to him, all such demands shall be made in the spiritual court, 13 Ed. 1. 8vo. ed. 227. [See further, 9 Ed. 2. cc. 1, 2. 4. pl. 6.]

4. For laying violent hands on a clerk, and in cause of defamation, it shall be tried in the spiritual court, where money is not demanded, but the proceeding is for the punishment of the sin, and likewise for breaking an oath. In all such cases the spiritual judge shall take cognizance, notwithstanding the king's prohibition, id. ibid.

5. THE WRIT OF CONSULTATION.—When ecclesiastical judges do surcease in causes moved before them by force of the king's prohibition, in cases where remedy could not be given to the complainants in the king's court, the chancellor or the C. J. of the king, upon sight of the libel in such cause, at the instance of the plaintiff, if they see that the case cannot be redressed by writ out of chancery, shall write to the ecclesiastical judges to proceed therein, notwithstanding such prohibition, 18 Ed. 1. S. 5.

6. OF PROHIBITION IN SUITS RELATING TO TITHES, PENANCE, violence to clerks, and defamation, 9 Ed. 2. cc. 1—4. Art. Cleri.

7. In tithes, oblations, obventions, mortuaries, (when propounded under these names), the king's prohibition shall hold no place, although the value may be estimated at a sum certain. But if a clerk or a religious man do sell his tithes, being gathered in his barn or otherwise, for money, if the money is demanded before a spiritual judge, the king's prohibition shall lie, for by the sale the spiritual goods are made temporal, and the tithes turned into chattels, id. c. 1.

8. If debate arise upon the right of tithes having original from the right of patronage, and the quantity of such tithes do come to the fourth part of the goods of the church, the king's prohibition shall lie, id. c. 2. s. 1.

9. Prohibition shall lie for pecuniary penance enjoined and demanded by a prelate; but if prelates enjoin a penance corporal, and the person to be punished will redeem the same by money, if the same is demanded before a spiritual judge, the prohibition shall not lie, id. c. 2. s. 2.

10. If any lays violent hands on a clerk the amends for the peace broken shall be made before the king, and for excommunication before a prelate, that penance corporal may be enjoined, which if the offender will redeem with money to the prelate or party grieved, it may be required before the prelate, nor shall the king's prohibition lie, id. c. 3.

11. In defamations the prelates shall correct the king's prohibition, notwithstanding first enjoining a penance corporal, which if the offender will redeem with money, the prelate may receive it, though the king's prohibition be shewed, id. c. 4.

12. NO PROHIBITION SHALL LIE WHERE TITHE IS DEMANDED of a new mill, id. c. 5.

13. BECAUSE PERSONS INDICTED IN THE SHERIFFS TURNS and delivered before the justices, sue in the spiritual court against such indictors, it is ordained that no prohibition shall lie in such case, 1 Ed. 3. St. 2. c. 11.

14. NO PROHIBITION SHALL BE AWARDED but where the king hath cognizance, 18 Ed. 3. St. 3. c. 5.

15. A PROHIBITION SHALL BE GRANTED WHERE A SUIT shall be commenced in a spiritual court for sylvæ cædua, 45 Ed. 3. c. 3. [see 2 & 3 Ed. 6. c. 13. s. 15.]

16. NO PROHIBITION SHALL BE ALLOWED AFTER CONSULTATION once duly granted, notwithstanding any other prohibition be delivered, provided the libel be not enlarged or otherwise altered, 50 & 51 Ed. 3. c. 4.

PROPHECY.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO DECLARE FALSE PROPHECIES ON OCCASION OF NAMES, ARMS, or badges, to be felony, 33 H. 8. c. 14. [REF. 1 Ed. 6. c. 12., 1 M. S. 1. c. 1.]
2. AGAINST FOND AND FANTASTICAL PROPHECIES, 3 & 4 Ed. 6. c. 15. [EXP.]

(STATUTE in force.)

1. AGAINST FOND AND FANTASTICAL PROPHECIES, 5 El. c. 15. and recital in s. 1.

2. Every person who shall advisedly and directly advance, publish, and set forth by writing, printing, signing, or other open speech or deed, to any person any prophecy on occasion of any arms, fields, beasts, badges, or such other like things, accustomed in arms, cognizances, or signets, or upon or by reason of any time, year, or day, name bloodshed or war, to the intent to make any rebellion or other disturbance in these dominions, shall be imprisoned for a year, and forfeit 10*l.* for every such offence, id. s. 3.

3. For 2nd offence he shall suffer imprisonment for life, and forfeit all his goods and chattels, real and personal, one moiety to H. M. and the other to the party suing in any court of record by action or information, without essoin, &c. allowed, id. s. 3.

4. Every justice of assize of oyer and terminer, and of peace, shall have full power under this act to hear and determine every such offence committed within the limits of his commission, id. s. 4.; but prosecutions under this act must be commenced within 6 months after the offence, id. s. 5.

PROTECTIONS.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. CONCERNING PROTECTIONS FOR PERSONS in the king's service in war, 9 H. 5. St. 1. c. 3., 4 H. 6. c. 2., 14 Ed. 4. c. 2., 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 4., 5 & 5 H. 7. cc. 2, 3., 3 H. 8. c. 4., 14 & 15 H. 8. c. 14. [all Exp.]

2. CONCERNING PROTECTIONS FOR THOSE who go into France with the king, 8 H. 6. c. 15. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FORASMUCH AS MANY PURCHASE THE PROTECTION of the king, affirming that they were out of the realm in the king's service, if the adversary will challenge the protection, and aver that they were within the four seas, and out of the king's service, in a place certain, so that they might have conveniently appeared, their challenge shall be entered, and the matter shall remain without delay according to the protections; and when it shall be re-summoned, the party shall demand judgment and hearing of the process, and shall offer to verify his challenge, if his adversary will attend; and if the country pass against him that cast the protection, it shall be turned to a default, if he be tenant; and if he demandant he shall lease his writ, and shall be amerced, Stat. Incert. Temp. vii. 8vo. ed. 397.

2. NOTWITHSTANDING PROTECTIONS made by the king to the people which were bound to him in some debt, that they should not be impleaded of the debts which they owed to other till they have made satisfaction to the king; the parties which have actions against their debtors shall be answered in the king's court; and if judgment be given for the plaintiff or demandant, the execution shall be put in suspense till satisfaction be made to the king of his debt; and if the creditors will undertake for the king's debt, they shall be received, and shall have execution against the debtors of the debt due to them, and also shall recover as much as they shall pay to the king for them, 25 Ed. 3. s. 5. c. 19.

3. NO PROTECTION WITH THE CLAUSE OF volumus shall be allowed for virtuals taken upon the voyage whereof the protection maketh mention, nor in pleas of trespass, or other contract, made or perpetrated after the date of the protection, 1 R. 2. c. 8.

4. FOR REGULATING PROTECTIONS quia profecturus, and quia moraturus, 13 R. 2. s. 1. c. 16.

5. No protection with clause profecturus shall be allowed in any plea whereof the suit is commenced before the date of the protection, if he be not in the voyage that the king himself goeth, or other voyages royal, or in the king's messages for business of the realm; but they shall make their attorneys in such pleas, or else let them tarry themselves, but the protection with clause quia moraturus shall be allowed as before; and if any tarry in the country without going to the service for which he is retained, over a convenient time after that he hath any protection, or repair from the service, if the chancellor be informed, he shall repeal such protections, as it hath been used before, id. ibid.

6. NO PROTECTION SHALL BE ALLOWED IN ACTIONS FOR escape against a gaoler, 7 H. 4. c. 4.

7. NO WRIT OF COURSE IN THE NATURE OF A PROTECTION shall be granted by the officers of the exchequer in county palatine of Chester, without special warrant from the king; but all such writs of course shall be void, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 15. s. 2.

PROVISORS.

1. A STATUTE OF PROVISORS OF ECCLESIASTICAL BENEFICES, 25 E. 3. s. 5. c. 22. [AMD. EXT. and CONF., 25 E. 3. s. 6., 38 E. 3. s. 2. cc. 1—4., 12 R. 2. c. 15., 13 R. 2. s. 2. cc. 2, 3., 2 H. 4. c. 3., 9 H. 4. cc. 8, 9. See as to suing in foreign courts, 27 E. 3. s. 1. c. 1. PRÆMUNIRE.]

2. Every man who purchases provisions of abbies or priories, he and his executors, and procurators, which sue such provision, shall be out of the king's protection, and a man may do with him as an enemy of the king and the realm, and not be grieved for the same at any man's suit, 25 E. 3. s. 5. c. 22.

3. The free elections of archbishops, bishops, and all other dignities and benefices elective, shall stand as they were granted by H. M.'s progenitors, and founded by the ancestors of other lords; and all prelates and other people of holy church, which have advowsons of benefices of the king's gift, or of other donors, shall have their collations and presentments freely, in the manner as they were infeoffed, 25 E. 3. s. 6. s. 1.

4. And in case reservation, collation, or provision be made by the court of Rome, or any archbishopric, bishopric, dignity, or other benefice in disturbance of the elections, collations, or presentations aforesaid, at the same time of the voidances, that such reservations, &c. ought to take effect, H. M. shall have for that time the collations to the archbishoprics, bishoprics, and other dignities elective, which be of his advowry, such as his progenitors had before free election granted, since that elections were first granted by the king's progenitors upon certain condition, as to demand licence of the king to choose, and after election, to have his assent; which condition, not kept, the thing ought to resort to its first nature: and if any reservation, &c. be made of any house of religion, of the king's advowry, in disturbance of elections, the king shall have the collation of the dignity: and in case collation, reservation, or provision, be made by the court of Rome, of any church, prebend, or other benefices, which be of the advowry of people of holy church, whereof the king is advowee paramount immediate, at the time of the voidance at which the reservation, &c. ought to take effect, the king shall have the presentment or collation for that time; and so always when such people of holy church are disturbed of their presentations, &c. by such reservations, &c. saving to them their right of advowsons and presentations when no collation or provision is made by the court of Rome, or that such people dare and will to the same benefices present, and presentees may enjoy the effect thereof; and in the same manner every other lord shall have the collations or presentations to houses of religion, and benefices thereof, which be of his advowry; and if such advowees do not present to such benefices within the half year after such avoidances, nor the bishop of the place do not give the same by lapse within a month after the half year, the king shall have the presentments and collations, 25 E. 3. s. 6.

5. And in case the presentees of the king, or of other patrons of holy church, or of their advowees, or they to whom the king or such patrons have given benefices, be disturbed by such provisors, so that they cannot have possession, or that they which be in possession of such benefices be impeached by such provisors, such provisors, their procurators and notaries, shall be attached by their body, and brought in to answer; and if they be convict they shall abide in prison till they have made fine and ransom to the king at his will, and satisfaction to the party grieved; and before they be delivered they shall make renunciation, and find surety that they shall not attempt such things in time to come, nor sue any process by them, or other, against any man in the court of Rome, nor elsewhere, for such imprisonments, &c.; and in case such provisors, &c. be not found, the exigend shall run against them, and writs shall go forth to take their bodies, as well at the king's suit as at the suit of the party; and in the mean time the king shall have the profits of such benefices, except houses which have colleges, and in such houses the colleges shall have the profits; saving to the king and other lords their old right, 25 E. 3. s. 6.

6. Concerning archbishoprics, bishoprics, and other dignities and benefices elective, and other benefices of holy church, which shall be void within Eng., the statute of 25 E. 3. s. 6. shall be put in due execution; and if any accept of any benefice contrary to that statute, and be beyond the sea, he shall abide banished out of the realm for ever, and his lands and goods forfeit to the king; and if he be within the realm, he shall be also banished, and shall incur the same forfeiture, and take his way so that he be out of the realm within 6 weeks after such acceptance; and if any receive any such person banished, coming from beyond sea or being in the realm, after such 6 weeks, knowing thereof, he shall be banished, and incur such forfeiture as aforesaid; and their procurators, notaries, executors, and summoners, shall suffer the pain aforesaid, 13 R. 2. s. 2. c. 2. s. 1.

7. If the king send to the court of Rome at the entreaty of any person, or if any other send to the same court, whereby any thing be done contrary to this statute, touching any archbishopric, bishopric, dignity, or benefice of holy church within the realm, if he that maketh such suit be a prelate, he shall pay to the king the value of his temporalities of one year, and if he be a temporal lord, he shall pay the king the value of his lands for one year, and if he be of more mean estate, he shall pay the king the value of the benefice for which suit is made, and be imprisoned one year, id. s. 2.

8. The provisions made by 25 & 27 E. 3. the king, &c. hath confirmed; saving the estate of the prelates and other lords, touching the liberty of their bodies, so that by force of this statute their bodies be not taken; joining to the same, that all they which shall obtain personal citations against the king, or any of his subjects, and also they that shall obtain in the court of Rome, deanries, archdeaconries, provosties, dignities, and other benefices of holy church, pertaining to the collation or disposition of the king, or of other lay patron; and also all obtainers of churches, offices, or benefices of holy church, pensions or rents, amortised and appropriated to churches, cathedral, or collegiate hospitals, or other poor houses, before such appropriations and amortisements be avoided by due process; and also all they which shall obtain in the same court, dignities, offices, hospitals, or benefices, whereby prejudice may be done to the king or to his subjects, or to the laws and liberties of his realm and crown; and all their maintainers, abettors, and fautors, wittingly, as well at the suit of the king as of the party, or other of the realm finding pledges to pursue all such persons defamed and violently suspect of such pursuits, shall be arrested by the sheriffs and justices, and other H. M.'s ministers, by good bail, and shall be presented to H. M. and his council, to stand to right; and if they be convict of any of such things, they shall have the pain comprised in the statute 25 E. 3. S. 6., 58 E. 3. St. 2. c. 1.

9. If any persons defamed or suspect of such prosecutions or grievances be out of the realm, or cannot be attached, and do not present them before H. M. or his council within 2 months after they be warned in any of H. M.'s courts, or in the counties, or before H. M.'s justices in their sessions, or otherwise sufficiently, to answer to H. M. and to the party, to stand to the law before H. M. and his council, they shall be punished by the form comprised in the statute 27 E. 3. S. 1. c. 1., and otherwise as to H. M. and his council seem fit; without any pardon by H. M., without the assent of the party grieved, and without making him satisfaction, 38 E. 3. St. 2. c. 2.

10. None other subject keeping these ordinances shall incur any forfeiture of life and member, nor of lands nor goods, because of such things ordained; nor he nor his heirs ought not to be impeached for any such causes; and if any person attempt against the said ordinances, he shall be brought to answer as aforesaid; and if he be convict, he shall be put out of H. M.'s protection, and punished after the form of 27 E. 3. St. 1. c. 1., 58 E. 3. St. 2. c. 3.

11. If any person maliciously or falsely make pursuit against any of the realm, for cause comprised in these ordinances, and thereof be attainted, such plaintiff shall be punished at the ordinance of H. M. and his council, and shall make amends to the party grieved by his pursuit; and H. M., the prelates, dukes, earls, barons, nobles, and commons, clerks and lay, shall aid, comfort, and counsel the one the other, as often as shall need, and impeach such offenders, and resist their enterprizes, without suffering them to inhabit or pass through their lands, seignories, possessions, or jurisdictions, and shall defend the one the other from all damage, as far forth as if such prosecutions were made against them in common or in especial, 38 E. 3. St. 2. c. 4.

12. If any man bring or send within the realm, or the king's power, any summons, sentence, or excommunication against any person, because of the motion or execution of the statute of provisors, [25 E. 3.] he shall be put in prison and forfeit all his lands and goods, and moreover incur the pain of life and member; and if any prelate make execution of such summons, &c. his temporalities shall be taken and abide in the king's hands till due redress be made; and if any person of less estate make such execution, he shall have imprisonment, and make fine and ransom by the discretion of the king's counsel, 13 R. 2. St. 2. c. 3.

13. No liege man of the king shall pass over the sea, nor send out of the realm, without special leave of the king himself, to provide for himself a benefice of holy church in the realm; and if any do, and by virtue of such provision accept any benefice of the realm, the same provisor shall be out of the king's protection, and the benefice shall be void, so that the patron may present a clerk, 12 R. 2. c. 15.

14. If any provision be made by the pope to be exempt from obedience, regular or ordinary, or to have any office perpetual within any houses of religion, or as much as one regular parson of religion, or 2 or more have in the same, and if such provisors do accept the same, or enjoy such provision, they shall incur the penalties of the 13 R. 2. St. 2. cc. 2. & 3., 2 H. 4. c. 5.

15. All statutes against provisions and translations of archbishopricks by the court of Rome are CON., notwithstanding the power of moderating the same given to H. M., 9 H. 4. c. 8.

16. All elections of all archbishopricks, bishopricks, abbies, deaneries, or other dignities elective, shall be free, without being interrupted by the pope or H. M., provided that H. M. may have his prerogative as before this statute, 9 H. 4. c. 9.

PURVEYANCE.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. PURVEYANCE FOR A CASTLE, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 19. [ENF. 3 E. 1. c. 7.] — TAKING OF HORSES, carts, and wood, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 21. — PENALTY ON PURVEYORS not paying for what they take. H. M.'s carriages, 3 E. 1. c. 32. — OF PURVEYANCE, 28 E. 1. c. 2. [CONF. 4 E. 3. c. 4.] — NOTHING SHALL BE PURVEYED TO H. M.'s use without the owner's consent, 34 E. 1. St. 4. c. 2. — FOR THE REGULATION OF purveyance, 4 E. 3. c. 5. — OF PURVEYANCE, 5 E. 3. c. 2. [CONF. 10 E. 3. St. 2. c. 1. — HOW PURVEYORS FOR H. M.'s house and wars shall make their purveyance, 14 E. 3. St. 1. c. 19. — A CONFIRMATION OF THE STATUTES relating to purveyance, 16 E. 3. St. 2. c. 7. — OF PURVEYORS, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 1. [Purveyance having been abolished by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12. these acts seem to be obsolete.]

2. A PURVEYOR SHALL NOT TAKE timber in or about any person's mansion, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 6. — THE PENALTY OF PURVEYORS taking sheep before shearing, or more than needful, 25 E. 3. St. 5. c. 15. — CARRIERS GOING TO or returning from the staple shall not be disturbed by purveyors, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 4. — PURVEYANCES MADE FOR H. M.'s use under 20s. shall be paid for immediately; and if above that sum, within a quarter of a year, 28 E. 3. c. 12. — NO PURVEYANCE SHALL BE MADE but for the king, the queen, and the king's eldest son; purveyors for others shall be punished, 34 E. 3. c. 2. — POULTRY AND OTHER SMALL THINGS purveyed for the queen and prince shall be paid for immediately, and greater purveyances within a month or 6 weeks; the number of purveyors shall be decreased, 34 E. 3. c. 3. — NO PURVEYANCE BUT FOR the king and queen: the name of purveyor changed into buyer: purveyance regulated, 36 E. 3. c. 2. — PENALTY ON THE BUYERS unduly sparing or charging any treble damages to the party, 2 years imprisonment, and fine to H. M., 36 E. 3. c. 3. — COMMISSIONS SHALL BE AWARDED to enquire of the conduct of buyers, 36 E. 3. c. 4. [Purveyance being abolished by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12. these acts seem obsolete.]

3. FOR CONFIRMING FORMER STATUTES concerning purveyance, 2 H. 4. c. 14. — ALL STATUTES CONCERNING PURVEYANCE shall be proclaimed in the county 4 times a year, 1 H. 6. c. 2. — FOR REGULATING PURVEYANCE, 20 H. 6. c. 8., 23 H. 6. c. 1. — FOR PREVENTING ABUSES in purveyance of horses and carts, 28 H. 6. c. 2. — TOUCHING PURVEYORS, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 3. [EXP.] — AGAINST TAKING EXCESSIVE purveyance, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 6. — PURVEYORS SHALL NOT TAKE victuals within 5 miles of Cambridge and Oxford, 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 15., but allowed to do so in certain cases, 13 El. c. 21., [which is CON. 14 El. c. 11. s. 11., 29 El. c. 5. s. 12., 31 El. c. 10. s. 10., 35 El. c. 7. s. 11., 43 El. c. 9. s. 9., 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 8., 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 11., and 3 C. 1. c. 4., and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4. [Purveyance being abolished by 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 12. these acts seem obsolete.]

4. FOR PROVIDING NECESSARY CARRIAGES for H. M. in his royal progress and removals, 13 C. 2. S. 1. c. 8., 1 J. 2. c. 10. [Both EXP.]

5. FOR PROVIDING CARRIAGE BY LAND and BY WATER for the use of H. M.'s navy and ordnance, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 20. [CON. 1 J. 2. c. 11., 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 24. s. 2., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 13. s. 1., all EXP., and these purposes are now provided for by the annual mutiny acts. See SOLDIERS.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO LORD OR OTHER SHALL BUY, BY PURVEYANCE, any thing against the owner's consent, 36 E. 3. c. 6. [CONF. 7 R. 2. c. 8., 20 H. 6. c. 8. AMD. 23 H. 6. c. 13.]

2. No lord or other shall make any taking of victual, but shall buy such as they need of those who will sell; and if the people of lords or other do otherwise, and thereof be attainted, such punishment of life or member shall be done of them, as in case of buyers, 36 E. 3. c. 6. [viz. felony by 36 E. 3. c. 2.]

3. If the buyer of any lord or other person take any victuals, &c. of any against their will, he shall be imprisoned till he restore the thing taken, or the value thereof; penalty on sheriffs not executing this act 20/., and on such buyer treble value, double costs, and fine, 23 H. 6. c. 13.

4. FOR TAKING AWAY PURVEYANCE, 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 12—14. [See rest of this statute, GUARDIAN &c. pt. 13—15. TENURES.]

5. No sums or other things shall be taken, raised, rated, or levied for or in regard of any provision, carriages, or purveyance for H. M., id. s. 12.

6. No person shall by any commission or otherwise, by colour of provision or purveyance for H. M., the queen, or their children or household, take any timber, fuel, cattle, corn, grain, malt, hay, straw, victual, cart, carriage, or other thing of any of H. M.'s subjects, without their free consent; nor shall summon, take, or require them to furnish any horses, oxen, cattle, carts, ploughs, wains, or other carriages for the use of H. M., &c. for carrying their goods, without such free consent, id. s. 13.

7. No pre-emption shall be claimed on behalf of H. M. or the royal family in or out of market, but all H. M.'s subjects may freely dispose of their goods as they wish, any pretence of making provision, purveyance, or pre-emption notwithstanding; and if any person shall make provision or purveyance for H. M., the queen, or their children, or shall impress any such carriage or other things under any pretence, any 2 justices of peace, and the constables of the parish or village, shall, at the request of the party grieved, commit such person to gaol till the next sessions, there to be indicted; and the officers and inhabitants of such parish shall be assistant therein; and the party grieved shall have his action against such offender, and recover treble damages and treble costs, and in which no essoign, &c. or order of restraint shall be allowed; and if any shall (after notice given that the action depending is grounded on this statute) cause any action at common law grounded on this statute, to be delayed before judgment by any means, save only of the court where the action is brought, or after judgment had shall procure execution thereof to be stayed by any means, save only by writ of error, or attain or order of the court where such error or attain is brought, such person shall incur præmunire under 16 R. 2. c. 5., provided this act shall not prejudice any right of H. M., of, in, to, or out of any town in the stannaries of Devon or Cornwall, nor the ancient duties of butlerage and prissage of wines, but the same shall be as before this act, id. s. 14.

QUAKERS. (See NONCONFORMIST.)

1. THAT THE SOLEMN AFFIRMATION AND DECLARATION OF THE people called Quakers, shall be accepted instead of an oath in the usual form, 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. [CON. 13 & 14 W.3. c.4. MADE PERP. as to all oaths soever except as in 7 & 8 W.3. c.34., excepted 1 G.1. St.2. c.6. s.1., and AMD. by the rest of that act, which is EXT. as to quaker's affirmation to Scot. for ever; and to the plantations belonging to the crown of G. B. for 5 years, and to the end of the next session only: therefore so far EXP.]

2. FOR GRANTING THE PEOPLE CALLED QUAKERS SUCH FORMS OF affirmation and declaration as may remove the difficulties which many of them lie under, 8 G.1. c.6. [AMD. 22 G.2. c.46. ss. 36, 37.]

3. Every quaker in Eng. Wa. and Ber., who is required on any lawful occasion to take any oath, in cases where by law an oath is required, shall, instead of the usual form, be permitted to make his solemn affirmation as follows, 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. s.1. [NOTE The form here given is taken away, and another provided by 8 G.1. c.6. s.1. see pl.7.]

4. Which solemn affirmation or declaration shall be of the same force and effect to all intents and purposes, in all courts of justice and other places where by law an oath is required within Eng. Wa. or Ber., as if such quaker had taken an oath in the usual form, 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. s.2.

5. Every quaker making such solemn affirmation, and lawfully convicted wilfully, falsely, and corruptly to have affirmed any thing which if it had been in the usual form would have amounted to perjury, shall incur the punishment of wilful perjury, id. s.3.

6. No quaker, or reputed quaker, shall by virtue of this act be qualified or permitted to give evidence in any criminal causes, or to serve on any juries, or to bear any office or place of profit in the government, id. s.6.

7. In all cases where by law any quaker is required or permitted to make and subscribe the declaration of fidelity in the form 1 W. & M. St.1. c.18. NONCONFORMIST, or to make affirmation or declaration in the form prescribed by 7 & 8 W.3. c.34., or to take the effect of the abjuration oath in the form prescribed by 1 G.1. St.2. c.6., every such quaker shall, instead of such first mentioned declaration of fidelity, make and subscribe the following,

' I A. B. do solemnly and sincerely promise and declare, that I will be true and faithful to K. Geo., and do solemnly, sincerely, and truly profess, testify, and declare that I do from my heart abhor, detest, and renounce as impious and heretical that wicked doctrine and position, that princes excommunicated or deprived by the pope, or any authority of the see of Rome, may be deposed or murdered by their subjects, or any other whatsoever, and I do declare, that no foreign prince, person, prelate, state, or potentate, hath or ought to have any power, jurisdiction, superiority, preeminence, or authority, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this realm.'

and instead of such affirmation shall make the following:

' I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly declare and affirm.'

And instead of the form prescribed by 1 G.1. St.2. c.6. s.3. for taking the effect of the abjuration oath, shall take the effect thereof as follows:

' I A. B. do solemnly, sincerely, and truly acknowledge, profess, testify, and declare, that king George is lawful and rightful king of this realm, and of all other his dominions and countries thereunto belonging. And I do solemnly and sincerely declare, that I do believe the person pretended to be the prince of Wales, during the life of the late king James, and since his decease, pretending to be, and taking upon himself the stile and title of king of England, by the name of James the 3d, or of Scotland, by the name of James the 8th, or the stile and title of King of Great Britain, hath not any right or title whatsoever to the crown of this realm; nor any other the dominions thereunto belonging; and I do renounce and refuse any allegiance or obedience to him. And I do solemnly promise, that I will be true and faithful, and bear true allegiance to king George, and to him will be faithful against all traitorous conspiracies and attempts whatsoever, which shall be made against his person, crown, or dignity. And I will do my best endeavour to disclose and make known to king George, and his successors, all treasons and traitorous conspiracies, which I shall know to be made against him, or any of them. And I will be true and faithful to the succession of the crown against the said James, and all other persons whatsoever, as the same is and stands settled by an act entitled, "An act declaring the rights and liberties of the subject, and settling the succession of the crown," to the late queen Anne and the heirs of her body being protestants; and as the same by one other act entitled, "An act for the limitation of the crown, and better securing the rights and liberties of the subject," is, and stands settled and entailed, after the decease of the said late queen, and for default of issue of the said late queen to the late princess Sophia, electress and duchess dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body, being protestants. And all these things I do plainly and sincerely acknowledge, promise, and declare, according to these express words by me spoken, and according to the plain and common sense and understanding of the same words, without any equivocation, mental reservation, or secret reservation whatsoever, and I do make this recognition, acknowledgment, renunciation, and promise heartily, willingly, and truly.' and all persons authorized or required to administer or tender either the said former declaration of fidelity, or the former solemn affirmation or declaration, or the former effect of the abjuration oath aforesaid, shall administer and tender the same to quakers, in the words hereby respectively appointed, 8 G.1. c.6. s.1. [QU. May not quakers be required to subscribe the profession of faith required of dissenters in general, who scruple to take an oath by 1 W. & M. St.1. c.18. s.18. NONCONFORMIST?]

8. In all cases where by any statute now in force, or hereafter to be made, an oath is allowed or required, the solemn affirmation or declaration of a quaker in the form prescribed by 8 G.1. c.6. shall be allowed instead of such oath, although no express provision be made for that purpose in that statute; and all persons required to administer such oath, shall be required to administer such affirmation or declaration, which when so made shall be adjudged to be of the same force in all courts of justice and other places where by law an oath is allowed or required, as if such quaker had taken the oath in the usual form, and if the person so affirming is convicted of having wilfully, falsely, and corruptly affirmed any thing which, if it had been deposed on oath would amount to wilful perjury, he shall incur the penalties thereof, 22 G.2. c.46. s.36.

9. Provided that no quaker shall under this act be permitted to give evidence in criminal cases, or to serve on juries, or to bear any office or place of profit in the government, id. s.37.

10. The declaration of fidelity, the affirmation, and the effect of the abjuration oath by this act appointed for quakers, instead of the forms by the said acts prescribed, shall be of like force in all courts of justice and elsewhere, as if such quaker had made and subscribed the declaration of fidelity, &c. in the forms by the said acts appointed, and if any person making such affirmation as is hereby appointed to be made, instead of that by the 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. prescribed, shall be convicted of wilful, false, and corrupt affirming of any matter, which, if sworn in the common form, could amount to wilful and corrupt perjury, such person shall incur the penalties inflicted on persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury, 8 G.1. c.6. s.2.

11. All clauses, exceptions, &c. contained in 1 W. & M. St.1. c.18., 7 & 8 W.3. c.34., and 8 G.1. St.2. c.6. contained, not hereby expressly altered, shall be of the same force as before this act made, id. s.3.

12. PROVISIONS RESPECTING PAYMENT OF TITHES BY QUAKERS, 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. ss. 4, 5., 1 G.1. St.2. c.6. s.2.

13. Where any quaker refuses to pay or compound for his great or small tithes, or to pay church rates, the 2 next justices of the same county, other than such justice as is patron of the church or chapel whence the tithes do arise, or any ways interested therein, on complaint of any parson, vicar, farmer, or proprietor of tithes, churchwarden or churchwardens who ought to have, receive, or collect the same may, by warrant under their hands and seals, convene such quaker so refusing before them, and examine upon oath, or in manner by this act provided, the truth of such complaint, and ascertain what is payable by such quaker, and by order under their hands, &c. direct the payment thereof, so as it does not exceed 10*l.*, [but scmb. their power is EXT. to all cases, see next pl.] and on refusal of such quaker to pay on such order, one of such justices by like warrant, may levy the money by distress and sale of his goods, or of those of his executors or administrators, rendering him or them the overplus, after necessary charges of distress deducted and allowed, and persons thereby aggrieved may appeal to the next quarter sessions for the county, city, &c., and the justices there, or the majority of them, shall finally determine the matter, and reverse such judgment, if they see cause, but if they confirm it, they shall then decree the same by order of sessions, and give reasonable costs against the appellant, to be levied by distress and sale of his goods, and no proceedings or judgment had under this act shall be removed or superseded by certiorari or other writ from any court, unless the title of such tithes shall be in question, 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. s.4.

14. In case of such appeal, no warrant of distress shall be granted until after it is determined, id. s.5.

15. The remedy provided by 7 & 8 W.3. c.34. for the recovery of tithes and church rates, may be used against any quaker for recovering of any tithes or rates, or any customary or other rights, dues, or payments belonging to any church or chapel, which of right by law or custom, ought to be paid for the stipend or maintenance of any minister or curate officiating in any church or chapel; and any 2 justices of the same county or place, other than such as is patron of the church, or anyways interested in such tithes, on complaint of any parson, vicar, curate, farmer, or proprietor of such tithes, or any church or chapelwarden, or other person who ought to collect or receive any such tithes, &c., shall summon in writing under their hands and seals, by reasonable warning, such quaker against whom such complaint shall be made, and after appearance, or on default thereof, (such warning or summons being proved before them on oath,) may proceed to hear and determine such complaint, and make such order therein as in pl. 13. directed, and also may order such costs, not exceeding 10*s.*, as on the merits of the case appear just; which order shall be executed, and on such appeal, may be reserved or affirmed by the general quarter sessions of the county or place, with like costs, and shall not be removed into any other court, unless the titles of such tithes, dues, &c. shall be in question, in like manner as by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34. provided, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 6. s. 2.

QUARANTINE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR PERFORMANCE OF QUARANTINE, 9 A. c. 2., 7 G. 1. c. 3., 8 G. 1. c. 10., 1 G. 2. St. 2. c. 13., 6 G. 2. c. 34., 26 G. 2. c. 6., 29 G. 2. c. 8., 12 G. 3. c. 57., 28 G. 3. c. 34., 38 G. 3. c. 33., 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 80. [except s. 1. & s. 8. as to repeal of former statutes], 41 G. 3. (G. B.) c. 30. [all REV. by 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 9.; and 8 G. 1. c. 8., 1 G. 2. St. 2. c. 13. Exp.]

2. TO INDEMNIFY ALL PERSONS CONCERNED IN ISSUING AN ORDER OF COUNCIL AND DIRECTIONS FOR EXTENDING THE TIME OF CERTAIN SHIPS CONTINUING TO PERFORM QUARANTINE, 45 G. 3. c. 97. [Exp.]

3. FOR ERECTING A LAZARET ON Chetney Hill, county Kent; for reducing into one act all laws relating to quarantine, and for making further provision therein, 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 80. [REV. 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 9.; but s. 1. and s. 8. are in force as to the repeal of the statutes named therein, for which see the chronological table of them.]

(STATUTES in force.)

[N. B. It may here be noticed, 1. That Ire. is not mentioned throughout these acts, except in 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 14. pl. 28., and s. 32. pl. 51., which are provisions of minor importance: but the words G. B. are used throughout, adding the islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man; nor are the words U. K. mentioned.]

2. There is no provision for performance of quarantine by ships which have taken on board passengers, goods, &c. from infected or suspected places, and put them ashore, or aboard other ships at sea, before their own arrival in G. B., or where any of the crew have gone on board ships sailing under security given, as in 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 32. [And note, pl. 51.]

3. FOR MAKING FURTHER PROVISION FOR ACTUAL PERFORMANCE OF QUARANTINE, 45 G. 3. c. 10. [commencing 5 April 1805, id. s. 44. AMD. generally by 46 G. 3. c. 98., and more particularly as to the provisions in s. 10. by id. s. 4., in s. 14. and s. 15. by id. s. 1., in s. 16. and s. 17. by id. s. 2., in s. 18. by id. s. 3., and 50 G. 3. c. 20., 51 G. 3. c. 46. in s. 29., and in part REV., 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 5.

4. All offences against this or any other act, viz. 46 G. 3. c. 98., passed or any orders of council made concerning quarantine, and notified by proclamation, or publishing in London Gazette, or of any such order made by 3 or more of the privy council, whether committed within the body of any county, or on the high seas, or elsewhere, may be tried, &c. in any county in Eng. or Scot. or in the proper courts of the isles of Guernsey, &c. respectively, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 42.

5. In actions commenced for anything done in execution of this act, or of any order in council made by virtue thereof, defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if so found, the jury shall find for defendant, and if plaintiff is nonsuit, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him, on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall recover treble costs, and no such action shall be brought but within 2 months from the act done, id. s. 43.

6. To commence, except hereinbefore otherwise provided, 5th April 1805, id. s. 44.

7. FOR MAKING FURTHER PROVISIONS FOR THE EFFECTUAL PERFORMANCE OF QUARANTINE IN G. B., 46 G. 3. c. 98. [The s. 1. 5. are incorporated with 45 G. 3. c. 10.; the latter are additional provisions relating to matters untouched by that act.]

8. The king, by order in council, and any 3 or more of the privy council, by their order, from time to time, as they see reason to apprehend that the yellow fever, or other highly infectious distemper prevails in America or the West Indies, may require that every vessel coming from, or having touched at any place on that continent, or in the West Indies, shall come to anchor at certain places to be appointed from time to time by the customs commissioners in Eng. and Scot. (who are hereby authorized to make such appointment) for the purpose of having the state of health of the crew ascertained, before such vessel shall be permitted to enter the port whereto she may be bound, or any other port of G. B., but such vessel shall not be liable to quarantine, unless specially ordered under that restraint, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 6.

9. The king, by order in council notified in proclamation, or published in London Gazette, may prohibit all persons, boats, and vessels soever from going, under any pretence soever, within the limits of any station which by H. M. by any such order, has or may be assigned for the performance of quarantine by any vessels without clean bills of health; and if any person soever, after such notification or publication of any such order, shall presume, under any pretence, to go with any vessel, &c. within the limits of such station, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 7.

10. Any person who shall wilfully forge or counterfeit, interline, erase, or alter, or procure to be forged, &c. any certificate required to be granted by any order in council now in force, or hereafter to be made touching quarantine, or shall publish as true any such forged, &c. certificate, knowing the same to be so forged, &c. or shall wilfully utter and publish any such certificate, with intent to obtain the effect of a true certificate, knowing the same to be false, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, id. s. 8.

11. The consuls and vice-consuls of H. M. shall administer oaths in all cases of quarantine, as if they were magistrates of the places where they are resident, id. s. 9.

12. In all cases wherein by virtue of this act, or of any other now in force [viz. 45 G. 3. c. 10.] or hereafter to be made touching quarantine, any examinations or answers shall be taken on oath, the person authorized to take the former may also administer such oaths, and persons so interrogated or examined, who shall wilfully swear falsely in their answers to such examinations, or shall procure others so to do, shall be deemed guilty of wilful perjury or subornation thereof, and shall be punished accordingly, id. s. 10. [and see 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 37. pl. 55.]

13. The treasury is empowered to direct the completion of the lazaret at Chetney Hill, county of Kent, with all necessary accommodations for performing quarantine according to a plan approved by H. M. by advice of the privy council; and for defraying the expenses, to cause the money granted by parliament for that purpose to be issued when necessary for such service, and the lazaret shall be under the management of officers appointed by the treasury for keeping it ready for reception of persons and goods, and for their due performance of quarantine, which officers shall have salaries appointed by H. M., by advice of privy council, and shall be defrayed as at present, till a sufficient revenue be raised as in s. 2., 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1. [Floating lazarets may be provided till lazaret completed, id. s. 2.]

14. The following duties of customs shall be paid to H. M. by the owners of vessels and cargoes; viz.

[For every vessel which, or the cargo of which, or any part whereof, shall have performed quarantine in any port or place in G. B. or Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and which shall have arrived from any part of Turkey, or port or place in Africa, within the straits of Gibraltar, or in West Barbary, on the Atlantic Ocean, with a clean bill of health, per ton burthen, 7*s.* 6*d.*

without such bill, per ton, 1*s.*

For every vessel which, or the cargo of which, or any part whereof, shall have performed quarantine in any port or place in G. B. or the islands aforesaid, and which shall have arrived from any place whatever (except any part of Turkey or Africa, within the straits of Gibraltar, or in West Barbary), with a clean bill of health, per ton, 3*s.*

without such bill, per ton, 10*s.*

For every vessel arriving in any port or place in G. B. or the islands aforesaid, with a cargo consisting in the whole, or in part, of goods, &c. the growth, produce, or manufacture of Turkey, or of any port or place in Africa, within the straits of Gibraltar, or in West Barbary, and which vessel, or her cargo, or any part thereof, shall have performed quarantine in any port or place in G. B. or the islands aforesaid, and which shall have arrived from any port or place whatever, per ton, 7*s.* 6*d.*

For every vessel which shall have so arrived under such circumstances as shall induce H. M. by advice of privy council, or any 3 or more of the privy council under the authority hereinafter (viz. s. 12. pl. 26.) given to subject such ship or vessel to the like quarantine as ships arriving from Turkey, with clean bills of health, per ton, 7*s.* 6*d.*

without such bills, per ton, 1*s.*

For every vessel which, or her cargo, or any part thereof, has performed quarantine in any port or place in G. B. or the islands aforesaid, and which shall enter inwards in the port of London, per ton, 1*s.* additional, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 3.

15. The above duties shall be levied and paid, recovered, and accounted for, under the same regulations and penalties to which the duties of customs are now by law subject, provided that no ship of war, transport, or other vessel on government service, nor any vessel not bound to any port or place in G. B., or Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and which shall have really put into any port therein in distress, nor any vessel obliged to perform quarantine only by reason of having certain goods on board, and not producing the proper document as to their growth or manufacture; nor any vessel arriving in any port, &c. in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, with a clean bill of health from any place whatever, except from any part of Turkey, or Africa within the Straits of Gibraltar, or in West Barbary on the Atlantic, in ballast, or freighted wholly with salt, and any vessel, which with its cargo has duly performed quarantine in the lazarets of Malta, Ancona, Venice, Messina, Leghorn, or one of them, and which shall sail from thence, and arrive in G. B., or the said islands, with proper documents, attesting same to satisfaction of H. M. or privy council, shall be liable to duty, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 8.

16. If after making good to the consolidated fund the sums of 65,000*l.* granted by 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 10., and 50,000*l.* by 44 G. 3. c. 110., or of so much thereof as is issued for the above services, it appears to the treasury that the duties hereby granted are more than sufficient to defray as well the expences already incurred as those of carrying the act into execution, the treasury may from time to time, by warrant, order the duties to be reduced as they think proper; and by like warrant (should the expences afterwards require an increase of duties) order that they be raised to any amount not exceeding the sums in s. 3. pl. 14. which warrants shall be sufficient authority to the customs officers to levy the duties, id. s. 4.

17. No vessel liable to tonnage duty by s. 3. pl. 14. shall be permitted to be cleared inwards, in any port of G. B. or the islands aforesaid, unless the duty is duly paid; the tonnage to be computed according to the register under 26 G. 3. c. 60., and in case of dispute, by admeasurement, as in that act, id. s. 5.

18. The owners of any vessel for which any of the duties in s. 3. pl. 14. have been paid, may recover from the importers or consignees of goods on board, any sum equal to the reasonable contribution which the proportionate tonnage of the latter bears to that of the ship to be ascertained, according to the custom of merchants in like cases, id. s. 6.

19. The monies arising from the above duties shall be paid into exchequer, and carried to the consolidated fund, and shall be entered in a separate book by the auditor of exchequer, id. s. 7.

20. The money so raised shall be applied, 1st, to defray the annual expences of the floating and land lazaret, and all other annual expences of execution of this act; and next, to make good the money issued for purchasing lands on Chetney Hill, and erecting the lazaret, and other accommodations, &c. as in s. 1., id. s. 8.

21. 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 80., and every other act relating to performance of quarantine are repealed, except so much of the said act as repeals some former acts, viz. s. 1. and s. 8., and as to arrears of duty, or penalties due under it, id. s. 9.

22. H. M.'s ships of war, and all other vessels coming from or having touched at any place from whence H. M., by advice of privy council, shall have declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious distemper highly dangerous to the health of his subjects may be brought, and all vessels and boats receiving any person, goods, packets, packages, luggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles whatever, whether such persons, goods, &c. shall have come or been brought in such vessels, or such persons shall have gone, or articles have been put on board the same, either before or after the arrival of such vessels at any port or place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, &c. on board of any such vessels so coming from or having touched at such infected place as aforesaid, or on board of any such receiving vessels or boats shall be considered liable to quarantine within this act, and within any order made by H. M., by advice of privy council concerning quarantine, and prevention of infection from the departure of such vessels from such infected place, or from the time when such persons, goods, &c. shall have been received on board respectively; and all such vessels and boats, and all persons, as well pilots as others, goods and other articles as aforesaid, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats from such infected place, or going or being put on board same, either before or after their arrival at any place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, and all persons, goods, &c. on board any such receiving vessel or boat as aforesaid, shall, on such arrival, be obliged to perform quarantine in such place for such time, and in such manner as shall from time to time be directed by H. M., by order in council notified by proclamation, or published in London Gazette; and till such vessels, boats, persons, goods, and articles aforesaid, have respectively performed and been discharged from quarantine, no such person, goods, &c., either before or after the arrival of such vessels or boats at any place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, shall come or be brought on shore, or go and be put on board any other vessel or boat in order thereto in any such place, though such vessels may not be bound to any place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, unless by such licence as is permitted by such order in council; and all such vessels and boats, whether coming from such infected place, or otherwise liable to quarantine as aforesaid, and all persons, as well pilots as others, goods and other articles, whether coming or brought in such vessels or boats, or going, or put on board the same, either before or after arrival in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, and although such vessels or boats are not bound to any place therein; and all persons having charge or command of any such vessels or boats, whether coming from any infected place, or otherwise liable to quarantine, shall be subject to all the regulations in this act, or in any other made by H. M. in council, concerning and preventing infection, and to all the penalties of this act for breach thereof, or of any such order in council, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 10.

23. The publication in the London Gazette of any order in council, or of any order by 3 or more of the privy council (as in s. 12. pl. 26.) or of H. M.'s royal proclamation made in pursuance of this act, shall be deemed sufficient notice to all parties of the matters therein contained, id. s. 13.

24. But no vessel rendered liable to perform quarantine solely by having received on board, by force, or against the will of the master and crew, any person, shall be liable to duty if the commissioners of customs are satisfied of that fact, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 4.

25. All goods (especially those liable to retain infection) particularly specified for that purpose, in any such order in council concerning quarantine and prevention of infection, and imported into G. B. or the islands aforesaid, from any foreign country or place in any vessel whatever, and the vessels in which brought, and all vessels which shall arrive from any place whatever under any suspicious circumstances as to infection, shall be subject to the regulations made by H. M. by order in council, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 11.

26. Three of the privy council may make any order they see expedient on any unforeseen emergency or particular case, as to the arrival of any vessel with any infectious disease on board, or on board which such disease may have appeared in the course of the voyage, or under any other suspicious circumstances as to infection, although such vessel has not come from any place from which H. M. in council may have declared it probable that the plague, or other infectious disease may be brought, and also with respect to the persons, goods, and articles on board; and in case of any infectious disease breaking out in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, may give necessary directions for cutting off the communication between the infected and other subjects, and may shorten the time of quarantine to be performed by particular vessels, persons, goods, &c. or wholly release them therefrom, absolutely or conditionally, and generally may mitigate the strict performance thereof as special circumstances in their judgment shall require, all which orders shall be as valid, as well with respect to the commander of, and all persons on board, as to all or any other persons having intercourse with any such vessel, and as to the penalties to which they may become liable, as any order of H. M. in council, notified by proclamation, or published in London Gazette, as in s. 10. pl. 22., id. s. 12.

27. If the plague, or other infectious disease appears on board any vessel within the straits of Gibraltar, the commander shall immediately proceed to some foreign lazaret, and there perform quarantine, till the completion of Chetney Hill lazaret is notified, as in s. 10., but if the same appears on board any vessel without the Straights, then the commander shall (previous to such completion notified) proceed immediately to the harbour of St. Helen's Tean and North Wihel, in the Scilly isles, or to any other place directed by H. M. in council; he shall then make known his case to some customs officer there, who shall acquaint the principal magistrate and customs officer at some neighbouring port, which latter shall as soon as possible, send intelligence to the commissioners of customs, and the former to the privy council, that necessary measures for comfort of the crew, and precautions against spreading infection may be taken; such vessel to remain there till directions are given by the council, or any 3 of them; nor shall any person on board go on shore, but in case the commander of such vessel is not able to make Scilly, or other place so appointed as aforesaid, or is forced by stress of weather or otherwise to go up either of the channels, he shall not enter with such vessel into any other port or place in G. B., or the island aforesaid, but shall remain in some open road till he receives such directions as above, and shall use all necessary means to prevent any person from going out of the ship, and to avoid all intercourse with other vessels or persons; and all persons on board shall, till such directions are received, remain in such ship, and avoid all such intercourse, and such commander, and all persons on board shall obey the above directions, or for disobedience shall suffer death as for felony, without clergy, id. s. 13.

28. The commander of every vessel liable to quarantine shall, at all times when he meets another vessel at sea, or is within 4 leagues of the coast of G. B. or Ire., or the islands aforesaid, hoist a signal to denote such liability; which in the day time, if with a clean bill of health, shall be a large yellow flag of 6 breadths of bunting at the main-top mast-head; if without such bill, a like yellow flag, with a circular mark or ball quite black, in the middle of 2 breadths bunting diameter; and in the night time shall in both cases be a large signal lantern, with a light therein at the same mast-head; which signals shall be kept hoisted while in sight of any vessel, or within the above distance of the said coasts, &c. till the vessel's arrival at the place of performing quarantine, and her legal discharge therefrom, on failure whereof he shall forfeit 200*l.* for each offence, id. s. 14. [punishment of death for wilful neglect herein, id. s. 19. pl. 38.]

29. Any commanders of vessels knowing that they are not liable to quarantine, hoisting such signals as aforesaid, shall forfeit 200*l.*, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 15.

30. The commander of every vessel on board which the plague or other infectious disease highly dangerous to the health of H. M.'s subjects shall actually be, shall, at all times when he shall meet any other vessel at sea, or is within 4 leagues of the coast of G. B., or the islands aforesaid, hoist in the day time as a signal a flag of yellow and black, borne quarterly, of 8 breadths of bunting at the main-top mast-head, and in the night time, two large signal lanthorns one over the other at the same mast-head; and shall keep such signal hoisted while in sight of such other vessel, or within such distance of the said coasts, &c., or until arrival at the place of performing quarantine, and legal discharge of the vessel therefrom; on failure whereof he shall forfeit 200*l.* for every offence, 46 G. 5. c. 98. s. 1.

31. Every commander of any vessel coming from foreign parts shall give to the pilot going on board the same a written paper, containing a true account of the names of the place and country at which she has loaded, and of all the places at which she has touched on the homeward voyage, on pain of forfeiting 200*l.* for neglect or refusal to give the same, or for any false representation or omission therein; and if by any proclamation or order in council made after vessel's departure, and then in force, vessels coming from any place mentioned therein are liable to quarantine, such pilot shall immediately give notice thereof to such commander, on penalty of 50*l.* for neglect, and the latter shall hoist a proper signal, under the penalties in this act [viz. s. 14. pl. 28.] contained for neglect therein, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 16.

32. The commander of every vessel coming from foreign parts, and not liable to quarantine, in respect of the place from whence she comes, shall give to the pilot a written paper, containing a true account of the different articles composing her cargo, on penalty of 200*l.* for neglect, false representation, or wilful omission therein; and if by any proclamation or order in council then in force, vessels having on board any articles mentioned in such account are liable to performance of quarantine, such pilot shall immediately give notice thereof to such commander, on penalty of 100*l.* for neglect therein; and the latter shall hoist a proper signal, according to the provisions, and under the penalties in 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 14. pl. 28., or in s. 1. of this act, pl. 30. contained, for neglect in hoisting the same, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2.

33. Every pilot who shall conduct, or cause to be conducted, any vessel liable to performance of quarantine, into any place not specially appointed for reception of vessels so liable, after receiving such paper as in 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 16. pl. 31., and such other papers as in 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2. pl. 32. required, whereby the vessel's liability to quarantine shall have respectively appeared, or without requiring and receiving such papers respectively from every such commander, unless compelled thereto by stress of weather, or accidents of seas, shall forfeit 100*l.* for every such offence against either act, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 17., 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2.

34. If any pilot being on board, or any commander having charge of any vessel coming from foreign parts, whether liable to quarantine or not, is required by any officer authorized by any 4 of the commissioners of customs to act in quarantine service, to bring to such vessel, in order to interrogate such commander, according to 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 18. pl. 37., and shall not so bring to as soon as it can be done with safety, the pilot, commander, or other person in charge of the ship, shall forfeit 100*l.*, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 3.

35. All superintendants of quarantine at the several ports, and their assistants, may be appointed by any instruments signed by 4 commissioners of customs for the time being, and sealed with their seal of office, 50 G. 3. c. 20.

36. Every thing in 45 G. 3. c. 10. required to be done by the superintendant of quarantine or his assistant, may, in case of their absence or sickness, be done by the principal officer of customs at the port or place, or by any other officer authorized by any 4 or more such commissioners to act in that behalf, 51 G. 3. c. 46.

37. When any country or place is known or suspected to be infected with the plague or other such infectious disease as aforesaid, or when any order in council is made therein as aforesaid, then as often as any vessel shall attempt to enter any place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, whether such port is appointed for performing quarantine or not, the superintendant of quarantine, or his assistant, (if there be such persons there,) or if not, the principal officer of customs there, or any officer of customs authorized by any 4 or more commissioners of customs to act in that behalf, shall go off to such vessel, and at a convenient distance therefrom, shall demand of the commander, who shall therefrom truly answer in writing or otherwise, upon oath or not, as required by such superintendant, &c. to all questions put to him in pursuance of any regulations prescribed by order in council; and in case, on such demand, he refuse to make true discovery in any of the particulars concerning which he is interrogated, or if not required to answer the same on oath, shall give a false answer thereto, he shall forfeit 200*l.*, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 18.

38. If it appear on such examination or otherwise that such vessel is liable to perform quarantine, and that the port where she arrives, or attempts to enter, as in s. 18., is not the place where quarantine should be performed, the officers of H. M.'s navy, forts, garrisons, and all others his officers, on notice to them respectively, and any other persons called to their assistance, shall oblige such vessel to repair to the latter place, and may use all necessary means for the purpose, either by firing guns on her, or other necessary force soever; and in case she shall have come from or have touched at any place infected by the plague, or other infectious disease, or shall have any person on board actually infected with the same, and the commander who, knowing that such place, &c. or person was infected as above, does not disclose the same on such examination, or wilfully omits to hoist the signal in s. 14. pl. 28. to denote the vessel's liability to quarantine as above directed, is guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 19.

39. The commander of every vessel ordered to perform quarantine shall forthwith, after his arrival at the place thereof, deliver on demand to the superintendant thereof, or his assistant, or other person authorized to act, as in s. 18. of this act [or, as in 51 G. 3. c. 46. pl. 36.] (which demand they are required to make) his bill of health, manifest, log-book, and journal, under 100*l.* penalty for wilful neglect, id. s. 20.

40. If the commander of any vessel liable to perform quarantine, and on board which the plague has not then appeared, shall himself quit, or shall knowingly permit any person coming therein to quit the same, by going on shore, or on board any other vessel, before quarantine fully performed, unless in cases directed, and by licences granted, by virtue of orders in council as aforesaid; or in case such commander shall not, within a convenient time after due notice given, cause such vessel and lading to be conveyed into the places appointed for the same, to perform their quarantine respectively, he shall forfeit 500*l.*; and any person coming in, or pilot going on board such vessel, either before or after her arrival in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, who shall, either before or after such arrival, quit such vessel by going on shore, or on board any other vessel or boat, with intent to go on shore, before such vessel be regularly discharged from performance of quarantine, all persons may, by any kind of necessary force, compel them to return on board; and every such pilot, or other person guilty of such offence shall be imprisoned for 6 months, and pay 200*l.*, id. s. 21.

41. When any vessel, having performed quarantine in any foreign lazaret, shall arrive in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, with a clean bill of health, no goods shall be permitted to be landed, unshipped, or moved in order to be landed; but the commander shall immediately give notice thereof, and of the foreign port in which quarantine was performed, to the principal officer of customs of that or of the nearest port, in order that it may be forthwith laid before the privy council; and any person soever who shall land, unship, or move in order to land any such goods before order of council made, or otherwise than is therein directed, shall forfeit 200*l.*, id. s. 22.

42. All persons liable to perform quarantine, and all persons having intercourse with them, whether in ships, lazaret, or elsewhere, shall, during quarantine, be subject to the orders of the superintendant thereof, or his assistant, or of the principal customs officer, (where no such superintendant, &c.), or from any customs officer authorized to act, as in s. 18. pl. 37., [as in 51 G. 3. c. 46. pl. 36.] which officers shall enforce all necessary obedience to such orders, and if necessary, call in others to their assistance, who shall assist accordingly; and shall compel all such persons to repair to such lazaret, vessel, or place, and cause all goods and other articles comprised within any such orders to be made as last aforesaid; [viz. s. 22. pl. 41.] to be conveyed to such lazaret, &c. according to directions of the order in council, or of any 3 or more of the council; and any such person who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to repair forthwith to such lazaret, &c. when required by such officer, or who, having been placed therein shall escape, or attempt to escape thereout, before quarantine duly performed, the said quarantine officers and watchmen, &c. shall, by such necessary force as is required, compel every such person to repair to such lazaret, &c.; and every person so refusing, &c. to repair forthwith to such lazaret, and every person actually escaping as above, are guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, id. s. 23.

43. Any constable or other person may apprehend any person who shall have quitted, come on shore, or escaped from any vessel liable to perform, or then under quarantine, or from any lazaret, vessel, or place appointed in that behalf, in order to take him before a justice, who may grant his warrant for conveying him to the vessel, lazaret, &c., or for confining him in any place of safe custody, not being a public gaol, and under such restrictions as to communication with other persons as in his discretion (calling to his aid, if he think fit, some medical man) shall seem proper, till such person be safely conveyed to some place of performing quarantine, or till directions are obtained from privy council as to his disposal, and may grant any further warrant necessary therein, id. s. 24.

44. Orders in council for sending afloat to perform quarantine persons who had had intercourse with a vessel from which danger of infection was apprehended are valid; and all persons are indemnified for advising as well as for doing, all acts in execution thereof, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 25.

45. If any officer of customs, or other person to whom it appertains to execute, or see executed, any order concerning quarantine and prevention of infection, as in s. 11. pl. 25., notified as in s. 12. pl. 26., shall knowingly embezzle any goods, &c. performing quarantine, or is guilty of other wilful breach or neglect of duty in respect of the ships, persons, goods, &c. so under quarantine, he shall forfeit and be disabled to hold his employment, or shall take a new grant thereof, and shall pay 100*l.*; and if he deserts his duty, or knowingly permits any ship, person, or goods to depart out of the place, lazaret, &c. appointed for quarantine, unless by order of H. M. in council, or of 5 or more of such council; and any person who, being duly authorized to give certificate of the due performance by any ship of quarantine or airing, shall knowingly give false certificate thereof, shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy; and any person wilfully damaging goods in quarantine under his direction, shall be liable to pay treble damages and costs to the owner, id. s. 26.

46. Any person not liable to perform quarantine, who shall enter such lazaret, &c. whilst any person under quarantine is therein, shall perform quarantine there; and if he return, or attempt to return from thence, unless in cases directed, and by licences granted, by virtue of such orders of H. M. in council, or of any 3 of the latter, the quarantine officers, watchmen, and others appointed to guard such lazaret or place of quarantine, may, by all necessary force, compel such persons so returning, &c. to repair into the same, there to perform quarantine; and any such person actually escaping from such lazaret, or other place of quarantine, before fully performing same, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall suffer death, without clergy, id. s. 27.

47. After due performance of quarantine by any vessel or person obliged to perform it as above, according to this act, and such orders made as aforesaid, and on proof, by oaths of the commander and 2 persons belonging thereto, or of 2 or more credible witnesses, before the collector or principal officer of customs at the port where such quarantine shall be performed, or at the nearest port, or before any justice living near the same, or when performed within either Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, before any 2 jurats or magistrates of those isles respectively, that such vessel and every such person respectively have duly performed quarantine as above, and that the vessel and every person are free from infection; and after producing a certificate thereof, signed by the chief officer who superintended the quarantine of such ship, or by the person acting for him, such collector, justice, &c. shall give a certificate thereof, and thereupon such vessel and persons having so performed quarantine, shall be liable to no further detention on the same account for which they have so performed quarantine, id. s. 28.

48. All goods and other articles liable to quarantine shall be opened and aired in such places, for such time and in such manner as by order in council directed, [45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 29.] [and after such orders have been duly complied with, proof thereof shall be made by the oaths of the master of the lazaret or vessel in which the goods, &c. have been so opened and aired, and of one of the guardians, or if no such guardian, of one of the officers authorized, as in 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 18. pl. 37., and 51 G. 3. c. 46. pl. 36., to act in quarantine service in such lazaret or vessel; or if no such officer, of two or more credible witnesses serving therein, before the superintendant or his assistant; or in their default, before any officer authorized as above, which oath such superintendant, &c. shall administer, and make certificate of such proof made; on production whereof to the proper customs officer, authorized by any 4 such commissioners, such goods, &c. shall be liable to no further detention, either at the place where quarantine is performed, or at any other place whereto they may be afterwards conveyed, 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 5.] 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 29., 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 5.

49. Persons who shall wilfully forge or counterfeit, or procure to be forged, &c. any certificate required by this act, or who shall publish the same as true, knowing it to be forged, shall suffer death as felons, without clergy, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 30.

50. Every person who shall land or unship, or move, in order to land or unship, any goods, packages, baggage, wearing apparel, books, letters, or other articles soever, from on board any vessel liable to perform quarantine, or who shall knowingly receive the same after being so landed or unshipped, shall forfeit not exceeding 500*l.*, nor less than 100*l.*; and every person who shall clandestinely convey or secrete, for the purpose of conveying any letters, goods, or other articles from any vessel actually performing quarantine, or from the lazaret or other place where such letters, goods, &c. are performing it, shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 51.

51. If it happens that any part of G. B., Inc., or the isles aforesaid, or France, Spain, Portugal, or the Low Countries, are infected with the plague or other infectious disease, H. M. may, by proclamation, prohibit all small boats and vessels, under 20 tons burden, from passing out of any port or place in G. B., or the islands aforesaid, till security be first given by the master, to the satisfaction of the principal customs officer, or to the chief magistrate of the port, &c., by bond taken without fee by the latter to H. M., with sureties in 300*l.* penalty; conditioned, that if such boat, &c. shall not touch at any country or place mentioned in such proclamation; and if neither the master nor any person on board such vessel shall go on board any other vessel at sea, and shall not suffer any person to come on board at sea, or remove any goods soever, out of any other vessel, such bond shall be void; and vessels sailing without giving such security shall, with their tackle, &c. be forfeited to H. M., and the master and every mariner sailing therein shall forfeit 20*l.*, 45 G. 3. c. 10. s. 32.

52. All penalties incurred for offences against this act may be recovered by suit in any court of record at Westminster, in which no essoin, &c., or more than one imparlance shall be granted, or in Scot. by summary action in the court of session, or by prosecution before the court of judicatory there, or by suit in any of H. M.'s courts in Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, and every such penalty shall be given one moiety to the person who shall inform and sue for same, and the other to H. M., to be applied towards defraying the expences of the lazaret, id. s. 34.

53. No person soever shall commence or cause, &c. any action, information, or prosecution in any H. M.'s courts in Eng. or Scot., or any proceedings before any justice of peace, for recovery of any fine, penalty, or forfeiture incurred by reason of any offence against this act, or orders in council, or by any 3 or more of the council, (as in s. 12. pl. 26.) unless commenced, &c. in the name of the attorney-general in Eng. or lord-advocate in Scot., or in that of some officer of customs in Eng. or Scot. respectively; and actions, &c. commenced in the names of any other persons are void, id. s. 35.

54. In case any proceeding is commenced by any officer of customs for recovery of any fine, penalty, &c. incurred for an offence against this act, or against any such order as aforesaid, H. M.'s attorney-general in Eng., or advocate in Scot., may respectively stop all further proceedings therein, as well with respect to the officer's as to H. M.'s share of such penalties, if under the circumstances they think fit to do so, id. s. 36.

55. Persons hereby authorized to take examinations on oath may administer the same, and persons swearing falsely, or procuring others so to do on such examinations, are guilty of perjury, or subornation thereof, as the case is, and shall be punished accordingly, id. s. 37., [and see 46 G. 3. c. 98. s. 10. pl. 12.]

56. All offences against this act, not being felonies, and every disobedience to any order of council made as above, for which no specific penalty is hereby provided, may be tried before any 2 justices of the county, or place where the same shall happen, and any person convicted thereof shall be liable to such penalty, not exceeding 50*l.*, or to not more than 3 months imprisonment for any one offence, as in their discretion is judged proper to be paid, one moiety to the party suing, and the other to H. M., to be applied as in s. 34. pl. 52., id. s. 38.

57. No attainder of felony under this act shall work any corruption of blood, or forfeiture of lands or goods, id. s. 39.

58. In proceedings against any person for any offence against this act, or any act hereafter passed concerning quarantine, viz. 46 G. 3. c. 98. &c. or for any breach of orders made by H. M. in council concerning quarantine, and notified or published as aforesaid, or of any order made by 3 or more of the council, as in s. 12. pl. 26., the answer of the commander of any vessel, to any questions put to him under s. 18. pl. 37., or any other such act, or order as aforesaid, may be given and received as evidence, so far as it relates to the place from whence such vessel came, or at which she touched during her voyage, and where directed to perform quarantine by the superintendant of quarantine or his assistant, or where no such superintendant, &c., by the principal or other officer of customs, authorized, as in s. 12. pl. 26., to act in that behalf, the having been so directed to perform quarantine may be given and received as evidence, that such vessel was liable to quarantine, unless satisfactory proof is given by defendant, to show that the vessel did not come from, or touch at any such place, as stated in the answer, or that such vessel, though directed to perform quarantine, was not liable to performance thereof; and where any vessel shall in fact have been put under quarantine at any port, by such superintendant, assistant, or officer, such vessel shall be deemed liable to quarantine, without proving in what manner she became liable thereto, id. s. 40.

59. Whenever any person is charged with any offence against this or any other act hereafter passed, concerning quarantine, viz. 46 G. 3. c. 98., &c. or with any breach of any such order in council as aforesaid, and the same is made appear to any judge of K. B., by affidavit, or certificate of indictment or information being filed in such court for such offence, he may issue his warrant, and cause such person to be brought before him, or some other judge of the court, or before some justice of peace, in order to his being bound to H.M. with two sufficient sureties, in the sum expressed in the warrant, with condition to appear in the court at the time mentioned therein, and to answer to all indictments, &c. for any of the above offences; and if he refuse to become so bound, such judge or justice may commit him to the common gaol of the county, &c. where the offence was committed, or he was apprehended, till he has become bound as aforesaid, or is discharged by order of K.B. in term-time, or by one of the judges in vacation; and the recognizances to be taken thereon shall be returned and filed in that court, and shall continue in force till such person has been acquitted of such offence, or, in case of conviction, has received judgment for the same, unless sooner ordered by the court to be discharged; and where any person by virtue of such warrant and commitment is or shall hereafter be detained in any gaol for want of bail, the prosecutor may cause a copy thereof to be delivered to such person, or to the keeper of the gaol wherein such person is detained, with a notice thereon indorsed, that unless he shall, within 8 days from the time of such delivery of a copy of the indictment, &c., cause an appearance, and also a plea or demurrer to be entered thereto, an appearance and plea of not guilty will be entered thereto in the name of such persons respectively; and in case he shall thereupon, for such 8 days after delivery of such copy as aforesaid, neglect to cause an appearance, and plea or demurrer to be entered, the prosecutor, on affidavit made and filed in such court, of a delivery of such copy, with such notice, indorsed as above to such person or gaoler, &c., (which affidavit may be made before any judge or commissioner of affidavits in that court,) may enter an appearance and plea of not guilty for such persons respectively, and proceedings shall be had thereon, as if defendant had appeared, and pleaded not guilty according to the usual course of the court, and if on trial of such indictment, &c. the defendant so committed, &c. as aforesaid, is acquitted of the offences charged on him, the judge before whom his trial is had, though not belonging to K.B., may order his discharge out of custody as to such commitment, and he shall be accordingly discharged, 45 G.3. c.10. s.41.

QUARTER SESSIONS.

1. THE JUSTICES SHALL HOLD THEIR SESSIONS in every county in Eng. at least four times a year, 25 E.3. St.1. c.7. [but see now 2 H.5. St.1. c.4., 54 G.3. c.84. post, pl.9.]
2. AT WHAT TIMES THE FOUR SESSIONS OF JUSTICES OF peace shall be holden, 36 E.3. c.12. [AMD. 12 R.2. c.10.]
3. In commissions of justices of the peace and of labourers, mention shall be made, that the same justices make their sessions four times of the year, viz., one session within utras of the Epiphany; the 2d within the 2d week of Mid-Lent; the 3d betwixt the feasts of Pentecost and St. John Baptist; the 4th in 8 days of Saint Michael, 36 E.3. c.12.
4. Such justices shall hold their sessions every quarter of the year on pain to be punished, after the advice of H.M.'s council at the suit of every man who will complain, 12 R.2. c.10. [See the rest of this act, JUSTICES OF PEACE, pl.8, &c.]
5. FOR REGULATING THE QUARTER SESSIONS OF JUSTICES OF the peace, 2 H.5. St.1. c.4. s.2. (for the rest of this act, see LABOURERS.) [Further regulated for Middlesex, 14 H.6. c.4., 32 G.3. c.48. (PUBLIC clause, s.2.) and for the Michaelmas session, 54 G.3. c.84.]
6. Justices of every shire named on the quorum resident therein, (except lords named in the commission of the peace, and except justices of either bench, the chief baron, serjeants at law, and H.M.'s attornies, whilst occupied in H.M.'s courts or service) shall make their sessions 4 times a year, viz., in the first week respectively, after Saint Michael, [but see now 54 G.3. c.84. pl.9.] after Epiphany, after the clause of Easter, and after the translation of Saint Thomas, (7th July,) and oftener if need be, 2 H.5. St.1. c.4. s.2.
7. The justices of peace in Middlesex, shall be discharged of the pain in 12 R.2. c.10., the court of K.B. being in the county of Middlesex; provided that the justices of peace of Middlesex keep the sessions of the peace twice in the year at least, and more often if need be for any riot or forcible entry done within such county, and on pain of such sums as be before ordained by law; that the inhabitants of such county be not enforced to appear before such justices except when necessary, id. ibid.
8. When any session of the peace and session of oyer and terminer, holden before the justices of peace for Middlesex, has been begun to be holden before the essoin day of any term, such session may be continued and the business thereof concluded, notwithstanding the happening of such essoin day or the sitting of the court of K.B. in Middlesex; and all trials, judgments, proceedings, acts, and things, in pursuance of such judgments, had, made, or done at such session so continued, shall be good and valid, 32 G.3. c.48. s.1. [See similar act for any session of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery for Newgate, 25 G.3. c.18. page 421. pl.35.]
9. The Michaelmas quarter sessions shall be held yearly for every county, riding, division, city, borough, and place, in Eng., Wa. and

- Ber.*, in the first week after the 11th Oct., instead of the time now appointed, and all acts done then shall be valid, 54 G.3. c.84. s.1.
10. This act shall not extend to alter the time at which the sessions for London or Middlesex are now holden, id. s.2.
 11. JUSTICES OF PEACE IN SESSIONS shall try and determine indictments taken in sheriffs' turns, 1 E.4. c.2. [See the qualifications of jurors to serve on indictments in the sheriff's turn, 1 R.3. c.4., JURY, pl.8.]
 12. Whatever indictments and presentments shall be taken before the sheriffs, their under-sheriffs, clerks, bailiffs, or ministers at their turns on law days, they shall not arrest, or attach, or levy any fines or amer- ciaments of any person so indicted or presented, nor take any fine or ransom of such persons by colour thereof; but such sheriffs, &c. shall deliver all such indictments and presentments to the justices of peace at their next sessions for the county where such indictments, &c. were taken; and if such sheriffs, &c. fail so to do they shall forfeit 40*l.* to H.M.; and such justices shall award process on such indictments and presentments in like form as if taken before them, and may arraign and deliver all persons so indicted or presented, and fine those indicted or presented of trespass; and the estreats of such fines shall be enrolled, and by indenture delivered to such sheriffs, &c. to the use of the sheriff at the time when such indictments, &c. were taken; and if any such sheriffs, &c. do arrest, or attach, or fine, or ransom any persons so in- dicted, &c. before they have process from such justices, or estreats de- livered, they shall forfeit 100*l.*; one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party damaged; and he shall have therefore an action of debt at common law and usual process therein; and the defendants therein shall not be essoined or wage their law, and shall not be allowed any protection, 1 E.4. c.2. s.1.
 13. This ordinance shall not extend to the sheriffs of London con- cerning indictments or presentments taken within London, id. s.2.
 14. This ordinance shall not affect grantees of fines or amer- ciaments granted by letters-patent before 10th Dec. next after this parliament, nor grantees of franchises by such letters or otherwise by prescription, id. s.3.
 15. TO EMPOWER MAGISTRATES TO DIVIDE THE COURT OF quarter sessions, 59 G.3. c.28.
 16. Whenever any court of quarter or general session of the peace is assembled for dispatch of business, the justices there may, on the first day of their assembly, consider the state of the business likely to be brought before them; and if it appear to them, that the same, if heard by the whole court, is likely to occupy more than 3 days, including the day of assembly, they may appoint two or more justices, one being of the quorum, to sit apart from themselves in some place, in or near the court, there to hear and determine such business as is referred to them, whilst others of the justices proceed in dispatch of the other business of the same court, which proceedings shall be as valid as if had before the court assembled in its ordinary place and manner, and shall be in- rolled and recorded accordingly, id. s.1.
 17. When two or more justices have sat apart as in s.1., and orders and regulations have been made for the apportionment of business, the same shall continue in force as long as expedient, without necessity of renewal at each succeeding session; so that the same may become public and better known to all professional and other persons interested in the business of such session, id. s.2.
 18. The clerk of the peace or his deputy, wherever two or more justices shall sit apart at any quarter sessions, shall appoint a fit person to record the proceedings so had before them, which shall be delivered over to the clerk of the peace or his deputy, and shall be equally deemed a part of the records of such session as if recorded by the clerk of the peace, &c. himself; and the justices assembled at the quarter session may order the county treasurer to pay the clerk of the peace such sum as they think fit for such purpose; and may appoint an additional cryer to be remunerated as above, id. s.3.

QUEEN ANNE'S BOUNTY. (See FIRST-FRUIT.)

1. FOR MAKING MORE EFFECTUAL H.M.'s GRACIOUS INTENTIONS for the augmentation of the maintenance of the poor clergy, by enabling H. M. to grant in perpetuity the revenues of the first fruits and yearly perpetual tenths; and also for enabling any other persons to make grants for the same purpose, 2 & 3 A. c.11. [MADE MORE EFFECTUAL, 1 G.1. St.2. c.10.; and as to deeds and wills for granting and bequeath- ing lands and goods to the governors of queen Anne's bounty, 45 G.3. c.107.; and as to the returns of certificates into the exchequer and gifts of personal property, 45 G.3. c.84.]
2. H. M. by letters-patent under the great seal, may incorporate such persons as she shall appoint, to be one body politic and corporate, to have a common seal and perpetual succession, and also at H.M.'s will by like letters, may grant and settle to such corporation for ever all the revenues of first-fruits and yearly perpetual tenths, to be applied to the augmentation of the maintenance of such parsons, vicars, curates, and other ministers, officiating in any church or chapel in Eng. Wa. and Ber., where the liturgy of the church of Eng. is observed, with such powers, limitations, and restrictions as therein expressed, 2 & 3 A. c. 11. s. 1.

3. Statutes and provisions relating to first-fruits and tenths, shall continue in force, for the purposes in such letters-patent contained, id. s. 2.

4. This act shall not impeach or affect any grant, exchange, alienation, or incumbrance, heretofore made upon such revenues, but the same shall be in full force, id. s. 5.

5. All persons having in their own right any estate or interest in possession, reversion, or contingency in any lands, or any property in goods, may by deed inrolled, as by 27 H. 8. c. 16. directed, or by their last wills in writing duly executed, give, grant, and vest in such corporation, all or any part of their interest in such lands and goods towards the augmentation of the maintenance of such ministers as in s. 1., having no settled and competent provision, and to be applied as such deed or will shall appoint; and in default of such appointment in such manner as such letters-patent shall direct, such corporation may purchase, take, and enjoy for such purposes, as well from persons giving as from persons willing to sell to them, any manors, lands, or goods, without licence or writ of ad quod damnum, id. s. 4.

6. Provided this act shall not enable persons within age of non sane memory, or women-covert without their husbands, to make such gift, grant, or alienation, id. s. 5.

7. The ss. 4, 5. of 5 & 5 A. c. 11. shall be in force, notwithstanding the 9 G. 2. c. 36., for restraining the disposition of lands, whereby the same shall become unalienable, 43 G. 3. c. 107. s. 1.

8. Any person having in their own right any money, goods, or personal effects, may give or vest in the governors of queen Anne's bounty, to be disposed of according to law, all or any part thereof, without any deed, either inrolled or not inrolled, as he might before this act was passed, 45 G. 5. c. 84. s. 3.

9. Nothing herein shall affect the laws respecting the gift or conveyance of any lands, &c. by deed, or the disposition thereof of any personal property by will, id. s. 4.

10. One bond only shall be required or given for the 4 payments of the first-fruits, which first-fruits, as well as the tenths payable by the clergy, shall be answered and paid by them, according to such rules and proportions as heretofore usual, 2 & 3 A. c. 11. s. 6.

11. The bishops and the guardians of spiritualities, sede vacante, shall by oath of 2 witnesses, or otherwise, inform themselves of the clear improved yearly value of every benefice, with one living and curacy; and of the maintenance of every parson, vicar, curate, and minister, officiating in churches, observing the liturgy of the church of Eng. within their several dioceses, or peculiars, or places, exempt from jurisdiction, and how such yearly values arise and other circumstances thereof; and shall afterwards certify the same, under hand and seal of office, to the governors of queen Anne's bounty, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 1.

12. Where by certificates returned into the exchequer under 5 & 6 A. c. 24. and 6 A. c. 27., or made good by this act, the yearly value of any livings not exceeding 50*l.* per annum are duly specified, such certificates shall ascertain the yearly values of such livings, in order to their being augmented by such governors, and no different valuation shall be returned, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 2.

13. All bishops and guardians of spiritualities, sede vacante, shall from time to time, as they see occasion, by such ways as are directed by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. inform themselves of the clear yearly value of all such benefices, with cure of souls, livings, and curacies returned into exchequer, in pursuance of 5 A. c. 24. and 6 A. c. 27. (see FIRST FRUITS) within their several dioceses or peculiars, or places exempt from jurisdiction, and how they arise, and other circumstances thereof; and certify the same to the governors of queen Anne's bounty; and such governors may act on such new certificates with respect to livings formerly certified into the exchequer, as fully as they might do under 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. in regard to such livings not so certified into the exchequer, and as if the restraint in s. 2. of the said act had not been made, 45 G. 3. c. 84. s. 1.

14. Provided such certificates as were returned into the exchequer for the purpose of ascertaining what livings were to be discharged from tenths and first-fruits, shall not, as far as relates to such tenths, &c. be affected by this act, id. s. 2.

15. All rules and orders by such governors, from time to time agreed on, and proposed to H. M., according to the letters patent of incorporation, and by H. M. approved under his sign manual, shall be as good as if the same were established under the great seal in pursuance of such letters, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 3.

16. "Whereas H. M.'s bounty was to extend not only to parsons and vicars, but also to such ministers who come in by donation, or are only stipendiary preachers or curates, officiating in any church or chapel, according to the liturgy of the church of Eng. and most of which are not corporations, and therefore not capable of a grant of perpetual augmentation:" IT IS ENACTED, that all such churches, curacies, or chapels, which shall be augmented by the governors of queen Anne's bounty, shall be from the time of such augmentation perpetual cures and benefices, and the ministers duly nominated and licensed thereto, and their successors, shall be esteemed bodies politic and corporate, and have perpetual succession by such name as in the grant of augmentation mentioned, and shall have legal capacity to take in perpetuity to them and their successors, all such lands, tithes, and hereditaments, as shall be granted unto them by such governors, or other persons contributing with such governors as benefactors; and the impropiators or patrons of any augmented churches or donatives, and their heirs, and the rectors and vicars of the mother churches, whereto such augmented curacy or chapel appertains, shall not derive any benefit from such augmentation, and shall after such augmentation pay to the officiating minister there such annual allowance, which by custom or otherwise, of right and not of bounty ought to be paid, and which they might by law be compelled to pay, and such other yearly allowance as may be agreed on between such governors and such patron or impropiator on making the augmentation, and the same shall be vested in such ministers and their successors, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 4.

17. No such rector or vicar of such mother churches, or any other ecclesiastical person having cure of souls, within the parish where such augmented church or chapel is situate, shall be discharged of the same, but the cure of souls, and all other parochial duties and rights (such augmentation and allowance only excepted) shall remain as before this act, id. s. 5.

18. In case such augmented cures remain void for 6 months, without the nomination of a fit person to serve the same to the bishop, or other ordinary to be licensed, the same shall lapse to such bishop, &c., and from him to the metropolitan, and from him to the crown, as in cases of presentative livings, and such right of nomination may be granted or recovered, and the incumbency thereof determined, as the presentation to and incumbency of any vicarage presentative may be, id. s. 6.

19. In case the person entitled to nominate to such augmented cure shall suffer lapse, but shall nominate before advantage is taken thereof, the same shall be good, though so much time be elapsed as that the title of lapse be vested in the crown, id. s. 7.

20. Recital, "That the governors of queen Anne's bounty may give 200*l.* to cures not exceeding 55*l.* per ann., where any person will give the same or greater sum in lands or tithes," therefore to encourage such benefactions, ALL agreements with such benefactors, with the consent of such governors, touching the patronage of such augmented cures made for the benefit of such benefactor or his heirs, by H. M. under his sign manual, or by any bodies corporate, or persons whatever having an estate of inheritance in fee simple, or fee tail, in their own right, or that of their churches or cures, or jointly with their wives, made before coverture or after, or having an estate for life or years determinable on their own lives, with remainder in fee simple or tail, to any issue of their own bodies, in such patronage in possession, reversion, or remainder, shall be good against H. M., or such bodies corporate, or such persons so agreeing, their wives, heirs, and successors, and their issue, and against all others claiming in remainder or reversion, after such estate tail, according to such agreement, and the advowson, patronage, and right of presentation and nomination to such augmented churches and chapels, shall be vested in such benefactors, their heirs and successors, against H. M., as if the same had been duly granted, id. s. 8.

21. Any such agreements of guardians, on behalf of infants or lunatics under their guardianship, shall be valid, id. s. 9.

22. Any such agreement by a parson or vicar, shall be by consent of the patron and ordinary, id. s. 10.

23. In case of any such agreement made by any person seized in right of his wife, the wife shall be a party to seal and execute the same, id. s. 11.

24. Such agreements shall be as effectual for supplying cures vacant at the time of such augmentation made, as for the advowson in future vacancies, id. s. 12.

25. With the concurrence of such governors, and of the incumbent, patron, and ordinary of any augmented living or cure, it shall be lawful to exchange all or any part of the lands settled in augmentation thereof, for any other estate in land or tythes of equal or greater value, to be conveyed to the same uses, id. s. 13.

26. The power of exchange given by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 13. shall extend to all buildings and lands belonging to such augmented livings or cures, 43 G. 3. c. 107. s. 2.

27. All donatives now exempt from ecclesiastical jurisdiction, and augmented under this act, shall be thereafter subject to the visitation of the bishop of the diocese, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 14.

28. No donative shall be so augmented, without consent in writing of patron under hand and seal, id. s. 15.

29. Where it shall fall to the lot of any donative, curacy, or chapelry, to receive an augmentation from such bounty, according to the rules established, such governors may, before they make such augmentation, treat and agree with the patron of any defective, impropricator of any rectory appropriated without endowment of any vicarage, or parson or vicar of any mother church for a perpetual yearly allowance to the minister thereof, to be made by such patron, &c. and his heirs; and for charging the impropricator rectory or mother church, or vicarage therewith, in such manner and with such remedies as may be thought fit; and such agreement made with H. M., under his sign manual, or with any bodies corporate, or other person having any estate in such impropricator rectory in his own right, or in right of his wife or church, or with the guardians of any person having such estate, or with any parson or vicar of any mother church, shall be as good as the agreements in s. 8. mentioned, and in case such impropricator, other than the king, and such parson or vicar will not make such agreement, such governors may refuse such augmentation, and apply the money to augment some other cure, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 16.

50. Certain livings, &c. to have the benefit of 5 & 6 A. c. 24. and 6 A. c. 27. id. s. 17, 18. [See FIRST-FRUITS AND TENTHS, pl. 65.]

51. The courts and committees of such governors, may, and shall administer an oath to such person as shall give them information or be examined concerning any matter relating to this or the said former acts, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 10. s. 19.

52. All augmentations, certificates, agreements, and exchanges made under this act, shall be entered in a book kept by such governors, and such entries being approved at a court of such governors, and attested by them, shall be taken as records, and true copies thereof, being proved by one witness, shall be deemed good evidence in law, touching such matters, id. s. 20.

53. If such governors shall, by any deed or instrument in writing, under their common seal, allot or apply to any church or chapel any lands, tithes, or hereditaments, arising from such bounty, or from private benefaction, or from any other ways, and shall declare that the same shall be annexed for ever to such church, then such lands, &c. shall be held, and go in succession with such church, &c. for ever, and such augmentation so made, shall be good, whether the church for which it is intended, be then full or vacant, provided such instrument be enrolled in the high court of chancery, within 6 months after the day of the date thereof, id. s. 21.

54. Where such governors shall augment a living, either by lot or benefaction, and there is no parsonage house suitable for the residence of the minister, such governors may apply any money in their hands appropriated for such augmentation, in such manner as they deem most advisable, towards building, rebuilding, or purchasing a house within the parish, which shall ever after be deemed the parsonage house of such living, 43 G. 3. c. 107. s. 3.

QUIETING POSSESSIONS.

1. FOR GENERAL QUIET OF THE SUBJECT AGAINST ALL PRETENCES OF concealment whatsoever, 21 J. 1. c. 2. [AMD. 9 G. 3. c. 16., 11 G. 3. c. 4., EXT. to Ire. and AMD. 48 G. 3. c. 47.]

2. FOR QUIETING POSSESSIONS AND CONFIRMING DEFECTIVE titles in Ire. and limiting the right of the crown to sue in manner therein mentioned; and for relief of incumbents in respect of arrears due to the crown during the incumbency of their predecessors, 48 G. 3. c. 47.

3. H. M. shall not sue, impeach, question, or implead any person or persons, bodies politic or corporate, [in Ire. 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1.] for or concerning any manors, lands, tenements, rents, tithes, or heredithe revenues, issues, or profits thereof, nor make any title, claim, challenge, or demand, of, in, or to the same, by reason of any right or title which has not first accrued within 60 years next before the commencing such action, bill, plaint, information, commission, or other suit for recovering the same; or in respect thereof, unless H. M., or those through whom he, his heirs or successors claim, have or shall have been answered by force of any such right or title to the same, the rents, revenues, issues, or profits thereof, or those of any honour, manor, or hereditament, whereof the premises in question are part, within 60 years; or that the same have been duly in charge, or have stood insuper of record, within that space of time, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 1., 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1., and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1. as to Ire.

4. All persons, bodies politic and corporate, their heirs, &c., and all claiming under them, shall, according to their estates, at all times hereafter, quietly and freely have, hold, and enjoy, against H. M., his heirs and successors, claiming by any title which has not accrued [or which hereafter first accrue, 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1.] within the said space of 60 years, all manors, lands, &c. as in last pl. (except liberties and franchises) which they or those under whom they claim have enjoyed or taken the rents or profits of, by the space of 60 years next before commencing such suit for recovering the same, unless H. M. or some other person under whom he, or his heirs and successors claim, have been answered, by virtue of such title, the rents or profits thereof, within 60 years, or that the same have been duly in charge, or have stood insuper of record as above, within that time, 21 J. 2. c. 1. s. 1., 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1., and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 1. as to Ire.

5. And furthermore, all persons, &c. (as in last pl.) shall, according to their several estates and interests for ever hereafter quietly hold and enjoy all such manors, lands, &c. (except liberties and franchises) as they now, or hereafter shall or may have, claim, or enjoy the same, whereof H. M., his ancestors, heirs or successors, or they under whom he claims, by force of some title to the same, have not been answered the rents or profits, within 60 years next before commencing such suit for recovering the same, nor the same have been duly in charge, or stood insuper of record as above, within 60 years against all persons claiming to have any estate, interest, or claim soever in or to the same, by letters patent, or grants, on suggestion of concealment, or wrongful detaining, or not being in charge, or defective titles, or under any patentees or grantees, or any letters patent or grants, on suggestion of concealment or wrongful detaining, or not being in charge or defective titles, of or for which said manors, lands, &c. no verdict, judgment, decree, judicial order on hearing, or sentence of any court now standing in force, hath, or shall hereafter be had or given in any courts at Westminster, for or in the name of H. M., his ancestors, heirs or successors, or of any such patentees or grantees, within 60 years next before commencing such suit for recovering the same, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 1. as AMD. by 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 1.

6. Where the rents or profits of any manors, lands, &c. are in charge, by, to, or with any auditor or other proper officer of revenue, they shall be deemed duly in charge within these acts, 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 2. and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 2. as to Ire.

7. Nothing herein shall bar H. M., his heirs or successors, of any manors, lands, &c. (as in pl. 3.) whereof any reversion or remainder is now in H. M.; nor of any reversion or remainder, or possibility of either, in any of H. M.'s ancestors or predecessors, which, by determination of any limited estate of fee-simple, fee-tail, or other particular estate hath fallen, or shall hereafter fall in possession, within 60 years next before commencing any suit for recovering the same; nor of any right or title first accrued to H. M., his ancestors, heirs or successors, of or to any manors, lands, &c. within 60 years next before such suit commenced, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 2., 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 3.

8. Nothing herein shall extend to any manors, lands, &c. (as in pl. 3.) mentioned to be granted by any H. M.'s ancestors, or by any other under whom H. M. claims, to any person of any limited estate in fee-simple, in tail, or other particular estate; which several estates, if good in law, have, or ought to have first fallen or become in possession, or will, or ought first to fall, &c. within 60 years next before commencing any suit for recovering the same; nor to any manors, &c. mentioned to be granted by any H. M.'s ancestors, or by any other under whom H. M. claims, to any person in fee-tail or other particular estate, whereof the reversion or inheritance (if the particular estate had been good in law) should have continued in H. M., or any of his ancestors, or should or ought hereafter to be and continue in H. M., his heirs or successors, at any time within 60 years next before commencing any suit for recovering the same, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 3., 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 4. and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 3. as to Ire.

9. All such manors, lands, &c. (as in pl. 5.) shall hereafter be holden of H. M., his heirs and successors, and of others by the same tenures, services, fee-farms, chief rents, hereditaments, and other duties, as the same ought of right to have been holden, if the estates, rights, and interests by this act established, had been before firm, good, and effectual in law, saving to every person, body politic and corporate, their heirs and successors, (other than H. M., his heirs and successors, and other than all patentees or grantees of concealments or defective titles, and all persons claiming under them) all such rights, title, interest, estate, rents, commons, customs, duties, profits, and other claims and demands soever, in, to, or out of the said manors, &c. as they had, or ought to have had before these acts, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 4., 9 G. 3. c. 16. ss. 5, 6. and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 4. as to Ire.

10. Where any fee-farm or other rent has been paid to H. M., his predecessors, heirs or successors, within 60 years next before suit shall hereafter be commenced for recovering the same, out of any manors, lands, &c. (as in pl. 5.) of which the estates rights, or interests being defective, are by this act established, H. M., his heirs and successors, shall, for ever, have and enjoy the said rents and arrears, as amply as they were enjoyed at any time within the said space of 60 years, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 6., 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 7. and 48 G. 3. c. 47. s. 5. as to Ire.

11. No putting in charge, standing insuper, or taking or answering the farm rents, revegues, or profits of any such lands, &c. (as in pl. 3.) by colour of letters patent or grants of concealments, or defective titles, or of manors, lands, &c. out of charge, or by pretext of any inquisitions, presentments under commission to find out concealments, &c. or lands, &c. out of charge, shall be deemed to be a putting in charge, &c. standing insuper, or answering the farm rents, revenues, or profits, by or to

H. M., his predecessors, heirs or successors, unless thereupon such manors, lands, &c. have been, or shall, on verdict of demurrer in law, be adjudged, or on hearing decreed for H. M., his predecessors, heirs or successors, within 60 years next before commencing suit, 21 J. 1. c. 2. s. 7, 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 10.

12. Nothing herein shall prejudice H. M.'s rights to lands, tenements, or hereditaments in East Greenwich or the Savoy, if prosecuted with effect, in two years from 1 Jan. 1769, 9 G. 3. c. 16. s. 9. [Ext. to 1 Jan. 1771., 11 G. 3. c. 4. s. 1.]

13. Nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of H. M.'s patentees or grantees of manors, lands, &c. granted previous to 1 Jan. 1769, and prosecuted with effect within a year from that time, id. s. 9. [CONF. 11 G. 5. c. 4. s. 2.]

14. Incumbents of benefices, having actual cure of souls, shall not be liable to pay arrears of crown rents chargeable on their benefices, which have accrued due before their title arose, and no distress, &c. shall be made, or action brought against them for the same, 48 G. 5. c. 47. s. 6. Ire. only.

QUO WARRANTO.

1. THE PRELATES, EARLS, BARONS, AND OTHERS SHALL use their liberties after the form of the writ following, 5 E. 1. St. 1.

'The king to the sheriff greeting: Whereas lately in our parliament at Westminster it was provided and proclaimed by us and our council, that the prelates, earls, barons, and others of our realm who claim to have divers liberties by charters of our progenitors kings of Eng., for examining and judging whereof we had prefixed a day in the same, should use those liberties in such manner that they should increase nothing to themselves, by usurpation or occupation, nor should occupy aught upon us; we command you that you permit all those of your county to use and enjoy their liberties which they have hitherto reasonably used in form aforesaid, until our next coming through the county aforesaid, or until the next coming of our justices itinerant for all pleas in the county, or until we shall give other command therein, saving always our right when we will implead thereof. Witness, &c. id. s. 2. [These forms are translated from the Latin text.]

2. In the same form writs shall be directed to sheriffs, &c. for every demandant, and the form shall be changed after the diversity of the liberty in this wise, id. s. 3.

'The king to the sheriff greeting: We command you that through all your bailiwick, viz. as well in cities as in boroughs, and other market towns and elsewhere, you cause publicly to proclaim that all they who claim to have any liberties by charters of our progenitors, kings of Eng., or in other manner, be before our justices at the first assize, to shew what kind of liberties they claim to have; and by what warrant, and that yourself be there personally with your bailiffs and ministers, to certify the justices upon these and other businesses touching the same, &c. id. s. 4. [see note to pl. 1.]

3. The clause of proclamation is put in the writ of common summons of the justices of Eyre, and shall have a premonition of 40 days, as the common summons hath; and if the parties do not come the liberties shall be taken into H. M.'s hands, in name of distress by the sheriff, so that they shall not use them until they come to answer before the justices; and when they come in, their liberties shall be replevied; and if they challenge that they are not bound to answer without an original writ, if it appear that they have usurped any liberties, they shall be commanded to answer without writ, and shall have judgment of K. B.; and if they will say that their ancestors died seised, they shall be heard, and the truth shall be enquired, and if it appear that their ancestors died seised, H. M. shall have a writ out of chancery in this form:—

'The king to the sheriff: Summon by good summoners such a one, that he be before us at such a place, in our next coming in the county aforesaid, or before our justices at the next assize, when they shall come into those parts, to shew by what warrant he holds the view of frankpledge in his manor of N.; [or thus,] by what warrant he holds the hundred of S. in the county aforesaid; [or,] by what warrant he claims to have toll for him and his heirs, through our whole realm, and have there this writ. Witness, &c. [see note to pl. 1.]

RAPE. (See WOMEN.)

1. PUNISHMENT OF HIM THAT DOTH RAVISH A WOMAN, 3 E. 1. c. 13.

2. None shall ravish or take away by force any maiden within age, neither by her own consent nor without, nor any wife or maiden of full age, or any other woman against her will, and if any do, H. M. shall do right, and if none sue within 40 days H. M. shall sue, and the guilty shall be imprisoned for 2 years, and make fine to H. M., and if they have not wherewithal to be fined, they shall be punished by longer imprisonment, 3 E. 1. c. 13.

3. PUNISHMENT OF RAPE: OF A MARRIED WOMAN ELOPING with an adulterer; for carrying off a nun, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 34.; [and as to ravishers, and as to women who consent after rape, 6 E. 2. St. 1. c. 6.; see 13 E. 1. c. 7. BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 18., &c.]

And they shall be adjourned unto short days, and have reasonable delays, according to the discretion of the justices, as in personal actions, and the clause underwritten shall be put in a writ of common summons, in the circuit of the justices assigned for common pleas: viz.

'The king to the sheriff greeting: We command you that you cause publicly to proclaim, that all who complain, or will complain, as well of our ministers and other bailiffs whomsoever, and others, that they come before our justices at the first assize, there to shew all their complaints, to receive competent amends thereof, according to the law and custom of our realm, and according to the ordinance thereupon by us made, and according to the statutes and articles thereupon delivered to our said justices, as the aforesaid justices shall do you to know on our part. Witness ourselves, &c. id. s. 5. [see note to pl. 1.]

4. All which can verify, by the country or otherwise, that they and their ancestors or predecessors have used any liberties before the time of Ric. I., or in all his time, and have continued hitherto, so that they have not misused such liberties, shall in a quo warranto be adjourned further unto a certain day before the justices within the which they may go to H. M., with the record of the justices under their seal, and also return; and H. M., by letters patent shall confirm their estate, and they that cannot prove the seisin of their ancestors or predecessors in such manner, shall be judged after the law, and such as have H. M.'s charters shall be judged according to them, and the full effect thereof, 18 E. 1. St. 2. s. 1.

5. All judgments that are to be given in pleas of quo warranto by the justices at Westminster for H. M., if the parties grieved will come again before H. M., he of his grace shall give them such remedy as before; also pleas of quo warranto shall be pleaded and determined in the circuit of the justices, id. s. 2.

6. All those which claim to have quiet possession of any franchise before the time of R. 1., without interruption, and can shew the same by a lawful inquest, shall enjoy their possession; and in case such possession is demanded for cause reasonable, H. M. shall confirm it by title, and those who have old charters of franchise shall have the same charters adjudged according to their tenor, id. s. 5.

7. FOR AMENDING THE LAW IN PROCEEDINGS IN NATURE of quo warranto, 32 G. 5. c. 58.

8. The defendant to any information in nature of a quo warranto, whether exhibited by leave of the court or by the attorney-general, or other officer of the crown, by virtue of any royal prerogative or otherwise, may plead that he had first actually taken the office or franchise 6 years before exhibiting such information, to be reckoned from the day on which defendant was actually admitted and sworn; which plea may be pleaded either singly or with such other plea as he might have pleaded before this act, or such several pleas as the court shall allow; and if on the trial the issue is found for the defendant, he shall be entitled to judgment and costs, id. s. 1.

9. But in every such case the prosecutor may reply to such plea any forfeiture, surrender, or avoidance happening within 6 years, whereon defendant may take issue, id. s. 2.

10. And if any person against whom any such information shall be exhibited shall devise his title under an election, nomination, swearing into office, or admission by any person, his title shall not be defeated by reason of any defect in the title of such person selecting, nominating, swearing, or admitting, in case such person was in exercise de facto of the franchise 6 years previous to the time of filing such information, and his title shall not have been questioned by any legal proceeding carried on with effect, id. s. 3.

11. And the mayor, bailiff, sheriff, town-clerk, or other officer of any corporation having custody of the records, shall, on demand of any officer or member, on payment of 1s., permit him, on any day, except Christmas Day, Good Friday, and Sunday, between 9 a. m. and 3 p. m., to inspect the books and papers of admission or swearing in, and to have copies or minutes thereof, on paying 6d. for every 100 words; and any such mayor, &c. who shall refuse or deny any such matters shall forfeit 100l. with costs, to him that shall sue within one year, id. s. 4.

4. If a man do ravish a woman married, maid or other, where she did not consent neither before nor after, he shall have judgment of life and member; and where a man ravisheth a woman, married lady, maid, or other, with force, although she consent after, he shall have judgment as before said, if attainted at H. M.'s suit, 3 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 34. s. 1.

5. Of women carried away with the goods of their husbands, H. M. shall have suit for the goods; and if a wife go away and continue with her adulterer willingly, she shall be barred of her action for dower, if convict, unless her husband willingly reconcile her, and suffer her to dwell with him, in which case her action shall be restored, id. s. 2. [Three years' imprisonment for taking away a nun, id. s. 3. Ext.]

6. Whenever ladies, daughters of noblemen, and other women be ravished; and after such rape do consent to such ravisher, then as well the ravisher as the ravished shall be disabled to have all inheritance, dower, or jointure after the death of their husbands or ancestors, and the next of blood shall have title, directly after the rape, to enter on the ravisher and ravished, and their assigns or tenants, in the same inheritance, &c. to hold in state of inheritance; and the husbands, if any, and if not the fathers of such women, or their next of blood, may prosecute to life or member, although the woman did consent after such rape to the ravisher. The defendants shall be denied the wager of battle, but shall be tried by the country, saving to H. M. and the lords of the realm all their escheats of such ravishers, CR. 2. S. 1. c. 6.

REBELLION.

1. PARDON AND INDEMNITY TO THOSE THAT REPRRESSED OR PUNISHED rebels, 5 R. 2. St. 1. c. 6. [EXP.]

2. ALL THE ACTS OF JOHN CADE SHALL BE VOID, and all indictments in time to come made under any tyranny, rebellion, and commotion shall be void, 31 H. 6. c. 1.

3. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF SUCH AS SHALL rebelliously take or detain, or conspire to take or detain from the queen any of her castles, towers, fortresses, holds, &c. 14 Ed. c. 1. [EXP.]

4. FOR THE PRESERVATION OF THE PUBLIC PEACE in certain disturbed counties in Eng., and to give till 25th March 1813 additional powers to justices for that purpose, 52 G. 3. c. 162. [EXP.]

RECEIVERS. (See REVENUE.)

1. A REMEDY AGAINST ACCOMPTANTS AND RECEIVERS, 52 or 54 H. 3. c. 23., and 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 11.

2. IF BAILIFFS, WHICH OUGHT TO MAKE ACCOUNT to their lords, do withdraw, and have no lands or tenements whereby they may be distrained, they shall be attached by their bodies, so that the sheriff shall cause them to make their account, 52 or 54 H. 3. c. 23.

3. REMEDY AGAINST RECEIVERS OR ACCOMPTANTS in arrear, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 11.

4. Servants, bailiffs, chamberlains, and receivers, when their masters assign them auditors to take their accounts, and they be found in arrear, shall be arrested by the testimony of such auditors, and sent to the next gaol; and the sheriff shall receive them and imprison them in irons, and they shall remain until their masters are satisfied; but if they deem themselves grieved, and can find friends to bring them before the barons of the exchequer, they shall be delivered unto them, and the sheriff shall give notice to the master to appear before such barons, at a day certain, with his rolls and tallies; and the account shall be rehearsed before the barons or auditors whom they shall assign, and if in arrear they shall be committed to the Fleet; and if they flee, and will not account as is contained in other statutes, [QU. 58 (or 54) H. 3. c. 23.] they shall be distrained to come before the justices to account, and the court auditors shall be assigned, and if found in arrear before them they shall be committed to gaol, and if they flee, and the sheriff returns that they cannot be found, exigentis shall be awarded till they are outlawed, and such prisoners shall be replevisable; and if bailed by writ of replegiare by the sheriff, such sheriff shall be answerable to the master for the damages done to him by his servants, by writ of debt, and if the keeper of the gaol cannot pay, his superior shall, id. ibid.

5. TO AUTHORIZE ALLOWANCES TO BE MADE TO CERTAIN RECEIVERS, 3 G. 1. c. 4. s. 3. 6 G. 1. St. 1. c. 20. s. 36.

6. The treasury may cause such sums as they, on consideration of the reports made them by the proper officer, shall judge reasonable, to be paid to such persons as shall be receivers, their vouchers, executors, administrators, or assigns [out of the arrears in their hands, without charging them 10 per cent. for so much as such allowances amount to; and the auditors shall allow the same, on warrant signed by three commissioners of the treasury, 3 G. 1. c. 4. s. 3.] [as well in times past as in future, out of any overplus to arise by land tax which shall remain after discharging all principal and interest and other payments charged thereon, 7 G. 1. St. 1. c. 20. s. 36.] 3 G. 1. c. 4. s. 3., 7 G. 1. St. 1. c. 20. s. 30.

RECOGNIZANCES.

1. THE STATUTE OF ACTON BURNELL: OF MERCHANTS 11 Ed. 1. [Virtually REP. or superseded by 13 Ed. 1. S. 3. see the note prefixed to the statute, and Reeves's Hist. Eng. Law. c. 9.]

2. A MERCHANT WHO WILL BE SURE OF HIS DEBT shall cause his debtor to come before the mayor of London, or some chief warden of the city or other town where the king shall appoint, and before the mayor, or chief warden, or other discreet man sworn thereto, when the mayor or chief warden cannot attend, and before one of the clerks that H. M. shall assign when both cannot be attendant, and acknowledge the debt and day of payment; and the recognizance shall be enrolled one of the clerks, and the roll shall be double, whereof one part shall remain with the mayor or chief warden, and the other with the clerks; and one of the clerks shall write an obligation, whereunto the seal of the debtor shall be put with H. M.'s seal, which seal shall be of two pieces, whereof the great piece shall remain with the mayor or chief warden, and the other in the keeping of the clerks; and if the debtor do not pay the debt at the day, then shall the merchant come before the mayors and clerk with his obligation, and the mayor or chief warden shall cause the body of the debtor to be taken (if he be lay), and shall commit him to the prison of the town, if there be any, and he shall remain there at his own costs until he hath agreed for the debt; and if the keeper of the town prison will not receive him, he shall be answerable for the debt; and if he have not whereof, he that committed the prison to his keeping shall answer it; and if the debtor cannot be found by the mayor or chief warden, then shall the mayor or chief warden send to the chancery the recognizance, and the chancellor shall direct a writ to the sheriff, in whose shire the debtor shall be, to take his body (if he be lay), and safely to keep him in prison until he hath agreed for the debt; and within a quarter of a year after he is taken his goods and lands shall be delivered: and it shall be lawful to him, during the same quarter, to sell his lands for discharge of his debt; and if he do not satisfy it within the quarter, all the lands and goods of the debtor shall be delivered unto the merchant by a reasonable extent, to hold them until the debt is levied; and his body shall remain in prison, and the merchant shall find him bread and water: and the merchant or his assigns shall have such seisin in the lands delivered, that he may maintain a writ of novel disseisin, and a redisseisin, as of freehold to hold to him and his assigns until the debt be paid; and as soon as the debt is levied, the body of the debtor shall be delivered with his lands. And in the writs which the chancellor shall award, mention shall be made, that the sheriff shall certify the justices of the one bench or of the other, how he hath performed the king's command at a certain day; at which day the merchant shall sue before the justices, if they be not satisfied; and if the sheriff do not return the writ, or return that the writ came too late, or that he hath directed it to the bailiff of some franchise, the justices shall do as is contained in the statute West. Sec. c. 39. And if the sheriff return that the debtor cannot be found, or that he is clerk, the merchant shall have writs to all the sheriffs where he shall have any land, that they deliver all the goods and lands of the debtor by a reasonable extent, to hold unto him and his assigns: and he shall have a writ to what sheriff he will, to take his body (if he be lay), and the keeper of the prison must answer the body or the debt; and after that the debtor's lands be delivered to the merchant, the debtor may sell his land, so as the merchant have no damage by the appraisements; and the merchants shall be allowed their damages and costs, and if the debtor find sureties, which shall acknowledge themselves as principal debtors, the sureties shall be ordered as the principal debtor. And the merchant shall have seisin of all the lands that were in the hand of the debtor the day of the recognizance made; and after the debt paid, the lands and issues thereof shall return again, as well to the feoffees as the other lands unto the debtor: and if the debtor or his sureties die, the merchant shall have none authority to take the body of his heir, but he shall have his lands if he be of age, or when he shall be of age, until he hath levied the debt. And there shall be also another seal provided, that shall serve for fairs, and the same shall be sent unto every fair under the king's seal by a clerk sworn, or by a keeper of the fair. And of the commonalty of London two merchants shall be chosen that shall be sworn, and the seal shall be opened before them, and one piece shall be delivered to the merchants, and the other shall remain with the clerk; and before them or one of the merchants (if both cannot attend) the recognizances shall be taken; and before the recognizances be enrolled, the pain of the statute shall be read before the debtor. And to maintain the costs of the clerk, the king shall take of every pound a penny, in every town where the seal is, except fairs, where he shall take 1^d. This act to be observed throughout Eng. and Ire., between any that will make such recognizances, except Jews; and the writ of debt shall not be abated by it, and the chancellor, justices of either bench, and errants, shall not be by this precluded to take recognizances, but the execution of recognizances made before them shall not be made in the form abovesaid, but by the law before used. Stat. de Mercatoribus, 13 Ed. 1 St. 3.

3. Every clerk deputed to receive recognizances in cities and boroughs shall abide in person to do his office, and shall have lands sufficient in the county, whereof he may answer. 14 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 11.

4. OF RECOGNIZANCES ACKNOWLEDGED IN THE STAPLES FOR recovery of debts. 27 Ed. 3. St. 2. c. 9. [CONF. And no mayor of the staple shall take recognizances contrary to it, on penalty to H. M. of the moiety of the sum acknowledged before him, 15 R. 2. c. 9.]

5. Every mayor of the staples shall have power to take recognizances of debts in presence of the constables of the staple, or one of them. And in every of the staples shall be a seal remaining in custody of the mayor, under seals of the constables; and all obligations made on such recognizances shall be sealed with the said seal, paying for every obligation of 100*l.* and within, for every pound 4d., and of every obligation above 100*l.* *1*d.; and the mayor of the staple may take and hold in prison the bodies of the debtors after the term incurred, if they be found within the staple, till they have made satisfaction, and also arrest the goods found within the staple, and deliver them to the creditors, or sell them at the best price, and deliver the money to the creditors; and in case the debtors be not found within the staple, nor their goods to the value of the debt, the same shall be certified in the chancery under the said seal, by which certification a writ shall be sent to take the bodies, and seize the lands and goods; and the writ shall be returned into the chancery, with the certificate of the value of the lands and goods; and thereupon execution shall be made from day to day, in manner as in the statute-merchant; so that he to whom the debt is due, shall have estate of freehold in the lands, and recovery by writ of novel disseisin, if he be ousted. And the debtor shall have no advantage of the quarter of a year in the said statute-merchant. And in case a creditor shall not have letters of the seal, but will stand to the faith of the debtor, if after the term incurred he demand the debt, the debtor shall be believed upon his faith, 27 E. 3. St. 2. c. 9.

6. FOR REGULATING EXECUTIONS ON STATUTES MERCHANT, 5 Hen. 4. c. 12.

7. When any statute-merchant is certified into the chancery, and a writ awarded to the sheriff, and returned into the common pleas, and the statute there is once shewed, howsoever the process after may be discontinued, the justices of the bench may upon the same record award execution of the statute, without shewing thereof at any other time, id. ibid.

8. FOR REGULATING PROCEEDINGS ON WRITS of scire facias, to defeat executions on statutes staple, 11 H. 6. c. 10.

9. WHERE PERSONS TAKEN FOR EXECUTION of recognizances of the staple come in by writs of corpus cum causa in chancery, shewing forth divers indentures and other things in defeasance, desiring writs of scire facias to warn the parties at whose suit they be taken, and by surety found to H. M. have been delivered; from henceforth such sureties shall be made severally, as well to H. M. as to the party, id. ibid.

10. CONCERNING BEFORE WHOM RECOGNIZANCES of debts shall be made and the form of the obligation, 25 H. 8. c. 6. and recital in s. 1. [AMP. generally by 8 G. 1. c. 25.; particularly as to s. 5., by id. ss. 1—2., and 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 18.; and as to s. 8., by 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 3.]

11. THE CHIEF JUSTICES OF K. B. and C. P., every of them by himself, and in their absence out of term, the mayor of the staple at Westminster, and the recorder of London together, shall have power to take recognizances for debts in this form:

'Know all men by these presents, us A. B. and C. D. to be held and firmly bound to J. S. in 100*l.* sterling, to be paid to the same J. or his certain attorney shewing this writing, his heirs or executors, in such a feast, &c. next ensuing after the date of these presents; and if we fail in payment of the said debt, we will and grant, that there shall then run upon us the pain ordained and provided in the statute of the staple for the recovering of debts for merchandise bought in the same. Dated such a day, &c., 23 H. 8. c. 6., s. 2.

12. Every obligation made according to this act shall be sealed with the seal of the party, and also with such seal as H. M. shall appoint, with the seal of one of the said justices, or with the seals of the mayor and recorder, and with their names subscribed, that shall take the recognizance; and the justices, mayor, and recorder shall have the custody of one such seal, which shall severally remain with them, id. s. 3.

15. The person assigned by H. M. shall write all such obligations, and cause the same to be enrolled in 2 rolls indented, whereof one shall remain with the justices, or mayor and recorder taking the recognizance, and the other with the writer; and the person appointed for writing and inrolling such obligations, or his deputy, shall dwell in London, on pain to forfeit 10*l.* for every time that he shall be absent 2 days, id. s. 4.

14. The person assigned to write and enrol such obligations shall, at the request of the creditors, certify such obligations into the chancery, under the seal of the said person, id. s. 5.

15. The day of the month and year of the enrolment of recognizances shall be set down in the margin of the roll; and no recognizance shall bind any lands in the hands of any purchaser bonâ fide, and for valuable consideration, but from the time of such enrolment, 29 C. 2. c. 3. s. 18.

16. The rolls appointed by 25 H. 8. c. 6. s. 5., to be made of recognizances in nature of a statute-staple shall be made in manner following, viz., the clerk of the recognizances or his deputy, shall yearly prepare 3 parchment rolls, and shall, at the times of acknowledging every recognizance, ingross the full tenor of such recognizance; and one of the rolls shall contain all the recognizances taken before C. J. of K. B.; and one other of them, all the recognizances taken before C. J. of C. P.; and the other, all the recognizances before the mayor of the staple at Westminster, and recorder of London; and at the time of such acknowledgment, the persons before whom such recognizances shall be taken, and also the party acknowledging, shall sign their names to the roll, as well as sign and seal the recognizance; and all the three rolls shall, at the end of every year, be fixed together and made one roll, and remain in the custody of the clerk of the recognizances, in his public office in London or Middlesex, who shall keep a docket to refer to the rolls; to which docket shall be added the day, month, and year of every acknowledgment, 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 1.

17. In case any loss shall happen to any such recognizance, the same shall, from any of the rolls, be by the clerk, by certificate under his seal, certified into chancery; and to such certificate, and all certificates of such recognizances, shall be annexed a transcript of the entry from the rolls; and a like certificate with such transcript annexed shall be made, and remain with the clerk of the petty bag; and shall be as effectual, as if the recognizance under seal had been left in the office; and in case of loss, a copy from the rolls, signed by the clerk and duly proved, shall be evidence of such recognizances, id. s. 2.

18. Every person to whom such obligation shall be made for default of payment, shall have like process and execution as hath been used upon any obligation of statute-staple, 23 H. 8. c. 6. s. 6.

19. The recognizors shall also be relieved by audita querela or other remedies, as in cases of statute-staple, id. s. 7.

20. Every person, that shall have process for execution by reason of any such obligation, shall pay to H. M. at the time of the sealing of the process $\frac{1}{4}$ for every pound, [contained in the obligation of damages incurred, 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 3.] 23 H. 8. c. 6. s. 8.

21. The prosecutor of every such recognizance shall, at the suing out the first extent, deliver into the office a note, testifying the sum of the damages intended to be levied, which sum the officer shall insert in the writ, and the poundage of $\frac{1}{4}$ shall be taken only for every pound according to the sum so inserted, 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 3.

22. Every of the said justices, and the said mayor and recorder, before whom such obligation shall be recognized, shall take for knowledge of every such recognizance, 3s. 4d.; and the clerk that shall write and enrol the same, 3s. 4d.; and for the certificate of every such obligation, 20d.; and if any of the said justices, mayor, recorder, or clerk, take above the sums limited, they shall forfeit 40*l.*, 23 H. 8. c. 6. s. 10.

23. No mayor or constable of the staple for the payment of money shall take any recognizance of the statute-staple, on pain to forfeit 40*l.*, the one moiety of the said penalties to be to H. M., and the other moiety to the party that will sue for the same; provided, that this act be not hurtful to any mayor and constables of the staple, for any bond of statute-staple taken between merchants being free of the staple, for merchandize of the staple between them bought and sold, id. s. 11.

24. If at any time before or after the filing or returning the liberate on such extent, it is made appear to the court of chancery, that sufficient has been extended and levied to satisfy such recognizance or that any mistake or omission has happened in making, executing, or returning any of the said writs or process thereon: or if any lands or hereditaments are evicted from any person who has extended the same by virtue of such process, such court shall award one or more re-extents, and liberates may be sued out thereon, 8 G. 1. c. 25. s. 4.

25. No sheriff of any county shall take for the extent, liberate, and hab. fac. poss. on the real estate, and levy on the personal estate under such extent more fees than by 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 16. (tit. SHERIFF.) fixed for executing an elegit and hab. fac. poss., under the penalties of that act, id. s. 5.

RECORD.

1. JUSTICES OF ASSIZES, &c. shall annually send their records and process determined into the exchequer, 9 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5. [AMP., and such records shall be returned into the treasury, and there kept without alteration, 11 H. 4. c. 5.]

2. Justices of assizes, gaol delivery, and of oyer and terminer, shall send all their records and processes determined to the exchequer, at Michaelmas, once a year, and the treasurer and chamberlains having sight of the commissions of such justices, shall receive the same records, &c. of such justices, or under their seals, and keep them in the treasury, so as such justices first take out estreats from such records and processes relating to them, to send to the exchequer as usual, 9 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 5.

3. The justices to be assigned to take assizes by commission of H. M. in the realm shall cause to be delivered fully into the treasury all the records of assizes of novel disseisin, of mort d'ancestor, and of with the appurtenances before them determined, every second year after the plea determined and judgment given; and the records and process of pleas real and personal, and of assizes of novel disseisin, &c., and of others whereof judgment is given and enrolled, or any touching the same, shall not be amended or impaired by new entering of the clerks, or by record, or any thing to be certified or testified, or by c. of any justice in any term after judgment in such pleas is given and enrolled, 11 H. 4. c. 3.

4. FOR PREVENTING THE FALSE ENTRIES OF PLEAS, rasing rolls, and changing verdicts, 6 R. 2. c. 4.

5. If any judge or clerk make any false entry of pleas, rase rolls, or change verdicts (so that by such default there ensueth disherison of either of the parties), and be thereof convict before H. M. in council, as to H. M. in council shall seem meet, within 2 years after such default made, if the party grieved be of full age, and if not, then within 2 years after he shall be full age, he shall be punished by fine and ransom, at H. M.'s will, and shall make amends to the party; and as to the restitution of inheritance after such disherison, the party grieved shall sue by writ of error or otherwise, according to law, 8 R. 2. c. 4.

6. BY MISPRISION OF CLERKS NO PROCESS SHALL BE ANNULLED OR discontinued by mistaking one letter or syllable too much or too little, but as soon as perceived it shall be amended, 14 Ed. 3. St. 1. c. 6.

7. AND THE JUSTICES BEFORE WHOM such plea or record is made or depending, as well by adjournment as by way of error or otherwise, may amend such record and process, as well after as before judgment, 9 H. 5. St. 1. c. 4. [MADE PERP. 4 H. 6. c. 3.]

8. [RECITAL of the above 2 statutes.] As well after judgment given on a verdict passed, as on matter of law pleaded: but this statute [and see 8 H. 6. c. 15.] does not extend to records and processes in Wa. or whereby any person shall be outlawed, 4 H. 6. c. 5.

9. FOR ERROR IN ANY RECORD, process, or warrant of attorney, writ original or judicial, panel or return in any places rased or interlined, or in any addition or diminution found in any such record, &c., which rasings, &c. at the discretions of the judges of the courts in which the said records and process, by writ of error or otherwise, are certified, do appear suspected, no judgment or record shall be reversed, 8 H. 6. c. 12. s. 1.

10. The judges may examine such records, &c. and amend in affirmance of judgments, all that appears misprision of the clerk except appeals, indictments of treason and felonies, and outlawries of the same, and substance of proper names, surnames, and additions left out in original writs and writs of exigent according to 1 H. 5. c. 5., and in other writs containing proclamation; and if any record, &c. be certified defective otherwise than according to the writing thereof remaining in the places from which they are certified, the parties in affirmance of the judgments, shall have advantage to allege variance betwixt the same writing and the said certificate: which being found and certified, the variance shall be amended by the judges according to the first writing, id. s. 2.

11. If any such record, &c. is exemplified in chancery, and there enrolled without rasure, then for error assigned therein contrary to exemplification and enrolment, no judgment shall be reversed, id. s. 4.

12. THE JUSTICES BEFORE WHOM ANY misprision or default is found in any records pending before them, as well by way of error as otherwise, or in returns thereof made by sheriffs, coroners, bailiffs, or others, by misprision of such sheriffs, &c. may amend such defaults and misprisions by their discretion, and by examination thereof by the justices: but this statute [and see 4 H. 6. c. 3. supra.] does not extend to records and processes in Wa., or to records of outlawries of treasons and felonies, 8 H. 6. c. 15.

13. WHAT DEFECTS IN RECORDS AND PROCESS may be amended by the judges, and what not: punishment for stealing records, 8 H. 6. c. 12.

14. For error assigned in any record, process, warrant of attorney, writ, original or judicial, panel or return in any places thereof rased or interlined, in any addition, subtraction, or diminution of words, letters, or titles found in any such record, &c., which rasings, &c. at the discretion of the courts in which such records, &c., by writ of error or otherwise be certified, do appear suspected, no judgment or record shall be reversed, id. s. 1.

15. The judges of the courts in which any record, process, word [Q^r. imparlance], plea, warrant of attorney, &c. are may examine the same, and amend, in affirmance of the judgments of such records or process, all the misprisions of clerks therein, except appeals, indictments of treason and of felonies, and outlawries for the same, and the substance of the proper names, surnames, and additions left out in original writs and writs of exigent, according to 1 H. 5. c. 5. so that by such misprision no judgment shall be reversed; and if any record, process, writ, warrant of attorney, &c. be certified defective otherwise than according to the writing thereof remaining in the place whence they are certified, the parties, in affirmance, may allege that the same is variant from such certificate, and the same being found, the judges shall amend the same, id. s. 2.

16. If any record or parcel thereof, writ, return, panel, process, or warrant of attorney in the courts of chancery, exchequer, K. B. or C. P., or in H. M.'s treasury, be wilfully stolen, taken away, withdrawn, or avoided by any clerk or other person, by reason whereof any judgment is _____ such stealer, &c. and his procurers and abettors, on conviction, by indictment, by confession, or inquest of 12 men, one half of which shall be of the men of the same court, and the other half of other men, shall be adjudged felons, and incur the pain of felony; and the judges of K. B. and C. P. shall hear and determine such defaults, and punish as aforesaid, id. s. 3.

17. If any record, process, &c. is exemplified in the chancery under the great seal, and such exemplification there of record enrolled without any rasing in one and the same place in such exemplification and the enrolment of the same, then for any error assigned in such record, &c. carrying from such exemplification and enrolment, no judgment shall be reversed, id. s. 4.

RECOVERIES. (See FINES.)

(STATUTE repealed.)

FOR THE AVOIDING OF RECOVERIES by collusion by tenants for term of life, 32 H. 8. c. 31. [REP. 14 Ed. c. 8. s. 5.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR REMEDIES AGAINST RECOVERIES by default, 15 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 4. [See as to errors in recoveries, 23 Ed. c. 3. FINES, pl. 28., &c.; and as to deeds to declare the uses, 4 & 5 A. c. 16. s. 15. FINES, pl. 37.]

2. OF REMEDIES AGAINST RECOVERIES by default, 15 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 4. [suffering recoveries in the name of another without his consent, felony without clergy, 31 J. 1. c. 26. OFFENCES.]

3. Where the husband being impleaded giveth up the land demanded by covin, and where the husband loseth land by default, in both cases the woman demanding her dower shall be heard; and if it be alleged against her, that her husband lost the land by judgment, and it be enquired by what judgment, and it be found that it was by default, whereunto the tenant must answer; then the tenant shall answer over, and shew that he had right in the land according to the form of the writ that the tenant before purchased against the husband; and if he can shew that the husband had no right in the lands, nor any other but he that holdeth them, the tenant shall go quit, and the wife shall recover nothing of her dower; but if he cannot so shew, the wife shall recover her dower. And so in these cases, and in other, viz. when the wife being endowed loseth her dower by default, and tenants in free marriage, by the curtesy of Eng. or for term of life, or in fee tail, divers actions concur because as to such tenants when they demand their land lost by default; and when it is come to that, that such tenants must be compelled to shew their right, they cannot answer without them to whom the reversion belongeth, therefore it is granted unto them to vouch such reversion to warranty, as if they were tenants in the suit; and when the warrantor hath warranted, the plea shall pass between him that is seised and the warrantor, according to the tenor of the writ that the tenant purchased before, and by which he recovered by default; and so from many actions they shall resort to one judgment, which is this, that the defendants shall recover their demand, or the tenants go quit. And if the action of such a tenant, which is compelled to shew his right, be moved by a writ of right, though the great assise or battail cannot be joined by the words accustomed, yet it shall be joined by words convenient; for when the tenant in that he sheweth his right which belongeth to him by the writ he before purchased is in place of a demandant, the warrantor may well defend the right of such tenant, and offer to defend the seisin of his ancestors by his freeman, or put himself on the grand assise, and pray recognizance whether he hath more right in the land in demand, or else the party before named. Or otherwise the great assise may be joined thus: "The warrantor doth defend the right and knowledgeth the seisin of his ancestor, and putteth himself on the great assise, &c. and prayeth recognizance may be made whether he hath more right in the foresaid land as in that whereof he infeoffed such a man, or that such a one released and quit claimed, &c., or else the foresaid party, &c." 3 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 4. s. 1.

4. And where sometime a woman not having right to demand dower, the heir being within age, doth purchase a writ of dower against a guardian, and the guardian endoweth the woman by favour, or maketh default, or by collusion defendeth the plea faintly, whereby the woman is awarded her dower; the heir, when he cometh to age, shall have an action to demand the seisin of his ancestor against such woman, like as against any other deforcestor; yet so that the woman shall have her exception saved against the demandant, to show that she had right to her dower; which if she can show, she shall go quit and retain her dower, and the heir shall be grievously amerced, or otherwise the heir shall recover his demand, id. s. 2.

5. In like manner the woman shall be aided, if the heir, or any other, do implead her for her dower, or if she lose her dower by default; in which case the default shall not be so prejudicial to her but that she shall recover her dower, if she have right thereto, and she shall have this writ. [Præcipe A. quod iuste, &c. reddam illi que fuit uxor talis tantam cum pertinentiis in N., quam clamat esse rationabilem dotem suam vel de rationabili dote sua et quam talis ei deforciat.] And to this writ the tenant may show that she had no right to be endowed, which if he can verify he shall go quit, if not, the woman shall recover. And now because, if a man lost his land by default, he had none other recovery than by a writ of right, which was not maintainable by any that could not claim of mere right as tenants for life in free marriage, or in tail, in which estates a reversion is reserved: it is PROVIDED, that henceforth the default shall not be prejudicial to them, but they may recover their estates by another writ than by writ of right, if they have right form of writ, quod ei deforciat, for tenants in frank marriage for land lost by default. [Præcipe A. quod iuste, &c., reddat B. tali manerium de C. cum pertinentiis quod clamat esse jus et maritagium suum et quod A. ei injuste deforc.] The like for tenants for life or in tail. [Præcipe A. quod iuste et sine dilacione reddat B. manerium de C., cum pertinentiis quod clamat esse jus et maritagium suum, et quod prædictus A. ei injuste deforc. vel quod clamat tenere ad terminum vite sue, vel quod clamat tenere sibi et heredibus suis de corpore suo exeuntibus, et quod prædictus A., &c.] 15 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 4. s. 2.

6. RECOVERERS IN RECOVERIES, THEIR HEIRS AND ASSIGNS, MAY distrain for rents, services, and customs, and make avowry, or justify those against whom the recovery is, and also have quare impedit for the advowson, if any disturbance be, 7 H. 8. c. 4. s. 2. [see AVOWRY.]

7. THAT TENANTS FOR TERMS OF YEARS may falsify for their term only recoveries had and made by their lessors to the defrauding of the said termor's interests, 21 H. 8. c. 15. (and recital in s. 1.) [See a similar provision for London, 6 E. 1. c. 11., LONDON (Recoveries).]

8. All termors may falsify for their terms only, recoveries had against their lessors in such form as a tenant of freehold may do by the common law, where such tenant was neither privy nor party to the same, id. s. 2.

9. And such termors, their executors and assigns, notwithstanding such recoveries, shall enjoy their terms according to their leases against the recoverers, their heirs and assigns, as they might have done against such lessors; and such recoverers, their heirs and assigns, shall have like remedy against such tenants, their executors or assigns, by avowry or action of debt, for the rents and services reserved upon such leases, and also like actions for waste done after such recoveries had, as the lessors might, id. s. 3.

10. No statute staple, statute merchant, or execution by elegit, shall be avoided by any such feigned recovery, but all persons having lands, &c. in execution, or being entitled so to have, shall have by this act like remedy to avoid such recoveries, as is provided for the lease for years, id. s. 4.

11. TO EMBAR FEIGNED RECOVERIES OF LANDS, wherein H. M. is in reversion, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 20. (and recital in s. 1.)

12. No feigned recovery had by assent of parties against any tenant in tail of any lands, tenements, or hereditaments given by the crown, whereof the reversion or remainder at the time of such recovery had shall be in H. M., shall bind the heirs in tail, whether any common voucher be had in such recovery or not, but that after the death of such tenant in tail against whom such recovery is had, the heirs in tail may enter and enjoy the lands so recovered, according to the form of the gift; the recovery or any other thing done or suffered by or against such tenant in tail notwithstanding, id. s. 2.

13. The heirs of such tenant in tail shall take no advantage for any recompense in value against the vouchee or his heirs, id. s. 3.

14. This act shall not be prejudicial to the lessees of any such tenant in tail made by writing indented for term of 21 years, three lives, or under, whereupon the accustomed rent is reserved yearly, but such lessees may enjoy their terms therein, against the heir of such tenant in tail according to the purport and effect of 38 H. 8. c. 28. id. s. 4.

15. FOR THE AVOIDING OF RECOVERIES suffered by collusion by tenants, for term of life and such others, 14 E. 1. c. 8. (and recital in s. 1.)

16. Where persons being seized of lands, tenements, and hereditaments as tenants by the curtesy, tenants in tail after possibility of issue extinct, or otherwise for term of life only, or of estates determinable on lives, have permitted other persons by agreement or covin to recover such lands, &c., or have permitted themselves to be vouched by like agreement or covin, (s. 1.) all such recoveries to be had by agreement of the parties, or by covin against any such particular tenant, or against any other, with voucher over of any such particular tenant, or of any having or that had right to any such particular tenancy or estate, shall, as against the person to whom any reversion or remainder thereof shall appertain, and against their heirs and successors, be void, id. s. 2.

17. This act shall not be prejudicial to any person that shall by good title, recover lands, &c. without fraud, by reason of any former right, but the same shall be as valid as before this act, id. s. 3.

18. All recoveries of lands, &c. by the assent of any person to whom the reversion or remainder shall appertain, (so that the same assent appears on the record of any of H. M.'s courts) shall be of like force against such persons that shall assent, their heirs and successors, as before this act, id. s. 4.

19. TO AMEND THE LAW CONCERNING COMMON RECOVERIES, 14 G. 2. c. 20. (and recital in s. 1.) [See rest of this title and act. WILLIAMS.]

20. All common recoveries to be suffered in the court of C. R. at Westminster, or in any other court of record in Wales, or the counties palatine, or in any other court having jurisdiction of any honours, castles, manors, lands, tenements, or hereditaments, without any surrender of any lease for one or more life or lives under particular rents reserved, or without any concurrence or conveyance from the lessee or persons claiming under him, in order to make good tenants to the writs of entry, or other writ whereon the recovery is suffered, shall be as valid as if such lessee or other person claiming under him, shall convey, or join in conveying, a good estate of freehold to the tenants to such writs of entry, &c. 14 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1.

21. Nothing in this act shall make any common recoveries valid, unless the person entitled to the first estate for life, or other greater estate (in case there be no such estate for life) in reversion, or remainder next after the expiration of such leases, has by some lawful act conveyed or joined in conveying an estate for life, at least to the tenant to the writ of entry, or other writs, whereupon such common recoveries are suffered, id. s. 2.

22. Nothing in this act shall prejudice the estate of such lessee, or any person claiming under such lessee, id. s. 5.

23. Where any person hath purchased, for a valuable consideration, any estate in lands or hereditaments, whereof a recovery is necessary to be suffered, to complete the title, such person, and all claiming under him, having been in possession from the time of such purchase, may, after the end of 20 years, produce in evidence the deed making a tenant to the writ of entry or other writ for suffering a common recovery, and declaring the uses of a recovery; and such deed so produced (the execution thereof being proved) shall be deemed good evidence in law or equity for such purchaser and those claiming under him, that such recovery was suffered according to such deed, in case no record can be found of such recovery, or the same shall appear not to be regularly entered on record; provided the person making such deed and declaring the uses of a common recovery had a sufficient estate and power to make a tenant to such writ and to suffer such common recovery, id. s. 4.

24. Every common recovery shall, at the end of 20 years from the time of suffering thereof, be deemed valid, if it appears on the face of such recovery, that there was a tenant to the writ, and if the persons joining in such recovery had a sufficient estate and power to suffer the same, notwithstanding the deed for making such tenant to such writ shall be lost or not appear, id. s. 5.

25. Every recovery shall be deemed valid, notwithstanding the fine, or deed, making the tenant to such writ, should be levied or executed after the time of the judgment given in such recovery, and the award of the writ of seisin, provided the same appear to be levied or executed before the end of the term, great session, session, or assizes, in which such recovery was suffered, and the persons joining in such recovery had a sufficient estate and power to suffer the same, id. s. 6.

26. Nothing in this act shall make any common recovery heretofore suffered valid, which has been avoided by any lawful act, or which shall be avoided by entry before the 16th of January 1740, or by judgment or decree upon some suit at law or in equity, commenced before the said 16th of January, but every such common recovery shall be of such force only as the same would have been if this act had never been made, id. s. 7.

27. This act shall not prejudice any question of law which may arise on common recoveries not hereby intended to be remedied, but the same shall be of like force as before this act made, id. s. 8.

28. CONCERNING COMMON RECOVERIES TO BE SUFFERED by attorney in courts of ancient demesne, 59 G. 3. c. 80. [See the rest of this title and statute, LUNATIC.]

29. Any person not being under the disability of coverture, and all femes covert (such feme covert being solely and secretly examined by the lord or lady of the manor, whereof the lands, tenements, and hereditaments held in ancient demesne, but not by copy of court roll, of which a common recovery is proposed to be suffered, shall be holden, or by his or her steward, or by the deputy of such steward) may appoint any person to be their, his, or her attorney, to appear for the persons so appointing, either as tenant to the plaintiff or writ, or as vouchee, and as the case may require, either to vouch over to warranty, or to enter into the usual warranty, and also vouch over to warranty, and likewise to do all other necessary acts for the suffering and perfecting of such common recovery; and the common recovery which shall be so suffered, shall have the like effect, but do other, as such common recovery would have had, if the persons who shall so by attorney suffer such common recovery had appeared in court in person, and suffered such common recovery, id. s. 1.

1. EVERY PERSON IN HOLY ORDERS SHALL, WITHIN their respective parishes and places, take an exact account, and keep a register in writing, of every person named, christened, or born therein, or buried in the common burying-places where parishioners are buried: to view which book and register, the collectors for the parishes, &c. and all other persons concerned, shall have free access at seasonable times, without fee; and every minister who shall not keep a true register thereof as above, shall forfeit 100*l.*, recoverable in any court at Westminster, by action of debt or information, without essoin, &c. to go in societies to H. M. and the party suing, with full costs to the latter; 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 6. s. 24.

1. (a) The words "persons in holy orders" in 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 6. s. 24. shall comprehend bishops in all cases where any marriages are celebrated, or the offices for any christenings or burials are performed by them, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 56. s. 4.

2. FOR BETTER REGULATING AND PRESERVING PARISH and other registers of births, baptisms, marriages, and burials in Eng.; 52 G. 3. c. 146. [See as to the registry of poor children within the bills of mortality, 2 G. 3. c. 22., 7 G. 3. c. 39. LONDON (Poor).]

3. After 31 Dec. 1812., registers of public and private baptisms, marriages, and burials, solemnized according to the rites of the united church of Eng. and Ire. within all parishes or chapelries in Eng. whether subject to the ordinary, peculiar or other jurisdiction, shall be kept by the rector, vicar, curate, or officiating minister of every parish, (or of any chapelry where baptisms, marriages, and burials have usually been performed) in books of parchment, [only if required by churchwardens, s. 2.] or of durable paper, to be provided by H. M.'s printer, at the expence of the parishes, &c. whereon shall be printed on each side of every leaf, the heads of information herein required to be entered in the registers of baptisms, &c. respectively, every entry being numbered progressively, from beginning to the end of each book, and being divided from the next entry by a printed line, according to the forms in sched. A, B, C, and every page being numbered progressively at the middle of the top, 52 G. 3. c. 146. s. 1.

3. A printed copy of this act, with one book so prepared, as in s. 1. and adapted to the form of the register of baptisms in sched. A, and one other to that of marriages in sched. B, and one other to that of burials in sched. C, shall be transmitted by H. M.'s printer, to the officiating ministers of the several parishes in Eng., who shall use them for the purposes of this act, which books shall be proportioned to the population of the several parishes, &c. according to the last returns; and other like books shall, when necessary, be furnished by the church or chapel wardens, at the expence of the parish, &c. whenever required by the rector, &c. or officiating minister, and shall be of paper, unless required to be of parchment by such church or chapel wardens, id. s. 2.

4. Such registers shall be kept in such separate books, and such pastor, &c. or officiating minister, shall, as soon as possible (and never later than 7 days, unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable impediment), after the solemnization of every private or public baptism, or burial, enter, in a legible hand-writing in the proper register book, the required particulars, and sign the same, id. s. 3.

5. Whenever the ceremony of baptism or burial is performed in any other place than the church or churchyard of a parish chapel, or chapel yard of any chapelry providing its own distinct registers, by any other minister than the rector, curate, &c. thereof, the minister performing the same shall, on that or the next day, transmit to such rector, &c. or his curate, a certificate of such baptism or burial, as in sched. D, who shall, thereupon, enter the same in such book, adding to such entry, "according to the certificate of the Rev. ——— transmitted to me on the ——— day, &c. id. s. 4.

6. The above books of entries, and all register books heretofore in use, shall belong to every such parish or chapelry, and shall be safely kept by the rector, &c. or officiating minister thereof, in a dry well-painted iron chest, provided and repaired at the expence of the parish, &c. and which shall be constantly kept locked in some dry and safe place in his house, if resident within the parish, &c. or in the church or chapel, and shall not be removed therefrom, except for making the above entries, and for inspection of persons desirous to search the same, or to obtain copies thereof, or to be produced as evidence in some court, or for inspection into their state, or for the purposes of this act, and immediately after, shall be forthwith returned into the chest, id. s. 5.

7. At the expiration of 2 months after every year's end, fair copies of all the entries of baptisms, marriages, and burials, solemnized in the year preceding, shall be made by the officiating minister (or church or chapel warden, clerk, or other person under his direction) on parchment (as in the said schedules), to be provided by the parishes, and the contents thereof shall be verified by such minister, in the form following:

"I, A. B. rector [or as the case is], of the parish of C. [or of the chapelry of D.] in the county of E., do hereby solemnly declare, that the several writings hereto annexed purporting to be copies of the several entries contained in the several register books of baptisms, marriages, and burials of the parish or chapelry aforesaid, from the — day of — to the — day of — are true copies of all the several entries in the said several register books respectively, from the said — day of — to the said — day of — and that no other entry during such period is contained in any such books respectively, [a short Ans. Qn. "which entries" ?] are truly made according to the best of my knowledge and belief. (Signed) A. B.

Which shall be fairly written, without stamp on the said copy, immediately after the last entry therein, and the signature thereto shall be attested by one at least, of the church or chapel wardens, 52 G. 3. c. 146. s. 6.

8. Copies of such register books, verified and attested as above, shall be transmitted by the church or chapel wardens, after having been signed by one of them, or before 1st June in each year, id. s. 7.

9. The registrar of every diocese in Eng. shall, on or before 1st July in each year, make a report to the bishop, whether the copies of the above registers have been sent to such registrar, as in s. 6, 7, required; and in event of failure to transmit such copies, the registrar shall specially state the default of the parish, in his report to the bishop, id. s. 8.

9. If the officiating minister of any parish or chapelry neglect to verify and sign such copies and declaration as in s. 6, so that the churchwardens cannot transmit the same as in s. 7., the latter shall within the time limited in s. 7 certify such default to the registrar, who shall specially state the same in his report to the bishop, id. s. 9.

10. In all cases of baptism or burial in any extra-parochial place in Eng. according to the established church, where there is no church or chapel, the officiating minister shall, within one month after such baptism or burial deliver to the rector, vicar, or curate of such parish immediately adjoining to such extra-parochial place as the ordinary shall direct, a memorandum of such baptism, signed by such [Q*u.* ? but the act is so] parent of the child baptised, or of such burial, signed by the person employed therein, with 2 of the persons attending the same, as the case may require, containing the particulars herein before required, which memorandum so delivered shall be entered in the parish register, id. s. 10.

11. The superscription on all letters containing the copies of the parish and other registers to be transmitted as in s. 7, shall be indorsed and signed by the church and chapel wardens, as in sched. E., and shall go postage free, id. s. 11.

12. As often as the copies of such registers and lists are transmitted to the office of the registrar, they shall cause them to be safely kept from damage, and to be so arranged as to be resorted to when required, and shall cause correct alphabetical lists to be made in books of the names of all persons or places therein, which, with the above copies, shall be open to public search, at reasonable times, on payment of the usual fees, id. s. 12.

13. Report by the bishop and the custos rotulorum to the privy council before 1st March 1813, respecting proper places for the preservation of copies of register books, as well as original wills in each diocese, and for remuneration of registrars offices, id. s. 15. [Exp.]

14. Every person who shall knowingly and wilfully insert, or cause, or permit, &c. in any such register of such baptisms, burials, or marriages, or in any such copy (as in s. 6.) or in any list or declaration ordered to be transmitted to such registrars, any false entry of any thing relating to any baptism, burial, or marriage, or who shall falsely make, utter, forge, or counterfeit, or cause, procure, or wilfully permit, &c. any part of such register, list, or declaration, or copy of such register, or who shall wilfully destroy, deface, or injure or cause, &c. any such register or part thereof, or shall wilfully sign or certify any copy of any such register required to be transmitted as in s. 6, which is false in any part thereof, knowing it to be false, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and transported for 14 years, id. s. 14.

15. No rector, &c. or officiating minister of any parish or chapel who shall discover any error to have been committed in the form or substance of the entry in the register book of any such baptism, burial, or marriage respectively by him solemnized, shall be liable to the penalties in s. 14. if he shall, within one calendar month after discovery of such error, in presence of the parent or parents of the child baptised, or of the parties married, or of two persons who attended at any burial, or in case of the death or absence of the respective parties then in presence of the church or chapel wardens (who shall attest the same), alter and correct the entry which was found erroneous, according to the case, by entry in the margin of such book wherein such erroneous entry is made, without alteration of the original entry; and he shall sign such entry in the margin, and add to such signature the day of the month and year when such correction is made, provided that in the fair copy of the registers transmitted to the registrars of the dioceses the officiating minister shall certify the alterations so made by him, id. s. 15.

16. Nothing herein shall increase or diminish the fees payable to any minister for performance of any of the above duties, or to him or any registrar for giving copies of such registrations, but the same shall be and be recovered as before this act, id. s. 16.

17. No duplicate or copy of any such register made under this act shall be chargeable with stamp duty, id. s. 17.

18. One half the penalties levied under this act shall go to the informer or party suing; and the remainder of those imposed on any chap-or chapel warden, shall go to the poor of the parish or place; and the remainder of those imposed on any rector, &c. minister, or registrar, to such charitable purposes in the county as the bishop shall appoint, 52 G. 3. c. 146. s. 18.

19. Lists of extant register books shall be transmitted to registrar before 1st June, 1819. id. s. 19. [Exp.]

20. This act shall extend to cathedral and collegiate churches, chapels of colleges, or hospitals and burying grounds belonging thereto, and to the ministers who shall officiate therein, and shall baptize, marry, or bury any persons, although such churches, &c. and such ministers be not parochial, and there be no churchwardens thereof; and in all such cases the books in s. 1. directed to be provided, shall be got at the expense of the body appointing the officiating minister, and copies thereof shall be transmitted to the registrar of the diocese by such minister, as in s. 7. directed, attested by two officers of such church, &c. as by s. 6. directed, in respect of churchwardens; but this act shall not repeal 26 G. 3. c. 35. (MARRIAGE, 55 G. 3. c. 146. s. 20.)

RELIGIOUS HOUSES.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. HOSPITALERS and TEMPLARS shall draw no man unduly into suit, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 43. [semb. EXP. since the dissolution of the order of Templars by 17 E. 2. St. 3., and of that of Hospitalers by 32 H. 8. c. 24.]

2. RELIGIOUS HOUSES SHALL NOT BE CHARGED by compulsion with corodies, pensions, or taking their horses or carts, 9 E. 2. c. 11. [semb. EXP. see 3 E. 1. (West. Prim.) c. 1.]

3. THE LANDS OF THE KNIGHTS TEMPLARS given to the prior and brethren of the order of the hospital of St. John at Jerusalem, 17 E. 2. St. 1. St. De Terris Templariorum. [EXP. see 32 H. 8. c. 24. infra. pl. 10.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. ALL RELIGIOUS HOUSES under the yearly revenue of 200*l.* shall be dissolved and given to H. M. and his heirs. 27 H. 8. c. 28. and recital in s. 1. [AMD. 35 Hen. 8. c. 14.]

2. H. M. shall have all monasteries before assured to him, or which have been suppressed. id. s. 1.; all persons grantees of those abbey lands from H. M. shall enjoy them, id. s. 2.; general saving of rights, id. s. 3. and temporary provisions, ss. 4—8.

3. Hospitality shall be kept on the site of the houses suppressed, under certain penalties, id. ss. 9—11. [ENF. 5 El. c. 2. s. 2. but REP. 21. J. 1. c. 28. s. 11.]

4. FOR RESERVATION OF TENURES UPON HOUSES with lands belonging to same not exceeding 40*s.* clear yearly value 35 H. 8. c. 14. (and recitals ss. 1—2.)

5. H. M. may reserve on letters patent of any lands, tithes, advowsons or other hereditaments not exceeding 40*s.* clear yearly value, belonging to any of the religious houses in 27 H. 8. c. 28. composed, whereby any estate of inheritance shall pass from H. M. (except houses, cottages, and gardens to which no lands or hereditaments belong) [either a tenure by knight-service in capite, REP. 12 C. c. 24. s. 1, 2. or else] a tenure in socage or free burgage, and not in capite, with the yearly rent of 1-10th of the lands, &c. comprised therein according to the rate and value rated in the patents: [such rent to be paid to the officer of the Court of Augmentations, dissolved 7 E. 6. c. 2. &c.] 35 H. 8. c. 14. s. 3. H. M. may reserve of the cottages, &c. (except in s. 3), and which belonged to any of the said religious houses, a tenure and rent, as in s. 3., id. s. 4.

6. FOR DISSOLUTION OF ALL MONASTERIES AND ABBEYS, 31 H. 8. c. 13. and recital in ss. 1, 2.

7. All monasteries which shall be dissolved or suppressed, or shall any way come to H. M. shall, with all their lands and rights be vested in the actual possession of H. M., id. s. 5.; general saving of rights to all persons (other than the abbots, &c. and founders of such monasteries, &c.) except rent-service, and sock, and all other services and suits. id. s. 4.

8. Such abbey lands as before their dissolution were discharged from payment of tithes, shall so continue, 31 H. 8. c. 13. s. 21., saving rents and services to H. M., id. s. 22.

9. The churches, &c. of monasteries, and other religious houses shall in future be subject to the jurisdiction of the ordinary, id. s. 23.

10. FOR PLACING THE LANDS AND GOODS of the hospitals of St. John of Jerusalem, near London, [viz. the Temple, &c.] in the county of Middlesex, and of Kilmainham, in Ire., in H. M.'s hands and disposition, and for dissolving that corporation, &c. 32 H. 8. c. 24.

11. FOR DISSOLUTION OF COLLEGES, CHANTRIES, and free chapels, at H. M.'s pleasure, 37 H. 8. c. 4.

12. FOR GIVING SUCH COLLEGES, &c. and the possessions of the same to H. M., 1 E. 6. c. 14.

[The objects of the 3 foregoing acts have been so long accomplished, that it was deemed unnecessary to repeat them at greater length.]

13. WHOSOEVER SHALL BY ANY ECCLESIASTICAL process soever,

REPLEVIN.—RESCUE.

molest any person for any of the lands, &c. belonging to the abbey, &c. abolished by H. 8., shall incur the penalties of a praemunire (under 16 R. 2. c. 5.) 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 8. s. 49. [CON. 1 El. c. 1. s. 52.]

REPLEVIN. (See AVOWRY. LANDLORD AND TENANT.)

1. OF VEXATIOUS REPLEVINS, 15 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 2. [sheriff to appoint deputies for replevins, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 12.]

2. Where lords of fees distrain their tenants, and the tenants replevy, such lords, as soon as they shall be attached at suit of their tenants, shall have a writ granted them to remove such plaintiff before justices, afore whom justice can be ministered unto such lords; and this cause shall be put into the court, "because such a man distrained in his fee for services and customs to him due." A reasonable distress may be levied upon the seisin of his ancestors or predecessors, from such time as a writ of novel disseisin doth run, id. s. 1.

3. Sheriffs or bailiffs shall receive of the plaintiffs pledges not only for pursuing suit before they make deliverance of distress, but also for the return of the beasts, if return be awarded; and if any take pledges otherwise, he shall answer for the price of the beasts, and the lord distraining shall have his recovery by writ that he shall return unto him so many beasts, or such chattels, and if the bailiff cannot restore, his superior shall, id. s. 2.

3. So soon as return is awarded to the distrainer, the sheriff shall be commanded by a judicial writ, that he cause return to be made of the beasts unto the distrainer, in which writ it shall be expressed that the sheriff shall not deliver them without writ making mention of the judgment given by the justices, which cannot be without writ issuing from the rolls of such justices, before whom the plaintiff was determined; therefore when the party distrained cometh unto the justices, and desireth a new replevin, he shall have a judicial writ, that the sheriff taking such surety for prosecuting, &c. shall deliver unto him the beasts or chattels before returned; and the distrainer shall be attached to come at a certain day before the justices, afore whom proceedings shall be, in the presence of the parties; and if he that replevied make default again, or for any other cause return of distress is awarded, being now twice replevied, that distress shall remain irreplevisable; but if distress be taken of new, and for a new cause, the above process shall be observed, id. s. 3.

4. H. M. HATH PUT OUT non plevin of land, and the pains thereof, and none shall lose his land because of non plevin, 9 E. 3. St. 1. c. 2.

RESCUE.

1. FOR THE AMENDMENT OF THE LAW OF RESCUE, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 83. [Public clause, id. s. 3.]

2. If any person shall rescue, or aid or assist in rescuing from the lawful custody of any constable or other person, any person charged with, or suspected of, or committed for any felony, or suspicion thereof, then if the person so offending is convicted of felony, and is entitled to the benefit of clergy, and is liable to imprisonment for not exceeding one year, the court, before whom any such person is convicted, may direct that such person, instead of being so fined and imprisoned, shall be transported for 7 years, or imprisoned only, or imprisoned and kept to hard labour in the common gaol or house of correction, or penitentiary, for not less than one and not exceeding 3 years, id. s. 1.

3. If any person shall assault, beat, or wound any constable or other person, with intent thereby to obstruct or prevent the lawful apprehension or detainer of any person charged with or suspected of felony; and if any person so charged or suspected shall assault, &c. any constable, &c. with intent thereby to obstruct, &c. his apprehension or detainer, then if the person so offending is convicted of a misdemeanor only, the court before whom such person is convicted may order such person, in addition to any other pains to which he is now liable by law, to be kept to hard labour for not exceeding 2 years nor less than 6 months, id. s. 2.

REVENUE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR THE MORE SPEEDY PAYMENT OF H. M.'s DEBTS, and for explaining 13 El. c. 4., 39 El. c. 7. [CON. 45 El. c. 9. ss. 22, 27., now EXP. See the preamble to 25 G. 3. c. 55.]

2. CONCERNING RECEIVERS, 1 H. 8. c. 3. [EXP.]

5. FOR ESTABLISHING AN ADDITIONAL REVENUE [of hearth money] on H. M., for the better support of his crown and dignity, 15 & 14 C. 2. c. 10. [AMD. 15 C. 2. c. 13., 16 C. 2. c. 3., and all these acts REP. 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 10.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. CONCERNING COLLECTORS AND RECEIVERS, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 2. [REP. 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 4., but REV. 1 El. c. 4. and s. 10. and s. 44.]

3. Whereas collectors and receivers within the survey and rule of the court of Exchequer of the dutchy of Lancaster, the court of augmentations, [abolished, 1 El. c. 4. s. 24.] of general surveyors and wards, liveries, [abolished, 12 C. 2. c. 24. ss. 1—2.] and the court of the tenth and first fruits [abolished by letters patent issued under 1 M. S. 2. c. 10. and by 1 El. c. 4. s. 24.] have retained the money collected by them, it is enacted, that every high collector of fifteenths, subsidy or other tax, and all other H. M.'s particular and general receivers of money and other duties belonging to H. M., shall, within 3 months after such money or yearly profits be due and gathered, pay the same to H. M.'s use, as shall be appointed, upon pain to forfeit for every pound 4s. for every month, lose his office; and H. M. shall charge such collector or receiver, and also upon his accounts, with the forfeiture, or recover the same by action, bill, &c. against them or their heirs, executors, or administrators, in which no essoin, &c. 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 2.

5. Provided that if any collector or receiver tender such money to H. M.'s use within such 3 months, unto such persons as be charged with the receipt of the same, he shall not incur any penalty, id. s. 2.

4. The heirs of any collector or receiver shall not be charged by this act, but only for lands which they have by descent in fee-simple or fee-tail, or by gift or other assurance by covin, from such collector or receiver, or their assigns; and H. M. shall have execution only of such lands until H. M. be paid, id. s. 3.

5. The executors or administrators of such collector or receiver shall not be charged by this act, but as executors should be, by law or action of debt, id. s. 4.

6. Where the heirs of any of H. M.'s receivers or debtors shall be charged for his ancestor's debts, whereby the land descended or given to him by covin is put in execution, such heirs may take their action of debt against the executors or administrators of the ancestor, and execution against the goods of such ancestor, in which action no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, id. s. 5.

7. This act shall not extend to the collectors of the custom, and of tonnage and poundage, which be accountable yearly in the exchequer, id. s. 6.

8. This act shall not extend to any receivers for the payments of any pensions or other allowances paid according to order or decree of such courts as in s. 1., id. s. 7.

9. FOR THE TRUE ANSWERING OF H. M.'s REVENUES, 7 E. 6. c. 1. and see s. 1.

10. Every person appointed treasurer, receiver, collector, bailiff, or minister accountant of H. M., shall, before their executing their offices, with sureties make bonds to H. M. in such court of record where the officer is accountable, that they, their heirs, executors, &c. shall truly account and pay all such money as shall come to their hands concerning their offices, to H. M.'s use, at such times and places as in the condition mentioned, upon pain of forfeiture of their offices, id. s. 3.

11. Every receiver of H. M.'s honours, lands, and revenues, shall yearly make his precepts to all collectors, ministers, and bailiffs accountant, within the circuit of his office, charging them on H. M.'s behalf to appear before them within the county where the offices, bailiwick, or collections lie, at a certain day and place, and to pay to H. M.'s use such money as they ought by reason of their offices, being due to H. M., at or before Easter; and the precepts shall be delivered to such officers, &c. or left at their houses, or at the place where their receipt ought to be, 12 days before the day prefixed, id. s. 4.

12. If any such collectors or bailiffs accountants make default at the day appointed, the collector, &c. being convicted in the court where the revenue shall be answered, shall for the first offence forfeit to H. M. his fee for that year, and for non-payment 6d. of the pound for every month, till the same is paid to H. M.'s use, id. s. 5.

13. After the first default of appearance, the officer making again default, and being convict for the second offence of non-appearance, shall forfeit his office to H. M., and for the second offence in non-payment of money shall forfeit 12d. of every pound for every month, till the same is paid to H. M.'s use, id. s. 6.

14. Every auditor of H. M. of his honours, lands, and revenues, shall have power yearly to make their precepts to all collectors and bailiffs accountant, to appear and account before them within the county where the lands lie, at H. M.'s audit, to be holden there yearly between the feast of St. Michael and the nativity of our Lord, for all rents and profits payable within their bailiwicks, at or before the feast of St. Michael next before such audit, the precepts to be delivered to the collectors or bailiffs, or left at their houses, or at the place where their receipts are, 12 days before the day prefixed; and if any collector or bailiff-accountant do not appear before the auditor or refuse to account, he shall for his first offence forfeit to H. M. his whole fee for that year; and for non-payment of money shall forfeit 6d. of every pound, in the name of a pain, for every month, until he shall account and pay; and such officer that shall make again default of appearance, for the 2d offence shall forfeit his office, id. s. 7.

17. And for the 3d offence in non-payment of money he shall forfeit 12d. of every pound, in the name of a pain, for every month, until he shall account and pay, 7 E. 6. c. 1. s. 8.

16. Every such receiver shall make payment yearly to the treasurer, or general receiver of the court where the revenue is answerable, or otherwise as he shall be appointed, of all money due at or before Easter, by the 20th of June following; and shall make like payment yearly of all rents due at or before the feast of St. Michael, by the 20th Jan. following, upon pain of forfeiture for every default 2d. of every pound for every day, id. s. 9.

17. Such receivers shall enter into their account yearly, Hilary term, and finish the same before the 10th of Mar., and make payment of the money that is due on the foot of the account before the 20th Mar., upon pain of forfeiture of the offices, and 4d. of the pound for every day that they shall detain the money, id. s. 10.

18. All receivers, collectors, and bailiffs, of H. M.'s manors or revenues, for lack of payment and levying of their rents within their offices, may distrain for the same, and use the distress in such sort as any officer of the exchequer for levying of H. M.'s revenues answerable in the same court, id. s. 11.

19. The head officer of every of H. M.'s courts of revenues of record, may assess fines and amerciaments upon any sheriff, for not returning or misreturning of any writ delivered out of the same courts, touching the levying of any issues, rents or revenues, or of any debts due to H. M. in such sort as hath been lawfully used in like cases in the exchequer, id. s. 12.

20. All treasurers and chamberlains, and receivers of any of H. M.'s courts of revenue, and all customers and collectors of customs, or certain subsidies within any port, within 10 days after notice from H. M. or 6 of his privy council in writing, shall declare in writing, what sums of money then due to H. M. be in their hands, and shall make payment in such sort as shall be commanded, upon pain of forfeiture of their offices, id. s. 13.

21. The same treasurers chamberlains and receivers shall yearly, before 20th June, make a true account of all money in their hands to H. M.'s use yearly, at or before the 20th Mar. next before such 20th June; and also a true declaration in writing of the money in their hands to H. M.'s use before the last day of June then next following, and make payment of the same in such sort as commanded by sufficient warrant, upon pain to forfeit their offices, id. s. 14.

22. If any treasurer accountant or receiver, or their deputies, take of any person any sum or other profit of and for the payment of any fees, annuities, pensions, duties, or warrants, more than they ought, they shall forfeit for every penny so taken 6s. 8d. to the party grieved, to be recovered in any court of record, by action of debt, &c., in which no essoin, &c., id. s. 15.

23. If any auditor or his deputy refuse to take any account in such case, so that it cannot be completed within the times hereby allowed for the same, he shall, on conviction before the court where the account is answerable, forfeit like pain as the person whose account he refuses to take ought to do by this act for not accounting, and such person shall be discharged thereof, id. s. 16.

24. The duplicate of every account made by any treasurer or receiver shall at their requests and costs, be delivered to them, subscribed with the hands of the auditor, upon pain that such auditor shall forfeit 10l. to H. M., id. s. 17.

25. This act shall not charge any archbishop or bishop to make bond, or to account and pay the tenths arising within their dioceses due to H. M., otherwise than as before accounted, id. s. 18.

26. This act shall not charge any sheriff, escheator, or collector of dismes, quindismes, contributions, or subsidies (tonnage and poundage only except), but they shall use their offices and pay such money in such sort as they have usually done before this act, id. s. 20.

27. FOR THE BETTER PAYMENT OF MONIES received for the use of the crown, 20 C. 2. c. 2.

28. All receivers, reeves, bailiffs, collectors, and other officers and persons shall diligently gather the monies due to H. M., and answer the same according to their duty, id. s. 1.

29. All persons and bodies corporate, who, having received money due to H. M., shall not duly account for and pay the same according to the course of the exchequer, shall within 3 months after receipt thereof, answer to H. M. damages for all money and duties at the rate of 12 per cent. by the year, so long as the same is detained by the judgment of the court of exchequer, without any abatement; and the process of such court shall be forthwith awarded against all such persons and bodies, &c. their heirs, executors, and administrators chargeable with such monies for the levying thereof, with damages, id. s. 2.

30. Nothing herein shall alter the time or way of accounting of any sheriff, for any part of H. M.'s ancient revenue, or other profits anciently collected, &c. by the sheriff, or subject them to any new penalty for the same, id. s. 5.

31. FOR AMENDING AND REDUCING INTO ONE ACT THE PROVISIONS contained in any laws now in force imposing the penalty of death for any act done in breach of or resistance to any part of the laws for collecting H. M.'s revenue in G. B., 52 G. 3. c. 143.

32. Where any act committed in breach of or resistance to any part of the laws for collecting H. M.'s revenue in G. B. would, by any law in force, subject the offender to suffer death, as guilty of felony, without clergy, such act shall be taken to be felony with clergy, and punishable only as such, unless excepted by this act, id. s. 1.

33. Every deputy, clerk, agent, letter-carrier, &c. or other person employed by or under the post-office of G. B. in receiving, stamping, sorting, charging, conveying, or delivering letters or packets, or in other business relating to the office, who shall secrete, embezzle, or destroy any letter, packet, bag or mail of letters, which in any manner shall come into his possession whilst so employed, containing the whole or any part or parts of any bank note, bank post bill, bill of exchange, exchequer bill, South Sea or East India bond, dividend warrant (whether of the Bank, South Sea, East India, or other company, society, or corporation,) navy or victualling or transport bill, ordnance debenture, seaman's ticket, state lottery ticket or certificate, bank receipt for payment on any loan, note of assignment of stock in the funds, letter of attorney for receiving annuities or dividends, or for selling stock in the funds or belonging to any company, &c., American provincial bill of credit, gold-smiths' or bankers' letter of credit, or note for or relating to payment of money, or other bond or warrant, draft, bill, or promissory note soever for payment of money, or shall steal and take out of any such letter or packet, the whole or any part of such bank note, &c., shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 2.

34. Every person who shall steal and take from any carriage, or from the possession [see 2 Stark. C. N.P. 406.] of any person employed to convey letters sent by the post of G. B. or from any post-office or house or place for the receipt or delivery of letters or packets, or bags or mails of letters sent by such post, any letter, &c. or bag, &c. so sent, or shall steal and take any letter or packet out of any such bag or mail, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy; and such offences may be enquired of and tried either in the county where the offence is committed or the party apprehended, id. s. 3.

35. Every person who shall counsel, command, hire, persuade, procure, aid, or abet any such deputy, &c. (as in s. 2.) or other person employed by or under the post-office in receiving, stamping, sorting, charging, conveying, or delivering letters or packets, or in any other business relating to the said post-office, to commit any of the above offences; or shall, with a fraudulent intention, buy or receive the whole or part of any security, &c. (as in s. 2.) described, which shall have been contained in, and which at the time of such buying or receipt he shall know to have been contained in any such letter, &c. so secreted, &c., stolen, or taken by any deputy, &c. or other person so employed as above, or which such buyer or receiver shall at the time of such buying, &c. know to have been contained in and stolen and taken out of any letter, &c. stolen from or out of any bag of letters sent by such post, or from or out of any post-office or place for receipt or delivery of letters, &c. or bags, &c. of letters sent by such post, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, and may be tried and attainted of such felony as well before as after conviction of the principal felon, and whether he has been apprehended or is amenable to justice or not, id. s. 4.

36. Every person who shall make, forge, or counterfeit or cause, &c. to be made, &c. the mark or hand of the receiver of the prelines at the alienation-office on any writ of covenant whereby he may be defrauded or suffer loss, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, id. s. 5.

37. Every person who shall forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause, &c. to be forged, &c. or shall knowingly or wilfully aid or assist in the forging, &c. any contract, assignment, certificate, receipt or attested copy of any certificate made out by any person under the land-tax acts, or of any part thereof, or who shall wilfully utter any such forged or altered contract, &c. or attested copy of certificate, knowing it to be forged, &c. with intent to defraud, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, id. s. 6.

38. Every person who shall forge or counterfeit or cause, &c. any mark, stamp, die, or plate provided, made, or used in pursuance of any statutes by or under the direction of the commissioners of stamps, or by any other persons legally authorized, for expressing or denoting any duties, or part thereof, being under the management of the commissioners, or for denoting or testifying the payment of such duties, or part thereof, or for denoting any device appointed by the commissioners for the ace of spades to be used with any playing-cards, or shall forge or counterfeit or cause, &c. the impression or resemblance of the impression of any such mark, &c. upon any vellum, parchment, paper, card, ivory, gold or silver plate, [see Note (2) to 15 G. 3. c. 59. tit. GOLD and SILVER, pl. 92.] or other material, or shall stamp or mark, or cause, &c. the same to be stamped, &c. with any such forged, &c. mark, &c., with intent to defraud H. M. of any of the duties, or any part of the duties under management of the stamps-commissioners; or who shall utter, sell, or expose to sale any vellum, &c. or other material, having thereon the impression of such forged mark or impression, knowing them respectively to have been forged; or who shall privately or secretly use any such mark, &c. so provided or used as above, with intent to defraud H. M. as above, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 7.

39. Every person who shall transpose [see note referred to in last pl.] or remove, or cause, &c. to be transposed, &c. from one piece of wrought gold or silver plate to another, or to any vessel or ware of base metal, any impression made with any mark, stamp, or die provided, made, or used by or under the direction of the commissioners of stamps, or of any other persons duly authorized therein, for denoting any duty or payment of any duty granted to H. M. on gold or silver plate; or shall stamp or mark, or cause, &c. to be stamped, &c. any vessel, &c. of base metal, with any mark, &c. forged in imitation of or to resemble any mark, &c. so provided or used as above; or who shall sell, exchange, or expose to sale or export out of G. B. any wrought gold or silver plate or vessel, or ware of base metal, having thereon the impression of any forged mark, &c. or any forged impression of any mark, &c. so provided as above, or any impression thereof transposed from any other piece of plate, knowing the same respectively to be so forged or transposed; or shall without lawful excuse (the proof lying on the accused) be possessed of any such forged mark, stamp, or die, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, id. s. 8.

40. Every person (not lawfully authorized so to do) who shall make or cause, &c. to be made or shall knowingly aid or assist in the making, or without being appointed or authorized as above, shall knowingly have in possession, without lawful excuse, (the proof of which shall lie on the accused) any frame, mould, or instrument for making paper, with the words "Excise office" visible in its substance, or shall make or cause to be made, or knowingly aid, &c. in making any such paper, or who shall by any contrivance procure the above words to appear visible in the substance of any paper whatever; or who (not being so authorized as above) shall engrave, cast, cut, or make, or cause, &c. to be engraven, cast, &c. any mark, stamp, or device, in imitation of or to resemble any mark, &c. made or used by direction of the commissioners of excise in Eng. or Scot. for printing, stamping, or marking any paper to be used as a permit to accompany any excisable commodity removing from one part of G. B. to another, in pursuance of the statutes, shall suffer death as a felon, without clergy, id. s. 9.

41. Every person, who with intent to defraud H. M., shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause, &c. to be forged, &c., or shall willingly assist in falsely making, &c. any debenture or certificate for payment or return of any money, or any part thereof, or any signature thereon in any case, in which such debenture &c. is by any act relating to customs or excise directed to be given, or shall wilfully, with such intent, either publish or make use of any such debenture, &c., or part thereof, being wholly or in part falsely made, &c. or altered, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy, id. s. 10.

42. If 3 or more persons, armed with fire-arms or offensive weapons, shall hereafter, be assembled within G. B. or the Isle of Man, or the limits of any port, harbour, or creek thereof respectively, in order to be aiding, &c. in the illegal export of wool or other goods prohibited to be exported, or in carrying wool or other such goods, in order to such exportation, or in illegal running, landing, or carrying away prohibited or uncustomed goods, or goods liable to pay any duties not paid or secured, or in illegal relanding of any goods shipped or exported on debenture or certificate, or from any warehouse, wherein such wool or goods are deposited under any statute, for securing the home-consumption duties thereon, or in rescuing such wool or other goods after seizure, from any officer authorized to seize the same or the person assisting him, or from the place where lodged by the latter: or in rescuing any person apprehended for any felony by any customs or excise act of G. B., or in preventing the apprehending any person guilty of such offence: or if 3 or more persons so armed in G. B. or Man, or within the above limits therein respectively shall be so aiding, &c.; or if any person shall maliciously shoot at, or upon any ship, vessel, or boat belonging to the navy or in the service of the customs or excise in G. B. or Man, or within the above limits therein respectively, or in any port of the British or Irish channels, or on the high seas within 100 leagues of G. B. or Ire.; or if any person, either on shore or on the water within the limits last aforesaid, shall maliciously shoot at, maim, or dangerously wound any officer of H. M.'s military or naval forces, or of customs, or excise, or other persons aiding him, when acting in execution of his duty, under any act relating to the revenues of customs or excise of G. B., or for prevention of smuggling, every person so offending or assisting therein, shall suffer death as a felon without clergy; and every offence committed within any port or roadstead of Guernsey, Jersey, Sark, Alderney, or Man, shall be tried in those islands respectively; and if committed elsewhere out of U. K. then in any county of U. K.: or if within Eng., Scot., or Ire. respectively, then within such part of U.K. respectively, but in any county thereof, 52 G. 3. c. 143. s. 11.

43. If any person is charged by information on oath, before any justice or other person competent to take such information in any part of U.K., with being guilty of so assembling, aiding, or assisting, or of so maliciously shooting, maiming, or wounding as above, within the limits in s. 11., in any case wherein any such officer or person assisting him shall have been killed, such information shall be certified by the justice or other person taking it under his hand and seal to a principal secretary of state, who shall lay same before H. M. in council, who may by order in council command the accused, that within 60 days or longer, after publication of such order in the London Gazette, he surrender himself to some judge of K. B., justice of peace, or competent person to take such surrender, as specified in the order; and may require such order to be proclaimed by the sheriff, if the offence is committed within any county of U.K., and if not, then by the sheriff of any adjacent county; and the clerks of the privy council shall cause such order to be forthwith published in the Gazette, repeating it weekly after such first publication, till expiration of the 60 days or other time appointed as above; and shall cause a copy of such order, attested by the signature of one of them, to be transmitted to the sheriff of the county specified therein, who within 14 days after its receipt, shall cause it to be proclaimed between 10 and 2 in the market-places, on the market-days of 2 market towns in the county if there be 2: or if only one, then therein and in some other place of general resort in the county, and shall affix a true copy in each of such market-towns or such other place; and if the accused shall surrender according to such order, the person to whom he shall surrender shall commit him to gaol, to be dealt with according to law: but if he do not surrender within the limited time, or escapes from justice, or after surrender and before trial, he shall be deemed attainted of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, if the offence is charged to have been committed in Eng., or within the limits of any port in Eng. or Ire., or within 100 leagues of the coast thereof; and the K. B. or justices of oyer, terminer, and gaol delivery, or great sessions for the county or place where the offence is, shall award execution against him, as if he had been attainted in such courts respectively; and if the offence is charged to have been committed in Scot. or within any port thereof, or 100 leagues of the coast, the offender shall be deemed convicted of a capital crime, and shall suffer death and confiscation of moveables; and the judiciary and circuit courts shall award execution, as if he had been found guilty and condemned therein respectively, id. s. 12.

44. TO UNITE AND CONSOLIDATE INTO ONE FUND all the public revenues of G. B. and Ire. and to provide for their application to the general service of the U. K. 56 G. 3. c. 98. ss. 1—21. 24—25. [See ss. 22—25. and s. 26. of this statute, ACCOUNTS, PUBLIC, pl. 110—111. and 115.; the rest relates to Ire. (Accounts, Public.) AMD. 57 G. 3. c. 48. ss. 1—14.]

45. FOR ADJUSTMENT OF THE ACCOUNTS OF THE CONSOLIDATED fund of U. K., and making good any occasional deficiency which may arise therein in G. B. or Ire. respectively, 57 G. 3. c. 48. ss. 1—14.

46. After 5th Jan. 1817, all taxes, revenues, and monies of every kind, which by any statutes then in force in G. B. or Ire. form part of, or are directed to be carried to the respective funds called the consolidated fund of G. B., and the same of Ire., shall make one general fund called "The Consolidated Fund of G. B. and Ire.," and whether in the exchequer of G. B. or in that of Ire. shall, in the first place, be indiscriminately applied in payment of the whole interest of the national debts of G. B. and Ire. with the sinking funds for their reduction, as one joint consolidated national debt, interest, and sinking fund; and in the next place, in payment of all other charges soever, made payable out of the consolidated funds of G. B. and Ire. respectively under any acts in force immediately before 5th Jan. 1817; after payment of all which charges, the consolidated fund of U. K. shall be in like manner indiscriminately applied to the service of the U. K. or any part thereof, as directed by parliament, and shall be applied accordingly, subject to this act, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 1.

47. From 5th Jan. 1817, the offices of lord treasurer of G. B. and the same of Ire. shall be united in one office, and the holder thereof shall be called lord high treasurer of U. K. of G. B. and Ire. And when there is no such officer, H. M. may appoint commissioners for executing the offices of treasurer of exchequer of G. B. and lord high treasurer of Ire. who shall be called commissioners of H. M.'s treasury of the U. K. &c. and shall have all such powers through the U. K. with respect to the collection, issue, and application of the whole revenues thereof, as immediately before 5th Jan. 1817 were vested in the commissioners of treasury of G. B. or Ire. respectively, by statute or custom in force in either country respectively, by whatever names they have been described, except as the same may be hereby altered or amended; and all revenue officers in U. K. shall be subject to the orders of such lord high treasurer or commissioners of treasury of U. K., and liable to such penalties for disobedience of such orders as they would be liable to by virtue of any statute or custom in force as above, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 2.

48. The words "commissioners of H. M.'s treasury," whether with or without the addition of "of the U. K. of G. B. & Ire." or not, shall apply to the commissioners for executing the offices of treasurer of exchequer of G. B. and treasurer of Ire., and all acts executed by them respectively, as such, by virtue of any law or custom in force before 1st July 1816, shall be good, notwithstanding any error or omission in the names or descriptions whereby any such commissioners shall or may at any time have been known or described, id. s. 3.

49. H. M. may appoint a vice treasurer for issuing money out of the exchequer of Ire. with 2000*l.* British currency annual salary, payable out of the revenue appropriated to H. M.'s civil list establishment in Ire., id. s. 4.

50. He shall take such oath before the chancellor of Ire., or commissioners for custody of the great seal of Ire., as was accustomed to be taken by the vice-treasurer of Ire. before passing 55 G. 3. c. 28. (Ir.) and may appoint a deputy to act during his absence, or incapacity by illness, and is responsible for the official acts of the latter; and the lord lieutenant may from time to time, by warrant of vice treasurer, order the payment out of exchequer of any such sum for the annual establishment and incidental and contingent expences of his office, as the treasury shall direct, id. s. 5.

51. No money shall be issued out of the exchequer of Ire., otherwise than by the vice-treasurer, under warrant of lord lieutenant directed to, and countersigned by such vice-treasurer, after which countersignation, the warrant shall be entered and marked by any officer authorized thereto by the latter, and whereof notice shall be given by him to the auditor-general of exchequer of Ire. for issue of his order on the teller of exchequer for payment, provided authority be given for such payments under some grant from H. M. or his royal predecessors, or some statute; but all such payments shall not exceed the amount authorized under the respective acts, by virtue whereof such issues are made; or the annual grants of parliament, as they are specified in the appropriation acts of each session, id. s. 6.

52. All warrants signed by the Irish treasury prior to 3 Jan. 1817, and then remaining in the auditor-general's office unpaid, are good authority for his order to the teller, for their payment, id. s. 7.

53. "And that no annual grants of parliament may be exceeded," All grants under H. M.'s great or privy seal, or sign-manual, or H. M.'s letters or warrants, directing issues for services in Ire. out of such annual grants, shall be entered and recorded in the office of auditor of exchequer of G. B., who shall cause the entry to be certified thereon, and to be forthwith returned to the treasury of U. K., in order to transmission to lord lieutenant, id. s. 8.

54. In regard to exchequer in G. B., the treasury of G. B. and Ire., and in regard to that in Ire. the vice-treasurer of Ire., under warrant of lord lieutenant, as above provided, may direct the issue of all sums necessary for payment of the interest and sinking fund of the national debt, which shall be payable in either part of the U. K. and of all charges which have been heretofore usually defrayed out of the respective consolidated funds thereof, immediately before or after close of every quarter, though the accounts of the respective exchequers have not been made up and settled, id. s. 9.

55. As soon as the quarterly accounts of the consolidated fund of U. K. have been made up in the respective exchequers of G. B. and Ire. a copy of the amount of such part thereof as has arisen in G. B. within the preceding quarter, shall be drawn out and certified by the auditor of exchequer there, and transmitted to the treasury of U. K., who shall cause same to be transmitted to vice-treasurer for Ire. with directions to cause the same to be deposited in the office of receipt of exchequer in Ire. for information of the officers there, and a copy of the account of such part thereof as has arisen in Ire. within the preceding quarter, shall, in like manner, be drawn out and certified by the auditor-general of exchequer there, and transmitted to the treasury of U. K. who shall order it to be deposited in the office of auditor of exchequer, for like information, id. s. 10.

56. The treasury may from time to time cause any money to be issued out of the growing produce of the consolidated fund of U. K. at the receipt of exchequer in G. B. in advance, or otherwise, as was practised before passing, 56 G. 3. c. 98., 57 G. 3. c. 48. s. 2. [See same provision as to issues from exchequer in Ire. of the growing produce of that part of the consolidated fund, arising there, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 12. infra, pl. 58.]

57. Whenever the surplus of consolidated fund remaining in the respective exchequers of G. B. and Ire. at close of any quarter has been ascertained and certified as in s. 10. the treasury may by warrant direct that all or any part thereof shall be issued to the person named in the warrant, for the purpose of remittance or transfer to the exchequer of the other part of U. K. as the exigencies of public service appear to them to require, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 11.

58. Nothing herein shall prevent issues being made from exchequer in Ire. out of the growing produce of the consolidated fund, arising from time to time in that part of U. K. for the necessary current services thereof, according to the invariable course which has heretofore prevailed there, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 12. [and see ante, pl. 56.]

59. Immediately after termination of each quarter ending 5th April, 5th July, 10th Oct. and 5th Jan. annually, accounts shall be made up in the exchequer in Ire. of all sums issued according to 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 12., during the quarter ending on the above days respectively, out of the growing produce of the consolidated fund arising in Ire. specifying separately the issues made for defraying the services comprised in the annual grants of parliament, or which would in G. B. be payable at receipt of exchequer out of any supplies of the year, as also the heads of service for which such issues were so made, which accounts shall be certified by the auditor-general of exchequer in Ire. and by him transmitted to the treasury of U. K. who shall thereupon by warrant direct, that out of any supplies of the year in the exchequer in G. B. a sum of money equal to such certified amount of the issues so made for the above purposes, out of any supplies of the year, shall be placed to the credit of the consolidated fund of U. K. for the quarter ending on the usual quarter day next ensuing the date of such certificate, by the auditor of exchequer in G. B., 57 G. 3. c. 48. s. 1. [superseding the latter part of 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 12. not given in last pl.]

60. So much of 37 G. 3. Ir. c. 27. as appoints commissioners for redemption of national debt there, is repealed; and after 5th Jan. 1817, the British commissioners for that purpose shall be "Commissioners for reduction of national debt of U. K." with all the powers of both sets of commissioners, and the several sums which by virtue of several acts in force in G. B. and Ire. respectively are required to be set apart at the receipt of each exchequer thereof on account of such commissioners, shall continue to be set apart, and all sums, or any part thereof so set apart may from time to time be paid into the bank of Eng. or that of Ire. as is directed by treasury, and shall from time to time be applied by the commissioners in purchase of such capital stock debentures or annuities, or towards any public loan in G. B. or Ire. as seems most expedient, and their order shall always be sufficient authority to the banks of Eng. and Ire. for paying any part of the money from time to time remaining in either, on account of the commissioners, to any person, in order to its remittance from one part of U. K. to the other, and also for its application to the above purposes, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 13.

61. In consequence of the increase of business resulting from this act, H. M. may appoint 2 additional commissioners of the treasury to sit and act as such with the commissioners who may now by law be appointed for executing the office of treasurer of exchequer of G. B. with a yearly salary to each not exceeding that received by each of the other commissioners to be paid to them out of the revenues appropriated to H. M.'s Irish civil list, any thing in 6 A. c. 7. or any other act notwithstanding, id. s. 14.

62. After 5th Jan. 1817, in all cases not otherwise specially provided for by this act, where under provisions of any acts in force immediately before 1st July 1816, any warrant, licence, order, or document has been required to be signed by the treasury of Ire., a warrant or other proper document, as the case may be, signed by the lord-lieut. shall be of like effect as any such warrant, &c. of such treasury; except in cases relating to the revenue of Ire., and where by any act in force in Ire. the approbation of treasury has been required, except as above, the approbation of the lord-lieut. signified by the chief secretary, or in his absence, by the under civil, or military secretary, as the case requires, shall be of like effect as the approbation of such treasury, id. s. 15.

63. The appointment of any person to be vice-treasurer of Ire. or to be commissioner of treasury of U. K. shall not be deemed an appointment to a new office or place of profit under the crown, and no person so appointed to either office shall be disabled from sitting in the House of Commons, id. s. 16. [s. 17. Exp.]

64. All the powers of 35 G. 3. c. 28. Ir. regulating the receipts and issues of Irish treasury, are continued to the treasury of U. K. except as hereby altered, id. s. 18.

65. The quarterly accounts of receipts, issues, and remains of exchequer of Ire. as prepared by the auditor-general thereof, and heretofore examined and signed under 35 G. 3. c. 28. Ir. by the treasurer of Ire. shall after 5th Jan. 1817, be examined and signed by the vice-treasurer for Ire. and certified abstracts of such accounts shall be by him from time to time regularly transmitted to the treasury of U. K., id. s. 19.

66. The weekly abstracts or certificates of receipts, issues, and remains in treasury of Ire. required by 35 G. 3. c. 28. Ir. to be made by auditor-general, clerk of pells, and teller of exchequer thereof to the treasury of Ire. and the weekly abstract of receipts and payments on account of the teller of exchequer so required to be made out by the bank of Ire. and transmitted to treasury of Ire. shall after 5th Jan. 1817 be weekly transmitted to the vice-treasurer for Ire., and copies of all the above abstracts, with all other returns, certificates, abstracts, accounts, or declarations by that act directed to be furnished to the treasury of Ire. shall be transmitted to the treasury of U. K., at and for the periods by the above act required in respect thereof, 56 G. 3. c. 98. s. 20.

67. The vice-treasurer of Ire. shall, in virtue of his office, be a governor, visitor, and member of all such colleges, corporations, charitable and other public institutions in Ire. of which the chancellor of exchequer there hath at any time heretofore been governor, &c. in right of his office under any statute, charter, bye-law, or custom now in force there; and may send and receive letters and packets by post, free of postage within U. K., in like manner, and under such restrictions as the late chancellor of exchequer hath been authorized so to send and receive the same, id. s. 24.

68. All rules and orders made by the treasury of Ire., at any time before Jan. 5, 1817, with respect to receipt, payment, issue or remittance of public money, or to any thing within their jurisdiction, shall remain in full force till revoked or altered by lord lieutenant or treasury; and all records, minute books, and entries of proceedings of the Irish treasury, and all other books and papers in their custody, shall be delivered over to the vice treasurer, (subject to orders of treasury,) in the offices in the castle of Dublin, now occupied by the treasury of Ire., and his business shall, from 5th Jan. 1817, be carried on therein, id. s. 25.

69. Parliamentary grants, to arise from surplus of consolidated fund which had not accrued prior to 5th Jan. 1817, and sums due for advances towards its deficiencies, shall be deemed satisfied and cancelled, 57 G. 3. c. 48. s. 3.

70. Balances due from either country to the other, on joint contributions to expences of U. K., under union acts of 39 & 40 and 40 G. 3. are declared satisfied and cancelled, id. s. 4.

71. If on making up accounts of the income and charge of the consolidated fund in G. B. or Ire. respectively, for the quarter ending as in s. 1. supra pl. 59. it appears to the treasury that the produce thereof is not sufficient to defray the charges thereon in G. B. or Ire. respectively, they may, by warrant under their hands, order any number of exchequer bills to be made out to make up the deficiency, subject to regulations of 48 G. 3. c. 1. id. s. 6.; all the powers and penalties of which act extend to exchequer bills issued as in s. 6. id. s. 7., and the interest thereon shall not exceed 3½ d. per cent. per diem, id. s. 8.

72. The banks of Eng. and Ire. may take the above exchequer bills, and advance, on credit of such bills, sufficient money to make good such deficiency of the consolidated fund, notwithstanding 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 20. id. s. 9.

73. Exchequer bills for deficiencies in that part of the consolidated fund which arises in G. B. shall be placed as so much cash in the offices of the tellers of exchequer in G. B., each of whom shall be severally charged with the proportion so placed in his office, as so much cash, id. s. 10.

74. The exchequer bills in the hands of the tellers shall be locked up, and secured as cash, according to the course of receipt of exchequer in G. B., and shall be taken as so much, in part of the remains in real money wherewith each shall from time to time stand charged, in common with other monies in exchequer; and the treasury may issue and apply them in defraying charges on the consolidated fund remaining unpaid in G. B., by reason of any such deficiency, id. s. 11.

75. The treasury may cause exchequer bills, issued under this act for any deficiency in the consolidated fund, arising in Ire., to be paid into the Bank of Ire. to the credit and account of the teller of exchequer there, to be issued and applied to defraying the charges unpaid by reason of such deficiency, id. s. 12.

76. The principal contained in such exchequer bills, and the interest thereon, shall be charged on the growing produce of the consolidated fund in the succeeding quarter; and the treasury may, from time to time, by warrant, direct the auditors of exchequer, in either country, in what manner they think necessary to issue to the person named in such warrant, out of the growing produce of the consolidated fund of the next quarter, any sum not in all exceeding a sum sufficient to pay off the principal of such exchequer bills then outstanding in either country, with all interest due thereon, id. s. 13.

77. The treasury shall, from time to time, cause a true account in writing to be taken, attested by proper officers, of the amount of all exchequer bills issued as above, and how much thereof has been discharged, and how much remains undischarged; and every such account shall, on or before 25th March, annually, be laid before both houses, if parliament be then sitting, or within one month after commencement of its next session, id. s. 14.

REVENUE OFFICER (PROTECTING.)

1. FOR THE RELIEF OF COLLECTORS OF PUBLIC MONIES, and their assistants and deputies, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 17.

2. All collectors and other persons who shall levy or collect any sum, or shall do any act concerning the same, by virtue of any act of parliament now in force, and who are sued for the same by other than H. M. may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 17.

3. TO RENDER OFFICERS OF THE EXCISE MORE SAFE in the execution of their offices, 23 G. 3. c. 70. ss. 30—34. (This title is framed from these sections.) [EXTD. to officer of the customs, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 47. s. 35. AMD. 28 G. 3. c. 37. ss. 23—28.]

4. All the provisions of 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 30—34. concerning any actions against excise officers, shall extend to officers of customs, and persons acting in their aid, 24 G. 3. S. 2. c. 47. s. 35.

5. No writ shall be sued out against [nor a copy of any process served on 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 30.] any officer of excise [or customs, 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 25.] or against any person acting by his order, or in his aid, [for any thing done in execution of his office, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 30.] [for any act concerning the public revenue of customs, or excise, 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 25.] until one calendar month next after notice in writing has been delivered to him, or left at his usual abode, by the attorney or agent of the intended plaintiff; in which notice shall be stated clearly and explicitly, the cause of action, the name and abode of the plaintiff, and of his attorney or agent, and a fee of 20*l.* shall be paid for preparing and serving such notice, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 30. 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 25.

6. Any of such officers, or other persons acting in their aid, to whom such notice is given, may, within one calendar month after, tender amends to the party complaining, or to his agent or attorney; and, in case the same is not accepted, may plead such tender in bar, together with a plea of not guilty; and any other plea, with leave of the court; and if on issue joined, the jury shall find the amends tendered to have been sufficient, they shall give a verdict for the defendant; and in such case, and in case the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues, or in case judgment is given for the defendant in demurrer, then such defendant shall have the like costs as if he had pleaded the general issue only; and if they find that no tender was made, or that the same was not sufficient, and also against such defendant, on any other plea, they shall give a verdict for the plaintiff, with such damages as they think proper, [together with his costs, 23 G. 3. c. 70. c. 31.] 23 G. 3. c. 73. s. 31., 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 26.

7. No plaintiff, in any case where an action is grounded on any act done by the defendant, shall be permitted to produce evidence of the cause of such action, except such as is contained in the notice so to be given, or shall recover any verdict against such officer, or persons acting in his aid, unless he prove that such notice was given; and in default thereof, the defendant shall recover a verdict and costs, as in s. 31. aforesaid, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 32. 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 27.

8. Such officers, and others acting in their aid, who neglect to tender amends, or who have tendered insufficient amends before action brought, may, by leave of the court, at any time before issue joined, pay money into court, whereupon the proceedings, judgments, &c. usual in such cases, shall be had, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 33. 23 G. 3. c. 37. s. 28.

9. Every action commenced against any person for any thing done, [by any officer of excise, or other acting in his aid, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 34.] in the execution of [his office, 23 G. 3. c. 70. s. 34.] or of any act relating to the public revenues of customs or excise, 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 23.] shall be commenced within 3 months next after the cause of action shall arise, and shall be laid in the proper county, and the defendants may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues, [or if on verdict or demurrer, 26 G. 3. c. 70. s. 34.] [on demurrer or otherwise, 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 23.] judgment is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, 26 G. 3. c. 70. s. 34. 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 23.

10. In case any information or suit is commenced and brought to trial, for any seizure of goods, &c. seized as forfeited under any act relating to the revenues of excise and customs, or of any ship, vessel, or boat, or of any horse, cattle, or carriage used in removing the same, wherein a verdict is found for the claimer thereof, and it appears to the court before whom the same is tried, that there was a probable cause of seizure, such court shall certify the same, and then such claimant shall not be entitled to any costs, nor shall the person seizing be liable to any action, &c. on account of such seizure; and in case any action, &c. is commenced against such person on account of such seizure, (whether any information is brought to condemn the same or not), and a verdict is given against the defendant, and the court before whom the same is tried shall certify as aforesaid, then the plaintiff, besides the thing so seized, or the value thereof, shall not have more than 2*d.* damages, nor any costs, nor shall the defendant in such prosecution be imprisoned, or fined above 1*l.*, 28 G. 3. c. 37. s. 24.

11. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF persons assaulting revenue officers, rescuing prohibited or uncustomed goods, or offending against the laws of quarantine, 26 G. 3. c. 77 s. 18. (This title is framed from this section.) [AMD. as to such offenders being in custody for want of bail, 35 G. 3. c. 96.]

12. Wherever any person is charged with assaulting or obstructing any officer of the customs or excise in the execution of his office, or any person acting in their aid, or with rescuing or attempting to rescue any uncustomed or prohibited goods after seizure by such officers, or with any offence against the laws of quarantine; and the same is made appear to any judge of K. B. by affidavit or certificate of any indictment or information being filed against him in such court for such offence, such judge may issue his warrant under his hand and seal, for apprehending and bringing the offender before a judge of such court, or a justice of peace, in order to his being bound by recognizance to H. M., with two sureties in the sum in the warrant expressed, with condition to appear in such court at the time in the warrant mentioned, to answer all indictments or informations for such offences; and in case such person shall neglect to be bound, such judge or justice may commit him to the common gaol of the place where he was apprehended or the offence was committed, until he shall be so bound, or until discharged by order of the court of K. B. in term time, or judge thereof in vacation; and such recognizance shall be returned and filed in such court, and shall continue in force until such person is acquitted or has received judgment, unless sooner ordered to be discharged, 26 G. 3. c. 77. s. 18.

13. Where any person by virtue of the 26 G. 3. c. 77. s. 18. is committed and detained in gaol for want of bail, the prosecutor may cause a copy of the indictment or information to be delivered to him, or to the gaoler, keeper, or turnkey, with a notice indorsed, that unless such person shall, within the time fixed by the court of K. B. [See R. M. T., 6 Term Rep. 400.] cause an appearance, and a plea or demurrer to be entered in such court thereto, an appearance and a plea of not guilty will be entered for him; and in case he shall neglect so to do, the prosecutor may, on affidavit made and filed in such court, of the delivery of a copy of the indictment, &c. with such notice indorsed, to such person, gaoler, &c., (which affidavit may be made before any judge or commissioner of such court,) may cause an appearance and a plea of not guilty to be entered for him, and the usual proceedings shall be had thereon and if, on the trial, such offender is acquitted, the judge who tried him although not a judge of the court of K. B., may discharge him from custody as to the commitment under such act, and he shall be discharged accordingly, 35 G. 3. c. 96. [see further, 48 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1. tit. ARREST, pl. 42.]

REVERSIONER.

1. CUI IN VITA FOR A WIFE. RECEIT OF A WIFE OR OF ONE IN reversion to defend, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 5. [AMD. 20 E. 1. S. 5.]

2. In case where a man doth lose by default the land which was the right of his wife, the woman after death of her husband shall recover by a writ of entry, whereto she could not disagree during his life, which shall be pleaded in form under written. 13 E. (West. Sec.) c. 3. s. 1.

3. If the tenant do except against the demand of the wife that he entered by judgment, and if it be found that his entry was by default, whereto the tenant must make answer, if demanded of him, then he shall answer over, and shew his right according to the form of the writ that he purchased before against husband and wife; and if he can verify that he hath right, the woman shall gain nothing by her writ; but if he cannot so shew, she shall recover, provided that if the husband absent himself, and will not defend his wife's right, or against his wife's consent will render the land, the wife may come before judgment, and be admitted to defend her right, id. ibid.

4. In like manner, if tenant in dower, tenant by the curtesy, or otherwise for term of life, or by gift where the reversion is reserved, do make default or will give up, the heirs or reversioners shall be admitted to their answer if they come before judgment; and if on default or surrender judgment be given, then the heirs or reversioners shall, after the death of such tenants, have recovery by writ of entry, in which like process shall be observed, as in case where husband loseth his wife's land by default, id. s. 2.

5. So in cases aforesaid, two actions do concur, one between demandant and tenant, and the other between the tenant shewing his right and demandant, id. s. 3.

6. "Where any demands by writ, any tenement against tenants by the curtesy or fee-tail in dower or for life, or for years, and the demandant sueth so far that the lands be adjudged to him, and upon judgment, a party comes in by a collateral title, and says that he has fee and right in those tenements, and prays to be admitted to answer the demandant under the 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 5." it is provided, That in such case, before the receipt of such party, he shall find surety as the court awards, to satisfy the demandant of the value of the tenement so to be recovered from the day he is received to answer, until final judgment given, in case the demandant recovers, and shall if he have whereof, be fined, or imprisoned if he have not; but if he prove his right, he shall go quit, 20 E. 1. S. 3.

7. REVERSIONERS SHALL BE RECEIVED TO DEFEND their title in suits commenced against particular tenants, 13 R. 2. c. 17.

8. If any tenant for life, or dower, by the curtesy, or in tail after possibility of issue extinct, be impleaded, and he in reversion comes into court and prays to be received to defend his right at the day the tenant pleads to the action, or before he shall be so received without taking any delay by voucher, aid prayer, homage, or otherwise, so that after such receipt he shall have no delay by esoin or otherwise; and days of grace may be given by the judges, between the demandant and him so received, without giving the common day in pleas of land if the demandant will not assent, 13 R. 2. c. 17. s. 1. [s. 2. is Exp.]

9. The reversioners so received, shall find surety for the issues of the tenements demanded for the time the demandant is delayed; after the plea determined, if judgment pass for the demandant against those in the reversion aforesaid; as well where the receipt is counterpleaded as where it is granted, 13 R. 2. c. 17. s. 3.

RIOT. (See ASSEMBLIES.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR PUNISHMENT OF RIOTERS, 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 6. [REP. 2 R. 2. St. 2. c. 2.]

2. MANUMISSIONS, BONDS, &c. LATE MADE BY COMPULSION, shall be void. [Exp.] It shall be treason to begin a riot, rout, or rumor, 5 R. 2. St. 1. c. 7. [Rep. as to the Treason, 1 Ed. 6. c. 12. s. 2.]

3. FOR INDEMNIFYING PERSONS CONCERNED IN REPRESSING INSURRECTIONS, 7 H. 4. c. 18. [Exp.]

4. FOR COMPELLING OBEDIENCE TO HIS MAJESTY'S WRITS, &c., against rioters and others, 31 H. 6. c. 2. Exp.

5. AGAINST RIOTS AND UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLIES, 11 H. 7. c. 7. [Exp.]

6. FORMER STATUTES AGAINST RIOTS CONFIRMED, 12 H. 7. c. 2. [Exp.]

7. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY BRINGING TO JUSTICE any person concerned in the barbarous murder of captain John Porteous, and punishing such as shall knowingly conceal any of such offenders, 10 G. 2. c. 35. [Exp.]

8. TO INDEMNIFY SUCH PERSONS AS HAVE ACTED in the suppression of the late riots, [1780] in and about the cities of London and Westminster and borough of Southwark, and for the preservation of the public peace, 20 G. 3. c. 63. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NONE SHALL MAKE ANY RIOTOUS ASSEMBLY, and when any riotous assembly is beginning, the sheriffs shall take the power of the county to resist the same, and apprehend the offenders; and all lords and lieges shall be aiding such sheriff therein, 17 R. 2. c. 8.

2. FOR SUPPRESSING RIOTS, ROUTS, AND UNLAWFUL ASSEMBLIES, 13 H. 4. c. 7. [Rec. and AMD. 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 8. and CONF. and AMD. as to the qualification of jurors in cases of riot, 19 H. 7. c. 13.]

3. If any riot, assembly, or rout of people, against law, be made, the justices of peace, or two of them, and the sheriff, shall come with the power of the county, if need be, and arrest them; and the same justices and sheriff shall record that they find so done in their presence against law, and by such record such offenders shall be convict in manner as in the statute of forcible entry, 15 R. 2. St. 12. c. 2.; and if such offenders be departed before the coming of the justices and sheriff, the same justices, or two of them, shall diligently enquire, within a month after, of such riot, assembly, or rout, and shall hear and determine the same, 13 H. 4. c. 7. s. 1.

4. If the truth cannot be so found, then within a month next following, the justices, or two of them, and the sheriff shall certify before H. M. and his council, all the circumstances thereof, which certificate shall be of like force as the presentment of 12 men; upon which certificate the offenders shall be put to answer, and they which be found guilty shall be punished after the discretion of H. M. and his council, id. s. 2.

5—7. If such offenders traverse the matter certified, the certificate and traverse shall be sent to the K. B. to be tried and determined; and if the offenders do not come before H. M. and his council, or in the K. B. at the first precept, there shall be made another, directed to the sheriff, to take the offenders if they may be found, and bring them at a certain day before H. M. and his council, or in the K. B.; and if they cannot be found, the sheriff shall make proclamation in the county next ensuing the delivery of the second command, that they come before H. M. and his council, or in the K. B., or in the chancery in time of vacation, within three weeks then following; and in case the offenders come not, and the proclamation is made and returned, they shall be convict of the riot, assembly, or rout, id. s. 3.

8. The justices of peace dwelling nearest where such riot, assembly, or rout, is made, together with the sheriff, and also the justices of assizes or the time that they shall be in their sessions, if such riot, &c. is done in their presence, shall do execution of the same statute, every one upon pain of 100*l.* to H. M., 13 H. 4. c. 7. s. 4.

9. If default be found in the said justices of peace, [named in 13 H. 4. c. 7. pl. 3.] or in the justices of assize or sheriff or under-sheriff of the county where such riot, assembly or rout is made, touching the execution of the said statute; then, at the instance of the party grieved, H. M.'s commission shall go out under his great seal, to inquire as well of the truth of the cause, and of the original matter, as of the defaults of the justices, sheriff, or under-sheriff, to be directed to indifferent persons, at the nomination of the chancellor; and the commissioners shall send into the chancery the inquests before them taken, 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 8. s. 1.

10. And the coroners shall make the panel for the time that the sheriff, that is supposed in default, shall continue in his office, which coroners shall return no persons but such which have lands to the value of 10*l.* by the year; and the coroners shall return upon the persons, impanelled at the first day issues to 20*l.*, and at the second day 40*l.*, and at the third day 100*l.*, and at every day after, the double at least; and the same shall go to H. M. and be levied to his use; and if default be found in the coroners, touching the return of such persons impanelled, or touching the return of issues, every of them shall pay to H. M. 40*l.*, 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 8. s. 2.

11. And if the sheriff be discharged of his office, the new sheriff shall make the panel under the like penalties as before. And the chancellor, as soon as he may have knowledge of such riot, assembly, or rout, shall cause H. M.'s writ to be sent to the justices of peace and to the sheriff, that they put the statute [scmb. 13 H. 4. c. 7.] in execution, upon the pain contained in the same; and though such writ come not to the justices or sheriff, they shall not be excused if they make not execution of the statute, 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 8. s. 4.

12. Provided that the justices and other officers shall do their offices at H. M.'s costs, by payment to be made by the sheriff by indentures betwixt such sheriff and the justices and other officers, and shall be allowed the same in his accounts at the exchequer. And rioters attainted of great and heinous riots shall have one year's imprisonment, and rioters attainted of petty riots, shall have imprisonment as best shall seem to H. M. or his council; and the fines of such rioters shall be by such justices increased in greater sums than they were wont to be in aid of the costs of the justices on their behalf; and H. M.'s liege people in the country shall be assistant to the justices, commissioners, sheriff, or under-sheriff, when they shall be reasonably warned, to ride with them to resist such riots, &c., upon pain of imprisonment, and to make fine and ransom to H. M.; and bailiffs of franchises shall cause to be impanelled sufficient people, upon pain to lose to H. M. 40*l.*; in case such sufficient persons may be found within the same franchise; and the like ordinances shall take effect in cities and other places, and towns unfranchised, which have justices of peace within such cities, &c., id. s. 7.

13. If any riot, rout, or unlawful assembly be committed, the sheriff having a precept directed to him, shall return 24 persons dwelling within the shire where such riot, &c. is done, whereof every of them shall have lands within the same shire, to the yearly value of 20*l.* of charter land or freehold, or 26*l.* 8*d.* of copyhold, or of both, to enquire of the same riot, &c.; and he shall return upon every person so by him impanelled in issues in the first day 20*l.*, in the second 40*l.*, if they appear not and be sworn to enquire of the premises at the first day; and if default be found in the sheriff for returning other persons, not being of such sufficiency, or return not issues as aforesaid, then such sheriff shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.*, 19 H. 7. c. 13. s. 1. [But see the present qualifications of jurors, JURY, pl. 3. and 35.]

14. And if such riot, &c. be not found by such jury, by reason of any maintenance or embracery, then the same justices and the sheriff, besides the certificate that they must make according to 13 H. 4. c. 7. shall therein also certify the names of the maintainers and embracers, with their misdemeanors that they know, upon pain to forfeit 20*l.*, if they have no excuse for not so certifying, which certificate shall be of like force as the verdict of 12 men; and every person duly proved to be a maintainer or embracer, shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.*, and they be committed to ward by discretion of the justices, id. s. 3.

15. AGAINST TUMULTS AND DISORDERS UPON PRETENCE OF preparing or presenting public petitions or other addresses to H. M. or to parliament, 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 5. (and recital in s. 1.)

16. No person shall solicit or procure the getting of hands, or other consent of any persons above 20, to any petition, complaint, remonstrance, declaration, or other address to H. M. or parliament, for alteration of matters established by law in church or state, unless the same has been before consented to by 3 justices, or by the major part of the grand jury of the county where the matter shall arise, at their assizes or quarter sessions; or if arising in London, by the lord mayor, aldermen, and commons, in common council assembled; nor shall any repair to H. M. or parliament, in order to present the same, accompanied with more than 10 persons, upon pain to forfeit 100*l.*, and suffer

3 months' imprisonment; such offence to be prosecuted in K. B. or at the assizes or quarter sessions within 6 months after committed, and proved by 2 witnesses, 13 C. 2. St. 1. c. 5. s. 2.

17. This act shall not debar any persons, not exceeding 20, to present any public or private grievance or complaint, to any member of parliament after his election, and during the continuance of the parliament, or to H. M., nor extend to any address to H. M. by any members of both houses of parliament during the sitting thereof, id. s. 3.

18. FOR PREVENTING TUMULTS AND RIOTOUS ASSEMBLIES, and for the more speedy and effectual punishing the rioters, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. (the Riot Act.) [and see 60 G. 3. c. 6. ASSEMBLIES, pl. 40. 51. 54.]

19. If any persons, to the number of 12 or more, being unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, to the disturbance of the public peace, and being commanded by a justice of peace, sheriff of the county, or his under-sheriff, or by the mayor, bailiff, or other head officer or justice for any city or town corporate, where such assembly shall be, by proclamation to be made in H. M.'s name, in form here given, to disperse, and peaceably depart, shall, to such number of 12 or more, notwithstanding such proclamation, unlawfully, &c. continue together by the space of one hour, after such command so made, then such continuing shall be adjudged felony, and the offenders shall suffer death, without clergy, id. s. 1.

20. The justice of peace or other person authorized by this act to make such proclamation shall, among such rioters, or as near as he can safely come, command silence, and make proclamation as follows:

'Our sovereign lord the king chargeth and commandeth all persons being assembled immediately to disperse themselves, and peaceably to depart to their habitations, or to their lawful business, on the pains contained in an act made in the first year of king George [semb. should be added The First] for preventing tumults and riotous assemblies. God save the king.'

And every such justice, sheriff, or under-sheriff, mayor, bailiff, &c. within their respective jurisdictions, shall, on notice of such unlawful &c. assemblies, resort to the place where such assembly is to the number of 12 or more, and there make such proclamation, id. s. 2.

21. If such persons so unlawfully assembled, or 12 or more of them, do not, after proclamation made, disperse within one hour, then every such justice, sheriff, or under-sheriff, and all peace officers of the county, and every mayor, &c. and peace-officer of any city or town corporate, where such assemblage shall be, and all persons assisting them, (and they may command all H. M.'s subjects to assist,) may seize and apprehend such persons so unlawfully, riotously, &c. continuing together after proclamation made, and carry them before some justice for the county or place, to be proceeded against according to law. And if such persons so assembled shall happen to be killed, maimed, or hurt in dispersing and apprehending them, or endeavouring so to do, then every such justice, &c. and peace officer, and all persons aiding, &c. shall be free and discharged and indemnified against H. M., and all other persons, for such killing, &c., id. s. 3.

22. All persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together, in disturbance of the public peace, who shall unlawfully and with force demolish or pull down, or begin so to do, any church or chapel, or any building for religious worship, certified and registered according to 1 W. & M. s. 1. St. 1. c. 18. or any dwelling-house, barn, stable, or other out-house, shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 4.

23. All persons who shall with force and arms wilfully and knowingly oppose, obstruct, or otherwise let, hinder, or hurt any person that shall begin, or go to make such proclamation, whereby it shall not be made, shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death, without clergy; and also all persons so unlawfully, &c. assembled to the number of 12, to whom proclamation ought to be made, if the same had not been so hindered, who shall continue together, and not disperse within one hour after such let, having knowledge thereof, shall be adjudged felons, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 5. [See further as to demolishing or setting fire to buildings, &c. 9 G. 1. s. 22. s. 7., pl. 34.; 9 G. 3. c. 29. tit. MILLS; 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 24., tit. MINES; 43 G. 3. c. 58. tit. OFFENCE, &c.]

24. If any such church, house, &c. as in s. 5. is demolished or pulled down, wholly or in part, by persons so unlawfully assembled, then if such church or house, &c. is out of any city or town, that is a county of itself, or is not within any hundred, then the inhabitants of the hundred where such damage is done, shall yield damages to the persons damaged by such demolition, &c.; and such damages may be recovered in the courts of record at Westminster, (wherein no essoin, &c. and no imparlance shall be allowed) by the persons damaged, against two or more inhabitants of such hundred; and such action for damages done to any church or chapel shall be in the name of the rector, vicar, or curate thereof, in trust, for applying the damages to be recovered in rebuilding or repairing the same; and judgment being given for the plaintiff, the damages so recovered shall, at his request, or that of his executors or administrators, be raised and levied on the inhabitants of such hundred, in the same manner as in case of robberies, under 27 E. c. 13. tit. HUE AND CRY, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. s. 6.

25. And in case any such church, chapel, building for religious worship, dwelling-house, &c. so damaged, is in any city or town that is a county of itself, or is not within any hundred, then such action may be brought in manner aforesaid, (wherein no essoin, &c.) against two or more inhabitants of such city or town, and judgment being given for the plaintiff, the damages so recovered shall, at request of the plaintiff, his executors, &c. made to the justices of such city or town, at quarter sessions, be raised and levied on the inhabitants, and paid to him in such manner as in case of robbery (under 27 E. c. 13.) 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. s. 6.

26. The act shall be read at every quarter sessions, leet or law day, id. s. 7.

27. No persons shall be prosecuted for offences against this act, unless within 12 months after the offence committed, id. s. 8.

28. The sheriffs, stewards, bailies of regalities, and the deputies of each of them, magistrates of royal boroughs, and all other inferior judges, and magistrates, and all peace officers of any county, stewardry, city, &c. in Scot., shall have the same power, &c. to execute this act within Scot., as magistrates have by this act in other parts of the kingdom, and all persons convicted of any offence against this act in Scot., shall suffer death, and confiscation of moveables; and all prosecutions for damages to churches, chapels, &c. demolished or pulled down, in whole or in part, in Scot., by persons unlawfully, &c. assembled, may be recovered by summary action, at instance of the party grieved, or his heirs, executors, &c. against the county, &c. where such disorders happen, the magistrates being summoned in the ordinary form, and the several counties and stewardries, called by edictal citation, at the market cross of the head borough of each county, &c. and that in general without mentioning their names and designations, id. s. 9.

29. This act shall extend to all places of religious worship in Scot., tolerated by law, and where H. M., and prince and princess of Wa., and their issue are prayed for in express words, id. s. 10.

30. AGAINST DISGUISED PERSONS AND WEARING OF VISORS, 3 H. 8. c. 9. [Exp.]

31. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHING WICKED AND EVIL disposed persons going armed, in disguise, and doing injuries and violence to the persons and properties of H. M.'s subjects, and for the more speedy bringing to trial of such offenders, 9 G. 1. c. 22. (called the Black Act) [CON. 12 G. 1. c. 30., 6 G. 2. c. 37. s. 4., 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 1., 17 G. 2. c. 40. s. 4., 24 G. 2. c. 57. s. 2. MADE PERP. 31 G. 2. c. 42. s. 2. AMD. as to sending threatening letters, 27 G. 2. c. 15., and EXT'D. to certain other offences, 10 G. 2. c. 30. s. 4., which is CON. 24 G. 2. c. 57. s. 5. and MADE PERP. 31 G. 2. c. 42. s. 5.]

32. If any persons armed with swords, fire arms, or other offensive weapons, having their faces blacked, or being otherwise disguised, shall appear in any forest, chase, park, paddock, or grounds enclosed with any fence, wherein any deer have been kept; or in any warren, or place where hares or conies are kept, or in any high road, open heath, common, or down; or shall unlawfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any red or fallow deer, or rob any such warren; or steal, or take away any fish out of any river or pond; or unlawfully and wilfully hunt, wound, kill, destroy, or steal any red or fallow deer, fed or kept in any places in any of H. M.'s forests or chases, inclosed with fences, or in any park, paddock, or grounds enclosed, where deer are usually kept; or shall unlawfully and maliciously break down the head or mound of any fishpond, whereby the fish shall be lost or destroyed; or shall unlawfully and maliciously kill, wound, or maim any cattle; or cut down or destroy any trees planted in any avenue, or growing in any garden, orchard, or plantation for ornament, shelter, or profit; or set fire to any house, barn, or outhouse, or to any hovel, cock, mow, or stack of corn, straw, hay, or wood; or shall wilfully and maliciously shoot at any person, in any dwelling-house, or other place; or knowingly send any letter without any name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, demanding money, venison, or other valuable thing; or forcibly rescue, [see tit. RESCUE,] any person being lawfully in custody for any such offences, or shall procure another to join him in any such unlawful acts, such person shall on conviction be adjudged guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 9 G. 1. c. 23. s. 1.

33. Persons who shall knowingly send any letter without any name subscribed thereto, or signed with a fictitious name, or letter threatening to kill or murder any of H. M.'s subjects or to burn any houses, outhouses, barns, stacks of corn, or grain, hay or straw, or other valuable thing, though no money be demanded in such letter, shall be deemed guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 27 G. 2. c. 15.

34. The inhabitants of every hundred in Eng. shall make satisfaction to all persons, their executors, &c., for the damages they shall have sustained by the killing and maiming of cattle, destroying of trees, setting fire to any house, barn, &c. done by any offender against this act; and persons sustaining such damages may sue for the same, the sum to be recovered not exceeding 200*l.* against the inhabitants of the hundred; and if they shall recover and sue execution against any of such inhabitants, all the other inhabitants shall be rateably taxed towards contribution for relief of such inhabitant; which tax shall be raised as damages recovered against the inhabitants of hundreds in cases of robbery, by 27 El. c. 13. (HUE AND CRY), 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 7. [see further, as to trees, 19 G. 2. c. 36. s. 9., TREES.]

35. No persons shall recover damages by this act unless they or their servants, within 2 days after such damage done, give notice of such offence to some of the inhabitants near the place where such fact shall be committed; and shall within four days after such notice give in their examination upon oath before any justice of the peace of the county, &c., inhabiting within or near the said hundred, whether they know the persons that committed such fact; and if they confess that they know the persons, or any of them, they shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute the offenders, 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 8.

36. Where any one of such offenders shall be apprehended and convicted within 6 months after the offence, no hundred shall be liable as aforesaid, id. s. 9.

37. No person who shall sustain any damage contrary to this act shall be enabled to sue the hundred, except he commence his action within one year after the offence, id. s. 10.

38. Any justice of peace may issue his warrant to any constable, or other peace-officers, to enter into any house, to search for venison stolen or unlawfully taken, as for stolen goods, id. s. 11.

39. If any person shall apprehend, or cause to be convicted, any of the offenders above mentioned, and shall be killed, or wounded so as to lose an eye, or the use of any limb, in apprehending such offenders, then on proof thereof at the quarter sessions for the county, &c. where the offence was committed, the justices shall give a certificate thereof to the person so wounded, or the executors, &c. of the party killed, which shall entitle them to receive of the sheriff of the county 50*l.*, to be allowed the sheriff in passing his accounts; which 50*l.* the sheriff is to pay within 30 days from the day on which the certificate shall be shewn him, on forfeiture of 10*l.* to the person to whom the certificate is given; for which 10*l.* as well as the 50*l.* such person may bring his action upon the case against the sheriff, as for money had and received to his use, id. s. 12.

40. Every offence against this act may be inquired of and tried in any county in Eng.; but no attainder for any offences made felony by this act shall make corruption of blood, loss of dower, or forfeiture of lands and goods, id. s. 14.

41. This act shall be read at every quarter sessions, leet or law-day, id. s. 15.

42. If any person is charged with any of the said offences before 2 justices of the county where the same were committed, by information of one person on oath by him subscribed, such justices shall certify under hand and seal, and return such information to one of the principal secretaries of state, who is to lay the same before H. M. in council; whereupon H. M. may make his order in council, commanding such offender to surrender himself within 40 days to a judge of K. B., or to a justice of peace, to answer the offences wherewith he is charged; which order shall be printed in the next London Gazette, and transmitted to the sheriff of the county where the offence was committed, and shall within 6 days after the receipt thereof be proclaimed by him or his officers, between 10 and 2 in the afternoon, in the market-places, on the market-days, of 2 market-towns in the county, near the place where such offence was committed; and a copy of the order shall be affixed in some public place in such market-towns: and if such offender shall not surrender pursuant to such order, he shall be deemed convicted and attainted of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy; and the court of K. B., or the justices of oyer and terminer, or gaol delivery for the county where the offence is sworn in such information to have been committed, upon producing such order in council, under the seal of the council, may award execution against such offender, as if he had been convicted in such court, &c., 9 G. 1. c. 22. s. 4.

43. Every person who, after the time appointed for the surrender of any person so charged is expired, shall conceal, abet or succour him, knowing him to be so charged and required to surrender, shall, being convicted thereof, suffer death as a felon without clergy, id. s. 5.

44. Nothing herein contained shall hinder any judge, justice of peace or minister of justice, from apprehending such offenders, against whom such information is given and such order in council made; and if they be taken before the time be expired, no farther proceedings shall be had upon such order in council, id. s. 6.

45. All the provisions of 9 G. 1. c. 22., "for the more speedy bringing of offenders against that act to justice, and the persons concealing or abetting them, and for making satisfaction to all persons and their executors and administrators, for the damages they shall sustain by any such offenders, and for the encouragement of the apprehension of such offenders, and for the better trial of any indictment or information found for such offences, together with all restrictions, limitations and mitigations, shall extend to all cases of offences by unlawfully and maliciously breaking or cutting down of the bank or banks of any river, or any sea bank, whereby the lands shall be overflowed or damaged, or by unlawfully and maliciously cutting any hop binds, growing on poles in any plantation of hops; or by unlawfully and maliciously setting on fire or causing to be set on fire, any mine, pit or delph of coal, or cannel coal, 10 G. 2. c. 32. s. 4.

46. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF PERSONS destroying the properties of H. M.'s subjects, and enabling the owners of such properties to recover damages for the injury sustained, 52 G. 3. c. 130.; [See as to destroying mills, 9 G. 3. c. 29. MILLS; and as to mines, 41 G. 3. U. K. c. 24. MINES; and see 1 G. 4. c. 56. tit. TRESPASS.]

47. All persons who wilfully and maliciously burn or set fire to any building, erections or engines, used or employed in the carrying on or conducting of any trade or manufactory, or any branch or department of any trade or manufactory of goods or merchandizes, of any kind or description, or in which any goods, &c. shall be warehoused or deposited, shall, on conviction, be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, 52 G. 3. c. 130. s. 1.

48. All persons unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled together in disturbance of the public peace, who shall unlawfully and with force, demolish or pull down, or begin to demolish or pull down any erection and building, or engine, used or employed in any such trade or manufactory (as in s. 1.), or in which any goods, &c. are warehoused, or deposited, shall be guilty of felony, and suffer death without clergy, id. s. 2.

49. The persons damnified by such demolishing or pulling down, wholly or in part, of any such erection, &c. may recover the value of such erection, &c. and of the machinery belonging thereto, or used therein, which is destroyed in such demolishing, or the amount of damage done to such erection, &c. or machinery, in such tumultuous and riotous demolishing, and may levy and raise same by such manner and form as is by 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 5. s. 6. pl. 24—25. directed, id. s. 3.

50. Provided, that no person shall recover such damages unless he or his servant, within 2 days after such damage done, shall give notice of such offence to some of the inhabitants of some town, village, or hamlet, near the place where the fact was committed, and shall within 4 days after such notice, give in his examination, on oath, or that of his servant that had care of such erection, &c. (as in pl. 48.) so damaged, before a justice of peace for the county, liberty, or division, inhabiting within or near the hundred where the fact was committed, whether he knows such offenders, or any of them; and if on such examinations it be confessed he does know the offenders, or any of them, that then he so confessing shall be bound by recognizance to prosecute by indictment or otherwise; but no person who shall sustain any damage by reason of any offence against this act, shall be enabled to sue any hundred, except he bring his action within one year after the offence was committed; but the notice hereby required, may in Scot. be given to the sheriff, or steward depute, or substitute of the county or stewardry where the fact happened, in order that the law of Scot. may be followed, id. s. 4.

RIVERS. (See BANKS OF RIVERS.)

NO RIVERS SHALL BE DEFENDED, [semb. obstructed by embankments, see 2 Inst. 30.] but such as were in defence in the time of H. 2. by the same places and bounds, 9 H. 3. M. C. c. 16.

RIVERS. (See INLAND NAVIGATION.)

1. ALL MEN SHALL HAVE FREE PASSAGE IN Severn, with goods and chattels, 9 H. 6. c. 5. [AMD. 19 H. 7. c. 18., 23 H. 8. c. 12.]

2. H. M.'s barges may have their free passage in the Severn, with flotes and drags, and merchandizes and goods, at their will, without disturbance, and if any disturb such free passage, the party grieved shall have an action according to the common law, 9 H. 6. c. 5.

3. None shall hinder vessels from passing on the Severn, or take tolls, on penalty of 20*l.* to be recovered by action of debt; but for offences done in the city of Worcester, or town of Gloucester, the action shall be tried by jurors of the county at large; owners of lands shall be satisfied for damages done by towing of boats, &c., 19 H. 7. c. 18.

4. No person shall interrupt another passing on the accustomed paths of Severn, nor shall take or demand any toll of any person for the same, on pain to forfeit 40*s.* which shall go in moieties to H. M. and the party suing by bill, &c. wherein no essoins, &c., 23 H. 8. c. 12.

5. KEEPERS OF FERRIES ON THE WATER OF THE Severn, shall not convey in their ferry-boats any persons, goods, or chattels, after the sun going down till the sun be up, 26 H. 8. c. 5.

6. Every person taking on them to keep passages upon the Severn, shall not convey with any boat or vessel, any person with horses, mares, oxen, kine, or other cattle, nor other person, before sun rise, or after sun down, upon pain of imprisonment and fine, unless they have good knowledge of such persons and their dwelling-places, and on request made, disclose their names and abodes to any person requiring the same, if suit be made after them upon any outcry of, or for any felony, robbery, murder, or manslaughter, 26 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.

7. Within the counties of Gloucester and Somerset, the justices of peace at quarter sessions may call before them and bind any such persons keeping such ferries, with sureties in recognizance, in such sums as they deem fit, that such keepers will not, after the time so limited, carry any person or cattle but such as they know and their abodes, and will answer for, and on request will disclose as well the person as the goods so passing, on fresh suit made for any felony, &c. done on the borders of such counties, or in any other place in South Wales, id. s. 2.

ROBBERY.

1. THAT NO MAN ROBBERING ANY HOUSE, BOOTH, OR TENT, shall be admitted to the benefit of his clergy, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 9. (and ss. 1—5.)

2. No person found guilty according to law, for robbing any persons in any part of their dwelling-houses or places, the owner or dweller, or his wife, children, or servants, being therein, or in any other place within the precinct of the same house, shall be admitted to their clergy, whether such owner or dweller, his wife or children, be sleeping or waking, id. s. 4.

3. No person found guilty of, and for robbing any person in any booth or tent in any fair or market, the owner, his wife, his children, or servant, being within the same, shall be admitted to his clergy, but be excluded therefrom, and suffer death, as in 23 H. 8. c. 1. (s. 1., BENEFIT OF CLERGY, pl. 4.) mentioned, without having any respect whether such owner, his wife, children, or servants, being therein at the time of such robberies and felonies committed, shall be sleeping or waking, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 9. s. 5.

4. FOR ENCOURAGING THE APPREHENDING OF HIGHWAYMEN, 4 W. & M. c. 8. and s. 1. [Streets of London DECLARED within this act, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 8. REP. as to rewards for convicting offenders against the same, and AMD. 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. This act is extended to the county palatine of Durham, by 14 G. 3. c. 46. see COUNTIES PALATINE, (Durham), pl. 13., and to burglary, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. see FELONY, pl. 65.]

5. Every person and persons who shall apprehend or take any one or more such thieves or robbers, and prosecute him or them to conviction of any robbery committed in any high-way, passage, field, or open place, shall receive from the sheriff of the county where such robbery and conviction shall be made and done, without fee, for every such offender so convicted 40*l.* [but see next pl.] within one month after conviction and demand thereof made, by tendering a certificate to such sheriff under the hand of the judge or justices before whom such felons shall be convicted, certifying the conviction of such felons, for a robbery done in such county, and also, that such felons were taken by the person or persons claiming such rewards; and in case any dispute shall arise between the parties claiming such reward, touching their title thereto, such judge or justices shall, in such certificate, direct in what shares the same shall be paid amongst them. And if such sheriff shall die, or be removed before the expiration of one month after such conviction and demand made, the succeeding sheriff shall pay the same within one month after demand and certificate brought; and if such sheriff shall make default in paying the same, he shall forfeit double the sum that ought to have been paid to the party grieved, to be recovered by him, his executors, or administrators, in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, wherein but one imparlance and no essoin, &c. shall be allowed, with treble costs, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 3.

6. The 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 2. shall be REP. as to so much which gives any reward for apprehending, &c. thieves and robbers as therein mentioned, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 1. [But see as to cases where such reward may be obtained, 58 G. 3. c. 70. s. 5. FELONY, pl. 99.]

7. If any person is killed by any such robber, endeavouring to apprehend or in pursuing him, the executors or administrators of such person or persons entitled to administer the estate (upon certificate delivered under the hands and seals of the judge or justices of assize for the county where fact was done, or the two next justices of peace, that such person was so killed, which certificate shall be given on due proof made without fee), shall receive 40*l.* from the sheriff of such county, and on failure of payment double such sum, to be recovered with treble costs, as in s. 2. aforesaid, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 3.

8. All sheriffs, their executors or administrators, upon producing such certificates and receipts for money paid by them under this act, shall deduct upon their accounting with H.M. all monies (other than such double sums and costs) which they so disburse without fee, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 4. [but see next pl.]

9. If upon account of any sheriff there shall not be money enough in his hands to reimburse him, the treasury shall repay such monies by him so paid, upon certificate from the clerk of assize to that effect, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 5. [Sheriff may apply to treasury immediately for repayment of such sums without charging them in his accounts, 5 G. 1. c. 15. s. 4. tit. SHERIFF.]

10. All persons who shall apprehend, prosecute or convict any such robber, shall have the horse, furniture and arms, money or other goods of such robber, any their majesties' right or title, bodies politic or corporate, or the right of the lord of any manor or liberty, or of him lending or letting the same, notwithstanding; provided this clause shall not take away the right of any person to such horses, &c. from whom the same were feloniously taken, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 6.

11. If any person being out of prison shall commit any robbery, and afterwards discover two or more persons who have committed like offences, so that they may be convicted, such discoverer shall be entitled to H.M.'s pardon for such robberies by him committed at any time before such discovery made, and such pardon shall bar appeals for such offences, 4 W. & M. c. 8. s. 7.

12. The streets of London and Westminster, and other towns, shall be deemed highways within the meaning of 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 8., and all certificates to be signed upon convictions for robbery shall be signed and paid without any deduction or fee, excepting 5*s.* for the writing and drawing thereof, and that as well where the offenders plead guilty as where they are convicted on evidence; and every person who, under pretence of signing any such certificate, or on account of payment of the money allowed therein, shall take any fee other than as aforesaid, shall forfeit 40*l.* to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in any court at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed, such forfeiture to be to the use of the party entitled to such certificate, 6 G. 1. c. 23. s. 8. [See 48 G. 3. c. 129., FELONY, pl. 91—92., whereby stealing from the person is punished by transportation, if not accompanied with force or a putting in fear sufficient to a robbery.]

13. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING AND PUNISHING robberies committed in houses, 12 A. c. 7.

14. All persons who shall feloniously steal money, goods or chattels of 40*s.* value or more, being in any dwelling-house or out-house thereto belonging, though such house, &c. be not actually broken by such offender, and though the owner of such goods, or any other person be or be not in such house or out-house, or who shall aid or assist any person to commit such offence, on conviction or attain by verdict or confession, or who, being indicted thereof, stands mute, or will not directly answer to the indictment, or shall peremptorily challenge above 20 returned of the jury, shall lose the benefit of clergy, id. s. 1. [See as to standing mute, 12 G. 3. c. 20., FELONY, pl. 82—83.]

15. Nothing herein shall extend to apprentices under 15 who rob their masters as aforesaid, id. s. 2.

16. Any person who shall enter the house of another by day or night without breaking same with a felonious intent, or being therein shall commit any felony, and shall, in the night time, break such house to get out of the same, shall be guilty of burglary, and be ousted of his clergy, id. s. 3.

17. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PUNISHMENT OF ASSAULTS with intent to commit robbery, 7 G. 2. c. 21.

18. Every person who shall, with any offensive weapon, unlawfully or maliciously assault, or by menaces, or in any forcible or violent manner demand any money or goods from another person with a felonious intent to commit robbery, shall, on conviction, be adjudged guilty of felony and be transported; and the court trying such offender may sentence him to transportation for 7 years on such conditions and in such ways as other felons may be, id. s. 1.

19. If any such offender ordered for transportation under this act shall break gaol or escape before such transportation, or shall return to G.B. or Ire. before such 7 years are expired, he shall, on conviction, suffer death, and have execution awarded against him as persons attainted of felony without clergy, id. s. 2.

20. FOR THE MORE EFFECTUAL PREVENTING ROBBERIES and thefts upon any navigable river, ports of entry or discharge, wharfs and keys adjacent, 24 G. 2. c. 45.

21. Every person who shall feloniously steal any goods of the value of 40*s.* in any ship, barge, lighter, boat or other vessel or craft upon any navigable river, port of entry or discharge within G.B., or upon any wharf or key adjacent to any navigable river or port, &c. or shall be present aiding therein, on being convicted or attainted thereof; or being indicted thereof, shall of malice stand mute, or will not answer to the indictment, or shall peremptorily challenge above 20 jurymen, shall be excluded from his clergy, id. ibid. [See 12 G. 3. c. 20. FELONY, pl. 82.]

SAFE CONDUCT. (See PRIZE.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR PUNISHING BREAKERS OF TRUCES AND SAFE CONDUCTS, and for appointing conservators thereof in every port, 2 H. 5. S. 1. c. 6. [Susp. as to the penalties of treason, 14 H. 6. c. 8., 20 H. 6. c. 11., CONF. 29 H. 6. c. 2. (which acts are all Exp.); but it appears REP. by 14 E. 4. c. 4., which confirms all statutes against breakers of safe conducts not repealed, with an express exception to this statute; (and see 4 Bla. Com., 68—70.); and as to the penalties of treason REP. by 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 2., 1 M. c. 1. s. 3.]

2. All statutes and ordinances made before 4th March, 1 E. 4. not repealed, against the offenders and breakers of truces, leagues and safe conducts shall be in full force, except 2 H. 5. St. 1. c. 6., 14 E. 4. c. 4.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR REGULATING THE FORM of a safe conduct, 15 H. 6. c. 3.

2. The keepers of the great and privy seal shall not suffer the clause vidimus to be put in any safe conduct unless some great cause move H. M. so to grant the same; and in all safe conducts hereafter granted the names of the persons, ship's masters, and the number of mariners, with the ship's burthen, shall be expressed, id. ibid

3. ALIEN MERCHANTS may lade ships of enemies under H. M.'s letters of safe conduct in form as in 15 H. 6. c. 3., but captures from ships not having safe conducts on board or enrolled in chancery are valid, 18 H. 6. c. 8.

4. ALL LETTERS OF SAFE CONDUCT to be granted to H. M.'s enemies or other, shall be enrolled in chancery before they are delivered or shall be void, 20 H. 6. c. 1. s. 1.

5. Prizes of goods or merchandizes taken from ships of H. M.'s enemies not having letters of safe conduct inrolled, shall be good, id. s. 2.

6. The subjects taking such ships without letters of safe conduct therein, and bringing them within the realm, shall not be endamaged for such taking if they are ready to make restitution within reasonable time after knowledge made to them of such letters enrolled in chancery before the taking, id. s. 3.

7. FOR PROVIDING REDRESS FOR ALIENS INJURED in breach of amity, truce, or safe conduct, 31 H. 6. c. 4.

8. If any subjects attempt to offend on the sea or in any port under H. M.'s obeisance against any strangers in amity, league, or truce, or by safe conduct, and specially in attaching of any such strange person, robbing him, his ship, or goods, or against any of the lieges, the chancellor (as well for deliverance of such person as for restitution of his goods) shall have authority, calling to him any one judge of K. B. or C. P. on bills of complaint, to make process out of chancery as well against such offenders as against all other persons to whose hands such person, ship, or goods shall come as for deliverance and restitution thereof, and further to proceed to make full deliverance and restitution to the strangers grieved, and also their costs and losses by award of execution, &c. id. ibid.

SAILCLOTH.

(STATUTES expired.)

FOR DISALLOWING THE BOUNTY ON THE EXPORT TO Ire. of sailcloth or canvas of the manufacture of G. B. for a limited time, 37 G. 3. c. 76. [CON. 38 G. 3. c. 30., and till 25th Mar. 1800.; 39 G. 3. c. 26. Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST DECEITFUL-MAKING OF MILDERMIX AND FOWLE DAVIES, whereof sail-cloths for shipping are made, 1 J. 1. c. 24. and recitals in ss. 1—2.

2. No person in this realm shall make sail-cloths called mildermix and poulev daves, but such as shall be apprentices in the trade of making the same for 7 years; and on pain to forfeit 20s. for every month, 1 J. 1. c. 24. s. 3.

3. No person shall make the said cloths of any other stuff than of good hemp, nor of less length than 33 yards, nor breadth than 3 quarters; nor shall sell or offer to sell them before the stuff be well beaten, scoured, bleached, and the cloth well driven with a brazen or iron shuttle, upon pain to forfeit for every piece 5s. id. s. 4.

4. One moiety of the forfeitures shall be to H. M. and the other to such as will sue for the same in any of H. M.'s courts, by action of debt, or information, &c. without essoin, &c. id. s. 5.

5. So much English-made sail-cloth, as shall be fit for the service of H. M.'s navy, shall have the preference of foreign sail-cloth. And the commissioners of the navy shall, during the continuance of this act, contract for such English sail-cloth, and allow the makers 2d. per yard above what they pay for foreign cloth of equal goodness, 7 & 8 W. 3.

c. 10. s. 14. [QU. if now in force? the duties only being continued by 8 A. c. 18. s. 4. and MADE PERP. 9 A. c. 21. s. 1. and now lastly REP. by 59 G. 3. c. 52. s. 1.]

6. EVERY MANUFACTURER OF SAIL-CLOTH SHALL AFFIX at the end of every piece thereof a stamp, containing his name and abode; and on exposing to sale any piece of sail-cloth without being stamped, such manufacturer convicted on oath of one witness before one justice, shall forfeit 5l. for every piece; and any person who shall wilfully or maliciously cut off or obliterate any stamp so affixed, or shall affix any stamp on which shall be marked the name and place of abode of any other person, shall, on conviction, forfeit 10l., both which forfeitures shall be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of 2 justices, to the use of the informer, 4 G. 2. c. 27. s. 8.

7. TO ENCOURAGE THE MAKING OF SAIL-CLOTH IN THIS KINGDOM, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 39.

8. English-made sail-cloth, (on proof on oath of its being made in this kingdom), shall be exported free of custom, whether in the piece or bould, id. s. 2.

9. FOR THE BETTER ENCOURAGEMENT OF MAKING SAIL-CLOTH in G. B., 12 A. St. 1. c. 16. [CON. and AMD., 8 G. 1. c. 18. s. 1., 15 G. 2. c. 35. s. 1., 20 G. 2. c. 45. s. 1., 4 G. 2. c. 27. s. 4., 33 G. 2. c. 17., 14 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1., 29 G. 3. c. 55. s. 2. MADE PERP. 45 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1.]

10. Out of the duty on foreign sail-cloth imported, a reward of 1d. per ell shall be paid for British-made sail-cloth, or sail canvas, exported by way of merchandize, provided the exporter make oath that it was made in G. B.,—is actually shipped for export, without intention of re-landing in G. B.,—and that no former reward on this act was made for the same, 12 A. St. 1. c. 16. s. 2. [A further bounty of 1d. per ell given, 4 G. 2. c. 27. s. 4.]

11. Any British-made sail-cloth, for which such reward is given, and which is re-landed in G. B. shall be forfeited, and every person concerned in re-landing it, shall forfeit 2s. per ell, one moiety to H. M. and the other to such as will seize or sue for the same, or its value, by action or information in any court at Westminster, or in exchequer at Edinburgh, with no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, 12 A. St. 1. c. 1. s. 3.

12. No such award shall be paid, unless such sails shall before their shipping be stamped or marked on every cloth thereof, in some place or warehouse of the exporter, by the searcher, or officer of customs appointed for that purpose, in such manner as the commissioners of customs in Eng. and Scot. shall direct, and every sail made in G. B. of British-made sail-cloth, and shipped as above, in order to obtain the said reward, but not bonâ fide exported, according to 12 A. St. 1. c. 16. (supra, pl. 10.) or which after being exported shall be brought back or found in any ship belonging wholly or in part to any British subject, within 4 leagues of the coast of G. B. or re-landed there, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officer, and prosecuted and recovered by any law of customs, the produce to go between H. M. and the officer, after deducting costs of condemnation and sale, 29 G. 3. c. 55. s. 2.

13. FOR FURTHER ENCOURAGING AND REGULATING THE MANUFACTURE of British sail-cloth, 9 G. 2. c. 37. [CON. and AMD., 19 G. 2. c. 27. s. 11., 4 G. 3. c. 11. s. 1., 18 G. 3. c. 45. s. 2., 33 G. 3. c. 49. s. 1. MADE PERP. 45 G. 3. c. 68. s. 2. REP. as to ss. 6—7., 1 G. 4. c. 25.]

14. All foreign-made sail-cloth entered as hollands, duck, or vitry canvas, which shall be fit for sails, and imported, and for which duties are payable, shall be stamped at the time of landing, 9 G. 2. c. 37. s. 1.

15. The commissioners of customs shall provide stamps for such foreign sail-cloth, and shall cause them to be distributed to the officers of customs of the ports of importation, and which shall express the country from whence it was imported; and any person who shall counterfeit any stamp made in pursuance of this act, or counterfeit the impression of the same on foreign sail-cloth, to defraud H. M. of the duties, shall forfeit 50l. and any person exposing to sale such foreign sail-cloth with a counterfeit stamp, knowing the same to be counterfeit, with intent to defraud H. M., shall forfeit 50l., id. s. 2.

16. Every maker of sail-cloth shall affix on every piece by him made a stamp, containing his name and place of abode, in words at length; and any person who shall expose to sale, or work up into sails any piece of British sail-cloth without being stamped, shall, on conviction on oath of one witness before one justice, forfeit 10l. for every piece; and any person who shall wilfully or maliciously cut off or obliterate any stamp so affixed, (except in tarring or working up the same), or shall affix or impress any stamp on which shall be the name or place of abode of any other person, shall forfeit 5l. to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by warrant of 2 justices, to the use of informer, 9 G. 2. c. 37. s. 3.

17. Every ship built in G. B. and every ship built in H. M.'s plantations in America, shall, on her first setting out, have one complete set of sails made of cloth manufactured in G. B.; and in case such ship shall not be fitted as aforesaid, the master shall forfeit 50l., id. s. 4.

18. Such ship shall on her being first navigated, be furnished with one complete set of new sails bonâ fide belonging to such ship made of sail-cloth, manufactured in G. B. under penalty on the master of 50*l.* for default, 19 G. 2. c. 27. s. 11.

19. No person shall make into sails or tarpaulins, any foreign sail-cloth imported after 24th June 1731, not stamped, [as in s. 1 & 2.] and in case any person shall make up foreign sail-cloth other than as aforesaid, such sails, &c. shall be forfeited, and such person shall forfeit 20*l.* 9 G. 2. c. 37. s. 5.

20. Every maker shall cause this act, or an abstract thereof, to be put up in some public part of the loft or workhouse where his trade is carried on, under the penalty of 40*s.*, id. s. 8.

21. The forfeitures herein imposed shall be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts in G. B. or in such of the plantations wherein such offence shall be committed, by action of debt, &c. or information, with no essoin, &c. and but one imparlance allowed, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the person who shall sue for the same, 9 G. 2. c. 37. s. 9., 19 G. 2. c. 27. s. 12. s. p.

22. No part of the penalties in 9 G. 2. c. 37. which do not attach to double sail-cloth, shall extend to British canvas, made with single thread warps, corded or not corded, and fit for or made into sails, and such single canvas shall be deemed British sail-cloth, and equally entitled with double canvas to the bounties given by 12 A. c. 16. (s. 2.) and 4 G. 2. c. 27. [s. 4.] 33 G. 3. c. 49. s. 2.

23. Such single-thread sail-cloth shall be made of equally good materials, and be conformable in weight, and otherwise to the restrictions on double sail-cloth in 9 G. 2. c. 37. (s. 7., &c.) id. s. 3.

24. FOR REGULATING THE MAKING UP OF SAILS, WITH FOREIGN sail-cloth, 19 G. 2. c. 27. s. 7., &c. [This title is framed as that of the act itself relates principally to the duties imposed by s. 1—6. CON. 14 G. 3. c. 80. s. 1., 29 G. 3. c. 55. s. 6. MADE PERP. 45 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3.]

25. No person in G. B., or America, shall work up into sails or tarpaulins, any foreign-made sail-cloth, or canvass not stamped according to this act, on pain of forfeiture thereof; and such offender convicted on the oath of one witness, before a justice for the county or place where the offence is committed, shall forfeit 50*l.* for every sail or tarpaulin by him so made, not being stamped as aforesaid; to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods by warrant of 2 justices, to the use of the informer; and for want of such distress, such justice may, by warrant, commit such person to the gaol of the county or place where such offence was committed, for 6 months, or until the penalty paid, 19 G. 2. c. 27. s. 7.

26. Every person who shall make up into sails any foreign-made sail-cloth or canvass, shall place the stamps impressed thereon, in the most conspicuous part of such sails, viz. on the after side, and in such manner, that the number of stamps may appear proportionably to the number of bolts or pieces in the sail; and in case any person make up any foreign-made sail cloth, &c. in any other manner, such sails shall be forfeited, and the offender shall, for every offence, forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 8.

27. No person shall alter or mend any sail made of foreign-made sail-cloth or canvass not stamped, but shall, for every sail so altered or mended, forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 9.

28. Every sail-maker in G. B. and America shall affix on every new sail a stamp of 8 inches diameter, containing the name and place of abode of such sail-maker; which stamp, to make the impression durable, shall be dipped in a liquor made with lamp-black mixed with linseed-oil boiled; and in case any person make any new sail and deliver the same not stamped with his name and place of abode as aforesaid, such sail shall be forfeited, and he shall, for every sail so delivered not stamped, forfeit 10*l.*, id. s. 10.

SALT.

1. FOR REGULATING the sale and price of salt, [Framed to shew the object of these sections, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. s. 49. and s. 92., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 39., 1 A. St. 1. c. 21. s. 28.

2. All persons selling salt (except foreign salt) shall sell the same after the rate of 56*lbs.* to the bushel, and every offender shall forfeit 5*l.* to the informer, id. ibid.

3. No dealer in salt shall sell it otherwise than by weight at 56*lbs.* to the bushel; and every offender therein shall forfeit 5*l.* to the informer, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 6. s. 1.

4. No person shall buy salt otherwise than by weight, and not by measure, on penalty of 10*s.* for every bushel, to be paid by the person buying, 1 A. (St. 1.) c. 21. s. 28.

5. The offences against this act shall be heard and determined by any 2 justices residing near the place where the offence is committed, and the party grieved may appeal to the next quarter-sessions; and all justices of peace, on complaint of any forfeiture made as above, shall summon the accused, and on his appearance or contempt, shall proceed to examination of the fact; and on proof by oath of 2 witnesses, or confession of the party, shall give judgment and issue warrants for levying such forfeitures on the offender's goods, and cause sale to be made, if not redeemed within 6 days, and for want of distress shall imprison the party till satisfaction is made, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 6. s. 2.

6. When any salt is entered to be put on board any ship, or carried by land, and the duty is paid or secured, together with all monies then due by bond or otherwise on account of salt before then delivered, the officer shall, on notice by himself or deputy, in the day time, between sunrise and sunset, attend the weighing out without loss of time; and on refusal, shall forfeit 40*s.*, to be recovered or mitigated as in s. 2. id. s. 3.

7—8. "To prevent exactions in price of salt," The lord mayor and court of aldermen of London shall ascertain certain reasonable prices upon all salt to be sold in London and the bills of mortality; and the justices of peace shall, at the general sessions, set prices upon all salt sold within the several counties and places where they are justices, and shall, from time to time, alter the prices of salt, which prices are required to be observed by all persons selling salt; and if any shall sell at higher price, or refuse to sell at the prices aforesaid, such persons shall forfeit 5*l.*, to be levied of the goods of such offenders by distress and sale, by warrant of the lord mayor of London, or of any justice of peace for the place wherein such distress shall be made; and in default of distress it shall be lawful, by warrant from the lord mayor or any such justice, to imprison the offender until he pay the said sum, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 31. s. 92., and 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44. s. 39. s. p.

9. FOR MANURING land with salted ashes, 57 G. 3. c. 49. s. 45. [Framed from the preamble to this section.]

10. Any salt-maker may throw any quantity of brine in its fluid state, over, into, or amongst his ashes, or other compost heaps, or may steep them in fluid brine, and use, sell, or deliver the ashes or compost so steeped for the purpose only of manuring land: and every such salt-maker shall, on 5th July yearly, deliver to the collector of excise the quantity of such salt, ashes, compost or manure, used and delivered in the preceding year: provided that no saline substance, except liquid brine only, shall be so mixed, sold, used, or delivered: and if any salt-maker so steeping such ashes, &c. in brine, shall put amongst them, or shall, under pretence of this act, use, sell, or deliver, or suffer to be used, &c., any saline substance without payment of duty, except liquid brine so employed as manure; or if he, or any person into whose custody and under whose directions any such salted ashes, compost, or manure shall come, shall use the same for any other purpose than manuring land, he and every person so offending shall severally forfeit 500*l.*, 57 G. 3. c. 49. s. 45.

11. TO REPEAL THE DUTY ON ROCK-SALT delivered for feeding or mixing with the food of cattle [as well as the provisions in s. 1. recited, viz. 57 G. 3. c. 49. ss. 46—48.], and to impose another duty and make other provisions in lieu thereof, 58 G. 3. c. 77. [The principle and many regulations of this act are EXT. by 59 G. 3. c. 57. ss. 23—36.]

12. [57 G. 3. c. 49. ss. 46—48. are REP. s. 1.] Any owner of any rock-salt pit, or mine, may sell and deliver therefrom, or from any warehouse adjoining thereto, such coarse and impure rock-salt as shall be approved by the proper officer of excise appointed to inspect it, in lumps of not less weight than 20*lbs.* each [or 10*lbs.* from warehouses for which entry has been made and bond given, 59 G. 3. c. 57. s. 34. post, pl. 21.] to such person and in such quantity as may be granted by the commissioners of excise, for feeding, or mixing with the food of sheep and cattle, steeping seed, or preserving hay, or being employed as manure for lands, on such person's paying 2*s. 6d.* per bushel duty; and so in proportion for a greater or less quantity, such salt being accompanied, on its removal from such mine or warehouse to the place to which it is to be sent, with a permit as required by law, for duty paid on salt, expressing the quantity and quality thereof, and the purposes for which it is removed and intended, 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2.

13. Every person to whose use such rock-salt shall be sold or delivered, shall, on receipt thereof, or within 2 days afterwards, deliver such permit to the nearest officer of excise, and shall be accountable for the whole being used for the purposes as in s. 2., and in no other manner soever; but no further quantity of rock-salt shall be delivered to any person who has already reserved salt for any such purposes, till such certificate be given by him in respect of such prior quantity, as in s. 4., id. s. 3.

14. Every person to whom any such rock-salt shall be sold or delivered, shall, before the end of one month, after expiration of 12 months from delivery thereof, give and deliver a certificate signed by such person, his executors, administrators, or assigns, or steward to the collector of excise in whose collection he shall reside, declaring that the whole has been used for some of the purposes in s. 2., and in no other manner or purpose, specifying in what manner and proportions it hath been used, what description or number of sheep or cattle has been fed therewith, in what way the same has been used as manure, on what lands, where situated, and what benefits appear to have resulted therefrom: and if such certificate shall not be signed and delivered as above, or shall in any respect be false, or if any of the rock-salt so delivered shall be used, spent, employed or consumed, otherwise than as in s. 2., the offender shall forfeit 40*s.* per bushel of rock-salt so delivered, or 100*l.*, at election of H. M.'s attorney-general, or the person who shall sue for the same, and no such penalty shall be mitigated below one-fourth thereof; but any person to whom any such rock-salt is sold or delivered as above, shall apply to the nearest excise officer; and such officer, with approbation of board, may grant permit for further removal of any part of such rock-salt to any other farm or land of the same or another owner, for the purposes in s. 2. only; and thereupon the persons to whom such rock-salt shall be removed and delivered shall, within 2 days after its receipt, deliver such permit to the nearest officer of excise, and shall be accountable and give certificate for its employment within the above time, and be subject to the like regulations and penalties as if delivered to him from the salt-mine or warehouse adjoining, as in s. 2., which delivery over of such rock-salt shall be specified in the certificate, and accepted by such collector in part discharge of the account of the person to whom the same had been first delivered, 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4.

15. The duty hereby imposed is subject to, and shall be levied under all the provisions of the excise laws, and the persons or commodity hereby charged with duty shall be subject to the penalties and regulations therein contained, id. s. 5.

16. All fines and penalties hereby imposed shall be sued for, recovered, levied, or mitigated by such means, except as hereby altered, as any fine may be sued for, &c. by any law of excise, or by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, or in exchequer in Scot. respectively, in moieties to H. M. and the person suing for the same, id. s. 6.

17. TO AFFORD GREATER FACILITY FOR SUFFICIENT and easy supply of rock-salt for more extensively proving whether it can be beneficially employed in feeding or mixing with the food of sheep or cattle, steeping seed, preserving hay, or manuring land, [Framed from the preamble to s. 33.] 59 G. 3. c. 57. ss. 33—36.

18. Any person not being a refiner of salt, or rock-salt, or connected with, or interested therein, at Liverpool, Gloucester, Plymouth, London, Norwich, Hull, and Newcastle-on-Tyne, or other places, with approbation of commissioners of excise in Eng., and at Leith and Glasgow, or other places, with like approbation in Scot., may provide and make use of a warehouse or warehouses for receiving from any rock-salt mine, or warehouse belonging thereto, and for keeping therein rock-salt delivered under 58 G. 3. c. 77. (s. 2. ante, pl. 12.); and may receive from any owner of such salt mine or warehouse, any coarse and impure rock-salt according to 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2., (pl. 12.) for the purposes of feeding, or mixing with food of sheep or cattle, or steeping seed, or preserving hay, or manuring land; and may keep the same therein, and sell and deliver not less thereof than one ton at a time, if any part thereof be unground, for the above purposes, to any person authorized to receive it by certificate first to him granted by the proper and nearest officer of excise (as directed by commissioners) specifying the quantity of rock-salt which he is authorized to receive, and the place where, and the uses to which, it is to be applied, according to 58 G. 3. c. 77. ss. 3—4., ante, which person shall produce such certificate to the officer who shall grant the permit for removal of such rock-salt to him, from such warehouse, 59 G. 3. c. 57. s. 33.

19. Such warehouses shall be substantially built, and not used for keeping, at the same time, any other kind of salt or rock-salt, except rock-salt delivered for the above purposes, nor for the latter purpose, until entry in writing of such warehouse, &c. be first made at the next excise-office by the true occupier, nor until it be first approved in writing by and under the hand of the supervisor of the district, nor until the occupier has entered into a bond to H. M. in the penalty of a sum equal to the amount of the home consumption duties on salt made in Eng. for all the rock-salt to be next received into such warehouse, and of 50*l. per cent.* thereon, with sufficient sureties to the satisfaction of the commissioners of excise, or their appointee, to receive the same, that all such rock-salt shall, on 1st June then next, be duly accounted for by him as in 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4., ante, pl. 14., and sold and delivered as above for the above purposes only; and on delivery of any part thereof (not less, if unground, than one ton at one time) it shall be accompanied with the permit required in that act, s. 3. ante, pl. 13., and to those persons only who are authorized by certificate to receive it, and who produce the same to the officer granting the permit, id. ibid.

20. Persons so making such entry shall not receive or deposit any such rock-salt in such warehouse, without 24 hours previous notice thereof in writing to the proper excise officer of the division, and delivering to him the permit; and shall be subject to the like penalties as in this or other acts directed for persons receiving rock-salt for the above purposes: and if any such rock-salt delivered for any of the above purposes, to be kept in any such warehouse, is deposited for sale at any of the above places, in any such warehouse, otherwise than as above, or which warehouse was not entered or previously approved of in writing under the hand of the supervisor of excise of the district in which it is situate, and not afterwards disapproved by such supervisor or commissioners of excise, or without the occupier having first given such bond and notice, and delivered such permit as above: or if such entered occupier of such warehouse, or other person, shall sell, exchange, transfer, deliver, consume, or employ any part of the rock-salt so deposited for the above purposes in any other manner or for any different purpose than above, or shall not duly account for the same, as in 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 4. ante, pl. 14., all the rock-salt in the warehouse shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any officers of excise, and the offender shall, for every offence, besides the penalty of his bond, forfeit 500*l.*, 59 G. 3. c. 57. s. 33.

21. Any person having made entry, and given bond, as in s. 33., may deliver from any such warehouse, for the purposes in 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2. pl. 12. and s. 33. of this act mentioned to any person authorized by certificate to receive the same, such rock-salt, in lumps of not less than 10*lbs.* weight; and where such certificate shall express that any quantity of rock-salt shall be delivered and received crushed or powdered, such person so making entry and giving bond, may deliver the same from such warehouse crushed and powdered, provided it be mixed throughout with not less than half a pound of coal-tar to every bushel of crushed salt, id. s. 34.

22. When any such rock-salt is delivered from any salt mine or warehouse belonging thereto, for any of the purposes in s. 33. pl. 18., or 58 G. 3. c. 77. s. 2. pl. 12., and is carried on board of any vessel from one port or place in G. B. to any or either of the places where it may be warehoused under this act, for the purpose of being so warehoused, and shall arrive at the port where such warehouse is situate, the owner of the latter may sell and deliver any quantity thereof, not being less than one ton, to any person authorized to receive the same by certificate as above first granted to such person, directly from the vessel, without first landing or warehousing it: provided that the permits accompanying the whole shall be first duly delivered to the proper officer, and that the master of the ship shall first make oath, as by law required, in removal of duty-free salt, and that the whole be first duly weighed on board such ship in presence of the proper officers; and that the whole rock-salt mentioned in such permit, and so removed in such vessel shall be duly entered as part of the stock of, and deemed to be received by the person to whom it is permitted, into his possession: and every quantity so sold to any other person shall be accounted for, and accompanied with such permit on removal from warehouse, and such entries shall be made in respect thereof as by law required, in case the whole had been actually landed into the entered warehouse, and the rock-salt sold as above had been afterwards received from him out of his stock therein by the buyer, id. s. 35.

23. Any officers of excise, on their request, may at any time enter into and survey such warehouse and rock-salt therein; and any supervisor, or other officer of equal or superior rank, may weigh the rock-salt therein; and if any owner thereof, or other person, who, on such request shall not open and unlock such warehouse, and permit such officers to enter and survey the same, and the rock-salt therein, or shall prevent or obstruct him from so doing, or any supervisor, &c. from weighing all the rock-salt therein, or shall hide any such rock-salt, or shall not, on demand, furnish him with true scales and weights sufficient for weighing the same, or give all needful assistance in so doing, or shall use, or permit to be used, any contrivance by which he shall be prevented from taking a true account of the weight and quantity of such rock-salt, all such rock-salt, scales and weights, shall be forfeited, and may be seized by any excise-officer; and every such offender shall for every offence, severally forfeit 200*l.*, id. s. 36.

SANCTUARY.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. THEY THAT ABJURE THE REALM SHALL BE IN PEACE so long as they be in the church or highway, 9 E. 2. c. 10. [REP. 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 24., and 21 J. 1. c. 28. ss. 6, 7.]

2. FOR GRANTING PARDON TO ALL PERSONS IN SANCTUARY, and for indemnifying those who assisted H. M. in his battle with Richard Duke of Gloucester, 1 H. 7. c. 6. [EXP.]

3. HOW PLEA OF SANCTUARY IN FOREIGN SHIRE SHALL BE TRIED, 4 H. 8. c. 2. s. 2. [MADE PERF. 22 H. 8. c. 2., sanctuary abolished, 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 34., 21 J. 1. c. 28. ss. 6, 7. See the rest of this act, BENEFIT OF CLERGY.]

4. CONCERNING SUCH AS SHALL TAKE SANCTUARY FOR FELONY OF murder, 21 H. 8. c. 2. [REP. by 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 34., and 21 J. 1. c. 28. ss. 6, 7.]

5. FOR LIMITING AN ORDER FOR SANCTUARIES AND SANCTUARY persons, 27 H. 8. c. 19. [REP. as in last pl.]

6. CONCERNING SANCTUARIES, PRIVILEGES OF CHURCHES and church yards, 32 H. 8. c. 12. [REP. as in pl. 4.]

7. TOUCHING THE TRANSLATION OF THE SANCTUARY FROM Manchester to Westchester, 33 H. 8. c. 12. [REP. as in pl. 4.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO OFFENDERS IN HIGH TREASONS, THEIR AIDERS, &c. shall be admitted to sanctuary, 26 H. 8. c. 13. s. 3.
2. SO MUCH OF ALL STATUTES AS CONCERN ABJURED PERSONS and sanctuaries, or the ordering of such persons made before 35 El. shall be REP., 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 34.
3. All statutes that take away sanctuary for any offence, shall be revived, the 1 J. 1. c. 25. s. 34. notwithstanding, 21 J. 1. c. 8. s. 6.
4. No sanctuary, or privilege of sanctuary, shall henceforth be allowed, 21 J. 1. c. 28. s. 7.

SCOTLAND (PARLIAMENT — PEERS).

1. SIXTEEN OF THE PEERS OF Scot. shall be the number to sit and vote in the house of lords, and 45 the number of the representatives of Scot. in the house of commons, 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 22.
2. Those 16 peers shall have all the privileges of parliament of the peers of G. B., and particularly that of sitting on the trials of peers, to which, if happening during adjournment or prorogation of parliament, they shall be summoned as other peers of G. B., and if happening when there is no parliament in being, the 16 peers of Scot. who sat in the last parliament shall be summoned in like manner; and all peers of Scot. shall be peers of G. B., and have rank next after the peers of the like degrees in Eng. at the union, and before all peers of G. B. of like degree created after the union, and shall be tried and enjoy all other privileges as peers of G. B., except that of sitting in the house of lords, and the privileges depending thereon, and the right of sitting on the trial of peers, id. Art. 23.
3. AN ACT SETTLING THE MANNER OF ELECTING THE 16 PEERS, [and 45 members, see infra, this title, COMMONS.] to represent Scot. in the parliament of G. B., passed in the parliament of Scot. at Edinburgh, 5th Feb. 1707, is inserted 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 6., and is made part of the articles of union, id. s. 7., and here follows: 'H. M., with advice and consent of the estates of parliament, ordains, that the 16 peers, who shall have a right to sit in the house of peers in the parliament of G. B. on the part of Scot., shall be named by the peers of Scot., out of their own number, by open election and plurality of voices of the peers present, and of the proxies for such as shall be absent, the said proxies being peers, and producing a mandate duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law; also such peers as are absent, being qualified, may send to all such meetings lists of the peers whom they judge fittest, validly signed by the absent peers, which shall be reckoned as if the parties had been present, and given in the list: and in case of the death, or legal incapacity, of any of the said 16 peers, the said peers of Scot. shall nominate another of their own number, [see the rest of this section, infra, this title, COMMONS, pl. 17.]
4. TO MAKE FURTHER PROVISION FOR ELECTING AND SUMMONING 16 peers of Scot. to sit in the house of peers of the parliament of G. B., and for trying peers for offences committed in Scot., 6 A. c. 23. ss. 1—12. [see s. 13. infra, this title, COMMONS, pl. 19. See s. 14. OATHS.]
5. When H. M. shall declare his pleasure for summoning any parliament, in order to the electing the 16 peers of Scot., a proclamation shall be issued under the great seal of G. B., commanding all the peers of Scot. to assemble at Edinburgh, or such other place in Scot., and at such time as appointed therein, to elect the 16 peers to sit and vote in the house of peers in the parliament of G. B., 6 A. c. 23. s. 1.
6. Every proclamation for this purpose shall be published at the market-cross at Edinburgh, and in all the country towns of Scot., 25 days before the time appointed for the meeting of the peers, id. s. 2.
7. All the peers who meet on such proclamation shall, before they proceed to the election, and in presence of the peers assembled, take the oaths of allegiance and supremacy, and shall also make and subscribe the declaration against popery in 30 C. 2. St. 2., (PARLIAMENT, pl. 67.) and shall also take and subscribe the oath of abjuration, id. s. 5. [see OATHS.]
8. Peers living in Scot., but not present at such meeting, may take the oaths, &c. in any sheriff's court in Scot.; and every sheriff or his deputy, before whom such oaths, &c. shall be so made, shall return the original subscription signed by the peer, and make a return in writing, under his hand and seal, to the peers so assembled, of such peer's taking the oaths, &c.; and such peer shall be thereby enabled to make a proxy, or send a signed list, containing the names of the 16 peers for whom he votes; and such of the peers as reside in Eng. may take the oaths, &c. in the courts of chancery, K. B., C. P., or exchequer in Eng., which being certified by writ to the peers in Scot. at their meeting, under seal of the court, shall entitle such peer to make his proxy, and to send a signed list; and in case any of the peers, who, before the issuing of such proclamation, have taken the oaths, &c. to be certified as aforesaid, (and if taken in parliament, to be certified under the great seal) shall, at the time of issuing such proclamation, be absent in the service of H. M., he may make his proxy, or send a list, 6 A. c. 23. s. 4.

9. Such peers of Scot. as are also peers of Eng., shall sign their proxies and lists by the title of their peerage in Scot., id. s. 5.

10. No peer shall be capable of having more than 2 proxies, id. s. 6.

11. At such meeting of the peers they shall all give in the names of the persons by them nominated to sit and vote in the house of peers, and the lord clerk register, or 2 of the principal clerks of the session appointed by him for this purpose shall, after the election is made, certify the names of the 16 peers elected, and sign the same in the presence of the peers; which certificate shall be returned into chancery before the time appointed for the meeting of the parliament, id. s. 7.

12. The peers shall come to such meetings with their ordinary attendants only, under the penalties inflicted by the laws in force in Scot., id. s. 8.

13. It shall not be lawful for the peers assembled for the electing 16 peers to sit and vote in parliament, to act, propose, debate, or treat of any other matter, except only the election of the peers, on penalty of premunire as in 16 R. 2. c. 5., id. s. 9.

14. The Scotch act for settling the election of the 16 peers and 45 members for Scot., declared vested by 5 & 6 A. c. 8. is confirmed, except where further provided by this act, id. s. 10.

15. If any of the 16 peers dies, or becomes legally disabled to sit in the house of peers, H. M. shall forthwith issue a proclamation for electing another peer of Scot. to sit in the house of peers in the room of such peer deceased or disabled, id. s. 11.

16. For trial of any peer of G. B. guilty of high, petit, or misprision of treason, murder or other felony in Scot., commissions may issue under great seal of G. B., directed to persons therein named, constituting them justices to enquire by the oaths of good and lawful men of the counties of Scot. named therein, of all treasons, &c. committed in such county, by peers of G. B., which inquisition shall be taken and proceeded on in the same way as any inquisition found before justices of oyer and terminer in Eng., whereby any peer is indicted for such offence, and such justices shall issue mandates to the sheriffs of counties of Scot. to return to them good and lawful men of the county, to enquire of the above offences, 12 or more of whom being sworn, shall be sufficient to find any indictment; and if the sheriff shall not summon a sufficient number, the justices may impose a fine on him, leviable by exchequer process, and if any person summoned does not appear, they may fine him in like manner, 6 A. c. 23. s. 12.

SCOTLAND (PARLIAMENT — COMMONS).

17. AN ACT SETTLING THE MANNER OF ELECTING THE [16 peers, supra, this title, PEERS, pl. 3.] 45 members to represent Scot. in the parliament of G. B., passed in Parl. Scot. at Edinburgh, 5th Feb. 1707, 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 6., and is made part of the articles of union, id. s. 7.; and here follows: 'Of the said 45 representatives of Scot. in the house of commons in the parliament of G. B., 30 shall be chosen by the shires or stewartries, and 15 by the royal boroughs, as follows, viz. one for every shire and stewartry, excepting the shires of Bute and Caithness, which shall chuse one by turns, Bute having the first election, the shires of Nairn and Cromarty which shall also chuse by turns, Nairn having the first election; and in like manner the shires of Clackmannan and Kinross shall chuse by turns, Clackmannan having the first election; and in case of the death or incapacity of any of the members from the respective shires or stewartries, the shire or stewartry who elected the said member shall elect another in his place. And the 15 representatives for the royal boroughs shall be chosen as follows, viz. the town of Edinburgh shall send one member to the parliament of G. B.; and each of the other burghs shall elect a commissioner in the same manner as they use to elect commissioners to the parliament of Scot.; which commissioners and burghs being divided in 14 districts, shall meet at such time and burghs within their districts, as H. M. shall appoint, and elect one for each district, viz. the burghs of Kirkwall, Week, Dornock, Dingwall, and Taine, one; the burghs of Fortrose, Inverness, Nairn, and Forres, one; the burghs of Elgin, Cullen, Banff, Inverury, and Kintore, one; the burghs of Aberdeen, Inverbercy, Montrose, Aberbrothock, and Brochinch, one; the burghs of Forfar, Perth, Dundee, Cupar, and St. Andrews, one; and the burghs of Craik, Kilrennie, Ansuther Easter, Ansuther Wester, and Pittenweem, one; the burghs of Dysart, Kirkcaldie, Kinghorn, and Bruntisland, one; the burghs of Inverkeithen, Dunfermline, Queensferry, Culross, and Stirling, one; the burghs of Glasgow, Renfrew, Ruglen, and Dumbarton, one; the burghs of Haddington, Dunbar, North Berwick, Lauder, and Jedburgh, one; the burghs of Selkirk, Peebles, Lindisgow, and Lanark, one; the burghs of Dumfries, Sanquhar, Annan, Lochmaben, and Kircudbright, one; the burghs of Wigtown, New Galloway, Stranraer, and Whitcher, one; and the burghs of Ayr, Irvine, Rothsay, Campbeltown, and Inverary, one. And where the votes of the commissioners for the burghs, met to chuse representatives, shall be equal, the president of the meeting shall have a casting vote, according to his vote as a commissioner from the burgh; the commissioner from the oldest burgh presiding in the first meeting, and the commissioners from the other burghs by turns, in the order as they are called in the rolls of the parliament of Scot.; and in case any of the 15 commissioners from burghs shall decease, or become legally incapable, the town of Edinburgh, or the district which chose the said member, shall elect a member in his place. Provided that none be capable to elect or be elected for any of the said estates, but such as are 21 years of age complete, and protestant, excluding all papists, or such who being suspect of popery, and required, refuse to swear and subscribe the formula contained in the 3d act made in 8 & 9 Sess. of W. 3d.'s parliament, for preventing the growth of popery. And none shall be capable to elect, or be elected, to represent a shire or burgh for this part of the U. K., except such as are now capable by the laws of this kingdom, to elect, or be elected as commissioners for shires or burghs, to the parliament of Scot. [but QU. qualification may now be situate any where in U. K., see p. 1224. pl. 231.] and when H. M. shall declare her pleasure for holding any parliament of G. B., and a writ shall be issued, directed to the privy council of Scot., conform to the 22d article, until the parliament of G. B. shall make further provision, the said writ shall contain a command to the privy council, to issue out a proclamation, requiring the peers of Scot. to assemble at such time and place within Scot., as H. M. shall think fit, to make election of the 16 peers; and requiring the lord clerk register, or 2 of the clerks of session, to attend all such meetings, and to administer the oaths and to ask the votes, and having made up the lists in the presence of the meeting, to return the names of the 16 peers chosen (certified under the subscription of the lord clerk register, or clerks of session attending) to the clerk of the privy council of Scot.; and in like manner requiring the several freeholders in the respective shires and stewartries, to convene at the head-burghs of their shires and stewartries, to elect their commissioners, and ordaining the clerks of the said meetings, immediately after the elections are over, to return the names of the persons elected to the clerks of the privy council; and lastly, ordaining the city of Edinburgh to elect their commissioner, and the other royal boroughs to elect each of them a commissioner, and to send the said commissioners at such times, to such burghs within their districts, as H. M. by such proclamation shall appoint, requiring the common clerk of the burghs, where such election shall be, to attend the said meetings, and immediately after the election to return the name of the person elected (under his hand) to the clerk of privy council, to the end that the names of the 16 peers, 30 commissioners for shires, and 15 commissioners for burghs, may be returned to the court from whence the writ did issue. And the 16 peers, and 45 commissioners for shires and burghs, who shall be chosen by the peers, barons, and burghs, respectively, in this session of parliament, and out of the members thereof, shall be the members of the respective houses of the first parliament of G. B., on the part of Scot. [How to proceed if commissioners absent, see 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 28. infra, pl. 64.]

18. When any parliament shall be summoned, the 45 representatives of Scot., in the house of commons, shall be elected by writs under the great seal of G. B., directed to the several sheriffs and stewards of the respective shires and stewartries; who shall, on receipt of such writs, forthwith give notice of the time of election for the knights or commissioners for their shires or stewartries, and at such time the several freeholders shall meet at the head-burghs of their shires and stewartries, and proceed to the election of their commissioners or knights; and the clerks of the said meetings immediately after the elections, shall return the names of the persons elected to the sheriff or steward, who shall annex it to his writ, and return it into the court out of which the writ issued. And as to the manner of election of the 15 representatives of the royal boroughs, the sheriff of Edinburgh shall, on receipt of the writ directed to him, forthwith direct his precept to the lord provost of Edinburgh, to cause a burghess to be elected for that city; and on receipt of such precept, the city of Edinburgh shall elect their member, and their common clerk shall certify his name to the sheriff of Edinburgh, who shall annex it to his writ, and return it; and as to the other royal boroughs divided into 14 districts, the sheriffs, &c. on receipt of their writs, shall direct their precepts to every royal borough, reciting the contents of the writ, and the date thereof, and commanding them forthwith to elect each of them a commissioner, and to order the commissioners to meet at the presiding borough of their district (naming the borough) upon the 30th day after the teste of the writ, unless it be Sunday, and then the day after, and then to choose their burghess for the parliament; and the common clerk of the presiding borough shall immediately after the election return the name of the person elected to the sheriff, &c. of the shire, &c. wherein such presiding borough is, who shall annex it to his writ and return it. And in case a vacancy happens in time of parliament, by the decease or legal incapacity of any member, a new member shall be elected in his room, conformable to the method herein appointed; and in case such a vacancy be of a representative of any one of the said 14 districts of royal boroughs, that borough which presided at the election of the deceased or disabled member shall be the presiding borough at such new election, 6 A. c. 6. s. 5.

19. On issuing writs of summons for the election of a new parliament, if any shire or stewartry, wherein a royal borough is, hath not then a turn or right to elect a commissioner, or knight of the shire for that parliament, it shall be omitted out of the writ directed to such sheriff, &c. to cause a commissioner for that shire to be elected, id. s. 6.

20. FOR FURTHER REGULATING ELECTIONS OF MEMBERS OF parliament in Scot., 6 A. c. 23. s. 13., [see rest of this title and statute, ante, this title, PEERS, pl. 4—16., AMD. 12 A. St. 1. c. 6.]

21. Every person who shall refuse to take the oath of abjuration in 6 A. c. 23. s. 3. [but see the present forms of oaths, 6 G. 3. c. 53. ss. 1—2.] or being a quaker, shall refuse to declare the effect thereof on his solemn affirmation, as by 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 34. provided, [which oath and declaration the member, last elected for any county or stewartry in Scot., or in his absence the sheriff or steward's clerk until a person be chosen to proceed [QU. preside?] in such meeting, according to 3 C. 2. c. 21. (Sc.) and after such choice, the person so chosen to proceed in any meeting of any county or stewartry there, in which rolls for elections shall happen to be made up, is authorized to administer, at the request of any candidate or other person present at such meeting for election, before or after choosing the president, or making up the rolls, 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 4. [altering 6 A. c. 23. s. 13.] shall not be capable of voting for election of a president of the meeting making up the rolls, or of any M.P. for any place in Scot., or of any commissioner to choose a burghess for any place there: [but no words in the oaths by 6 A. c. 23. formerly imposed, are meant to oblige H. M.'s said subjects to any acts inconsistent with the establishment of the church of Scot., 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 15. s. 4.] 6 A. c. 23. s. 13., 1 G. 1. St. 2. c. 13. s. 4.

22. No conveyance or right, whereupon infeeoffment is not taken, and seisin registered, one year before teste of writs for calling a new parliament, shall, on objection made, entitle the person infeeoff to vote or to be elected in any shire or stewartry in Scot.; and in case any election happen during the continuance of a parliament, no conveyance or right, whereupon infeeoffment is not taken one year before the date of the warrant for making out a new writ for such election, shall, on objection made, entitle the person infeeoff to vote or be elected at that election; and any elector suspecting any person to have his estate in trust, and for behoof of another, may require the preses of the meeting to tender the herein prescribed oath to any elector; and if he refuse to swear, and subscribe the oath, he shall not be capable of voting or being elected at such election, 12 A. St. 1. c. 6. s. 1.

23. Notwithstanding such oath taken, such other objections may be made as are allowed by the laws of Scot. against such electors, id. s. 2.

24. No infeeoffment taken on any redeemable right, (except proper wadsetts, adjudications, or apprisings, allowed by the act of parliament relating to elections in 1681,) shall entitle the person to vote or be elected in any shire or stewartry, id. s. 3.

25. All sheriffs of shires and stewards of stewartries shall be obliged, on pain of 50*l.*, (one moiety to H. M., and the other to the person who shall sue, to be recovered before the court of session, by any act summarily, without abiding the course of the roll,) to make the public intimations required by the laws of Scot., at the parish churches, at least three days before the dyet of elections, id. s. 4.

26. The right of apparent heirs in voting by virtue of their predecessors' infeeoffments, and the right of husbands by virtue of their wives' infeeoffments, are reserved, id. s. 5.

27. Provided, that no husbands shall vote by virtue of their wives' infeeoffments, who are not heiresses, or have not right of property of the land named, id. s. 7.

28. FOR BETTER REGULATING THE ELECTION OF M. P.s for Scot., and for incapacitating the judges of the courts of session and judiciary, and barons of the exchequer in Scot., to be elected, or sit and vote as M. P.s, 7 G. 2. c. 16.

29. If the clerk of any meeting of freeholders, for the electing of a commissioner to serve in parliament for any shire or stewartry in Scot., shall wilfully return to the sheriff or steward any person, other than him who shall be duly elected; or if any other person, pretending to be the clerk, shall return any person as elected, who shall not be duly elected, the offender shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered by the candidate elected, 7 G. 2. c. 16. s. 1. [QU. if in force since 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 14. and s. 16., pl. 50. and 52.?]

30. Every freeholder who claims to vote at an election, or in adjusting the rolls of freeholders, instead of the oath appointed by 12 A. St. 1. c. 6. shall, on request of any freeholder formerly inrolled, take and subscribe the oath following: 7 G. 2. c. 16. s. 2.

I. A. B. do, in the presence of God, declare and swear, that the lands and estate of — for which I claim a right to vote in the election of a member to serve in parliament for this county or stewartry, is actually in my possession, and do really and truly belong to me, and is my own proper estate, and is not conveyed to me in trust, or for, or in behalf, of any other person whatsoever; and that neither I, nor any person to my knowledge, in my name, or on my account, or by my allowance, hath given, or intends to give, any promise, obligation, bond, back-bond, or other security whatsoever, other than appears from the tenor and contents of the title, upon which I now claim a right to vote, directly or indirectly, for redising or reconveying the said lands and estate in any manner of way whatsoever, or for making the rents or profits thereof forthcoming to the use or benefit of the person from whom I have acquired the said estate, or other person whatsoever; and that my title to the said lands and estate is not nominal or fictitious, created or reserved in me in order to enable me to vote for a member to serve in parliament; but that the same is a true and real estate in me, for my own use and benefit, and for the use of no other person whatsoever, and that is the truth, as I shall answer to God.'

31. If he refuse, his name shall be erased out of the roll of freeholders; and if any person wilfully and falsely swear, and subscribe the said oath, he shall incur the punishment of perjury, according to the laws in Scot., 7 G. 2. c. 16. s. 3.

32. No judge of the court of session, or justiciary, or baron of the exchequer, in Scot., shall be capable of being elected a member of the house of commons, id. s. 4.

33. At the annual election of magistrates and counsellors for boroughs, no magistrates or counsellors shall separate from the majority, who have been such from the year preceding, or elect separate magistrates or counsellors; and if they shall, in opposition to the majority, make a separate election, the same shall be void; and every magistrate or counsellor who concurred therein, shall forfeit 100*l.* to be recovered by the magistrates and counsellors from whom they separated, id. s. 6.

34. Every penalty imposed, with respect to the recovery of which no provision is made, shall be sued for by way of summary complaint before the court of session, on 15 days' notice, without abiding the course of any roll, id. s. 9.

35. Every freeholder in Scot. shall, before he is inrolled or admitted to vote for the choice of clerk or prases, or other question, (if required,) take and subscribe the oaths appointed by law to be taken by electors of members to serve in parliament, id. s. 10.

36. The borough of Wigtoun shall preside at the election of a member to represent that district in the next parliament, id. s. 11.

37. To explain and amend the law of elections of M. P.s in Scot., and to regulate the conduct of returning officers at such elections, 16 G. 2. c. 11. [AMD. 14 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1. and 30 G. 3. c. 17. s. 4.]

38. So much of 12 A. St. 1. c. 6. s. 3. as enacts, that no persons who have not been inrolled and voted at former elections, shall be inrolled or admitted to vote at any election, except they first produce a sufficient title to qualify them to the satisfaction of the freeholders formerly inrolled, and that the returning officers make their returns of the persons elected by the majority of the freeholders inrolled, and those admitted by them, reserving always the liberty of objecting against the persons admitted to or excluded from the roll, shall be repealed, id. s. 1.

39. Such persons as stand upon the roll last made up by the freeholders, whether at the Michaelmas meeting, or at the last election of a member to serve in parliament, shall be the original constituent members at their next Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, to revise the said roll, id. s. 2.

39. (a) It shall be lawful for any freeholder upon the roll, to object to the title of any person who stands at present upon the roll last made up, and for that purpose to apply at any time before the 1st of Dec. 1743, by summary complaint, to the court of session, who shall grant a warrant for summoning such persons upon 30 days' notice, and shall, in a summary way, hear and determine such complaint; and if no such complaint be exhibited within the time aforesaid, then no freeholder, who at present stands upon the rolls last made up, shall be struck off or left out of the roll, except upon objections arising from the alteration of that title, in respect of which he was inrolled, sustained by the other freeholders upon the roll, id. s. 3.

40. If at any Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, any person shall by judgment of the freeholders be refused to be admitted, or be struck out of the roll, it shall be lawful for him to apply within 4 calendar months by summary complaint to the court of session, who shall grant a warrant for summoning the person upon whose objection he was refused or struck off, upon 30 days' notice to answer, and shall hear and determine in a summary way on such complaint; and if any person be inrolled whose title shall be thought liable to objection, it shall be lawful for any freeholder upon the said roll (whether present at the meeting or not) to apply in like manner by complaint to the court of session within 4 calendar months, and the said court after service of such complaint on 30 days' notice upon the person said to be wrongfully admitted to the roll, shall hear and determine; and if no such complaint be exhibited within the time aforesaid, the freeholder inrolled shall continue upon the roll, until an alteration of his circumstances be allowed by the freeholders at a subsequent Michaelmas meeting, or meeting for election, as a sufficient cause for striking him out of the roll, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 4. [And a complaint to the lord ordinary on the bills in vacation within the 4 months shall be equivalent to a complaint to the court of session; if printed copies of such complaint be lodged before the 3d sederunt day of that ensuing session, by 30 G. 3. c. 17. s. 4.]

41. If in any of the aforesaid cases the judgment of the court of session shall alter or reverse the determination of the meeting of the freeholders, the sheriff or steward's clerk shall, upon presenting to him the extract of such judgment, forthwith make the alteration directed in the books kept by him; and in case of refusal or delay, he shall forfeit 100*l.* sterling to the person in whose favour the judgment of the court is given, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 5.

42. If the judgment of the freeholders refusing to admit, or striking off any person from the said roll be affirmed by the court of session, the person complaining shall forfeit to the objector the sum of 30*l.* sterling, with costs, id. s. 6.

43. Every freeholder who intends to claim to be inrolled at any Michaelmas meeting of the freeholders, shall, 2 calendar months at least before the said meeting, leave with the sheriff or steward's clerk a copy of his claim, setting forth the names of his lands and his titles thereto, and dates thereof, with the old extent upon which he desires to be inroller, and in case of his neglect he shall not be inrolled at such meeting; and in like manner, whoever intends to object to any freeholder who stands upon the roll, on account of the alteration of his circumstances, shall, at least 2 calendar months before the Michaelmas meeting, leave his objections in writing with the sheriff or steward's clerk, who shall upon receipt of the aforesaid claim or objections indorse thereon the day he received the same, and also give a copy to any person upon paying the legal fee of an ordinary extract of the same length, id. s. 7.

44. No person shall be intitled to vote for a commissioner to serve in parliament for any shire or stewartry in Scot., or to be inrolled in respect of the old extent of his lands holden of H. M. or prince, unless such old extent is proved by a retour of the lands of a date prior to the 16th Sept., 1681; and no division of the old extent made since the said 16th Sept., 1681, by retour or any other way, shall be sustained as evidence of the old extent, id. s. 8.

45. Lands holden of H. M. or prince liable in public burdens for 400*l.* Scots of valued rent, shall be a sufficient qualification, whatever be the old extent of the said lands, id. s. 9.

46. No purchaser, or singular successor, shall be inrolled till he be publicly infeofed, and his seisin registered, or charter of confirmation be expedite (where confirmation is necessary) one year before the inrolment; and no heir apparent shall be inrolled, until his predecessor's titles are produced and allowed by the freeholders; and any person may be inrolled, though absent, provided the titles and vouchers of his qualification are produced before the freeholders: and if any person be chosen a member to serve in parliament for any shire or stewartry in Scot., who shall not be present at the meeting for election; the member so elected, before he takes his seat in parliament, shall take the oath appointed to be taken by freeholders claiming to vote at election by 7 G. 2. c. 16. before the lord steward of H. M.'s household, or any person authorized by him; and if a member so elected neglect or refuse to take the aforesaid oath, such election shall be void, id. s. 10.

47. At the annual meetings of the freeholders at Michaelmas, the original constituent members shall be such only as stand upon the roll last made up, at a Michaelmas meeting, or at a meeting for an election of a member to serve in parliament, and a copy signed and extracted of the roll made up at the Michaelmas meetings, or meetings for elections, together with the minutes of the proceedings, shall by the clerks of such meetings be delivered to the sheriff or steward's clerk gratis, and shall be inserted in books to be kept by the said sheriff or steward's clerk for that purpose, who shall deliver copies of the same extracted and signed to any freeholder paying the legal fee for an ordinary extract of the same length, and shall at every subsequent meeting produce the said books, for the use of the freeholders; and in case such sheriff or steward's clerk neglect or refuse to enter the aforesaid rolls of election or minutes of proceedings into books so to be kept, or to give copies thereof extracted and signed, or to produce the books at any subsequent meeting, he shall for every such offence forfeit 100*l.* sterling, to be recovered by any freeholder within such shire or stewartry; and if the aforesaid principal books be not produced, a copy of the said roll and minutes extracted and signed by the sheriff or steward's clerk shall be sufficient; and if the sheriff or steward's clerk give false copies of the said roll or minutes, he shall for every such offence forfeit 100*l.* sterling to the person to whom the false copy is given, to be recovered by him or his executors, and shall be incapable of holding his said office, id. s. 11.

48. At every election for any shire or stewartry in Scot., the roll of electors last made up, whether at the Michaelmas meeting, or at the last election, shall be the roll to be called over by the commissioner last elected, or in his absence by the sheriff or steward's clerk, in order to the election of preses and clerk, as also by the preses after he is chosen, for the choice of the member, and for the determination of all questions in adjusting the roll, and in the course of the election, excepting so far as the said roll shall after the choice of preses and clerk be altered by judgment of the freeholders standing on that roll, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 12.

49. At every meeting for an election of a commissioner to serve in parliament, if the commissioner last elected, or in his absence the sheriff or steward's clerk, shall in the choice of preses or clerk receive the vote of any person not upon the roll, he shall, for every such offence forfeit 300*l.* sterling to every candidate for the office of preses or clerk, for whom such person shall not have given his vote, to be recovered by him or his executors; or if the commissioner last elected, or the sheriff or steward's clerk, shall in the choice of preses or clerk not call for or refuse the vote of any person whose name is upon the roll, he shall for every such offence forfeit 300*l.* sterling to the person whose name shall not be called for, or whose vote shall be refused, to be recovered by him or his executors; and if the preses in the election of the member to serve in parliament, receive the vote of any person not upon the roll, he shall for every such offence forfeit 200*l.* sterling to every candidate for whom such person shall not have given his vote, to be recovered by him or his executors; or if the preses shall in the election of the member not call for or refuse the vote of any person whose name is upon the roll, he shall for every such offence forfeit 200*l.* sterling to the person whose name shall not be called for, or whose vote shall be refused, to be recovered by him or his executors; and in case of equality of votes in the choice of preses or clerk, the commissioner last elected, and in his absence any freeholder present who last represented the shire or stewartry in any former parliament, and if no such person is present, the freeholder present who presided last at any meeting for any election, and in his absence the freeholder who last presided at any Michaelmas meeting, and if none of the said persons be present, the freeholder present who stands first on the roll, shall besides their own votes have the casting vote; and the preses chosen shall in the choice of the commissioner to serve in parliament, and all other questions where the votes are equal, in like manner besides his own vote have the casting vote, id. s. 13.

50. The persons chosen to be preses and clerk by the majority of the freeholders present on the said roll, shall be preses and clerk of the meeting for such election; and it shall not be lawful for any number of freeholders to separate from the majority of the persons present upon the roll, and set up any person as preses or clerk other than those chosen by the majority, and it shall not be lawful for any person to act as preses or clerk at any such election, unless they are chosen by the majority of persons on the roll; and every freeholder who shall so separate from the majority, and set up any person as preses or clerk other than those chosen by the majority, shall for every such offence forfeit 50*l.* sterling to the candidate who shall be chosen by the majority, to be recovered by him or his executors; and if any person presume to act as preses or clerk, who is not chosen by the majority of the freeholders present on the roll, he shall for every such offence forfeit 200*l.* sterling to the candidate who shall be chosen by the majority, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 14.

51. The commissioner last elected, or in his absence the sheriff or steward's clerk, shall sign the minutes of the election of preses and clerk, and deliver the same to the clerk chosen as aforesaid; and if the commissioner last elected, or the sheriff or steward's clerk, neglect or refuse to sign the said minutes, and deliver the same to the clerk chosen as aforesaid, or sign false minutes, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit 100*l.* sterling, to the preses, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 15.

52. The clerk chosen shall return to the sheriff or steward such person as shall be elected by the majority of the freeholders, on the roll made up at the meeting for election; and if he refuse or neglect so to return, or return any other person, he shall, for every such offence, instead of the penalty inflicted by 7 G. 2. c. 16. forfeit 500*l.* sterling to the candidate, chosen by the majority of the freeholders on the roll, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 16.

53. Every sheriff or steward in Scot., on producing to him a copy of the roll, last made up by the freeholders at the last Michaelmas meeting, or at the last election, extracted and signed by the sheriff or steward's clerk, and the original minutes of the election of preses and clerk, signed by the commissioner last elected, or in his absence by the sheriff or steward's clerk, shall annex to the writ the return made by the clerk chosen by the majority of the freeholders on the roll; and if any sheriff or steward neglect or refuse to annex to the writ such return, or shall annex the return made by any other person pretending to be clerk, he shall, for every such offence, instead of the penalty inflicted by 7 G. 2. c. 16. forfeit 500*l.* sterling, to the person returned by the clerk, and chosen by the majority of the freeholders, to be recovered by him or his executors, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 17.

54. Every sheriff or steward in Scot. shall hold the Michaelmas head court on the day on which it has been most usually held, and every sheriff or steward shall, 14 days before Michaelmas next; appoint a day for holding his Michaelmas head court in the year 1743; and the days so appointed before Michaelmas next, shall be the anniversary for holding the Michaelmas head court of the said shire or stewartry, in all times coming, id. s. 18.

55. In the shire of Sutherland no person shall be elected commissioner for the said shire, or vote at such election, unless he be infeft, and in possession of lands liable to H. M.'s supplies, and other public burthens, at the rate of 200*l.* Scots valued rent, id. s. 19.

56. One person only shall be intitled to vote at such elections, or be elected, in respect of the same lands; and where lands are now holden by any baron or freeholder immediately of the king or prince, such baron or freeholder shall be capable to be elected, and shall be intitled to vote for those lands; and no vassal, or sub-vassal, of the said baron or freeholder shall have right to vote, or to be elected in respect thereof; and where lands are now holden, or shall hereafter be holden of the king or prince, by a peer or other person, or body politic, who by law are disabled to be a member of the H. of C., or to vote in such elections, the proprietor of such lands, and not any of his superiors, shall be intitled to vote or be elected, in respect of the same lands; and no alienation of the superiority by such peer, &c. shall deprive the proprietor of his right to vote in the said shire or to be elected, nor intitle the purchaser of the superiority to vote or to be elected; and the property of lands of the valuation aforesaid, holden in part of the king or prince, and in part of a peer, or other person or body politic incapable to elect or to be elected, shall be a qualification to the proprietor to vote, and to be elected for the said shire, id. s. 20.

57. The freeholders and proprietors, having right to elect or to be elected for the shire of Sutherland, shall meet at the head borough of the said shire, at the Michaelmas head court in the year 1745, and shall make up a roll of the electors having right to vote in the terms of this act, and of the other acts touching the election of commissioners for shires in Scot.; which roll, so made up, shall be revised yearly at the Michaelmas meetings, and at after elections; and the said acts shall extend to the shire of Sutherland as well as to the other shires in Scot., except so far as is otherwise provided by this act, id. s. 21.

58. At the annual election of magistrates and counsellors in boroughs, and in all the proceedings previous to such election, it shall not be lawful for the minority, either of magistrates, or counsellors, or deacons, or other persons who have votes in the election of magistrates or counsellors, to separate from the majority; nor to make any separate election of magistrates, counsellors, or electors; and if any person, elected by the minority, presume to vote in the election of magistrates or counsellors, or in letting the magistrates or counsellors, or in any other step of the election, he shall forfeit 100*l.* sterling to any one of the majority of such meeting, id. s. 22.

59. No person elected magistrate or counsellor by a minority shall act as magistrate or counsellor; and if any person notwithstanding presume to act, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit 100*l.* sterling to the magistrates or counsellors elected by the majority, or to any of them who shall sue for the same, id. s. 23.

60. It shall be lawful for any constituent member, at any meeting for election of magistrates or counsellors, or of any meeting previous thereto, who apprehends any wrong to have been done by the majority of such meeting, to apply to the court of session by a summary complaint for rectifying such abuse, or for making void the election by the majority or for ascertaining the election by the minority, so as such complaint be presented within 2 calendar months after the annual election of the magistrates and counsellors; and the said court shall thereupon grant a warrant for summoning the magistrates and counsellors elected by the majority, (upon 15 days' notice, by 14 G. 3. c. 81.) and shall hear and determine the said complaint summarily, without abiding the course of any roll, and shall allow to the party who shall prevail their costs, id. s. 24.

61. It shall be lawful to the magistrates and counsellors of royal boroughs in Scot. to take and subscribe the oath of allegiance, subscribe the assurance, and take and sign the oath of abjuration before the council of their respective boroughs, id. s. 25.

62. At every election of commissioners for choosing burgesses for any district of boroughs in Scot. the common clerk of each borough shall make out a commission to the person chosen by the major part of the magistrates and town council; which magistrates and town council shall take the oath of allegiance, and sign the same with the assurance, and shall take all the other oaths appointed to be taken at such election by this or any former act, if required; and the said clerk shall affix the common seal of the borough thereto, and sign such commission, and shall not make out a commission for any person as commissioner, other than him who is chosen by the majority; and if any common clerk of any borough neglect or refuse to make out such commission, or make out a commission to any other person, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit 500*l.* sterling to the person elected commissioner, to be recovered by him or his executors, and shall suffer imprisonment for 6 calendar months, and be disabled to hold the said office of common clerk of the said borough, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 26.

63. If any person, who is not the common clerk of the borough, take upon himself to act as such, in any election of a commissioner for choosing a burgess for any district of boroughs in Scot. and make out a commission for any other person as commissioner, other than the person chosen by the majority, and sign or affix the common seal of the borough thereto, he shall, for every such offence, forfeit 500*l.* sterling, to the commissioner for the said borough, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 27.

64. "Whereas, by an act of parliament in Scot. of the 5th of Feb. 1707, it is enacted, that, where the votes of the commissioners for the boroughs met to choose representatives shall be equal, the president of the meeting shall have a casting vote; but no provision is made in case of the absence of the commissioner from the presiding borough or of his refusing to vote," be it ENACTED, that if the commissioner from the presiding borough be absent from the meeting of commissioners for choosing burgesses to serve in parliament or refuse to vote, the commissioner from the borough which was the presiding borough at the last election, and if he also be absent or refuse to vote, the commissioner from the borough which was the presiding borough at the election immediately preceding the last, and in case he be absent or refuse to vote, the commissioner from the borough which was the last presiding but 2, shall have, besides his own vote, the casting vote, id. s. 28.

65. It is no objection to any commissioner for choosing a burgess that he is not a residenter within the borough, bearing all portable charges with his neighbours, or that he is no trafficking merchant therein, or that he is not in possession of any burgage, lands, or houses, holding of the borough, and such qualifications need not be engrossed in his commission, id. s. 29.

66. At all meetings of commissioners for choosing burgesses to serve in parliament, the common clerk of the presiding borough shall allow the votes of such persons only who produce commissions authenticated by the subscription of the common clerk, and the common seal of the respective boroughs, and shall return to the sheriff or steward the person elected by the major part of such commissioners; and if he neglect or refuse to return such persons, or return any other person, he shall, for every such offence, instead of the penalty inflicted by 7 G. 2. c. 16. forfeit 500*l.* sterling to the candidate elected by the majority, to be recovered by him or his executors; and he shall also suffer imprisonment for 6 calendar months, and be disabled to hold his said office of common clerk of the said presiding borough, id. s. 30.

67. Every sheriff or steward in Scot. shall annex to the writ the return made by the said clerk of the presiding borough; and if any such sheriff or steward neglect or refuse so to do, or if he annex to the writ any return made by any other person, he shall, for every such offence, instead of the penalty inflicted by 7 G. 2. c. 16., forfeit 500*l.* sterling, to the candidate returned by the aforesaid clerk of the presiding borough, to be recovered by him or his executors, id. s. 31.

68. If any person, to whom any commission is made as aforesaid, insist that he was duly elected commissioner for any royal borough, he shall be admitted to the meeting of the commissioners for choosing burgesses to serve in parliament, and may there make offer of taking the oaths, and declare for whom he would have voted; which oaths the clerk of the presiding borough shall administer, and shall set down in the minutes of proceedings the declaration of such person, but shall not receive him as a legal voter, or such declaration as a legal vote, id. s. 32.

69. The electors of commissioners for any royal borough in Scot. for choosing burgesses to parliament, are within the meaning of the 2 G. 2. c. 24. to be considered as the electors of the member to serve in parliament, id. s. 33.

70. At every election of commissioners for choosing burgesses for the several districts of boroughs in Scot., and at the election of a burgess to serve in parliament for the city of Edinburgh, every magistrate, town counsellor, or person having or claiming a right to vote, instead of the oath prescribed by the said act, shall take the following oath, in case the same be demanded by any of the electors; and which any of the magistrates, or, in their absence, any of the town council shall administer:

"I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan or other device whatsoever, received any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, gratuity, or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promise of any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatsoever, either by myself, or any other, to my use, or benefit, or advantage, or to the use, benefit, or advantage of the city or borough of which I am magistrate, counsellor, or burgess, in order to give my vote at this election. So help me God." id. s. 34.

71. In all elections of commissioners for choosing burgesses, and before they proceed to election, the common clerk of each borough shall take and subscribe the oath following, which any of the magistrates, or in their absence any 2 of the town council shall administer:

"I, A. B. do solemnly swear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan, or other device whatsoever, received any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promise of any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatsoever, either by myself, or any other, to my use, or benefit, or advantage, to make out any commission for a commissioner for choosing a burgess; and that I will duly make out a commission to the commissioner who shall be chosen by the majority of the town council assembled, and to no other person. So help me God." 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 35.

72. And at all meetings of the commissioners for choosing burgesses to serve in parliament, before they proceed to the election, the clerk of the presiding borough shall take and subscribe the following oath, which the commissioner for the presiding borough, or in his absence any other of the commissioners shall administer:

"I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I have not directly or indirectly by way of loan, or other device whatsoever, received any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, gratuity or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promise of any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatsoever, either by myself, or any other to my use, or benefit, or advantage, to make any return at this election of a member to serve in parliament; and that I will return to the sheriff or steward the person elected by the major part of the commissioners assembled, whose commissions are authenticated by the subscription of the common clerk, and common seal of the respective boroughs of this district. So help me God."

If the clerk of the presiding borough neglect or refuse to take the oath aforesaid, he shall be incapable to act as clerk to the said meeting; and the said commissioners shall choose another clerk, id. s. 36.

73. At all elections of a member to serve in parliament for any county or stewartry in Scot., the clerk shall after his election take and subscribe the following oath, which the preses of the meeting shall administer:

"I A. B. do solemnly swear, that I have not directly or indirectly, by way of loan, or other device whatsoever, received any sum or sums of money, office, place, or employment, gratuity, or reward, or any bond, bill, or note, or any promise of any sum or sums of money, office, place, employment, or gratuity whatsoever, by myself, or any other to my use, or advantage, to make any return at the present election of a member to serve in parliament; and that I will return to the sheriff or steward the person elected by the majority of the freeholders upon the roll made up at this election, and who shall be present, and vote at this meeting. So help me God." id. s. 37.

74. "And whereas by 2 G. 2. c. 24. s. 3. it is enacted, that every sheriff, or other returning officer shall, immediately after reading the writ or precept for the election, take and subscribe the oath contained in the said act," so much of the said act as requires the said oath to be taken by any returning officer in Scot. shall be repealed, id. s. 38.

75. If any person presume wilfully and falsely to swear and subscribe any of the oaths required to be taken by this act, and be convicted, he shall incur the pains and punishments of perjury, and be prosecuted according to the laws of Scot., id. s. 39.

76. When any new parliament shall be called, the lord chancellor shall issue writs for election of members to serve in parliament for Scot., with as much expedition as may be; and in that case, or in case of any vacancy during any parliament, the writs shall be delivered to the sheriff or steward to whom the execution thereof belongs; and every such sheriff or steward shall indorse thereon the day he received the same, and shall, within 4 days after the receipt thereof, make out a precept to each borough within his jurisdiction, to elect a commissioner for choosing a burgess to serve in parliament, and shall cause the same to be delivered to the chief magistrate of such borough resident in the borough; and in case such sheriff or steward neglect to indorse on the writ the day he received the same, or to make out his precept, and to deliver the same to the chief magistrate, he shall for every such offence forfeit 100*l.* sterling to any magistrate of the borough to which the precept is not timely delivered, who shall sue for the same, id. s. 40., and 7 G. 2. c. 16. s. 5.

77. Such chief magistrate to whom the precept shall be delivered, shall indorse thereon the day he received the same, and within 2 days shall summon the council of the borough together, by giving notice personally, or leaving notice at the dwelling place of every counsellor resident in that borough, which council shall then appoint a peremptory day for the election of a commissioner for choosing a burgess to serve in parliament, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 41.

78. Two free days shall intervene betwixt the meeting of the council which appoints the day of election of the said commissioner, and the day on which the election of the commissioner is to be made; and in case such chief magistrate neglect to indorse the day he received the precept on the back thereof, or to summon the council within the time above directed, he shall for every such offence, forfeit 100*l.* sterling, to any magistrate or counsellor of the said borough who shall sue for the same, id. s. 42.

79. Every penalty or forfeiture by this act imposed in Scot., shall be sued for and recovered by way of summary complaint before the court of session, upon 30 days' notice to the person complained of, without abiding the course of any roll; which complaint the court of session shall determine, and declare the disabilities and incapacities, and direct the imprisonments, as herein provided, 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 43.

80. No person shall be liable to any incapacity, disability, forfeiture or penalty, by this act imposed in Scot., unless prosecution be commenced within one year after such incapacity, &c. incurred, id. s. 44.

81. The court of session shall grant warrants for the service of all complaints, for redress of wrongs committed by enrolling freeholders, or in the annual elections of royal burghs, upon 15 days' notice, 14 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1.

82. In every election of a burghess for a district of boroughs in Scot., when it shall happen that the election of the magistrates and council of the borough, which ought to have been the presiding borough at such election, is reduced and not revived, the next borough intitled to preside in turn shall be the presiding borough, and the election shall be made at that borough; and the commissioner for that borough shall be the president of the meeting of commissioners for the election, and have a casting vote, besides his own as commissioner, where the votes of the commissioners are equal; and the common clerk of that borough shall be clerk to the election; and every matter concerning the election shall be proceeded in as if that borough had been the presiding borough, in the ordinary course of rotation, id. s. 2.

83. The borough which would have been the presiding borough at the election, if the election of magistrates and counsellors had not been reduced, shall, when revived by the justice and favour of the crown, have no right to be a presiding borough in the election of a burghess to serve in parliament for the district of boroughs of which it is one, until the other boroughs of the district, each in their turn, have successively provided, and that right devolves upon such borough in the ordinary course of rotation, id. s. 3.

84. TO PREVENT UNNECESSARY DELAY IN THE EXECUTION OF writs for election of M. P.s for Scot., 35 G. 3. c. 65.

85. The sheriff or steward depute or substitute of any county or stewartry in Scot. shall within 6 free days after receiving such writ, direct the notices required by law to be given as to the time and place of election for an M. P. for such county or stewartry, and the day of election so fixed, shall not be sooner than 6 free days, nor less than 15 days after its publication at the church-doors, id. s. 1. [see as to Orkney, s. 5. pl. 90.]

86. On issuing writs for election of M. P.s in Scot., the same shall be forthwith forwarded to the sheriff, or steward depute, or in their absence to the substitute of each, and the principal sheriff or steward shall not officiate, either in receiving or executing the writ, id. s. 2.

87. Every sheriff or steward depute or substitute, wilfully refusing, neglecting, or delaying to perform his duty in the above particulars, shall for every offence forfeit 500*l.* sterling, one half to the party suing, and the other to H. M., to be recovered as in 16 G. 2. c. 11. s. 43. pl. 79. id. s. 3.

88. Every sheriff, steward, or person other than the sheriff or steward depute or substitute of each, who shall presume in any respect to interfere, or take on himself the execution of writs for election of M. P.s for Scot., shall forfeit for every offence 1000*l.* sterling, recoverable as in last pl., id. s. 4.

89. Every action for any offence against this act shall be commenced within 12 months after the commission of the offence, or after the conclusion of any proceedings in the House of Commons touching the election, id. s. 4.

90. The writ for election of an M. P. for the stewartry of Orkney and Zetland, shall be published at Kirkwall, and the 12 parish churches in Pomona, or the mainland of Orkney only, id. s. 5.

91. No person (viz. revenue officers) RENDERED INCAPABLE OF voting in elections of M. P.s by 22 G. 3. c. 41. PARLIAMENT, pl. 202., shall be capable of voting at any election for the choice of a preses, or clerk to the freeholders of any county in Scot., nor relative to the adjustment of the poll of such freeholders, nor at any other meetings of the freeholders soever; and any vote given by such person during his being in office, or in one twelvemonth after his ceasing to hold the same, shall be void, and the offender is liable to 100*l.* penalty, payable in moieties to the informer and to the clerk of the justices, recoverable as in 22 G. 3. c. 41. s. 1, id. pl. 203. directed with regard to the penalties of that act incurred in Scot., and shall be disabled to hold office under the crown, 37 G. 3. c. 138. s. 1.

92. Any freeholder may put the oath of trust and possession to any person offering to vote in the election of preses and clerk at an election for a M. P. for any county, id. s. 2.

93. Prosecutions for penalties incurred under this act, must be commenced in 12 months after incurred, id. s. 5.

SCOTLAND (PENSIONS).

1. TO LIMIT THE AMOUNT OF PENSIONS TO BE GRANTED out of the civil list of Scot., 50 G. 3. c. 111. [AMD. 1 G. 4. c. 1. s. 9.]

2. No pension exceeding 300*l.* per ann. shall be granted out of the civil list of Scot. to or for the use of any one person, and the whole amount granted from such list in any one year shall not exceed 800*l.* a list of which, with the names of the grantees, shall be laid before parliament in 21 days after beginning of each session, till the list is reduced to 2500*l.*, which sum shall not be exceeded in the whole of the grant, nor shall any pension to be granted after such reduction, to or for the use of any one person, exceed 600*l.*, except to one of the royal family, or on address of either house of parliament, 50 G. 3. c. 111. s. 1.

3. All monies remaining after payment of the pensions and charges payable out of the civil list of Scot. shall be carried to the [English civil list, id. s. 2. altered as follows.] consolidated fund of U. K. during the life of G. 4., 1 G. 4. c. 1. s. 9.

4. Nothing in this act shall prevent H. M. from making grants, (except pensions) for civil purposes in Scot. out of the Scotch civil list revenues, as heretofore used, 50 G. 3. c. 111. s. 3.

SCOTLAND (PORTS AND HARBOURS).

1. H. M. may, from time to time, by commissions of Scotch exchequer, assign further ports, members, and creeks in Scot. for landing or shipping goods, and to what ancient and head ports such places shall appertain, and the customer, collector, controller, and searcher shall by themselves, their deputies, or servants, reside, for the clearing of ships and goods, and may, by virtue of the said commissions, appoint the extents and limits of every port, haven, or creek in Scot., 6 A. c. 26. s. 18. [rest of this statute relates to SCOTLAND (EXCHEQUER).]

SCOTLAND (UNION).

(STATUTES expired and repealed.)

1. FOR AUTHORIZING CERTAIN COMMISSIONERS OF Eng. TO TREAT WITH COMMISSIONERS OF Scot. for the weal of both kingdoms, 1 J. 1. c. 2. [EXPL. 3 J. 1. c. 3. BOTH EXP.]

2. ANOTHER ACT FOR THE SAME PURPOSE, 22 C. 2. c. 9. [EXP.]

3. FOR ENABLING QUEEN Anne to appoint commissioners to treat for an union between the kingdoms of Eng. and Scot., 1 A. St. 1. c. 14. [This act and 3 & 4 A. c. 7., though virtually EXP., are inserted shortly on account of the importance of the measure.]

4. Commissions appointed by H. M. may treat with Scotch commissioners concerning an union, and shall reduce their proceedings into writings quadrupartite: one part to be presented to H. M., two offered to English, and one to Scotch parliaments, for their consideration thereof, for the weal and common good of both kingdoms, 1 A. St. 1. c. 14. s. 1., and no act of commissioners shall be of any effect till confirmed by parliament of Eng., id. s. 2.

5. FOR EFFECTUALLY SECURING Eng. FROM THE APPARENT DANGERS that may arise from several acts lately passed in the parliament of Scot. 3 & 4 A. c. 7. [virtually EXP. and ss. 4—10. REP. 4 A. c. 3. s. 10.]

6. H. M. shall appoint commissioners to treat of an union, id. s. 1.; proceedings to be reduced into writings quadrupartite, and the commission shall not commence till an act of Scotch parliament be made, empowering H. M. to grant such commission under the Scotch great seal, id. s. 2. no act of the commissioners valid till confirmed by parliament of Eng., id. s. 3. commissioners shall treat of any alteration in the liturgy or church government, id. s. 12.

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR UTTER ABOLITION OF ALL MEMORY of hostility between Eng. and Scot. and for repressing occasions of discords, and disorders in time to come, 4 J. 1. c. 1. ss. 1—22. [CON. 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 22. s. 8.]

2. The following statutes are REP.; viz. 5 R. 2. St. 1. c. 2. by s. 96., 4 H. 5. c. 7. (s. 3.) by s. 1., 35 H. 8. c. 6. (s. 23.) by s. 2., 7 R. 2. c. 16. by s. 3., 1 H. 6. c. 3. by s. 4., 7 H. 7. c. 7. by s. 5., 23 H. 8. c. 16. and 1 El. c. 7. by s. 6., 2 & 3 P. & M. c. 1. by s. 7., and 25 El. c. 4. by s. 8. but such repeal shall not take place till certain Scotch statutes recited in ss. 9—21. are REP. by the Scotch parliament, 4 J. 1. c. 1. s. 9—21.

3. FOR THE UNION OF THE TWO KINGDOMS OF Eng. and Scot., 5 & 6 A. c. 8. [AMD. 6 A. c. 6. s. 1. 8 A. c. 16. ss. 3—5.]

4. The articles of union approved of by the parliaments of Eng. and Scot. are:—

Art. 1. "The two kingdoms of Eng. and Scot. shall, upon May 1707, and for ever after, be united into one kingdom by the name of G. B.; and the ensigns armorial of the U. K. shall be such as H. M. shall appoint, and the crosses of St. George and St. Andrew shall be conjoined in such manner as H. M. shall think fit."

5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 2. "The succession to the monarchy of G. B. in default of issue of H. M., shall be to the most excellent princess Sophia, electress and duchess dowager of Hanover, and the heirs of her body, being protestants; and all papists, and persons marrying papists, shall be excluded from the imperial crown of G. B.; and, in every case, the crown shall descend to such person, being a protestant, as should have inherited the same, in case such papist, or person marrying a papist, was naturally dead, according to the provision for the descent of the crown of Eng. by 1 W. & M. S. 2. c. 2."

Art. 3. "The U. K. shall be represented by one parliament, to be styled "The parliament of G. B.;" [altered to "The parliament of the U. K. of G. B. and Ire." 39 & 40 G. 3. c. 68. Art. 3.]"

Art. 4. "All the subjects of the U. K. shall have full freedom of trade and navigation to any port within the U. K. and the dominions thereunto belonging; and there shall be a communication of all other rights which belong to the subjects of either kingdom, except where it is otherwise agreed in these articles."

Art. 5. "All ships belonging to H. M.'s subjects of Scot., at the time of ratifying the treaty of union in the parliament of Scot., though foreign built, shall pass as ships of the built of G. B.; the owners, within 12 months after the first of May next, making oath, that at the time of ratifying the treaty of union in the parliament of Scot., the same did, in whole or in part, belong to them, or to other subjects of Scot., to be particularly named, with the place of their abodes; and that the same doth at the time of the deposition wholly belong to them; and that no foreigner hath any interest therein; which oath shall be made before the chief officers of the customs in the port next to the abode of the owners; and the oath shall be attested by the officer who administered the same; and being registered, shall be delivered to the master of the ship; and a duplicate thereof shall be transmitted to the chief officers of the customs in the port of Edinburgh, and from thence sent to the port of London, to be entered in the general register."

Art. 6. "All parts of the U. K. shall have the same encouragements and drawbacks, and be under the same regulations of trade, and liable to the same customs; and the allowances, drawbacks, and regulations of trade, and the duties on import and export settled in Eng., shall take place through the whole U. K., excepting the duties upon export and import of such particular commodities, from which any persons are specially exempted by their private rights; and no Scots cattle carried into Eng. shall be liable to any other duties, than those to which the cattle of Eng. are; and when oats shall be sold at 15s. per quarter, or under, there shall be paid 2s. 6d. for every quarter of oatmeal exported, so long as rewards are granted for exportation of other grains, and the bear of Scot. shall have the same rewards as barley; and the prohibition by the law of Scot. against importation of victuals from Ire. or any other place beyond sea into Scot., shall remain, until more effectual ways be provided by the parliament of G. B."

Art. 7. "All parts of the U. K. shall be liable to the same excises upon liquors, excepting only that the 34 gallons, English barrel of beer or ale, amounting to 12 gallons Scots present measure, sold in Scot. by the brewer at 9s. 6d. excluding all duties, and retailed, including duties and the retailer's profit, at 2d. the Scots pint, be not liable on account of the present excise in Eng. to any higher imposition than 2s." [Price of ale in Scot. ascertained, 12 G. 1. c. 4. s. 62.]

Art. 8. "Foreign salt imported into Scot. shall be charged with the same duties as the like salt is now charged with being imported into Eng.; but all foreign salt imported into Scot. shall be cellared under the custody of the merchants and the officers, and the merchant may have what quantity his occasion may require, not under a weigh at a time, giving security for the duty, payable in 6 months. Scot. from the expiration of 7 years, shall be subject to the same duties for salt made in Scot. as shall be then payable for salt made in Eng., with this exception, that Scot. shall remain exempted from the duty of 2s. 4d. a bushel on home salt, imposed by an act made in Eng., 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 44., and if the parliament of G. B. shall substitute any other fund in place of the said 2s. 4d. on the bushel of home salt, Scot. shall, after the 7 years, bear a proportion of the said fund, and have an equivalent in the terms of this treaty, [additional salt duties now payable.] And after the 7 years, as long as the said duty of 2s. 4d. a bushel upon salt is continued in Eng., the said 2s. 4d. a bushel shall be payable for all salt made in Scot. and imported into Eng.; and during the continuance of the 2s. 4d. a bushel, no salt shall be brought from Scot. to Eng. by land, under the penalty of forfeiting the salt and the cattle and carriages made use of in bringing the same, and 20s. for every bushel, for which the carrier as well as the owner shall be liable, and the persons carrying the same to be imprisoned by any justice of peace 6 months, and until the penalty be paid. [Every person, residing in any county in Eng. near the borders of Scot. in whose custody any salt brought from Scot. shall be found, shall be liable to the same penalties as if he was the carrier or owner thereof; unless he make it appear upon the trial, or hearing of any information, that it came by sea, and that the duties had been paid or secured, 25 G. 3. c. 63. s. 4.] and all flesh exported from Scot. to Eng. and put on board in Scot. to be exported beyond the seas, and provisions for ships in Scot. and for foreign voyages, may be salted with Scots salt, paying the same duty for what salt is so employed as the like quantity of such salt pays in Eng., and under the same penalties and provisions; and the laws in Scot. for pining, curing, and packing of herrings, white fish, and salmon for exportation, with foreign salt only, without any mixture of British or Irish salt, and for preventing of frauds in curing and packing of fish, shall be continued in Scot., subject to such alterations as shall be made by the parliament of G. B. [Reduced to 1s. 6d. per barrel, 3 G. 2. c. 20. s. 16. REVIVED, 5 G. 2. c. 6. MADE PERF. 26 G. 3. c. 3. REF. 38 G. 3. c. 89.] and all fish exported from Scot. beyond the seas, which shall be cured with foreign salt only, shall have the same premiums and drawbacks as shall be allowed to such as export the like fish from Eng.; and there shall be paid to the subjects of G. B., during the present allowances for other fish, 10s. 5d. for every barrel of white herrings exported from Scot.; and there shall be allowed 5s. for every barrel of beef or pork salted with foreign salt, without mixture of British or Irish salt, and exported for sale from Scot. to parts beyond the seas, alterable by the parliament of G. B.; and if any matters of fraud relating to the said duties on salt shall hereafter appear, the same shall be subject to such further provisions as shall be thought fit by the parliament of G. B."

5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 9. "Whenever the sum of 1,997,763*l.* 8s. 4*d.* shall be enacted by the parliament of G. B. to be raised in Eng. by a land-tax, Scot. shall be charged by the same act with a further sum of 48,000*l.* free of all charges, and so proportionably; and such quota for Scot. shall be raised in the same manner as the cess now is in Scot., but subject to such regulations in the manner of collecting as shall be made by the parliament of G. B." [see LAND-TAX.]

Articles 10—13. seem EXP.

Art. 14. "Scot. shall not be charged with any other duties laid on by the parliament of Eng. before the union, except those consented to in this treaty; provided that if the parliament of Eng. shall lay any further impositions by way of customs, or such excises with which by this treaty Scot. is charged equally with Eng., Scot. shall be liable to the same, and have an equivalent to be settled by the parliament of G. B., with this further provision, that any malt to be made and consumed in Scot., shall not be charged with any imposition on malt, during this war. And there shall be no further exemption insisted upon for any part of the U. K."

Art. 15. "Scot. shall have an equivalent for what the subjects thereof shall be charged towards payment of the debts of Eng., in the manner following, viz. before the union the sum of 398,085*l.* 10s. shall be granted by the parliament of Eng. for the equivalent to Scot., for such parts of the customs and excises with which that kingdom is to be charged, as will be applicable to the payment of the debts of Eng., according to the proportions which the present customs in Scot., being 30,000*l.* per annum, bear to the customs of Eng., computed at 1,541,559*l.* per annum; and which the present excises on liquors in Scot., being 33,500*l.* per annum, bear to the excises of liquors in Eng., computed at 947,602*l.* per annum; which sum of 398,085*l.* 10s. shall be due from the time of the union. And after the union there shall be an account kept of the said duties arising in Scot., to the end it may appear what ought to be answered to Scot. as an equivalent for such proportion of the increase as shall be applicable to the payment of the debts of Eng. And the whole encroachment of the customs and excises in Scot., over and above the annual produce above stated, shall be applied for 7 years to the use hereafter mentioned; and there shall be answerable to Scot. annually from the end of 7 years after the union, an equivalent in proportion to such part of the said increase, as shall be applicable to the debts of Eng., and generally an equivalent shall be answered to Scot. for such parts of the English debts as Scot. may become liable to pay by reason of the union. And as for the uses to which the said sum of 398,085*l.* 10s., and all other monies to be answered to Scot. as aforesaid, are to be applied, in the first place, out of the aforesaid sum, what consideration shall be necessary to be had for any losses which private persons may sustain by reducing the coin of Scot. to the standard of the coin of Eng., may be made good; in the next place, the capital stock or fund of the African and Indian company of Scot., with interest of 5 per cent. from the time of the payment thereof, shall be paid, upon which the said company shall be dissolved; and the overplus of the said sum of 398,085*l.* 10s., and also the whole increase of customs and excises during the term of 7 years, together with the equivalent which shall become due upon the improvement thereof in Scot. after the said term, and all other sums, which, according to the agreements aforesaid, may become payable to Scot. by way of equivalent, for what that kingdom shall become liable towards payment of the debts of Eng.; the same shall be applied in manner following; viz. all the public debts of Scot., as shall be adjusted by this present parliament, shall be paid; and 2000*l.* per annum for 7 years shall be applied towards encouraging the manufacture of coarse wool within those shires which produce the wool; and the first 2000*l.* shall be paid at Martmas next; and afterwards the same shall be wholly applied towards encouraging the fisheries, and such other manufactures and improvements in Scot. as may most conduce to the general good of the U. K. And after H. M. shall be impowered to appoint commissioners, who shall be accountable to the parliament of G. B., for disposing the said sum of 398,085*l.* 10*s.*, and all other monies which shall arise to Scot., upon the agreements aforesaid; and the collectors of the said revenues shall give to the said commissioners authentic abbreviations of the produce of such revenues; and the said commissioners shall have their office within Scot., and shall keep account of the amount of the equivalents, and how the same shall be disposed of, which may be inspected by any of the subjects."

5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 16. "The coin shall be of the same standard throughout U. K. as now in Eng., and a mint shall be continued in Scot., under the same rules as the mint in Eng., and the present officers of the mint continued, subject to such alterations as H. M. or parliament of G. B. shall think fit."

Art. 17. "The same weights and measures shall be used throughout U. K. as are now established in Eng.; and standards of weights and measures shall be kept by those burghs in Scot. to whom the keeping the standards of weights and measures does of special right belong: all which standards shall be sent down to such burghs, from the standards kept in the exchequer at Westminster, subject to such regulations as the parliament of G. B. shall think fit."

Art. 18. "The laws concerning regulation of trade, customs, and such excises to which Scot. is by this treaty to be liable, shall be the same in Scot. as in Eng., and all other laws in use within Scot. shall, after the union, and notwithstanding thereof, remain in force, (except such as are inconsistent with this treaty,) but alterable by the parliament of G. B.; with this difference betwixt the laws concerning public right, policy, and civil government, and those which concern private right, that the laws which concern public right, policy, and civil government may be made throughout the whole U. K.; but that no alteration be made in laws which concern private right, except for evident utility of the subjects within Scot."

Art. 19. "The court of session, or college of justice, shall, after the union, and notwithstanding thereof, remain in all time coming within Scot., as it is now constituted, and with the same authority; subject nevertheless to such regulations for the better administration of justice as shall be made by the parliament of G. B.; and none shall be named by H. M., to be ordinary lords of session, but such who have served in the college of justice as advocates, or principal clerks of session, for 5 years, or as writers to the signet for 10 years; with this provision, that no writer to the signet be capable to be admitted a lord of the session, unless he undergo a private and public trial on the civil law before the faculty of advocates, and be found qualified for the office, 2 years before he be named a lord of the session; yet so as the qualifications for capacitating persons to be named ordinary lords of session may be altered by the parliament of G. B. And the court of judiciary shall also after the union, and notwithstanding thereof, remain in all time coming within Scot., as it is now constituted, and with the same authority, subject to such regulations as shall be made by the parliament of G. B., and without prejudice of other rights of judiciary; and all admiralty jurisdictions shall be under the lord high admiral, or commissioners for the admiralty of G. B.; and the court of admiralty now established in Scot. shall be continued, and all reviews, reductions, or suspensions of the sentences, in maritime cases, competent to the jurisdiction of that court, shall remain in the same manner as now in Scot., until the parliament of G. B. shall make such regulations as shall be judged expedient for the whole U. K.; so as there be always continued in Scot. a court of admiralty, such as in Eng., for determination of all maritime cases relating to private rights in Scot., competent to the jurisdiction of the admiralty court, subject nevertheless to such alterations as shall be made by the parliament of G. B.; and the heretable rights of admiralty and vico-admiralties of Scot. shall be reserved to the proprietors as rights of property, subject nevertheless, as to the manner of exercising such rights, to such regulations as shall be thought proper by the parliament of G. B.; and all other courts now in Scot. shall remain, but subject to alterations by the parliament of G. B.; and all inferior courts within the said limits shall remain subordinate to the supreme courts of justice within the same; and no causes in Scot. shall be cognoscible by the courts of chancery, K. B., or C. P., or other court in Westminster-hall; and the said courts, or any other of the like nature, shall have no power to cognosce, review, or alter the acts or sentences of the judicatures within Scot., or stop the execution of the same; and there shall be a court of exchequer in Scot. for deciding questions concerning the revenues of customs and excises there, having the same power in such cases as the court of exchequer has in Eng., and the said exchequer in Scot. shall have power of signatures, gifts, tutories, and in other things, as exchequer at present in Scot. hath; and the exchequer now in Scot. shall remain, till a new court of exchequer be settled by the parliament of G. B. in Scot. [now established, 6 A. c. 26. s. 1.] and H. M. may continue a privy council in Scot., for preserving of public peace and order, until the parliament of G. B. shall think fit to establish any other method." [This is now done, 6 A. c. 6. s. 1., PRIVY COUNCIL, pl. 2.]

5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 20. "All heretable offices, superiorities, heretable jurisdictions, offices for life, and jurisdictions for life, shall be reserved to the owners thereof, as rights of property."

Art. 21. "The rights and privileges of the royal burghs in Scot. shall remain entire after the union, and notwithstanding thereof." [See Articles 22—23, this title, (PARLIAMENT, PEERS), pl. 1—2.; and ss. 6—7. of Art. 25. same tit. COMMONS, pl. 1.]

Art. 24. "There shall be one great seal for the U. K. of G. B.; and the quartering the arms, and the rank of the lyon king of arms of Scot. shall be left to H. M.; and the great seal of U. K. shall be used for sealing writs to summon the parliament of G. B., and for sealing all treaties with foreign states, and all public acts of state which concern the kingdom, and in other matters relating to Eng., as the great seal of Eng. is now used; and a seal in Scot. shall be kept and made use of in all things relating to private rights or grants, which have usually passed the great seal of Scot., and which only concern offices, grants, commissions, and private rights, within that kingdom; and the privy seal, signet, casset, signet of the justiciary court, quarter seal, and seals of courts now used in Scot., shall be continued, but adapted to the state of the union, as H. M. shall think fit; and the said seals shall be subject to such regulations as the parliament of G. B. shall make; and the crown, sceptre, and the sword of state, the records of parliament, and all other records, rolls, and registers, both public and private, shall continue to be kept, as they are within Scot. in all time coming."

Art. 25. "All laws, in either kingdom, so far as they are inconsistent with these articles shall become void, and shall be so declared to be by the respective parliaments."

5. The act for securing the protestant religion and presbyterian church government within Scot. is as follows: "H. M., with advice and consent of the estates of parliament, doth establish and confirm the true protestant religion, and the worship, discipline, and government of this church, to continue without any alteration to the people of this land, in all generations, and more especially the 5th act of the first parliament of king William and queen Mary, intituled Act ratifying the confession of faith, and settling presbyterian church government, with all other acts of parliament relating thereto; and declares, that the foresaid true protestant religion, contained in the confession of faith, with the form and purity of worship in use within this church; and its presbyterian church government and discipline, by kirk-sessions, presbyteries, provinces, synods, and general assemblies, shall remain unalterable, and that the said presbyterian government shall be only government of the church of Scot.," id. s. 5.

6. "The universities and colleges of St. Andrews, Glasgow, Aberdeen, and Edinburgh, as established by law, shall continue for ever; and no professors, principals, regents, masters, or others, bearing office in any university, college, or school, within this kingdom, shall be admitted to their functions, but such as shall acknowledge the civil government in manner prescribed by acts of parliament; as also at their admissions shall profess, and shall subscribe to the aforesaid confession of faith, and that they will conform themselves to the worship in use in this church, and submit themselves to the government and discipline thereof, and never endeavour the prejudice or subversion of the same, and that before the respective presbyteries of their bounds. None of the subjects of this kingdom shall be liable to any oath, test, or subscription, within this kingdom, inconsistent with the foresaid true protestant religion, and presbyterian church government worship and discipline; and after the decease of H. M. the sovereign, succeeding in the royal government of the kingdom of G. B., in all time coming at his accession to the crown, shall swear and subscribe, that they shall inviolably maintain and preserve the aforesaid settlement of the true protestant religion, with the government, worship, discipline, right, and privileges of this church. This act shall be a fundamental and essential condition of union betwixt the 2 kingdoms, and shall be inserted in any act of parliament for concluding the union; nevertheless, the parliament of Eng. may provide for the security of the church of Eng., as they think expedient, to take place within the bounds of Eng., and not derogating from the security above provided for the church of Scot.; as also the parliament of Eng., may extend the provisions contained in the articles of union in favour of the subjects of Scot. to those of Eng.; all laws in this kingdom, so far as they are inconsistent with the articles, shall after the union become void." 5 & 6 A. c. 8. ss. 1—6.

7. The act "for securing the church of Eng., as by law established," viz. 5 & 6 A. c. 5., (see SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS) is also inserted, id. s. 7—9.

8. The said articles of union, and also the said act of parliament of Scot., for establishing the protestant religion and presbyterian church government within that kingdom, shall be for ever confirmed, id. s. 10.

9. The said act for securing the church of Eng., as by law established; and also that of Scot., for securing the protestant religion and presbyterian church government, shall for ever be observed as fundamental and essential conditions of the union, 5 & 6 A. c. 8. s. 11.

SEA MARKS.

1. TOUCHING SEA MARKS, 8 El. c. 13. and recital in s. 1. (see s. 5. WATERMEN), [EXTD. to vessels duly appointed to exhibit lights, 59 G. 3. c. 39. s. 67, 68., PILOTAGE, pl. 69, 70.]

2. The master, wardens, and assistants of the Trinity House at Deptford Strond, being a company incorporate, may, by virtue of this act, at their will and costs, erect and set up so many beacons, marks, and signs, for the sea, in such places of the sea shores and uplands near the sea coasts or forelands of the sea only, for sea marks, as to them seem meet, whereby ships may come to their ports without peril, 8 El. c. 13. s. 2.

3. Such beacons, marks, and signs, so to be erected, shall be maintained at the costs of such master, &c., id. s. 3.

4. No steeples, trees, or other things, now standing as beacons or marks for the sea, whereof notice shall be given to the owner or occupier, before 1st Mar. next coming, by H. M.'s letters under her signet, shall be taken down or felled, on pain, that the persons by whose procurement such offence is committed, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to go, one moiety to H. M., and the other to such master, &c.; and if the person so offending has not 100*l.*, he shall be deemed convict of outlawry, ipso facto, id. s. 4.

CLYDE LIGHTHOUSE.

5. FOR ERECTING, MAINTAINING, AND SUPPORTING A LIGHT-HOUSE on the island of Little Cumray, in the county of Bute, at the mouth of the river Clyde, in North Britain; and for rendering the navigation in the frith and river Clyde more safe and commodious, 29 G. 2. c. 20., PUBLIC clause, s. 19.

6. Power given to the earl of Eglintoun, to grant a free-charter of the land in the island of Little Cumray, for erecting a light-house; and the said earl shall not thereby incur any of irritances contained in his strict tailzie, (id. s. 1.), a fee-duty to be paid for the same, id. s. 2.

7. The lands whereon such light-house is to be erected, shall be vested in the earl of Eglintoun and his heirs, in lordship of Eglintoun; lord Cathcart and his heirs; John Stewart Shaw and his heirs; the provost, bailies, dean of Guild, and convener of the city of Glasgow, for the time being, and their immediate predecessors; the 2 bailies of the town of Greenock, and the bailie of the port of Glasgow for the time being, who shall be commissioners for executing this act, (s. 3.); and 7 of them shall appoint officers, (s. 4.), and erect the light-house, id. ss. 3—5.

8. When such light-house is finished, such commissioners may demand and take of all masters, and owners of every ship or vessel, bound outwards on any foreign voyage, from the frith or river of Clyde, and passing such light, one PENNY per ton; and also one PENNY per ton of such vessels as pass inwards from any foreign voyage to the north of such light-house, whether they pass by the middle passage betwixt the islands of Little Cumray and Bute, or by the east side of Little Cumray, or between the islands of Bute and Arran; and whether such vessels do discharge in any port or harbour in the frith and river Clyde or not; and two-pence inwards and outwards per ton, of every foreign vessel, for each time of passing such light-house in such manner; and from the masters and owners of all vessels of 30 tons or upwards, trading to or from any part of G. B. or Ire., without proceeding to or coming from any other place or county, ONE HALFPENNY per ton, for each time of so passing such light-house; and from the masters and owners of all small vessels above 15 tons and under 30, that shall pass such light-house, so trading, TWO-PENCE per ton, for each year they pass such light-house, to be reckoned from the 24th June; and to be paid for the current year, before the clearing out of any of the harbours, ports, &c. in such frith or river of Clyde, id. s. 6.

9. Annual rent of 2*l.* shall be paid to the earl of Eglintoun, (s. 7.); and in case of non-payment, a fine of 2*l.*, besides the rent, (s. 8.); the commissioners shall keep minutes of their proceedings, and accounts of their receipts and disbursements, (s. 9.); and may borrow money at 5 per cent., not exceeding 500*l.*, by mortgage of such duties, id. ss. 7—10.

10. No officer of customs, at any port, harbour, or place, in the frith and river of Clyde, shall receive any entry, cocquet, or other discharge or clearance, or take any report outwards, from any vessel foreign or British, liable to such duties, until the same be paid; or until the master or owner of such vessel shall produce a receipt for the same, id. s. 11.

11. In case such master or owner shall refuse to pay such duties such commissioners, or the collector appointed by them, may seize, preferable to, and notwithstanding of any right of hypothecation, attachment, arrestment, or other right, any goods, gun, tackle, &c. belonging to such vessel, and detain the same, till such duties are paid; and if they are not paid within 3 days after such seizure, such commissioners or collectors may cause the same to be appraised by 2 persons, and sell the same, and satisfy such duties, and the charges of seizure, &c. as ascertained by the oath of the seizer, rendering the overplus to such master, &c., 29 G. 2. c. 30. s. 12.

12. H. M.'s ships, vessels, and wherries, employed in his service, shall be exempt from such duties, id. s. 13.

13. Such light-house and other buildings shall be vested in such commissioners, who shall keep the same in repair and proper light therein during night; how the money arising under this act shall s. 14.

14. All actions for recovery of such duties, may be brought in any court competent to civil actions in Scot.; and the same shall be heard and determined in a summary way; and the judges of such courts may immediately issue their decrees thereon, with double costs, id. s. 15.

15. In actions against any commissioners or other person for any thing done under this act, the defendants may produce this act, and plead that the same was done under this act; and if it so appear, the defendant shall be absolved from such action, and have double costs, id. s. 16.

16. Notice shall be given of the meetings of such commissioners, (s. 17.) and all sheriffs and justices, judges, and magistrates, with their officers, messengers at arms, and other executors of the law, shall assist in the execution of this act, id. s. 18.

EDYSTONE LIGHTHOUSE.

17. FOR THE BETTER ENABLING THE MASTERS, WARDENS, AND assistants of the Trinity House, to rebuild the light-house on the Edystone rock, 4 & 5 A. c. 20.; PUBLIC clause, s. 4. [EXPL. and AMD. 8 A. c. 17.]

18. From the kindling or placing of light in such light-house, there shall be paid to the master warden and assistants of Trinity House, Deptford Strond, by the masters and owners of all English ships, hoys, and barks, which pass such light-house, except coasters, the duty of 1*d.* per ton outward and inward bound, viz. of the merchant, one moiety, and of the owner of the ship the other, and all such stranger or alien ships and vessels as shall pass such light-house or beacon, 2*d.* per ton burden of such vessel, and every coaster passing such light-house shall pay 2*s.* for each time of passing, such duties to be collected by such persons as such master wardens, &c. shall appoint in such port, whence such ship, &c. shall set forth or arrive before they load or unload the goods therein; such duties to be recovered by action of debt, in any court of record at Westminster, wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, 4 & 5 A. c. 20.

19. The duties by 4 & 5 A. c. 20. given, shall be paid for every ship, hoy, or bark, as well those belonging to H. M.'s subjects, as those belonging to strangers, which shall pass such light-house, from or to any port whatever, and shall be collected of the master of such ship, &c. in any port of G. B. or Ire. and be recovered in any court of record in such kingdoms, 8 A. c. 17. s. 1.

20. No officer of customs within G. B. or Ire. shall give or make out any cocquet or other discharge, or take any report outwards for any ship, hoy, &c. until such duties are paid, or that such master of such ship, &c. produce an acquittance or light bill, under the hand of the collector, testifying the receipt thereof, id. s. 2.

21. Every collector deputed by such master wardens, &c. may go on board any foreign ship, &c. to demand and receive such duties, and for nonpayment thereof may distrain the tackle, &c. of such ship, &c. and detain the same till such duties are paid; and in case they are not paid for 3 days after any distress, he may cause the same to be appraised by two persons, and then sell the same, and therewith satisfy such duties, rendering to the master the overplus, id. s. 3.

SKERRIES LIGHTHOUSE.

22. FOR CONFIRMING A PATENT GRANTED BY QUEEN ANNE TO William Trench, esq. deceased, for erecting a light-house upon the island or rock called Skerries, and for the maintenance of such light-house, and for making the duties granted for maintaining the same perpetual, 3 G. 2. c. 36. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 13.

23. Recital of letters patent from Queen Anne, granting certain duties to William Trench, in consideration of his erecting a light-house on the Skerries rock, in Anglesea, id. s. 1. such letters patent confirmed, and the same to continue for ever, subject nevertheless to the proviso in such letters contained, and to the trusts hereinafter mentioned, and the same shall be fully vested in Sutton Morgan, the son-in-law of Trench, id. s. 2.

24. Sutton Morgan, and his heirs and assigns, may demand and take from the masters and owners of every ship, hoy, bark, crayer, catch, vessel or bottom, passing, crossing, or sailing in or through St. George's Channel, by Holyhead, or Wicklow, to or from any foreign port or place, or which shall pass or cross such channel to or from any port, creek, or place in G. B. south of Holyhead, from or to Wicklow, or any port, &c. north thereof in Ire., or that shall pass, cross, or sail from any port, &c. north of Holyhead, either from any foreign or other port, and sail between Holyhead, and the Calf of Man, or any way in George's Channel, to the south of Dublin, and likewise from all coasters passing to or from any port, creek, or place in G. B. north of Holyhead, from or to any other port, &c. south thereof, 1*d.* per ton, coming into or going out of such ports, creeks, places, or harbours in G. B. or Ire., and double such sum for any foreign vessel so passing, crossing, or sailing, according to their burdens, 3 G. 2. c. 36. s. 3.

25. Vessels laden with coals in G. B. north of Liverpool, for Ire., or the greatest part of their loading being coals, so passing or crossing from G. B. to Ire., shall pay only for one such voyage and back again in each year, notwithstanding they make several such voyages in the coal trade, the same to be paid for the first voyage yearly, after 24th June, 1730, before clearing out at the custom-house; such duties to be levied as by such letters patent, or this act (s. 6.) directed, id. s. 4.

26. The post-master-general shall pay to Sutton Morgan, or his heirs, &c. 50*l.* per ann. without office fees or deduction, for the use of such light-house, by the mail packets, id. s. 5.

27. If the owner or master of any vessel charged with such duties shall refuse to pay the same, Sutton Morgan, or his heirs, assigns, or deputy, may seize and detain any of the goods, guns, tackle, &c. belonging to any of the masters or owners of such ship, hoy, &c. until such duties be paid, and if they are not paid within 3 days after such seizure, Sutton Morgan, or his receiver, may cause the same to be appraised by 2 sworn appraisers, and sell the same, and therewith satisfy such duties, and the charges for such seizure, &c. rendering the over-plus to such master, id. s. 6.

28. H. M.'s vessels of war shall not be chargeable with such duties, id. s. 7.

29. In case of suits for any thing done under this act, the action shall be laid in the county where the act was done, whether in G. B. or Ire. and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought in the wrong county, the jury shall find for the defendants, and on such verdict, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment on demurrer against him, the defendant shall have full costs, with the usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 9.

30. The quit rent reserved by such letters patents, discharged (id. s. 8.) Sutton Morgan, and his heirs and assigns shall keep such light-house in repair, and lights constantly burning in the same during the night, (id. s. 10.) money may be borrowed on the security of such duties, (id. s. 11.) John Robinson's rights in such rock saved, id. s. 12.

THE SMALLS LIGHTHOUSES.

31. TO ENABLE THE CORPORATION OF Trinity House, of Deptford Strond, to establish and maintain a light-house on the rocks called the Smalls, in St. George's Channel, 18 G. 3. c. 42.

32. After placing a light for the benefit of shipping, in a light-house, on one of the rocks called The Smalls, there shall be paid to the master wardens and assistants of Trinity House, of Deptford Strond, for every British or Irish ship or other vessel, (except H. M.'s vessels of war) which shall pass to, from, by, or near such rock, or between Cape Clear, in Ire., and Land's End, in Cornwall, and so up the Bristol Channel, eastward of the Isle of Lundy, or to Milford Haven, or Linney Point, in Pembrokeshire, or such rocks of The Smalls, in any direction within 12 leagues of such light, the following duties, viz. for every such British or Irish vessel, except as before excepted, bound to or from any port or place in G. B. or Ire. from or to any foreign port or place, (such kingdoms not to be deemed foreign with respect to ships bound only from one to the other) the duty of 1*d.* for each ton burthen of such vessel for every such passage. For every ship or vessel of aliens bound to or from any port or place of such kingdoms, or from one foreign port to another, a duty of 2*d.* for each ton for every such passage. And for every British or Irish ship or vessel bound coastwise from one port to another in either of such kingdoms, or from any port in one, to any port in another of such kingdoms, and returning without making any foreign voyage, the duty of one half-penny per ton for every such passage; such duties to be paid by the masters of such vessels to such persons as such master, warden, &c. shall appoint in such port of either of such kingdoms, whence such ship shall sail, or where it shall arrive before the loading or unloading thereof; all which tolls may be recovered by action of debt in any court of record in G. B. or Ire., wherein no essoin, &c. and only one imparlance allowed, id. s. 1.

33. No officer of customs, or clerks at any port, harbour, &c. within such kingdoms, where any vessel so liable shall set sail, or arrive, shall make out any docket, or discharge, or receive, or take any entry, cockpit, &c. or permit any goods or stores to be shipped or unshipped on or from such vessels, or suffer such vessels to pass, until a receipt for such duties, under the hand of the collector, shall be produced, testifying the payment, id. s. 2.

34. Nothing herein shall charge any person with such duties any longer than such light shall continue to be exhibited during the night, or any vessel loading in coals or culm in any place lying in Bride's Bay, carrying the same to any port in Wa., or carrying lime-stones from one port to another, 18 G. 3. c. 42. s. 3.

35. The grant of the rocks under the letters patent, 15 G. 3. to John Phillips of Liverpool, and the power to erect a lighthouse and take certain duties, shall be void, (id. s. 4.); and such rocks, called The Smalls, shall be vested in such master, wardens, &c., subject to a rent of 5*l.* per ann. to H. M., id. s. 4, 5.

36. Actions for any thing done under this act shall be brought within 6 calendar months after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or city where the fact arose, and shall not be removable by certiorari, or otherwise, and the defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done in pursuance hereof; and if it so appear, or if such action is brought after the time hereby limited, or is laid in the wrong county, then the jury shall find for the defendant, or if the plaintiff is nonsuited, or discontinues after appearance, or if a verdict, or judgment on demurrer, or otherwise is given against him, the defendant shall have treble costs, with usual remedy to recover the same, id. s. 6.

SPURN POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

37. FOR TAKING DOWN AND REMOVING CERTAIN LIGHTHOUSES now standing near the Spurn Point at the mouth of the Humber, and for erecting fit and convenient lighthouses instead thereof, 6 G. 3. c. 51. PUBLIC clause, s. 18. [EXPL. and AMD. 12 G. 3. c. 29. PUBLIC clause, s. 10. NOTE.—These acts relate to the building, and repairing, and maintaining of 2 new lighthouses near the Spurn Point. The duties are to be paid in the usual way under the letters patent of 28 C. 2. and 30 C. 2.; ONE FARTHING per ton by the first on all vessels passing such lighthouse, and belonging or trading to the ports of Newcastle and Sunderland, and by the last ONE FARTHING per ton more on all such vessels, and ONE PENNY per ton on all Foreign bottoms.]

SEAMEN.

(STATUTE expired.)

1. TO PREVENT THE DISTURBANCES OF SEAMEN AND OTHERS, and to preserve the stores of H. M.'s navy, 16 C. 2. c. 5., 19 C. 2. c. 7., [which was REV. 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 23. 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 25. ALL EXP.]

2. FOR THE REGISTRY OF SEAMEN, 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21. [AMD. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 23. REP. 9 A. c. 21. s. 44. See GREENWICH HOSPITAL.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NO FISHERMAN OR MARINER HAUNTING THE SEAS, shall be compelled to serve as a soldier by land or sea, otherwise than as a mariner, except in service under any captain of a vessel for landing to do some special exploit used to be done by mariners, or under any other person having authority to withstand invasion of enemies, or to subdue any rebellion within the realm, 5 Ed. c. 5. s. 41.

2. No fisherman haunting the sea, shall be taken to serve H. M. as a mariner on the sea, but H. M.'s commission shall be first brought by his taker to 2 justices next adjoining the sea coasts, towns, or other places, where such mariners are so to be taken, that they may choose out and cause to be returned such sufficient number of able men as in such commission are contained to serve H. M. as above, id. s. 43.

3. FOR PREVENTING THE DESERTION OF SEAMEN ENGAGED in the merchant service, and to secure their return home, [this title is framed from the preamble to these sections, and see the rest of the act, PIRACY, pl. 11.] 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. ss. 17—18. [AMD. 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1. and see id. ss. 2—4, infra, pl. 107—109.]

4. Every seaman, officer, or sailor, who shall desert the ship wherein he is hired to serve for that voyage, shall for such offence forfeit all wages then due to him, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 17.

5. Every master of a merchant-ship, who shall during his being abroad force any man on shore, or wilfully leave him behind in any H. M.'s plantations, or elsewhere, or who shall refuse to bring home with him again all such men which he carried out with him, as are in a condition to return [see regulation as to leaving sick seamen in foreign parts, 58 G. 3. c. 38. ss. 3—4, infra, pl. 108, 109.] when he is ready to proceed in his homeward bound voyage, shall, on being legally convicted thereof, suffer 3 month's imprisonment, id. s. 18. [These offences may be tried according to 28 H. 1. c. 15. &c. PIRACY, pl. 1. See 4 G. 1. c. 11. s. 7.; and may also be prosecuted by indictment or information, at suit of attorney-general in K. B., see 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 1.; and see further, as to bringing seamen home from foreign countries, pl. 108, 109.]

6. 'After reciting 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. s. 18. and that no mode of prosecution is provided by the act for offences committed against it: 'All offences committed against 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 7. may be prosecuted by indictment or information at suit of H. M.'s attorney general in K. B. at Westminster, in which indictment the offence may be alleged to have been committed at Westminster in the county of Middlesex, and the court may issue commissions for examination of witnesses abroad, and the depositions so taken shall be received in evidence on the trial, 58 G.3. c.38. s.1.

7. FOR ENCOURAGING SHIPS EMPLOYED IN BRINGING COALS TO London and other ports, [Framed from the preamble to this section,] 2 & 3 A. c. 6. s.20.

8. There shall be allowed yearly during the present war, free from impressing, to every master of any ship in the coal-trade besides the master, master's mate, and carpenter, one able seaman for every 100 tons burthen, not exceeding 300 tons which such ship contains, to be made appear by a customhouse certificate of her real burden according to the gauges of 5 & 6 W. & M. c.20.; and every officer presuming to impress, or take any men so allowed by this act, shall forfeit to the master 10*l.* for every man so taken, to be recovered with costs by action of debt or information in any H. M.'s courts of record, wherein no essoin, injunction, &c. shall be allowed, id. ibid.

9. ALL SUITS FOR SEAMEN'S WAGES IN ADMIRALTY COURT SHALL be commenced within 6 years after cause of action accrued, 4 & 5 A. c.16. s.17.

10. Such 6 years shall be taken after disabilities of infancy, feme covert, non compos, imprisonment, or absence beyond seas, are expired, id. s.18.

11. If persons, against whom any suit for seaman's wages, or other actions shall have accrued, are beyond seas, plaintiff shall bring his action in 6 years after their return, as in last pl., and 21 J.1. c.16. directed, id. s.19., [and see rest of this section, LIMITATIONS.]

12. FOR PREVENTING THE DESERTION OF ANY SEAMAN from H. M.'s ships of war to any trading or privateer vessel, 6 A. c.37. ss.10—13. 20. [See rest of this statute, PRIZE, pl.1.; SLAVE.]

13. Every master of a trading or privateer ship shall, before receiving any person to serve on board thereof, endeavour (by all convenient methods) to discover whether he has deserted from any king's ship of war; and every master receiving him on board without such endeavour, or knowing him to have deserted from any such king's ship, shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* for every man, to be recovered with costs in any court in H. M.'s dominions, id. s.10.

14. Every master of a merchant-ship, and commander of a privateer, shall, before setting sail from any port, deliver to the chief officer of customs a list of all the men belonging to such ship, with their names, ages, and descriptions, on pain to forfeit 10*l.* to H. M. for every man he shall receive, whose name is not in such list, to be recovered with costs as in s.10., id. s.11.

15. Such officer of customs shall return to such master an attested copy of such list, and on the death or alteration of any seaman, the list shall be altered and delivered in to the naval officer, or chief officer of customs in any port where such ships shall arrive; all which lists shall be produced to any officers of H. M.'s ships of war, demanding them; and if any man thereto belonging is found on board any merchant-ship, or privateer, whose name is not contained in such list, the master of such vessel shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* for every such man, id. s.12.

16. The master of every trading ship and packet-bout, outward bound for any port in America, shall be obliged (at the desire of any H. M.'s officers thereunto authorized, and at H. M.'s charges) to receive and carry to the port whereto such ship is bound, and deliver to such person to whom they shall be assigned, any number of mariners or other persons entered into H. M.'s sea service and pay, (over and above her usual compliment not exceeding one fifth thereof) on pain of forfeiting 20*l.* for every such seaman that he shall refuse to carry, id. s.13.

17. Every foreign mariner or seaman who shall have faithfully served on board any H. M.'s ships of war, or any privateer or merchant-ship belonging to any British subject for 2 years, shall be deemed a natural born subject of G. B., and shall enjoy all the privileges, &c. and capacities of such subject, id. s.20.

18. FOR ABOLISHING THE SYSTEM OF REGISTERING SEAMEN established by 7 & 8 W.3. c.21. and 8 & 9 W.3. c.23. [Framed from the preamble to this section,] 9 A. c.21. s.64.

19. The 7 & 8 W.3. c.21. and 8 & 9 W.3. c.23. as far as concerns registering seamen, or persons thereby intended or allowed to be registered, for the giving any bounty or advantages [viz. 40*s.* per ann. 7 & 8 W.3. c.21. s.6.] are repealed, 9 A. c.21. s.64.

20. TO PREVENT DISTURBANCES BY SEAMEN AND OTHERS, 1 G.1. c.25. ss.1—2. 12—13. [ss.3. 6—7. are REP. see tab. of Stat., and see ss.4—6. 8—16. STORES, PUBLIC. MADE PERP. 9 G.1. c.8. s.3.]

21. Any one or more commissioners of admiralty, (s.12.) and the treasurer, comptroller, surveyor, clerk of the act, and commissioners of the navy, or one or more of them, shall have power by warrants to cause all such offenders to be brought before them, and to examine and punish all, whom upon their enquiry and examination of witnesses, or confession of the parties, or on view in his or their presence, he or they shall find to make, or have made any disturbances, fighting, or quarrelling, in any of the yards, stores, offices, and other places of meeting for the navy service at pay-days, or on other occasions relating to naval services as follows: viz. they or any one or more of them may punish any of the said offences by fine, imprisonment, or either of them, the fine not exceeding 20*s.*, or imprisonment one week; and commit such persons to the next gaol or the custody of their attendant messengers; which principal officers or commissioners may discharge such fine or imprisonment, if they see fit, and for non-payment of such fine may send the offender to the next house of correction to be kept to hard labour for 2 months, which fines shall be paid to the chest at Chatham for use of the maimed seamen, 1 G.1. s.2. c.25. ss.1. 12.

22. The said officers or officer (where greater punishments are needful) may also bind the offenders to their good behaviour, and to answer the offences at the next assizes or quarter sessions; and in default of such security when required, may commit them to the county gaol, in order to their being prosecuted, id. s.2.

23. No person punished by virtue of this act, shall be punished by any other law for the same offence, id. s.13.

24. TO PROHIBIT THE PAYMENT OF SEAMEN'S WAGES whilst abroad, and to restrain trading by commanders of H. M.'s ships of war. (This title is framed from the sections mentioned), 8 G.1. c.24. ss.7—9. [REP. as to part of s.8. by 22 G.2. c.33. s.1. and AMD. id. s.24., see the rest of 8 G.1. c.24. PIRACY, pl.11.]

25. No master or owner of any merchant-ship or vessel shall pay or advance to any seaman during the time he is beyond the seas, any money or effects, on account of wages, exceeding one moiety of the wages due at the time of such payment, till such ship returns to G. B. or Ire. or the plantations, or to some other of H. M.'s dominions, whereto they belong, and whence they were first fitted out; on pain of forfeiture of double the money so paid, to be recovered in the high court of admiralty by any person who shall first discover and sue for the same, 8 G.1. c.24. s.7.

26. In case any captain, commander, or other officer of H. M.'s ships or vessels of war, whether such ship, &c. is employed at home or abroad, shall receive on board, or permit to be so received, any goods or merchandize, in order to trade with the same, either on his own or any other persons account, except gold, silver, or jewels, and except the goods of any merchant-ship shipwrecked, either on the high seas or in any port, &c. in H. M.'s dominions, or elsewhere, in order to preserve the same to the owner, and except such goods, &c. as they may be ordered by the admiralty, such captain, &c. on conviction, by a court martial, shall forfeit his command in such ship, &c. and be incapable to serve in H. M.'s navy, and shall forfeit his wages to H. M., id. s.8. [REP. as to the punishment to be inflicted by court martial on any captain, &c. of a ship of war of H. M. who shall receive on board, or permit to be received on board, any goods, in order to trade with the same, except as therein excepted, 22 G.2. c.33. s.1. [but QU. no punishment to be inflicted by a court martial appears in this act, unless the punishment in s.8. may be so considered.]

27. Such captain, &c. and the owners of the goods so put on board such ship or vessel of war, shall forfeit the value thereof, one moiety to the person first making the discovery, and the other to the use of Greenwich hospital, all which forfeitures may be sued for and recovered in the high court of admiralty, 8 G.1. c.24. s.9.

28. Every captain, commander, or other officer of any of H. M.'s ships or vessels, who shall receive, or permit to be received, on board such ship, any goods or merchandizes contrary to Art. 18. shall, for every such offence, besides any punishment inflicted by this act, forfeit the value of all such goods so received, and permitted or suffered to be received on board as aforesaid, or the sum of 500*l.* at election of the informer; but only one such penalty shall be recovered against the same person for the same offence, one moiety of which shall go to the informer, and the other to the use of Greenwich hospital, to be recovered by action of debt or information in any of H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or in the high court of admiralty, at election of the informer, or person suing for same; and the court shall award such costs to the parties as is just, and in all cases where judgment or sentence is given against such offender, the court where such sentence is given shall, with all convenient speed, certify the same to the admiralty, 22 G.2. c.33. s.24.

29. FOR BETTER REGULATION AND GOVERNMENT OF SEAMEN in the merchant service, 2 G.2. c.36. [PUBLIC clause, s.11. CON. 23 G.2. c.26. s.6. MADE PERP. 2 G.3. c.31. s.1. AMD. &c. by id. s.2., 31 G.3. c.39., and 45 G.3. c.81.]

30. No master of a ship bound beyond the seas shall carry any mariner, except his apprentices, from the port where he was shipped, to proceed on any voyage beyond the seas, without first coming to an agreement with such mariners for their wages to be made in writing, declaring what wages each seaman is to have for so long time as they shall ship themselves for, and also to express in the agreement the voyage for which he was shipped; and every master carrying out any mariner, except his apprentice, on any such voyage, without first entering into such agreement, and he and they signing the same, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every such mariner, to the use of Greenwich hospital, to be recovered on information on the oath of one witness, before one or more justices, who shall issue his warrant to bring before him such master; and in case he refuses to pay the forfeiture, shall grant his warrant to levy it by distress and sale of goods; and if no distress can be found, shall commit him to the common gaol till he pay the same, 2 G. 2. c. 36. s. 1. [See as to coasting trade, 31 G. 3. c. 39.]

31. Every seaman shipping himself on board any merchant vessel on an intended voyage for parts beyond the seas, shall be obliged to sign such agreement within 3 days after entering himself, which agreement shall be conclusive to all parties for the time contracted for, id. s. 2.

32. If any seamen shall desert, or refuse to proceed on the voyage, or shall desert in parts beyond the seas, after signing such contract, he shall forfeit to the owners of such ship, the wages due to him at the time of his deserting, or refusing to proceed on the voyage, id. s. 3.

33. If any such seamen shall desert, or absent himself from such ship, after signing such contract, on application made to any justice, by the master or other person having charge of the ship, such justice may issue his warrant to apprehend such seaman; and if he refuse to proceed on the voyage, and shall not give a sufficient reason for such refusal, to the satisfaction of the justice, may commit him to the house of correction, to be kept to hard labour, not exceeding 30, nor less than 14 days, id. s. 4.

34. If any seaman shall absent himself from the vessel to which he belongs, without leave of the master or other chief officer, having charge of such ship he shall, for every day's absence, forfeit 2 days' pay to the use of Greenwich hospital, id. s. 5.

35. Any seaman, not entering into H. M.'s service, who shall leave the vessel to which he belongs, before having a discharge in writing from the master or other person having the charge of such vessel, shall forfeit one month's pay, id. s. 6.

36. On the arrival of any vessel in G. B. from parts beyond the seas, the masters shall pay the seamen their wages, if demanded, in 30 days after the vessels being entered at the custom-house (except where a covenant is entered into to the contrary) or at the time the said seamen shall be discharged, which shall first happen, deducting out of the wages the penalties by this act imposed, under penalty of paying to such seaman that shall be unpaid, 20*s.* over and above the wages, to be recovered as the wages may be recovered; which payment of wages shall be good in law, notwithstanding any action, bill of sale, attachment, or incumbrance, soever, id. s. 7. [See as to seamen's remedy for wages not exceeding 20*l.* before a justice, 59 G. 3. c. 58. infra, pl. 137.]

37. No seaman, by signing such contract, shall be deprived of using any means for the recovery of wages, which he may now lawfully use, and where it is necessary to produce the contract in writing in court, no obligation shall lie on any seaman to produce it, but on the master or owner only; and no seaman shall fail in any action or process for recovery of wages, for want of such contract being produced, id. s. 8.

38. The masters or owners of ships may deduct out of the wages of any seaman, all penalties incurred by this act, and enter them in a book, and make oath, if required, to the truth thereof; which book shall be signed by the master and two principal officers belonging to such ship, setting forth, that the penalties contained therein, are the whole penalties stopped from any seaman during the voyage; which penalties (except the forfeitures of wages to the owners, on the desertion of any seaman, or on refusing to proceed on the voyage) shall go to the use of Greenwich hospital, to be paid and accounted for by the masters of ships coming from beyond seas, to the same officer at any port, who collects the 6*d.* per month; which officer may administer an oath to every master touching the truth of such penalties, id. s. 9.

39. If any masters or owners of ships shall deduct out of the wages of any seaman, any of the penalties by the act directed to the use of Greenwich hospital, and shall not pay the money to some officer who collects the 6*d.* per month, in the port where the deduction shall be made, within 3 months after such deduction, they shall forfeit treble the value to the use of the hospital; which, together with the money deducted, shall be recovered by the same means as the penalties for not duly paying the 6*d.* per month, id. s. 10.

40. Nothing in this act shall debar any seaman from entering into H. M.'s service, nor shall he for such entry forfeit the wages due to him during his service in such merchant-ship, nor shall such entry be deemed a desertion, id. s. 13.

41. The provisions of 2 G. 2. c. 36. are extended to all H. M.'s colonies in America, and all forfeitures incurred by that act, and directed to be applied to Greenwich hospital, shall be paid to the officer appointed by the admiralty to receive same in such colonies, and any masters or owners who shall deduct out of any seaman's wages any of the penalties so to be applied, and shall not pay the same to such officer, shall forfeit treble value thereof to such hospital, which, with the money so deducted, may be recovered as other penalties under that act, 2 G. 3. c. 31. s. 2.

42. FOR BETTER REGULATION AND GOVERNMENT OF SEAMEN employed in the coasting trade of this kingdom, 31 G. 3. c. 39.

43. No master or other person having or taking charge or command of any vessel trading from and to any port or place in G. B. shall carry out to sea any seaman or mariner (except apprentices) from any port, &c. in G. B. to proceed on any voyage to any other port, &c. in G. B. without having before entered into an agreement, in writing, with such seaman, &c. to be signed, as well by such master, &c. as by such seaman, &c., for the wages which the latter is to have during the voyage, or time for which he contracts himself; such agreement being in force at proceeding to sea on such voyage, and every such master, &c. who shall carry out to open sea any seaman, &c. (except as above) on any such voyage by open sea, without having first entered into such agreement, so signed, and then being in full force, shall forfeit 5*l.* for every seaman, &c. so carried out, to Greenwich hospital, to be recovered on information, on oath of one or more witnesses, before a justice of any county or place in G. B. where such vessel shall depart from, or come to, in such voyage, who shall issue warrant to bring such master, &c. before him, and in case of refusal to pay the forfeiture, shall grant warrant to levy same by distress and sale of his goods; and if no distress is found, shall commit the offender to the gaol of the city, county, or place, till he pay the same, id. s. 1.

44. Every seaman or mariner entering on board any such coasting vessel for any intended voyage, or time stipulated in agreement, shall subscribe his signature or mark to the same at time of his entering himself, which agreement so subscribed, and being also signed by the master, &c. shall be conclusive, id. s. 2.

45. If any seaman, &c. who, after entering into such agreement, shall neglect or refuse to proceed on the intended voyage for which he entered, or on which such coasting vessel is destined, [he shall forfeit to the owner all the wages due to him at the time of his neglect or refusal so to proceed, id. s. 3. only, and omitted in 45 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1.] and on complaint by the master, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 43.) or owner of such vessel, any justice shall issue his warrant to apprehend such seaman, and if he refuse to proceed as above, within the time contracted for, without giving sufficient reason for his refusal, to the justice's satisfaction, he shall commit him to the house of correction, for not less than 14, nor more than 30 days' hard labour, id. s. 3. and 45 G. 3. c. 81. s. 1. s. r. except as above.

46. Every seaman, &c. who, after having entered into such agreement shall wilfully absent himself from his ship before the voyage agreed on, or on which she has proceeded, is completed, and her cargo delivered, or before his engagement is expired, shall, for every day of absence, forfeit 2 days' pay to Greenwich hospital, to be recovered and applied as in ss. 7—8. pl. 49.; and every seaman, not entering into H. M.'s service, who shall totally quit his vessel before the voyage agreed on, or before expiration of his engagement, or before having a discharge in writing from the master, &c. (as in s. 1.) shall forfeit a month's wages, to be recovered and applied as in ss. 7—8. pl. 49., id. s. 4.

47. The master, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 43.) contracting with any seaman, &c. to perform such voyage, shall pay him his wages, if demanded, within 5 days after entry at the custom house, or cargo delivered, or seaman discharged, which shall first happen, unless an agreement has been made to the contrary, and then according to the terms thereof; after deducting out of such wages any penalties incurred under this act, on pain of forfeiting 20*s.* to each seaman, &c. above the wages due to him, and recoverable as such wages; which payment shall be good in law, notwithstanding any action, bill of sale, attachment, or incumbrance, id. s. 5.

48. No seaman, &c. by entering into or signing such agreement, shall be deprived of any method for recovery of wages against any ship, its masters or owners which he may now use, and where necessary to produce such agreement in any court or elsewhere, the obligation so to do shall be on such master, &c. or owner, and not on such seaman, who shall not fail in any action for wages, for non-production of such agreement, id. s. 6.

49. Commanders or owners of such ships may deduct from the wages of seamen incurring the penalties of this act, whenever incurred, and enter them in a book, and shall make oath to the truth thereof if required, which book shall be signed by such commander, setting forth that therein contained are the whole forfeitures stopped from any seamen, &c. by him, which forfeitures (except that of wages to the owners, under s. 3. pl. 45.) shall go to the use of Greenwich hospital, and shall be accounted for by the commanders having charge of such vessels, to the collector of the 6*d.* per month duty, for the port where such stoppage is made, who shall administer an oath to every commander, touching the truth of such forfeitures, id. s. 7.

50. Every commander or owner of any such ships deducting from any seamen's wages any of the above forfeitures, and not paying the same to the proper officer as in s. 7. shall forfeit treble value thereof to such hospital, to be recovered with the money so deducted by any of the means provided for recovering the 6d. duty, 31 G. 3. c. 39. s. 8.

51. Where the seamen of such coasting vessel have agreed for wages by the voyage and not by the month, the penalties incurred by this act shall be thus ascertained: if the whole time spent in the voyage agreed or proceeded on, exceed one lunar month, the forfeiture of a month's pay shall be deemed a forfeiture of a sum bearing the same proportion to the whole wages, as a lunar month shall bear to the whole time spent in such voyage, and in like manner of 2 days' pay; but if the whole time spent in such voyage exceeds one lunar month, the forfeiture of one month's pay shall be deemed that of the whole wages contracted for; and if such time shall not exceed 2 days, the forfeiture of 2 days' pay shall be deemed like that of the whole wages, id. s. 9.

52. No agreement made under this act shall be liable to stamp duties; and nothing herein shall extend to any coasting vessel, or to any master, seamen, or mariners thereof, unless she be of 100 tons burden or upwards, and shall go to open sea, or to debar any seaman belonging to any such vessel from entering a king's ship, nor shall he, for such entry, forfeit the wages due to him during his term of service in such vessel, nor shall such entry be deemed a desertion, id. s. 10.

53. FOR BETTER SUPPLY OF SEAMEN to serve on board H.M.'s ships, merchant and other trading ships, and privateers, 13 G. 2. c. 3. ss. 2—4. [Royal proclamations made under s. 4. of this act are not restrained by 11 G. 3. c. 3. s. 2. 16 G. 3. c. 20. s. 2. 17 G. 3. c. 34. s. 2. 18 G. 3. c. 6. s. 2. 19 G. 3. c. 14. s. 2. 20 G. 3. c. 2. s. 2. 21 G. 3. c. 11. s. 2. 22 G. 3. c. 16. s. 2. 33 G. 3. c. 26. s. 2. 43 G. 3. c. 64. s. 2.]

54. Any merchant or other trading vessel or privateer may be navigated by any foreigners, not natives of G. B. or the colonies thereof, or natural or naturalized subjects, not exceeding 3-4ths of the mariners employed to navigate the ship, [during the then war;] and 1-4th of the crew shall always be natives or naturalized subjects of G. B., sudden death or casualties of war and seas excepted, the 12 C. 2. c. 18. notwithstanding, 13 G. 2. c. 3. s. 1. [See s. 4. pl. 57.]

55. Every foreign seaman who shall have faithfully served, during the time of war, on board any of H.M.'s ships, or any trading ship or privateer (belonging at the time of such service to subjects of G. B.) for 2 years, shall be deemed a natural-born subject of G. B., id. s. 2.

56. No person naturalized by this act shall thereby be enabled to be of the privy council, or a member of parliament, or to take any office civil or military, or to have any grant of lands or hereditaments from the crown, id. s. 3.

57. H. M., at all times, when it is necessary to declare war against any foreign power, may publish a proclamation to permit all trading vessels and privateers to be manned with foreign seamen during such war, in manner by this act provided; and on publishing such proclamation, this act shall be deemed to be in full force, and continue during such war, and no longer; except in respect to such trading ships and privateers which shall be on their voyage before the determination of such war, who shall be allowed to return home navigated in the manner before provided, id. s. 4.

58. FOR INCREASE OF SEAMEN to navigate merchant ships and other trading vessels, 13 G. 2. c. 17. [SUSPENDED, 19 G. 3. c. 75. s. 1., 38 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1. for 5 months each time, and for one month for coal trade, by 19 G. 3. c. 75. s. 2. BOTH EXP.]

59. Every person of the age of 55 years or upwards, or under the age of 18 years, and every foreigner who shall serve in any merchant ship or privateer belonging to the subjects of G. B., shall be exempted from being impressed into H.M.'s service, 13 G. 2. c. 17. s. 1.

60. Every person of what age soever, who shall use the sea, shall be exempted from being impressed for 2 years from his first going to sea; and every person who, not having before used the sea, shall bind himself apprentice to sea, shall be exempted from being impressed for 3 years, from his binding himself apprentice, id. s. 2.

61. The commissioners of the admiralty, or 3 of them, shall, on due proof of the respective ages and circumstances of the persons before mentioned, grant a protection to every such person to secure him from being impressed, without fee, id. s. 3.

62. FOR RELIEF AND SUPPORT OF MAIMED AND DISABLED SEAMEN, and the widows and children of such as shall be killed, slain, or drowned in the merchants' service, 20 G. 2. c. 38.

63. "After reciting 7 & 8 W. 3. c. 21. s. 7., 10 A. c. 17. s. 20., 8 G. 1. c. 24. s. 5. and 8 G. 2. c. 29. s. 10. and that, though merchant seamen, maimed or disabled in fight, were entitled to the benefit of Greenwich hospital under those acts, yet that, from deficiency in its funds to provide for the wounded seamen of the royal navy, merchant seamen have seldom or never been admitted;" it is therefore ENACTED, that Alexander Hume and others shall be incorporated by the name of "The president and governors for the relief and support of sick, maimed, and disabled seamen, and of the widows and children of such as shall be killed, slain, or drowned in the merchants' service," with perpetual succession and a common seal; and they and their successors shall be capable to hold in trust, for the purposes of this act, all sums of money granted and received by virtue of this act, or contributed or bequeathed by any persons, and may purchase lands for the site of an hospital, 20 G. 2. c. 38. s. 1.

65. Such president and governors shall provide in such hospital for reception of seamen disabled by sickness, wounds, or other misfortunes, or by age; or shall allow them pensions; and shall relieve the widows and children of seamen killed or drowned in the said service; provided such children are not of the age of 14 years, or incapable of getting a livelihood by reason of infirmities; and shall make allowances to those who are hurt or maimed in doing their duty, so far as the revenues will extend, according to rules established by this act, id. s. 2.

66. No seaman in the said service shall be entitled to the benefit of this act, unless he produce a certificate of the hurt he hath received from the master, mate, boatswain, and surgeon, or so many of them as were in the ship at the time of his receiving such hurt; or of the master and 2 seamen, if there is no other officer; or if the master die, of the person who takes upon him the care of the ship, and 2 seamen; signifying how he received such hurt, where and when he entered, and how long he had served; and the parties signing and sealing such certificate shall make oath of the truth thereof before some justice of peace, or the chief officer of the customs of the port where there is no justice of peace, or before the British consul or resident in any foreign country, who are to administer the same without fee; and in case of sickness, a certificate signifying that he was healthy when he entered, and that such sickness was contracted in doing his duty, and expressing the time and place he entered, and how long he had served; and no widow or child of any seaman killed or drowned in the said service, shall be relieved, unless they, or some person on their behalf, produce a certificate signifying how such seaman lost his life, the time and place he entered, and how long he had served; and another certificate under the hands and seals of the minister and churchwardens and overseers of the poor of the parish or place, or 2 of them, or of the minister and overseers, or 2 of them, where there are no churchwardens; and if such widow or child are quakers, then by 2 reputable persons of that persuasion, of the parish or place where such widow or child have a legal settlement or inhabit; to be attested by 2 witnesses, that such widow was the wife and real widow, and that such child was the lawful child of such seaman killed or drowned, and and is under the age of 14 years, or if of that age not capable of getting a livelihood by reason of infirmities; and no seaman shall have a pension as worn out, unless he has served in the merchants' service for 5 years, and paid 6d. per-month out of his wages for that time, for the purposes of this act, id. s. 3.

67. If any person forge or alter, or procure to be forged or altered, or unfairly obtain any certificate to entitle him to any benefit of this act, and produce, or cause it to be produced, such certificate shall be void; and such person so applying shall be incapable of receiving any benefit of this act, and shall be punished as an incorrigible rogue, id. s. 4.

68. There shall be a president and 21 assistants of the said corporation, id. s. 5.

69. Every year, within 5 days before or after the 24th of June, 10 days' notice being given in the London Gazette, a new choice of a president and 21 assistants shall be made by the president and governors, or the greater part of them then present, for the year next following, id. s. 6.

70. At all general courts of the president and governors, and at the several courts of assistants, the president shall have a voice, and in case of an equality of votes shall have a casting vote, id. s. 7.

71. There shall be 4 general courts every year, viz. on the 24th June, 29th Sept., 25th Dec., and 25th March, or within 5 days before or after either of the said days, of which 10 days' notice shall be given in the London Gazette; and the president and assistants shall have power to call a general court at any other time; and are to call a general court at the request of any 13 members under their hands, provided 10 days' notice be given in the London Gazette, id. s. 8.

72. The president with any 5 of the assistants shall make a court of assistants, or committees; and shall meet on Wednesdays weekly, in London, or at such time and place as they think fit; and shall have power to apply the monies received by virtue of this act; and in case there be any surplus, or any sum be contributed, to lay out the same in parliamentary securities, or in the purchase of such lands as are hereby allowed, and under their common seal to enter into contracts, and to appoint and remove officers, except such officers as are to be appointed at a general court, and to appoint salaries, and to transact all other matters necessary and convenient, id. s. 9.

73. The management and accounts of the said president and assistants shall be subject to such audit and control as by any by-laws of the same corporation shall be appointed, id. s. 10.

74. There shall be a receiver chosen by the said president and governors in a general court, who shall be allowed a proper salary, and be at their pleasure displaced, 20 G. 2. c. 38. s. 11.

75. If there be any vacancy of any person chosen at a general court, such vacancy shall be filled up at a general court after 10 days' notice in the London Gazette of such election, id. s. 12.

76. The president and governors, or the greater part of them (so that not less than 13 governors be present) may choose other persons members or governors in the room of such as die or refuse to be members or governors, id. s. 13.

77. The president and governors in a general court (so that not less than 13 governors be present) may make by-laws, and revoke the same, id. s. 14.

78. In case the president shall not attend the assistants at a court of assistants, the governors at a general court may depute any other member or governor to preside and vote as president, id. s. 15.

79. If any person pay into the hands of the receiver 50*l.* for the purposes of this act, he shall be a governor, id. s. 16.

80. Every person who shall serve in any ship belonging to any subjects in Eng., and every master or owner navigating his own ship (other than such apprentices under the age of 18 as are exempted from payment of 6*d.* per month to Greenwich Hospital by 2 A. c. 6., and persons employed in boats upon the coast of Eng. in taking fish brought fresh on shore, and persons employed in vessels that trade only within any river in Eng. or in any open boats upon the coasts, and pilots employed on board any ship, shall pay 6*d.* per month, and proportionably for a lesser time, during their employment, for the purposes aforesaid, id. s. 17.

81. The master of every such ship shall deduct and detain out of the wages or profits payable to such person employed in his ship, the said 6*d.* per month (other than for persons excepted) and shall pay the same to the officer appointed by the president and governors, or the trustees at any out-ports, id. s. 18.

82. The president and governors, at a court of assistants, may appoint a receiver or receivers of the said duty at London, and also depute the collectors or officers of the customs in the out-ports of Eng., or other persons, to receive the same (except where separate trustees are appointed by this act) which receivers are to collect and pay over the said duty, according to instructions sent by the president and governors; and the president and governors, at a court of assistants, may make them an allowance, id. s. 19.

83. Every master of any merchant or private ship shall keep a muster-roll, in which shall be entered his own name, and the names of all the persons employed in such ship, with the usual place of their abode on shore, and the time when, and the place where, they entered, and in what ship he performed his last voyage; a duplicate whereof shall be signed by the said master, and delivered before the departure of such ship to the receiver of the said duties, at the port to which such ship belongs; and such master shall keep such muster-roll during the whole voyage, and shall enter therein when and where any person is discharged, or deserts; and any other man shipped, describing them as before described, and when and where any of them received any hurt, or were killed or drowned; a duplicate of which continuation of the muster-roll shall be signed by the said master, and delivered at the return of such ship to the receiver of the said duties at the port to which such ship belongs; and copies shall be made by such receiver, and kept by him; and the original duplicates shall be transmitted to the president and governors aforesaid, to be kept; and if such master neglect to keep such muster-roll, or to deliver such duplicates, or such receiver to make and keep such copies, or to transmit the duplicates as aforesaid, they shall respectively forfeit for every such offence 20*l.*, id. s. 20.

84. Receivers may, by warrant under their hands, summon all such masters, or in their absence the owners, to appear at their office (so as they be not obliged to travel above 10 miles) and examine them upon oath as to the truth of the copy of such muster-roll, and as to the number and times of service of all persons employed in such ship liable to the said 6*d.* per month; and if they neglect when so summoned to appear, or refuse to make discovery, every offender shall forfeit 20*l.*, id. s. 21.

85. The secretaries or chief clerks of the navy, victualling, ordnance, customs, post-office, or other public offices of the crown, usually employing ships in the service of H. M., shall deliver a duplicate of the list of the ships, &c. (required by 2 G. 2. c. 7. s. 6., to be delivered to the receivers of Greenwich Hospital) to the receiver of the duty of 6*d.* per month at London, or any of the out-ports: and the said secretaries, chief clerk, and other officers of the said offices, and the masters, &c. of ships employed by them, are to do every thing for the payment of the said 6*d.* per month hereby granted, as is directed to be done for the payment of the 6*d.* per month to Greenwich Hospital by 2 G. 2. c. 7., and they shall be subject to like penalties for defaults, id. s. 22.

86. The masters and owners of all private ships liable to the said duty of 6*d.* per month, shall pay such monies as be due from them to the collectors and receivers at the ports only to which such ships belong, and before any such ships be cleared inwards in any ports of Eng.; and no officer of the customs shall clear inwards any private ship liable to the said duty, or grant any warrant, or cockets, transires, returns, or discharges, for any such ship, or shall suffer any such ship to go out of port, until the master or owner produce an acquittance signed by the receiver of the said duties, whereby it shall appear that such master, &c. is not more than 3 months in arrear, or is exempted from the said duty by the exemptions herein contained; and every master and owner neglecting to pay the said duty in the manner, and within the time before mentioned, and every officer of the customs making default in the premises, shall, for every such default, forfeit 20*l.*, 20 G. 2. c. 38. s. 23.

87. If the master, &c. produce not such acquittance to the tide-surveyor when he comes on board to clear such ship, the tide-waiters on board shall be continued until such acquittance is produced, at the expence of such owner or master, id. s. 24.

88. Where by this act an oath is required, the affirmation of quakers shall be accepted; and any quaker refusing to make such affirmation, shall be subject to the like penalties as any other person refusing to take an oath; and if he affirm any matter which is false, or if any person before any person hereby authorized to administer oaths, wilfully make a false oath, each shall, on conviction, suffer the punishment of wilful and corrupt perjury, id. s. 25.

89. The charges of obtaining this act shall be paid out of the first monies raised at London, id. s. 26.

90. The owners and masters of ships belonging to persons residing at any of the out-ports, may assemble at any time and place within the limits of the said out-ports by any 5 of them appointed, giving 10 days' previous notice, to be fixed at some public place at such out-port; and may appoint under their hands and seals 15 trustees for such out-port, for receiving and applying the said 6*d.* per month: and within 10 days after 26th Dec. yearly, 15 trustees shall be chosen for the year ensuing, as aforesaid; and the instrument appointing them shall be sent to the president and assistants, who are to confirm the same under the common seal of the corporation, without fee, within 10 days after receipt thereof; which trustees, so confirmed, whereof 5 shall be a quorum, shall have the same powers as the president and governors aforesaid; and the officers appointed by such trustees shall have the same powers as the other officers appointed in pursuance of this act, and shall be subject to the same penalties, id. s. 27.

91. The master, wardens, assistants, and treasurer of the incorporated society of 'The Merchant Adventurers of Bristol,' [18th Dec. 6 E. 6.] shall be trustees, and have the like powers as the president and governors aforesaid; and the officers appointed by them shall have the same powers as the other officers appointed by virtue of this act, and shall be subject to the like penalties; and the said master, wardens, assistants, and treasurer, shall have power to take any land, as the said president and governors, id. s. 28.

92. The guild or brotherhood of masters and pilots, seamen of the Trinity House of the town and port of Kington-upon-Hull, shall be trustees, and have the like powers as the president and governors aforesaid; and the officers appointed by them shall have the same powers as the other officers appointed in pursuance of this act, and be subject to the like penalties, id. s. 29.

93. Nothing herein contained shall oblige the receivers or collectors of the said duty appointed by the trustees of any of the said out-ports, to send the duplicates of the muster-rolls to the president and assistants or committees; but such duplicates shall be delivered after making copies thereof to the said trustees to be kept, id. s. 30.

94. No person employed on board any private ship shall be entitled to any benefit by this act at London, or any out-port, but those who pay the said duty of 6*d.* per month, id. s. 31.

95. Those seamen who have been longest in the service, and contributed most towards the duty, shall be first provided for as worn out, id. s. 32.

96. In case any person employed on board any ship, in doing his duty on shore or on board, be hurt or maimed, so that immediate care is necessary, the president and governors at London, and the respective trustees for the out-ports, shall provide relief for him until he be so well recovered as to be removed to the port to which such ship belongs; and the expence of removing him not exceeding 2*d.* per mile shall be paid by the president and governors at London, or by the trustees for the out-port to which he is removed, id. s. 33.

97. In case any person serve 5 years or more on board private ships belonging to different ports, and have paid the 6*d.* per month for that time, and be worn out, and adjudged a proper object of relief, he shall be provided for at the port where he paid the greatest part of the said duty for the last 5 years of his service, id. s. 34.

98. The president and governors, and the respective trustees, may relieve seamen employed in the merchants' service within the limits of this act, who may be shipwrecked, or taken by the enemies, and on their return from imprisonment be travelling with passes to the place of their abodes, 8 G. 2. c. 55. s. 35.

99. Where the certificates directed to be produced by this act cannot be obtained, other certificates satisfactory to the president and governors, or trustees respectively, shall be allowed, id. s. 36.

100. The East India Company having established a fund for providing for seamen disabled in their service, and for the widows and children of such as are killed or drowned, no master, officer, seaman, servant, or apprentice employed in the service of that Co., during the time they are so employed, shall be liable to the payment of 6d. per month, id. s. 37.

101. No master, &c., as in s. 37. pl. 100., employed in the service of that Co., shall be entitled to any benefit by this act, in respect of any incapacity by sickness, wounds, or misfortune, during the time of their being employed in the Co.'s service; nor shall the widows or children of seamen killed or drowned in their service, be entitled to any benefit by this act, by reason of any such seaman being killed or drowned in such service, id. s. 38.

102. All penalties incurred by this act shall be recovered in any court of record in Eng., wherein no essoins, &c. or more than one imparlance shall be allowed; and if a verdict pass for the plaintiff, he shall have double costs; and one moiety of the said penalties shall go to the uses of this act, and the other moiety to such person as shall sue for the same, id. s. 39.

103. Any action in relation to the premises shall be brought within 3 months next after, in the county where the fact was done; and the defendant may plead the general issue; and if plaintiff be nonsuited, discontinue, or have verdict against him, &c., defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 40.

104. TO PROVIDE FOR BRITISH SEAMEN IN FOREIGN PARTS, (Framed to precede this class of regulations.) 31 G. 2. c. 10. ss. 26—27. [Amended generally by 58 G. 3. c. 38. ss. 3—4. and as to s. 27. in particular by id. s. 2.]

105. H. M.'s governors, ministers, and consuls in foreign parts, and resident there, or (where none such are resident) any 2 British merchants there residing, shall send and provide for all seafaring men and boys, subjects of G. B., who by shipwreck, capture, or other unavoidable accident, shall be driven or cast away to, or discharged as unseaworthy from any of H. M.'s ships, at such foreign place, where such governors, &c. reside, and shall subsist them at 6d. per diem each, and send bills of their disbursements therein, with vouchers to the navy board, who shall cause immediate payment to be made, and shall send the said men, or boys, on board the first of H. M.'s ships that arrive at such place, or at other places, within a convenient distance; or in case of none of H. M.'s ships so situated, shall send them on board such merchant-ships as are bound for any port of G. B., and are in want of men; but if neither case happens within a convenient time, they shall provide them a passage homeward in the first merchant-ship bound for G. B., and every master of a merchant ship who arrives in such foreign parts, and is homeward bound, to any port in G. B., shall take on board such and so many of them as such governors, &c. direct, not exceeding 4 for each 100 tons of which his ship consists, 31 G. 2. c. 10. s. 26.

106. Every such master of a ship producing a certificate under the hands of any such governors, &c. as in s. 26. certifying the number and names of the men and boys taken on board by their direction, and the time of taking them on board, and making an affidavit at his return, setting forth the time during which he subsisted them, and that he did not during that time want of his own compliment of men, or how many he did want thereof, and for what time, shall receive, and the navy board shall pay to such master 6d. per diem for the passage and provisions of each man and boy, from the day of embarkation homewards, to that of their arrival in G. B., or of being put into some of H. M.'s ships: 6d. per diem only being deducted for such time, and so many persons as such master wanted of his compliment during the voyage, id. s. 27.

107. Every master or person having charge of any British merchant-ship, which shall be or shall arrive in any such foreign parts, and is bound from thence to any port in the U. K., and is required in writing under the hands of such governor, minister, consul, or merchants, to take on board any such seafaring men or boys, being subjects of the U. K., not exceeding the number mentioned in 31 G. 2. c. 10. s. 26. pl. 105. for the purpose of carrying them to the said port in U. K., shall forfeit 100*l.* for each man or boy whom he shall so refuse, &c. to take on board, or carry accordingly, to be recovered by information of attorney-general, in K. B., or exchequer, at Westminster, in which information the offence shall be alleged to have been committed at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and the court in which such information is brought, shall issue a commission for examination of witnesses abroad, and whose depositions so taken shall be received in evidence on the trial, 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 2.

108. Every such master, &c. as in s. 2. who shall leave any seafaring man or boy on shore at any foreign place, on account of sickness, or other inability to proceed, shall deliver to the governor, minister, or consul, if any such be there, or if not, than to any 2 respectable merchants there, a true account of the wages due to him, and pay the amount either in money, or by bill on the owners to such governor, &c., and in default of so doing, or in case of the owner not accepting and paying such bill when due, such owner shall be liable to an action for the amount, with interest, at 5 per cent., to be brought in any H. M.'s courts of record at Westminster, or Dublin, or exchequer in Scot., at suit of the holder of such bill, as for money had and received, but in case of payment of such wages being duly made under this act, the same when received by such governor, &c. shall be applied by the latter towards payment of any hospital expences of such seafaring man or boy, (except the charge for his subsistence) and also towards those of clothing, bedding, or other necessities supplied to him, the remainder, if any, being paid to him, 58 G. 3. c. 38. s. 3.

109. Every such master, &c. (as in s. 2.) leaving such seafaring man or boy on shore, and who shall not deliver a true account in writing, of the wages due to him, and pay the amount in money, or by such bill, or shall deliver a false account, less than the true wages due, shall forfeit 20*l.*, recoverable with costs by any person suing for the same by action of debt, or information in any court at Westminster, without essoins, or more than one imparlance allowed: and it shall be sufficient to allege that the offence was committed at Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and the court shall, if necessary, issue a commission for examination of witnesses abroad, and depositions so taken shall be evidence on the trial, id. s. 4.

110. TO PREVENT UNJUST ARRESTS OF SEAMEN actually belonging to any H. M.'s ships, (Framed from the preamble to these sections.) 31 G. 2. c. 10. ss. 28—31.

111. No person who shall enlist as a seaman on board any H. M.'s ships, shall be liable to be taken out of the service by any process or execution in G. B., Ire., or any H. M.'s dominions, other than for some criminal matters, unless such process or execution be for a real debt or other just cause of action, and unless before taking out of such process, &c. plaintiff, or some person on his behalf, makes affidavit before a judge of the court out of which such process issues, or before some person authorized to take affidavits therein, that to his knowledge the sum owing to plaintiff from defendant in the action, or cause thereof on which such process issues, or the debt, or damage and costs, for which such execution issues, amounts to 20*l.*; a memorandum of which oaths shall be marked on back of the writ, and no fee shall be taken for it; and if any person be arrested contrary to this act, a judge of such court, on complaint by the party, or by any of his superior officers, may examine into the same by oath of the parties, or otherwise, and by warrant under his hand and seal may discharge such seamen without paying the fee, on proof that the seamen so arrested were belonging to a king's ship, and arrested contrary to this act, and also may award reasonable costs to plaintiff: for recovery of which he shall have like remedy as if judgment had been given for him with costs against defendant in the said action, id. s. 28.

112. Any plaintiff, on notice first given in writing of the cause of action to such seamen belonging to the royal navy, or left at his last place of residence before his entering the service, may file a common appearance in any action for any debt, so as to entitle such plaintiff to proceed to judgment and outlawry, and to have an execution thereon, other than against the body of such seaman so actually belonging to any H. M.'s ships, id. s. 29. [ss. 28—29. of this act were previously enacted by 1 G. 2. s. 2. c. 14. s. 3. but which was Rev. by s. 32. of this act.]

113. No person employed in receiving any wages, prize money, or other monies due, on account of the service of any officer, seaman, or other person in the royal navy, shall be entitled to take more than 6d. in the pound, for receiving and paying the same to his employer, or according to his direction, and for all his trouble and attendance: and every person so employed who shall directly or indirectly demand, take, or retain, or procure, or willingly suffer to be demanded, or taken any allowance, or valuable consideration exceeding in the whole 6d. in the pound, for the monies so received, shall, for every such offence, forfeit 50*l.*, with costs to any person who will sue in any court of record at Westminster, by action of debt or information, in which no protection, &c. nor more than one imparlance shall be allowed, and if any such offender be a clerk, officer, or servant, in any office belonging to the navy, he shall, on conviction, besides the above penalty, forfeit his place, and be for ever thereafter incapable of holding place of profit in any such office, id. s. 30.

114. Every clerk, officer, or servant, relating to the navy, who shall directly or indirectly demand, take, or retain, or procure, or willingly suffer to be demanded, &c. any fee or valuable consideration, (not being authorized by this act so to do) from any person under pretence of doing any thing hereby directed, or in execution hereof, shall be subject to the same forfeitures, costs, and incapacities, as in s. 30. pl. 113.

provided for taking more than 6d. in the pound, for receiving seamen's wages, 31 G. 2. c. 10. s. 31.

115. FOR INCORPORATING THE MEMBERS OF A SOCIETY commonly called The Marine Society, and their successors, to be elected as is therein mentioned, and for better enabling them to carry on their charitable and useful designs, 12 G. 3. c. 67. [This statute appears of too personal a nature for insertion here.]

116. FOR PREVENTING DESERTION OF SEAMEN FROM British merchant ships trading to H. M.'s colonies and plantations in the West Indies, 37 G. 3. c. 73. [PUBLIC clause, s. 12.]

117. Every seaman, mariner, or other person, who shall desert at any time during the voyage, either out or home, from any British merchant ship trading to or from the British West Indies, shall (besides the punishment to which he is by law subject) forfeit all wages due to him during that voyage, id. s. 1.

118. Every master of a British merchant-ship engaging to serve on board his ship any seaman, &c. who shall to his knowledge have deserted from any other vessel, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 9. pl. 125., id. s. 2.

119. No master of any merchant-ship which shall sail from any port in G. B., shall hire, or cause, &c. to be hired any seaman, &c., at any place within the British West Indies, to serve on board thereof, for greater wages than at double monthly wages, contracted for with the seamen, &c. engaged to serve on board such vessel at her last departure from G. B., in the same stations: unless the governor, chief magistrate, collector, or comptroller of such place in West Indies, think that greater wages should be given to such seamen, &c. and direct same to be given by writing under his hand: in which case the master may pay, and seamen receive the same: and all contracts and other securities entered into contrary to this act, shall be void, and the master or other person who shall enter into the same, or cause, &c. or who shall engage, or cause, &c. any seaman, &c. to enter on board any vessel contrary to this act, or who shall pay, or cause, &c. any greater wages, gratuity, or advantage, for any seaman, &c. so engaged at such port in the West Indies, than are hereby allowed, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered and applied as in s. 9., id. s. 3.

120. Every master of any merchant-ship trading to the British West Indies shall have on board his ship at clearing out from G. B., one apprentice, under 17 years old, duly indentured for 3 years, for every 100 tons, and so in proportion for every 100 tons registered admeasurement; and the indentures shall be duly enrolled at the custom-house, with the collector, or controller, within one month after date of execution, which apprentices are exempt from serving in the navy for such 3 years; and every owner or master neglecting so to enrol them, shall forfeit 10*l.* payable one moiety by the owner, and the other by the master, to be recovered and applied as in s. 9. pl. 125., id. s. 4.

121. Every master of such ship shall in 10 days after arrival at any British West India port, or at any port in G. B., deliver on oath, to be made before the port collector, or comptroller, respectively, an exact list of the crew on board at their clearance from G. B., and of that on board on such arrival, and with an exact list and description of every seaman, &c. who has deserted or died during the voyage; also a true account of the wages due to the latter at his death: or on neglect shall forfeit 30*l.*, for which list, &c. so delivered, the collector, &c. may demand 2*s.* 6*d.* only, and all persons may inspect such list from time to time, paying 1*s.* to such collector, &c., id. s. 5.

122. No seaman, &c. who shall at any British West India port, engage to serve, or who shall in the said colonies enter on board any merchant ship sailing from G. B., shall be entitled to, nor shall sue for, recover or receive any greater wages or other gratuity soever for his service, than the wages by s. 1. pl. 117. and s. 3. pl. 119. regulated, id. s. 6.

123. Every sum of money due for wages to any seaman, &c. engaged on board any British merchant ship for any voyage, from any port in G. B., to any port in the said colonies, and who has died during the voyage, shall within 3 calendar months after her arrival in G. B., be paid to the receiver of the 6*d.* duty for Greenwich hospital, to the use of his executors or administrators, by the master of such ship, on penalty of 50*l.* and double the amount of the wages due to such seaman, id. s. 7.

124. Every such sum not lawfully demanded of such receiver, within 3 years after payment thereof to him, as in s. 7. shall be forfeited, and paid to the use of the seamen's hospital of the port to which such ship belongs, but if there is no such hospital, then to the use of the old and disabled seamen thereof, and their families, to be distributed at discretion of any 2 or more of the county magistrates, id. s. 8.

125. The penalties and forfeitures given by this act shall be recovered by bill, plaint, or information in any court of record at Westminster: or if not exceeding 30*l.*, on information on oath of one witness before any justice in any part of G. B., not residing more than 10 miles from the abode of the offender, who shall issue his warrant to bring the latter before him: and in case of nonpayment, shall issue his warrant to levy same by distress and sale of offender's goods: and if no distress, shall commit him for 3 calendar months to the common gaol within their jurisdiction: the above penalties shall be applied thus; 1-3*d.* to Greenwich hospital: 1-3*d.* to the support of the seamen's hospital in the port to which the vessel belongs, (or if there is no such hospital at the port, to the old and disabled seamen thereof, and their families, to be distributed at discretion of the directors of the merchants' seamen's fund at such port, and if no such establishment be there, by the magistrates and overseers of the poor of such port,) and the other 1-3*d.* to him who shall inform and sue for same, 37 G. 3. c. 73. s. 9.

126. Nothing herein shall extend to any agreement made with any seaman, &c. hired to serve on board any merchant ship at any port within the British West Indies, who at time of such hiring shall produce to the master a certificate under the hand of the master of the ship on board which of he last served, signed before one or more witnesses, stating their usual places of abode, thereby certifying his due discharge from such vessel: which certificate such master shall grant in 3 days after application made by such seaman before a witness, or in default, shall forfeit 20*l.* to be recovered and applied as in s. 9. pl. 125.; nor to any agreement to be made with any seamen, &c. hired to serve on board any merchant ship, who, on account of necessity, hazardous service, or extraordinary duty, require such agreement to be made, and more wages to be given, and of which necessity, &c. proof on oath shall be made before the chief magistrate or principal officer of any port, or justice of the said colonies; provided such seaman, &c. has not deserted his last ship, and that no greater wages be given by any commander, or received by any seaman, &c. except in cases of such necessity, &c. than after the rate of double the monthly wages, or wages to be settled as in s. 3. pl. 119., id. s. 10.

127. The articles to be entered into by and between the masters, seamen, and mariners of such merchant ship, shall be agreeable to those in schedule A., id. s. 11.

128. TO PREVENT THE DESERTION AND ESCAPE OF petty officers, seamen, and others, from H. M.'s service, by means or under colour of any civil or criminal process, 44 G. 3. c. 13.

129. Whenever any petty officer or seaman, belonging to H. M.'s navy, or any person who shall have voluntarily entered into or been impressed to serve in H. M.'s navy, shall be arrested or taken in execution by any sheriff or other officer, either by mesne or other process soever, or by warrant for alleged criminal offence, and shall be thereby taken from H. M.'s sea service, or from any ship appointed for receiving volunteers and impressed men, to serve in H. M.'s navy, or out of the custody of any officer of the impress, or other officer in the sea-service, with whom he shall have voluntarily agreed to enter into, or by whom he shall have been impressed, to serve in H. M.'s navy, or who shall have charge of him, the sheriff, gaoler, or other officer who shall have arrested any such petty officer, seaman, or other person, or in whose custody the latter shall happen to be, by way of detainer on any such process or charge, by virtue of the sentence of any court, shall not discharge any such petty officer, &c., or by consent of the person, at whose suit, or on whose behalf any such seaman, &c., has been arrested or detained, or on giving bail, or any other security, or any undertaking, either to appear to or to satisfy any such debt, action, or accusation; or in case of conviction for any criminal offence, after expiration of any term for which such seaman, &c., may have been sentenced to be imprisoned; but shall detain and keep every such seaman, &c., in his custody, and shall thereupon forthwith, and as soon as he would be entitled to be discharged out of custody with respect to any such process or warrant, or to any such debt, cause of action, charge, judgment, or sentence, with all convenient speed, safely deliver him over either to some commander-in-chief of a king's ship, or to some commissioned navy officer authorized to raise seamen for H. M.'s service, or to some principal officer employed in regulating the raising men for the fleet, which ever shall be nearest, in order that he may be kept to serve therein; which commander, &c. shall deliver to such sheriff, &c. a certificate directed to the navy treasurer, specifying the receipt of such seaman, &c., and the places from or to which such seamen, &c. shall have been conveyed; and such sheriff shall, on the delivery of such certificate, be entitled to receive of the navy treasurer the sum of 2*s.* per mile only for conveying and delivering such seaman, &c. id. s. 1.

130. In case any such petty officer, seaman, &c., as in s. 1. pl. 129. shall be removed out of the custody of any sheriff, &c., as in s. 1. by whom he has been arrested, as in s. 1., or in whose custody he is, into that of any other sheriff, &c., by habeas corpus or otherwise, the sheriff, &c. so having arrested such seaman, &c. or in whose custody the latter is, shall certify in writing to the sheriff, &c. into whose custody such seaman, &c. shall be removed, on the back of the process of removal, that such person so removed is a petty officer, seaman, &c. and liable to be detained for H. M.'s service; and so toties quoties on every such removal, id. s. 2.

131. If any sheriff, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 129. shall not convey, for the said purpose, any such petty officer, seaman, or other person, to not exceeding 80 miles for 2 days, or 120 miles for 3 days, and so to any greater distance at 40 miles per day, after the time that he ought to be conducted according to this act, but shall wilfully detain him for more than that time, then such sheriff, &c. shall be subject to an action on the case at suit of the seaman, &c. so detained, 44 G. 3. c. 13. s. 3.

133. Every sheriff, &c. as in s. 1. pl. 129. who shall not safely convey and deliver any such petty officer, seaman, &c. as in s. 1. but shall suffer him to escape and go at large, shall forfeit 100*l.*, to be recovered in any court of record at Westminster, for offences committed in Eng.; in exchequer at Edinburgh, for those committed in Scot.; and in any court of record in Dublin, for those in Ire., by action of debt, &c. or information without essoin, &c. or more than one imparlance granted, one moiety thereof to go to H. M., and the other to him that will sue, with costs, id. s. 4.

134. Any action brought for any thing done in pursuance of this act, shall be commenced within 3 calendar months next after the fact committed, and shall be laid in the county or place where the complaint arose; defendant may plead general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the jury find for him, or if plaintiff discontinue after appearance, is nonsuited, or has judgment against him on demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 5.

135. IN ORDER TO BRING INTO ONE ACT THE SEVERAL provisions made for prevention and punishment of the crimes of personation and forgery, for the purpose of obtaining seamen's wages and prize-money, into one enactment, it is ENACTED, that if any person shall, willingly or knowingly, personate or falsely assume the name or character of any officer or seaman, officer of marines, or marine, or any other person entitled, or supposed to be entitled to any wages, pay, prize, bounty, or pension money, or other allowances thereof, due or supposed to be due, for services performed, or supposed to be performed, on board any king's ship, or shall cause or procure any person so to do; or if any person shall falsely make, forge, counterfeit, or alter, or cause or procure to be falsely made, &c. or willingly act or assist in the false making, &c. any letter of attorney, order, bill, ticket, certificate of service, or other certificate soever, assignment, last will, or other power or authority soever, in order to receive, or enable any other person to receive any such wages, pay, prize, bounty, or pension money, or other allowance of money, for naval services, with intention to defraud any person or persons body politic, [or corporate soever, first provided for by 49 G. 3. c. 72. s. 21., and again, by 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 89.] or if any person shall utter or publish as true, or shall aid or assist in uttering or publishing as true, any such false, forged, counterfeited, or altered letter of attorney, &c. in order to receive any such wages, &c. with intention to defraud any person, &c. soever, knowing the same to be false, forged, counterfeited, or altered; or if any person shall, willingly or knowingly, take a false oath to obtain probate of any will, or to obtain letters of administration, in order to receive, or to enable any person to receive any such wages, &c. or shall demand or receive any such wages, &c. upon, or by virtue of any probate of any will, or letters of administration, knowing the will to be false, &c. or knowing the probate to have been obtained by means of any such false oath, with intention to defraud any person, body politic or corporate, he shall suffer death as a felon, without benefit of clergy, 57 G. 3. c. 127. s. 4. [Consolidating 31 G. 2. c. 10. s. 24., 9 G. 3. c. 30. s. 6., 45 G. 3. c. 72. and 54 G. 3. c. 93. s. 89.]

136. The treasurer, comptroller, clerk of the acts, or commissioner of the navy, for the time being, may from time to time, in all places, exercise and execute the office of a justice or justices of peace, to all intents and purposes, in causing any person who shall at any time be charged with forging or counterfeiting, or procuring to be forged, &c. any letter of attorney, bill, ticket, certificate, assignment, last will, or other power, or with uttering or publishing the same as true, in order to receive any wages, pay, or other allowance, due to any officer, seaman, or other person, in the service of H. M., or with taking, or procuring false oaths to be taken, for any of the above purposes, or to obtain probate of any will or letters of administration, in order to receive such wages, pay, or other allowance, or with stealing or embezzling any naval stores, H. M.'s property, to be apprehended, committed, and prosecuted for the same; and all constables, gaolers, and peace officers shall, from time to time, diligently execute and obey all warrants directed or given to them, by any one or more of the above persons, touching any of the above matters, 9 G. 3. c. 30. s. 5.

137. FOR FACILITATING THE RECOVERY OF THE WAGES of seamen, in the merchant service, 59 G. 3. c. 58. [not to extend to Scot., id. s. 5. Public clause, id. s. 6.; for 7 years, s. 7.]

138. After the 1st Aug. 1819, every seaman, mariner, or other person, (except masters or apprentices,) who has served on board any vessel trading from any port or place in Eng., to any parts beyond the seas, or to any place in G. B., in pursuance of any contract by deed or parol, (in case the master or other person having the charge of the vessel, after expiration of two days from the time of entry of such vessel at the custom-house, or upon delivery of her cargo, or from the time when such seaman, &c. is discharged, which shall first happen, unless an agreement has been made to the contrary, and then after expiration of the time so stipulated for payment of such wages, shall neglect or refuse to pay to such seaman, &c. his wages, or part thereof, may complain to any justice or justices resident in or near the place where such vessel hath ended her voyage, or been cleared at the custom-house, or delivered her cargo, or to any justice or justices resident near the place where such master, &c. (or if no such master) where any owner of such vessel shall happen to be, which justice, on such complaint made on oath or affirmation, shall issue a summons to such master, &c. or owner, to appear before him at a time and place specified, and whether he appear or not, shall examine on oath such seaman, &c. or any other witnesses, touching such complaint or dispute respecting such wages, and may make such order for payment of so much wages not exceeding 20*l.* as are claimed to be due to any one seaman, &c. as seems just; and in case of refusal to pay, or of non-payment of any sum of money so ordered for two days next after such order, may issue warrant, to levy same by distress and sale of goods, with all costs of summonses, informations, complaints, hearings, warrants, distresses, keeping, appraisement, or sale thereof; and if no sufficient distress found and paid, within two days, shall, by warrant, levy the wages so ordered to be paid, with the above costs on the vessel, for service on board which such wages are ordered to be paid, or any of her tackle, &c. which decision shall be final as well on such seaman, &c. as on such master, &c. and owner, except either party shall interpose, on appeal to the admiralty court, within 7 days after such justice's order, 59 G. 3. c. 58. s. 1.

139. Either party, or their agents respectively, being dissatisfied with the justice's decision touching such wages, may, within 48 hours after making such order, (as in s. 1. pl. 138.) give notice, in writing, to the justice making the same, of his desire of obtaining the judgment of the high court of admiralty respecting the said wages; and the order so made thereon, by delivering the same to such justice, or leaving the same at their last or most usual abode; and the party so resisting such claim or order shall proceed, within 30 days from its date, by taking out monition against the adverse party; and shall, on service of such notice, give good bail in double the amount of wages so ordered to be paid, to be taken by a commissioner for taking examinations in prize causes, (if one is in the port or place where, &c.) or if not, then the above or any other justice shall take the same; and which commissioner or justice, &c. shall certify, as in the schedule, and transmit the same without delay to the said court of admiralty, and also a copy of the order, on unstamped paper, certified as above, to be admitted as evidence in the cause, id. s. 2.

140. No seaman, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 138.) by entering into or signing any agreement as required by the several statutes in force, or into any stipulation to be comprised therein which shall have or is intended to have the effect of depriving him of the remedies by this act given for recovery of wages so due, shall be deprived of using any means for recovery of wages against any ship or the masters or owners thereof, which before this act passed he might, and which, after 1st Aug. 1819, he may make use of; and in all cases where it is necessary in using this act for recovery of wages that such agreement in writing should be produced, no obligation so to do shall lie on such seaman, but on the master or owner, (as in s. 1. pl. 138.) and no seaman, &c. shall fail before such justice for want of its production, but may proceed as if it had not been made id. s. 3.

141. Nothing herein shall deprive any seaman, &c. of any remedy which may now be resorted to against any ship or its master, &c. or owner for recovery of wages, id. s. 4.

SEDITION. (See LIBEL.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. AGAINST SLANDEROUS BILLS, 37 H. 8. c. 10. [REF. by the general words of 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 4.]

2. AGAINST SEDITIONARY WORDS AND RUMOURS, 1 & 2 P. & M. c. 3. [EXPL. 1 EL. c. 6. BOTH EXP.]

3. FOR PREVENTING THE FREQUENT ABUSES IN printing seditious, treasonable and unlicensed books and pamphlets, and for regulating of printing presses, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 33. [CON. 16 C. 2. c. 8., 16 & 17 C. 2. c. 7., 17 C. 2. c. 4., 1 J. 2. c. 17. s. 15. ALL EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. IF ANY PERSON SHALL, by open preaching or express words, affirm or set forth that the king is not or ought not to be supreme head of the church of Eng. and Ire. under God, or that the bishop of Rome or any other person is or ought to be supreme head of such churches, or that the king is not or ought not to be king of Eng. France and Ire., or do compass and imagine, by open preaching or express words, to depose or deprive him from his royal estate and titles, or do

1350 SEDUCING H. M.'s FORCES, &c.

by open preaching or express words say any other person ought to be king, such offenders, on conviction or attainr according to law, and his aiders, &c. shall forfeit to the king all his goods, and be imprisoned at the king's pleasure, and if he a second time commit any such offences, other than those expressed in 25 E.3. St.5. c.2., he shall, on such conviction and attainr, forfeit to the king all the issues of his lands, &c. and spiritual promotions, and all his goods, and be perpetually imprisoned; third offence high treason, 1 E.6. c.12. s.6. [REF. as to the treason, 1 M. S.1. c.1. s.3.]

2. Peers of the realm indicted for any of the offences limited by this act shall be tried by their peers as in cases of high treason, id. s.15.

3. This act shall not charge any body for calling the French king the king of France, id. s.21.

4. And no indictment lies for such offences without two witnesses, id. s.22.

5. FOR PUNISHMENT OF DIVERS TREASONS, 5 & 6 E.6. c.11. and recited in s.1.

6. If any person, by open preaching or express words, do affirm that H. M. is an heretick, tyrant, infidel or usuper, then such person and his abettors, &c. on conviction according to law, shall forfeit to H. M. all his goods for the first offence, and be imprisoned at H. M.'s pleasure, and for the second offence shall forfeit to H. M. the profits of his lands, benefices, prebends, and other spiritual promotions during life, and all his goods, and shall also suffer perpetual imprisonment, id. s.2.

7. Such spiritual promotions as are charged with cure shall be always furnished by H. M. with curates; third offence, high treason, [REF. as to the treason, 1 M. S.1. c.1. s.3.] id. s.3.

8. Declaring by writing, as in s.1., by words, (id. s.4.) and withholding H. M.'s castles, ships, &c. is high treason, id. s.5. [REF. 1 M. S.1. c.1. s.3.]

9. No person shall be impeached for any the above offences committed by their preaching, &c. unless accused within [30 days if the accusers are within the realm, and 6 months if not, 1 E.6. c.12. s.19.] 3 months after, and such accusation shall be had and declared to one of the king's council, or to a justice of assize, or two justices of the peace within the shire where the offence was done, id. s.10.

10. No person shall be indicted or attainred for such offences unless accused by two accusers, who, at the time of arraignment, shall be brought in person before the accused, and avow what they have to say against him, and prove him guilty, unless he will confess the same, id. s.12.

SEDUCING H. M.'s FORCES, &c.

1. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL AND EXEMPLARY PUNISHMENT of such persons as shall seduce soldiers to desert, or who, being papists, shall enlist themselves in H. M.'s service in G. B. or Ire., Jersey or Guernsey, 1 G.1. St.2. c.47. [AMD. 3 G.1. c.2. s.50., 4 G.3. c.3. s.63., 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.11. ss. 83. 85.]

2. All persons (other than enlisted soldiers) who shall, in G. B. or Ire., Jersey or Guernsey, by words or other means, persuade and procure, or endeavour to procure, any soldier in H. M.'s service to desert, shall forfeit 40*l.* to H. M., or to any other person who will sue for same; and if such offender, being convicted, hath not lands or goods to satisfy the same, or if from the circumstance of the crime it is thought proper, the court before whom the conviction is shall award him to prison for not exceeding 6 months and to stand in the pillory for one hour in the market town in which, or near to the place in which, it was committed, in open market, [but pillory abolished, except in certain cases, 56 G.3. c.158. s.1.], 1 G.1. St.2. c.47. s.1.

3. The penalties for offences committed against 1 G.1. St.2. c.47. s.1. within Eng. shall be recoverable in any court of record at Westminster; for those committed in Scot., in exchequer in Scot.; for those in Ire., in any of the 4 courts at Dublin; for those in Guernsey, Alderney and Sark, and the islands thereto belonging in the royal court of Guernsey; and for those in Jersey, in the royal court thereof, 3 G.1. c.2. s.50., 4 G.3. c.3. s.63., 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.11. s.83.

5. For those in the isle of Man, in any of the courts of record in that island, or in any court of record at Westminster, 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.11. s.85.

6. No action shall be brought or prosecution carried on under this act but within 6 months after the offence, 1 G.1. St.2. c.47. s.2.

7. Any person having professed the popish religion who shall not at the time of enlistment declare to the officer or soldier enlisting him that he hath been or is of the popish religion, shall be liable to such corporal punishment, not extending to life, as a court martial shall inflict, id. s.3.

8. FOR BETTER PREVENTION AND PUNISHMENT of attempts to seduce persons serving in H. M.'s forces by sea or land from their duty or allegiance, or to incite them to mutiny and disobedience, 37 G.3. c.70. [COM. 38 G.3. c.6., 47 G.3. (S.1.) c.15., 54 G.3. c.158., 55 G.3. c.171. MADE PERP., 57 G.3. c.7.]

9. Every person who shall maliciously and advisedly endeavour to seduce any person serving in H. M.'s forces, by sea or land, from his duty and allegiance, or to stir up such person to commit any act mutiny, or to make or endeavour to make any mutinous assembly, or commit any traitorous or mutinous practice shall be guilty of felony, and shall suffer death without clergy, 37 G.3. c.70. s.1.

SERJEANT AT ARMS.

10. Offences against this act, whether committed on the high seas or within Eng., may be tried before any court of oyer and terminer or gaol delivery for any county in Eng., id. s.2.

11. No person tried and acquitted, or convicted of any such offence, shall be liable to prosecution for the same offence as high treason or or misprision of treason; and persons guilty of, but not tried for offences against this act, may be tried for the same as high treason or misprision thereof as before this act passed, id. s.3.

SERJEANT AT ARMS.

1. FOR REGULATING THE NUMBER AND AUTHORITY OF serjeants at arms, 13 R.2. St.1. c.6.

2. The number of serjeants at arms shall be 30 and no more, and they shall not meddle of any thing that toucheth not their office, and shall do no extortion or oppression to the people on pain to lose the office, and make fine and ransom at H. M.'s pleasure, with full satisfaction to the party, id. ibid.

SERVICE AND SACRAMENTS.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. CONCERNING TRUE OPINIONS AND DECLARATIONS OF Christ's religion, 32 H.8. c.26. [REF. by the general words of 1 E.6. c.12. s.3.]

2. FOR RELIEF OF PERSONS DISABLED BY SICKNESS or other impediment from subscribing the declaration in [13 & 14 C.2. c.4. ss.6—8.] the act of uniformity, 15 C.2. c.6., [all but ss.5—7. EXP.]

3. FOR PRESERVING THE PROTESTANT RELIGION by better securing the church of Eng. as by law established, 10 A. c.2. ss.1—6. [REF. 5 G.1. c.4. s.1. See rest of this statute, NONCONFORMIST.]

4. TO PREVENT THE GROWTH OF SCHISM, and for further security of the churches of Eng. and Ire., as by law established, 12 A. St.2. c.7. [REF. 5 G.1. c.4. s.1.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. AGAINST PERSONS UNREVERENTLY SPEAKING against the sacrament of the body and blood of Christ, and for the receiving thereof, 1 E.6. c.1. [REF. 1 M. S.2. c.2. REV. 1 E.1. c.1. s.14.]

2. Any person contemning the blessed sacrament of the altar, by contemptuous words, &c., or advisedly reviling the same, shall be imprisoned with fine and ransom at H. M.'s will; and the justices of peace, or any 3 of them, one being of the quorum, may take information of 2 persons on oath; and on indictment of the offender thereon, inquire into the truth of the information by a jury, at their quarter sessions, 1 E.6. c.1. s.1.

3. The justices before whom such presentment is made, shall examine the accusers, what other witnesses were present at the offence, and shall bind the accusers and any other such witnesses by recognizances in 5*l.* to H. M., to appear before the justices before whom they are to be tried, id. s.2.

4. The justices, or 3 of them (as in s.1. pl.2.) shall make process against every person so indicted, by 2 capias, and one exigent, and by capias ulagatum, as well within the limits of their commission, as into all other H. M.'s dominions; and on offender's appearance, may determine the contempts and offences in s.1. pl.2., and may admit the person so indicted to bail, id. s.3.

5. The said justices, where any offender shall be indicted of any offence, as in s.1. pl.2., shall award one writ to the bishop of the diocese, wherein the offence committed, in this form:

The king to the bishop of London, greeting: We command you, that you, your chancellor, or other deputy sufficiently learned, be with our justices assigned to keep the peace in our county of B. at D., such a day at our session, then and there to be held, to give counsel and advice to the same our justices of peace, on the arraignment and delivery of offenders against the form of the statute concerning the holy sacrament of the altar," id. s.4.

6. No person shall be indicted of any of the offences aforesaid, but within 3 months after they are committed, id. s.5.

7. Such offenders may prove their innocence by as many witnesses, and of as good credence as those who deposed against them, id. s.6.

8. The said most blessed sacrament shall be commonly ministered unto the people within the church of Eng. and Ire., and other H. M.'s dominions, under both the kinds of bread and wine, except necessity otherwise requires; and the priest shall at least one day before, exhort all persons present, to prepare themselves to receive the same; and when that day cometh, after a godly exhortation by the minister made, (wherein shall be further expressed the benefit to those which worthily receive the said holy sacrament, and the indignation of God threatened to those who presume to receive it unworthily) he shall not, without lawful cause, deny the same to any person that will devoutly and humbly desire it, (not condemning hereby the usage of any church out of H. M.'s dominions,) 1 E. 6. c. 1. s. 7.

9. EVERY STATUTE CONCERNING DOCTRINE OR MATTERS OF religion, and every article, sentence, and forfeiture, declared in any of the same statutes shall henceforth be repealed, 1 E. 6. c. 12. s. 4.

10. FOR UNIFORMITY OF SERVICE AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE sacraments throughout the realm, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1., [and recital in s. 1.], 1 E. c. 2., and recital in s. 1. [The first act is CONF. by 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1. s. 5.; the second and third by 8 E. c. 1. s. 2.; and the whole three are MADE PERF. as to the establishment of the church of Eng. by 5 & 6 A. c. 5. s. 1.; the 2 first were REP. 1 M. S. 2. c. 2.; which is REP. 1 E. c. 2., and 1 J. 1. c. 28. s. 48.]

11. The book of common prayer, authorized by 5 E. 6. c. 1., with the alterations by this statute, viz. s. 3. pl. 13. shall be in force, 1 E. c. 2. s. 2.

12. "The book of common prayer," with addition of the form of consecrating of archbishops, bishops, priests, and deacons, shall be of like force, and used in like manner, as provided by 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1., 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1. s. 5.

13. All ministers, in any cathedral or parish church within H. M.'s dominions, shall use the mattins, evening song, celebration of Lord's supper, and administration of each of the sacraments, and all their common and open prayer, in such form [and order 1 E. c. 2. ss. 3—4.], as is contained in the book of common prayer, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 1., 1 E. c. 2. s. 3.

14. The mattins, &c., as in last pl., viz. of 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1., shall be used in the order mentioned in the common prayer-book, with one alteration, or addition of certain lessons to be used on every Sunday in the year; and the form of the litany corrected, and 2 sentences added in the delivery of the sacraments to the communicants, 1 E. c. 2. s. 3.

15. Every minister refusing to do as in pl. 11., or wilfully using any other rites, or preaching or speaking in derogation of that book, or any thing therein, and being convicted thereof, by verdict of 12 men, or by confession, or notorious evidence of the fact, shall forfeit to H. M. one year's whole profits of [such one as H. M. shall assign of, 1 E. c. 2. s. 4.] all his spiritual benefices, with 6 months' imprisonment, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 1., as AMD. by 1 E. c. 2. s. 4. On conviction for a 2d offence, shall suffer a year's imprisonment and deprivation of spiritual benefices, id. s. 1., 1 E. c. 2. s. 5. s. p.; on conviction for 3d offence, [like deprivation, 1 E. c. 2. s. 4.], and imprisonment for life, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 1.; 1 E. c. 2. s. 6. s. p.; and if unbeneficed, shall be imprisoned 6 months for the first, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 1., and 1 E. c. 2. s. 7. s. p.; and for life for the 2d offence, id. s. 1., and id. s. 8. s. p.

16. If any person shall, in any interludes, plays, songs, rhimes, or by other open words, speak, or declare any thing in derogation, depraving, or despising of the said book, or of any thing therein; or shall by open fact or threatenings, cause or maintain any person or minister to sing or say any common prayer, or minister any sacrament, otherwise than is therein mentioned; or by the said means, shall unlawfully interrupt any person or minister to sing or say common prayer, or minister the sacraments in manner therein mentioned, every person thereof convicted, as in s. 1. pl. 15., shall forfeit to H. M., for the first offence 10*l.*, [100 marks are also given, 1 E. c. 2. s. 9.]; and for a 2d offence 20*l.*, [400 marks also given, 1 E. c. 2. s. 10.]; for a 3d offence, shall forfeit to H. M. all his goods, and shall suffer imprisonment during his life, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 2. [as AMD. by 1 E. c. 2. ss. 9—10.]

17. And if any person convicted of a first offence do not pay the sum within 6 weeks after conviction, he shall, instead of the 10*l.* be imprisoned 3 months, [or instead of the 100 marks, (viz. 66*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*), 6 months, 1 E. c. 2. s. 12.], or for a second, unpaid as above, instead of the 20*l.*, shall be imprisoned 6 months, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 2., [or instead of the 400 marks, (viz. 266*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.*), 12 months, 1 E. c. 2. s. 13.]

18. All justices of oyer and terminer, or of assize, shall have power to inquire, hear, and determine all offences against this act; and may make process for execution thereof, as they may do against persons indicted of trespass, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 3., 1 E. c. 2. s. 17.

19. Every archbishop and bishop may at pleasure associate himself to the said justices of oyer and terminer, or of assize, within his diocese, for hearing and determining the said offences, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 4.

20. Any man may say his prayers privately in any foreign tongue, Latin, Greek, Hebrew, &c., id. s. 5.

21. And the universities of Oxford and Cambridge may celebrate divine service in their chapels, not being parish churches, (except the holy communion,) in Greek, Latin, or Hebrew, id. s. 6.

22. All men may use any psalms or prayers taken out of the bible, at due time, not omitting the service in the said book, id. s. 7.

23. All persons inhabiting within H. M.'s dominions, shall diligently, having no reasonable excuse, endeavour to resort to their parish church or chapel, accustomed, or upon reasonable let thereof, to some usual place where common prayer shall be used, on every Sunday and holy-day, and there abide orderly during the time of the common prayer, preachings, or other service of God, on pain of punishment by ecclesiastical censures; [and also on penalty of 12*d.*, to be levied by the churchwardens of the parish, to the use of the poor, by way of distress, 1 E. c. 2. s. 14. only], 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1. s. 2., and 1 E. c. 2. s. 14.

24. All archbishops, bishops, and other ordinaries, shall endeavour that one execution hereof be had, as they will answer before God, id. s. 3. and id. s. 15.; and they and their officers exercising ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as well in place exempt as not exempt, shall have power to reform and punish by church censures, all persons offending within their dioceses against this act, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1. s. 4. and 1 E. c. 2. s. 16.

25. If any person shall wilfully be present at any other form of common prayer, administration of the sacraments, mocking of ministers in the church, or any other rights contained in the book hereto annexed, (see s. 5. pl. 20.), than is set forth therein, or that is contrary to the provisions in 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1., and shall be convicted before the justices of assize, of oyer and terminer, or of peace, in their sessions, by verdict or confession, or otherwise, he shall for the first offence suffer imprisonment for 6 months; for the 2d for one year; and for the 3d for life; and every curate shall once a-year read this act in the church, at the same time declaring, by authority of scripture, how the mercy and goodness of God hath in all ages been shewed to his people in their necessities, by means of hearty prayer to him, especially where people be gathered together, with one faith and mind, to offer up their hearts by prayers, as the best sacrifices that Christian men can yield, 5 & 6 E. 6. c. 1. s. 6.

26. No man shall be molested for any of the above offences, except he be indicted at the next general sessions of oyer and terminer, or of assize held next after any offence committed, id. s. 9. and 1 E. c. 2. s. 20.

27. Lords of parliament shall be tried for such offences by their peers, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 10.; for the 3d offence only, 1 E. c. 2. s. 21.

28. The mayor of London, and all chief officers of cities and towns corporate, within Eng. and Wa., to which justices of assize do not commonly repair, may inquire, hear and determine the above offences yearly, in 15 days after the feast of Easter, and St. Michael, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 1. s. 11., and 1 E. c. 2. s. 23.

29. All archbishops, bishops, and their chancellors, commissioners, archdeacons, and other ordinaries, having peculiar ecclesiastical jurisdiction, may enquire at their visitations and synods, and elsewhere within their jurisdiction, as well as take informations of such offences committed therein, and punish them by admonition, excommunication, sequestration, deprivation, and other ecclesiastical censures, id. s. 12. and id. s. 23.

30. But whatever offender shall for the first offence receive punishment from the ordinary, having a testimonial thereof, under his seal, shall not be punished for the same offence before the justices; and the converse, id. s. 13. and id. s. 24.

31. Such ornaments of the church, and the ministers thereof, shall be retained, as was in this church of Eng. by authority of parliament in 2 E. 6., till other order be therein taken, by authority of H. M., with advice of his commissioners, for causes ecclesiastical or of the metropolitan, 1 E. c. 2. s. 25.

32. If any contempt or irreverence be used in the ceremonies of the church, by misusing the orders appointed in this book, H. M. may, by like advice of the commissioners or metropolitan, publish such further ceremonies as may be most for advancement of God's glory, the edifying his church and due reverence of Christ's holy mysteries and sacraments, id. s. 26.

33. All laws, whereby any other service or common prayer are established within H. M.'s dominions, are void, id. s. 27.

34. AGAINST OFFENDERS OF PREACHERS AND OTHER MINISTERS in the church, 1 M. S. 2. c. 3.

35. If any persons, of their own authority, shall, of purpose, by open word or deed, maliciously or contemptuously disturb, or by any other unlawful ways, disquiet or misuse any preacher, licensed or authorized to preach by H. M., or by any archbishop or bishop of this realm, or by any other lawful ordinary, or by any of the universities, or lawfully authorized, by reason of his cure or spiritual promotion, in his open sermon, preaching or collation, in any church, chapel, church-yard, or other place, used or appointed to be preached in; or if any persons shall maliciously disturb, any person or curate, or any lawful priest, celebrating divine service, sacraments or sacramentals, authorized by H. M.; or if any persons shall unlawfully abuse the holy sacrament, or unlawfully deface any altar, crucifix or cross, in any church, chapel or church-yard: every such offender, his aiders, procurers or abettors, shall be apprehended by any constable, churchwarden or other officer, or by any other person present at the time of the offence, and carried to any justice of peace; and the justice, on due accusations thereupon, shall commit the persons apprehended to custody; and, within 6 days after, the said justice, with one other justice, shall examine the offences; and, if they find the said persons guilty of the above offences, and that by 2 witnesses or their own confession, they shall commit them to gaol for 5 months, and to the next quarter sessions at which they on repentance, before the justices, shall be discharged on surety of good behaviour for one year; and if they will not be reconciled and repent, they shall be further committed to gaol till they be reconciled, and be penitent for the offences, 1 M. S. 2. c. 8. ss. 2—6.

36. If any persons of their own authority rescue any offender so apprehended, or will hinder the said offenders to be apprehended, the said rescuers or disturbers, shall suffer like imprisonment, and further forfeit 5l., id. s. 7.

37. If any of the said offenders be not taken immediately, but escape, the same shall be presented at the next quarter sessions, and the inhabitants of the parish where the escape was suffered shall forfeit to H. M. 5l., to be levied as other amercements have been levied on any hundred or town, for escape of any murderer or other felon, for not making pursuit upon hue and cry, id. s. 8.

38. Justices of peace, of assize, of oyer and terminer, and all mayors and justices of peace, with any city or town corporate, may enquire of the above offences, and hear and determine the same, id. s. 9.

39. This act shall not take away the jurisdiction of the ecclesiastical laws, id. s. 10.; but whatever person shall for any of the above offences receive punishment of the ordinary, having testimonial thereof, under his seal, shall not for the same offence be convicted before the justices and the converse, id. s. 11.

40. TO REFORM CERTAIN DISORDERS touching ministers of the church, and that they be of sound religion, 13 El. c. 12. [AMD. 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4., 15 C. 2. c. 6. ss. 3, 5, 7. MADE PERP. as so amended 5 & 6 A. c. 5. s. 1., and again CONF. 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 7. AMD. 23 G. 2. c. 28.]

41. If any person ecclesiastical, or having ecclesiastical living, shall advisedly maintain or affirm any doctrine repugnant to the "Articles whereupon it was agreed by the archbishop and bishops of both provinces, and the whole clergy, in the convocation holden at London, A. D. 1562, according to the computation of the church of Eng., for avoiding diversities of opinions, and for establishing of consent touching true religion, put forth by H. M.'s authority;" (see s. 1.) and being convicted before the bishop or ordinary, shall not revoke his error, or after revocation affirm such untrue doctrine, such maintaining and persisting shall be just cause to deprive him of his ecclesiastical promotions, and the bishop or ordinary may deprive such person, 13 El. c. 12. s. 2.

42. No person shall be admitted to any benefice with cure except he be 23 years old at least, and a deacon, and had first subscribed to the articles, in presence of the ordinary, and publicly read them in the parish church of that benefice, with declaration of unfeigned assent to the same, id. s. 3. [The rest of the section seems REP. by 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2. infra, pl. 51.]

43. None shall be made minister, admitted to preach, or minister the sacraments, under the age of 24 years, nor unless he first bring to the bishop of that diocese from men known to the latter to be of sound religion, a testimonial of his honest life, and of his professing the doctrine in the articles; nor unless he be able to render to the ordinary an account of his faith in Latin, according to the articles, or have special gift or ability to be a preacher; nor shall be admitted to the order of deacon or ministry, unless he first subscribe to the articles, id. s. 5.

44. None shall be admitted to any benefice with cure of the value of 30*l.* yearly in H. M.'s books, unless he be a bachelor of divinity, or a preacher allowed by some bishop within the realm, or by one of the English universities, id. s. 6.

45. All admissions to benefices, institutions, and inductions, of any person contrary to this act, and all dispensations to the contrary, shall be void, s. 7.

46. Provided that no title to confer by lapse shall accrue upon any deprivation ipso facto, but in 6 months after notice of such deprivation given by the ordinary to the patron, id. s. 8.

47. FOR THE UNIFORMITY OF PUBLIC PRAYERS and administration of sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies, and for establishing the form of making, ordaining, and consecrating bishops, priests, and deacons in the church of Eng., 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. [AMD., &c. 15 C. 2. c. 6., 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8. s. 11., 5 A. c. 5., 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8. (EXP.), 23 G. 2. c. 28.]

48. Recital of 1 El. c. 2. and of H. M.'s declaration and commission for revising the book of common prayer, with the additions and alterations propounded therein, to be used in all churches in Eng., Wa., and Ber., 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 1.

49. All ministers in any church or chapel, or other place of public worship within Eng., Wa., and Ber., shall use the morning and evening prayer, celebration and administration of both the sacraments, and all other the public and common prayer, in order as mentioned in the book annexed to this act, intitled "The Book of Common Prayer, &c." and the morning and evening prayers therein shall on every Lord's day, and on all other occasions, and at the times therein appointed, be openly and solemnly read by every minister or curate in every church or chapel, or other place of public worship within this realm, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 2.

50. Every person put into any benefice shall in the church, &c. belonging to it, within 2 months after being in possession thereof on some Lord's day publicly read the morning and evening prayer according to the said book, and after such reading shall before the congregation declare his unfeigned assent thereto, except by leave of the ordinary for any lawful impediment, viz.

'I A. B. do here declare my unfeigned assent and consent to all and every thing contained and prescribed in and by the book intitled 'The Book of Common Prayer,' and administration of the sacraments, and other rites and ceremonies of the church, according to the use of the church of Eng. together with the psalter or psalms of David, pointed as they are to be sung or said in churches, and the form or manner of making, ordaining, and consecrating of bishops, priests, and deacons,' on pain of deprivation, id. s. 6. [which seems REP. 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2. next pl.]

51. Every ecclesiastical person admitted to a benefice with cure, who shall read the articles mentioned in 13 El. c. 12. s. 1. pl. 41., or shall make the declaration therein, at the same time that he shall read the morning and evening prayer, and declare his unfeigned assent to the use of all things therein contained, according to the form in 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 6. (last pl.) shall be adjudged to have complied with 13 El. c. 12. (s. 3. comm. semb.), and shall not be deprived, &c. though the same may not be read within 2 months after his induction, as in s. 2. of that act (pl. 41.) enacted, 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 2. [This seems to REP. the enactment in 13 El. c. 12. s. 3., and 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 6.]

52. Where the proper incumbent of any benefice with cure resides and keeps a curate, the former (not having lawful impediment allowed by the ordinary,) shall once at least monthly, publicly read the common prayers and service, and (if there be occasion) administer each of the sacraments, and other rites of the church, in the parish church or chapel, as in the said book appointed, on pain to forfeit 5l. to the use of the poor of the parish, on conviction by confession or proof of 2 witnesses on oath before 2 justices of peace; and in default of payment within 10 days, to be levied by distress and sale of goods, by their warrant, by the churchwardens and overseers of the poor, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 7. [As to what is a lawful impediment, see s. 11. post. pl. 56. and 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1. next pl.]

53. Every allowance of any lawful impediment given under 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 6. by any ordinary to any person for not reading in the church, &c. belonging to his benefice, in 2 months after his possession thereof, on some Lord's day, publicly the morning and evening prayers, and for not declaring his assent, &c. shall extend for a like time to the not reading the certificate and declaration in ss. 8—9. and s. 11. though the latter be not mentioned in the allowance, 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1., [but seems EXP. since the provision in s. 2. ante, pl. 51.]

54. Every dean, canon, and prebendary, of every cathedral or collegiate church, and all masters, and heads, fellows, chaplains, and tutors, in any college, hall, &c. or hospital, and every public professor and reader in either university, and in every college elsewhere, and every other person in holy orders, and every school-master, and person teaching youth in any house or private family, as a tutor or school-master, shall at or before his admission to possession, subscribe the declaration or acknowledgement following, id. s. 8.

'I A. B. do declare, that I will conform to the liturgy of the church of Eng., as it is now by law established.' id. s. 9.

[This part is not REP. by 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 19., or 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 8. s. 11. and now in force, and see the expired regulation in 2 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8. as to restoring persons who have forfeited their benefices by neglect to subscribe.]

55. Which declaration shall be subscribed by every such master, and head, &c., as in last pl. before the vice-chancellor, or his deputy; and shall be subscribed before the archbishop, bishop, or ordinary of the diocese, by every other person hereby enjoined the same, on pain of forfeiture of such deanry, &c. and deprivation thereof, and such deanry, &c. ecclesiastical promotion, curate's place, lecture, and school, shall be void, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 10.

56. If any school-master, or other person instructing youth in any private family as a tutor or school-master, shall instruct any youth as such, before licence obtained from his archbishop, bishop, or ordinary of the diocese, according to the laws of this realm, (paying the fee of 12*d.* only) and before such subscription made, he shall for the first offence be three months imprisoned, and for every other such offence shall suffer a like imprisonment, and forfeit to H. M. 5l. And after subscription made, every such parson, &c. shall procure a certificate under the hand and seal of the archbishop, &c. and shall publicly read the same, with such declaration, upon some Lord's day, in 3 months next following, in his parish church, in presence of the congregation, in time of divine service, on pain of losing such benefice or place, and being ipso facto deprived of the same, id. s. 11.

57. No person shall be capable to be admitted to any ecclesiastical benefice or dignity, nor shall consecrate or administer the sacrament of the Lord's supper, before being ordained priest, according to the form in the said book prescribed, unless made priest by episcopal ordination; upon pain to forfeit 100*l.*, one moiety to H. M., the other to be divided between the poor of the parish and the informer suing for the same in any of H. M.'s courts of record, and be disabled from taking the order of priest for one year, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 14.

58. The penalties in this act shall not extend to the foreigners of the foreign reformed churches allowed by H. M. in Eng., id. s. 15.

59. No title to confer or present by lapse shall accrue by any avoidance or deprivation ipso facto by this statute, but after 6 months from notice of avoidance given by the ordinary to the patron, or sentence of deprivation publicly read in the parish church, id. s. 16.

60. No form of common prayer, administration of sacraments, rites or ceremonies, shall be openly used in any church, &c. in any college or hall in the universities, the colleges of Westminster, Winchester, or Eton, other than is appointed by the said book; and every governor or head thereof, within one month next after his election or collation [and admission, shall publicly in the church, chapel, or other public place of the same college, &c. in presence of the fellows and scholars, &c. subscribe to the nine and thirty articles of religion, mentioned in 13 El. c. 12. and to the said book, and declare his unfeigned assent to and approbation of the articles and book, and to the use of all the prayers and forms in the said book contained. And all such governors, &c. or any of them, being in holy orders, shall once at least in every quarter (not having a lawful impediment) publicly read the morning prayer and service by the said book appointed in the church, chapel, &c. of the same college or hall, upon pain to be suspended from all the benefits of the same government, &c. 6 months by the visitor. And if any governor, &c. of any college, &c. so suspended for not subscribing, or for not reading of the morning prayer and service as aforesaid, shall not at or before 6 months after such suspension subscribe to the said articles and book, and declare his consent thereto as aforesaid, or read the morning prayer and service, such headships shall be ipso facto void, id. s. 17. [See 23 G. 2. c. 28. s. 1. above.]

61. It shall be lawful to use the morning and evening prayer, and all other service prescribed in the said book, in the colleges, &c. in the universities, in the colleges of Westminster, Winchester, and Eton, and in the convocations of the clergy, in Latin, id. s. 18.

62. No person shall be a lecturer, or allowed to preach or read any sermon or lecture in any church, &c. unless first licenced by the archbishop of the province, or bishop of the diocese, or by the guardian of the spiritualities, under seal, and shall in their presence read the thirty-nine articles, with declaration of his unfeigned assent to them. And every person licensed as a lecturer in any church, &c. the first time he preacheth (before his sermon) shall publicly read the common prayers appointed for that time, and then publicly declare his assent unto, and approbation of, the said book, and to the use of all the prayers, &c. therein contained, according to the form in s. 6. pl. 50. appointed; and shall on the first lecture day of every month, before his sermon, publicly read the common prayers and service appointed, and shall before the congregation declare his unfeigned assent unto, and approbation of the said book, &c. and on neglect so to do, shall be disabled to preach any lecture or sermon in any church, chapel, or place of public worship, until he shall publicly read the common prayers and service appointed by the said book, and conform in all points to the things therein appointed, id. s. 19.

63. Every subscription made before any vicar-general or chancellor, to any archbishop or bishop, or commissary to the chancellor of Canterbury, or any other bishop, is effectual, 15 C. 2. c. 6. s. 5.

64. If the sermon or lecture is to be preached or read in any cathedral or collegiate church or chapel, the lecturer may openly at the time aforesaid, declare his assent to all things contained in the said book as in s. 6, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 20.

65. If any person, by this act disabled to preach any sermon or lecture, shall, during the time he is disabled, preach any sermon or lecture, he shall be 3 months imprisoned in the common gaol; and any 2 justices of any county, and the mayor, &c. of any city or town corporate, on certificate from the ordinary, of the offence, shall commit him, id. s. 21.

66. The penalties of 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 21. shall be also inflicted on every person so offending, who is prohibited by the act to preach, 15 C. 2. c. 6. s. 7.

67. The common prayers and service shall be publicly read by some priest or deacon in the church, &c. before any such sermon or lecture be preached, and the lecturer shall be present at the reading thereof, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 22.

68. This act shall not extend to the university churches, when any sermon or lecture is preached or read as the public university sermon or lecture, id. s. 23.

69. The several laws now in force for the uniformity of prayer and administration of the sacraments, shall stand in force for the confirming the said book, and no other, id. s. 24.

70. In those prayers, litanies and collects, which relate to the king, queen, or royal progeny, the names be altered to the present occasion, according to the direction of lawful authority, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 4. s. 25.

71. A true printed copy of the said book shall at the costs of the parishioners of every parish church, &c. be gotten, on pain of forfeiture of 3*l.* by the month, for so long as they shall be unprovided thereof, id. s. 26.

72. The bishops of Hereford, St. David's, Asaph, Bangor, and Llandaff, shall take order among themselves, that the book be translated into and printed in the Welsh tongue, so that one of them so translated may be had for every cathedral, collegiate and parish church and chapel of ease in Wa., and the whole divine service shall be used by the ministers throughout Wa., where the Welsh tongue is commonly used, in the Welsh tongue; and one other such book in the English tongue, shall be in every church throughout Wa., and remain in such convenient places within them, for resort to read the same, id. s. 27.

73. The deans and chapters of every cathedral or collegiate church, shall obtain under great seal, a printed copy of this act, and of the said book annexed hereunto, to be by their chapters preserved for ever, and produced in any court of record when lawfully required. And copies of this act, and of the same book shall be delivered into the courts at Westminster, and into the tower of London, to be kept among the records for production as need shall require, as records, id. s. 28.

74. This act shall not be prejudicial to H. M.'s professor of the law in Oxford, concerning the prebend of Shipton, within the cathedral church of Sarum, annexed to his place, id. s. 29.

75. All subscriptions to the articles shall be applied (touching the 36th article) unto the book of ordaining and consecrating of bishops, priests, and deacons, in this act mentioned, id. ss. 30—31.

76. FOR SECURING THE CHURCH OF Eng. AS BY LAW ESTABLISHED, 5 & 6 A. c. 5. [Inserted in the act of union with Scot., 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 7. and Amd. id. ss. 8—9.]

77. The 13 El. c. 12. and 13 C. 2. c. 4. for uniformity of public prayers, &c. other than such clauses as have been repealed or altered by subsequent acts of parliament, and all other acts of parliament now in force for the establishment and preservation of the church of Eng., and the doctrine, worship, discipline, and government thereof, as by law established in Eng., Ire., Wa., and Ber., and the territories thereunto belonging, shall remain in force for ever, 5 & 6 A. c. 5. s. 2.

78. This act shall for ever be a fundamental and essential part of any treaty of union concluded between the 2 kingdoms of Eng. and Scot., and shall be inserted in express terms in any statute for settling and ratifying the same, and shall be therein declared to be an essential and fundamental part thereof, id. s. 3. and 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 9. s. p.

79. Every king or queen coming to the royal government of the kingdom of G. B., shall at the coronation, in presence of all persons present, take and subscribe an oath to maintain and preserve inviolably the said settlement of the church of Eng., its doctrine, worship, discipline, and government, as by law established within Eng., Ire., Wa., and Ber., and the territories thereunto belonging, 5 & 6 A. c. 8. Art. 25. s. 8.

SERVICES, PUBLIC.

1. TO DIRECT ACCOUNTS OF INCREASE AND DIMINUTION OF public salaries, pensions, and allowances to be annually laid before parliament, and to regulate and control the grant and payment thereof, 50 G. 3. c. 117. [Amd. 51 G. 3. c. 21. ExPL. 53 G. 3. c. 86.]

2. An annual account up to 1 Jan. preceding, of any increase and diminution in the number of persons employed in public offices or departments, or in the salaries and expences paid or incurred in respect of them, specifying the amount and nature thereof, and distinguishing therein every increase and diminution in the amount of all superannuations to persons having held office in any such public offices, or employed in any public services under the same, specifying the length and nature of their services, the amount of salary received by them immediately before superannuation, and also the grounds of any such increase or diminution, in the establishment of any such public offices, or of any such salaries or allowances, shall be annually laid before parliament between 1st Feb. and 25th March, 50 G. 3. c. 117. [Ext. to the office of the Commissioners for affairs of India, 51 G. 3. c. 75. s. 2. and 55 G. 3. c. 155. s. 91.]

3. Nothing in 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 1. which subjects the accounts of increase and diminution of public salaries, pensions, and allowances, to annual revision by parliament, shall extend to prevent H. M. in council from granting naval compensations and pensions, (s. 1.) as used before that act, which pensions shall then be placed on the ordinary navy estimate, and laid annually before parliament, 55 G. 3. c. 86. ss. 1—2.

4. No compensation for abolition of office or special allowance to person holding civil employment in a public office for good services, and no compensation to him in nature of a superannuation or retired allowance, shall be granted without concurrence of the treasury, 55 G. 3. c. 86. s. 3.

rified by warrant, or their secretary's letter to the head of any department, or by their signature to the grant thereof, except by order of H. M. in council, 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 2.

5. This shall not extend to any half-pay, or allowances in lieu thereof, or military or naval allowances, or pensions granted under order of H. M. in council, in offices of the secretary at war, of the master-general of ordnance, or of the admiralty, id. s. 3.

6. Accounts of army, ordnance, navy, or marines' half-pay, and all military and naval allowances and pensions granted in the said offices under order in council, shall be laid before the house of commons in separate estimates, with those of army, ordnance, and navy, respectively, distinct from accounts of any allowances, &c. in civil departments of such offices, id. s. 4. [See 53 G. 3. c. 86. pl. 5.]

7. Accounts of allowances, &c. on superannuation or retirement from office in any civil department of such offices, shall annually be laid before the house of commons, as in s. 4. pl. 6., but distinct from the estimates of such departments respectively, 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 5.

8. An account of the annual produce of sale of old hard stores, shall be annually laid before parliament, and credited in the navy estimates, and shall not be charged with payment of any pension or allowance received, id. s. 6.

9. Exception as to pensions, &c. now charged thereon, till included in navy estimates for 1811, from which they shall be in future paid, id. s. 7.

10. In every office and public department in which the establishment of the office is paid by any fund of fees received therein, all allowances paid in the nature of superannuations or rewards to any person for any public services, shall be first charged on, and paid from such fee fund, and where it proves deficient, an estimate of the deficiency shall be submitted annually to the house of commons, and shall be supplied by a vote of parliament, id. s. 8.

11. Such deficiency in the fee funds of the offices of the principal secretary of state, privy council, and treasury, shall be made good out of [the civil list, altered by 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6. as follows,] any funds granted by parliament to discharge such expences of a civil nature, as do not form a part of the ordinary charges of civil list; and all allowances for public services made, as in 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 8., in any department, the establishment of which is wholly charged on the civil list, shall also be charged on that fund, 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 9. as AMD. 56 G. 3. c. 46. s. 6.

12. In every public office where there is no such fee fund for payment of the establishment thereof, such offices not being in receipt of revenue, or wholly charged on the civil list, the whole of such allowances for public services shall annually be laid before the commons by estimate, and voted and charged on such funds as parliament shall direct, 50 G. 3. c. 117. s. 10.

13. Future allowances as pensions or superannuations shall be paid without deduction for any duties imposed by parliament, except property-tax under 46 G. 3. c. 65. [which is Exp.] id. s. 11.

14. Where the officer is under 60 years old, no allowance, &c. shall be granted, unless on certificate of the heads of his department, that he is incapable of the duties of his office from mental or bodily infirmity; when if he has served 10 years, an annual sum not exceeding 1-3d of the salary and emoluments of his office may be granted him as a superannuation; if having served 10 and less than 20 years, a sum not exceeding one-half thereof; if above 20 years, a sum not exceeding 2-3ds thereof; if above 60 years old and having served 15 years, a sum not exceeding 2-3ds thereof, without such certificate; if 65 years old and having served 40 years, a sum not exceeding 3-4ths thereof; if 65 years old and having served 50 years, a sum not exceeding the whole thereof, id. s. 12.

15. No pension shall be granted for service in foreign courts, in less than 10 years from the date of his first appointment, or for less than 3 years' service; and shall not exceed 2000*l.* per ann., with entire abatement on appointment to any office of greater, and proportionate if of lesser amount, id. s. 13.

16. Such grantee must be 35 years old; and the secretary of state for foreign affairs must certify to treasury, that he has not within such 10 years declined to serve in any equal or superior rank than his last station before such pension shall be granted, id. s. 14.

17. The provisions in 50 G. 3. c. 117. ss. 13—14. do not apply to persons, who previously to passing that act had served the crown in foreign courts, nor to 22 G. 3. c. 82. so far as respects the grant of allowances by H. M. to persons who previous to passing that act had so served the crown, 51 G. 5. c. 21.

SET OFF.

1. TO ALLOW MUTUAL DEBTS TO BE SET AGAINST EACH OTHER, 2 G. 2. c. 23. c. 13. [MADE PERP. and AMD. 8 G. 2. c. 24. ss. 4—5. This title is framed from the purport of these sections; the rest of these acts relate to insolvents, and are expired.]

SEWERS.

2. When there are mutual debts between the plaintiff and defendant, or if either party sue as executor or administrator where there are mutual debts between the testator or intestate, and either party, one debt may be set against another; and such matter may be given in evidence upon the general issue, or pleaded in bar, as the case requires, so as at time of pleading the general issue, where such debt of the plaintiff, his testator or intestate, is intended to be insisted on in evidence, notice shall be given of the sum or debt so intended to be insisted on, and upon what account it became due, otherwise such matter shall not be allowed on evidence upon such general issue, 2 G. 2. c. 22. s. 13.

3. Mutual debts may be set against each other in manner in 2 G. 2. c. 22. s. 13. mentioned, notwithstanding such debts are deemed in law of a different nature, unless in cases where either of such debts accrue by reason of a penalty in any bond or specialty; and in all cases where either the debt for which action brought, or the debt intended to be set against the same, hath accrued by reason of such penalty, the debt intended to be set off shall be pleaded in bar, in which plea shall be shewn how much is justly due on either side; and in case the plaintiff shall recover in any such action, judgment shall be entered for no more than what is justly due, when one debt is set against the other, 8 G. 2. c. 24. s. 5.

SEWERS.

(STATUTE expired and repealed.)

FOR GRANTING COMMISSIONERS OF SEWERS, 18 H. 6. c. 10., 12 E. 4. c. 6., 23 H. 6. c. 8., 4 & 5 H. 7. c. 1., 12 C. 2. c. 6. [Exp. and Rep. 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 6.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR GRANTING COMMISSIONS OF SEWERS, 6 H. 6. c. 5. [MADE PERP. 6 H. 8. c. 10.]

2. During 10 years, commissions of sewers shall be made by the chancellor, to be sent into all parts of the realm, where shall be needful, according to the form in this act, 6 H. 6. c. 5. [Another form is appointed by 23 H. 8. c. 5. which includes all the powers mentioned in that appointed in this act; except that by this commission power is given to the commissioners, if need be, to stop up the trenches of fresh water descending to the sea; which power is not granted in express words by 23 H. 8. c. 5.]

3. COMMISSIONERS OF SEWERS SHALL HAVE POWER TO ORDAIN AND EXECUTE the ordinances and other affairs, to be made according to the purport of the commissions, 8 H. 6. c. 3.

4. THE 6 H. 6. c. 5. AND ALL OTHER AUTHORITIES CONCERNING COMMISSIONS OF sewers, shall endure for ever; and the chancellor shall have power to grant commissions of sewers to persons named by the chancellor, 6 H. 8. c. 10. s. 1. [semble, Rev. and MADE PERP. by 22 H. 8. c. 5. s. 6.]

5. The chancellor shall make no commission to any person for the execution of this act, except he have lands of freehold to the yearly value of 20*l.* or be justice of quorum learned, within the shires, 6 H. 8. c. 10. s. 3.

6. If such commission be directed to any person not having lands, &c. or not being justice of the quorum; such commission, and all presentments before such commissioners, shall be void, id. s. 3.

7. A GENERAL ACT CONCERNING COMMISSIONS OF SEWERS to be directed in all parts within this realm, 23 H. 8. c. 5. [MADE PERP. 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 8. s. 1. AMD. 25 H. 8. c. 10., 13 E. 1. c. 9. Ext. to sea sands in Glamorganshire, 1 M. St. 3. c. 11., to all water-courses falling into Thames within 2½ miles from London, 3 J. 3. c. 14., to copyhold lands, 7 A. c. 10.]

8. Commissioners of sewers shall be directed in all parts within this realm, where need shall require, according to the form ensuing, to such substantial persons as shall be named by the lord chancellor and lord treasurer, and the two chief justices, or by 3 of them, whereof the lord chancellor to be one, 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 1.

'Henry the eighth, &c. Know ye, that forasmuch as the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, sewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, streams, and other defences, by the coasts of the sea, and marsh ground, being and lying within the limits of A. B. or C. in the county or counties of — or in the borders or confines of the same, by rage of the sea flowing and reflowing, and by mean of the trenches of fresh waters descending and having course by divers ways to the sea, be so disrupt, lacerate, and broken; and also the common passages of ships, balengers, and boats, in the rivers, streams, and other floods, within the limits of A. &c. in the county or counties of —, or in the borders or confines of the same, by mean of setting up, erecting, and making, of streams, mills, bridges, ponds, fish-garths, mill-dams, locks, hebbing wears, hecks, flood-gates, or other like lets, impediments or annoyances, be letted or interrupted, so that great and inestimable damage for default of reparation of the said walls, ditches, banks, fences, sewers, gotes, gutters, calcies, bridges and streams; and also by mean of setting up, erecting, making, and enlarging of the said fish-garths, &c and other like annoyances in times past hath happened, and yet it is to be feared, that far greater hurt, loss, and damage, is like to ensue, unless that speedy remedy be provided in that behalf, 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 2.

We therefore, for that by reason of our dignity and prerogative royal, we be bound to provide for the safety and preservation of our realm of Eng. willing that speedy remedy be had in the premises, have assigned you, and 6 of you, of the which we will that A. B., and C. shall be 3, to be our justices to survey the said walls, streams, ditches, banks, gutters, sewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, trenches, mills, mill-dams, flood-gates, ponds, locks, hebbing-wears, and other impediments, lets, and annoyances, and the same cause to be made, corrected, repaired, amended, put down, or reformed after your wisdoms and discretions: and therein as well to ordain and do, after the form, tenor, and effect, of all and singular the statutes and ordinances made before the 1st day of March in the 23d year of our reign, touching the premises, or any of them, as also to inquire by the oaths of the honest and lawful men of the shire or shires, place or places, where such defaults or annoyances be, as well within the liberties as without (by whom the truth may the rather be known) through whose default the hurts and damages have happened, and who hath or holdeth any lands or tenements, or common pasture, or profit of fishing, or hath or may have any hurt or disadvantage by any manner of means in the said places, as well near to the dangers, lets, and impediments, as inhabiting or dwelling thereabouts, by the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, sewers, trenches, and other impediments, and all those persons, and every of them, to tax, assess, charge, distrain, and punish, as well within the metes, limits, and bounds, of old time accustomed, or elsewhere within our realm of Eng., after the quantity of their lands, tenements, and rents, by the number of acres and perches, after the rate of every person's portion, tenure, or profit, or after the quantity of their common of pasture, or profit of fishing, or other commodities there, by such ways and means, and in such manner and form, as to you, or 6 of you, whereof A., B., and C. to be 3, shall seem most convenient to be ordained and done, for redress and reformation to be had in the premises; and to reform, repair, and amend the walls, ditches, banks, gutters, sewers, gotes, calcies, bridges, streams, and other the premises, in all places needful; as often, and where need shall be, to make new; and to cleanse and purge the trenches, sewers and ditches, in all places necessary; and further, to reform, amend, prostrate, and overthrow all mills, streams, ponds, locks, fish-garths, hebbing-wears, and other impediments and annoyances aforesaid, and to distrain for the arrears of every such collection, tax, and assess, as often as expedient, or otherwise punish the debtors and detainers of the same by fines, amerciaments, pains or other like means after your good directions: and also to arrest and take as many carts, horses, oxen, beasts, and other instruments necessary, and as many workmen and labourers as suffice of the said works and reparations, paying for the same competent wages in that behalf; and also take as many trees, woods, underwoods, and timber, and other necessities as for the works and reparations shall be sufficient, at a reasonable price by you or 6 of you, of the which we will that A., B., and C. shall be 3, to be assessed or limited, as well within the limits and bounds aforesaid, as in any other place within the county or counties near unto the said places; and to make and ordain statutes, ordinances, and provisions, from time to time as the case shall require, for the safeguard, conservation, redress, correction reformation of the premises, and of every of them, and the parts lying to the to the same necessary and behoofful, after the laws and customs of Romney-marsh in the county of Kent, or by any ways or means, after your own wisdoms and discretions; and to hear and determine all and singular the premises, as well at our suit, as of any other whatsoever complaining before you, or 6 of you, whereof A., B., and C. shall be 3, after the laws and customs aforesaid, or by any other ways and means after your discretions; and to make and direct all writs, precepts, warrants, or other commandments, by virtue of these presents, to all sheriffs, bailiffs, and all other ministers, officers, and other persons, as well within liberties as without, before you, or 6 of you, whereof A., B., and C. to be 3, at certain days, terms, and places to be prefixed, to be returned and received; and further to continue the process of the same, and finally to do all and every thing and things as shall be requisite for the due execution of the premises, by all ways and means after your discretions; and therefore we command you, that at certain days and places, when and where ye, or 6 of you, whereof A., B., and C. to be 3, shall think expedient, ye do survey the walls, fences, ditches, banks, gutters, gotes, sewers, calcies, ponds, bridges, rivers, streams, water-courses, mills, locks, trenches, fish-garths, flood-gates, and other lets, impediments, and annoyances, and accomplish, fulfil, hear, and determine, all and singular the premises, in due form, and to the effect aforesaid, after your good discretions; and all such as ye shall find negligent, gainsaying, or rebellious in the works, reparations, or reformations of the premises, or negligent in the due execution of this our commission, that ye do compel them by distress, fines, and amerciaments, or by other punishments, ways, or means, which to you, or 6 of you, whereof A., B., and C. shall be 3, shall seem most expedient for the speedy remedy, redress, and reformation, of the premises, and due execution of the same; and all such things as by you shall be made and ordained in this behalf, as well within liberties as without, that ye do cause the same firmly to be observed, doing therein as to our justice appertaineth, after the laws and statutes of this our realm, and according to your wisdoms and discretions, 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 3.

'Saved always to us such fines and amerciaments, as to us thereof shall belong; and we also command our sheriff or sheriffs of our said county or counties of — that they shall cause to come before you, or 6 of you, of the which A., B., and C. shall be 3, at such days and places, as ye shall appoint to them, such and as many honest men, of his or their bailiwick, as well within the liberties as without, by whom the truth may best be known, to inquire of the premises; commanding all other ministers and officers, as well within liberties as without, that they and every of them shall be attendant to you in and about the due execution of this our commission. In witness whereof we have caused these our letters patent to be made. Witness ourself, at Westminster, the — day of — in the — year of our reign,' id. s. 4.

9. Every such commissioner, after he hath knowledge thereof, shall put his diligence about the execution of the said commission. And before taking on him such execution, he shall take this oath before the lord chancellor, or such to whom the latter shall direct the writ of dedimus potestatem, or before the justices in quarter sessions.

'Ye shall swear, that you to your cunning, wit, and power, shall truly and indifferently execute the authority to you given by this commission of sewers, without any favour, affection, corruption, dread, or malice to be borne to any manner of person or persons; and as the case shall require, ye shall consent and endeavour yourself, for your part, to the best of your knowledge and power, to the making of such wholesome, just, equal, and indifferent laws and ordinances as shall be made and devised by the most discreet and indifferent number of your fellows being in commission with you for the due redress, reformation, and amendment of all and every such things as are contained and specified in the said commission; and the same laws and ordinances to your cunning, wit, and power cause to be put in due execution, without favour, meed, dread, malice, or affection; as God you help,' id. s. 5.

10. Every statute heretofore made concerning the premises, not being contrary to this act, nor heretofore repealed, shall stand for ever, id. s. 6.

11. The commissioners named in the said commission, have power to make laws and decrees, and to do every thing mentioned in the commission; and the same laws to reform and make new, id. s. 7.

12. If any persons assessed for any lands within the limits of any commission, do not pay according to the ordinance of the commissioners, by reason whereof the latter, for lack of payment, shall decree the lands from the owners thereof, and their heirs, to any person for term of years, or of life, in fee-simple, or in tail, for payment of such lot; every such decree, ingrossed in parchment, shall bind all persons that at the making thereof had any interest in such lands; and not to be reformed, unless by authority of parliament, id. s. 8. [Ext. to copy-holds, 7 A. c. 10. s. 1. pl. 33.]

13. The same laws and decrees shall bind as well the lands of H. M. as all other persons, id. s. 9.

14. If any person take upon him to sit by virtue of the said commissions, not being sworn in form aforesaid; or if any person sits as aforesaid, not having lands for term of life to the yearly value of 40 marks, except he be resiant and free of any city, borough, or town corporate, and have moveable substance of the value of 100l. or else be learned in the laws, viz. admitted in one of the 4 inns of court for an utter barrister, he shall forfeit 40l. for every time, the one-half to H. M. and other half to the use of him that will sue, id. s. 10. [See pl. 30.]

15. If any action is attempted for taking any distress, or other act doing, by authority of the commission, defendant may make avowry, conusance, or justification, alleging that such distress or other act whereof the plaintiff complaineth was done by authority of the commission of sewers for lot or tax assessed by that commission, or for such other act or cause as defendant did, by authority of the commission, and according to the tenor, purport, and effect of this act, without expressing any other circumstance; whereupon the plaintiff shall be admitted to reply, that defendant did take the said distress, or did any other act supposed in his declaration, of his own wrong, without any such cause alleged by defendant; whereupon the issue shall be joined to be tried by verdict, id. s. 11.

16. After such issue tried for the defendant, or nonsuit of the plaintiff after appearance, defendant shall recover treble damages, by reason of his wrongful vexation, with his costs; to be assessed by the same jury, or writ to inquire, as the cause shall require, id. s. 12.

17. Every commissioner shall have 4s. for every day that he shall take pain in execution of this commission, and one clerk by them to be assigned, 2s. for every day, of the rates assessed by authority of the said commission; and the said commissioners, or 6 of them, shall have power to limit of the same rates, reasonable sums to the clerk, for writing of books and process, and to the collectors, expeditors, and others, id. s. 13.

18. When such commission is made for amendment of the premises within the duchy of Lancaster, such commissioner shall be appointed by the lord-chancellor and lord-treasurer, and the two chief justices, and the chancellor of the duchy, or 3 of them, whereof the lord-chancellor, and the chancellor of the duchy to be 2; and 2 commissions shall be awarded, one under the great seal, and the other under seal of the duchy, 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 14.

19. The said commissions shall be had without charge; unless to H. M. 2s. 6d. for the seal; and for the writing and enrolling of any commission 5s., id. s. 15.

20. After any commission made, H. M. shall at his pleasure, by superseas out of chancery, discharge as well every such commission, as every commissioner named by authority of this act, id. s. 16.

21. When such commission shall be made for amendment of the premises within the principality of Wa., the county palatine of Chester, or any other place where there is jurisdiction of county palatine; 2 commissions shall be made, one under the great seal, and the other under that of the county palatine, as in s. 14. pl. 18., id. s. 18. H. M.'s assent shall be certified into chancery, id. s. 17—19. [but see pl. 27.]

22. The chancellors, and such other as shall have the custody of the seals of the principality of Wa., or the county palatine of Chester, or of any other place where there is liberty of county palatine, except in Lancaster, on reasonable request, and on sight of the commission under the great seal, shall make out another commission under seal of the county palatine, according to the tenor of that under the great seal, id. s. 20.

23. No person shall be compelled to be sworn, or to sit in execution of any commission of sewers, unless he be dwelling within the county whereof he shall be assigned commissioner, 25 H. 8. c. 10. s. 1.

24. Any person assigned commissioner of sewers, being required by such as have authority to receive the oath and refusing to take the same, and that refusal returned into chancery, shall forfeit for the contempt 5 marks, and so from time to time, unless he in the chancery, shew, in the term wherein such return shall be made against him, sufficient cause to be allowed by the chancellor for his excuse, id. s. 2.

25. All scots, lots, and sums of money, to be rated by virtue of such commission of sewers, on any of the lands of H. M., shall be levied by distress or otherwise, in like manner as in the lands of any other person; and all bills of acquittance of such receiver as shall have the collection thereof shall be a sufficient discharge to the tenants; as also a sufficient warrant to all receivers, auditors, and other officers of H. M., for the allowance to such tenant for the same; moreover, such fees, and none other, shall be paid for any commission or dedimus potestatem, under the seal of the duchy, as mentioned in the former act [see pl. 19.] to be paid in the chancery, 3 & 4 E. 6. c. 8. s. 2.

26. The act of sewers, 23 H. 8. c. 5. shall give authority, that the commissioners for the county of Glamorgan, shall have power to make such laws and decrees, for saving the grounds from hurt by sands arising out of the sea and driven to land by winds, as they may for the withstanding of the rage of the sea or other waters, 1 M. S. 3. c. 11. ss. 1—2.

27. Every commission of sewers shall continue for 10 years next ensuing the date, unless repealed or determined by any new commission, or by superseas, (as in 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 16. pl. 20.) And all laws made by force of any such commission, written in parchment, indented, and under the seals of the commissioners, or 6 of them, (whereof the one part shall remain with the clerk, and the other part in such place as the commissioners shall appoint,) shall, without any certificate made into chancery, and without the royal assent, (as in 23 H. 8. c. 5. s. 17. pl. 21.) required, continue in force, notwithstanding any determination of such commission by superseas, until such time as the same laws shall be altered or repealed by the commissioners, 15 E. 1. c. 9. s. 1.

28. After the expiration of 10 years next ensuing the date of the teste of any commission of sewers, all such laws as were made by virtue thereof, and written in parchment, &c. shall continue in force for one year then next ensuing; and the justices of peace, or 6 of them, being of the quorum, shall have power to execute the same, id. s. 2.

29. But if any new commission of sewers shall be made within the said year, the above power of the justices shall cease, id. s. 3.

30. No farmer for years, of any lands within the limits of any such commission, which may be chargeable by any laws to be made by virtue of such commission, wherein he shall be named commissioner, not having estate of freehold within Eng., of lands or tenements of the yearly value of 40*l.*, shall have power to sit or intermeddle with the execution of such commission, during the time he continues farmer of any such lands, id. s. 4. [See pl. 14.] But he may sit and have his voice concerning all lands within precinct of such commission, other than lands held by him as farmer: as he might have done before this statute, id. s. 7.

31. The commissioners shall not be compelled to make any certificate or return of the said commissions, or of any their laws or doings by authority thereof; nor shall have any fine or amercement set upon them, or be molested for that cause, id. s. 5.

32. The clerks appointed for such commission of sewers shall yearly estreat all the issues, fines, penalties, and amerciements due to H. M., into the exchequer, at such time as justices of peace ought to do; on pain to forfeit to H. M. for every default 5*l.*, 13 E. 1. c. 9. s. 6.

33. The commissioners of sewers, for non-payment of any lot or charge assessed on any copyhold or customary lands within the limits of their commission, may decree the said copyholds from the owners to any person, for such estate therein, as the owners thereof, or any claiming in remainder under them at the time of such decree made, had in the same, 7 A. c. 10. s. 1.

34. All persons to whom such sale of copyhold lands shall be made shall, before they enter or take any profit, agree with the lords of the manors for the usual fines, and on such agreement the lords at the next court shall not only grant to such vendees, upon request, the same copyholds, by copy of court-roll for such estate as to them shall be decreed, reserving the ancient rents, customs, and services, but also shall in the same court admit them tenants, id. s. 2.

35. The commissioners of sewers, by warrant, may give authority to levy the money by them assessed upon the lands chargeable, by distress and sale of the goods of persons that shall not pay, id. s. 3.

SHEEP.

1. CONCERNING FARMS AND SHEEP, 25 H. 8. c. 13.

2. No person shall keep or have in his own proper lands, [but see s. 7.] or in the lands of another occupied by him in farm or otherwise in his possession, above 2000 [2,400, see s. 12. pl. 15.] sheep at one time within the realm, on pain to forfeit for every sheep above the number 3s. 4d.; the one half to H. M. and the other to such as will sue by original writ of debt or by information in any court of record, in which suit no wager of law, essoin, &c. shall be allowed, id. s. 1.

3. Lambs under one whole year old [and as much as shall be from their falling till the feast of St. John Baptist, s. 13.] shall not be accounted of the above number, id. ss. 2—13.

4. If any person, having sheep of his own, be made executor or administrator to any person which had sheep at his death, or if he happen to be married to any person having sheep, the person so advanced shall not be liable to any penalty for having above the number by such means so that within one year next after he reduce them to such number, id. s. 3.

5. If any person by will gives to any child within age any number of sheep, and appoints them to be kept unto such time as such child shall come to a certain age, such sheep being in possession of any person to the use of such infant, shall not be accounted of the said number of sheep prohibited by this act, id. s. 4.

6. The justices of peace may enquire of the offenders, as well by the oaths of 12 men as by information, and make such process on every presentment or information concerning this act as on presentments of trespass; and no person convict by this act shall be put to less fine than in s. 1. pl. 2. limited, id. s. 5.

7. No person shall be put to answer suits as in s. 1. pl. 2. unless suit is commenced within one year, nor at H. M.'s suit except the presentment, &c. be made within 3 years after such offence, id. s. 6.

8. All persons seized of inheritance, or having jointure, or being tenants in dower, or by the courtesy of any lands, pastures, feedings or liberty of foldage, may have on their own demesne lands, and other their pastures, feedings and fold-courses, as many their own sheep and lambs as before this act, id. s. 7.

9. In case any such persons keep 2000 sheep on their possessions, they shall not keep any sheep besides them on any lands or foldings which they have otherwise; and in case such demesnes, &c. suffice not for keeping 2000 sheep, every such person shall feed on his said demesnes and on his farmholds 2000 sheep, and not more, under the penalty in s. 1. pl. 2., id. s. 8.

10. Every person keeping a household may have such convenient number of sheep above those in s. 1. pl. 2. as are necessary for his one year's household expenses, to be kept on his own or other lands, id. s. 9.

11. No person being owner or farmer of any liberty or fold courses within Norfolk and Suffolk, shall take in farm any quilllets of lands or pastures, viz. any number of acres appertaining to any other person lying within the limit of the liberty of fold-courses, but they shall permit the owners or lessees of the quilllets to manure and pasture them, and also suffer their sheep after the rate of the quilllets to go with the flock of the owner or occupier of the liberty of fold-course, paying the customary charges for keeping and feeding the same, on pain of forfeiture for every time that any person having such quillet is disturbed of feeding his sheep after the rate of his quillet, for every sheep, 3s. 4d., id. s. 10.

12. This act shall not entitle any owner or occupier of such quilllets to claim pasture of feeding sheep in such fold courses, but where usual in respect of such quilllets, and where unusual, the owners, &c. of the fold-courses may take the quilllets lying within their fold-courses in farm, agreeing with the owners, &c. thereof for them, id. s. 11.

13. The number of 2000 sheep limited by s. 1. pl. 2. shall be accounted ten hundred for every 1000 after the great, and not after the less hundred, so that every 1000 shall contain 1200 after the less number of the hundred, 25 H. 8. c. 13. s. 12.

14. No person shall take to farm for term of life, years or at will, by indenture, copy of court roll, or otherwise, any more houses and tenements of husbandry whereunto lands are belonging, in town, village, hamlet or tithing, above two such holds, nor that, unless he be dwelling in the parishes where they are, on penalty of 3s. 4d. for each week, one moiety to H. M., the other to the party suing for the same in H. M.'s courts within one year after offence committed, id. s. 14.

15. All spiritual persons may keep as many sheep on their own lands as they might before this act, id. s. 16.

SHERIFF.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. ARTICLES SENT TO THE SEVERAL SHERIFFS for preserving the peace of the kingdom till the meeting of the next parliament annexed to 10 E. 3. St. 2. [Exp.; but which was not to be taken for a statute. See the memorandum at the end of the Articles, Statutes at Large.]

2. CONCERNING THE APPOINTMENT of sheriffs and escheators, 9 H. 5. S. 1. c. 5. [Exp.]

3. CONCERNING THE DUE RETURN OF WRITS by sheriffs, 4 H. 6. c. 1. [Exp.]

4. FOR RESTRAINING EXTORTIONS BY SHERIFF OF COUNTY OF Hereford, 9 H. 6. c. 7. CON. 11 H. 6. c. 7. [Exp.]

5. H. M.'s PARDON TO SHERIFFS, UNDER-SHERIFFS AND THEIR clerks for holding their offices above one year, in the 27th of his reign, 28 H. 6. c. 3. [Exp. and see 12 E. 4. c. 1. infra, pl. 24.]

6. INDEMNITY TO PERSONS HAVING OCCUPIED sheriffwicks above one year, annis 1—3 E. 4., 8 E. 4. c. 4. [Exp.]

7. FOR SHERIFFS TO BE DISCHARGED ON THEIR ACCOUNT, and to have allowances for their reasonable expences in the court of exchequer, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. [Exp. and REP. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4. s. 2. except comm. semb. as to s. 1. and s. 3. which follow, infra, pl. 44, 45.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. OF NEGLECT IN RETURNS and of false returns by sheriffs, 13 E. 1. West. Sec. c. 39. [CONF. and AMD. 2 E. 3. c. 5.]

2. Such as fear the malice of sheriffs shall deliver their writs in the full county court, or in the reere county court where the collection of H. M.'s money is [see 2 Inst. 452.], and may take of the sheriff or under-sheriff a bill wherein the names of the demandants and tenants shall be contained, and at the request of him that delivered the writ, the seal of the sheriff shall be put to the bill [gratis, 2 E. 3. c. 5.], and mention made of the day of the delivery of the writ; and if he will not put his seal to the bill, the witness of knights, and other credible persons in presence, shall be taken that put their seals to such bill; and if the sheriff will not return writs delivered, and complaint is made to the justices, a writ judicial shall go to the justices of assize to enquire, by those present at delivery of the writ, if they knew of the deliverance, and an inquest shall be returned, and if it be found that the writ was delivered to him, damages shall be awarded to the plaintiff or demandant [CONF. 2 E. 3. c. 5.]; and by this means there shall be remedy when the sheriff returns, that the writ came so late that he could not execute H. M.'s command, 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. s. 1. and 2 Ed. 3. c. 5.

3. The treasurer and barons of exchequer shall deliver to the justices in a roll, all the liberties in all shires that have return of writs; and if the sheriff answer, that he hath made return to a bailiff of another liberty than that contained in the roll, he shall be punished as a disheritor of the crown; and if he return, that he hath delivered the writ to a bailiff of some liberty that hath return, he shall be commanded that he do not spare for the aforesaid liberty, but shall execute H. M.'s precept; and that he do the bailiffs to wit, [scire faciat], to whom he returned the writ, that they be ready at a day to answer why they did not execute the precept; and if they come at the day, and acquit themselves, that no return was made to them, the sheriff shall be condemned to the lord of the liberty, and to the party grieved, to render damages; and if the bailiffs come not at the day, or do come and do not acquit themselves in manner aforesaid, in every judicial writ, so long as the plea pends, the sheriff shall be commanded that he omit not for the liberty, &c. id. s. 2.

4. Touching the article quod de exitibus, &c. if the plaintiff demand hearing of the sheriff's return, it shall be granted him; and if he offer to aver, that the sheriff might have returned greater issues, he shall have a writ judicial unto the justices assigned to take assizes, that they inquire in presence of the sheriff, (if he will be there,) of how great issues the sheriff might have made return, from the day of the writ purchased unto the day contained in the writ; and when the inquest is returned, if he have not afore answered for the whole, he shall be charged with the overplus by estreats of the justices, and shall be grievously amerced; and rents, corn in the grange, and all moveables (except horse, harness, and household stuff) are contained within the name of issues; and the sheriffs shall be punished by the justices for such false returns, and if they offend the third time, none shall have to do therewith but H. M., 13 E. 1. (West. Sec.) c. 39. s. 3.

5. Also false answers by sheriffs, that they could not execute H. M.'s precept for resistance of some great men, redounding much to the dishonour of H. M.; and as soon as the bailiffs testify that they found such resistance, forthwith all things set apart (taking the power of the shire) the sheriff shall go in person to do execution; and if he find his under-bailiffs false, shall punish them by imprisonment; if true, shall punish the resisters by imprisonment, from whence they shall not be delivered without H. M.'s special command; and if the sheriff find resistance, he shall certify to the court the names of the resisters, aiders, consenters, commanders, and favourers, who, by a writ judicial, shall be attached by their bodies to appear at H. M.'s court, and if convict of such resistance shall be punished at his pleasure; neither shall any H. M.'s officer meddle in assigning the punishment, for H. M. hath reserved it specially to himself, as against disturbers of his peace and realm, id. s. 4.

6. OF SHERIFFS AND THEIR ACCOUNTS, 27 E. 1. S. 1. c. 2.

7. Sheriffs shall not be charged of any issues, nor levy any before they pass out of exchequer by estreats of the justices, there to be delivered, in which every head shall be charged for issues forfeited like as of ameracements; and if any sheriff will answer for the issues of any recognisor, pledge, or mainpinner by him returned, who is not able to pay such issues or ameracements, he shall be charged in exchequer; and let the sheriffs, on pain of great forfeiture, make tallies of all such money as they or their officers have received; and not return the names of any mainpinner, sureties, jurors, or other, except they are impannelled according to the tenor of the writs, nor the names of any freemen as pledges, without they consent; and every year one baron and one clerk of exchequer shall be sent throughout every shire of Eng. to enrol the names of all such as have paid that year debts exacted of them by green-wax, and shall view all such tallies and enrol them, and shall hear and determine complaints made against sheriffs and their clerks and bailiffs, that have done contrary to the premises, and the offenders shall be grievously punished, 27 E. 1. S. 1. c. 2.

8. THE PEOPLE SHALL HAVE ELECTION of their sheriff in every shire where the shrievalty is not of fee, if they list, 28 E. 1. c. 8. Art. sup. Chart. [but see pl. 13.]

9. THE COMMONS SHALL CHOOSE SHERIFFS as will not charge them, and as will not put any officer in authority for rewards or bribes, and as will not lodge too oft in one place, nor with poor persons, or men of religion, 28 E. 1. c. 13. Art. sup. Chart.

10. OF THE FARMING OF BAILIWICKS and hundreds, 28 E. 1. c. 14.

11. The bailiwicks and hundreds of H. M., nor of other great lords of the land, shall not be let to farm at over great sums, whereby the people may be grieved by making contribution thereto, id. ibid.

12. THE STATUTE OF SHERIFFS 9 E. 2. S. 2. Stat. Lincoln. Stat. at Large. 1 vol. 8vo. ed. 539. [AMD. and CONF. 2 E. 3. c. 4., 4 E. 3. c. 8., 5 E. 3. c. 4.]

13. Sheriffs shall be assigned by the chancellor, treasurer, barons of exchequer and justices, [semb. superseding 28 E. 1. c. 8., see 1 Bla. Comm. 340.]; and in absence of chancellor, by the treasurer, barons, and justices, [and see 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 7. &c. infra, pl. 18. s. p.] and none shall be sheriff [sheriff-bailiff of hundred, wapentake or franchise, or under-escheator, 4 Ed. 3. c. 9. 5 E. 3. c. 4. s. p.] except he have sufficient land within the shire to answer H. M. and his people, [see 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 21. s. 7. infra, pl. 77. s. p.] and no steward or bailiff to a great lord shall be made sheriff. Hundreds, whether they belong to H. M. or other, shall be kept by able persons having sufficient lands within the shire where the hundred is, and such hundreds shall be leased to persons sufficient, who need not use extortion upon the people, and no sheriff or hundredor shall lease his office in farm, and execution of writs shall be done by hundredors, sworn and known, if it be not their open default, in which case execution shall be done by more convenient persons being sworn, saving the returns of writs, 2 E. 2. S. 2. 4 E. 3. c. 9. 5 E. 3. c. 4.

14. HUNDREDS AND WAPENTAKES let to farm, and anciently annexed to the farms of the counties where the sheriffs are charged, shall be joined to them again, and not henceforth severed from them, 2 E. 3. c. 12. [See pl. 27.]

15. SHERIFFS SHALL LET THE HUNDREDS and wapentakes in their bailiwicks at the old farm, and not above, and the justices assigned shall have power to enquire on and punish the sheriffs who do contrary, 4 E. 3. c. 15., and 14 E. 3. c. 9. infra, pl. 27. [but semb. REP. 23 H. 6. c. 9. s. 1. which forbids sheriffs from letting the county or hundreds, &c. to farm.]

16. OF SHERIFFS AND OTHER MINISTERS who levy the debts of H. M., and make tallies and other acquittances to the debtors, yet do not acquit them in exchequer, and being hereof impleaded in exchequer, are by favour admitted to little issues, which they will rather lose than come to answer, so that the plaintiffs are always charged to their great damage. THE SHERIFF, &c. when he is hereof impleaded in exchequer, and the great distress returned against him, and he comes not to answer another writ of distress, shall go forth commanding proclamation to be made in full county, that defendant come at such a day, and acquit the debtor of the sum for which he made the tally or acquittance, at which day, if defendant come not, and the writ is returned, and proclamation certified, he shall be holden for convict, and the debt levied of him, and damages awarded to plaintiff at discretion of the barons. This statute shall extend as well to those who have been sheriffs and other ministers, that let or have left their bailiwicks, as to sheriffs, &c. while they hold them: but no man shall be thereby forbidden from complaining of sheriffs, &c. when found in exchequer, and that they shall answer there as hath been used, 14 E. 2. (West. 4.) c. 1. s. 2.

17. HOW LONG SHERIFFS SHALL TARRY IN OFFICE, and how they shall be appointed, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 7. [CONF. AND AMD. by 28 E. 3. c. 7., 42 E. 3. c. 9., 1 R. 2. c. 11., 23 H. 6. c. 7., 12 E. 4. c. 1., 17 E. 4. c. 7., 6 H. 8. c. 18.; and ALT. as to time of appointment of sheriffs, 24 G. 2. c. 48. s. 12.]

18. No sheriff shall tarry in his bailiwick more than one year, when another shall be ordained in his place, who has land sufficient in his bailiwick, by the chancellor, treasurer, and chief baron of exchequer, taking to them the chief justices, if they be present, on [the morrow of All Souls, ALT. by 24 G. 2. c. 48. s. 12. to the morrow of St. Martin,] in the exchequer, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 7. [See pl. 8—15.]

19. Sheriffs shall be removed every year, so that no sheriff that hath been in office a year, shall abide in it, or have commission made or renewed to him for the next year, 28 E. 3. c. 7.

20. No sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's clerk, shall abide in office above one year, 42 E. 3. c. 9.

21. None that hath been sheriff of any county a year, shall be within 3 years next ensuing, chosen again, or replaced in his office, if there be other sufficient persons within the county, 1 R. 2. c. 11. [See as to bailiffs of sheriffs, 1 H. 5. c. 4. infra, pl. 31.]

22. The statutes 14 E. 3. c. 7., 42 E. 3. c. 9., and 1 R. 2. c. 11. shall be observed in every county, except by the under-sheriffs, and other officers of sheriffs, within the city of London, [or Bristol, 6 H. 8. c. 18.] and also except in those counties in which divers persons are inheritable to the office of sheriff, and have estate of freehold therein, and except their patents of the office of sheriffs, and their under-sheriffs and clerks, 23 H. 6. c. 7. s. 1., 6 H. 8. c. 18.

23. Any sheriff, under-sheriff, or sheriff's clerk, occupying the office contrary to the statutes in s. 1. shall forfeit 200*l.* yearly, as long as he occupies contrary thereto, and every pardon for such offence shall be void; all patents of the offices for term of years, life or fee, shall be void; and whosoever shall occupy the office of sheriff by virtue of such patents, shall be disabled to bear the office by that authority, and any liege man who will, may sue for the penalty, to go in moieties to H. M. and such plaintiff, 23 H. 6. c. 7. s. 2.

24. Old sheriffs may execute or return any writ or warrant within Michaelmas term, after 6th Nov. and before any writ of discharge delivered to them without being damnified by 23 H. 6. c. 7. pl. 22, 23., though they have occupied the office before these days of return, viz. on the morrow, or in 8 or 15 days after St. Martin, [i. e. for more than a year,] 12 E. 4. c. 1.

25. Every old sheriff shall have power as well to execute every writ or warrant, as to execute every other thing pertaining to his office, during Michaelmas and Hilary terms, unless lawfully discharged, 17 E. 4. c. 7.

26. HOW SHERIFFS, BAILIFFS OF HUNDREDS, &c. shall hold or farm their bailiwicks, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 9. [but see 23 H. 6. c. 9. s. 1. infra, pl. 33.]

27. All the wapentakes and hundreds, severed from the counties, shall be rejoined thereto, [see pl. 14.]; and the sheriffs shall hold the same in their own hands, putting in such bailiffs and hundredors having lands within the bailiwicks and hundred, for whom they will answer; and if they will let any hundreds, bailiwicks, or wapentakes, to farm, they shall let the same at the ancient farm, [see 4 E. 3. c. 15. pl. 15.] ousting for ever the outriders and other which have notoriously destroyed the people. And no bailiff errant shall be put in the counties, unless where such bailiffs have been in times past; and no more than one bailiff errant in one county. And all others who have been bailiffs of hundreds in fee, if they will hold the same in their own hands, shall put in bailiffs for whom they will answer; and if they will let the same to farm, they shall let the same at the ancient farm. And the justices of both benches, the barons of exchequer, and justices assigned, may inquire of all that offend against this ordinance, when they come into the country; and if the sheriffs or their farmers are found in default, and thereof attainted, the hundreds and wapentakes where such defaults are found, shall be taken into H. M.'s hands, and let to other by the justices, and the offenders commanded to prison till they have made fine and ransom to H. M.; and nevertheless they shall answer to H. M. of the whole farm: and lords which hold hundreds or wapentakes in fee, shall set such bailiffs which be sufficient to answer H. M. and his people; and if their bailiffs do against this ordinance, they shall answer; and if attainted, shall have such punishment as the law requires, and shall be out of their bailiwicks for ever, and other sufficient put in their places by the same lords, 14 E. 3. S. 1. c. 9.

28. NO COMMISSIONS OR GENERAL WRITS SHALL be granted to sheriffs, at their own suit, for their singular profit to gain of the people, to indict, and take fine and ransom of them to their own use, and deliver them without such indicters being brought before H. M.'s justices, for their deliverance, 28 E. 3. c. 9.

29. WHEREAS THE COMMONS HAVE SHEWED, that the sheriffs be charged with the ancient farm of the counties, whereas parcel of the profits be given to other; the sheriffs shall have allowance by their oath, of the issues of the counties: and if any sheriff do extortion, and be thereof attainted, he shall be punished at H. M.'s will, 1 H. 4. c. 11.

30. EVERY SHERIFF SHALL ABIDE IN PERSON WITHIN his bailiwick, and shall not let it to farm, [so in 23 H. 6. c. 9. pl. 33.] and shall be sworn to do the same in special, amongst other articles comprised in the oath of the sheriff, 4 H. 4. c. 5.

31. THEY THAT BE BAILIFFS OF SHERIFFS ONE YEAR, shall be in no such office by three years next following, except bailiffs of sheriffs inheriting in their office. And no under-sheriff, sheriff's clerk, receiver, nor sheriff's bailiff, shall be attorney in any of H. M.'s courts during the time that he is in office, 1 H. 5. c. 4.

32. SHERIFFS SHALL HAVE ALLOWANCE ON THEIR ACCOUNTS, by their oaths, of things casual that run not in farm, nor in demand; but of all things that run in yearly farms or demands, shall be charged as in times past, 4 H. 5. c. 2.

33. FOR REGULATING THE OFFICE OF SHERIFFS, bailiffs, and others, 23 H. 6. c. 9.

34. No sheriff shall let to farm his county, nor any of his bailiwicks, hundreds, or wapentakes; nor shall the sheriffs, under-sheriffs, bailiffs of franchises, or other bailiff, return upon any writ or precept in any panel thereupon, any bailiffs, officers, or servants to any of the above officers, id. s. 1.

35. Nor shall any of the officers aforesaid, by occasion of their office, take any thing of any person by them arrested or attached, nor of any other, for sparing of any arrest or attachment to be made by their body, nor of any person arrested or attached, for fine, fee, suit of prison, letting bail, or shewing any ease or favour, except as followeth, viz. for the sheriff, 20*d.*, the bailiff which maketh the arrest or attachment, 4*d.*, [see 2 B. & A. Rep. 562.] and the gaoler, if the prisoner is committed, 4*d.*, and the sheriff, under-sheriff, sheriff's clerk, steward, or bailiff of franchise, nor coroner, shall take any thing by colour of his office for making any return or panel; and for the copy of a panel but 4*d.*, id. s. 2.

36. And the sheriffs and other officers and ministers aforesaid, shall let out of prison all persons in their custody by force of any writ, bill, or warrant, in any action personal, or by cause of indictment of trespass, on reasonable surety of persons having sufficient within the counties, to keep their days; persons in ward by redemption, execution, capias utlagatum or excommunicatum, surety of the peace, and all persons commit by special commandment of any justices except. And no sheriff, nor his officers, shall take any obligations for any cause aforesaid, or by colour of their office, but only to themselves, of any person, nor by any person, which shall be in their ward by course of law, but upon the name of their office, and on condition that the said prisoners shall appear at the day contained in the writs, bill, or warrant; and if any sheriffs or officers aforesaid, take any obligation in other form by colour of their offices, it shall be void; and he shall take no more than 4*d.* for making such obligation, warrant, or precept, id. s. 3.

37. And every of the said sheriffs shall make yearly a deputy in chancery, K. B., C. P., and exchequer, of record, before returning any writs, to receive all writs and warrants, id. s. 4.

38. And all sheriffs, bailiffs, gaolers, coroners, or other officers, which do contrary to this ordinance, shall lose to the party grieved his treble damages, and shall forfeit 40*l.*, whereof H. M. shall have the one-half, to be employed to the use of his house, and the party that will sue the other half. And the justices of assize, justices of K. B. and C. P. and justices of peace, shall have power to inquire, hear and determine of office without special commission, of all that do contrary to these ordinances, id. s. 5.

39. And if the sheriffs return upon any person cepi corpus, or reddidit se, they shall be chargeable to have the bodies at the days of the returns as before this act, id. s. 6.

40. The warden of the gaol of the Fleet, and of the palace at West- minster, shall not be damaged by this ordinance, 23 H. 6. c. 9. s. 7. [See 1 E. 4. c. 2. QUARTER SESSIONS, pl. 11.]

41. AGAINST SHERIFFS AND UNDER-SHERIFFS, 11 H. 7. c. 15.

42. No sheriffs, under-sheriffs, nor shire-clerks, shall enter any plaints in any man's name, unless the plaintiff is in person present, or by attorney known to be of good name, and finds pledges to pursue his plaint persons known in that county: and plaintiff shall have but one plaint for one trespass or contract: and if the sheriffs, &c. take more plaints, than the plaintiff supposeth that he hath cause of action, the sheriffs, &c. shall forfeit 40s., one half to H. M. and the other to him that will sue by action of debt or information in the exchequer; and the justices shall have authority, on complaint by the party grieved, to examine the sheriffs, &c., and if they, or one of them, find default in the sheriffs, &c. in entering plaints deceitfully for their advantage, contrary to this act, the sheriffs, &c. shall be convict and attaind of the offence, and forfeit 40s. to H. M.; and the justices who take the examination shall certify the same within a quarter of a year into the exchequer, upon pain of 40s. And the said sheriffs, &c. shall make a precept to the bailiff of the hundred to attach or summon the defendants so in suit, to appear and answer to the plaints; and if there is any default in the bailiffs of the hundreds in warning of the defendants, or in executing their office, they shall forfeit unto H. M. 40s. and be attaind and convict thereof, by like examination of the justices of peace. And such sheriffs, &c. shall make none estreats to levy the shire's amerciaments, till 2 justices (one of the quorum) have had the view of their books; and estreats shall be indented betwixt the justices and the sheriffs, and sealed with their seals, one part to remain with the justices, and the other with the sheriffs; and the gatherers of the amerciaments shall be sworn by the justices, to take no more money than is contained in the estreats sealed with the seals of the justices, on the same forfeitures as before, the gatherers to be convict by examination of the justices of peace, or one of them. Provided that the latter be named at the general sessions after the feast of St. Michael, by the custos rotulorum, or by the eldest of the quorum in his absence, to have the oversight of the sheriffs, &c. and other officers, and of the sheriffs amerciaments; and the justices on information of the party grieved shall make like process as in action of trespass against the sheriffs, &c., 11 H. 7. c. 15.

43. FOR SHERIFFS TO HAVE CERTAIN ALLOWANCES ON their accounts, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4., and recital in s. 5. [This act s. 2. repeals 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. St. Exc., &c., pl. 7. other than hereafter in this act specified; s. 1 and s. 3. of the repealed act are therefore incorporated herein as they appear in force.]

44. Every sheriff accountable in exchequer may [see next pl.] at his day of prefixion after he is sworn to the account of the profit of his office, be sworn by himself or his attorney to deliver into the said court rolls of parchment containing all sums of money which he has or might have levied to his knowledge, as a part of the ancient forms; and after the rolls are so delivered, and the sums of money contained in them cast and rated before the lord treasurer, chamberlains, chancellor, and barons, or before the barons in absence of the former, the lord treasurer, &c. or barons shall make allowance in court of so much as the said farms are more than the particulars contained in the rolls, and for saving H. M.'s ancient rights answerable in exchequer; the lord treasurer, &c. or barons, in their absence, shall award process and use means by commission or otherwise, that H. M. may be truly answered of the issues thereof, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. s. 1. And every sheriff who shall so account and take no tally of reward, [see next pl.] shall be in all things intreated in H. M.'s exchequer as though 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. remained in force, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4. s. 3. [See pl. 51. s. r.]

45. Sheriffs shall have like tallies of reward and other allowances as before the making of 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. or else shall be at their election to account according to that act, [see last pl.] 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4. s. 3.

46. The same tallies of reward shall be stricken at the receipt of exchequer as accustomed, id. s. 4. and shall be delivered to the sheriffs without prest or other charge, id. s. 5. This act shall be sufficient warrant to the treasurer and other officers for striking and delivery of such tallies, id. s. 6.

47. Every sheriff shewing a bill subscribed with the hands of the justices present at the assizes and sessions, mentioning the days that they abode in the county, at the costs of the sheriffs, shall have allowance as well thereof as for other reasonable costs on their accounts in exchequer by discretion of the lord-treasurer, chamberlains, chancellor, and barons, or, in absence of the former, by the barons; so that all the allowances for the above costs to all the sheriffs do not amount in one year above 34*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.*, 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16. s. 3. [but see next pl.]

48. All sheriffs within those shires, where no tallies of reward have been, and such sheriffs as take no tally of reward, shall, in consideration of their costs, as well by the diets of the justices of assize as by any other means, have on the end of their account such allowances, on petition in a bill to be brought in by the sheriff, of their costs, on which bills the same sheriffs to be sworn in person, or by their under-sheriffs, or attorney, without warrant or tally suing for the same, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 4. s. 7.

49. All sheriffs who shall take no tally of reward, shall be discharged on their accounts of all such farms, goods, profits, casualties, and sums of money, as they cannot levy, id. s. 8.

50. And of all such farms and sums of money aforesaid, except only of the viscountiels of their shires, wherewith they shall be charged as before 34 & 35 H. 8. c. 16.; and shall have allowance in their accounts, of all such sums of money as they shall make true petition of, for such possessions and hereditaments as become unto H. M.'s hands, out of which any part of the viscountiels were heretofore levied; and that without any other warrant, id. s. 9.

51. Every sheriff, at his day of prefixion, immediately after he or his attorney are sworn to account, shall, by himself or by his attorney, be sworn, when he shall answer before the lord treasurer, chamberlain, chancellor, barons, or such of them as are then present in exchequer, to bring into the said court, rolls of parchment, containing all sums of money which he hath or might have levied to his knowledge, as well of the farms called viscountiels as of all other farms charged to the said sheriffs; and after the same rolls so delivered, and the particular sums cast and rated, the said lord-treasurer, &c. shall have power for the levying of such parcels belonging to the said farms, omitted out of the said rolls, and for saving of other H. M.'s ancient rights, to award process, and use means, by commission or otherwise, id. s. 10. [See pl. 44. s. r.]

52. The said treasurer, &c. as in last pl. shall have power to give and allow unto all such commissioners as they shall assign, their reasonable costs, id. s. 11.

53. NO SHERIFF SHALL EXERCISE THE OFFICE OF JUSTICE OF PEACE in any county where he is sheriff, during the time that he uses the latter office, 1 M. S. 2. c. 8. s. 2.

54. THAT IN DIVERS COUNTIES THERE SHALL BE BUT ONE sheriff in one county, 8 E. c. 16. [MADE PERP. 13 E. c. 22. except as to Surrey and Sussex, id. s. 2.]

55. Whereas the counties of Surrey and Sussex, [altered as above,] Essex and Hertford, Somerset and Dorset, Warwick and Leicester, Nottingham and Derby, Oxon and Berkshire, have had but one sheriff to serve for 2 counties, 8 E. c. 16. s. 1., H. M. shall yearly make for every of the said counties one sheriff, in like manner as for any other county, id. s. 2., but the barons of the exchequer shall have power to sever the profers of the said counties; which severance shall be entered of record, and shall be final and perpetual, 8 E. c. 16. s. 3.

56. In such manner as the profers shall be divided, the tally of reward of the aforesaid counties, where any tally of reward shall be taken, shall be severed, id. s. 4.

57. The barons of the exchequer may from time to time take order for payment of such creation, money, fees, annuities, and other sums of money, as ought to be paid by the hands of the said sheriffs; and such order shall be observed yearly, id. s. 5.

58. No sheriff of any of the said counties shall pay in any court of record, for any duty belonging properly to his office, any other than one half of the fees which he should be compelled to have paid, if he had been sheriff of two of the said shires, 8 E. c. 16. s. 6.

59. FOR THE SWEARING OF UNDER-SHERIFFS AND OTHER under officers and ministers, 27 E. c. 12. and recital in s. 1.

60. Every under-sheriff in any shire, before he intermeddle with the office, shall take the oath of supremacy before the justice of assize or custos rotulorum, or two justices of peace, (one of the quorum), and an oath as follows; viz.

'I, A. B. shall not use or exercise the office of under-sheriff corruptly, during the time that I shall remain therein, neither shall or will accept, receive, or take by any colour, means or device whatsoever, or consent to the taking of any manner of fee or reward of any person or persons, for the impanelling or returning of any inquest, jury, or tales, in any court of record, for H. M., or betwixt party and party, above 2*s.* or the value thereof, or such fees as are allowed and appointed for the same by the laws and statutes of this realm; but will, according to my power, truly and indifferently, with convenient speed, impanel all jurors, and return all such writ or writs touching the same, as shall appertain to be done by my duty of office, during the time that I shall remain in the said office; So help me God,' id. s. 2. [See another oath, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 19. infra, pl. 99.]

61. Every bailiff of franchise, deputy and clerk of every sheriff and under-sheriff, and every other person which shall impanel or return any inquest, jury, or tales, or intermeddle with execution of process, in any court of record, shall take the said oaths before the persons appointed by this act, or before the head-officer of the place, if it be a town corporate, changing the words the office of under-sheriff, to words convenient for the office; and every of the said persons who shall impanel or return any inquest, jury, or tales, or intermeddle with the execution of process, not having taken the oaths aforesaid, shall forfeit 40*l.*, one moiety to the use of H. M., and the other to him that will sue for the same, id. s. 4.

62. Every under-sheriff, or other person mentioned in this act, who shall do any act contrary to the above oaths, or this act, shall forfeit, to the party grieved, his treble damages, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts of record, 27 El. c. 12. s. 5.

63. The justices of assize and of peace, in their sessions, may hear and determine the defaults contrary to this act, as well by presentment and information as indictment, and award execution for the forfeitures by fi. fa. or by attachment, capias, or exigent, id. s. 6.

64. TO PREVENT EXTORTIONS IN SHERIFFS, UNDER-SHERIFFS, and bailiffs of franchises, in cases of execution, 29 El. c. 4. [placed 29 El. c. 4. in the Statute book, but should be 28.; see Savage q. t. v. Smith, 2 Bla. Rep. 1102-3. EXPL. 7 G. 3. c. 29. s. 1.]

65. No sheriff, under-sheriff, bailiff of liberties, their officers, servants, or deputies, by colour of their offices, may take for serving any extent or execution on the body, lands, or goods, of any person, more than in this act appointed, viz. 12*d.* for every 20*s.* where the sum exceeds not 100*l.*, and 6*d.* for every 20*s.* above 100*l.*, that he shall levy and deliver in execution, or take the body in execution for; on pain that every sheriff, &c. doing the contrary, shall forfeit to the party grieved the treble damage and 40*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party that will sue for the same, 28 or 29 El. c. 4. s. 1.

66. This act shall not extend to any fees to be taken for any execution within any city or town corporate, id. s. 2.

67. The 28 or 29 El. c. 4. shall not extend to allow any sheriff, under-sheriff, or other person employed in the execution of process, any poundage, for taking any person in execution on any process at suit of any sheriff, or other officer of the crown, on any bail bond entered into for appearance of any person prosecuted, either for duties, or for any penalty inflicted by any act made, or to be made, for preventing the clandestine running of or receiving any customable or prohibited goods; or in any case whatever where the officer would not be entitled to poundage, if the proceedings were carried on directly in the name of the crown, 7 G. 3. c. 29. s. 1.

68. THAT SHERIFFS, THEIR HEIRS, EXECUTORS AND administrators, having a quietus est, shall be absolutely discharged of their accounts, 21 J. 1. c. 5.

69. When sheriffs on passing their accounts have their quietus, they shall be discharged of all money received and pretended not to be accounted for, unless called in question within 4 years after; and every officer that shall send out process, or by whose default it is sent out contrary to this act, shall forfeit to the party grieved 40*l.* with costs, to be recovered by action of debt, &c. or information in K. B. or C. P., id. s. 1.

70. Every such offender, being 3 times convicted on the trial of such action, &c. shall be disabled to continue in any office in exchequer, or other court of justice, id. s. 2.

71. FOR PREVENTING THE UNNECESSARY CHARGE OF sheriffs and for ease in passing their accounts, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 21. [MADE PERP. 1 J. 1. c. 17. s. 4.]

72. No sheriff for any county shall in the time of the assizes keep tables for entertainment of any persons, other than those of his own family or retinue, nor send in any present to any judges of assize for their provision, nor give any gratuity to their officers or servants, or have more than forty men servants with liveries attending on him in the time of the assizes, nor under 20 in Eng., nor under 12 in Wa., on pain to forfeit 200*l.*, id. s. 1.

73. Nothing before in this act shall extend to the sheriffs of London and Middlesex, and the sheriff of Westmorland, or the sheriffs of any city or town, id. s. 2.

74. Every seizure concerning any lands charged in the foreign account of any sheriff within Eng., shall be from the said foreign account charged particularly in the great roll of the exchequer; and the remembrancers shall make copies of every such seizure and inquisition as shall be certified into their respective offices, without certifying the copy of the writ or commission at large, mentioning only the date of the writ or commission, and shall deliver the said copies attested to the engrosser of the great roll; all which seizures shall be delivered so attested to the said engrosser before the first day of the next term, after the remembrancers shall have received the same; unto which remembrancers shall be paid for every sheet which they shall so write and deliver 8*d.* by the sheriffs, who shall be allowed the same by the barons upon their accounts, out of the issues and profits of the premises so seized; and no sheriff within Eng. shall be charged in account to answer any illeivable seizure, farm, rent, or debt, or other thing which was not writ in process to him to be levied; wherein the persons of whom, or the lands out of which, together with the cause for which the same shall be levied, shall be particularly expressed, but shall be therefore discharged without petition, plea, or other trouble, id. s. 4.

75. All dead farms and seizures, desperate, &c. debts shall be removed from the annual roll and sheriff's charge, into the exannual roll, till revived by commission, id. s. 5.

76. The remembrancers shall enrol and certify to the ingrosser of the great roll, all such debts as any sheriffs shall be charged with, either by virtue of their returns made to the barons of exchequer on writs of fi. fa., levari fac., capias, or other process, and also all fines and amerciaments set by the exchequer upon any sheriff, for contempts or neglects; and all such debts, fines, &c. shall be delivered by the first day of the next term after such returns made, or fines, &c. set, that they may be all charged in the sheriff's accounts, and comprehended within their quietus est; on pain that every officer in exchequer, who shall offend contrary to this act, shall forfeit 40*l.*, one moiety to H. M., and the other to the party grieved, to be recovered in any of H. M.'s courts at Westminster, by action of debt, &c. or information, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 21. s. 6.

77. No person shall be assigned sheriff of any county, except such as have lands within the county sufficient to answer H. M. and his people, id. s. 7. [See ante, pl. 13.]

78. When any sheriffs, on passing their accounts, shall have their quietus est, they shall be thereby discharged of all sums of money, notwithstanding any pretence that they were not accounted for, unless such sheriff shall be called in question, and judgment is given against him within 4 years after such account or quietus est, id. s. 8.

79. This act shall not extend to the counties of Chester, Lancaster, Durham, or Wa., being county palatines, as to their manner of accounting, but the sheriffs shall account as formerly before the respective auditors, id. s. 9. [See 3 G. 1. c. 15. ss. 22—25. infra, pl. 103—105.]

80. This act shall not enjoin H. M.'s or the lord-treasurer's remembrancer, to transcribe and deliver to the engrosser of the great roll any inquisitions or seizures, but such as have been formerly charged in the foreign accounts of the sheriff; but inquisitions upon attainder, or other forfeitures to the crown, shall be put in charge according to the usage and decree of the court; nor shall it exclude H. M.'s remembrancer from writing forth process upon any H. M.'s debts, duties, outlawries, or other charge or process of levari facias, at the prosecution of any person, to levy the issues and profits of lands seized into H. M.'s hands, or process of vend. exp. for goods seized upon any debt to H. M., or on any outlawry, or to alter the proceedings in the said office on any pleadings touching the said debts and seizures: and no debt, fine, amercement, or seizure, which shall be charged in the great roll of the pipe from any record or proceeding in the office of H. M.'s remembrancer, nor any proceeding thereupon, shall be respited or discharged, but by order, warrant, or judgment, entered in the latter office: and in case any process of summons of the pipe is awarded on any such debt, &c. and the same is not levied or answered to H. M., the clerk of the pipe, or engrosser of the great roll, shall, the next term after the return of such summons, certify the same in a schedule into the office of H. M.'s remembrancer, that further process may be written forth for the levying thereof: and this act shall not prejudice H. M.'s remembrance in any just fees, id. s. 10.

81. No sheriff of London and Middlesex shall accept of his under-sheriff, either directly or indirectly, any money, gratuity, or present, for execution of the place of under-sheriff, or otherwise oblige the under-sheriff to be at any charge in relation to such place, which ought to be, and usually is, disbursed by the high sheriff, except rewards by 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 8., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17., 5 A. c. 31. given for apprehending highwaymen, clippers, coiners, and housebreakers, and the fees of passing such sheriff's accounts in the exchequer, and any other expences heretofore usually sustained by the under-sheriff, 5 & 6 A. c. 31. s. 8. [See rest of this act, FELONY, pl. 44—65.]

82. FOR BETTER REGULATING THE OFFICE OF SHERIFFS, and for ascertaining their fees and the fees for suing out their patents, and passing their accounts, 3 G. 1. c. 15.

83. The officers of chancery and exchequer, the auditors and receivers of crown-revenue in Wa., and all other officers claiming any fee from sheriffs or under-sheriffs, for making out their patents, or the dedimus for swearing them, and for entering their recognizance, or for writing out and return of their process, or for their appraisals, or casting out of court, or for passing their accounts, or for making their quietus, or for any other matter, may take the fees in the schedule set forth, but no greater fees, on penalty of 5*l.* and treble the sum taken, with treble costs to the party grieved, to be awarded by exchequer, on complaint and proof thereof before the barons in such summary way as seems meet, id. s. 1.

84. The treasury, chancellor, and C. B. of exchequer, and other barons, or any 2 of them, shall, at the request of any sheriff, or as often as they think fit, call before them the treasurer's remembrancer, clerk of the pipe, or their deputies, secondaries, and such other officers as they think fit, and cause them to bring an account of all the rents and certainties written out yearly in processes to the sheriffs to levy for the crown; and may alter or establish the sums wherewith the sheriff stands charged on the rolls of profits, to such sums as shall seem just; and orders shall be drawn up pursuant thereto, and entered on record in the offices of H. M.'s and the treasurer's remembrancers and the clerk of the pipe, before the last day of Michaelmas term then following; which sums so settled shall be the profits of each county; and the rolls of profits shall be made conformable thereto, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 2.

85. All sheriffs who shall levy any debts, &c. except post-fines due to H. M. by process on the summons of the pipe or green wax, by levari facias out of exchequer, shall have an allowance on their accounts of 12d. out of every 20s. for any sum not exceeding 100l., and 6d. for every 20s. above the first 100l. and for all debts, &c. except post-fines, due to H. M. by process and feri facias, and extent, issuing out of the exchequer, 1s. 6d. out of every 20s. for any sum not exceeding 100l., and 12d. for every 20s. over and above the first 100l., provided such sheriff shall answer the same on his account, by the general sealing day of such term in which he ought to be dismissed the court, or in such time to which he shall have a day granted to finish his accounts, by the C. B. or a baron of the coif, and not otherwise, id. s. 3.

86. No sheriff shall be obliged to charge in his accounts any money to be paid as rewards on the conviction of highwaymen, clippers, coiners, or housebreakers, but may immediately apply for the same to the treasury, who, on a certificate of the conviction of any offender, for which such reward shall be ordered to be paid by the sheriffs by virtue of 4 & 5 W. & M. c. 8., 6 & 7 W. 3. c. 17., and 5 A. c. 31., together with the acquittances of the parties entitled to receive the rewards, shall forthwith repay to such sheriffs the money so disbursed without fee, id. s. 4.

87. No sheriff or under-sheriff shall be attached for not being apposed on any writ or process, or for any neglect or contempt relating to his accounts, but by writ under seal of exchequer, or by warrant signed by a baron, and executed by the marshal, or his deputy; in which warrant the name of such sheriff or under sheriff shall be inserted, and his offence specified, id. s. 5.

88. If any person concerned in passing of sheriffs' accounts shall retard any sheriff, or by wilful neglect or absence prevent him from being apposed or cast out of court in due time, or after tender of his fees shall refuse to inrol, sign, and deliver his quietus in due time, he shall make such recompence to the party grieved as shall be decreed by the barons, on complaint, in such summary way as they think fit, id. s. 6.

89. If any sheriff of any county in Eng. (except the counties palatine of Chester, Durham, and Lancaster, and the several counties of Wa., which do not pass their accounts before the clerk of the pipe) shall be in surplussage on his account by reason of any disbursements for service of the crown, (other than the rewards as in s. 4. pl. 86.) he shall not be obliged to take out a record of surplussage, but may apply to the treasury, who shall pay the same, on the sheriff's producing a certificate of such surplussage from the clerk of the pipe, or his deputy, id. s. 7.

90. If any sheriff dies before the expiration of his year, or before he be superseded, the under-sheriff shall nevertheless continue in office, and execute the same in the name of the deceased, till another sheriff is appointed and sworn; and shall be answerable for the execution of the office during such interval as the high sheriff would have been; and the security given by the under sheriff and his pledges, shall stand a security to H. M. and all persons soever, for the due performing of office during such interval, id. s. 8.

91. When any sheriff shall by process out of exchequer extend any personalty into the hands of H. M., &c. for any debts due to the crown, and dies, or is superseded before a vend. exp. is awarded for sale, or before he has made actual sale thereof, and a writ shall afterwards be awarded to a subsequent sheriff, who shall make such sale, the barons of exchequer, if sitting, or if not sitting, they or any one of them of the degree of the coif, shall settle the fees or poundage for such seizure and sale between such preceding and subsequent sheriff, with regard to the trouble each sheriff had in the execution of such process, id. s. 9.

92. No person shall buy, sell, let, or take to farm the office of under or deputy sheriff, seal-keeper, county clerk, shire clerk, gaoler, bailiff, or any other office pertaining to the office of high sheriff, or contract for any of the said offices, on forfeiture of 500l.; one moiety to H. M., the other to such as shall sue by action of debt, &c. or information, in any court at Westminster, within 2 years after the offence, id. s. 10.

93. Nothing before in this act shall hinder any high sheriff from constituting an under or deputy-sheriff, as by law he may; nor hinder the under-sheriff, in case of the high sheriff's death, when he acts as high sheriff, from constituting a deputy; nor hinder such sheriff or under-sheriff from receiving the lawful fees of his office, or from taking security for the due answering the same; nor hinder such under or deputy-sheriff, seal-keeper, &c. from accounting to the high sheriff for all such lawful fees as shall be by them taken, nor for giving security so to do; nor hinder the high sheriff from allowing a salary to his under-sheriff, &c. or other officers, id. s. 11. [See s. 12., FINES, &c. pl. 21.]

94. No sheriff, under-sheriff, bailiff, or other person employed in levying any debts, &c. due to the crown by process of exchequer, shall take any fee on pretence of such levying, &c., [except 4d. for an acquittance, Rsp. 32 G. 2. c. 14. s. 1.], and the bailiff, &c. receiving such debt, &c., shall account for the same to the sheriff, and may require an acquittance from such sheriff without fee; from which debts the sheriffs shall discharge the debtors by totting and answering the same on their accounts in exchequer; and if any sheriff, &c. shall nichil or not duly answer to the crown any debt so levied, he shall forfeit treble damages to the party grieved, and double the sum; which shall be decreed to the party grieved by exchequer, on complaint and proof of such abuse before the barons, in such summary way as to them seems meet; and if any sheriff, &c. shall demand any money from any person from whom any debt is payable to the crown by process out of exchequer, on pretence of executing the process, or in respect of fees due for collecting the same; or if any of the above officers shall demand any sum for forbearing to levy any such debts written out to them by the said process, every such offender shall be adjudged guilty of extortion, injustice, and oppression; and being thereof convicted, shall forfeit treble damages and costs to the party grieved, and double the sum extorted; to be decreed by the barons, on complaint and proof, in a summary way; provided such conviction be within two years after the offence, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 13.

95. Nothing in this act shall deprive any sheriff of such poundage or allowance as is hereby given, or of any poundage or reward given them by warrant from the treasury, chancellor of the exchequer, or barons, for any extraordinary service to the crown, id. s. 14.

96. All orders of the barons for costs, damages, and penalties, in any case herein mentioned, in such summary way, shall have the same effect as any other orders or decrees of the court, id. s. 15.

97. No sheriff, or other bailiffs, or bailiff of any liberty, by colour of their office, or by reason of executing any writ of habere facias possessionem, or seisinam, may receive any greater fee than 12d. for every 20s. of the yearly value of any lands, &c. whereof possession or seisin shall be given, where the whole exceeds not the yearly value of 100l., and 6d. for every 20s. per ann. above the yearly value of 100l., id. s. 16.

98. Poundage in no case shall be taken on executing any ca. sa., or on charging any person in execution by virtue of such writ, for any greater sum than the real debt amounts to; which sum the plaintiff is to mark on the back of the writ before its delivery to the sheriff; and every sheriff, &c. who shall take greater fees, shall be adjudged guilty of extortion, injustice, and oppression; and being convicted shall forfeit to the party grieved treble damages, and double the sum extorted; to be decreed by the court out of which such writ issued, on complaint and proof of such extortion before the court, in such summary way as to them shall seem meet; and every person so offending shall forfeit 200l., one moiety to H. M., and the other to such as shall sue as above, with but one impeachment in any court at Westminster, within 2 years after the offence, id. s. 17.

99. Instead of the oath usually administered to sheriffs, the following oath shall be taken by them, except those of Wa., and of the county palatine of Chester:

'I A. B. do swear, that I will well and truly serve H. M. in the office of sheriff of the county of —, and promote H. M.'s profit in all things that belong to my office, as far as I legally can or may; I will truly preserve H. M.'s rights, and all that belongeth to the crown; I will not assent to decrease, lessen, or conceal H. M.'s rights, or the rights of his franchisees, and whensoever I shall have knowledge that the rights of the crown are concealed or withdrawn, be it in lands, rents, franchises, suits, or services, or in any other matter or thing, I will do my utmost to make them be restored to the crown again; and if I may not do it myself, I will certify and inform H. M. thereof, or some of his judges; I will not respite or delay to levy H. M.'s debts, for any gift, promise, reward, or favour, where I may raise the same without great grievance to the debtors; I will do right, as well to poor as to rich, in all things belonging to my office; I will do no wrong to any man for any gift, reward, or promise, nor for favour, or hatred; I will disturb no man's right, and will truly and faithfully acquit at the exchequer all those of whom I shall receive any debts or duties belonging to the crown; I will take nothing whereby H. M. may lose, or whereby his right may be disturbed, injured, or delayed; I will truly return, and truly serve, all H. M.'s writs, according to the best of my skill and knowledge; I will take no bailiffs into my service but such as I will answer for, and will cause each of them to take such oaths as I do, in what belongeth to their business and occupation; I will truly set and return reasonable and due issues of them that be within my bailiwick, according to their estate and circumstances, and make due panels of persons able and sufficient, and not suspected or procured, as is appointed by the statutes of this realm; I have not sold or let to farm, nor contracted for, nor have I granted or promised for reward or benefit, nor will I sell, or let to farm, nor contract for, or grant for reward or benefit, by myself, or any other person for me, or for my use, directly or indirectly, my sheriffwick, or any bailiwick thereof, or any office belonging thereunto, or the profits of the same, to any person or persons whatsoever; I will truly and diligently execute the good laws and statutes of this realm, and in all things well and truly behave myself in my office, for the honour of H. M., and the good of his subjects, and discharge the same according to the best of my skill and power. So help me God.' id. s. 18.

100. All under-sheriffs of any counties in South Britain, except the counties in Wa. and county palatine of Chester, before they enter on their offices, shall take the following oath; viz.

'I A. B. do swear, that I will well and truly serve H. M. in the office of under-sheriff of the county of —, and promote H. M.'s profit in all things that belong to the said office, as far as I legally can or may; I will preserve H. M.'s rights, and all that belongeth to the crown; I will not assent to decrease, lessen, or conceal, H. M.'s rights, or the rights of his franchises; and whosoever I shall have knowledge that the rights of the crown are concealed or withdrawn, be it in lands, rents, franchises, suits, or services, or in any other matter or thing, I will do my utmost to make them be restored to the crown again; and if I may not do it of myself, I will certify and inform some of H. M.'s judges thereof; I will not respite or delay to levy H. M.'s debts for any gift, promise, reward, or favour, where I may raise the same without great grievance to the debtors; I will do right as well to poor as to rich in all things belonging to my office; I will do no wrong to any man for any gift, reward, or promise, nor for favour, or hatred; I will disturb no man's right, and will truly and faithfully acquit at the exchequer all those of whom I shall receive any debt, duties, or sums of money, belonging to the crown; I will take nothing whereby H. M. may lose, or whereby his right may be disturbed, injured, or delayed; I will truly return and truly serve all H. M.'s writs, to the best of my skill and knowledge; I will truly set and return reasonable and due issues of them that be within my bailiwick, according to their estates and circumstances; and make due panels of persons able and sufficient, and not suspected or procured, as is appointed by the statutes of this realm; I have not bought, purchased, or taken to farm, or contracted for, nor have I promised or given any consideration, nor will I buy, purchase, or take to farm, nor contract for, promise, or give any consideration whatsoever, by myself, or any other person for me, or for my use, directly or indirectly, to any person or persons whatsoever, for the office of under-sheriff of the county of —, which I am now to enter upon and enjoy, nor for the profits of the same, nor for any bailiwick thereof, or any other place or office belonging thereunto; I have not sold nor contracted for, or let to farm, nor have I granted or promised, for reward or benefit, by myself, or any other person for me, or for my use, directly or indirectly, any bailiwick thereof, or any other place or office belonging thereunto; I will truly and diligently execute the good laws and statutes of this realm, and in all things well and truly behave myself in my said office for H. M.'s advantage, and for the good of his subjects, and discharge my whole duty according to the best of my skill and power. So help me God.'

Which oath is to be administered by the commissioners named to administer the foregoing oath to the high sheriff, as often as a commission of dedimus is sued forth for that purpose, or by the barons, or one of them, when the sheriff desires to be sworn in town, 3 G. 1. c. 15. s. 19.

101. The sheriffs of Wa. and Chester shall not be obliged to take the said oaths, but shall take the accustomed oath as formerly, except these words, viz. Ye shall be dwelling in your own proper person within your bailiwick, for the time ye shall continue in the same office, except ye be otherwise licensed by the king, which words shall be left out, id. s. 20.

102. This act shall not extend to the sheriffs of London and Middlesex, the county palatine of Durham, the county of Westmoreland, or to the sheriffs of any city or town being a county of itself, as to their placing in or disposing of any of the offices of their under sheriffs, county clerks, bailiffs, or other officers, or their continuance therein, id. s. 21.

103. The sheriffs of Wa. shall not be compelled to appear to be apposed in the exchequer, but shall be apposed before H. M.'s auditor in Wa.; and the quietus of the said sheriffs, under the auditor's hand, shall be a sufficient discharge, id. s. 22.

104. The auditors of Chester, Lancaster, and Durham, shall state the accounts of the sheriffs of the said counties, and appose them touching the execution of H. M.'s process; and the said sheriffs, on such accounts, may sue forth their quietus est from the said auditors, according to ancient usage, id. s. 23.

105. The sheriffs of the city of Chester shall account as formerly before the mayor, touching all matters granted from the crown to the city by charters, id. s. 24., and as for all other matters not granted to the city, and for which they are accountable to H. M., shall account for the same before, and be apposed by, and obtain their quietus est from the auditor of the county of Chester, in the same manner as the sheriffs of that county, id. s. 25.

The SCHEDULE or LIST in the act mentioned, viz.

A Schedule of fees to be paid for passing the Patents of the several Sheriffs of England and Wales.

The Charge taken and received in the Court of Chancery on Account of suing out of the Patents of the several Sheriffs of England and Wales, that are sued out there, for each the Particulars are as followeth:

	£	s.	d.
The king's duty for stamps	-	0	12 6
To the serjeant trumpeter	-	3	0 0
To the master of the rolls	-	0	8 8
Signing the docquet	-	0	4 0
Hanaper fee	-	0	15 0
The six clerks fee on the patent, writ of assistance, writ of discharge, and dedimus potestatem	-	1	7 0

For engraving the patent, writ of assistance, writ of discharge, dedimus potestatem, the three oaths, the docquet parchment, and attending the sealing of the patent - - - 1 14 4
The recognizance and duty in a Welsh patent, more - - - 0 3 6

A schedule of fees to be paid by the sheriffs of Eng. and Wa. for passing their accounts.

Fees to be paid to the clerk of the pipe at the apposal of sheriffs.

	£	s.	d.		£	s.	d.
Cant'	-	1	13 4	Monmouth	-	1	13 4
Cumb'	-	1	13 4	Northumb'	-	1	13 4
Ebor'	-	5	0 0	Rutland	-	1	6 8
Hunt'	-	1	6 8	Westmor'	-	1	6 8
Lond' and Mid'sex	-	2	0 0	The rest of the counties of	-	-	-
Lincoln	-	2	13 4	Eng. , each	-	2	0 0

Fees to be paid to the clerk of the pipe at casting out of court, and for the quietus, and chancellor's allowance.

Cant' Hunt'	-	4	3 4	Northumber'	-	2	16 8
Cumb'	-	2	16 8	Rutland	-	1	16 8
Ebor'	-	10	3 4	Westmor'	-	2	3 4
Kent	-	4	3 4	The rest of the counties of	-	-	-
Lond' Mid'sex	-	5	6 8	Eng. , each	-	3	3 4
Monmouth	-	2	16 8

Casual fees to the clerk of the pipe for the allowance of justices' wages in the counties following, viz.

Ebor'	-	1	0 0
Lond' Mid'sex	-	0	13 4
Lincoln	-	0	10 0
The rest of the counties of Eng. , if any such allowance be made	-	0	6 8
For setting of a seizure or debt by petition or judgment of court, when it happens	-	0	1 0
For allowance of a record of surplusage for the first five pounds	-	0	6 8
For every other five pounds	-	0	3 4

Fees to be paid to the clerk of the pipe for the several cities and accmpting towns for their whole account, and quietus thereupon.

Civit' Bristol				Civit' Lincoln
Civit' Glouc'				Civit' Norwic'
Civit' Ebor'				Vil' Kinsgton super
Vil' Novi Castri				Hull
Civit' Cantuar'				Vil' Not'
Civit' Coventry				Vil' Pool
Civit' Exon'				Vil' South'ton
Civit' Litch'

Fees to be paid to the secondaries, and others the sworn clerks in the said office, at the apposals of sheriffs at the coming into their account, and writing their annual books, together with the vicontels of the foot or charge of their whole account.

Bedd'	-	0	6 0	Monmouth	-	3	0 0
Berks				Nor'	-	6	13 4
Bucks				North'ton	-	4	10 0
Cant' Hunt'	-	4	13 4	Northumb'	-	4	13 4
Cornub'	-	6	0 0	Nott'	-	5	10 0
Cumbr'	-	3	13 4	Oxon'	-	6	0 0
Derb'	-	5	0 0	Ruti'	-	3	6 8
Devon'				Surr'
Dorset				Sussex
Essex	-	10	6 8	Salop
Ebor'	-	17	0 0	Suff'
Glouc'				South'ton	-	7	13 4
Heref'				Staff'	-	5	13 4
Hert'	-	5	6 8	Somers'	-	9	6 8
Kant'	-	6	13 4	Westmorl'	-	2	0 0
Lincoln	-	4	13 4	Warr'	-	4	16 8
Leic'	-	6	13 4	Wigorn'	-	6	0 0
Lond' Mid'sex, two sugar loaves and	-	4	0 0	Wilts'	-	8	0 0

Fees for casting out of court, and for quietus, viz.

Bedd'	-	6	0 0	Leic'	-	8	6 8
Buck'	-	5	6 8	Lond' Midd'x, two sugar loaves and	-	4	0 0
Berk'	-	5	6 8	Monmouth	-	3	0 0
Cant' Hunt'	-	4	13 4	North'ton
Cornub'	-	5	13 4	Nor'
Cumbr'	-	4	13 4	Not'	-	6	6 8
Derb'	-	5	6 8	Northumb'	-	4	13 4
Devon'	-	8	6 8	Oxon'	-	8	6 8
Dors'	-	6	13 4	Ruti'	-	2	0 0
Essex	-	11	0 0	Staff'	-	6	13 4
Ebor'	-	23	6 8	Surr'
Glouc'	-	7	6 8	Sussex
Heref'	-	6	0 0	Salop	-	5	6 8
Hert'	-	6	13 4	Suff'	-	6	0 0
Kant'	-	11	13 4	South'ton	-	8	6 8
Lincoln	-	6	0 0

SHERIFF.

	£	s.	d.		£	s.	d.
Somers'	-	-	10 0 0	Wigorn'	-	-	7 6 8
Westmor'	-	-	2 8 4	Wilts'	-	-	8 13 4
Warr'	-	-	5 10 0

Fees of sheriffs for cities and accompting towns.

Civit' Bristol'	-	-	3 6 8	Civit' Norwic'	-	-	3 6 8
Civit' Cantuar'	-	-	2 13 4	Civit' Wigorn'	-	-	2 0 0
Civit' Ebor'	-	-	5 0 0	Vil' Kingston super Hull	-	-	3 6 8
Civit' Coventry	-	-	2 13 4	Vil' Nott'	-	-	2 0 0
Civit' Exon'	-	-	1 10 0	Nov' Castrum	-	-	2 13 4
Civit' Glouc'	-	-	2 13 4	Vil' Pool	-	-	1 10 0
Civit' Lincoln	-	-	2 13 4	Vil' South'ton	-	-	2 0 0
Civit' Litchf'	-	-	1 6 8

Memorandum.—The sheriffs of the counties palatine of Chester and Lancaster do not accompt before the clerk of the pipe, but before the respective auditor of those counties; but their books being writ every year, and certificates (made of what they take in charge) to the auditor, the following fees are to be taken by the clerk of the pipe, and the sworn clerk for those counties, viz.

Chester	-	-	2 3 4	Lancast'	-	-	4 6 8
---------	---	---	-------	----------	---	---	-------

Fees to be paid the first secondary.

For allowing the sheriffs tallies of profer in each county	-	-	0 6 8
In each city and town	-	-	0 3 4
Making up the sheriffs sum containing his whole charge in York	-	-	0 13 4
Lond' Midd'sex	-	-	0 13 4
For the rest of the counties, each	-	-	0 6 8
Allowing a talley de remanente comp' or any other talley de sol' in his accompt, when such happen	-	-	0 1 0
For charging a post scrow, which rarely happens	-	-	0 3 4

To the second secondary.

For drawing down a debt received by distring' , or levied by writ of fiert facias from either of the remembrancers' office upon the scrow back	-	-	0 3 4
If an extraordinary length	-	-	0 6 8

To the portubag.

For ingrossing the scrow of green wax of the sheriff of the county of York	-	-	1 0 0
Lond' Midd'	-	-	1 0 0
The rest of the counties of Eng. , each	-	-	0 10 0
For the accompting towns and cities, each	-	-	0 3 4

Casual and accidental fees to the sworn clerks in their respective assignments, viz.

For a constat of a seizure or debt, in order to be ruled off, or discharged	-	-	0 4 4
For settling of a seizure or debt upon a sheriff's accompt, by petition or judgment of court, when it happens	-	-	0 3 4
Filing the certificates of felons goods, and charging the debts therein contained, each	-	-	0 6 8

For the allowance of justices wages.

York	-	-	2 0 0	The rest of the counties of
Lond' Midd'sex	-	-	2 0 0	Eng. , each	-	-	0 13 4
Lincoln	-	-	1 0 0

For sheriffs' allowances.

Ebor'	-	-	0 13 4	Record of surplusage for
Lond' Mid'sex	-	-	3 6 8	the first five pound	-	-	0 6 8
The rest of the counties, each	-	-	0 6 8	For every other five pound	-	-	0 3 4

To the writing clerk for the business of the whole year.

Cant' Hunt'	-	-	5 0 0	The rest of the counties, each	-	-	5 0 0
Cornub'	-	-	6 0 0	Civit' Bristol'	-	-	1 0 0
Devon'	-	-	6 0 0	Civit' Ebor'	-	-	1 0 0
Ebor'	-	-	15 0 0	Civit' Norwic'	-	-	1 0 0
Kant'	-	-	7 0 0	Kingston super Hull	-	-	0 18 4
Lincoln	-	-	6 10 0	Novum Castrum	-	-	1 0 0
Lond' Mid'sex	-	-	6 0 0	Vil' Pool	-	-	0 6 8
Monmouth	-	-	3 0 0	The rest of the cities, each	-	-	0 13 4
Rutland	-	-	1 0 0	Com' Pal' Centr'	-	-	0 6 8
Somers'	-	-	7 13 4	Com' Pal' Lanc'	-	-	0 13 4
Sussex	-	-	3 10 0
Westmor'	-	-	2 0 0

To be paid to the bagman of the office at the apposal of the sheriffs

Of Eng. , in each county, 2s. 6d. and the casting out	-	-	0 5 0
And for each city and accompting town	-	-	0 2 6

Fees to be paid to the comptroller of the pipe.

For apposal of Lond' , Mid'sex , and York , each	-	-	2 0 0
For apposal of Surrey , Sussex , Rutland , and Westmorland , each	-	-	0 15 0

SHERIFF.

1363

For apposal of every other county	-	-	-	£	s.	d.
For casting out of Lond' , Mid'sex , and York , each	-	-	-	1	7	6
For casting out of Surrey , Sussex , and Rutland , each	-	-	-	2	0	0
For casting out of every other county	-	-	-	0	15	0
For return of summons for London , Middlesex , and York , each	-	-	-	1	10	0
For return of every other summons	-	-	-	0	5	0
For petitions, which seldom happen	-	-	-	0	2	6

The fees to be taken by the 3 clerks of the comptroller of the pipe in passing sheriffs' accounts.

passing through accounts.					Apposals.	Casting out.
					£. s. d.	£. s. d.
Bedd'	}	each	-	-	-	1 2 6	1 0 0
Hert'
North'ton
Surr'	}	each	-	-	-	1 5 0	1 5 0
Rutld'
Lond' Mid'sex			-	-	-	-	1 5 0
Cambr'	}	each	-	-	-	1 12 6	1 10 0
Heref' Leic' Norf' Nott'
Staff'
War'	}	each	-	-	-	1 15 0	1 15 0
Sussex
Derb'
Oxon'			-	-	-	-	1 19 2
Cant' Hunt'	}	each	-	-	-	2 2 6	2 0 0
Glouc'
Kant'
Essex	}	each	-	-	-	2 9 2	2 6 8
Bucks
Monmouth
Berks
Suffolk
South'ton	}	each	-	-	-	2 9 2	2 6 8
Worcester
Wilts
Salop	}	each	-	-	-	2 9 2	2 6 8
Northumbr'
Lincoln
Cornwall	}	each	-	-	-	3 9 2	3 6 8
Devon
Dorset
Somerset
Ebor'	-	-	-	-	-	4 16 8	4 16 8
Westmor'	-	-	-	-	-	0 17 6	0 17 6

For return of every summons, 7s. 6d.; except Lond', Mid'sex, 15s.; York, 1l. 5s.; and Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Lincoln, Somerset, Suffolk South'ton, Wilts, and Salop, each 17s. 6d. For the petition of allowance, 3s. 6d.; except in London, Middlesex, and York, 13s. 4d.; and in Cornwall, Devon, and Somerset, 6s. 8d. each; for every other petition, 1s.; and for the justices' wages in London and Middlesex, 10s.

Fees to be paid by sheriffs in the king's remembrancer's office, upon giving security when he enters into his office.

The stamp-duty of the recognizance	-	-	-	0	10	0
The caption fee before the baron	-	-	-	0	8	8
The king's remembrancer's fee for the same, for the counties of York and Norfolk , for each of them	-	-	-	0	13	4
To him for every other county of Eng. , except Lancaster and Durham , and the several counties of Wa. , which give no security in the exchequer	-	-	-	0	10	0
To the attorney for making the recognizance, attending the baron, entering and enrolling the recognizance, making the fiat , and duty for the same, and filing the warrant of attorney	-	-	-	0	18	0
Upon the apposal of every sheriff upon the process returnable in Easter term to the deputy remembrancer	-	-	-	0	5	0
To the attorney that receives and files the writs, and attends the apposals of the sheriffs	-	-	-	0	4	4
The like upon the process returnable in Michaelmas term	-	-	-	0	9	4
For making the certificate when the sheriff enters upon his accompt of what seizures are by him made upon the process returned in that office during his year	-	-	-	0	4	4

Treasurer's remembrancer's office in the court of exchequer.

Fees taken of sheriffs in the said office on passing their accounts by the remembrancer.

Upon a baron's warrant for respiting a sheriff's apposals, or for a day over to finish his accompts	-	-	-	0	4	0
Upon the view of a sheriff's accompts in Easter and Michaelmas term	-	-	-	0	6	8

Upon the commission to swear a sheriff in the country to accompt	£	s.	d.
Upon examining and ruling a sheriff's petition of allowance for the two days granted ex gratia curia for finishing his accompt, and for filing his affidavit of felons' goods	0	12	0
Upon examining and ruling any other petition in a sheriff's account, when any such happens	0	3	4
Upon a record of surplussage for the first five pound	0	6	8
For every other five pound	0	3	4
For filing any constat warrant, or other exhibit	0	1	0

By the sworn clerks.

For making the view of a sheriff's accompt in Easter and Michaelmas term, 5s. each term, vis.	0	10	0
For giving a sheriff notice termly, during his year of office, of any information or plaint against him, according to the statute in that case made and provided, and for attending his apposals before the barons, and in Easter and Michaelmas terms, 20s. each term, vis.	2	0	0
For drawing any warrant to be signed by the chancellor, or a baron	0	6	8
For attending a baron for his hand thereto	0	3	4
For directing a sheriff in his business during the 3 terms he is upon his accompt, 10s. each term, v. z.	1	10	0
For making the commission to swear a sheriff in the country to accompt, pursuant to a warrant from a baron for that purpose	0	10	0
For the oath thereunto annexed	0	6	8
For a high sheriff's warrant to be sworn to accompt (when he comes in person) and for attending his being sworn	1	0	0
For an under-sheriff's warrant	0	3	4
For attending and putting in a sheriff's bill of proffers at the receipt of exchequer in Cro' Ch' Pasche & Cro' Sci' Mich' when his year is ended, at his swearing to accompt	1	6	8
For entering the 2 days ex gratia curia	0	6	8
For drawing a sheriff's oath touching felons' goods	0	6	8
For a copy thereof to transmit to the pipe	0	3	4
For a certificate of the execution of a process	0	6	8
For a search in order to make such certificate	0	3	4
For drawing any petition in parchment, and inrolling it	0	6	0
For inrolling a sheriff's bill of allowance	0	13	4
For inrolling any schedule in onere constat , or warrant by the roll	0	6	8
For a record or surplussage for the first 5l.	0	6	8
For every other 5l.	0	3	4
For copying any seizure made by a sheriff, per sheet	0	0	8
For examining and signing the same	0	3	4
For a writ of assistance and seal	0	10	0
For attending at Westminster to dismiss a sheriff the court, on finishing his accompt	0	6	8

By the Filazer.

For entering a high sheriff's commission, or warrant, ad computand' on the scroll of accomptants	0	5	0
For an under-sheriff's warrant, and any warrant, ad recipiend' brevia	0	2	0
For the sheriff's tallies of proffers	0	2	0
For entering a sheriff's writs on the bills	0	2	0
And when he comes post diem , and americiaments are set by the court, then for each americiament, 1s. being usually 6s. during his year, vis.	0	6	0
When any plea, composition, order, or the like, happens during a sheriff's accompt, through his defaults or contempts, he pays the same fees that are paid by other suitors.

There have been some small fees time out of mind paid to the under-clerks, vis.

For writing a warrant, or affidavit	0	1	0
On return of process twice a year, 5s. vis.	0	10	0
For ingrossing a commission, and oath annexed	0	5	0

As likewise to the portubag, vis.

For carrying any writ to be sealed	0	6	6
For a commission	0	1	0
A sheriff pays him at each of his apposals, 2s., v. z.	0	4	0
And for postage of all his business, during the time he is upon his accompts	0	5	0

A particular of such fees as are to be paid by sheriffs in the office of remembrancer of the first-fruits and tenths in H. M.'s exchequer.

For attending the sheriff's apposals at Westminster upon their returning of writs issued for arrears of first-fruits, and for filing the same in Easter term, each	0	4	4
The like for Michaelmas term	0	4	4

Fees to be received by the foreign apposer, his deputy, or chief clerk, of all sheriffs of counties, cities, and towns, at their apposal upon the summons of the green wax, and for making out the justices wages, when craved by the sheriff.

Counties.	Apposal.	Justices wages.
	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
Bedford	3 3 0	1 12 6
Berks	3 5 0	1 12 6
Bucks	3 5 0	1 12 6
Camb' Hunt'	3 5 0	1 12 6
Cornwall	6 5 0	1 12 6
Cumberland	3 5 0	1 12 6
Derby	3 18 4	1 12 6
Devon	7 5 0	1 12 6
Dorset	4 5 0	1 12 6
Essex	6 5 0	1 12 6
Gloucester	4 5 0	1 12 6
Hereford	3 5 0	1 12 6
Hertford	3 18 4	1 12 6
Kent	6 5 0	1 12 6
Leicester	3 5 0	1 12 6
Lincoln	6 5 0	1 12 6
London and Middlesex	7 10 0	5 10 0
Monmouth	3 5 0	1 12 6
Norfolk	6 5 0	3 5 0
Northampton	5 5 0	1 12 6
Nottingham	3 18 4	1 12 6
Northumberland	1 15 0	1 12 6
Oxford	3 5 0	1 12 6
Rutland	1 15 0	0 0 0
Salop	4 5 0	1 12 6
Somerset	6 5 0	1 12 6
Southampton	3 18 4	1 12 6
Stafford	3 5 0	1 12 6
Suffolk	7 5 0	3 5 0
Surrey	3 5 0	1 12 6
Sussex	3 5 0	1 12 6
Warwick	3 5 0	1 12 6
Westmorland	1 15 0	0 0 0
Worcester	3 5 0	1 12 6
Wilts	5 5 0	1 12 6
York	9 5 4.	3 5 0

Cities.	Apposals.	Cities.	Apposals.
Bristol	0 17 6	Litchfield	0 15 10
Coventry	0 17 6	Lincoln	0 15 10
Canterbury	0 17 6	Norwich	1 12 6
Exeter	1 12 6	Worcester	0 17 6
Gloucester	0 17 6	York	0 17 6

Towns.	Apposals.	Towns.	Apposals.
Kington-super-Hull	0 15 10	Pool	0 14 2
Nottingham	0 17 6	Southampton	0 17 6
Newcastle-upon-Tyne	0 17 6

Fees to be taken by the clerk of the extracts in H. M.'s court of exchequer, and by the sworn clerk in that office, of all sheriffs accomptable in the exchequer upon their apposals on the summons of the green wax.

To the clerk of the extracts for Northumberland and Westmorland , each	0	10	0
Of London and Middlesex	1	2	0
Of the county of Rutland	0	13	4
Of every other county, each	1	0	0
Of the city of Eton	0	10	0
Of every other city and town, each	0	6	8

To the sworn clerk for writing out the summons twice every year, and attending the apposals.

Of the county of Rutland	0	9	2
Of Ebor'	1	16	8
Of Survey	1	13	4
Of Westmorland	0	16	8
Of the counties of Heref' , Hertf' , Oxon , Suff' , and Southampton , each	1	0	0
Of every other county	1	6	8
Of the cities of Bristol , Litchfield , and town of Pool , each	0	5	10
Of the city of Eton	0	10	0
Of every other city and town, each	0	8	4
The fee due to the chancellor of the exchequer, his secretary and clerk, for passing a sheriff's allowances, to be	0	15	0

Fees to be taken by the curitor baron, and his clerk, of the several sheriffs of England.

To the baron for swearing to their accounts, and signing their warrant	0	16	8
To his clerk	0	3	0

	£.	s.	d.
To the baron at their appraisals	-	1	0	0
To his clerk	-	0	7	6
To the baron at their casting out of court	-	1	0	0
To his clerk	-	0	7	6

Sheriffs of London and Middlesex, and sheriffs of the county of York, pay double fees, and the sheriffs of Sussex, Surrey, Rutland, and Westmorland, pay half fees.

Fees certain and casual to be paid by the sheriffs, to the marshal of H. M.'s court of exchequer, granted to them by patent under the great seal without salary.

Easter Term.

All sheriffs of the counties of England come then to be apposed on their writs and process before the barons, and pay the said marshals, except Rutland and Yorkshire)	-	0	15	10
Rutland to pay half that fee, (viz.)	-	0	7	11
Yorkshire, double	-	1	11	8

Michaelmas Term.

The same sheriffs are apposed again on the same writs and process, and to pay their fees as above.

Easter Term.

Sheriffs of the cities and towns, and deputies of the cinque ports, each of them to pay severally upon their appraisals then as followeth, viz.

Lincoln, Canterbury, Pool, Gloucester, Wigorn, Nottingham, Coventry, Southampton, Litchfield, and deputy of the cinque ports	-	0	8	8
York, Norwich, Exon, Newcastle, Hull	-	0	13	4
Bristol, city	-	0	10	6

Michaelmas Term.

The sheriffs of cities and towns above apposed then, are to pay the same fees as paid in Easter term, and when sworn to accompt, are to pay no more	-	0	3	0
Bailiffs of liberties sworn to accompt are to pay each	-	0	0	8
Bristol escheator is to pay	-	0	3	4

Michaelmas Term.

Sheriffs of counties prefixed that term to be sworn, and to take their accompts in charge before the cursor baron, on the summons of the pipe, and before the foreign apposer upon the green wax, viz. Essex, Hertford, Kent, Cambr' Hunt', North'ton, Lincoln, Stafford, Wigorn, Wilts, Cornub', Salop, Berks, and Bucks, are to pay each	-	1	9	2
Rutland is to pay half that fee	-	0	14	7
London and Middlesex is to pay his fees for a whole year	-	5	12	0
London gauger then sworn in court is to pay	-	0	8	8

Hilary Term.

Sheriffs of counties sworn and apposed before the cursor baron, and foreign apposer, as in Michaelmas term, viz. Surrey, Sussex, Oxon, Berks, Norfolk, Suffolk, Hereford, Dorset, Monmouth, Somerset, Derby, Nottingham, Devon, Gloucester, Warwick, South'ton, and Leicester, to pay each	-	1	9	2
York pays double	-	2	18	4

Easter Term.

Sheriffs of Cumberland and Northumberland, then prefixed and apposed on the summons of the pipe and green wax, before the cursor baron and foreign apposer, to pay each	-	1	9	2
Westmorland then to pay his fees for the whole year	-	2	6	8
Lancashire for the whole year	-	3	10	0
Cheshire for the whole year	-	3	6	8
All sheriffs discharged by proclamation in the court, except York	-	0	15	10
York is to pay	-	1	11	8

Casual fees.

Sheriffs attached by order of court or warrant	-	1	13	4
Sheriffs in custody per diem , until discharged	-	0	6	8
If the marshal rides into the country, 6d. per mile forwards, and the same backwards, towards his charges from the sheriff on whose account he goes.	-	-	-	-

Every sheriff that hath further time given him by order of court, or warrant to pass his accompt, or to be apposed, to pay

The fees to be taken by the four ushers of H. M.'s court of exchequer.

Of every high sheriff, when he enters on recognizance in the exchequer	-	0	4	0
Of every sheriff of a county sworn to answer upon his two appraisals on H. M.'s remembrancer, treasurer's remembrances, and first-fruits process, for each of the said appraisals	-	0	8	0
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on each of his said two appraisals	-	0	4	0
Of every sheriff of a county sworn to his accompt in court, or elsewhere, and on his apposal on the pipe process before the cursor baron	-	0	18	6
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on the	-	0	4	0

	£.	s.	d.
Of every sheriff of a county at his casting out of court, or finishing his accompt	-	0	8 0

London, Middlesex, and Yorkshire to pay double

Fees to be taken by the court-keeper of H. M.'s court of exchequer.

Of every high sheriff when he enters on recognizance in the exchequer	-	0	2	0
Of every sheriff of a county town to answer upon his two appraisals on H. M.'s remembrancer, and first-fruits process, for each of the said appraisals	-	0	2	0
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on each of the said two appraisals	-	0	1	0
Of every sheriff of a county sworn to his accompt in court, or elsewhere, and on his apposal upon the pipe process, before the cursor baron	-	0	3	0
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on the like apposal	-	0	1	0
Of every sheriff of a county upon his apposal, on the summons of green wax before the foreign apposer and clerk of the estreats	-	0	2	0
If apposed out of term	-	0	2	6
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on the like apposal	-	0	1	0
Of every sheriff of a county on his casting out of court, or finishing his accompts	-	0	2	0

London, Middlesex, and York are to pay double.

Fees to be received by the messenger of the said court, viz.

Of every sheriff of a county, sworn to answer upon his two appraisals on H. M.'s remembrancer, treasurer's remembrancer, and first-fruits process, for each of the said appraisals	-	0	6	8
Of every sheriff of a city for each of the said two appraisals	-	0	3	4

London, Middlesex, and York to pay double

Fees to be received by the tipstaff in the said court.

Of every high sheriff when he enters on recognizance in the exchequer	-	0	2	0
Of every sheriff of a county sworn to answer upon his two appraisals upon H. M.'s remembrancer, treasurer's remembrancer, and first-fruits process, for each of the said appraisals	-	0	2	0
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. sworn to answer the like appraisals	-	0	1	0
Of every sheriff of a county sworn to his accompt in court, or elsewhere, and on his apposal on the pipe process before the cursor baron	-	0	3	0
Of every sheriff of a city, &c. on his apposal on the pipe process before the cursor baron	-	0	1	0
Of every sheriff of a county at his casting out of court, and finishing his accompt	-	0	2	0

London, Middlesex, and York to pay double.

Fees and allowances to be paid to the auditors of the exchequer, for making up and passing the undermentioned sheriffs accompts, viz.

For enrolling a sheriff's patent, filing the several certificates, drawing and ingrossing the accompt, and for the quietus of the sheriff of Cheshire and Lancashire, the fees for each county to be	-	20	0	0
For the county palatine of Durham, according to ancient custom	-	9	6	8
For casting out of sheriffs in open court, except London and Middlesex, York, and Lincoln, each county	-	0	10	0
For London, Middlesex, York, and Lincoln, each county	-	1	0	0

Fees to be paid by the sheriffs of Wales, to the auditor of Wales, and Cheshire, for the several sheriffs of Wales.

For every old seizure charged in the sheriff's accompt	-	0	1	0
For every new seizure charged in the sheriff's accompt	-	0	2	0
For enrolling a sheriff's patent, filing the several certificates, drawing and ingrossing the accompt, and for the quietus est for each county	-	8	18	4

The fees due to the receiver of North and South Wales.

From every sheriff upon passing his accompts at the audit for signing his accompts, and entering in the revenue book	-	2	15	4
--	---	---	----	---

For the sheriffs of Cheshire.

For enrolling the sheriff's patent, filing the several certificates, drawing and ingrossing the accompt, and for the quietus est	-	20	0	0
---	---	----	---	---

105. FOR BETTER ENABLING SHERIFFS TO SUE OUT THEIR PATENTS, and pass their accounts, 3 G. 1. c. 16.

106. The yearly sum of 4000*l.* shall be set apart in the exchequer out of any fund which by any act of this session shall be charged with the same, [viz. out of the aggregate fund] for the uses hereafter mentioned, id. s. 1.

107. There shall be paid yearly out of the said monies, on the 1st day of Michaelmas term, to the sheriffs of the several counties after-mentioned, the sums herein expressed, to enable them to bear the expenses of the letters patents for their offices, and to pass their accounts, and to obtain their quietus; the said yearly sums to be received without any account or implest to be set upon them, and without paying any fees for the same, id. s. 2: viz.

To the sheriff of the county of	£ s.	To the sheriff of the county of	£ s.
Bedford	93 6	Rutland	69 11
Berks	96 0	Salop	98 3
Bucks	96 0	Somerset	112 19
Cambridge and Huntingdon	95 10	Southampton	101 8
Chester	62 10	Stafford	95 10
Cornwall	102 16	Suffolk	102 12
Cumberland	90 2	Surrey	90 2
Derby	93 19	Sussex	90 5
Devon	106 9	Warwick	93 10
Dorset	101 6	Wilts	104 10
Essex	108 10	Worcester	98 3
Gloucester	98 10	York	150 0
Hereford	94 6	Anglesey	30 0
Hertford	93 0	Brecon	30 0
Kent	108 10	Cardigan	30 0
Lancaster	67 7	Carmarthen	30 0
Leicester	94 6	Carnarvon	30 0
Lincoln	101 3	Denbigh	30 0
Middlesex	119 3	Flint	30 0
Monmouth	89 3	Glamorgan	30 0
Norfolk	101 15	Merioneth	30 0
Northampton	96 0	Montgomery	30 0
Northumberland	91 0	Pembroke	30 0
Nottingham	95 13	Radnor	30 0
Oxon	97 7	Westmorland	40 6

108. TO REGULATE THE ISSUE OF WARRANTS BY SHERIFFS, 6 G.1. c. 21. ss. 53, 54.

109. No high or under sheriff, their deputies or agents, shall make out any warrant before having in their custody the writs on which such warrants ought to issue, on forfeiture of 10*l.*, id. s. 53.

110. Every warrant to be made out upon any writ out of K. B. C. P. or exchequer, before judgment, to arrest any person, shall have the same day and year set down thereon as are set down on the writ itself, under forfeiture of 10*l.* to be paid by the person who shall fill up or deliver out such warrant; both penalties to be recovered and divided as the other penalties in 9 W.3. c. 25., id. s. 54.

111. FOR EASE OF SHERIFFS WITH REGARD TO RETURN OF PROCESS, 20 G.2. c. 37.

112. All sheriffs shall, at the expiration of their office, turn over to the succeeding sheriff, by indenture and schedule, all such writs and process as remain in their hands unexecuted, which new sheriff shall execute and return the same; and in case any sheriff neglect to turn over such process, he shall make satisfaction by damages and costs to the party aggrieved, id. s. 1.

113. No sheriff shall be called upon to make a return of any writ or process, unless required so to do within 6 months after expiration of his office, id. s. 2.

114. FOR BETTER AND MORE SPEEDY EXECUTION OF PROCESS WITHIN FRANCHISES OR LIBERTIES, 13 G.2. c. 18. s. 6. [see s. 5. CERTIORARI, pl. 3., and s. 7. COUNTY RATE, pl. 27., rest EXP.]

115. For more speedy execution of process within particular franchises or liberties, the sheriff of every shire, being no city or town made a shire, within which there is any franchise or liberty, the lord or proprietor whereof is entitled to return of writs within such franchise, shall, if required by such lord or proprietor within one month next after such request, appoint one deputy or more, at the charge of such lord, to be resident at some convenient place in or near such franchise to be appointed by the lord chancellor and the chief justices of K. B. and C. P. or one of them, who shall settle what costs shall be paid by such lord; and such deputy, &c. shall reside at the place so appointed, and have authority in the sheriff's name to receive and open all such writs the execution or return whereof belongs to the lord of such franchise, and thereupon in the name and under the seal of the sheriff to issue out such warrant to such lord as is requisite for the due execution of such writs; and every such deputy shall upon tender of any such writ receive and open same, and issue out such warrant thereupon without delay, as the sheriff himself may do, without taking any other fee than is accustomed; on pain that every such sheriff or deputy guilty of wilful neglect, shall be liable to be punished as for a contempt of one of the courts of chancery, K. B. or C. P., and shall likewise make satisfaction to the party receiving damage thereby, 13 G.2. c. 18. s. 6.

SHIPS. (See SEAMEN.)

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO PREVENT THE DELIVERING UP OF MERCHANT SHIPS, 16 C.2. c. 6. [EXP.]

2. FOR BUILDING GOOD AND DEFENSIBLE SHIPS, 5 & 6 W. & M. c. 24. [EXP.]

3. TO PREVENT H. M.'s ENEMIES FROM BEING SUPPLIED WITH SHIPS OR VESSELS BY G. B., 22 G.3. c. 71. [CON. 23 G.3. c. 2. both EXP.]

4. FOR AUTHORIZING H. M. TO ORDER THE REGISTERING AND GRANTING certificates of registry to certain ships the property of his subjects, which have been in possession of the enemy, and concerning which doubts have arisen, whether they are entitled to registry according to existing laws, 36 G.3. c. 112. [see now 48 G.3. c. 70., and 49 G.3. c. 41.]

5. FOR GRANTING TO FOREIGN SHIPS PUT UNDER H. M.'s protection the privileges of prize ships under certain regulations and restrictions, 37 G.3. c. 63. ss. 1—4. and s. 7. [Semb. EXP. as they relate to vessels put under H. M.'s protection in consequence of capitulation of foreign settlements to H. M. during the then war.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. TO PREVENT THE DELIVERING UP OF MERCHANT SHIPS and for increase of good and serviceable shipping, 22 & 23 C.2. c. 11. (and recital in s. 1.) ss. 2—11. [see s. 12. pl. 12. infra.]

2. Where any goods shall be laden on board any English ship of the burden of 200 tons or upwards, and mounted with 16 guns or more, if the commander yield up the goods to any Turkish ships, or to any pirates or sea rovers, without fighting, he shall, on proof thereof, made in court of admiralty, be incapable of taking charge of any English ship as commander; and if he thereafter take upon him to command any English ship, shall suffer imprisonment by warrant from that court during 6 months for every offence; and in case the persons taking the said goods shall release the ship, or pay unto the master any money or goods for freight or other reward, the said goods or money, or the value thereof, as also the master's part of such ship so released, shall be liable to repair the persons whose goods were taken, by action in the court of admiralty; and in case the commander's part, together with such money and goods, shall not be sufficient to repair all the damages sustained, the reparations recovered on the master's part shall be divided pro rata among the persons prosecuting and proving their damages, and the persons damaged shall have their action against the master for the remainder, id. s. 2.

3. No master of any such English ship, being at sea, and having discovered any ship to be a Turkish ship, pirate, or sea rover, shall depart out of his ship, id. s. 3.

4. If the master of any English ship, though not of the burden of 200 tons, or mounted with 16 guns, yield his ship to any Turkish ship, pirate, or sea rover, (not having at least his double number of guns), without fighting, he shall be liable to all the penalties in this act, id. s. 4.

5. On process out of the court of admiralty, all commanders of H. M.'s ships, or of any other English ships, may seize such ships or masters so offending, according to the process, and send them in custody into any ports of H. M.'s dominions, to be proceeded against according to s. 2. pl. 2., id. s. 5.; but none shall be hereby encouraged to violate the rights of the ports of any foreign prince or state in amity, id. s. 6.

6. If the mariners or inferior officers of any English ship, laden with goods, decline or refuse to fight and defend the ship, when thereunto commanded by the master, or utter any words to discourage the other mariners from defending the ship, every mariner found guilty of so declining, &c. shall lose all his wages due, together with such goods as he hath in the ship, and suffer imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, and during such time be kept to hard labour for his maintenance, id. s. 7.

7. If any ship be yielded contrary to the will of the commander, by disobedience of the mariners, testified by their having laid violent hands on him, the master shall not be liable to the sentence of incapacity, nor to any action for the losses sustained by the merchants, unless he have received back from the takers his ship, or some reward, id. s. 8.

8. Every mariner who shall have laid violent hands on his commander, to hinder him from fighting in defence of his ship and goods, shall suffer death as a felon, id. s. 9.

9. When any English ship has been defended by fight and brought to her port, in which fight any of the officers or seamen be wounded, the judge of admiralty, or his surrogate, or the judge of the vice-admiralty within which she shall arrive, on petition of the master or seamen, may call to him the adventurers or owners of the ship and goods, and by advice with them may raise on the owners and adventurers by process of the court, such sums of money as himself with the major part of the adventurers or owners present shall judge reasonable, not exceeding 2 per cent. of the ship and goods, according to the first cost of the goods by the invoice (which the owner or his factor is to produce) or by the oath of the owner or his correspondent; which money shall be paid to the register of the court, who shall receive 3*d.* in each pound, thence to be distributed amongst the captain, master, officers, and seamen, of the said ship, or widows and children of the slain, according to the direction of the judge, with the approbation of 3 or more of the owners or adventurers, who shall proportion the same unto the ship's company, having special regard unto the widows and children of such as shall have been slain, and to such as shall have been wounded or maimed, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 11. s. 10.

10. In case the company of any English merchant ship shall take any ship which shall first have assaulted them, the officers and mariners shall, after condemnation of such ship and goods, have such part thereof as is practised in private men of war, id. s. 11.

11. FOR PREVENTING THE WILFULLY DESTROYING SHIPS; (Framed to show the first existing provision on the subject,) 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 11. s. 12. [Virtually CONF. by 1 A. St. 2. c. 9. ss. 4—5. and 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1. for Scot., 43 G. 3. c. 79. for Ire., and 43 G. 3. c. 113.]

12. Any captain, master, mariner, or other officer belonging to any ship, who shall wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the ship to which he belongs, or procure the same to be done, shall suffer death as a felon, 22 & 23 C. 2. c. 11. s. 12.

13. If any captain, master, mariner, or other officer, belonging to any ship, shall wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy the ship to which he belongs, or procure the same to be done, to the prejudice of the owner or owners thereof, or of any merchant or merchants that shall load goods therein, he shall suffer death as a felon, 1 A. St. 2. c. 9. s. 4.

14. Every such offence committed on the high seas, or where the admiralty hath jurisdiction, shall be tried and determined in such shires and places in the realm as shall be limited by H.M.'s commission, under the great seal, as by 28 H. 8. c. 15. (PIRATES, pl. 2.) is directed for trial of pirates; and persons convict of such offences, standing mute, or peremptorily challenging above 20 jurymen, shall suffer death without benefit of clergy, id. s. 5.

15. If any owner of, or captain, master, mariner, or other officer belonging to any ship, shall wilfully cast away, burn, or otherwise destroy such ship, or direct, or procure the same to be done to the prejudice of any persons that shall underwrite any policy of insurance thereon, or of any merchant that shall load goods thereon, or of any owner of such vessel, the offender being lawfully convicted before any competent court in Scot. shall suffer death as in other capital cases, 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 1. [semble in force as to Scot., though 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 3. of which it is a copy is repealed, see pl. 19.]

16. FOR MAKING MORE EFFECTUAL PROVISION within Ire. for the punishment of offences, in wilfully casting away, sinking, burning, or destroying ships or vessels, 43 G. 3. c. 79. for Ire. [see rest of title and s. 5. FELONY, pl. 50.]

17. 11 G. 2. c. 9. (Ir.) REP., id. s. 1.

18. FOR MORE EFFECTUALLY PROVIDING FOR THE PUNISHMENT of offences in wilfully casting away, burning, or destroying ships and vessels, 43 G. 3. c. 113. ss. 1—4. [See rest of title and s. 5. FELONY, pl. 50. and s. 6. HOMICIDE, pl. 18. Not to extend to Ire. id. s. 7.]

19. "The 4 G. 1. c. 12. s. 3. and 11 G. 1. c. 29. s. 6. are recited and REP. id. s. 1." Any person who shall wilfully cast away, [sink, 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 2. Ire.] burn, or otherwise destroy any ship or vessel, or in any wise counsel, direct, or procure the same to be done, and the same be accordingly done, with intent or design thereby wilfully and maliciously to prejudice any owner of such vessel, or of any goods laden on board the same, or any person, body politic, or corporate underwriting any policy of insurance on such vessel, or on her freight, or on any goods laden on board her, shall, on conviction, be deemed a principal felon, and shall suffer death without clergy, 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 2. and c. 79. s. 2. for Ire., s. P.

20. If any such vessel shall be wilfully cast away, [sunk, 43 G. 3. c. 79. s. 3. Ire.] burnt, or destroyed within the body of any county of this realm or Ire. the above offences shall be tried and adjudged in the same courts and form as other felonies committed within the body of any county, by the laws of this realm, or of Ire., or by this act, are to be tried and determined, and if any such vessel shall be wilfully cast away, &c. on the high seas, then the said several offences shall be tried, &c. before such court, and in form as directed in 28 H. 8. c. 15. (PIRATES, pl. 2.) for trying felonies on the high seas, [and within Ire., as by 11 J. 1. c. 2. Ir. and 23 & 24 G. 3. c. 14. Ir. appointed,] 43 G. 3. c. 113. s. 3. and id. c. 79. s. 3. for Ire. s. P.

21. TO SETTLE HOW FAR OWNERS OF SHIPS shall be answerable for the acts of the masters and mariners, 7 G. 2. c. 15. [AMD. and EXT. 26 G. 3. c. 86. and see 53 G. 3. c. 159. infra, pl. 50. &c.]

22. No owners of any ship shall be liable to answer any loss, by reason of embezzlement (by the master or mariners) of any goods shipped on board, or for any act done by the latter without privity of the owners, further than the value of the ship and amount of the freight during the voyage wherein such embezzlement or other malversation is committed, 7 G. 2. c. 15. s. 1.

23. If several freighters of merchandize shall suffer damage by any such means in the same voyage, and the value of the ship and amount of her freight is not sufficient to make compensation, they shall receive satisfaction in average, in proportion to their losses, and they or the owners of the vessel may exhibit a bill in equity for discovery of the total amount of such losses, and also of the value of such ship and freight, and for equal distribution and payment thereof amongst such freighters or proprietors in proportion to their respective losses or damages, according to the rules of equity, 7 G. 2. c. 15. s. 2.

24. If such bill is exhibited by the part owners of such ship, the plaintiffs shall annex an affidavit that they do not collude with any of the defendants, and shall offer to pay the value of such ship and freight as such court shall direct, as in cases of interpleader, id. s. 3.

25. Nothing in this act shall discharge any person's remedy against the master and mariners, id. s. 4.

26. No owners of any ship shall be subject to make good any loss or damage by reason of any robbery, embezzlement, secreting, or making away with of any gold, silver, diamonds, jewels, precious stones, or other goods or merchandize shipped on board any ship, or for any act or forfeiture done or occasioned, without such owners' knowledge, further than the value of the ship with all her appurtenances, and the full amount of the freight due or to grow due for the voyage, wherein such robbery, &c. shall be made, &c. although the master and mariners are not concerned in, or privy to the same, 26 G. 3. c. 86. s. 1. [and see s. 3. pl. 22.]

27. No owner of any vessel shall be subject to answer for any loss or damage to goods shipped on board such ship by reason of any fire happening on board thereof, id. s. 2.

28. No master or owners of any ship shall be subject to answer for any loss of or damage to any gold, silver, diamonds, watches, jewels, or precious stones, put on board such ship by reason of any robbery, &c. unless the owner or shipper thereof shall, at the time of shipping the same, insert in his bill of lading, or otherwise disclose in writing to the master or owners the true nature, quality, and value thereof, id. s. 3.

29. If several freighters or proprietors of any such gold, &c. as in last pl. or other goods, shall suffer any loss or damage by any of the means aforesaid, in the same voyage (except fire only) and the value of the ship, appurtenances, and freight, during that voyage, is insufficient to make full compensation to all of them, they shall receive satisfaction, &c. (same provisions as in 7 G. 2. c. 15. ss. 2—3. ante, pl. 23—24.) id. s. 4.

30. Nothing in this act shall lessen or discharge any person's remedy against the master and mariners of such ship for any embezzlement, &c. or for any fraud, abuse, or malversation, but every person so injured may pursue any remedy which he had before this act, id. s. 5.

31. FOR BETTER ASCERTAINING THE TONNAGE and burthen of ships and vessels importing and exporting goods into and from this kingdom, or hovering on the coasts thereof, 13 G. 3. c. 74. ss. 1—2. : FOR ASCERTAINING TONNAGE OF VESSELS, in order to obtaining a certificate of registry where they are afloat, 26 G. 3. c. 60. s. 14.

32. The tonnage and burthen of any ship or vessel importing or exporting brandy or other spirituous liquors or goods soever, into or from this kingdom, or hovering on the coasts thereof, and where the owner or other person shall be entitled to any bounty or allowance according to such tonnage, and in all other cases where the tonnage and burthen of any vessel shall be necessary to be ascertained and known by any statute soever concerning the revenues of customs, excise, or salt duty, the rule for admeasuring such vessels shall be this : viz. the length shall be taken on a straight line along the rabbet of the keel of the ship, from the back of the main stern post to a perpendicular line from the forepart of the main stern under the bowsprit, from which subtracting 5-5ths of the breadth, the remainder shall be esteemed the just length of the keel; to find the tonnage, the breadth shall be taken from the outside of the outside plank in the broadest place of the ship, be it either above or below the main-wales, exclusive of all manner of doubling planks wrought on the sides of the ship, then multiplying the length of the keel by the breadth so taken, and the product by half the breadth, and dividing the whole by 94, the quotient shall be deemed the true contents of the tonnage, according to which rule the tonnage of all such ships shall be ascertained, any thing in 6 G. 1. c. 21. s. 33. notwithstanding, 13 G. 3. c. 74. s. 1.

33. When it is necessary to ascertain the tonnage of such ships when afloat, the following method shall be observed, viz. drop a plumb line over the stern of a ship, and measure the distance between such line and the after part of the stern post at the load-water mark, then measure from the top of the said plumb line, in a parallel direction with the water, to a perpendicular point, immediately over the load-water mark at the forepart of the main stern, subtracting from such measurement the above above distance, the remainder will be the ship's extreme length, from which is to be deducted 3 inches for every foot of the load-draught of water for the rake abaft, and also 3-5ths of the ship's breadth for the rake forward, the remainder shall be esteemed by the length of the keel to find the tonnage, and the breadth shall be taken from outside to outside of the plank in the broadest part of the ship, either above or below the main wales, exclusive of all manner of sheathing or doubling that may be wrought on the side of the ship, then multiplying the length of the keel for tonnage by the breadth so taken, and that product by half the breadth, and dividing by 94, the quotient shall be deemed the true contents of the tonnage; but nothing herein shall alter the mer of admeasuring the tonnage of any ship for ascertaining the light duties, or any other duties payable according to the ship's tonnage, 26 G.3. c.60. s.14.

34. TO PROHIBIT THE RANSOMING OF SHIPS OR VESSELS captured from H.M.'s subjects, and of the merchandize on board thereof, 22 G.3. c.25.

35. No British subject may ransom or enter into any contract for ransoming any ship belonging to any other subject, or any goods on board the same which shall be captured by the subjects of any state at war with H.M., or by any persons committing hostilities against his subjects, id. s.1.

36. All contracts entered into, and all bills, notes, and other securities given by any person for ransom of any such ship, or of any goods on board thereof, shall be void, id. s.2.

37. Any person who shall ransom, or enter into any contract for ransoming any such ship or goods on board her, shall forfeit 500*l.*, to be recovered with full costs in any court of record in Westminster, in which action no imparlance, &c. or wager of law shall be allowed, id. s.3.

38. FOR BETTER PREVENTING OFFENCES IN OBSTRUCTING, destroying or damaging ships or other vessels, and in obstructing seamen, keelmen, casters and ship-carpenters from pursuing their lawful occupations, 33 G.3. c.67. [CON. 41 G.3. (G.B.) c.20. s.4. MADE PERF. 41 G.3. (U.K.) c.19. s.4.]

39. If any seamen, keelmen, casters, ship carpenters or other persons riotously assembled together to the number of three or more, shall unlawfully, and with force prevent, hinder or obstruct the loading or unloading, or the sailing or navigating of any ship, keel or other vessel, or shall unlawfully, and with force board any ship, keel, &c. with intent to prevent, &c. the loading or unloading, or sailing or navigating thereof, such seamen, keelmen, &c. being thereof convicted by indictment found in any court of oyer and terminer or quarter sessions for the county, riding, &c. where the offence was done, shall be committed to the house of correction, there to be kept to hard labour for any term not exceeding 12 nor less than 6 calendar months, 33 G.3. c.67. s.1.

40. If any seaman, &c. shall unlawfully, and with force, prevent, &c. any seaman, &c. as in s.1. from working at or exercising his lawful trade or occupation, or shall wilfully and maliciously assault, beat or wound, or use any bodily violence or hurt upon any seaman, &c. with intent to deter, prevent, &c. such seaman, &c. from working at or exercising his lawful trade and business, he shall, on conviction, in like manner as in s.1. be committed to prison, and kept to hard labour for such time as in s.1. aforesaid, id. s.2.

41. If any seaman, &c. as in s.1. shall be convicted of any such offences in pursuance of this act, and shall afterwards offend again in like manner, he shall, on conviction in like manner as in s.1. be for such second and every subsequent offence adjudged guilty of felony, and be transported to any of H.M.'s dominions beyond sea for not exceeding 14 or less than 7 years, id. s.3.

42. None of the pains and punishments hereinbefore inflicted, shall be deemed to extend to any act, deed or thing done in the service, or under the authority of H.M., id. s.4.

43. Every seaman, &c. or other person who shall wilfully and maliciously burn or set fire to any ship, keel or other vessel, shall, on conviction in any court of oyer and terminer to be holden for the county or place where the offence was done, be adjudged guilty of felony, without benefit of clergy, and suffer death as in such cases, id. s.5.

44. If any seaman, &c. or other person, shall wilfully and maliciously destroy or damage any ship, keel or other vessel, otherwise than by fire, he shall, on conviction, as in s.1. be adjudged guilty of felony, and transported as in s.3., id. s.6.

45. In case any of the offences hereinbefore described are committed on the high seas, they shall be triable, and the offenders prosecuted under this act in any session of oyer and terminer and gaol-delivery for the trial of offences committed on the high seas within the jurisdiction of the admiralty of Eng., id. s.7.

46. No person shall be prosecuted under this act for any such offences, unless such prosecution be commenced within 12 calendar months after the offence done, id. s.8.

47. TO PROVIDE THAT BRITISH SHIPS CAPTURED BY THE enemy, and afterwards becoming the property of British subjects, by purchase [see preamble] shall not be entitled to the privilege of British ships, 48 G.3. c.70. [AMD. 49 G.3. c.41.]

48. No British built ship hereafter captured by the enemy shall be registered as a British-built ship, or enjoy the privileges thereof, but, though owned by a British subject, shall be deemed a foreign-built vessel, 48 G.3. c.70.

49. But any British-built ship recaptured from the enemy by any king's ship of war, or by any ship having letters of marque, or by any ship of war of any state in alliance with H.M. may be registered, and shall have the privileges of a British-built ship as if it had not been so captured, 49 G.3. s.41.

40. TO LIMIT THE RESPONSIBILITY OF SHIP-OWNERS in certain cases, 53 G.3. c.159. [PUBLIC clause, id. s.17.; and see ante, pl.21.]

51. No owner or part owner of any vessel shall be liable to answer for or make good any loss or damage arising by reason of any neglect or act done, omitted, or occasioned, without their fault or privity, which after 1st Sept. 1813 may happen to any other vessel, or to any goods or things on board thereof, further than the value of his own vessel and the freight due, or to grow due for the voyage then in prosecution, or contracted for at the time of such damage happening, id. s.1.

52. The value of the carriage of any goods, &c. belonging to any owner of such vessel, and the hire due, or to grow due under any contract whether made by or for H.M., or by or on behalf of any other person, or any body politic or corporate soever, except only such hire as in the case of a vessel hired for time, may not happen to be carried till the expiration of 6 calendar months after the happening of such loss, shall be considered as freight within this act as well as 7 G.2. c.15. and 26 G.3. c.86. (see ante, pl.21—30.), id. s.2.

53. In case any such loss or damage shall arise by more than one distinct accident, act, neglect or default, or on more than one occasion in the course, or after the end of a voyage, and before the commencement of another, each loss, &c. shall be paid and satisfied according to this act, in the same way and to the same extent as if no other loss had happened during the same voyage, or after the end of any voyage, and before the commencement of another voyage, id. s.3.

54. Nothing herein shall lessen or take away any responsibility to which any master or mariner of any vessel is now by law liable, notwithstanding their being an owner or part owner of such vessel, id. s.4.

55. Nothing herein shall extend to the owner of any lighter, barge, boat or vessel of any burthen or description soever, used solely in rivers or inland navigation, or any vessel not duly registered, id. s.5.

56. Nothing herein shall prevent any action, &c. being brought or proceeded in, in any court of competent jurisdiction, by any person who has suffered loss or damage within this act against any such owner or part owner, notwithstanding another person may have suffered loss by the same means on the same occasion, subject to an order of court to restrain proceedings therein on special circumstances as justice shall require, id. s.6.

57. Where several persons sustain loss or damage in or to their goods, &c. ships or otherwise, by any means, for which the owner's responsibility is limited by s.1. and the value of the vessel with her appurtenances, and the amount of her freight, estimated as in s.2., are insufficient to make full compensation to all the persons suffering such loss, &c. the persons liable to make satisfaction for the same, or one or more of them, on his or their own behalf, and the other owners of such vessel may exhibit a bill in any competent court of equity against all the plaintiffs in such action brought as in s.6. and all other persons claiming recompence on the same occasion, to ascertain the amount in value of the vessel, appurtenances and freight, and for distribution thereof rateably among the sufferers, to the amount of their losses, according to the rules of equity; provided that the plaintiffs in such bill shall annex thereto an affidavit that he doth not collude with any defendant or other owner of the same vessel, or other person, but that such bill is filed for the purposes of justice, and to obtain the benefit of this act; that the several persons named as defendants to the said bill are, as he verily believes, all the persons claiming recompence for loss sustained on the same occasion; and that all such defendants do claim such recompence, and to be entitled to proportion of the value of such vessel, &c.; and that no other person makes such claim under this act; and that the value of such vessel, &c. does not exceed a sum to be specified; and that the several claims of the defendants exceed the value of such vessel, &c.; and the plaintiff in such bill shall, on filing the same, apply to the court, and obtain an order for liberty to pay the value of such vessel, &c. into court, and shall so pay the same; and no defendant to such bill shall be compellable to put in his answer till such payment is made, unless the court order security to be given for the same, or make other order to the contrary; and unless such money be so paid into court, or security be given according to such order within one month after bill filed, the same shall, at the end of such month, be dismissed without motion, and the court shall order costs to the defendants; or in case such security is given, but the value is not afterwards paid into court within the time limited, such bill shall be dismissed with costs as above; and in case such bill is dismissed after such value paid into court or security given, the court shall direct the money so paid in to be paid to the several defendants proportionably, and shall order any security so given as above to be put in suit, and the money to be recovered thereon to be paid into court, and distributed in like manner; which payments shall be without prejudice to any action instituted by any other party to such bill for any such loss, &c. though it may have arisen on the same occasion as the losses, &c. for which recompence shall be claimed by the defendants to such bill; and all payments made under order of the court shall be without prejudice to recovery of costs in any action brought by any such defendant, unless otherwise provided for by the court, 26 G. 3. c. 86. s. 7.

58. If it appear to the court in which such bill is filed, that the money paid in, or for which security is given, is not the true value of such vessel, appurtenances, and freight, as in s. 7., the court shall order such further sum to be paid, or security to be given as they think proper, and may at any time order security to be given for the costs of such suit; and if such further sums are not paid, or further security given, within the time limited, the bill shall stand dismissed without order given, and the court shall thereupon order payment of costs by plaintiffs to the defendants, and direct the application of any money paid into court, or due, on security given, as in s. 7., as appears just, id. s. 8.

59. If after any such suit instituted, it shall become abated or imperfect in the whole or in part, and shall not be revived, or perfected within the limited time, it shall stand dismissed without motion, and the court shall order the costs to be paid to defendants or their representatives; and if plaintiff is dead, the costs shall be a charge on his assets, recoverable as a debt by simple contract, id. s. 9.

60. The court in which any such bill shall be filed, may take all such measures as shall seem just, for ascertaining the value of the vessel, appurtenances, and freights, the amount of the losses claimed by defendants, and for payment of the said value among the several persons entitled thereto, and generally may act as seems just; and plaintiff shall pay costs, unless the court shall otherwise order, id. s. 10.

61. All costs to be paid by the plaintiff in any such suit, shall be taxed as between attorney and client, if the court shall so order, id. s. 11.

62. If any such bill is filed, and is afterwards dismissed by default of plaintiff therein, as above, or under any order of court, no new bill shall be filed by such plaintiff or his representatives, or other owner, &c. of the same vessel, unless the court declare the dismissal to be without prejudice to filing a new bill, either conditionally or otherwise, id. s. 12.

63. Where any money is paid into court, as the value of any such vessel, appurtenances, and freight, all interest thereof, while it remains in court, shall be considered as belonging to the parties entitled to the principal or proportions thereof, and shall be distributed accordingly; and any security given for such value shall bear interest, and be applied as above, id. s. 13.

64. Any such bill, which is filed by any part-owner, or owners of any vessel, on behalf of himself and the other part-owners, shall bind all the others and their representatives, as if plaintiffs in such bill; and if such plaintiffs or other part-owners die, the right of action against them, founded on any tort, shall not be lost, but their representatives may be provided against, as if it had been founded on contract, id. s. 14.

65. Any court competent to act as a court of equity for the purposes of this act, is deemed a court of equity for such purposes, id. s. 15.

66. All money paid for any loss or damage, in respect whereof the owners' responsibility is limited by this act, or by 7 G. 2. c. 15., or 26 G. 3. c. 86., or any costs incurred in relation to such loss, &c., shall be brought to account among the part-owners of such vessel as money disbursed for the use thereof, id. s. 16.

67. TO ALLOW SHIPS TAKEN AND CONDEMNED for being used in carrying on the slave trade, to be registered as British built ships, 54 G. 3. c. 59. [Ext. 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 99. s. 11.]

68. All vessels, whether British or foreign, which at any time after passing this act, shall become forfeited under any act in force, or hereafter to be passed for abolition of the slave trade, and are adjudged forfeited in any court of record in G. B., or condemned as forfeited in any court of admiralty or vice admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions, for any offence relative to the slave trade, shall, after such judgment or condemnation, be entitled to certificates of registry, as British ships, and shall enjoy all the privileges thereof, in like manner with vessels taken by H. M.'s ships of war, and condemned as lawful prize in admiralty courts, and shall be liable to the same regulations, registry, and penalties as the latter, 54 G. 3. c. 59.

69. EVERY SHIP SEIZED BY ANY VESSEL OF H. M., for being employed in any illicit traffic in slaves, in violation of either of the said conventions, [see ss. 110. SLAVE TRADE, pl. 124—133.] and which before passing this act, viz. 10th July 1821, or which may hereafter be condemned as forfeited, by any commission court established under either of them, shall have a certificate of registry as, and shall be deemed a British built and registered ship, and shall be subject to the same regulations and penalties as ships condemned in any court of admiralty soever, in any part of H. M.'s dominions, for any offence relating to the slave trade, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 99. s. 11.

70. TO ASCERTAIN THE TONNAGE OF VESSELS propelled by steam, 59 G. 3. c. 5.

71. The rule for admeasuring steam vessels, shall be this: the length shall be taken on a straight line along the rabbet of the keel, from the back of the main stern post to a perpendicular line from the fore-part of the main-stem under the bowsprit, from which, deducting the length of the engine-room, and subtracting 3-5ths of the breadth, the remainder shall be esteemed the just length of the keel to find the tonnage; the breadth shall be taken from the outside of the outside plank in the broadest part of the vessel, whether above or below the main-wales, exclusive of all doubling planks wrought on the sides of the vessel, then multiplying the length of the keel by the breadth so taken, and that product by half the breadth, and dividing the whole by 94, the quotient shall be deemed the contents of the tonnage; and it shall not be lawful to stow any goods (except fuel for the voyage) in such engine-room, or if they are so stowed, the vessel shall be deemed one which has not been admeasured according to this act, and shall be liable to consequences, 59 G. 3. c. 5.

SIERRA LEONE COMPANY.

(STATUTES repealed.)

1. FOR ESTABLISHING THE Sierra Leone company, consisting of Granville Sharpe and others, for carrying on trade between G. B. and Africa; and for enabling them to hold by grant from the crown, and from the native African princes, the peninsula of Sierra Leone, for better enabling them to carry on that trade, 31 G. 3. c. 55., [REP. 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 44.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR TRANSFERRING TO H. M. CERTAIN POSSESSIONS and rights vested in the Sierra Leone company; and for shortening the duration of the said company; and for preventing any dealing in, buying, or selling of slaves within the colony, 47 G. 3. S. 2. c. 44.

2. The letters patent granting such possessions, buildings, forts, &c. are declared void, the latter vesting in H. M., s. 1.; the company to determine in 7 years, s. 2.; the governor of the colony to decide what buildings shall be surrendered, and what vested in H. M., s. 3.; dealing in slaves in the colony prohibited, id. s. 4.

SIGNALS.

1. TO ENABLE H. M. TO ACQUIRE GROUND NECESSARY for signal and telegraph stations, 55 G. 3. c. 128.

2. The lord high admiral, or any 3 or more commissioners of the admiralty may, from time to time, by writing under their hands, authorize any person to survey and mark out any lands or hereditaments wanted for the above purposes, and to agree with the owners, either for absolute purchase, or for the possession thereof for a term as the public service requires, id. s. 1.

3. If any obstruction shall arise, grow, or be occasioned, or be intended to be made between any 2 such signal, &c. stations, the admiralty may agree for its removal, under the same powers as hereinafter provided for acquisition of the lands necessary for their erection, id. s. 2.

4. All bodies politic and corporate, trustees for all public purposes and for private persons, husbands, guardians, committees, curators, or attorneys for all disabled or absent persons, interested in any such lands, may contract for the sale or demise thereof as in s. 2., id. s. 3.

5. In case any such bodies or persons, in s. 3. mentioned, or any other person interested in such lands, shall for 14 days next after notice in writing subscribed by such person authorized, as in s. 1. shall be given to the principal officers of such bodies, or to such other persons, or left at his usual abode, shall refuse or by absence cannot treat for such sale, or shall refuse to accept the sum of money offered for the absolute purchase or annual hire thereof, then the person so authorized may require 2 or more justices, or 3 or more deputy lieutenants, (one being a justice) or 2 or more deputy governors for the county, &c. or place where the lands lie, to put H. M.'s officers into immediate possession thereof: and they shall issue a warrant, commanding the same to be done, and shall issue warrants to the sheriffs of the county or place where situate to summon a jury, which shall accordingly be returned to the number of 24, who shall meet at some convenient time and place named in the summons, from whom 12 shall be drawn, as jurors for trial of issues are drawn by law in Eng. and Ire., and for trial of offences in Scot., and the sheriff may choose a tales of the bystanders, qualified as above; and the jurymen may be challenged by either party, but not the array, and the said justices, &c. may summon witnesses, and adjourn the meeting if jurymen or witnesses do not attend, and the jury on hearing the evidence shall, on their oaths, which may and shall be administered by such justices, &c. respectively, [semble meaning by any one of them] find the compensation to be made in either of the above cases, id. s. 4.

6. If the admiralty or any person interested therein, [semble meaning in such lands] shall be dissatisfied with the verdict of any such jury, they or their attorneys in Eng. and Ire., may apply to the court of exchequer at Westminster or Dublin respectively, in the next term, and in Scot. may apply in 14 days after verdict to the court of session, or lord ordinary in vacation, and may suggest that they have reason to be dissatisfied; and thereupon, on giving notice to the opposite party, the proceedings and verdict shall be returned into the said exchequers respectively; and, if they think proper, a suggestion may be entered on such proceedings, and a writ by rule of court or order of any judge thereof shall be directed to the sheriff of the county where the lands lie, or if they lie in 2 counties to the sheriff of either, to summon either a common or special jury, as may be ordered by the court, to appear at the next assizes or sitting at nisi prius, if not happening sooner than 21 days after such suggestion, or otherwise at the next assizes or sittings; and the compensation for the same shall there be ascertained by the jury, as on a writ of enquiry, and their verdict returned to exchequer; and in Scot., like order shall be made to summon a jury to appear before the lords of justiciary at their next circuit: and the verdicts of the juries shall be final, unless the court which allowed the inquiry on application in the first 4 days of the next term, or sessions if in Scot. shall order a new trial, 55 G.3. c. 128. s. 5.

7. Any jury impanelled (as in s. 4. or s. 5.) may ascertain the compensation to be paid for any lands or hereditaments under this act, and may also settle the proportion to be paid from the same to any persons interested therein as lessees or tenants at will, or otherwise, which shall be returned on the verdict; but where any such inquiry (as in s. 5.) is had on application of any such lessee, &c. or person having such inferior interest therein, as above, who is dissatisfied with the proportion settled to be paid for such his interest, the jury shall not alter the amount of the intire compensation, but only that of the proportion awarded, and no jury on such enquiry had on application of the admiralty, shall alter the proportion settled by any former jury, as to any separate interest in such lands, id. s. 6.

8. The court, judge, or lord ordinary, making any such rule or order as in s. 5. may require the party applying to give such security for costs as they think proper, id. s. 7.

9. Where any such lands are taken under this act for a term of years, the admiralty or person so authorized (as in s. 1. pl. 2.) may, before redelivering of possession to the owners, take down all buildings erected thereon for the public service, and carry away the materials, making reasonable compensation for the injury done by such erection, or carrying away the same, and if the owners refuse to accept the same, the person so authorized shall apply to 2 justices of the county or place to settle the compensation for such injury, who shall settle the same, and grant a certificate thereof, and the amount shall be forthwith paid by the treasurer of the navy to the persons entitled thereto, but all private agreements respecting such buildings shall remain valid, id. s. 8.

10. Where any money shall be agreed, or shall be found by the verdict of any jury, to be paid for the use or absolute purchase of any lands taken under this act, belonging to any persons disabled as above, or not having the absolute interest therein, the same shall be paid by the navy treasurer into the hands of the deputy remembrancer of exchequer, at Westminster, Edinburgh, or Dublin respectively, for the time being, for the benefit of the person hereby required to accept and give discharge for the same; which deputy shall, on receipt thereof, sign a certificate to the judges of the said exchequers respectively, under his hand, signifying that such money was received by and paid to him, for the use of the person named in the certificate, which shall be filed in the respective exchequers, (by which such lands, &c. become vested in H. M.) and a true copy thereof signed by the deputy remembrancer, shall be evidence for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, and such deputy remembrancer shall, on receipt thereof, pay such sums into the banks of Eng., Scot., or Ire., as may be necessary, id. s. 9.

11. The judges of the above exchequers of the degree of the coif, or any 2 or more of them, may in a summary way, (on motion or by petition on behalf of any person entitled to the benefit of the money paid to the deputy remembrancer, or the interest thereof, and on reading the certificate in s. 9.) and receiving any further satisfaction which they think necessary, make orders for paying the said money, or for placing it in the funds, or on government or real securities, and for payment of the dividends or interest thereof to the persons entitled thereto, or for laying it out in land, to be settled to the same uses as those so taken stood settled at the time of payment, as near as can be done for the benefit of the party entitled; or for appointing trustees for all such or any purposes as are thought reasonable by the court, id. s. 10.

12. On the death or removal of any such deputy remembrancer, all stocks and securities vested in him by this act shall vest in his successor, for the above purposes, without assignment or transfer, and all monies paid by him into the above respective banks, and not vested in the funds, or placed out in securities as above, shall be paid over to such successor, id. s. 11.

13. Where H. M.'s remembrancer shall execute the office in person, all the powers hereby vested in such remembrancer shall vest in him, id. s. 12.

SILK MANUFACTURES.

1. FOR REGULATING THE TRADE OF SILK THROWING, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15. Recital (s. 1.) of the incorporation of the silk throwers of London by patent duns, 5 C. 1. [AMD. 20 C. 2. c. 6. 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 36. s. 6. CONF. 22 C. 2. c. 27. s. 10. AMD. id. s. 11. and by 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 4—5. as to the punishment of embezzling and of receiving silk, knowing it to be embezzled or stolen.]

2. No person shall use the art or mystery of a silk throwster, except apprentices to the trade, or such as have served seven years apprenticeship thereto, on penalty of 40s. for every month he shall use the trade, in moieties to H. M. and the party suing for the same in any court of record, or before any justices of oyer and terminer, or of peace, at their quarter sessions, by action of debt or information, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15. s. 2.

3. The laws made for government of the trade of silk throwsters, shall be agreeable with the laws of the realm, and customs of the city of London, id. s. 4.

4. The master, wardens, assistants, and commonalty of the trade, art, or mystery of silk throwsters of the city of London, shall have and may execute within London and Westminster, or 20 miles compass of them, all such privileges and authorities as by this act or the letters patent in s. 1. are given for regulation of the trade, id. s. 5.

5. Every silk winder and doubler who shall embezzle, pawn, sell or detain any silk delivered to him to wind or double, and the receiver of such silk being thereof convicted by confession, or by one witness on oath before one justice, or before the mayor or chief officer of a city or town corporate, shall pay the parties grieved such satisfaction for their damage and charges, as such justice, &c. shall order, id. s. 6. [further punishment, pl. 10.]

6. If any silk winder or doubler shall hereafter be found faulty in deceitfully purloining, embezzling, pawning, selling, or detaining any silk committed to his trust, any justice or chief officer of any county, liberty, or corporation, shall immediately on conviction, by confession of the party, or on oath of one witness before him, commit the offender to prison, or house of correction, till satisfaction be given, or punishment inflicted under 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15., 20 C. 2. c. 6. s. 3. [further punishment, pl. 10.]

7. Every person that shall embezzle, pawn, sell, or detain any silk delivered to be worked up, or after the same is wrought up, and every receiver and buyer, or taker to pawn of such goods, shall be liable to the punishments of 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15. and 20 C. 2. c. 6., 8 & 9 W. 3. c. 36. s. 6. [further punishment, pl. 10.]

8. No more damage shall be awarded than the party grieved shall prove he is damaged, and hath expended in looking after the same, and if the offender shall not, in 14 days after conviction, make the satisfaction by such justice, &c. appointed as in s. 6. pl. 5., the offender shall be apprehended and whipped, or set in the stocks in the place where the offence is committed, or in some market town in the county near such place, as by such justice, &c. is appointed; and for the second offence shall incur the like or further whipping or setting in the stocks, at discretion of the latter, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15. s. 7.

9. Every receiver, buyer, or pawnee of any silk embezzled or purloined, contrary to this act, (matter of fact being proved,) shall make satisfaction within the time aforesaid, or else shall be subject to the punishment by this act inflicted for purloining or embezzling such silk, [see s. 6. pl. 5.], id. s. 8.

10. Every person who shall buy, receive, accept or take by way of gift, pawn, pledge, sale, or exchange, or in any manner soever of or from any person employed to make or work up the silk manufacture, or any silk manufacture mixed with other materials, any silk, whether the same or a part thereof be first wrought, made up or manufactured, and whether mixed with other materials or not, knowing such person to be so employed, and not having first obtained his employer's consent; or whether any silk has been purloined or embezzled by any person soever, shall buy, receive, or take in any manner from any person soever any such silk, whether wrought or mixed or neither, knowing it to have been purloined, &c. shall be proceeded against as directed by 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 2. and 17 G. 3. c. 56. s. 3. (MANUFACTURES); or may be prosecuted for a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, or whipping, as the quarter sessions shall inflict, though no proof be given on the trial to whom such silk belongs, 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 4.

11. Any freeman of the company in pl. 4. may set on work any native subjects to H. M. not having served an apprenticeship, and no others, to turn the mill, tie threads, double and wind silk, as formerly, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 15. s. 9.

12. The said corporation of silk throwsters shall not make any bye-laws to set prices on the throwing of silk, to bind their members to work at, id. s. 10.

13. The company are disabled from making any bye-law to restrain the number of mills, spindles, or other utensils to be employed by any freeman of the company, 20 C. 2. c. 6. s. 2.; and no bye-law of the company shall limit any freeman to take less than 3 apprentices, id. s. 4.

14. No person shall, by virtue of any of the above acts or this act, suffer any of the punishments thereby inflicted twice for the same offence, 22 G. 2. c. 27. s. 11.

15. FOR BETTER ENCOURAGEMENT of the royal lustring company, 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 43. [ENF. 5 & 6 A. c. 20. These acts are not inserted at length, being of a personal nature, but 9 & 10 W. 3. c. 43. in part provides for more effectually preventing fraudulent importation of lustrings and alamodes.]

16. FOR MORE EFFECTUAL EMPLOYING THE POOR BY ENCOURAGING the manufactures of the kingdom, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. [AMD. 8 A. c. 13. s. 24. 15 G. 2. c. 31. ss. 8—10.]

17. All wrought silks, Bengals, and stuffs mixed with silk or herba of the manufacture of Persia, China, or the East Indies, and all calicoes painted, dyed, printed, or stained there, which are imported into this kingdom, shall not be worn or otherwise used in Eng., Wa. or Ber. but under these limitations following, 11 & 12 W. & M. c. 10. s. 1.

18. All such silks, &c. and calicoes painted, &c. as in last pl. imported into Eng., Wa., or Ber., shall, after entry, be forthwith put in the warehouses appointed by the customs, and none of them taken thence except for exportation, and until security is first given to H. M. (taken by the commissioners of customs) that the same shall be exported and not relanded in Eng. &c. which securities shall be discharged gratis on certificate returned under common seal of the chief magistrate in any place beyond seas, or under the hands of two known Eng. merchants there, that such goods were there landed, or on proof by credible persons that they were taken by enemies, or perished at sea, such proof being left to the said commissioners judgment, id. s. 2.

19. Such securities, in case there be no prosecution for some breach or non-performance of the respective conditions thereof within 3 years after their dates, or if judgment is not obtained for the crown in 2 years after prosecution on them commenced, shall be void, and delivered up to be cancelled by the officers having them in possession, without fee, 8 A. c. 13. s. 24.

20. All such silk, calico goods, &c. (as in s. 1. pl. 17.) whether mixed or made up together for sale or not, found in any place other than the above-mentioned warehouses, shall be forfeited and liable to be searched for and seized as under 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 11., and shall be carried to the next custom house, and sold publicly by inch of candle, to the best advantage for exportation; the buyer giving security for the export as aforesaid, and 1-3d of the produce of the sale shall be paid to H. M. and 2-3ds to the seizers or prosecutors for the same; and the persons having the same in custody shall, besides, forfeit 200*l.*, 1-3d to H. M. and 2-3ds to the person suing for the same, to be recovered by action of debt or information in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin, or more than one imparlance allowed, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. s. 2.

21. The terms on which the above goods, in 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. s. 1. mentioned, may be taken out of the warehouses and refreshed for foreign markets, under the care of custom-house officers, to be paid for their trouble therein by the owner, are herein prescribed, 15 G. 2. c. 31. s. 8.

22. If any person shall import into any port of this kingdom, &c. other than that of London, any of the above goods, or into the port of London, without making due entries, it shall be deemed clandestine running thereof; and such persons and their abettors shall forfeit the goods, and 500*l.*, to be divided as in s. 2. pl. 20., 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. s. 5.

23. The proof of the place where the goods were manufactured shall lie on their owner and not on the prosecutor, id. s. 4.

24. In any action or information for any thing done in pursuance hereof, defendant may plead the general issue, and give this act and the special matter in evidence; and if the plaintiff or prosecutor discontinue, or is nonsuit, or has a verdict against him, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 5.

25. The duty of warehousekeepers as to goods brought in or carried out of their warehouses, and provisions for their accounting on oath for the same, with a forfeiture of office and 500*l.* penalty, divided as in s. 2. pl. 20., if it appear that any goods were carried out, unless for exportation, or before sufficient security given for the same, are enumerated in id. s. 6.

26. Account shall be made to parliament of all such of the above mentioned goods as have been taken out of the warehouses to be refreshed and returned, 15 G. 2. c. 31. s. 9.

27. Officers not returning the goods so taken out of the warehouses into the same, shall forfeit as well the value of such goods and be disabled from future public employment, as also 500*l.* for every such offence, to be recovered and divided as in 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. s. 2. pl. 20., id. s. 10.

28. The proprietors of the goods so warehoused may affix one lock to every such warehouse, the key remaining in their custody, that they may view, sort, or deliver the goods for exportation, in presence of the warehouse-keepers, who shall, at reasonable times, attend for that purpose, 11 & 12 W. 3. c. 10. s. 8.

29. TO IMPOWER THE MAGISTRATES THEREIN MENTIONED TO settle and regulate the wages of persons employed in the silk manufacture, within their respective jurisdictions, 13 G. 3. c. 68. PUBLIC clause, id. s. 11. [AMD. and EXT. to manufactories of silk, mixed with other materials, 32 G. 3. c. 44. ss. 1—3. also EXT. to the wages and prices of work of journeywomen silk-weavers, within London, Westminster, and Middlesex, 51 G. 3. c. 7.]

30. The wages of journeymen [and women, 51 G. 3. c. 7.] weavers of silk [and of materials mixed with silk, 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.] of London, shall be settled by the lord mayor, recorder, and aldermen of the city; in Middlesex, by the justices for the county; within the city and liberty of Westminster, at the quarter sessions for that city; and within the Tower liberty, at the quarter sessions for the liberty; at their general quarter sessions respectively; and the lord mayor, &c. and the said justices, on application to them for that purpose, shall settle and declare the wages of the journeymen weavers working within their jurisdictions, and shall within 14 days of making the order, cause the same to be printed and published at the expence of the applicant, 3 times in any 2 daily newspapers published in London and Westminster, which publication shall be deemed notice, and afterwards all such weavers and their journeymen [and women, 51 G. 3. c. 7.] shall observe the same, 13 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1., 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1., 51 G. 3. c. 7.

31. Any master weaver giving more or less wages to any of the journeymen [or women, 51 G. 3. c. 7.] for their work than shall be so allowed, and being convicted thereof before two justices, on the oath of one witness, shall forfeit 50*l.* to be levied by distress and sale of goods, which, when recovered, shall be paid into the hands of the master of the weavers' company, first deducting the expence of such prosecution, to be distributed to the distressed journeymen [QU. and women, 51 G. 3. c. 7.] weavers or their families, who have been last employed in either of the said jurisdictions at their discretion, 13 G. 3. c. 68. s. 3.

32. If any journeyman [QU. or woman? 51 G. 3. c. 7.] weaver of silk [or silk mixed with other materials, 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.] shall ask or take more or less wages, or larger or less prices, or shall enter into any combination to raise the wages or prices of the work, or for this purpose shall decoy, solicit, or intimidate any journeyman, so that he or they shall quit their masters for whom they are then employed, or if any such journeyman or men shall assemble together in numbers exceeding 10, in order to frame or deliver petitions touching their wages, except to the justices, or to the lord mayor, &c. at the quarter sessions, and shall be convicted of any such offence, on the oath of one witness before 2 justices, he or they shall forfeit not exceeding 40*l.* to be applied as in s. 2. pl. 20., and if not immediately paid, the justices may commit the offender to the house of correction to hard labour for not exceeding 3 months, id. s. 3.

33. Two justices on information on oath, that there is reason to suspect that any master or journeyman [QU. or woman? 51 G. 3. c. 7.] hath been guilty of any of the above offences, may at the request of such informant issue their summons in writing, signed by them, requiring any clerk, foreman, apprentice, servant, or other person employed by such suspected person, or other person soever to attend and testify concerning the premises, and if any person so summoned shall not attend, and proof is made of the service of such summons, either personally or by leaving the same at such person's abode; the same or any 2 other justices (unless a reasonable excuse be made for their non-attendance) shall issue their warrant for apprehending and bringing them before them, or some other 2 or more justices, to be examined touching the persons, and any such person refusing to be examined or give evidence, shall by the latter be committed to the house of correction for one month, unless he shall sooner submit to be examined, id. s. 4.

34. If any master weaver residing within the limits shall directly or indirectly employ any journeyman [QU. or woman? 51 G. 3. c. 7.] out of the above limits with intent to evade this act, or shall give more or less wages than is settled, he shall forfeit 50*l.*, to be sued for by action of debt in any court of record at Westminster, without essoin, &c., wager of law, or more than one imparlance allowed, with costs of suit, one moiety of which forfeiture shall be paid to H. M., and the other to him who will sue, id. s. 5.

35. Nothing in this act shall regulate the wages to be paid to servants bonâ fide employed as foremen, id. s. 6.

36. No weaver within the said districts shall have in his service at one time, more than two apprentices on pain of forfeiting 20*l.*, to be levied by distress and sale of goods on conviction on the oath of one witness before 2 justices, and to be paid into the hands of the master of the weavers' company, for application as aforesaid, and the justices shall discharge every apprentice exceeding two, id. s. 7.

37. The justices before whom any person is convicted of any offence either against 13 G. 3. c. 68. or this act, shall cause the conviction to be drawn up in the form or to the effect following:

Be it remembered, that on this — day of — in the year of our Lord to wit: — A. B. is convicted before us — of H. M.'s justices of the peace, in and for the said county of — or for the city, liberty, town, or place, [as the case may be] for [here specify the offence, and when and where committed] and we the said justices do adjudge him [or her] to pay and forfeit for the same, the sum of —. Given under our hands and seals the day and year first above written.]

and shall cause the same to be fairly written on parchment, and transmitted to the next general or quarter sessions of the peace for the county, &c. or place to be filed among the records thereof, 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 2.

38. No order touching any matters in this act, or proceedings touching the conviction of any offender against 13 G. 3. c. 68. or this act, shall be granted for want of form, or be removeable by certiorari into K. B. or other court soever, id. s. 3.

39. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF RECEIVING SILK, KNOWING THE seller to be employed in silk manufacture, [see s. 4. supra, pl. 10.]

40. Any person convicted under this act, before 2 justices, may appeal to the next general quarter sessions, or general sessions, giving immediate notice of such appeal, and finding sufficient security to the satisfaction of the justices then personally present, and for prosecuting the appeal with effect, and abiding the judgment of the court; and such sessions shall finally determine the matter, and may award costs to either party, and if such conviction is affirmed at sessions, the appellant shall be committed to prison for the time specified in the conviction, and until payment of costs is awarded, 13 G. 3. c. 68. s. 8.

41. No action shall be brought against any person for any thing done under this act, unless brought within 6 months, id. s. 9.

42. Defendants in such actions may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence and if plaintiff discontinues, or is nonsuit, or forbears further prosecution, or if judgment is given for defendant, the latter shall recover his full costs, id. s. 10.

43. The lord mayor, &c. of London, and the justices in their respective jurisdictions throughout the districts in 13 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1. pl. 30. mentioned shall regulate the wages and prices of work of journeymen [and women, 51 G. 3. c. 7.] weavers working within such jurisdiction in any manufacture of silk mixed or wrought up with other materials as fully as in that act provided for the manufacture of silk only; and the 13 G. 3. c. 68. shall in every respect apply to such mixed manufactures of silk and cotton, 32 G. 3. c. 44. s. 1.

44. All the powers of 13 G. 3. c. 68., and 32 G. 3. c. 44., for regulating and declaring the wages and prices of work of journeymen weavers in the manufactures of silk, and of silk mixed with other materials, shall be enforced within the said jurisdictions in 13 G. 3. c. 68. s. 1. mentioned, for regulating, &c. the wages of journey-women weavers in the above manufactures, with the same penalties for breach thereof, as in those acts enacted, 51 G. 3. c. 7. s. 1. [QU. if the other provisions and penalties of 13 G. 3. c. 68. not applying to settling or giving more wages than are allowed under those acts, are extended to journey-women silk, &c. weavers by this act.]

45. FOR PUNISHING PERSONS WILFULLY AND MALICIOUSLY DESTROYING any silk goods, or any implements prepared for or used in the manufacture thereof, 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2. [See rest of this title and statute, LINEN MANUFACTURES, WOOLLEN MANUFACTURES. EXT. to Scot. 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3.]

46. If any person shall by day or night, break into, or enter by force, into any house or shop with intent to cut or destroy any velvet, wrought silk, or silk mixed with any other materials, or other silk manufacture in the loom, or any warp, or shute, tools, tackle, or utensils, or shall wilfully and maliciously cut or destroy any velvet, wrought silk, or silk mixed with any other materials, or other silk manufacture in the loom, or any warp, or shute, tools, tackle, or utensils prepared or employed in the making thereof, or shall wilfully, &c. break or destroy any tools, &c. used in or for the weaving or making of any such velvet, wrought, or mixed silk, or other silk manufacture, without the owner's consent so to do, shall be guilty of felony without clergy [in Scot. being convicted before justiciary or circuit court, shall suffer death, as in other capital crimes, 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3.] 22 G. 3. c. 40. s. 2., 29 G. 3. c. 46. s. 3. Scot.

47. THE 19 & 20 G. 3. c. 24. (Ir.) 'For better regulation of the silk manufacture,' as CON. by 36 G. 3. c. 37. (Ir.), and 40 G. 3. c. 17. (Ir.) are CON. till 25th Mar. 1831, and no longer, 50 G. 3. c. 27.

SIMONY

1. THAT THE SIMONICAL PROMOTION OF ONE PERSON MAY not prejudice another, 1 W. & M. S. 1. c. 16. (and recital in s. 1.)

2. After the death of any person simoniacally promoted the simony shall not be alleged by way of title in pleading or evidence to the prejudice of any other patron innocent of simony, or of his clerk by him presented or promoted on pretence of lapse to the crown, metropolitan, or otherwise, unless the person simoniacally presented, or his patron was convicted of such offence at common law, or in some ecclesiastical court in the lifetime of the person simoniacally promoted, id. s. 2.

3. No lease bond fide made by any person simoniacally promoted for valuable consideration to any person not having notice of such simony, shall be avoided by reason thereof, id. s. 3.

SITTINGS AT NISI PRIUS, &c.

SITTINGS AT NISI PRIUS IN LONDON AND MIDDLESEX.

1. FOR REGULATING TRIALS AT nisi prius in Middlesex, 18 El. c. 12. [AMD. 1 G. 1. c. 31., 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5., 1 G. 4. c. 21. c. 55. ss. 1—4.]

2. TO ENABLE THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF K. B., OR, IN HIS ABSENCE, any judge of the same court to try Middlesex issues at nisi prius, elsewhere than in Westminster Hall, 1 G. 4. c. 21.

3. FOR GIVING FURTHER FACILITIES TO PROCEEDINGS IN K. B., 1 G. 4. c. 55. ss. 1—2. [See rest of title and s. 3. COURTS (K. B.) pl. 1—3. ss. 5—6. JUSTICES OF ASSIZE, &c. pl. 58—60. s. 4. OATHS.]

4. The C. J. of K. B. on issues joined in K. B. or in chancery, the C. J. of C. P. and C. B. of exchequer, on issues joined in the latter respective courts, or in their absence [2 judges, &c. 18 El. c. 12. altered as follows] any one judge or baron of the said several courts, [and also any judge of K. B. sitting for trial of causes according to the powers of 1 G. 4. c. 55. id. s. 1.] at Westminster, [within Westminster Hall, altered, 1 G. 4. c. 24. s. 1. post, pl. 6.] or in court of exchequer, as nisi prius justices for Middlesex in term time, or [within 4 days, 18 El. c. 12. s. 1., 8 days, 12 G. 1. c. 31. s. 1., 14 days after each term, 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5.] at any time after the end of any term during the vacation after it [1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 1.] shall at their discretions try all manner of issues joined in such courts, which in ordinary course should be tried by an inquest of Middlesex, 18 El. c. 12. s. 1., 12 G. 1. c. 31. s. 1., 24 G. 2. c. 18. s. 5., 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 1.

5. Commissions of nisi prius shall be awarded in such cases and form as are used in any other shire of the realm; and any person on usual reasonable notice given to adverse party or his attorney may sue out nisi prius records for trial of the issue, and take the jury thereupon, with awarding of tales, and of nonsuit as are used within London, or any other county in Eng. The sheriffs [so in the statute] of Middlesex, shall return all writs of nisi prius delivered to them before such judges, &c. and shall attend on them for executing all duties of the sheriff's office; jurors, witnesses, and all other parties to suits are bound to attend, and are liable for misdemeanors, as if the issue had been tried in the court, awarding nisi prius thereof, 18 El. c. 12. s. 2., 12 G. 1. c. 31. s. 2. [All such trials shall be valid as if tried in term time at bar, in the court where such issue was joined, 18 El. c. 12.]

6. For two years next following 15th July 1820, it shall be lawful for any judge of K. B. at the request of C. J., to sit for trial of causes at nisi prius in Westminster and London, on the same day on which the latter, or any other judge in his absence shall be sitting for trial of causes at those places respectively, or at either of them; so that the trial of two causes may go on at the same time, and all jurors, witnesses, and other persons who ought to attend the trial of any cause before the C. J. shall give their attendance before such other judge, and the marshal and other officers of the C. J. may appoint from time to time fit persons to be approved by him, to attend on their behalf before such judge; provided that all cases at nisi prius in Middlesex or London shall be entered for trial with the marshal of the C. J., and all proceedings relating to the trial thereof shall be made according to present practice; but the trial shall be entered on record as had before the judge by whom it is actually tried, 1 G. 4. c. 55. s. 2.

7. The C. J. of K. B., or, in his absence, any other judge of that court, in any term or vacation, with consent of H. M., signified under his sign manual, may try all issues joined in K. B., or chancery, wherein the trial ought to be in Middlesex, by an inquest from the body of the county, either in Westminster-hall, or in any other fit place in the city of Westminster, as to the C. J. seems convenient, for so many days, and in such manner as they might be tried in Westminster-hall, 1 G. 4. c. 21. s. 1.

8. The sheriff of Middlesex and all other officers, jurors, parties, witnesses, and persons required to attend at such trial, if had in the said hall, shall attend at the trial thereof, at the place where the C. J. or other judge of K. B. is sitting for such trial, on reasonable notice to them, with the same fees for attendance, and penalties for non-attendance, as if the issue were actually tried in such hall, and all writs, processos, notices, and other proceedings (except a special notice of the place of trial) issued for trial of any such cause, according to the forms in use for trial of such issues in the said hall, shall be as good in law, as if the trial took place there; and all trials had at any such place by virtue hereof, shall be deemed to be had, and may in any record or indictment for any offence committed at such trial be laid to have been had in such hall, as if it had actually been had there, 1 G. 4. c. 21. s. 2.

SLANDER.

1. NONE SHALL HENCEFORTH PUBLISH any false news or tales, whereby discord or slander may grow between H. M. and his people, or the great men of the realm, and he that doth so shall be imprisoned till he hath brought into court the first author of the tale, 3 E. 1. West. Prim. c. 34.

2. THE PENALTY FOR TELLING SLANDEROUS LIES of the great men of the realm, 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 5. AMD. 12 R. 2. c. 11.

3. None shall henceforth contrive, speak or tell any false news, lies, or other such false things of the prelates, lords, nobles and great officers whereby discord or slander may arise in the realm, on pain of the Stat. West. 1st. (3 E. 1.) c. 34., 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 5.

4. When any such slanderers as in 3 E. 1. c. 34. and 2 R. 2. St. 1. c. 5. be taken, and cannot find the author of the tale, he shall be punished by the advice of the council, such acts notwithstanding, 12 R. 2. c. 11.

SLAVE TRADE.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. TO REGULATE FOR A LIMITED TIME the shipping and carrying slaves in British vessels from the coast of Africa, 28 G. 3. c. 54. [CON. 29 G. 3. c. 66., 30 G. 3. c. 33., 31 G. 3. c. 54., 32 G. 3. c. 52., 33 G. 3. c. 73. all Exp.]

2. FOR REGULATING the shipping and carrying slaves in British vessels from the coast of Africa, 35 G. 3. c. 90. [virtually Rep. 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36.]

3. FOR REGULATING the shipping and carrying of slaves in British vessels from Africa, 37 G. 3. c. 104. [Exp. since abolition of slave trade by 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36.]

4. FOR REGULATING the height between decks of vessels entered outwards for the purpose of carrying slaves from Africa, 37 G. 3. c. 118. [Exp. since abolition of slave trade by 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36.]

5. FOR REGULATING till 1st Aug., 1799, the shipping and carrying of slaves in British vessels from Africa, 38 G. 3. c. 88. [Exp.]

6. FOR BETTER REGULATING the manner of carrying slaves in British vessels from the coast of Africa, 39 G. 3. c. 80.

7. TO PROHIBIT FOR 2 years, after the end of this session, any ships to clear out from G. B. for Africa for taking negroes on board, unless previously employed in the African trade, or contracted for as such, 46 G. 3. c. 119. [Exp.]

(STATUTES in force.)

I. Statutes applying to the slave trade carried on by subjects of the U. K. and its dependencies.

II. Statutes connected with treaties for suppression of slave trade carried on by foreign nations.

I. Statutes applying to the slave trade carried on by subjects of the U. K. and its dependencies.

1. WHEREAS LAWS ARE IN FORCE in several of H. M.'s plantations in America for preventing the carrying off any slave without the owner's consent, or carrying off any other person till he has taken out his ticket from the secretary's office in such plantation; all commanders of privateers or merchant ships having letters of marque, shall, on going into any of those harbours, be subject to the several provisions and penalties made by such laws, 6 A. c. 37. s. 18.

2. TO PREVENT THE IMPORTATION OF SLAVES by H. M.'s subjects into any islands or territories, colonies or plantations of any foreign state [to make more effectual an order in council of 15th Aug. 1805, for prohibiting the import of slaves (except in certain cases) into any of the settlements, islands, &c. on the continent of America or in the West Indies, surrendered to H. M. during the then war, semb. Exp. see note to pl. 3.], and to prevent the fitting out of foreign slave ships from British ports, 46 G. 3. c. 52. [AMD. 59 G. 3. c. 120. ss. 11 — 12. which is AMD. 1 G. 4. c. 50. and 53 G. 3. c. 112. EXPL. 58 G. 3. c. 49. post., pl. 59.]

3. No slave shall be sent or exported (except as in this act) from any part of H. M.'s dominions to any island, settlement, colony, plantation, territory or place whatever belonging to any foreign state or power, notwithstanding any statutes for making free ports in West Indies, or or other law or usage soever; and every slave so exported or sent, or embarked or trans-shipped at or from any part of H. M.'s dominions with that intent, shall be forfeited, with the vessel in which the same was exported, &c. with her boats, guns, tackle, apparel and furniture, and may be seized as in s. 18. pl. 22., 46 G. 3. c. 52. s. 1. [The order in council recited in s. 1. Exp. with the then war.]

4. No subject or person resident in U. K. or in any territories thereto belonging, shall export, &c. as in s. 1. or send, or cause or procure, or aid and abet in exporting, &c. any slave from Africa, or elsewhere (except as in s. 13. pl. 11.) to any island, &c. territory or place whatever belonging to any foreign state, or embark or trans-ship, &c. or cause, &c. or abet, &c. to be embarked, &c. at Africa, or elsewhere, any slave with intent to sending the same as above, on pain of like forfeiture of the slave and ship, or of their part interest therein, as in s. 1. and of seizure, as in s. 18. pl. 22., id. s. 2.

5. If any slave is landed on any coast, or brought within any of the ports &c. roads, limits or territories of any of the settlements or colonies on the continent of America, or in the West Indies, surrendered to H. M. in the then war without special licence, according to order in council, &c. (see title, pl. 2. Exp. see note to pl. 3.) such slave and vessel shall be forfeited, as in s. 1. pl. 3. and may be seized, as in s. 18. pl. 22., 46 G. 3. c. 52. s. 3.

5. Every slave who shall be exported from, or embarked, or trans-shipped on board any vessel at any settlement, colony, or territory of H. M., or at Africa, or on the coast thereof, or elsewhere, in any British vessel, or in any vessel employed in the whole or in part by or for, or on account of any subject, in order to be carried to any or either of the said settlements or colonies, &c. on the continent of America or in the West Indies, so surrendered to H. M. during the present war, and to be there landed without such special licence, contrary to the said order in council, shall be forfeited, with the vessel, and may be seized, &c. as in s. 18. pl. 22., id. s. 4.

6. Every subject or person resident within U. K., or any of the islands, colonies, or territories belonging to H. M., who shall unlawfully land, import, send, embark, trans-ship, or take on board any slave, or who shall cause to be landed, &c. or shall aid and abet therein contrary to such order in council, or to this act, shall forfeit 50*l.* for every slave; unless it be clearly proved to the court before which any such forfeiture or suit for penalty is prosecuted, that the prohibited act entirely arose from stress of weather, peril of sea, or inevitable accident, the proof whereof shall lie on claimant or defendant, and shall not extend to the transportation to any foreign colony, &c., of any slave convicted by due course of law in any British island or colony, in which case a copy of the judgment, certified by the court, shall be put on board the vessel conveying such convict, id. s. 5.

7. No subject of H. M., or person resident in U. K., or in any of the territories belonging thereto, shall invest or employ any money, vessel, goods, or effects to them belonging, in trading in, or carrying slaves from Africa or elsewhere to any settlement, territory, or place belonging to any foreign state, or to any islands or settlements, &c. surrendered, as in s. 3. pl. 5. (except the licensed trade to the latter by the above order in council and this act allowed), or shall knowingly lend any money, or become security in any manner for the loan of any money or goods, for its being employed in any such trade or carriage of slaves (except as above) or shall become security for any agent to be employed in the sale of slaves, for the use of such foreign settlement, &c., or islands or settlements so surrendered as above (except as above), on pain of forfeiting for each offence double value of all the money, ships, and goods by him employed, advanced, or secured, to be recovered and applied as in s. 17. pl. 21.; and every deed, bill, or other security, given for any such unlawful purpose, shall be absolutely void, except in case of a bona fide purchaser or holder of any such security, in its nature negotiable, without notice of its consideration, id. s. 6.

8. Every subject, or person resident in U. K., or in any of the dominions thereto belonging, who shall knowingly and wilfully insure, or cause to be insured, any ship, vessel, slaves, goods, &c. soever, to be employed in the trading in or carrying off slaves from Africa or elsewhere, to any foreign island or territory, &c. or to any of the settlements, &c. so surrendered, (as in s. 3. except as in last pl.) shall forfeit 500*l.* for every such offence, id. s. 7.

9. No British vessel, or her boats, officers, or mariners, may lawfully be employed in Africa, or on any part of its coast, directly or indirectly, in supplying with slaves any foreign vessel or factory, or any person concerned for the same, or for any island, colony, or territory belonging to a foreign state, on pain of forfeiture as in s. 1. pl. 3. and seizure, &c., as in s. 18. pl. 22., id. s. 8.

10. No foreign ship employed or intended to be employed in the African slave-trade shall be fitted out, or manned, or dispatched at or from any port of U. K., or other part of H. M.'s dominions, for a voyage to Africa, whether that be the immediate or ultimate destination, after touching at some other place; nor shall any person ship or put on board, in any foreign vessel destined directly or indirectly to Africa, at any port in the U. K., or other part of H. M.'s dominions, any goods or commodities soever to be carried to Africa, to be bartered for slaves, or used in the African slave-trade, under penalty for either offence of forfeiture of such vessel and cargo, as in s. 1. pl. 3., to be seized, &c. as in s. 17. pl. 21.; and every subject or resident within H. M.'s dominions, who shall wilfully fit out, man, or dispatch any such foreign vessel for the above purposes, or be aiding, &c. therein, shall forfeit 100*l.* for such offence, id. s. 9.

11. No person shall embark, export, or carry on the seas, any slaves from any island, colony, or territory belonging to H. M. to any other island, &c. so belonging to H. M., in any vessel whatever, till the owner or exporter shall make application in writing to the governor of the said island, &c., or to the collector or chief officer of customs of the intended port of embarkation, which application shall express the number and quality of the slaves he is desirous to export, &c. or convey, and the place (being under H. M.'s dominion) to which he means to carry them, and until such owner, &c. shall obtain licence in writing from such governor, &c. for the export of such slaves, specifying their place of destination; but previous to which every such owner, &c. shall give bond to H. M. in 50*l.* for every slave, and deliver same to such governor, &c., conditioned faithfully to land such slaves at the licensed place, and within a time limited therein to produce a certificate from the collector or chief officer of customs of such place; or if there are no such persons at such place, then from 2 of the most eminent British merchants or inhabitants, of the landing of such slaves (death or other inevitable impediment, proved by oath of 2 witnesses, excepted); in default of which landing, or of due return of such certificate, the bond shall become forfeited, and the governor, &c. may cause it to be put in suit, and the owner shall not be relieved from the penalty but on payment of 50*l.* for every slave not so landed or certified: nor shall such party be discharged from any penalty incurred by sending such slave to any foreign territory, contrary to this act: provided that such bonds shall be void unless prosecuted within 3 years from their date, 46 G. 3. c. 52. s. 13. [See further regulations as to removal of slaves, 58 G. 3. c. 49. s. 5. infra, pl. 62.]

12. Wherever slaves are intended to be sent from any colony under H. M.'s dominion, with intent that they shall be removed, and remain in some other such colony, the exporter shall produce to the collector or principal officer of customs at the port of embarkation, a copy duly certified by the registrar of the colony, of the name and description by which such slave has been registered, and of all other particulars relating thereto stated in the registry, which copy so certified shall be by such collector, &c. indorsed with his own name and handwriting, and annexed to the clearance or permit for shipment of such slaves; and on the arrival of such vessel at the port in any other British colony to which they are destined, shall be produced to such collector, &c. there, who shall examine it, and also ascertain by personal inspection whether the slaves brought by such vessel agree in description with those mentioned in such certificate or clearance, and if not, shall refuse to admit same to entry: but if they agree, shall indorse such certificate with his name and handwriting, and deliver it to the registrar of slaves in such last-mentioned colony, 59 G. 3. c. 120. s. 11.

13. Licences permitting removal of negro slaves from Bahamas to Demerara granted as in 59 G. 3. c. 120. s. 11. are valid, 1 G. 4. c. 50. s. 1.

14. Persons on whose behalf the said licences were granted may remove slaves accordingly, subject only to the rules set forth therein, and to the bonds given previous to issuing the licences, 1 G. 4. c. 50. s. 2.

15. Slaves exported or conveyed from any H. M.'s colony, without such certified copy from the registrar thereof, shall, with the vessel, be forfeited and dealt with as if brought from or destined to any foreign colony or place, contrary to 47 G. 3. c. 36. (s. 3. pl. 27), 59 G. 3. c. 120. s. 12.

16. Nothing herein shall prevent any slave from being employed either in navigation, fishing, or other ordinary business on sea; or prevent any domestic slave of any resident in H. M.'s colonies from attending such owner or any part of his family by sea, to any place whatever; but if any slaves employed in navigation, or any fishermen or domestic slaves, shall be so employed or carried in any vessel, on such voyage, their names and occupations (except domestic slaves attending the person of any passenger on board, not exceeding 2 such slaves for every passenger on board,) shall be inserted in or indorsed on the clearance or permit to depart of such vessel, by or in presence of the collector, comptroller, or other principal officer of customs of the port of clearance outwards, who shall gratis certify under his hand that the slaves so embarked were reported to him as seamen, fishermen, or domestic servants, as the case is: and if any slave is found on board any vessel bound on such voyage, whose name and description shall not be so inserted, &c., and certified as aforesaid, or who shall be untruly therein described with intent to elude any prohibition herein, such slave shall be forfeited, and may be seized, &c. as in s. 18. pl. 22.; and the master of such vessel, and the owner or other person by whose procurement such slave was untruly described as above, shall respectively forfeit 50*l.* for each slave, to be recovered, &c. as in s. 17. pl. 21.; nor shall this act prevent any slaves from being put on board any vessel by order of the commander in chief by sea or land, in any island, colony, or territory, belonging to H. M., in order to employment in H. M.'s service, or from being so employed therein, 46 G. 3. c. 52. s. 13.

17. Nothing herein shall prevent the embarkation or passage from one British colony to another, or to any other colony or place, as now permitted by law, of any domestic slave or slaves in actual attendance on the person of his master, mistress, or any part of their family, being passengers on board, or of any slave, &c. employed as mariners on board such vessel; but in addition to all clearances and certificates now required by law, the master of any such domestic slave or mariner shall, after 1st Jan. 1820, obtain from the registry of the colony to which the same belongs, an extract certified by the registrar, shewing that such domestic slave, &c. employed as a mariner, has been duly entered in the slave-registry of the colony by the name and description therein specified; such extract and certificate to be always on board, and unless so found, such slave shall be seized as forfeited, &c. agreeably to 47 G. 3. c. 36. s. 2. pl. 26.; provided that when any such domestic slave is landed in any British colony, the certificate of his registry in the colony from whence he was brought shall be produced to the collector or principal officer of customs, and a copy thereof shall be by him delivered to the registrar of slaves in such colony; and if such slave be again removed from the latter colony previous to the next period for making slave returns therein, the collector, &c. shall return the original extract and certificate, to be kept on board the vessel in which such slave is carried, 59 G. 3. c. 120. s. 12.

18. The granting of licences and every other act which governors of islands and colonies are by this act directed to perform, may be lawfully done by the person executing that office pro tempore under any title soever, 46 G. 3. c. 52. s. 14.

19. Any of the settlements and colonies on the continent of America and the West Indies, which were surrendered to H. M. during the war, but which are reconquered or ceded at the peace, shall be deemed foreign colonies within the act, id. s. 15.

20. Any person committing perjury, or subornation of perjury, regarding any oaths by this act required, shall incur the usual punishments thereof, id. s. 16.

21. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by this act, or the said order in council, may be sued for and recovered in any court of record in G. B., or of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions wherein the offence was committed, or if the offender reside elsewhere, then in whatever place he may be found; and in all cases of seizures of ships, slaves, or effects under this act or order in council, the same may be sued for and recovered in any court of record in G. B., or of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions in or nearest to which such seizures are made, or to which such vessels, slaves, or effects (if seized at sea, or without the limits of British jurisdiction) may most conveniently be carried for trial; and such forfeitures, whether pecuniary or specific, shall go to such persons in such proportions, and may be sued for, recovered, and applied, as any penalties incurred in G. B. and the British American colonies by force of any statute relating to their trade and revenues are now sued for, &c. in either place respectively under 4 G. 3. c. 15., id. s. 17. [Time for prosecution, (see 21 J. 1. c. 4. s. 3. ACTION PENAL, pl. 25.) extended to 3 years, see 53 G. 3. c. 112.]

22. All vessels, slaves, and effects forfeited for offences against this act, or the said order in council, may be seized by any officer of customs or excise, or by the commanders or officers of any king's ship, who in making such seizures, shall have the benefit of 4 G. 3. c. 15., and of all acts for protection of officers seizing and prosecuting for offences against that or any other American trade act, id. s. 18. [Governors, &c. are empowered to make such seizures, 51 G. 3. c. 23. s. 8., infra, pl. 49.]

23. In actions commenced in G. B. or elsewhere against any person for any thing done in pursuance of this act or of the said order in council, defendant may plead the general issue, giving the act, order in council, and special matter in evidence; and if it appear that such act was done by the authority thereof, the jury shall find for defendant, who shall have treble costs if plaintiff discontinue, or become nonsuit, or have judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, id. s. 19.

24. FOR ABOLITION OF THE SLAVE-TRADE, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. [AMD. 51 G. 3. c. 23. (which is AMD. by 58 G. 3. c. 98. and 59 G. 3. c. 97. and EXPL. 58 G. 3. c. 49., post, pl. 59.) and 53 G. 3. c. 112. EXT. as to ss. 7, 8: pl. 30.31. comm. semb. by 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 7.]

25. After 1st May, 1807, the African slave-trade, and all manner of dealing in the purchase, sale, barter, or transfer of slaves, or persons intended to be used as slaves, carried on, in, at, to, or from, any part of Africa, is abolished and declared illegal; and all manner of dealing by purchase, sale, barter, or transfer, or other agreement soever relating to any slaves or persons to be used as such, for the purpose of their being removed either immediately, or by trans-shipment at sea, or otherwise directly or indirectly from Africa, or any place whatever in the West Indies or America, not in the dominion of H. M., to any other place soever is in like manner abolished, &c.; and every subject or resident in the U. K. or other H. M.'s territories soever thereto belonging, or in H. M.'s possession, who shall from that day by himself or agent, purchase, sell, barter, or transfer, or contract for dealing in, purchasing, &c. any slave or person intended to be used as such, shall forfeit 100*l.* for every slave so purchased, &c. or contracted for as above, in moieties to H. M. and the person who shall sue or inform for the same, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. s. 1.

26. No subject or resident, as in last pl., shall fit out, man, or navigate, or procure, &c. or be concerned in fitting out, &c. or procuring to be fitted out, &c. any ship for the purpose of assisting, or being employed in the African slave trade, or in any other concerns by s. 1. declared unlawful; and every ship fitted out, &c. by any such person on his account, or by his procurement, for any purposes prohibited by this act, shall, with her boats, guns, tackle, apparel, and furniture, become forfeited, and seized and prosecuted, as in s. 14. pl. 37., id. s. 2.

27. No subject or resident as in s. 1., shall carry away, or remove, or wilfully aid, or assist in removing as slaves, or for being used as slaves any inhabitants of Africa, or of any place in the West Indies, or other part of America soever not in the dominion or possession of H. M., either immediately or by trans-shipment at sea, or otherwise directly or indirectly, from Africa, or such place as aforesaid to any other place whatever; and no such subject or resident shall wilfully receive, detain, or confine on board, or be aiding, &c. or concerned in receiving, &c. on board of any vessel whatever, any such inhabitant for their being carried away, sold, or used as a slave in any place soever; and if any inhabitant of Africa, or of any place in the West Indies or America not in the possession of H. M., shall be so carried away, detained, trans-shipped, or received on board any vessel wholly or in part owned or employed by any such subject or resident for any such unlawful purposes, contrary to the prohibitions of this act, every such ship shall be forfeited as in s. 2., and all property in any such African native so carried away, &c. shall be forfeited, and may be seized, &c. as in s. 14. pl. 37.; and every such subject or resident, who as owner, part owner, freighter, or shipper, factor, or agent, captain, mate, supercargo, or surgeon shall so unlawfully carry away, &c. or assist in carrying away, &c. for any of the above unlawful purposes, any such African or foreigner as above, shall pay for each slave or person so unlawfully carried away, &c. 100*l.* of lawful money, &c. in moieties to H. M. and the person who shall sue or inform for the same, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36 s. 3. [See as to removal from one British colony to another, infra, 58 G. 3. 49. s. 5. pl. 62., &c.]

28. If any inhabitant of Africa, or of any island, territory, or place, not in possession of H. M., who shall have been unlawfully carried away, or removed from Africa, or from any island or place in the West Indies or America, not being in H. M.'s possession, contrary to any provisions in this act, shall be imported into any island, colony, or territory, in possession of H. M., and there sold as a slave, or kept in a state of slavery, such inhabitant so unlawfully carried away or removed, may be seized and prosecuted as forfeited to H. M. as in s. 14. pl. 37. as any goods unlawfully imported into the said colony or territory, may be seized, &c. under any statute now in force for regulating the navigation and trade of H. M.'s colonies, and after condemnation shall be disposed of as hereinafter provided, id. s. 4.

29. All insurances soever to be effected upon, or in respect to any of the dealing, trans-shipment, or other transactions by this act prohibited, shall be declared unlawful; and every such subject or resident as in s. 1. who shall wilfully subscribe, or effect, or cause to be subscribed, &c. any such unlawful insurances, shall forfeit for every offence the sum of 100*l.* for each insurance, and treble the amount paid as the premium of such insurance, in moieties to H. M. and to the person who shall inform or sue for the same, id. s. 5.

30. All slaves and natives of Africa treated as such, which shall be seized as prize of war, or liable to forfeiture under this or any other act against slave-trade, [and all slaves soever forfeited or liable to forfeiture to H. M., or subject to condemnation by any law, 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 7.] may for the purposes only of seizure, prosecution, and condemnation as prize, or as forfeitures, be treated as slaves and property in the same manner as negro slaves have been heretofore treated, when seized as prize, or forfeited for any offence against the laws of trade and navigation respectively; but shall be condemned as prize, or as forfeited to sole use of H. M. for the purpose only of barring any other claim to them by H. M. or under any such sentence of condemnation; but H. M. and his officers commissioned by special order in council to receive and provide for such condemned Africans, may either enlist them into H. M.'s land or sea service as soldiers, seamen, or marines, or bind them, whether of full age or not, as apprentices for not exceeding 14 years, to such person in such place on such conditions and regulations as shall by H. M.'s order in council be appointed, and any indenture of apprenticeship duly made and executed by any person for that purpose appointed by any such order in council, for not exceeding 14 years, shall be as valid as if the apprentice being of full age and on good consideration duly executed the same; and every such African so enlisted as above, shall be treated, in all respects, as if he had voluntarily enlisted himself, id. s. 7. as Extr. by 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 7.

31. Where any slaves or natives of Africa taken as prize by any H. M.'s ships or privateers duly commissioned, [or any slave soever forfeited, or liable to forfeiture to H. M., or subject to condemnation by any law, 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 7.] shall be finally condemned as such to H. M.'s use, there shall be paid to the captors by the treasurer of the navy, in like manner as headmoney is paid under 45 G. 3. c. 72. s. 5, [seem. Extr.] such bounty as H. M. shall have directed by order in council, not exceeding 40*l.* for every man, or 30*l.* for every woman, or 10*l.* for every child not above 14, so taken, condemned, and delivered over in good health to the proper civil or military officer so appointed as above to receive and provide for the same, to be divided among the officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, on board H. M.'s ships, or hired armed ships in proportion, as by H. M.'s existing proclamation for distribution of prizes directed, and amongst the owners, officers, and seamen of any private vessel as by their agreement in writing directed, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. s. 8. as Extr. by 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 7.

32. In order to entitle the captor to receive the said bounty, the numbers of men, women, and children, so taken, condemned, and delivered over, shall be proved to the navy commissioners by producing instead of the headmoney oaths and certificates prescribed by 45 G. 3. c. 72., a certified copy of the decree of condemnation, whereby their numbers shall be distinctly proved, and by producing a certificate under the hands of the said civil or military officers appointed as in s. 7. pl. 30. to whom the same hath been delivered, acknowledging the receipt thereof, to be disposed of according to H. M.'s instructions as aforesaid, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. s. 9.

33. In cases where doubts arise whether the claimants of such bounty are entitled thereto, the same shall be summarily determined by the judge of the high court of admiralty, or of that admiralty court in which the prize hath been adjudged, subject to an appeal to the prize commissioners of appeal, id. s. 10.

34. On condemnation to the use of H. M. in the above manner of any slaves or natives of Africa seized and prosecuted as forfeited for any offence against this or any other statute for prohibiting the slave-trade, (except in case of seizures made at sea by officers of H. M.'s ships,) there shall be paid to the use of the person who has sued and prosecuted same to condemnation, 13*l.* per man, 10*l.* per woman, 3*l.* for every child under 14 so condemned, and delivered over in good health to the civil or military officer appointed to receive and provide for the same, and the like sums to the use of the commander-in-chief of any colony or plantation wherein the seizure is made, but in services by H. M.'s ships, for the like forfeitures there shall be paid to the commander who shall so seize and prosecute per man so delivered over 20*l.*, woman 15*l.*, and child under 14, 5*l.*, subject to such distribution of the said bounties as H. M. may by order in council direct, for all which payments as bounties on services, the officer appointed to receive and provide for such persons so delivered over, shall after their condemnation and receipt, grant a certificate in favor of the governor and party seizing, informing, and prosecuting as aforesaid respectively, or the latter alone addressed to the treasury; who, on production thereof to them and of a duly certified copy of the sentence of condemnation of such slaves or Africans, and a receipt of the officers so appointed as above, specifying their receipt in good health, shall direct payment out of the consolidated fund of the amount of the monies specified in such certificate to the lawful holders, or to the persons entitled to the benefit thereof, id. s. 11.

35. Every person who shall wilfully and fraudulently forge or counterfeit any such certificate, copy of sentence of condemnation; or receipt as above, or any part thereof, or shall utter the same knowing it to be forged, with intent to defraud, shall suffer death as in felony without clergy, id. s. 12.

36. The pecuniary penalties inflicted by this act, shall be sued for and recovered in any court of record in G. B., or of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions wherein the offence was committed, or where the offender may be found after commission of such offence, and in all seizures of any ships, slaves, or goods, for any forfeiture under this act, the same shall be sued for and recovered in any court in G. B., or of record or vice-admiralty in any part of H. M.'s dominions in or near which such seizures are made, or to which such ships, slaves, or goods, if seized at sea, without the limits of British jurisdiction, may most conveniently be carried for trial, and such penalties (whether pecuniary or specific) shall go to such persons in such proportions, and shall be recovered and applied by the means provided for recovery of penalties incurred under 4 G. 3. c. 15., 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. s. 13. [Time of limitation of actions or prosecutions for recovery of any of the penalties inflicted by this act, extended to 3 years, 53 G. 3. c. 112.]

37. All vessels, slaves, or natives of Africa carried or dealt with as slaves, and all goods and effects forfeited for any offence against this act, may be seized by any officer of customs or excise, or by the commander of any H. M.'s ships, who in making and prosecuting such seizures, shall have the benefit of 4 G. 3. c. 15. or of any act for protection of officers seizing and prosecuting for any offence against that or other act relating to the trade and revenues of the British American colonies, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. s. 14. [Governors, &c. empowered to make such seizures, 51 G. 3. c. 23. s. 8. infra, pl. 49.]

38. All offences against this act may be dealt with as misdemeanors as if committed within Middlesex, id. s. 15.

39. H. M. in council may, from time to time, make such regulations for future disposal of negroes bound apprentices under this act, after their apprenticeship expired, as shall seem meet, and as may prevent such negroes from becoming chargeable to the island where they are so bound, id. s. 16.

40. None of the provisions of any act as to enlisting for a limited period of service, or as to granting any pensions to soldiers discharged after such service, shall extend to negroes so enlisted, and serving as above, 47 G.3. S.1. c.36 s.17.

41. If any action is commenced in G.B. or elsewhere for any thing done in pursuance of this act, defendant may plead the general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence, and that the same was done by authority hereof; and if it appears so done, the jury shall find for defendant, with treble costs if plaintiff is nonsuited or discontinues after appearance, or has judgment against him on verdict or demurrer, id. s.18.

42. IF ANY PERSON RESIDENT IN THE U.K. OR ANY COLONIES OR TERRITORIES now or hereafter belonging thereto, or in H.M.'s possession, or under East India Company's government, shall by himself or agent, or otherwise soever, carry away or remove, or aid, &c. in carrying away as a slave, or for the purpose of being sold, &c. as a slave, any person soever from any part of Africa, or from any other country or place, either immediately or by trans-shipment at sea or otherwise, directly or indirectly, or shall import or aid, &c. in importing into any colony or place soever, any such person for the above purpose, or shall wilfully embark, receive or detain on board any vessel or boat any such person for either purpose, or shall wilfully use or employ, or permit, &c. to be embarked, or shall let or take on freight or hire any vessel to be used in carrying away or importing any such person for either purpose; or shall fit out or cause, &c. or shall take command or charge of, navigate or embark on board such vessel as master or captain, mate, supercargo, or surgeon, knowing that such vessel is actually employed, or is in the same voyage for which he shall embark, intended to be employed in carrying or importing such person for any such purpose, the offender, his counsellors and abettors, are declared felons, and shall be transported for not exceeding 14, or shall be confined and kept to hard labour for not exceeding 5 nor less than 3 years, at discretion of the court before whom such offender is convicted, 51 G.3. c.25. s.1.

43. Any person who shall enter or navigate or embark on board any such vessel employed or intended to be employed as aforesaid, as a petty officer, servant or seaman, knowing that such is or shall be a purpose of the voyage; or who shall underwrite or procure, &c. any policy of assurance on any vessel or goods, or the freight of any vessel employed or intended to be employed in such voyage, knowing such to be a purpose of the voyage, shall not be deemed guilty of a felony within s.1., but of a misdemeanor only, to be punished by imprisonment for not exceeding 2 years, id. s.2., and shall not be punished as accessories to felony, id. s.3.

44. Nothing herein shall subject any person to the penalties imposed by this act for exporting or carrying from any present or future British island, colony, &c. in the West Indies, to any other such island, &c., or from one part thereof to another, or for importing into or landing in any such colony, &c. any slave born within such colony, &c. or lawfully imported into the same, or from one part of any foreign island or colony to another part thereof, or for trans-shipment or assisting at sea any slave in any vessel in distress; but nothing shall prevent the transportation to any foreign colony or place of any slave duly convicted in any British colony, of any crime to which transportation is annexed by the law thereof, but a copy of the judgment certified by the convicting court, shall be put on board the vessel in which such convict is transported, id. s.4.

45. All offences in ss. 1—2. pl. 42—43. declared to be felonies or misdemeanors, and committed in Africa, or in any country, territory or place, other than U.K. or on the high seas, or in any seaport or place within the admiral's jurisdiction, shall be enquired of either according to law, and 28 H.8. c.15. and so much of 33 H.8. c.25. as is unrepealed, or according to 11 & 12 W.3. c.7., 51 G.3. c.25. s.6.

46. Or may be tried under any commission issued according to 46 G.3. c.54.; and persons convicted thereof shall suffer the penalties to which they would be liable if tried according to 28 H.8. c.15., 58 G.3. c.98. s.1.

47. Or if committed by any subject in Africa, or any of the rivers, ports, or harbours thereof, not being within admiralty jurisdiction, or within the local jurisdiction of any ordinary court of a British colony or settlement in Africa, competent to try such offence, may be enquired of under the same commission, 59 G.3. c.97. s.1.

48. Nothing in this act shall alter 46 G.3. c.52. or 47 G.3. S.1. c.36. as to the forfeitures thereby imposed, but they shall be in force, except as the former is altered by the latter, 51 G.3. c.25. s.7.

49. All governors, or persons having chief command, civil or military, of any of H.M.'s colonies, forts, or factories, or of the African company in Africa, or any African island, and persons deputed by them, may seize and prosecute all ships, slaves, or natives of Africa, carried or dealt with as slaves, and all goods soever forfeited for any offence against 46 G.3. c.52. or 47 G.3. S.1. c.36. and which shall be found on or near to the coast, or in any port or river thereof, or within the limits of any such colonies or territories of H.M. as in s.1. pl. 42., with all the benefit of the said acts, and of 4 G.3. c.15. and all other acts for protection of officers seizing, &c. for offences against that act or any other act relating to the trade or revenues of the British American colonies, 51 G.3. c.25. s.8.

50. If any petty officer or his servant, or seaman on board any vessel fitted out or engaged in unlawfully removing, trading or dealing in slaves, shall, within 3 months after arrival of such vessel in any port belonging to H.M., give information on oath before any competent magistrate, against any owner or part owner, or any captain, mate, surgeon, or supercargo who shall have committed any offence against this act, and shall give evidence on oath against him, before any court before whom he shall be tried; or shall within 3 months after his arrival at any port or place out of H.M.'s dominions, give information to any of H.M.'s ambassadors, envoys, charges d'affaires, consuls, residents, or agents, so that such owner, captain, &c. may be apprehended, such informer shall not be liable to the penalties of this act, or of the acts in last pl. recited, and such ambassadors, &c. shall receive such information, and transmit the particulars without delay to a principal secretary of state, and copies thereof to commanders of H.M.'s ships then being in such port or place, id. s.9.

51. TO PROVIDE FOR THE SUPPORT OF CAPTURED SLAVES during the period of adjudication, 55 G.3. c.172.

52. When any persons treated as slaves within the slave trade statutes, are captured as prize of war, or forfeited or liable to forfeiture to H.M. or otherwise proceeded against under any law, and brought to adjudication in the admiralty, or other court within H.M.'s dominions, authorized to hold jurisdiction therein, the claimant of property or possession in them shall put them on shore, and the collector or chief officer of customs at the port shall direct enquiry to be made whether such claimant has furnished or is willing or able to furnish sufficient food and necessaries for support and wholesome maintenance of the slaves during the proceedings respecting them, and shall as soon as may be report the result of his enquiry to the governor, lieutenant-governor, or person exercising his authority in such place, to whom if it shall appear that the above necessaries are not so furnished, and if the claimant shall afterwards omit to supply the same, such governor being satisfied of the truth shall authorize the above officer of customs to take on himself the immediate care of them, and provide them necessaries, till a decree is made having the force of a definitive sentence, absolutely condemning or restoring the slaves; in which event the court shall, on his application, direct his accounts for the necessaries so supplied, to be brought into the registry and examined, directing them when confirmed to be a charge on the slaves, to be defrayed by the person receiving possession thereof under the decree, id. s.1.

53. Where the court does not immediately condemn or restore such slaves by decree having effect of a definitive sentence, but directs further proof to be made in the cause, whereby condemnation or restitution is deferred, and the claimant has not supplied or, at any time pending proceedings in that court, neglects to supply proper necessaries for such slaves, the court may direct a valuation thereof, and decree them to be delivered over to the receiver of slaves, condemned to H.M.'s use according to 47 G.3. S.1. c.36. (s.7. pl. 30.) and they shall be treated according to that act, except that the bounty shall not be payable for them except on the final condemnation therein required in that act, (s.8. pl. 31.) 55 G.3. c.172. s.2.

54. If on further proof the slaves are decreed to be restored, and there be no appeal, but the slaves have been delivered over as in s.2. restitution shall be made according to the above valuation, with interest thereon, (the sums expended in their maintenance being deducted,) and the value so adjusted shall be paid by the treasurer of the navy, according to 47 G.3. S.1. c.36. s.8., on production of official copy of sentence of restitution with the valuation indorsed by the registrar or deputy, id. s.3.

55. When there is a decree, having the effect of a definitive sentence restoring or condemning the slaves, which is suspended by appeal, the court, notwithstanding such appeal, shall proceed to valuation thereof as in s.2., which after being had and approved by the court shall afterwards be delivered over to the receiver of slaves condemned to H.M.'s use, according to 47 G.3. S.1. c.36. s.8. pl. 51., and shall be dealt with as if they had been so finally condemned, but the bounties are only payable on such final condemnation, 55 G.3. c.172. s.4.

56. Where the slaves are finally restored in the court of appeal, restitution in value shall be made to the proprietor according to valuation, as in s.2. pl. 53., subject to revision in court of appeal, with interest, the sums expended for support of slaves as above being deducted therefrom, and the value so adjusted shall be paid by the treasurer of the navy as in s.3. id. s.5.

57. Nothing herein shall prevent any court having jurisdiction in the principal cause from adjudging the captors or prosecutors to pay out of their own monies (in addition to the above restitution in value) such costs and damages as they shall decree where it appears that the seizure, prosecution, or appeal thereon by the captor, is not justified by circumstances, 55 G. 3. c. 172. s. 6.

58. The provisions of 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. for disposal of slaves condemned to H. M.'s use, and payment of bounty thereon (viz. s. 8.) in cases of capture by ships of war or privateers, shall be applied to all cases of slaves captured or condemned as prize during the last war, or hereafter forfeited or liable to forfeiture to H. M. or subject to condemnation by any law soever, id. 7.

59. To EXPLAIN 46 G. 3. c. 52., 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 36. and 51 G. 3. c. 23. for abolition of the slave trade, 58 G. 3. c. 49.

60. Certain importations of slaves already made into certain of H. M.'s possessions on the continent of South America, from other possessions of H. M. shall be valid in law, and all personal actions, indictments, informations, and proceedings soever, against any person for having advised or made such importation before passing this act, viz. 30th May, 1818, shall be void, and if commenced plaintiff may plead general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence; and if plaintiff in any action so commenced in Eng. or Ire. or English possessions on the continent of South America, or the West Indies, shall be nonsuit, discontinues, or has a verdict against him, defendant shall recover double costs; and if any such action is commenced in Scot. the court shall allow the defender the benefit of the above indemnity, with double costs of suit, id. s. 1. Proceedings already commenced may be staid by order of court, on motion in a summary way with double costs to defendant, id. s. 2.

61. In consequence of the exhausted state of some lands in Dominica, and the Bahamas, H. M. in council may grant licences for transportation of the slaves hitherto supported by cultivating the same, to any British possessions in the South American continent, under certain regulations to be hereinafter provided; but no licence shall be granted unless on representation to privy council from the slave proprietors and who shall prove that no disadvantage will arise to the slaves, and enter into bond to remove them in families, id. s. 3. H. M. in council may make further rules and regulations as to the transport and destination of such negroes, id. s. 4.

62. No person shall embark, export or carry on the sea any slave from any such South American settlement or territory, to any other country or place whatever under dominion of H. M. or any foreign power; but slaves may be exported from one part of H. M.'s South American settlements to another under the regulations of the acts in pl. 59. recited; but nothing shall prevent any slave from being employed either in navigation, fishing, or any other his ordinary business or occupation on the seas, as they may now be employed in any British West India island, in numbers not exceeding in any one boat or vessel those usually navigating the same; but nothing herein shall prevent any slave being really the domestic servant of any resident in such settlement, &c. now belonging to H. M. from attending the latter or his family by sea to any place soever, id. s. 5.

63. FOR ESTABLISHING A REGISTRY of colonial slaves in G. B. 59 G. 3. c. 120. ss. 1—10. [See ss. 11, 12. ante, pl. 12. 15.]

64. H. M. may appoint by warrant under hand and seal of a principal secretary of state, some proper person as the registrar of colonial slaves, to receive copies of all returns thereof, and of any abstracts or indexes referring thereto, at any time transmitted from any of H. M.'s foreign possessions, either in pursuance of any order in council or of any colonial law, to hold his office at pleasure, id. s. 1.

65. The treasury of U. K. shall assign to him an adequate salary, not exceeding 800*l.* per ann., and shall fix the necessary number of clerks, &c. to assist him, allowing them proper salaries and reasonable sums for incidental charges, to be defrayed as the salaries and charges of the secretaries of state officers are paid, id. s. 2.

66. The treasury shall provide such registrar a proper office, and appoint his own and assistant's fees, and shall cause a schedule thereof to be delivered to such registrar at his appointment, a copy of which shall always hang in his office for public information; provided that the above fees be carried to the public account, and the residue, if any, after paying the salaries in s. 2., shall be applied in aid of the civil list, id. s. 3.

67. The registrar, before entering on execution of his office, shall be sworn before some judge or baron, faithfully to execute its duties, id. s. 4.

68. The registrar shall be incapable of sitting in house of commons during continuance in his office, id. s. 5.

69. As soon as the office is opened, copies and duplicates of registries of colonial slaves, received by secretaries of state, shall be delivered over to the registrar, who shall from time to time carry on, correct, and enlarge the same, pursuant to the returns received, and shall from such indexes, abstracts, and arrangements as may best promote regularity in keeping such books, and facilitate search therein, id. s. 6.

70. The registrar or his clerk shall give due attendance from 10 to 4 every day, (except Sundays and bank holidays,) for dispatch of official business, and shall make searches for and give certificates of the registration or non-registration of any slaves, with extracts (if registered) of their names and descriptions, plantations or owners, and all other particulars stated in the registry, for which search, certificate, or extract, the fee set by treasury shall be paid, 59 G. 3. c. 120. s. 7.

71. From 1st Jan. 1820, no subject in U. K. may purchase or lend money, goods, or effects, on security of any slave in H. M.'s colonies, or foreign possessions, unless such slave appear by the return to have been first registered in the registrar's office; and every sale, mortgage, or conveyance of, and other security, on any slave not so registered, executed after 1st Jan. 1820, in U. K., to or in trust for any subject, shall be void in respect of such unregistered slave; and no slave shall be deemed duly registered unless it appear that a return thereof, duly made, by the owner or other person in his behalf, in the legal manner, in the colony where the slave is resident, shall have been received in registrar's office from such colony, within 4 years next preceding the date of such sale, &c. id. s. 8.

72. After 1st Jan. 1820, no deed executed within U. K. for transfer or mortgage of any slave, in any of the said colonies, or for raising any estate therein, shall be valid to pass or affect such slave, unless his registered name and description be duly set forth in such deed, or in some schedule indorsed or annexed according to the latest or corrected registration in the said office; but neither such deed or schedule shall be avoided for clerical error in setting out the slave's name and description, or in varying from the entries in the books of registry, without fraudulent contrivance or wilful default of the parties thereto; provided that nothing herein shall affect deeds or securities of the above nature, executed before this act passed, or to impeach any will, codicil, or testamentary paper, probate, conveyance, or instrument made by authority of commissioners of bankrupt, or public officer appointed to convey insolvent's estate, or of any court of justice or officer thereof, or in execution of legal process by reason that the registered names and descriptions of any slaves are not set forth in such deed, &c. id. s. 9.

73. The issue of any slave described in any deed or schedule thereto, executed in U. K., born after the colonial return required by law, who shall be afterwards registered in the next return for the colony, shall pass and be affected as registered slaves by such deed, &c. as effectually as if named therein, id. s. 10.

II. STATUTES connected with treaties for suppression of the slave trade carried on by foreign nations.

74. TO CARRY INTO EXECUTION A TREATY BETWEEN H. M. and the king of Spain, for preventing traffic in slaves, 58 G. 3. c. 36.

75. "After reciting treaty of 23d Sept. 1817, between H. M. and the king of Spain," it is enacted, that any commander of any king's ship of war, duly authorized and provided with instructions according to the provisions of the said convention, may search all vessels suspected, on reasonable grounds, of having slaves on board, acquired by an illicit traffic; and may detain and bring to adjudication all ships, vessels, and cargoes therein, made subject to detention and condemnation, according to the said treaty, and instructions aforesaid, id. s. 1.

76. All vessels belonging wholly or in part to H. M.'s subjects, suspected of having slaves on board, shall be, according to the treaty, Art. 9., subject to the visitation and search of British or Spanish vessels of war, according thereto; and all vessels found having slaves on board, contrary to Art. 9—10. of the treaty, and all boats, apparel, furniture, and slaves belonging to such vessels, and all cargoes therein, shall be subject to the search and detention of British or Spanish vessels of war, and to forfeiture according to the said treaty, and the regulations thereunto annexed, and to condemnation by the commissary judges and commissioners to be appointed according to the said treaty, and the instructions annexed thereto, id. s. 2.

77. H. M., by warrant under his sign manual, countersigned by one of the secretaries of state, may appoint commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, and from time to time may supply vacancies, by appointing others, and may grant salaries to such commissioners, not exceeding such annual sums as the treasury shall direct; and such commissary judges and commissioners shall decide all cases of detention, captures, and seizures of vessels and their cargoes, seized under the said treaty, and do all acts agreeably thereto, as fully as if special powers for that purpose were particularly given in this act, id. s. 3.

78. H. M., by like warrant, may nominate a secretary or registrar to the commission, and from time to time supply any vacancy in such office, and grant salaries not exceeding such annual sum as the treasury shall direct; and such secretary, &c. shall execute all the duties of such office, as set forth in the said treaty, and all such acts as may be necessary for the due discharge of the duties thereof, according to the said treaty, id. s. 4.

79. The governor, lieutenant-governor, or principal magistrate of the colony in which the commission shall sit, within the possessions of H. B. M., may fill up every vacancy which shall arise in such commission, either of commissary judge, commissioner, or any officer thereof, appointed by H. M., according to the 15th Art. of the treaty, ad interim, till such vacancy is filled by some person appointed by H. M., 58 G. 3. c. 36. s. 5.

80. Every commissary judge and commissioner of arbitration shall, before he enter upon the execution of such office, take an oath, in the presence of the principal magistrate acting in the colony, whether belonging to his Britannic or Catholic majesty, faithfully to execute same; and every secretary, &c. or register, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall take an oath before the British commissary judge, to the same effect. [The forms are given in the act, but seem unnecessary to be inserted here.] id. s. 6.

81. The commissary judges, or such secretary, &c., may administer oaths and take the depositions of all parties, witnesses, and other persons, in the course of any proceeding; and may summon persons, and send for and issue precepts for producing papers, and enforce all such summonses and precepts by like means as any court of vice-admiralty, id. s. 7.

82. Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence before them, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and being thereof convicted, shall be subject to all the punishments thereof, and may be tried either in the place where the offence was committed, or in any colony near thereto, or in K. B. in Eng.; in which latter case the venue may be laid in Middlesex, id. s. 8.

83. The pendency of any suit before the said commissioners, for condemnation or restitution, or the final adjudication, condemnation, or judgment thereon, may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence under the general issue, and shall be a complete bar in any action for recovery of any ship, vessel, or cargo, or of any damage sustained in consequence of any capture, id. s. 9.

84. The 400,000*l.* stipulated to be paid by the said treaty, Art. 3., and paid accordingly, as a full compensation for all losses sustained by the subjects of his Catholic majesty, on account of vessels captured previously to the exchange of the ratification of the treaty, and for the losses which are a necessary consequence of the abolition of the traffic in slaves, shall be considered to be full compensation for all such losses; and such stipulation may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence upon the general issue in any action, id. s. 10.

85. But the lords commissioners of appeal in prize causes, and the high court of admiralty in all cases arising out of the said captures, on appeal from any vice-admiralty court, may hear and determine all questions respecting any right to which H. M. or the captors or seizers may claim to be entitled, id. s. 11.

86. In all such cases as aforesaid, in which the captors or seizers shall not establish any right, the said courts may adjudge the ships, vessels, and cargoes, or the proceeds thereof, and every part thereof, to which the captors shall not establish any right to be delivered or paid, to the use of H. M., to such persons as the treasury shall appoint to receive the same, id. s. 12.

87. Nothing in this act shall affect or repeal any of the acts made for the suppression of the slave trade; all which shall remain in full force, id. s. 13.

88. If any action shall be commenced for any thing done in pursuance of the treaty or act, defendant may plead the general issue; and if the plaintiff shall be nonsuited, or discontinued after appearance, or if judgment is given against plaintiff, on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall have treble costs, id. s. 14.

89. TO CARRY INTO EXECUTION A CONVENTION MADE between H. M. and the king of Portugal for preventing traffic in slaves, 58 G. 3. c. 85., [REF. as to ss. 10—11. and AMD. by and to be construed as one act with 59 G. 3. c. 17.]

90. "After reciting an additional convention to a treaty of the 22d Jan. 1815, between H. M. and the King of Portugal, for preventing illicit traffic in slaves, and signed at London 28th July 1817," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for any officers commanding any ship of war of H. M., duly authorized with instructions according to the said convention, to visit and detain all vessels reasonably suspected of having slaves on board acquired by an illicit traffic, according to the articles of the said convention, and to detain and bring to adjudication all ships, vessels and cargoes, thereby made subject to detention and condemnation, according to the provisions of the said convention, and the instructions and regulations annexed, 58 G. 3. c. 85. s. 1.

91. All vessels, belonging wholly or in part to subjects, suspected on reasonable grounds of having slaves on board, acquired by illicit traffic, shall be subject to the visitation of British or Portuguese vessels of war; and all vessels belonging wholly or in part to subjects, and found having slaves on board, acquired by illicit traffic, contrary to the treaty; and all boats, apparel, furniture, and slaves belonging to such vessels, and all cargoes therein, shall be subject to such visit and detention, &c. and to forfeiture, according to the stipulation of the convention, and to adjudication and condemnation by the commissary judges and commissioners appointed, according to such convention, and to the instructions annexed thereto, 58 G. 3. c. 85. s. 2.

92. H. M., by warrant under his sign-manual, countersigned by one of his secretaries of state, may appoint such commissary judges and commissioners of arbitration, by the said convention and regulations mentioned, and from time to time may supply vacancies, and grant salaries to such judges and commissioners, not exceeding such annual sums as the treasury shall direct; which judges and commissioners shall examine and decide all cases arising under this act, id. s. 3.

93. H. M. by like warrant, signed and countersigned as above, may appoint a secretary or registrar to the commission, and from time to time supply any vacancy in such office, and grant salaries, not exceeding such annual sum as the treasury shall direct; which secretary or registrar shall do all the duties of such office, id. s. 4.

94. The governor, lieut.-gov., or principal magistrate of the colony or settlement in which the commission shall sit, within the possessions of H. M. may fill up every vacancy in such commission, either of commissary judge, commissioner, or any officer thereof, ad interim, until such vacancy shall be filled by some person appointed by H. M., id. s. 5.

95. Every commissary judge and commissioner of arbitration shall, before entering upon the execution of any of the duties of his office, take an oath, in the presence of the principal magistrate in the colony, to execute his duty faithfully and impartially; and every secretary or registrar shall take oath to the like effect, id. s. 6. [The form is given, but seems unnecessary here.]

96. The commissary judges or such secretary or registrar, may administer oaths, and take the depositions of all parties, witnesses, and other persons, id. s. 7.

97. Every person who shall wilfully give false evidence, in any examination or deposition, or affidavit, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and being thereof convicted, shall be subject to all the penalties to which persons convicted of wilful and corrupt perjury are liable, and may be tried for the same in any colonial court of competent jurisdiction, or in K. B. in Eng.; and if in K. B., the venue may be laid in Middlesex, id. s. 8.

98. The pendency of any proceeding before the commissioners for condemnation or restitution of any ship or cargo, or slaves seized or detained, or the final judgment thereupon, may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence under the general issue, in any action or proceeding in consequence of any thing done under authority of the convention, or of the instructions thereto annexed, id. s. 9.

99. Nothing in this act shall alter or affect any penalties contained in acts for suppression of slave trade, id. s. 12.

100. If any action is commenced for any thing done in pursuance of the said treaty, or instructions, or of this act, the defendant may plead the general issue; and if the jury find for defendant, or if plaintiff discontinues after appearance, or be nonsuited, or if judgment be given on verdict or demurrer against plaintiff, the defendant shall have double costs, id. s. 13.

101. "Reciting a convention with Portugal of 28th July 1817, Art. 9., for appointing a commission in London to determine certain captures of Portuguese vessels, and Art. 10. for regulating proceedings thereon," H. M., by like warrant, countersigned as in pl. 92. may appoint 2 persons to be members of the mixed commission (of an equal number of commissioners of both nations), to be held at London, one of such persons to be a commissary judge, and the other a commissioner of arbitration, according to Art. 9., and may supply vacancies, and grant salaries, to such judge and arbitrator, who shall decide all cases made subject to them by Art. 9, and this act, between 1st June 1814, and the period of assembling of the two commissions in Art. 8. mentioned, in Africa and the Brazils, 59 G. 3. c. 17. s. 2.

102. H. M., by like warrant, countersigned as in pl. 92. may appoint a registrar to the London commission, may supply any vacancy therein, and grant salary not exceeding the annual sum directed by treasury, which registrar shall perform all the duties of such office, id. s. 3.

103. Every such judge and arbitrator, whether appointed ad interim or permanently, shall, before entering on his duties, take an oath before any judge of K. B. or baron of exchequer, for faithful and impartial execution of his duty; and every registrar appointed as above shall in like manner take oath to the same effect, before the British commissary judge, id. s. 4.

104. Every such judge or registrar appointed under this act may summon all necessary witnesses, and issue and enforce precepts, as by 58 G. 3. c. 85.; and may administer oaths to, and take depositions of all parties examined before them, or for deposing in any proceeding before the judges of the London commission, or before them, and an arbitrator, where the latter shall act with them, id. s. 5.

105. Every person wilfully giving false evidence, in any examination, deposition, or affidavit had on any proceeding before such judges or commissioners, shall be guilty of perjury, and be liable to the punishments thereof, id. s. 6.

106. The sum of 300,000*l.*, and interest, stipulated to be paid to the King of Portugal, in satisfaction for his subjects' losses for slave vessels captured up to 1st June 1814, shall be considered full compensation for all such captures; and the stipulation in Art. 9. of the convention of 21st Jan. 1815, recited in convention 28th July 1817, Art. 11., and in 58 G. 3. c. 85., and this act may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence on the general issue, and shall be held a good bar of any suit for restitution or for damage sustained by such seizure, &c. 59 G. 3. c. 17. s. 7.

107. No claims or suits shall be brought except before the commissioners appointed under convention of 28th July 1817, 58 G. 3. c. 85. and this act, for any thing arising under the same; and the pendency of any suit before such commission may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence under the general issue; or if no such claim or proceeding have been instituted before such commission, then the convention and both acts may be so pleaded, &c., and either shall be a complete bar to any such proceeding in any court, other than before such commission, id. s. 8.

108. The commissioners of appeal in prize causes, and the high court of admiralty, in all cases arising out of the captures of any such vessels and cargoes, of any subjects of the King of Portugal, as well before 1st June 1814, as between that day and the period above described, depending or brought before them on appeal from vice-admiralty court, may hear and determine all questions respecting the right or interest in any such vessels and cargoes so captured, which H. M. or the captors may claim, and may enforce their judgments by their usual process; and where the captors shall not establish any right by reason of such seizure, may adjudge such vessels and cargoes, or the proceeds, or part thereof to which the captors shall not establish any right, to be paid to H. M.'s use, to such person as the treasury shall appoint to receive the same, and shall enforce such delivery by like process, id. s. 9.

109. To CARRY INTO EFFECT THE TREATY WITH THE Netherlands, relating to the slave trade, 59 G. 3. c. 16.

110. "After reciting the treaty," Every commander of a king's ship, duly authorized and provided with instructions according to such treaty, may visit and detain, in any seas, (except the Mediterranean or European seas lying without Gibraltar, and northward of 37 deg. N. lat. and within, and to the east of 20 deg. W. long. of Greenwich, as in Art. 3. and s. 3.) all ships belonging wholly or in part to the subjects of the king of the Netherlands, reasonably suspected of having slaves on board, for purposes of traffic, contrary to such treaty, and may detain and bring to condemnation and adjudication, all vessels and cargoes made subject thereto by such treaty, id. s. 1.

111. All vessels belonging wholly or in part to H. M.'s subjects, reasonably suspected of having slaves on board for illicit traffic, shall (subject to regulations of such treaty) be subject to visit and detention by British or Netherland ships of war, duly authorized as above; and all vessels owned as above, which shall be found to have slaves on board for such illicit traffic, with all boats, apparel, stores, and slaves, and cargoes therein, shall be subject to such visit and detention, and to condemnation by the judges appointed by such treaty, id. s. 2.

112. No ships on board of which no slaves shall be found intended for traffic, shall be detained under this act on any pretence, and negro servants or sailors on board shall not be cause for detention, id. s. 3.

113. British ships of war deeming it expedient to visit Netherland merchant ships under convoy of Netherland ships of war, shall act in concert with the commander of the latter, and the converse; to which visits every facility shall be given, as well as to the ship's eventual detention, id. s. 4.

114. H. M. by warrant under sign-manual, countersigned by a principal secretary of state, may appoint such judges and arbitrators, as are by the treaty to be appointed by H. M., and may supply vacancies in such offices, and may grant annual salaries as limited by the treasury, which judges, &c. shall examine and decide all such cases of detention and seizures of vessels and cargoes under this act, and shall do all other things in execution of the treaty, id. s. 5.

115. H. M. may, by like warrant, nominate a registrar of slaves in G. B. [see 59 G. 3. c. 120. pl. 63.] id. s. 6.

116. The govr. lieutenant-govr. or principal magistrate of the colony or settlement in which such court shall sit within H. B. M.'s possession, may fill up each vacancy of such judges, &c. ad interim, till filled up by H. M., id. s. 7.

117. Every judge and arbitrator appointed by H. M. or ad interim as above, shall, before entering on execution of his duties, take an oath for faithful and impartial execution thereof, in presence of the principal magistrate of the colony, &c. where the court shall be appointed to reside, and every secretary shall, before entering on his duties, take a like oath before the British commissary judge, as aforesaid, id. s. 8. [The form is given, but seems unnecessary here.]

118. Any such judge, secretary, or registrar, may administer oaths to, and take depositions of all parties, witnesses, and others, who may come before them to be examined, or for deposing in any proceeding before such judges, or before them and the arbitrator; and the latter may summon before them all persons whom they may deem necessary to examine as to any proceeding under their cognizance, and send for, and issue precepts for producing papers relating to the matter in question before them, and enforce such summonses, &c. by such means as any vice-admiralty court may do, 59 G. 3. c. 16. s. 9.

119. Every person who shall wilfully and corruptly give false evidence in any examination, deposition, or affidavit, in any proceeding before such judges, &c. under this act, shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and may be tried for the same, either where the offence was committed, or in any colony of H. M. near thereto, in which there is a court of competent jurisdiction to try such offence, or in K. B. in Eng.; and if prosecuted in K. B. the venue may be laid in Middlesex, id. s. 10.

120. After this act passed, no person shall commence or proceed in any claim or suit whatever in the high court of admiralty, or other court, or before any judges soever, other than the several mixed courts of justice, of an equal number of judges of both nations, appointed under the said treaty, and this act, for condemnation or restitution of any ship, cargo, or slaves, or for any compensation for any loss, or damage, or injury sustained by such ship or persons on board, in consequence of any seizure or detention under the said treaty, or the regulations annexed, or this act; and the pendency of any claim or proceeding instituted before any of such mixed court so appointed under such treaty, and this act, for condemnation or restitution as above, for compensation for loss, &c. in consequence of taking such ship, or final determination of such mixed court, may be pleaded in bar, or given in evidence under the general issue, or in case of no such proceeding instituted before such mixed court, then such treaty, regulations, and this act, may be so pleaded or given in evidence; and every such plea in bar, or evidence so given, shall be deemed a good bar to any such proceeding in admiralty, or in any court other than such mixed courts, id. s. 11.

121. Nothing in this act shall affect or alter the penalties provided in any act for suppression of slave trade, id. s. 12.

122. In actions for any thing done in pursuance of the said treaty, or of this act, defendant may plead general issue, giving this act and the special matter in evidence at any trial thereupon, and that the same was done in pursuance of such treaty, &c.; and if it appear to be so done, the jury shall find for defendant, and if the plaintiff discontinue after appearance, or is nonsuited, or if judgment is given against him on verdict or demurrer, defendant shall recover treble costs, id. s. 13.

123. FOR APPROPRIATION OF CERTAIN PROCEEDS arising from capture of vessels and cargoes, the property of the subjects of the kings of Spain, Portugal, and Netherlands, taken in violation of the conventions made with those states, and for granting bounties on slaves captured in such vessels, and for indemnifying the captors of certain vessels taken in prosecution of the slave trade, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 99.

124. The treasury may direct the original papers and proceedings respecting all ships and cargoes belonging to any subjects of Spain, Portugal, or Netherlands, condemned in the vice admiralty court at Sierra Leone since 17th Feb. 1815. to be transmitted to the registry of the high court of admiralty in Eng., and further may direct the proceeds thereof in whosoever possession they are, to be paid for H. M.'s use, as they shall direct, and may institute proceedings in the high court of admiralty against any person in possession of such proceeds, for obtaining payment thereof, and may enforce such payment by process of the said court, and may reward the captors in all the above cases by granting to them one moiety of the proceeds of every cargo captured as above, id. s. 1.

125. The captors shall not be entitled to any such reward where it has been adjudged by the mixed commission established in London for adjudication of the claims of Portuguese subjects, under the additional convention with Portugal, dated 28th July 1817, that such seizure was wrongfully made; and the remaining moiety thereof shall be paid to such person as the commissioners shall appoint to receive same for H. M.'s use, id. s. 2.

126. In every seizure of a ship for being engaged in the illicit traffic in slaves made before passing this act, by any of H. M.'s ships of war, or any vessel duly commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, in which it appears to satisfaction of treasury, that such seizure has not been improperly made, the treasury may direct that all costs incurred by the seizer in any proceedings, or for any thing relating or arising out of such seizure, shall be paid out of the proceeds thereof, or out of any proceeds of such vessels or cargoes, paid or to be paid to the order of the treasury under this act, id. s. 3.

127. Wherever ships and cargoes captured by any of H. M.'s ships, or by any ship commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, have been in fact condemned for illicit trading in slaves, contrary to the treaties with Spain, Portugal, or the Netherlands, and where distribution of the proceeds has been made prior to 10 July 1821, the captors shall be confirmed in possession of such proceeds, id. s. 4.

128. Where any ship employed in illicit traffic in slaves, in violation of any of the treaties in s. 4. pl. 127., shall be seized by any ship of H. M., duly authorized to make such seizure, and is afterwards condemned by any of the commissioners appointed under the above treaties, there shall be paid to the captors the moiety to which H. M. is entitled under those treaties of the net proceeds of such ship and cargo, to be distributed as in next pl. directed for distribution of bounties on slaves taken on board such vessels, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 99. s. 5.

129. A bounty of 10*l.* shall be paid out of consolidated fund of U. K. for every man, woman, and child slave, found on board any ship taken, and by any of the above commissions condemned for illicit traffic in slaves, in violation of any such treaties; such bounty to be paid by order of treasury, and distributed to the captors as directed by H. M.'s proclamation of 14th Oct. 1816, for distribution of proceeds, or by any other which he may issue, id. s. 6.

130. In all captures of Portuguese vessels made by any of H. M.'s ships, or by any ship duly commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies or settlements, between 1st June, 1814, and 28th July, 1817, on account of any treaty with Portugal, there shall be paid a like bounty of 10*l.* for every man, woman, and child slave, so taken; and in all captures of any ship belonging to Spain, Portugal, or Netherlands, captured by any of H. M.'s ships duly authorized under the provisions of the treaties of 28th July 1817, with Portugal, 23d Sept. 1817, with Spain, and 4th May 1818, with Netherlands, prior to passing this act, viz. 10th July 1821, and condemned for contravention of its provisions, a like bounty shall be paid, to be distributed to the captors as in last pl.; but where the proceeds of any such capture have been distributed among the captors, and allowed to be retained by them under this act, the moiety of the proceeds shall be deducted from such bounties, id. s. 7.

131. Where any bounties or proceeds are by virtue hereof given to any capturing vessel, being a vessel duly commissioned by any governor or lieutenant-governor of any of H. M.'s colonies, &c. they shall be distributed as treasury shall appoint, id. s. 8.

132. Any party claiming benefit under this act, may resort to the high court of admiralty for obtaining the judgment thereof in that behalf, and the judge thereof may determine thereon, id. s. 9.

133. All provisions and penalties respecting delivery by prize agents, of accounts for examination, and the distribution of prize-money, and accounting for, and paying over proceeds of prize, and per centage due thereon to Greenwich hospital, are extended to all bounties and proceeds distributable under this act to the officers and crews of any of H. M.'s ships of war, whether paid to prize agents or to any other person authorized to receive them for their use, id. s. 10.

SODOMY.

1. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF THE VICE OF BUGGERY, 25 H. 8. c. 6. [CON. 28 H. 8. c. 6., 31 H. 8. c. 7. MADE PERP. 32 H. 8. c. 3. AMD. 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 29., both acts REP. 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 5. and REV. 5 EL. c. 17.]

2. Buggery with mankind or beast shall be adjudged felony, and such process used therein as in cases of felony at common law; and the offenders, on conviction, by verdict, confession, or outlawry, shall suffer death without clergy, and losses of goods, debts, and lands, &c. as felons do; and justices of peace shall determine such offence as in cases of other felonies, 25 H. 8. c. 6. The forfeiture of goods, &c. taken away, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 39.

SOLDIERS.

(STATUTES repealed and expired.)

1. FOR TAKING OF MUSTERS, 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 3. [REP. by general words of 26 G. 3. c. 107. which act is & M. REP. and other regulations made by 42 G. 3. c. 90.]

2. FOR NECESSARY RELIEF OF SOLDIERS and mariners, 35 EL. c. 4., 39 EL. c. 21. [CON. 45 EL. c. 3. s. 1., and 43 EL. c. 9. s. 29. but now EXP. see 43 EL. c. 3. infra, pl. 25.]

3. FOR DISTRIBUTION OF 60,000*l.* among the loyal and indigent commission officers, and for assessing offices, and distributing the monies thereby raised for further supply, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 8. [AMD. 15 C. 2. c. 3. BOTH EXP.]

4. FOR RELIEF OF POOR AND MAIMED OFFICERS and soldiers who have faithfully served H. M. and his royal father in the late wars, 13 & 14 C. 2. c. 9. [EXP.]

5. FOR MORE EASY AND BETTER RECRUITING H. M.'s forces and marines, 18 G. 3. c. 53. [REP. 19 G. 3. c. 10. s. 1. CON. as to volunteers, 20 G. 3. c. 37. which is REP. 23 G. 3. c. 37.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. NONE SHALL BE COMPELLED TO GO OUT OF THEIR SHIRES but on sudden coming of strange enemies into the realm, and then it shall be done as used in times past for defence of the realm, 1 E. 3. S. 2. c. 5. [CON. 4 H. 4. c. 13.]

2. NO MAN SHALL BE BOUND BY WRITING to come armed to H. M., 1 E. 3. S. 2. c. 15.

3. MEN AT ARMS, NOBLES AND ARCHERS chosen to go in H. M.'s service out of Eng., shall be at H. M.'s wages from the day they leave their shires till their return, 18 E. 3. S. 2. c. 7. [CON. 4 H. 4. c. 13.]

4. NO MAN SHALL BE OBLIGED TO FIND MEN AT ARMS, &c. except by parliamentary assent, 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 8. [CON. 4 H. 4. c. 13.]

5. [NOTE. The exception in 25 E. 3. S. 5. c. 8. and 4 H. 4. c. 13. of persons bound to find men at arms, &c. by tenure from the provisions of those statutes, is virtually REP. 12 C. 2. c. 24. s. 1.]

6. NO CAPTAIN WHO SHALL RECEIVE H. M.'s WAGES for his soldiers, shall abate of his soldiers any part of their wages, except for their clothing, viz. if they be waged for half a year, 10*s.* for a gown for a gentleman, and 6*s.* 8*d.* for a yeoman; upon pain of 20*l.* for every spearman, and 10*l.* for a bowman to H. M., 18 H. 6. c. 18. [see printed Rot. Parl. 18 H. 6. nu. 62.]

7. If any captain be retained to serve H. M. on or beyond sea in feat of war which hath not his perfect number of men as he shall be retained, or shall not give them their full wages within 6 days after received by him of H. M. for them, without deduction, except for jackets for them that receive land wages, viz. 6*s.* 8*d.* for a yeoman, and 13*s.* 4*d.* for a gentleman, he shall forfeit to H. M. all his goods, and be imprisoned; if any soldier, being in wages and retained, or having taken prest to serve H. M. on the sea or on the land beyond it, depart out of H. M.'s service without captain's licence, such departing shall be felony without clergy, determinable by justices in the shire where such soldier is apprehended; no captain shall be charged for soldiers dying or departing, not by his default, if he give notice to the treasurer of the wars if he is at land wages, or admiral of the navy if at sea-wages, 7 H. 7. c. 1.

8. TOUCHING THE TIME SERVICE REQUIRED in captains and soldiers, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 2. and recital in ss. 1, 2. [CON. 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 3. s. 9. QU. if not EXP. since military tenures were abolished by 12 C. 2. c. 24. ?]

9. If any soldier serving H. M. in his wars in his dominions, or on or beyond the seas, do sell, exchange, give or put away, or purloin any horse or harness wherewith he shall be set forth, then every such offender, on proof before the lieutenant, high admiral, H. M.'s deputy, vice-admiral, warden or captain, and in their absence before any of their deputies, shall be imprisoned by the lieutenant, or other before named, till he have satisfied the owner of the horse or harness, 2 & 3 E. 6. c. 2. s. 5.

10. If such soldier escape, then, on complaint and proof made by the party grieved to any justice of peace where such soldier is found, he shall be committed to ward till he has satisfied the party grieved for such horses and harness, id. s. 4.

11. If the soldier bring sufficient testimony before the justice from the lieutenant, &c. or any person in s. 3. pl. 9. under seal, testifying that the horse or harness were lost in H. M.'s service against the will of the soldier, or that the same was taken by the said lieutenant, &c. from the soldier for any reasonable respect, and appointed to some other to serve in the place of the said soldier, such soldier shall be discharged, and those to whom the said horse or harness shall be appointed, not bringing home to the owner the said horse and harness after he shall be discharged, shall suffer like pain, id. s. 5.

12. If any soldier depart without licence of the lieutenant, &c. with booty, or otherwise, being in the enemy's country, or elsewhere in H. M.'s service, or out of any garrison, such soldier shall be judged and executed as a felon without clergy, and the justices of every shire where he is taken shall have power to hear and determine the offence concerning such departure, as in other cases of felony committed in that shire, id. s. 6. [REP. as to the felony, 1 M. S. 1. c. 1. s. 5. REV. 4 & 5 P. & M. c. 3. s. 9.]

13. If any commissioner or captain to whom H. M. shall direct his commandment, by commission or letters, for the levying or setting forth of men to serve H. M. in his wars, shall, for gain, discharge any person by him appointed to serve H. M. as a captain, soldier or pioneer, and do assign any other person in his stead, he shall forfeit to H. M. 20*l.* for every such default of every man so discharged, id. s. 7.

14. If any captain appointed to have the order of any number of soldiers under any higher officer, license any soldier to depart without the assent in writing of the lieutenant, or the others before named, he shall forfeit 20*l.* to H. M., id. s. 8.

15. If any lieutenant, or other in pl. 9. named, having the order of any number of soldiers serving as above, shall demand or take of H. M. or his treasurers any wages for more soldiers than served, or for more days than they served, and do not note the day of every such soldier's entry into wages, and that of his death and departure, and deliver the same to such treasurers every month, such offender shall forfeit to H. M. 5*s.* for every default, and be imprisoned one month and lose his office, id. s. 9.

16. No captain shall give to any of his soldiers appointed to serve under him in any garrison any licence to depart from his service, but only the lieutenant, or others in pl. 9., on pain of imprisonment, as well of the captain as soldier, at discretion of the lieutenant, &c., 2 & 3 E. 9. c. 2. s. 10.

17. Every lieutenant, &c. as in pl. 9., on pain of 10*l.*, shall cause to be proclaimed the effect of this act, viz. every lieutenant of any army in every field under his charge, shall proclaim this act every month, and every of H.M.'s deputies of every fortress, and captain of any other fortress, shall proclaim this act once every quarter, id. s. 11.

18. Every person giving to the lieutenant, or others above named, information of any of the above offences, shall have one month's wages of him who is found faulty, to be paid by the treasurer upon warrant of the lieutenant, &c. id. s. 12.

19. Nothing herein shall extend to any orders established for the government of any place of H.M. to be governed by H.M.'s orders, id. s. 13.

20. Every lieutenant, &c. may retain to their use of the wages of their soldiers the sums following, viz. 6*s.* 8*d.* for the livery or coat of every yeoman soldier, and 13*s.* 4*d.* for that of every gentleman for a year, id. s. 14.

21. No lieutenant, &c. shall be hereby charged for lack of his number for any soldiers as shall die during his service, or be sick, or depart against his will, unless in his default, id. s. 15.

22. And this act shall not prejudice any officer for non-payment of H.M.'s wages to their household servants, and other to whom they duly find meat and drink during such service of war, id. s. 16.

23. This act shall not charge any person for taking any gift of any of his tenants or friends towards his relief when commanded by H.M. to serve in wars, or to find men on horseback or on foot, nor for aid or reward, covenanted to be paid to any person appointed to serve in wars, or to find horse or man to serve by reason of any grant, covenant or tenure, id. s. 17. [comb. REP. as to the tenure, see pl. 5.]

24. Nor shall this act charge any lieutenant or others for detaining part of the soldiers' wages for payment of victuals, harness, weapons, or for prest money delivered to such soldier, id. s. 18.

25. FOR NECESSARY RELIEF OF SOLDIERS AND MARINERS, 43 El. c. 3. and recital in ss. 1, 2. [CON. 3 C. 1. c. 4. s. 22. and indefinitely, 16 C. 1. c. 4.]

26. Every parish shall be charged to pay weekly such a sum towards the relief of sick, hurt and maimed soldiers and mariners having been prest and in pay for H.M.'s service, as by the quarter sessions after Easter yearly, shall be appointed; so as no parish be rated above 10*d.*, nor under 2*d.*, and so as the total sum of such taxation of the parishes in any county where there are above 50 parishes do not exceed 6*d.* per parish, which sums shall be yearly assessed by the parishoners within themselves, or in default thereof by the churchwardens and constables, or in default of their agreement by order of such justice or justices of peace as shall dwell in the parish, or, if none be there dwelling, in the parts next adjoining, 45 El. c. 3. s. 3.

27. If any person neglect to pay the churchwardens and constables, or in their defaults, the said justices may levy such sum by distress and sale of goods, id. s. 4.

28. The churchwardens and constables shall collect every such sum, and the same pay over to the high constable 10 days before every quarter sessions, who shall pay over the same to such persons as shall be by the justices elected treasurers of the said collection, the same to be such as at the last taxation of the subsidy next before the election, shall be sessed at 10*l.* in land yearly, or at 15*l.* in goods, which treasurers shall continue but one year, and then give up their charge, with a due account of their receipts and disbursements in Easter quarter sessions, or in 10 days after, to such others as shall, from year to year, in form aforesaid, be successively elected, id. s. 5.

29. Every churchwarden, petty or high constable, or his executors or administrators, who shall fail to make such payments, shall forfeit 20*s.*, and every high constable, his executors, &c. 40*s.*, to be levied by the treasurers by distress and sale, and taken by them in augmentation of their stock to the above uses, id. s. 6.

30. If any treasurer, his executors, &c. shall fail to give up his account within the above time, or shall be negligent in executing his charge, the justices in their session may assess such fine as shall seem convenient, so as it be not under 5*l.*, id. s. 7.

31. Every soldier or mariner having had his limbs lost or disabled in his body by service, being in H.M.'s pay, or such as shall hereafter return into this realm hurt, maimed or sick, shall, if he can travel, make his complaint to the treasurers of the court out of which he was pressed, or if he was not pressed to the treasurers of the county where he was born or last inhabited for 3 years at his election; and if he cannot travel, to the treasurers of the county where he shall arrive, and shall bring a certificate under the hand and seal of the general of the camp, or governor of the town, and of the captain of the band, or his lieutenant under whom he served, or in the absence of the general or governor, from the marshal or deputy governor, or from any admiral of H.M.'s fleet, or in his absence, from any other general of H.M.'s ships, or, in his absence, from the captain of the ship wherein the said ma-rinier or soldier did serve H.M., containing the particulars of his hurts and services; which certificates shall be also allowed by the general muster-master resident within this realm, or receiver-general of the muster-roll, the treasurer and comptroller of H.M.'s navy, under his hand, then, upon such certificate, such treasurer shall, according to the nature of his hurt and commendation of his service, assign to him such relief as seems convenient for his present necessity till the next quarter sessions, at which the justices, under their hands, may make an instrument of grant of like relief to endure as long as this act exists, if the soldier, &c. shall so long live, and the pension be not revoked, which shall be sufficient warrant to all treasurers for the county to make payment of such pension quarterly, except the same be afterwards by such trustees revoked or altered, so that the relief so assigned to any such soldier or mariner having not borne office in the wars exceed not the sum in gross or yearly pension of 10*l.*, nor to any that hath borne office under the degree of the lieutenant, 15*l.*, nor to any that hath served in the office of lieutenant, 20*l.*, 43 El. c. 3. s. 8.

32. The justices and others having authority by this act to assign pensions to soldiers and mariners, may, upon just cause, revoke or alter the same, in the quarter sessions or general assemblies for cities or towns, where the pension shall be granted, id. s. 9.

33. The treasurers of the county where such soldiers and mariners shall arrive upon their certificate, (though not allowed,) may give them any convenient relief for their journey, to carry them to the next county, with a testimonial of their allowance to pass on toward such a place; and so the treasurer of the next county, and so from county to county, till they come to the place where they are to find their maintenance, id. s. 10.

34. The treasurers shall keep a true book of computation of all such sums as they levied, and also a register of the names of every person to whom they have disbursed any relief; and shall also preserve or enter every certificate by warrant, whereof such relief hath been by them disbursed; and the muster-master or receiver general of the muster-rolls, shall keep a book, wherein shall be entered, the names of all whose certificates shall be by him allowed, with an abstract thereof; and every treasurer, not accepting the certificate brought to him, shall write the cause of his not allowing thereof, under or on the back of such certificate, id. s. 11.

35. If any treasurer shall refuse to give relief, according to this act, the quarter sessions may fine him, the fine to be levied by distress and sale, to be prosecuted by any 2 of them whom they shall authorize, id. s. 12.

36. Every soldier or mariner, taken begging or counterfeiting any certificate, in this act expressed, shall for ever lose his pension, and shall be deemed a common rogue or vagabond, and shall have like imprisonment and punishment, id. s. 13.; [but see 17 G. 2. c. 5. s. 3. VAGRANT.]

37. The surplus of the stock of any county shall, by the quarter sessions, be bestowed on such charitable uses as are limited in the statutes for the relief of the poor, and for punishment of rogues and beggars, id. s. 14.

38. The justices of peace, within any county of Eng. or Wa., shall not intrmit or enter into any city, borough, place or town corporate, where is any justice of peace for such city, &c. for the execution of this act; but the justices, mayors, and other head officers of the latter, may proceed to its execution within their liberties, shall be finable for offences committed by them, as other justices of the county at large, and may appoint any person to receive and pay such money therein; who shall do the duty, and be subject to all the penalties hereby inflicted on high constables, id. s. 15.

39. All forfeitures incurred by any treasurer or other, for any cause herein mentioned, shall be employed to the relief of such soldiers and mariners, and the overplus of the stock shall be employed as in pl. 37., except the justices think meet to keep the same in stock for relief of such soldiers, &c. as out of the same county may afterwards be appointed to receive pensions, and the relief shall be given to soldiers, &c. out of the county or place where they were pressed, so far forth as the taxation will extend; and if the whole taxation there shall be before employed, or if they are not prest-men, then out of the place where they were born or last inhabited, 3 years at their election, id. s. 16.

40. If the rate is not sufficient for relief of such soldiers and mariners, as shall be to be relieved within the city of London, the mayor, recorder and aldermen, may tax such sums for such relief as shall be convenient, so as they do not exceed 3*s.* weekly out of any parish, and so as the total sum shall not exceed or be under 12*d.* weekly out of every parish, one with another.

41. FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF MUTINY AND DESERTION, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. [NOTE. The following clauses from the mutiny act, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. have been placed here as affecting the liberty of the subject, and being of general interest; viz. those regulating the quartering, and providing carriages for troops, as well as those which prevent their sporting without leave, &c.]

42. "Whereas by the petition of right, 3 C. 1. it is declared, that the people of the land are not by law to be burdened with sojourning of soldiers against their wills;" and by 51 C. 2. c. 1. s. 54. it is enacted, "that no officer or person soever should, from thenceforth, presume to place, quarter or billet any soldier on any subject of the realm, without his consent, and that the latter may refuse to quarter him:" IT IS ENACTED, that constables, chief officers of all places, tythingmen, headboroughs, and other chief officers and magistrates, of all places in Eng., Wa. or Ber., or in their absence any one justice, living in or near the same, may quarter and billet officers and soldiers in H. M.'s service and persons receiving pay in H. M.'s army, in inns, livery-stables, ale and victualling-houses, and houses of retail sellers of British or foreign wines, to be drank in their own houses or places thereto belonging, except canteens, occupied under authority of the barrack or ordnance commissioners, and except persons keeping taverns only, being freemen of the London vintner's company, though having taken out victualling licences; and all houses of persons selling brandy, strong waters, cyder or metheglin, by retail, to be drank in their own houses, (except houses of distillers of brandy or spirits, or of shopkeepers, whose principal dealings are more in other goods than such brandy, &c., so as they do not suffer tipping in their houses), and in no other or private houses soever, nor shall any more billets at any time be ordered, than there are effective soldiers present to be quartered; all which billets, when made out by such chief magistrates and constables, shall be delivered into the hands of the commanding officer present; and if any such constable, chief officer or magistrate shall presume to billet any officer or soldier in any private house, without consent of the owner or occupier, the latter shall have remedy at law for his damage sustained thereby; and every military officer, taking on him to quarter soldiers otherwise than as by this act limited, or offering or using any menace or compulsion on any mayors, constables, or other civil officers above, tending to discourage them from performing any part of their duty above required, shall, on conviction before 2 or more justices of the county, by oath of 2 credible witnesses, be deemed ipso facto cashiered, and shall be disabled to hold any military employment in this kingdom, or in H. M.'s service: provided the conviction is affirmed at the next quarter sessions of the county, and a certificate thereof transmitted to the judge advocate in London, who is hereby obliged to certify the same to the commander-in-chief and secretary at war, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. s. 48.

43. If any person grieved by such constable, &c., chief officer or magistrate, (such chief officer or magistrate, not being a justice,) having billeted in his house a greater number of soldiers than he ought to bear, in proportion to his neighbours, shall complain thereof to one or more justices of the division, city or liberty, where the soldiers are quartered, (or if such chief officer, &c. is a justice,) then to 2 or more like justices, they may relieve him, by ordering such and so many of the soldiers to be removed, and quartered on such other person as they see cause, who shall receive them accordingly, id. ibid.

44. The constable or other person, to whom the quartering of soldiers in any place mentioned in any route on the border of any county belongs, shall billet all soldiers and their horses on march, in a just proportion on the keepers of all houses within one mile of the place mentioned in the route, though some of such houses may be in the adjoining county, as if they were locally situate in such place, and all the provisions of this act in relation to quartering soldiers, shall extend to all billets so granted, as fully as if such houses were locally situate as above; but nothing herein shall empower any constable or other person to billet soldiers out of the county to which they belong, in any case where any constable, &c. of the adjoining county is present, and undertakes to billet the due proportion of men in the latter county, id. s. 51.

45. Any 2 justices or magistrates, in their respective jurisdictions, may grant or transfer any licence for selling ale by retail, or cyder or perry, to be consumed in any house or premises where more houses or premises than one are held together by the same person, as a canteen or any licence to sell spirits, or wine or liquor by retail, to any person applying for the same, who shall hold any canteen under any lease thereof or authority from any 2 principal officers of the ordnance board, or from any 2 of the late commissioners, or from the comptroller or other proper officer of the barrack department, without regard to the time of year, or any notices or certificates required by law, in relation to applying for or granting such licences; and H. M.'s commissioners of excise in Eng., Scot. or Ire. respectively, or any person employed by them in Eng. or Ire. in that behalf, or any collectors or supervisors of excise, within their respective districts, shall also grant like licences to any such person holding any such canteen, under any such licence or transfer thereof, of any such justice, &c. as above; and any person holding such canteen, under any such lease or authority as above, and having such licences as above, may keep it, and utter and sell therein, and in the premises belonging thereto, and not elsewhere, victuals and all excisable liquors which he may sell by such excise licence, without being subject to any penalty, id. s. 52.

46. The officers, men, and horses, of H. M.'s horse or dragoons, and all bat and baggage horses of H. M.'s other forces, and all staff and field officers' horses, when on actual service, not exceeding for each officer the number for which forage is allowed by H. M.'s regulations, may be billeted in the inns and other places mentioned in s. 48., and they shall be there received and furnished with diet, small beer, and with stables, and hay and straw for such horses, paying for the same the rates established by statute, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. s. 57.

47. When any of H. M.'s horse or dragoons, or other horses are billeted on the owner of any house, subject to quartering soldiers by this act, who have no stables, then, on his complaint to 2 or more justices of the division, &c. where such horse, &c. are so billeted, and on his making such allowance in lieu of his quartering such horse, &c. as the justices think reasonable, the latter may order the men and their horses or horses only, as the case is, to be removed and quartered on some other person liable under this act, to have officers and soldiers billeted on them who have stables, and may order the above allowance to be paid by the person from whom the men and horses are removed, to or amongst those to whom they are removed, or to be applied in furnishing quarters for the reception of such men and horses as the case requires, and the justices think fit, id. s. 58.

48. In all places where horse or dragoons shall be billeted for the future, the men and their horses shall be billeted in one and the same house, except in case of necessity, and in no other case shall less than one man be billeted, where there are one or 2 horses, nor less than 2 men where there are 4 horses, and so in proportion for a greater number; and in such case, each man shall be billeted as near his horse as possible, id. s. 59.

49. The commanding officers of any regiment, troop or company, may exchange any men or horses quartered in any town or place with another man or horse quartered therein, for the benefit of the service provided the number of men and horses do not exceed the number at that time there billeted at such house; and the constables, &c., chief officers and magistrates of the cities or other places, where any regiment, &c. is quartered, shall billet such men and horses so exchanged accordingly, id. s. 60.

50. Every officer, who shall take or cause, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any money of any person for excusing the quartering of officers or soldiers, or any of them in any house allowed by this act, shall be cashiered, and be disabled to serve in any military employment, id. s. 61.

51. If any constable or other officer, who, under this act, shall billet or be employed in billeting any officers or soldiers in any part of U. K., shall neglect or refuse to billet any officer, &c. on duty, when thereto required, in manner by this act directed, provided sufficient notice be given before the arrival of such troops, or shall receive, demand, or agree for any money or reward, for excusing or in order to excuse any person from quartering any such officer or soldier, or in case any victualler or other, liable by this act, to have the latter billeted on him or her, shall refuse to receive or afford proper accommodation to, or to victual any such officer or soldier so billeted on him or her, or shall refuse to furnish or allow, according to the directions of this act, the things directed to be furnished to non-commissioned officers or soldiers so billeted, or shall not furnish good and sufficient stables, together with good and sufficient hay and straw for each horse so billeted, at the rate established by any statute in force in that respect, and shall be thereof convicted before one or more justices of the county, city or liberty, in which such offence is committed, either by confession or oath of one or more witnesses, (which oath such justice, &c. shall administer,) the offender shall forfeit for every such offence not more than 5*l.*, nor less than 40*s.*, as the justice, &c., before whom the matter is heard shall think fit, to be levied by distress and sale of the offender's goods, by warrant of such justice, &c. before whom such offender is convicted, or of one or more of them to be directed, to any other constable within the county, city or liberty, or to any overseer of the poor of the parish where the offender dwells, which penalty, when levied, shall be applied in the first place in making such satisfaction to any soldier for the expence he may have been put to, by reason of his not being billeted, as such justice shall order, and the remainder to the overseers of the poor, if in Eng., to the churchwardens, if in Ire., of the parish wherein the offence is committed, or to some one of them, for the use of the poor of such parish, id. s. 62.

52. Any one or more justices within their respective jurisdiction, in any part of the U. K., by warrant, or order under his hand and seal, may at any time command any constable or other officer, who shall billet any soldier under this act, to give an account in writing to such justice, of the number of officers and soldiers billeted by them, and also the names of the housekeepers or persons on whom every such officer or soldier is billeted, together with an account of the street or place where every such housekeeper dwells, and of the signs (if any) belonging to their houses, that it may appear to such justice, &c. where such officers and soldiers are billeted, and that he may thereby be the better enabled to prevent or punish abuses in billeting them, id. s. 63.

53. Any justice of the peace at the request of any officer or non-commissioned officer commanding any soldiers requiring billets, in any case in which it appears to such officer or justice that better accommodation can be given to the troops by extending any route, or enlarging the district, within which billets are required, may enlarge such route, and extend such billets, as is most convenient to the troops to be billeted, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. s. 64.

54. The officers and soldiers so quartered and billeted shall be received and furnished with diet and small beer, by the owners of the inns, livery stables, ale, and victualling, and other houses, in which they are allowed to be billeted by this act, paying for the same the several rates established by any statute in force in that respect, id. s. 65.

55. If any innholder, or other person, on whom any non-commissioned officer or private is quartered by this act, (except on a march, or employed in recruiting, and likewise except the recruits by them raised for 7 days at most, for such officers and soldiers who are recruiting, and the recruits by them raised,) shall be desirous to furnish such officers and soldiers with candles, vinegar, and salt, gratis, and allow them the use of fire and the necessary utensils for dressing and eating their meat, and shall give notice of such his desire to the commanding officer, and shall furnish the same accordingly, then such officer and soldiers so quartered, shall provide their own victuals and small beer, and the officer to whom it belongs to receive, or who does actually receive their pay and subsistence, shall pay them the several sums payable out of the subsistence money for their diet and small beer, and not to the innholder or other person on whom they are quartered, id. s. 66.

56. Every officer who receives the pay of subsistence money either for a whole regiment, or particular troops and companies, or otherwise, shall every 4 days, or before the troops quit their quarters, if they shall not remain so long as 4 days, settle the just demands of all persons keeping inns or other places where officers or soldiers are quartered, by virtue of this act, out of their pay and subsistence, before any part thereof is distributed to either of them, and if he shall not pay the same, then on complaint and oath made thereof by any 2 witnesses at the next quarter sessions for the county or city, where such quarters were, (which oath the sessions shall administer,) the secretary at war in Eng., and the chief or, in his absence, the under secretary for the civil department, or the first clerk in the military department in Ire., shall on certificate of the justices before whom such oath was made of the sum due on such accounts, and the persons to whom the same is owing, give orders to the agent of the troop or company to pay the said sums, and charge the same against such officer, id. s. 67.

57. Where any troop or company is suddenly ordered to march, and the commanding officer is not enabled to pay the sums due for the lodgings for the men, and stabling for the horses, he shall, before his departure, make up his account with every person with whom such troop, &c. has been quartered, and sign a certificate thereof, which account and certificate shall be transmitted to the agent of the regiment, that immediate payment may be made, which he shall make and charge to such officer's account, id. s. 68.

58. If any officer, military or civil, hereby authorized to quarter soldiers in any house hereby appointed for that purpose, shall at any time quarter any of the wives, children, men, or maid servants of any officer or soldier, in any such houses against the owners' consent, the offender, if an officer of the army, shall on conviction thereof before a general court martial be cashiered, and if a constable or other civil officer, shall forfeit to the party grieved 20s. on complaint and proof thereof, made to the next justice of peace, to be levied by warrant of such justice, by distress and sale of the offenders goods, rendering the overplus to the party, after deducting reasonable charges in taking the same, id. s. 69.

59. Any justice for the county, town, or place where any non-commissioned officer or soldier is quartered in Eng., in case the latter has either wife, or child, or children, may cause him to be summoned before him, in the town or place where he is quartered, in order to make oath of the place of their last legal settlement, (which oath such justice shall administer) and such officer, &c. shall obey such summons, and make oath accordingly, and such justice shall give an attested copy of such affidavit made before him to the person so making the same, to be by him delivered to his commanding officer, to be produced when required, which attested copy shall be at any time admitted in evidence, as to such last legal settlement before any of H. M.'s justices of peace, or at any general or quarter sessions, provided that in case any such officer or private is again summoned to swear as above, then on such attested copy of the oath by him formerly taken, being produced by him or by any other on his behalf, he shall not be obliged to take any other oath with regard to his legal settlement, but shall leave a copy of such attested copy of examination if required, id. s. 70.

59 (a). All justices of peace within their several jurisdictions, being duly required thereto by an order from H. M., or the general of his forces, or the master-general, or lieutenant-general of H. M.'s ordnance, if in Eng., Wa., or Ber., or by an order from the lord-lieutenant or other chief governor of Ire. for the time being, or from the commander of H. M.'s forces in Ire., or other person duly authorized in that behalf, shall as often as such order is brought, and shewn to one or more such justices by any officer of the corps so ordered to march, issue out his warrant to the constables in the division of the city, hundred, or place, from, through, or near, to which such regiment, detachment, troop, or company shall be ordered to march, (for each of which warrants 1s. fee only shall be paid,) requiring them to make such provision of carriages, and horses, or oxen, with able men to drive them, as is mentioned in the said warrant, allowing them sufficient time to do the same, that the neighbouring parts may not always bear the burthen, and specifying in such warrants the place or places from and to which the said carriages shall by virtue of such order be required to travel: also specifying the number of miles between the places, for which number of miles only so specified, constables may demand payment: which shall not exceed the day's march of the troops as prescribed in the order produced to the magistrates, unless in case of pressing emergency or necessity, and shall in no case whatever exceed 25 miles from the place at which the march shall commence, and in case sufficient carriages cannot be provided within any such division, &c. then the justice or justices of the next adjoining county or division, on such order as above, being shewn to one or more of them, or any of the above officers aforesaid shall issue warrant to their constables, as is most convenient for the above purposes, according to their respective jurisdictions, to make up such deficiency, and the said officers who, by virtue of the above warrant from the justices, are to demand the carriages therein mentioned of the constable to whom the warrant is directed, shall at the same time pay down in hand to him for the use of the person providing such carriages and men, the sums in s. 72. pl. 60. mentioned for which sums so received the constable shall give a receipt in writing (which need not be stamped) to the person paying the same, and shall order such persons having carriages within their respective liberties, as they think proper to provide carriages, horses, oxen, and men, according to the warrant, and they shall furnish the same; and no person owning, or driving, or causing to be driven any such waggon, cart, or other carriage, shall be subject to any penalty, nor shall such waggon, &c. be stopped by reason of any weight thereon, or of being drawn by any number of horses, &c. but the owner may put any additional number of horses, or oxen, to those prescribed or paid for under this act; and every military officer for the use of whose regiment, &c. the carriage was provided, who shall force any such waggon, &c. to travel beyond the distance specified in the magistrate's warrants, or who shall not discharge the same in due time for their return home, in the same day, if it be practicable, or who shall suffer any soldier or servant, (except such as are sick,) or any woman to ride in the waggon, &c. or who shall force any constable, or petty constable, by menacing words, to provide saddle horses for themselves or servants, or who shall force horses from the owners by themselves, servants, or soldiers, shall for every such offence forfeit 5*l.* on proof thereof, on oath, before 2 justices of peace of the same county or riding, who shall certify the same to the secretary at war in Eng., or if in Ire. to the chief or in his absence the under secretary for the civil, or the first clerk in the military department, who shall give orders for the payment of the said sum of 5*l.*, according to the order and appointment under the hand and seals of the said justices, and for deducting the same out of such officer's pay, 1 & 2 G. 4. s. 9. s. 71.

60. The sums to be paid into the hands of such constables in Eng., Wa., and Ber. shall be these; viz. 1s. per mile travelled by a waggon with 4 or more horses, or with 6 oxen, or 4 oxen with 2 horses; 9*d.* per mile, travelled by any waggon with narrow wheels, or any cart with 4 horses respectively, or carrying not less than 15 cwt and the sum of 6*d.* for every mile travelled by any cart or other carriage, with less than 4 horses, and not carrying 15 cwt., and any sum not exceeding 4*d.* for every mile travelled by any waggon with 4 or more horses, or with 6 oxen, or with 4 oxen and 2 horses, and not exceeding 2*d.* for every mile, any cart or carriage with less than 4 horses, and not carrying 15 cwt., as the same shall be fixed by the justices for the county or district, assembled at any general sessions for the same, they having regard to the price of hay and oats at the time of fixing such additional rates; provided that where the day's march exceeds 15 miles, such further compensation shall be paid in like manner to the owners of the carriages, as is deemed reasonable by the magistrates who granted the warrant for impressing them, not exceeding the usual rate and hire thereof, provided that every order of sessions fixing any further sum to be paid for the hire of carriages, in addition to the customary rates of 1s., 9*d.* and 6*d.* per mile respectively, shall specify the period for which it shall be in force, and which shall not in any case exceed 10 days beyond the general sessions of the peace for such county, or district, next ensuing the date of such order; and a copy of every such order signed by the chairman, or presiding magistrate, and one other justice, or magistrate of the quarter sessions at which the same is made, shall, within 3 days after its making, be transmitted to the secretary at war, and no such order shall be valid, unless a copy thereof be so signed and transmitted; provided also, that in every such case the justice granting or signing the warrant shall insert in his own hand the amount of such increased rate for such description of carriage, as so authorized by the quarter sessions, and each warrant shall be given to the officer or non-commissioned officer commanding the corps requiring such carriages, as his voucher for the payment of such increased rate, and no such increased rate shall be demanded but those so inserted by the justice in the warrant, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. s. 72.

61. Any constable duly authorized for that purpose, by warrant under the hand and seal of any justice of peace residing nearest to any place specified in the route, may make and give orders for providing carriages for the baggage of soldiers on march, and may appoint persons, having carriages within their jurisdiction, to furnish them without having any special warrant for that purpose, and all which orders shall be valid; provided, that every such justice shall, at the time of giving such warrant and authority, and thereafter once in each year, or oftener if necessary, cause a list or lists to be made out, of all persons liable to furnish such carriages under such warrant, and of the number and description of carriages belonging to them, respectively; which list, shall at all reasonable hours be open to the inspection of all persons whose names shall be inserted therein; and all orders and appointments for such carriages shall be made and taken from such lists in regular rotation, as far as can be done, so as that the providing such carriages shall be equally distributed among the several persons liable to furnish them under this act, id. s. 73.

62. H. M., or the lord lieutenant, or chief governor in Ire., by order, distinctly stating, that a case of emergency exists, which makes it necessary to provide proper means for conveyance of the soldiers themselves, as well as their arms and baggage, signified by the war secretary, if in Eng., or if in Ire. by the chief or in his absence by the under secretary for the civil, or by the first clerk in the military department for the time being, to any general or field officer commanding H. M.'s forces, in any district or place, or to the agent for the supply of stores and provisions at home, or person acting as such, by writing under his hand, reciting such order of H. M., or lord lieutenant, or chief governor aforesaid, may require all justices of peace within their several counties, &c. in Eng., Ire., Wa., and Ber., to issue his or their warrants for any of the following purposes; which justice, &c., when such requisition in writing is brought, and shewn to any one or more of them, by the quarter-master, adjutant, or other officer of the regiment, &c., so ordered to be conveyed, or by any officer in commissariat, shall issue his warrant to the high or petty constables of the county, city, &c. through, near, or to which, such troops are so ordered to be conveyed, requiring them to make such provisions, not only of waggons, carts, and cars, kept by any person, and for any use soever, but also of saddle horses, coaches, chaises, and other 4 wheeled carriages, usually let to hire, or kept for that purpose; and also of boats, barges, and other vessels, used for the carriage of coals, stone, lime, manure, or of any other articles soever, upon any canal or navigable river, with able men and horses, to drive, navigate, and draw the same, as shall be mentioned in the said warrant or warrants, therein specifying the place or distance to which such horses, carriages, other vessels and men, shall go and be conveyed; and allowing such constables sufficient time to make such provision, that the neighbouring parts may not always bear the burthen; and in case sufficient horses, carriages, vessels and men, cannot be provided within any such county, &c., then the next justice or justices of the next county, division, city, &c. shall, upon like requisition in writing brought to any one or more of them, by any of the said officers, issue warrants to the constables of such next county, city, or division, &c. for the purposes last aforesaid, to make up such deficiency; and the officers, who by virtue of the said warrant from the justice, are to demand carriages, horses, and vessels, of the constables to whom the warrant is directed, shall at the same time pay down in hand to the said constable for the use of the persons who shall provide such carriages, &c. and men, such reasonable sum of money as the justice shall by his said warrant direct, not exceeding the usual rate and hire of such carriages, horses, or vessels, in each particular case, but making no allowance for post-horse duty, or turnpike, canal, river, or lock tolls, (which duty or tolls are hereby declared not to be demandable or payable in such cases, for any carriages, horses, and vessels, whilst employed in such service, or returning therefrom, for which said respective sums, so received, the said constable shall give a receipt in writing (without stamp) to the person paying the same, and shall order such persons having such horses, carriages, or vessels and men within their respective liberties, as they think proper, to provide the same according to the warrant, who shall so provide the same; and every military officer for the use of whom, or of whose regiment, &c. such horses, carriages, or vessels are provided, in such cases may carry on the same, not only the arms, clothes, accoutrements, baggage, tents, and other equipage of such corps, but also the officers, soldiers, servants, women, children, and other persons, belonging to the same; but if any officer shall force any horse, carriage, or vessel, to proceed beyond the distance or place specified in such warrant, without the special licence of one or more such justice in that behalf, (which licence, one or more such justices may give at discretion,) he shall forfeit 5*l.* for every such offence, proof thereof being made on oath before 2 justices of the same county, &c., who shall certify the same to the secretary at war, or if in Ire. to the chief or in his absence the under secretary for the civil, or the first clerk in the military department, who shall give order for payment of such 5*l.* according to the order under the hands and seals of the said justices, and for deducting the same out of such officer's pay, 1 & 2 G. 4. c. 9. s. 75.

63. But no waggon or carriage impressed by authority of this act, shall be liable to carry above 30 cwt., id. s. 76.

64. If any constable shall wilfully neglect, or refuse to execute any warrants of justices of peace directed to them, for providing carriages, horses, and vessels, as above, or shall demand or receive for the use of the owners furnishing such carriages, [vessels not named here], more than the rates above allowed, respectively; or if any person appointed by such constable, to provide any carriage, man, horse, or vessel, shall refuse or neglect to provide the same, or if he, or any other person shall wilfully do any thing whereby the execution of such warrant shall be hindered, the offender shall for every such offence, forfeit not more than 5*l.*, nor less than 40*s.*, to the use of the poor of such parish, or parishes adjoining to that parish where such offence shall be committed, as shall be fixed on by the justice by whom such offence shall be determined; and every such offence may be heard and finally determined by any justice dwelling in or near the place where such offence is committed, who may cause the penalty to be levied by distress and sale of offender's goods, rendering him the overplus, id. s. 80.

65. All H. M.'s officers and soldiers, and their horses, on duty or march, and all carriages and horses belonging to H. M., or employed in his service, when conveying the officers, soldiers, &c. or other persons belonging to H. M.'s forces, or their arms, baggage, and other equipage, or any ordnance, barrack, commissariat, or other public stores of H. M., for the use of H. M.'s forces, or returning therefrom, shall be exempt from payment of any duties and tolls, otherwise demandable by virtue of any statute, for persons, horses, carriages, or any baggage of any troops embarking or disembarking from, or upon any landing place, or passing turnpike roads, or bridges, unless by such act it is expressly provided, that the said officers, soldiers, carriages, and horses, are liable equally with others, to the duties and tolls therein authorized to be demanded; but nothing herein shall exempt from payment of tolls, any vessels employed in conveying officers, soldiers, or other persons of or belonging to H. M.'s forces, or their arms, baggage, and equipage, or any military stores, along any canal; which shall pay toll as other vessels, id. s. 83.

66. "Whereas the sums of money in pl. 60. appointed to be paid to the constables by the officers demanding such carriages, horses, or vessels, may not, in many cases, be sufficient to answer the expence of providing the same," the treasurer of each county or riding shall, without fee, pay to such constable all and every such reasonable sum or sums of money so by him paid for the same, out of the public stock of such county, &c. according to such rates as the quarter sessions shall, from time to time appoint, such order being made without fee, regard being always had to the season of year and the length and condition of the ways by which such carriages, horses, and vessels are to pass, id. s. 84.

67. If the public stock of the county or riding is not sufficient above the other purposes for which it was raised to satisfy the extraordinary charge of carriages, horses, and other vessels above mentioned, the general quarter sessions may, from time to time, raise monies upon the respective counties or ridings, as they now raise monies for county gaols and bridges, to satisfy such extraordinary charges, id. s. 85.

68. Every officer or soldier who shall, without leave of the lord of the manor, under his hand and seal first obtained, take, kill, or destroy any hare, coney, pheasant, partridge, pigeon, or any other sort of fowls, poultry, or fish, or game, within the U. K., and who, on complaint thereof, shall be, on oath of one or more witnesses, convicted before any justice or justices of peace shall, for every such offence, forfeit 5*l.* to be distributed among the poor of the place where such offence is committed; and every officer commanding in chief on the place, for every such offence is committed by any soldier under his command, shall forfeit 20*s.* to be paid and distributed as above; and if on conviction made by the justices of peace, and demand thereof also made by the constable or overseers of the poor, such officer shall refuse or neglect, and does not within 2 days pay the respective penalties, he shall forfeit his commission, and the same is hereby declared void, id. s. 89.

69. TO AUTHORIZE THE ALLOWING OFFICERS TO RETIRE ON HALF PAY, or other allowances under certain restrictions, 51 G. 3. c. 103.

70. H. M. may allow any officer, who would be entitled on the reduction of his corps or of his commission to half pay, and who shall become unfit for service, either from wounds, ill health, infirmity, or age, to be certified to the secretary at war, as in s.3. pl.72. such officer shall thereupon be allowed to retire, though his regiment or commission shall not be reduced, and may allow any officer, removed from the permanent staff of the quarter master general, to have half pay of his rank at the time of his removal, 51 G.2. c.103. s.1.

71. H. M. may allow any officer in any veteran battalion, or any officer, who by length of service or otherwise, would be entitled to be transferred to a veteran battalion, who shall be incapable of serving in the latter, for the reasons in s.1. pl.70. to be certified to the secretary at war, as in s.3. next pl., and he shall thereupon be allowed to retire on the full pay of the commission which he then held, id. s.2.

72. The secretary at war and the treasury may direct the form and nature of the certificates to be given by medical men, in relation to officers applying to retire on half pay (as in s.1.) or full pay from any veteran battalion (as in s.2.), provided it be stated therein whether the officer is rendered wholly incapable of serving for life or for only a temporary period, with the other particulars required, which certificates shall be registered at the war office, and an account of the officers so allowed to retire each year shall be laid before parliament, id. s.3.

SOUTH SEA COMPANY.

(STATUTES expired.)

1. TO ENABLE H.M. to be governor of the South Sea company, 4 G.1. c.2. 1 G.2. St.1. c.2. 1 G.3. c.5. [ALL EXP. See the present act, 1 G.4. c.2. post, pl.55.]

2. FOR RESTRAINING THE SUB-GOVERNOR, DEPUTY GOVERNOR, directors, treasurer, or cashier, deputy cashier, and accountant of the South Sea company from going out of the kingdom for one year, and for recovering their estates and effects, and for preventing the transporting or alienating the same, 7 G.1. St.1. c.1. [EXP.]

3. TO DISABLE THE PRESENT SUB-GOVERNOR, DEPUTY GOVERNOR, and directors of the South Sea company from the times of electing in a new sub-governor, &c. to take, hold, or enjoy any office, place, or employment in such company, or in the East India company, or Bank of Eng., and from voting upon elections in such company, 7 G.1. St.1. c.2. [EXP.]

4. FOR RAISING MONEY ON THE ESTATES OF THE LATE sub-governor, deputy governor, directors, cashiers, deputy cashier, and accountant of the South Sea company, and of John Aislaby, Esq. and likewise James Craggs, sen. Esq. deceased, towards making good the great loss and damage sustained by such company, and for disabling such of such persons as are living, to hold any office or place of trust under the crown, or to sit or vote in parliament for the future, and for other purposes in the said act expressed, 7 G.1. St.1. c.28. [EXP. Made a PUBLIC act, 9 G.1. c.23. s.14.]

5. TO ENABLE THE South Sea COMPANY TO DISPOSE OF THE effects in their hands by way of lottery or subscription, or to sell part of their fund or annuity, payable at the exchequer, in order to pay the debts of such company, and for relief of such who were intended to have the benefit of 7 G.1. St.2. touching payment of 10l. per cent. therein mentioned, 8 G.1. c.21. [EXP.]

6. FOR PROLONGING THE TIMES FOR HEARING and determining claims before the trustees, in whom the estates of the late South Sea directors and of 2 others are vested, and for other purposes, 8 G.1. c.23., 9 G.1. c.23., 10 G.1. c.14., 13 G.1. c.22. [ALL EXP.]

7. TO ENABLE THE South Sea company, with the licence and consent of the East India company, to take in negroes within their limits of trade, and to deliver the same at Buenos Ayres, 15 G.1. c.8. [EXP. Slave trade abolished, 47 G.3. S.1. c.36.]

8. TO DISCHARGE the trustees appointed by 7 G.1. St.1. c.28. (for raising money on the estates of the late directors of the South Sea company and others) of their trusts, and to vest in such company such of the estates which were vested in such trustees, and as remain undisposed of, as also the produce of such estates and effects as have been disposed of by such trustees, 2 G.2. c.8. [EXP.]

(STATUTES in force.)

1. FOR ERECTING A CORPORATION to carry on trade to the South Seas, and for the encouragement of the fishery, 9 A. c.21. ss.24—61. [The South Sea Company Con. for ever, notwithstanding the capital stock shall be redeemed, 10 A. c.30. REP. as to so much as vests in the South Sea Company the exclusive privilege of trading to and from South America, &c., 47 G.3. S.1. c.23., and their exclusive privileges entirely ABOLISHED, 55 G.3. c.57. pl.37.]

2. Upon one year's notice, upon repayment by parliament of the principal sum of which the capital stock of the intended company shall consist, and of all arrears of the annuities hereby granted, the duties hereby appropriated may be disposed of by parliament, and the said yearly fund charged thereupon shall cease, 9 A. c.21. s.24.

3. H. M., by letters patent, may incorporate all persons intitled to any of the public debts, deficiencies, or sums of money provided for by this act, with power to choose their governor, directors, and other officers; and the persons so incorporated shall be capable in law to purchase and retain, to them and their successors, lands and hereditaments not exceeding the yearly value of 1000*l., id. s.25.*

4. H. M., by such letters patent, or by commission under the great seal, may direct how the tallies or debentures, provided for by this act, and the money intended to be made part of the capital stock of the said corporation, shall be subscribed into or made part of the capital stock; and also how the officers of the exchequer may know how much the capital stock of the company doth consist of, that the officers may know whether they are to pay to the cashier of the company the whole annual sum of 568,279*l. 10s.,* or only a proportionable part, id. s.26.

5. Regulations as to certain debts due from the navy, victualling, transport, and ordnance boards and commissioners, being deemed part of the capital stock of such company for the use of the public, 9 A. c.21. s.27—33. [seem EXP. Government allowed to borrow money on this stock, 10 A. c.19. s.185.]

6. If it appears that the joint stock of the company shall amount to more than 9,471,325*l.* so that the annuity for the same shall amount to more than 568,279*l. 10s.,* then there shall be added to such annual sum so much more as shall make the same amount to 6*l. per cent. per ann.* upon the whole capital stock, and such additional annuity shall be chargeable upon such funds, 9 A. c.21. s.34.

7. Over and above the said annual sum, there shall be paid to the company the further annual sum of 8000*l.* for charge of management out of the same funds, id. s.35.

8. H. M. by any commission, or letters patent under the great seal, may direct how the shares of persons in the stock of the company shall be transferable to such persons as shall freely and voluntarily accept of the same; and all transferences made in such manner, and no other, shall be good in law, id. s.36.

9. The estates and stock of the company, and the shares of each member therein, shall be personal and not real estate, and shall go to executors or administrators, and not to the heirs, id. s.37.

10. The annuities issuing out of such yearly fund, or the shares of any members of the company in the capital stock of the same, or in the benefit of trade to be annexed thereto, or the stock or money to be raised for that purpose, shall be exempted from taxes, id. s.38.

11. Guardians of infants, holding orders, bills, &c., and executors and administrators, trustees or mortgagees, who shall be possessed of or entitled to any such orders, bills, &c., shall subscribe the same to the joint stock of such company, 9 A. c.21. ss.39, 40. [seem EXP.]

12. How bills, &c. coming into H. M.'s hands by extent, &c. and belonging to several persons jointly, shall be put into such joint stock, id. s.41.

13. No member of the company shall, in respect of his being a member, governor, or director, or having any stock therein, be disabled from being a member of parliament, or liable to be a bankrupt; and no stock in the company shall be liable to foreign attachment, id. s.42.

14. The corporation shall not borrow, owe, or take up, any money on their bills or notes payable on demand, or at any less time than 6 months; nor discount bills or notes, or keep books or notes for any persons other than the books or notes of the corporation, id. s.43.

15. Such yearly fund shall (under the penalties aforesaid) be issued at the receipt of exchequer to the company, and the payment thereof shall be made weekly, so as by such payments the whole of the annuities due to the company at the end of any quarter, be not exceeded, id. s.44.

16. The corporation to be erected shall have for ever the sole trade to and from all places of America, on the east side thereof, from the river of Aranoco to the southernmost part of the Terra del Fuego; and on the west side thereof, from the southernmost part of the Terra del Fuego through the South Seas, to the northernmost part of America; and to all places within the said limits, reputed to belong to the crown of Spain, or which shall hereafter be discovered, not exceeding 300 leagues from the continent of America, between the southernmost part of Terra del Fuego and the northernmost part of America on the west side (except the kingdom of Brazil, and such other places on the east side of America as are in possession of the crown of Portugal, and the country of Surinam in the possession of the States General) it being intended that it may be lawful for all the subjects of H. M. to trade to any part on the east side of America, now in the possession of the crown of Portugal, or the States General, id. s.46. [See post, s.58. pl.24. and 55 G.3. c.57. s.1. pl.36.]

17. So much of 9 A. c.21. s.46. pl.19. as hath vested in the South Sea

Company the sole and exclusive trade and traffic, into, unto, and from all places, havens, creeks, and territories, which shall or may hereafter be under the dominion of H. M. on the east side of America, from the river Aranoco to the most southern part of the Terra del Fuego, and on the west side of America, from the southernmost part of Terra del Fuego through the South Seas to the northernmost part of America, and powers and privileges given to such company for carrying on such trade, and all penalties by such act enacted for securing the same, and preventing the traffic of H. M.'s subjects there, shall be REP. from 17th Sept. 1806, 47 G. 3. S. 1. c. 23. [See their exclusive privileges entirely abolished, and an equivalent given, 55 G. 3. c. 57. pl. 36.]

18. H. M., by her charter of incorporation, may empower the company to make laws for the good government of the said trade, and to inflict punishments by imprisonments, mulcts, fines, and amercements, for breaches thereof; and to levy such mulcts, &c. to the use of the company, 9 A. c. 21. s. 48.

